

The Women's District of Columbia Golf Association

THE SHARON L. BRIGGS AWARD FOR DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

NOMINATION FORM

This award represents the highest honor conferred by the Women's District of Columbia Golf Association. Instituted in 2002 by the Women's District of Columbia Golf Association, The Sharon L. Briggs Award for Distinguished Service, is given periodically to an individual who has made an extraordinary contribution to the advancement of golf. It honors the person who has worked unselfishly to promote the best aspects of the game.

Named for the late Sharon Briggs, a championship golfer from Montgomery Village Country Club, the award recognizes the attributes that Sharon exhibited so admirably throughout her life: selfless dedication to the betterment of the game, generous service to the golf community, appreciation for the ways in which the game can help others, and an exemplary sense of sportsmanship and fair play, both on and off the course.

Nominations should be submitted to the WDCGA Executive Committee [the officers], whose decision is final. Any man or woman, amateur or professional, is eligible for consideration. However, no member of the WDCGA Executive Committee may be nominated. The award will be presented at the Annual Assembly in November.
