Smaller Fields Slated For 22 WDGA Events

The same 22 clubs which made up the Women's District Golf Association last year will compete in the 1979 schedule, but the fields for each tournament will be trimmed down slightly with a capping of individual memberships.

All the 5 handicapers were lopped off the new rolls. The latest number of women registering for 1979 with handicaps of 21 or less was 42. This number should increase when more quality under the new limit this spring, but the total membership probably won't reach the 219 figure which prevailed at the end of last season.

Broken down by classes, there are 23 members in Class A with handicaps up to 21, 33 in Class B from 22 through 27, 19 in Class C with handicaps of 28 or 29, and 194 in Class D with handicaps of 30 and 31.

Only notable change in the WDGA schedule for 1979 will be an increased field for the third annual two-lady best ball tournament at Woodmont. A maximum of 128 women will be allowed to play Woodmont June 19, or almost twice the field which competed last year in the increasingly popular event.

The schedule:
April 16-17: WDGA team matches at all
May 5-6: Class A Stableford Cup at Chevy Chase
May 11-12: Class B Stableford Cup at Woodmont
May 18-19: Class C Stableford Cup at Bethesda
June 1-2: WDGA Championship at Davidson
June 15-16: Class B Stableford Cup at Beverly Hills
June 22-23: Class A Stableford Cup at Bethesda
July 6-7: Class C Stableford Cup at Greenspring
July 13-14: WDGA Stableford Cup at Chevy Chase
July 20-21: WDGA Stableford Cup at Bethesda
August 10-11: Class D Stableford Cup at Beverly Hills
August 17-18: WDGA Stableford Cup at Bethesda
August 24-25: WDGA Stableford Cup at Davidson
August 30-31: WDGA Stableford Cup at Greenspring

WDGA Considers Canceling Series

After three postponements because of bad weather, the Women's District Golf Association is considering dropping its entire spring team-match elimination series. A decision should be made during the weekend.

The fourth division matches were played yesterday at Bethesda Country Club despite the rain, but the other three divisions were postponed. The featured first division match at Army Navy were rescheduled for May 28. No new dates have been set for the second and third divisions.

In the fourth division matches at Bethesda, CC of Fairfax defeated Arggie 6-3, Washington GCC bested Mander 7-2, and Congressional got by Prince Georges 6½-3½.

Please note enclosed report of Teams Meeting held in May 1970; this contains suggestions to 1971 Team Play.
On Wednesday, May 27, 1970, at 10:00 a.m., a meeting of WDGA Team Representatives was held at Bethesda Country Club. The following Clubs were represented: Argyle, Army-Navy, Bethesda, Brooke Manor, Columbia, Congressional, Montgomery Village, Norbeck, Washington and Woodmont.

An open discussion was held as to suggestions for improvement or change in team play for the future. The following items were proposed for consideration:

I. Begin matches later in the spring, planning to play two times a week for three weeks, and once a week for one week (Keefor Cup week)

II. Have divisions of five teams each, instead of seven, so that each team would play only 4 matches instead of 6.

III. Begin matches at 9:00 a.m. instead of 9:30, to clear the courses earlier for the men.

IV. Play team matches in the fall, after school recesses.

A. Points in favor of fall play --

1. Weather more stable
2. Players' handicaps more true
3. Courses more readily available for original and re-scheduling dates
4. Better teams could be fielded after summer play

B. Problems to fall play --

1. Teams would have to be submitted with summer handicaps (August at the latest)
2. Matches could not be listed in the WDGA Budget Book
3. Conflicts with club championships and Virginia-Carolina team play
4. Golf courses are being worked on

V. Have separate Virginia and Maryland matches and have winners play off.

A. It was mentioned that this could be inadequate as there are more Maryland than Virginia Clubs.

VI. Change the matches to the elimination type (as the men conduct theirs)

A. Procedures could be as follows:

1. Eight (8) teams in a division - could also be 6 in the last division

2. Four (4) teams qualify on 2 separate courses same day - combined gross scores of teams determines placement for position. No teams would qualify at their own club. For example: Division I teams could qualify at Division II courses.

3. Once a team is defeated, it would be eliminated from further play. This would make for a ½ day team play in an 8-team division.

Aside from the discussion for changing the matches, it was strongly recommended that all Clubs:

A. Insure that proper directions are posted (or have monitors on the course) to direct players.

B. Make sure that the men club-members understand that a WGA event is in progress so that they will be courteous and forbearing to the girls playing in their way, especially with respect to the last brackets in the last matches being played, and do not expect to "play through" or hurry the girls in any way.

One thing was unanimously resolved -- that the Team Captains meeting, usually scheduled for February, be held in late November so that these suggestions might be duly considered and acted upon before any major club and WGA schedules are in the works for 1971.

Please consider these suggestions carefully, as major team changes are being proposed. READ - TALK - DISCUSS - with your members between now and November so that the opinions expressed by your team captains will reflect those of your Club.

Respectfully submitted,

Indian Spring Captures 2nd in Women's Golf

Country Club of Fairfax rallied to defeat Indian Spring 5-4 yesterday at Indian Navy, but Indian Spring still took second place in the first division of the Women's District Golf Association team matches.

Army Navy, which was idle yesterday, clinched first place a week earlier by totaling 45 points. Indian Spring carried 2 points into the final day and clinched second when Mrs. William Weitzen and Mrs. Ben Frankfurth won 21 points in the No. 1 foursome.

Kenwood started five points behind Indian Spring and lost any chance for second when it was trounced 18-0 by Argyle. Bethesda defeated Manor 6-3 in the other match at Army Navy.

Army Navy also won the second division, an honor it had clinched at least a tie for last week. The third and fourth division finished last week.

Indian Spring Takes Early Lead in WDGA

The fourth division team showed it could be done Thursday, as yesterday's seed diversity of the Women's District Golf Association — after three postponements because of weather — finally got on the golf courses. They found out the A division, at least in the first division.

Army Navy, which has won the first division five of the last six years, picked up new division champion Kenwood 64, Country Club can be the same store over Bethesda, and Indian Spring took the first round with a 57 victory over Manor, another new entry in the top bracket, in the matches at Argyle.

Bethesda was runner-up by Army Navy last year but clearly is suffering from the absence of Mr. John Call and Mrs. Frank Leg. Mrs. James Woole and Mrs. William Knepper, an established twosome, won Bethesda's only three points in the usually strong CT of Fairfax.

Fairfax had the early lead in the fourth division, only group to show through last Thursday's rain, with 15 points after a 10'

Army Navy Women Near Golf Title

Army Navy Country Club took a giant stride toward a successful title defense in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Kenwood Country Club, shutting out Argyle, 80.

The Virginia service club now has a total of 37 points and needs only a tie with Indian Spring Tuesday to clinch the title.

Army Navy spent pace with an 84-1 victory over Bethesda. Indian Spring could win its first title by upsetting Army Navy in the service club's final match and winning its other remaining match. In yesterday's other match, Fairfax edged Manor, 54. Re-

Indiana Spring Lifts Lead in Ladies' Golf

A surprising Indian Spring Country Club team increased its lead to two points after two rounds in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Bethesda Country Club.

Indian Spring defeated Kenwood, 81, for a total of 38 points for the two rounds. Defending champion Army Navy moved into second place by routing the Country Club of Fairfax, 72.

In the other championship division match, Manor edged Argyle, 64. Bethesda, as the host club, drew a second-round bye.

Indian Spring Women Maintain Slim Lead

Indian Spring Country Club climbs to its slim lead in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Manor Club, defeating Argyle, 54.

Indian Spring went into yesterday's fourth round with a two-point lead over Army Navy, defending champion, but the service club reduced the count to one by polishing off Bethesda, 63.

In the other match, Kenwood surprised the Country Club of Fairfax, 84. Manor drew a bye.

Indian Spring now has 20 points and Army Navy 18. The Country Club of Fairfax had a chance to get back in the thick of the battle but its unexpected defeat yesterday put the Virginia club eight points off the pace.

Mrs. Chapman, 67, Leads Keefer Cup

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Roger A. Chapman of Army Navy Country Club took a whopping eight-stroke lead after the first round of the 36-hole Keefer Cup tournament yesterday at Chevy Chase Club with a net round of 67. The Virginia service club golfer was the only one in the field of 58 who broke 80 over the long, windswept course. The 1953, 1964 and 1965 Army Navy club champion was out in 37 and back in 42 for a gross 79.

Mrs. Chapman started her round with a double-bogey six at one and a bogey five at two but then birdied the third and eighth holes from four feet to be only one over women's par at the turn.

Mrs. Chapman, who has a 12-stroke handicap, ran after a triple-bogey seven at 15 and finished the easier back nine in a seven-over par score. She goes into today's final round with the edge over Mrs. T. J. Verell of Belle Haven.

Mrs. Verell was 44-67 and used a 12-stroke handicap for a net 75. Four players finished tied for third with nets of 78. They were Mrs. Frank Pakeman, Kensington; Mrs. Jim Cone, Bethesda; Mrs. Harley, Mac Cartney, Chevy Chase; Mrs. John Doddie, Prince Georges, and Mrs. Victor Ottenstein, Woodmont.

Mrs. Robert Andereck of Springfield was the only other player to finish with a net under 80. The Virginia club player had a gross 92 and used a 13-stroke handicap to win up with a net 79. Scoring and pairings for today's final round:

ROMP IN KEEFER CUP

Mrs. Chapman Opens Season With Flourish

By Dick Slay

Like the Women's District Golf Association's other monthly events, the Keefer Cup is a handicap tournament, and the other contestants really didn't have much chance after Mrs. Roger Chapman shot that stunning 79-67 in Wednesday's wind-blows opening round.

When she shot 43 on the front nine yesterday it closed all the doors. Mrs. Chapman gummed up the 18th hole with a triple-bogey but came in at 47 for 80, a net 75 and a twoday total of 154 which won by six strokes.

It was the second successive year that an Army Navy Country Club player won the annual season opener on the WDGA calendar. Mrs. Chapman succeeded Jackie Evans, who won a year ago with 146-69 and turned professional at the end of 1963.

Mrs. John Daddie of Prince Georges OC knew she was playing for second place with her 3-handicap, but she took great satisfaction yesterday in pairing around the course in 43-31-70 to take the low gross prize with 107 for 38 holes. This won low gross by 17 shots, despite four straight bogeys out of the bunkers on the front nine.

Mrs. Daddie's round was the lowest of the two-day tournament and only two under par. Closest to her yesterday were the 66 by Mrs. Victor Ottenstein of Woodmont and Mrs. Joseph Smith of Congressmen. Mrs. Ottenstein matched out.

Army Navy Golfer Wins Keefer Cup

By Mary Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Roger A. Chapman's second round was 11 strokes higher than her first but the Army Navy Country Club golfer still won the annual Keefer Cup tournament yesterday at Chevy Chase Club with strokes to spare.

She took an eight-stroke first round lead Wednesday with a net 67. Yesterday, Mrs. Chapman scored 90-127 to win with a 36-hole net score of 151.

Mrs. John Daddie of Prince Georges OC finished second with 151 but elected to take first low gross with 137. She posted 76, low round of the tournament yesterday.

Cards Match Breaks Tie

Second net ended up in a tie at 100 but Mrs. Victor Ottenstein's 48-52 was 1/2 strokes lower than Mrs. Robert Andereck's 50-50. Mrs. Verell matched at 48-52.

WIND TROUBLEsome

Keefer Lead Held By Mrs. Chapman

By Dick Slay

The forecast was for calmer weather today, but what the other contestants in the Keefer Cup needed is something to erase Mrs. Roger Chapman's first-round.

Mrs. Chapman, one of the long-hitting ladies from Army Navy Country Club, brought 90 at Chevy Chase Club yesterday for the first time in more than a season trips as she posted a net 79-72-151.

None of the other 54 starters could cope as well with the high winds and the result was an eight-stroke lead for Mrs. Chapman entering today's second and final round. She can almost play happy golf around the course 63-35-71 and course in.

Mrs. T. J. Verell of Belle Haven was second with 77-10-77, three shots better than a group of five at net 75. Included in the group was the latter was Mrs. John Daddie of Prince Georges, whose 37-44-35 was the second best gross score of the day. It was her first 18 at the course.

Several prominent entries failed to survive the out, which was made at the low 29 score and first. Missing among Rebecca Dornan, the 1967 champion from Argyle,
Mrs. Cone Cards 76, Wins Medal in District Qualifying

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer
Mrs. Jay Cone took up yesterday at Indian Spring where she left off Saturday at Tastallon.

Mrs. Cone won the women's Maryland state amateur championship last week. Yesterday, John Daddio, of Prince George's, who lost to Mrs. Cone in the Maryland final.

Several prominent golfers signed up for the Bethesda Club star-carried off the qualifying medal, with 76, in the Women's District Golf Association Champions.

Putting twice nines of 38 on the Big Chief course at Indian Spring, Mrs. Cone finished two strokes ahead of Mrs. Wilson. In a trap and took a double-bogey six.

Three Break 80

The only other player in the field to break 80 over the par 36-36-71 course was Mrs. Frank Cuth of Argyle. The two-time titlist was 79.

Mrs. N. J. Looney of Army Navy, defending champion, accepted automatic qualifying status and did not compete for the medal. The service club golfer will play Mrs. Dick Wilson, wife of the Lakewood Country Club professional, in today's opening match-play round. Mrs. Wilson qualified with 83.

Mrs. Cone's first-round opponent will be Rebecca Doman of Argyle. Miss Doman, 1967 Maryland State titlist, earned her position in the championship flight with an 82.

Four Players Tie

Four players tied, at 85, for the 18th and 18th qualifying positions, creating a playoff. Mrs. Paul Dean of Brookl Manor won the 18th place with a par on the 18th hole and Mrs. Lloyd Demers of Washington took the other place with a bogey five.

Cheryl Emsrich of Brookl Manor and Mrs. Robert Dun of Argyle took double-bogey sixes. Miss Emsrich three putted from 15 feet. Starting times, pairings and scores for the championship flight:

Ex-Champion Upset Victim In State Golf

Rebecca Doman of Argyle probably was not expecting to meet her final opponent of two years ago in today's quarterfinal round of the Maryland State Golf Association women's championship at Tallalln.

However, Joann Winchester, the 1967 champion who lost to Miss Doman in the '69 finals, was routed by Congressional's Nina Crampton 1-up in a startling upset yesterday in the opening round. It marked the elimination of all three qualifiers from the Baltimore area.

Miss Doman began the first round by breezing by Mrs. Vernon Kelly of Baltimore 5 and 2, scoring two more par for the 36 holes. Mrs. William Welton of Indian Spring added a mild upset with her 2-and-1 triumph over Marlo Mae Kempe from Green Spring Valley, who was a 360 semifinalist.

Mrs. John Daddio of Prince George's was seven over par, but got by Manor's Mrs. Murphy Good 5 and 4. Mrs. J. C. Birkett of Army Navy defeated Mr. M. C. Stanford of Tallallon 5 and 2. Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda ousted Faith Clark of Argyle 7 and 6. Mrs. Frank Cuth of Argyle eliminated Mrs. Robert Thierner of the host club 8 and 7.

Today's pairings and Miss Doman against Miss Crampton, Mrs. Daddio against Mrs. Zilker, Mrs. Welton against Mrs. Cone and Mrs. Emsrich against Mrs. Joseph were Congressional, who received a first-round bye. Mrs. Winchester, who won her Maryland title three years ago on the home course at Rolling Road Club, was 5-down after 11. She closed the gap, but then lost to Miss Crampton's bogey-4 on the final hole.
Mrs. Cone Wins Golf At Tantallon

By Nancy Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Nina Crampson of Congressional Country Club pulled off the only major upset in the opening match play rounds of the women's Maryland State amateur golf championship yesterday at Tantallon Country Club.

The former Congressional club champion won the 10th hole with a bogey to eliminate Joan Winchester, 1967 champion from Rolling Road Club, 3 and 1.

Miss Crampson, who plays medalist Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor in today's second round, was out in 41 and 2 up. After increasing her advantage to three holes through 11, Miss Crampson frittered away her lead and was even going to the last hole.

Miss Doman, champion in 1956 and runner-up last year, made quick work of Mrs. Vernon Kelly of Baltimore Country Club, 8 and 7. The Brooke Manor club sire was three over par for the 11 holes.

Mrs. William Winterson, club tillist at Indian Spring, won a 2 and 1 victory over Margaret McKinzie of Baltimore's Elkridge Club. Mrs. Winterson, who plays Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda in the second round, said she didn't play particularly well but was satisfied with the improvement over Tuesday's qualifying round of 88.

Mrs. Cone advanced at the expense of Faith Clark of Argyle, 7 and 6. She was five over par for the round.

Mrs. Frank Cuth, seeking a fourth title, was four over par in eliminating Mrs. Robert Thurman of the host club, 8 and 7.

Results:
1st round: Elena D'Amato, Brooke Manor, 78; Nancy Fitzgerald, Indian Spring, 79; Mrs. Jay Cone, Argyle, 80; Mrs. Robert Thurman, Argyle, 82; Mrs. William Winterson, Indian Spring, 83.

Mrs. Cone is a past champion of the Maryland Amateur Association.

Mrs. Cone was four-over par for the 17 holes, needing par on the par-three 18th for a round of 76. Her round could have been even better but for some ill-advised work around the greens.

Mr. Murphy Booth of Manor, a former District amateur champion, won the championship consolation, defeating Faith Clark of Argyle in the final, 2 and 1.
Title Playoff Today at Indian Spring

Mrs. Weitzen, Cush Gain Final of District Golf on Upsets

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. William Weitzen and Mrs. Frank Cush scored mild upsets yesterday at Indian Spring Country Club and advanced to the final of the Women's District Golf Association championship.

Mrs. Weitzen, 19-time host club champion, and Mrs. Cush, seeking a third District title, tee off today at 9:45 a.m. in the 18-hole final.

More notable of the upsets was Mrs. Weitzen's 1-up victory over Mrs. John Daddio of Prince George. Mrs. Cush of Argyle eliminated Mrs. Bob L. Bryant of the Country Club of Fairfax, 4 and 3. Mrs. Weitzen was out in 41 and one down to Mrs. Daddio, runner-up in last week's Maryland state championship, as she lost the eighth and ninth holes.

At the ninth, Mrs. Weitzen was on the green with her second shot and her opponent put her second in a trap. Mrs. Daddio hit a fine sand shot to within three feet of the flag for a par and won the hole when Mrs. Weitzen three-putted. But Mrs. Weitzen played the back nine in level par. She squared the match with a par at 11 but fell behind again when Mrs. Daddio birdied the 13th.

The eventual winner drew even again at 14 with a par and then birdied 15 from 25 inches to go ahead, this time to stay.

At 17, Mrs. Weitzen had a chance to close out the match but took three to get down from just in front of the green. Mrs. Daddio put her tee ball in a trap and played a poor recovery.

On the 18th, Mrs. Daddio outdrove Mrs. Weitzen by 75 yards. The Prince Georges star hit a magnificent second shot to the green on the 400-yard hole.

Mrs. Weitzen's drive was just fair and her second fell some 30 yards short of the green. But she determined Maryland golfer hit a tremendous third shot 24 inches from the pin and caused the putt for her par.

Mrs. Cush was out in 39 and three-up at the turn. The two-time titlist won the first three holes of the match but then lost six when she three-putted.

Mrs. Cush regained her three-up lead with a par at seven. After winning the 14th, Mrs. Cush three-putted again to lose the 15th.

The Argyle player, who won the Maryland senior championship last week, won the 14th to increase her lead to four holes and halved the 15th to close out the match.

Addison, McFerron Capture Manor Medal

Rick Addison and Steve McFerron, Hobbsville, N.C., won the qualifying medal in Manor Country Club's annual member-guest golf tournament yesterday on a match of cards.

Addison and McFerron, former Western Junior champions, fired a two-under par 59 to win the title.

Mrs. Weitzen To Be Tested By Mrs. Cush

By STEVIE HERSHEY

Star-Tall Writer

A veteran who can't even remember how many times she's been in the finals will try to stop the spirited charge of Mrs. William Weitzen in today's showdown for the Women's District Amateur golf championship at Indian Spring.

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle has to use the fingers of both hands to count the major titles she's won and yesterday she was more concerned with a lump on her head than the details of her 0-2-2 semifinal victory over Mrs. Robert Bryant of Country Club of Fairfax.

"Oh, it was just an average round," the redhead grinned after a testing 78 at spring's big Chief course in five-year-purse. "No good holes and no bad ones."

Hit's Head on Shelf

Mrs. Cush, who has been competing in Los Altos' women's major golf tournaments for many years, wore a funny hat yesterday to conceal a bruised forehead she received by hitting it into a shelf at home Wednesday.

"I'm going home and relax today," she said. "One day I went home and worked in the yard and yesterday I banged up my head putting around. I guess since I've gotten so far, I thought I'd try to prepare for today."

While reaching the finals may be a bit too Mrs. Cush, a fortnight winner of this event, it's all quite exciting to Mrs. Weitzen.

Rita had won 10 club championships at Indian Spring and obviously is no novice to tournament pressure, but she admitted yesterday that nothing quite like this has ever happened to her before.

"Championships? Are you kidding? I've never even been in the semifinals before," she bubbled after upsetting Mrs. John Daddo 1 up in a tense 18-hole struggle.

Holds Off Challenge

The eight-handicapper fired a steady, even-par 35 on the par-70 back nine to hold off the challenge of the long-hitting Mrs. Daddo.

It looked like a sudden-death playoff after Mrs. Daddo smashed a 4iron pin high on the 18th and closing hole after Mrs. Weitzen, 1 up at the time, left her second shot 30 yards short. However, Rita wedged it two feet from the pin and tapped in her par after the loser's birdie attempt missed past.

Mrs. Weitzen took the lead in the see-saw match with a birdie at 15, hitting a four-iron on her third shot to the 300-yard par-five hole just three feet from the cup. The two rivals halved the next three holes.

Mrs. Neel Loomer of Navy Navy, last year's champion, will meet challenger Mrs. R. A. Chapman for the consolation title.

Mrs. Frank Cush (left) congratulates Mrs. William Weitzen on advancing to today's finals of the Women's District Amateur Golf Association championship at Indian Spring. Both scored upsets yesterday to gain the 18-hole finals.

Wedge Defeats Mrs. Cush

Mrs. Weitzen Wins District Golf Title

By MELVIN FITZGERALD

Mrs. William Weitzen never sank a long putt but still tied nine one-putt greens in defeating Mrs. Frank Cush, 4 and 2, in the final of the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Indian Spring.

The host-club champion proved a master of the wedge and recovery shots in winning her first major golf title.

Mrs. Weitzen, 12-time champion of the present Indian Spring plant and a three-time winner at the old course at Four Corners, went as sharp as usual with her long clubs but was amazing around the greens.

The new champion. going three-three over on the eight and ninth holes, was out in 39 and two-up on the two-time District titlist. Mrs. Weitzen was even par for the seven holes played on the back nine.

Pars Win Halves

Mrs. Weitzen putted three of the first four holes in pars to take a commanding 3-up lead. Mrs. Cush, Army club champion, won her first hole at eight with a par and they halved the ninth.

Mrs. Cush, who took three shots to get down from the fringes of at least a half-dozen greens, chipped diligently from the edge of 15 and was even three down. The Argyle player appeared a certain winner at the 11th when she put her tee shot 12 feet in the left of the fairway and Mrs. Weitzen pushed her tee shot off to the left in tall grass on a steep hillside.

However, the amazing Mrs. Weitzen wedged her ball 18 inches from the cup and Mrs.

ED DEMBICKI, course superintendent at Indian Spring Country Club, came up with a novel idea during the Women's District Golf Association championship at Indian Spring. Although they had no right to expect it, a lot of people were counting on Mrs. William Weitzen in the finals of the Women's District Amateur golf tournament yesterday at Indian Spring Country Club. She didn't let them down.

Bill Weitzen, an electrical engineer, was hiding behind trees, taking pictures. His long-haired son made his first appearance of the week-long tournament and bug, too, was taking pictures.

The girls disguised themselves from the grill and jumped in every available car to follow the 18-hole final between Rita and Mrs. Priscilla Weitzen of Argyle.

"What's the buzz?" a caddy asked. "Miss Rita's just winning another tournament!"

The veteran bug-bee can be excused for not jumping on the band wagon. Mrs. Weitzen, indeed, has won perhaps 100 golf matches at Indian flitting over the years, but yesterday was different. It was the District Amateur and she had never been close to that coveted crown.

Pulse of Champion

The 13-time winner of the club championship at Indian Spring Country Club didn't have to worry about winning a match at the District Amateur tournament, but yesterday she showed the pulse of a champion in her and a title and a trophy. Mrs. Weitzen turned the men in the gallery green with every shot she hit. Although she didn't have a hot hand and failed to win any long putts, Rita came around the 5,900-yard course in five-over par and one eye-popping nine-under greens.

Although they had no right to expect it, a lot of people were counting on Mrs. William Weitzien in the finals of the Women's District Amateur golf tournament yesterday at Indian Spring Country Club. She didn't let them down.

Bill Weitzien, an electrical engineer, was hiding behind trees taking pictures. His long-lens shot made his first appearance at the week-long tournament and yes, too, was snapping pictures.

The girls dissolved themselves from the grill and jumpped in every available electric cart to follow the 18-hole final between Rita and Mrs. Frank Cash of Argyle.

"What's all the fuss?" a Daddy asked. "Miss Rita's just winning another tournament."

The veterans were better excused for not pointing on the band wagon. Mrs. Weitzien, indeed, has won perhaps 100 golf matches at Indian Spring over the years, but yesterday was different. It was the District Amateur and she had never been close to that coveted crown.

Pulse of Champion

The 13-time winner of the champion Indian Spring Spring club's every year, won the final match in the District Amateur tournament, yesterday that Mrs. Weitzien turned the mix of spectators green with envy with her short game. Although she started around 4-4-1 and failed to win any long putts, Rita cruised around with a 2-under-par Big Charge course in five-over-par and had an eye-popping nine-putt-into-fight-putt.

Her shipping was extraordinary.

Mrs. Weitzien, who had upset tournaments in the past, and in the finals of the Women's District Amateur, must have been impressed, for she fired her first three-putt on the 18th green, which caused a bit of a delay.

"I'm going to win this thing I'd better get going," Mrs. Weitzien said, as she began to walk the putting green, waiting for the putt to drop into the hole.

The Putt Earth, it wasn't until the 18th hole that the ball finally dropped into the hole, causing a bit of a delay.

Record Round
By Mrs. Daddio Wins Star Cup

Mrs. John Daddio has left little doubt she is nearly fully recovered from a recent operation. Mrs. Daddio, who underwent thyroid gland surgery a couple of weeks ago, marked her return to competitive activity by lashing out a 72-40 to win The Star Cup in yesterday's Women's District Golf Association tournament at Bethesda Country Club.

The singing round enabled Mrs. Daddio to become the Prince Georges club champion, to smash the Bethesda course mark by five strokes. The old record was established by Mrs. Jay (Bill) Czar during a Women's District Golf Association championship three years ago.

Mrs. Daddio toasted the front nine in 39 and the back nine in 37. She used 11 puts, including birdies on the third and fourth holes, on the front nine and 16 on the back.

Mrs. Murphy Booth of Manor was runner-up to Mrs. Daddio for net honors with an 80-43-46. Since Mrs. Daddio took the net trophy, Rebecca Doman of Argyle, the former Maryland state champion, took gross honors with a 36-41-77. Mrs. William Walters of Indian Spring, the current District amateur champion, was second at 37-41-77.

Mrs. Daddio was presented with a $20 gold class ring.

Golf Tourney Off
The Women's District Golf Association's Class A evening Star Cup tournament scheduled today at Bethesda Country Club was postponed indefinitely because of last night's heavy rain.

Miss Doman Wins Gross
Because Mrs. Daddio took the more prestigious net trophy by the use of a four-stroke handicap, Rebecca Doman, former Maryland state champion from Argyle, fell heir to the first gross award with 77. Miss Doman was 36 on the front and 41 on the back.

Mrs. Murphy Booth of Manor carried off second net with 80-41-69. Second gross went to Mrs. William Walters, reigning District amateur titlist from Indian Spring, with 77-41-75.

Mrs. Daddio sank 15-foot birdie putts on the third and fourth holes to go two-under par at the turn. Her only birdie on the back nine came at the par-three 13th where she ran down a 15-foot putt.

Class B Putts
She used only 11 puts on the front nine, but three-potted the 18th and used 16 puts on the back for a total 28 for the round.

Six players broke 80 over the sun-hardened course. Nina Kram, Congressional, and Mrs. Roland L. Bryant of the Country Club of Fairfax had 79s and Mrs. Frank Czar, Argyle, was 78. Results:

Mrs. Rollins Wins Star Cup

Mrs. Milton Rollins joined Indian Spring Country Club in 1960, the same year the Women's District Golf Association inaugurated the Class B Evening Star Cup tournament. She scored 72-37-72 at Argyle yesterday to win The Star Cup for her first victory ever in WPGA competition.

Mrs. John Standish of Prince Georges also shot 72, but with a lower handicap and accepted the low gross prize after a match of cards with Mrs. Tab Lindner of Columbia.

Mrs. Hirshberg Wins Corby Cup

Mrs. Harry Hirshberg of Indian Spring captured the annual Corby Cup Tournament yesterday at Columbia Country Club with a net score of 72.

Two years ago Mrs. Hirshberg shot a gross 81 and waited around all day only to be beaten by the last player off the course. When Mrs. Hirshberg turned in her 81 yesterday the Indian Spring player said, "I should go home, somebody's sure to beat me."

But as things turned out nobody did and Mrs. Hirshberg with 81-9-72 was the winner. Her gross score included nines of 40 and 41.

Three other players also posted 81s. Rebecca Dumas, former Maryland state amateur champion from Argyll, won first gross with her 81 on a match of cards. Miss Dumas was out in 36 but soared to 45 on the back.

Mrs. William Weitzer, District amateur champion from Indian Spring, took second gross with an 81. The fourth 81 shooter, Mrs. William Bennett of Chevy Chase Club, took fourth net with 81-7-74.

Mrs. Robert Andress of Springfield carried off second net with 86-7-75, beating Mrs. Richard Wilson, wife of the Lakewood Country Club professional, on a card match. Mrs. Wilson took third net with 86-5-73.

Mrs. W. F. Gallegly of Army Navy took fifth net with 86-1-74. Other prize winners were, Pat Blanchard, Manor, 86-1-75; Mrs. Howard Lady, Washington, 85-3-73; Mrs. Philip Evans, Chevy Chase, 89-13-77; Mrs. Jay B. Combs, Bethesda, 92-4-76; Mrs. A. S. Bowman, Chevy Chase, 97-1-76; Mrs. Joseph Smryth, Congressional, 83-7-76; Mrs. William Mance, Fairfax, 86-13-76 and Mrs. Paul Dean, Brooke Manor, 85-6-76.

Mrs. Kerkmam Wins Playoff

Mrs. John Kerkmam of Columbias Country Club didn't know until almost too late that the Women's District Golf Association's Class A Post Cup tournament had been moved up two weeks at Washington Golf and Country Club.

She made the entry deadline and yesterday won the tournament in a playoff, capturing her first WDGA cup since she took The Evening Star Cup in 1962. Her score was 87-11-76.

Mrs. Kerkmam won the playoff on the first hole, where she had a stroke allowance, defeating Mrs. Joseph Smyth of Congressional with a net birdie-3. Mrs. Smyth, who had scored 89-5-78, parred the hole with a 25-foot putt but Mrs. Kerkmam rallied in a 15-footer right behind her.

Mrs. Smyth then outmatched Mrs. John Daddie of Prince Georges for low gross prize after each turned in 71 cards.

Prize winners in net:

Mrs. John Kerkmam, Columbia: 78-11-76
Mrs. N. R. Stief, Army Navy: 85-7-75
Mrs. William Wares, Wash. 85-5-75
Mrs. E. J. Kazner, Army Navy: 80-8-72
Mrs. William Wares, Wash. 80-4-76
Mrs. U. N. Carpenter, Lebanon: 80-8-72
Mrs. Charles Cates, Ansonia: 80-8-72
Mrs. Helen Wares, Ansonia: 80-8-72
Mrs. W. C. Brown, Wash. 78-13-78
Mrs. C. Blakes, Wash. 78-13-78

Newcomer Wins Class B Turney

Mrs. William King, a new resident of this area from Cleveland, yesterday won the first major tournament she entered in her new home, the Women's District Golf Association, taking the Class B Post Cup, on her home course at Springfield Country Club.

The long-hitting Mrs. King scored 38-47-85 and deducted 18 handicap strokes for net to win.

Mrs. Robert Lewis of Washington, a WDGA member, took low gross with 43-46-89 after outmatching another 81 by Mrs. John Stansfield of Prince Georges.

Prize winners in net:

Mrs. William King, Washington: 88-4-85
Mrs. H. Wilkes, Army Navy: 91-7-88
Mrs. W. N. Downer, Army Navy: 91-7-88
Mrs. R. D. Taylor, Army Navy: 91-7-88

Hirshberg, Rhodes Win Scotch Event

Mrs. Harry Hirshberg of Indian Spring and Bonnie Rhodes, Kennwood Country Club, defeated Susan Hayward and Jack Willard of Arling- ton with a par on the first hole of playoff to win gross honors in a District Golf Association Scotch foursome event at Ken- wood yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hishman of Bethesda carried off net honors with 84-17-61. Second net ended in a tie be- tween Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Day, Brooke Manor, 81-15-66, and Evelyn Smith and Talmage Hix- clair, Prince Georges, 67-21- 66.

Other net winners were: Mrs. Thomas Konopa, Argyle- land and William Howard, Brooke Manor, 78-1-47; Mrs. Peter Weller, Prince Georges, and Gil Willett, Lakewood, 79— 46; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ters- ter, Belle Haven, 81-45-66, and Mr. and Mrs. James Siner, Kennwood, 85-57-68.

Mrs. Chamberlin Wins at Kennwood

Mrs. Garwood Chamberlin won the class A, division of the national Scotch Four- some tournament yesterday at Ken- wood Golf and Country Club. She finished five up in a match- playing playoff event.

Miss K. H. Richardson finished five up to win in division B. The earlier C award went to Mrs. Donald Smiley, who finished eight up.

String of 83s Pays Off for Mrs. Verell

Mrs. T. J. Verell has served notice that she's once again a contender for the important women's golf championships in the area, but she didn't expect a flock of 83s to carry her off to victory.

Mrs. Verell from Belle Ha- ven, the former Ruth Ann Pe- terson, shot 83 last week in the Class A Star Cup at Bethesda, but her net 71 was good for sixth place. Tuesday and yester- day she did it twice over at Congressional and walked off with the Payne Cup against 63 other contestants in the annual tournament.

Mrs. Jay Cuneo, the Maryland State champion from Behan- da, came in with the event's best round by four strokes, 82-82-76, for a two-day total of 236. Minutes later Mrs. Verell reported in with her second successive 82-83 for 165 to win.

Although scores were general- ly improved yesterday over- the-day before, Mrs. G. William Ribby at Cumberland soared to a 82 after tying Mrs. Verell for the first-day lead.

Low net winners on the prize list were Mrs. J. H. Reeder of Army Navy, 80-93-78, Susan Hayward of Argyle, 77-94-93, and Mrs. Paul Best of Brooke Manor, 75-18-119, leading gross scores.

Mrs. T. J. Verell, Belle Haven, 82-82-76

Mrs. Jay Cuneo, Bethesda, 82-82-76

Mrs. G. W. Ribby, Cumberland, 80-93-78

Mrs. - C. Meyers, Bethesda, 77-94-93

Mrs. P. E. Best, Brooke Manor, 75-18-119

One-Hole Playoff Provides Victory For Mrs. Madden

The annual President's Plate Tournament is held for the bene- fit of workers and officials in the Women's District Golf As- sociation, but the leading scorer yesterday at Brooke Manor would have done credit to a regular event on the WDDA schedule.

Mrs. Vincent Madden of Be- thesda won in a playoff after shooting 86-1-49 to tie Mrs. Philip Evans of Cherry Chase, who scored 81-1-46. Mrs. Evans lost on the first extra hole to a buoyy 6 and accepted the second net prize.

The three gross prizes went to Mrs. Frank Cost of Argyle, who had a 77, three over women's par; Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, 75, and Mrs. Rich- ard Kristen, Columbia, 81.

Other net winners:

Mrs. Charles Culley, Fri. Gro., 59-45-54

Mrs. Charles F. Deace, Fri. Gro., 59-51-53

Mrs. T. E. Byrd, Fri. Gro., 61-51-53

Mrs. Charles F. Deace, Fri. Gro., 59-51-53

Mrs. Delphine Hudd, Fri. Gro., 61-51-53

Mrs. traveler, Fri. Gro., 61-51-53

Mrs. Morgan, Fri. Gro., 61-51-53

Mrs. E. C. Johnson, Fri. Gro., 61-51-53

Mrs. Julia S. Roush, Fri. Gro., 61-51-53

Other net winners:

Mrs. Guy Chace, Cherry, 80-85-81

Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian, 75-82-77

Mrs. Hall, Cherry, 81-85-75

Mrs. Wallace, Cherry, 80-85-81

Mrs. Haskell, Cherry, 81-85-75

Mrs. Nancy Stevens, Fri. Gro., 61-51-53

Defending Champion Bows to Mrs. Wilson

BY STEVE HERSHEY

Star Staff Writer

She probably wouldn't advise it as a cure-all remedy, but Mrs. District Amateur by knocking off defending champion Mrs. Ned Lomay of Army Navy with a 85-97-79 yesterday.

Today she faces another for- mer champion—a near rival in Mrs. William Weitzen, a good darkhorse bet in this week-long event.

Mrs. Wilson pulled the only surprise of the first round. Med- alist Mrs. Jay Cone was extend- ed to the final hole before eing- former champion Mrs. Rebecca Pownall and Mrs. John Daddio eased by Mrs. D. H. Holman, 2 and 1.

In the top match today, Mrs. Roland Bryant, a two-time final- list, faced Mrs. Cone, to whom she has never lost. She skipped a few one-day tournaments, but came on strong yesterday in the Women's District Amateur by knocking off defending champion Mrs. Ned Lomay of Army Navy with a 85-97-79 yesterday.

Mrs. Lady Scores Double Victory

Mrs. Howard Lacy wrapped up two tournaments in one yesterday at Westwood. The Washington G&CC golfer shot 77 to win the Betty Mockley Memorial Tournament, then used her 11 handicap to capture the WDCA seniors title with a net 66.

Mrs. M. B. Eyson of Army Navy aced the par three 10th hole in yesterday’s tournament play.

Mrs. Connolly Wins Class B After Playoff

Mrs. John Connolly of Washington won the Women’s District Golf Association WMAKL Class B Cup yesterday at River Bend after a one-hole playoff against Mrs. Edward Bell of Westwood.

At the end of the regulation 18-hole match, Mrs. Connolly had recorded an 86-70, while Mrs. Bell scored an 86-70 to set up the playoff, which Mrs. Connolly won with a bogey on the par-3 first hole. Mrs. Bell was awarded the gross prize.

Mrs. Verell Wins Fairfax’s Carr Cup

Mrs. T. J. Verell of Belle Haven, with a net 80-2-89, won the Edward B. Carr Cup in a women’s golf event yesterday at the Country Club of Fairfax.

Mrs. Roland Bryant of the host club won gross honors with 82.

Mrs. German Wins Gable Cup in Golf

Mrs. Charles German of Columbia fired a net 80-2-82 to capture the Ruth Gable Cup in yesterday’s Class D play at the Women’s District Golf Association held at Keowee Country Club.

Mrs. R. G. Luckie of Army Navy won low gross honors with a 82. Second set honors were taken by Mrs. Wallace Harris of Manor Country Club with a 83-31-72.
Mrs. Meadows
Wins Class C

Mrs. John S. Meadows of Kenwood won the Women’s District Golf Association Class C Beckner Cup with a net 88-79 yesterday at Congressional.

Mrs. William F. Diffee of the host club won gross with 83. Mrs. William Reed of Columbia scored a hole-in-one in the event, going 116-yard 18th hole using a five-wood.

Corillium Cup
To Mrs. Reed

Mrs. William Reed, who now is a member of Columbia Country Club, was chairman of the women’s golf committee at Army Navy CC some 15 years ago, and she certainly hasn’t forgotten how to play the course at her former club.

Mrs. Reed shot 44-47-91 yesterday at Army Navy and captured the Women’s District Golf Association’s Class C Corillium Cup, deducting her 16 handicap for a net 73.

Pride winners in net:

Mrs. John S. Meadows, Kenwood 88-79
Mrs. W. T. Beckner, Haverford 91-79
Mrs. B. H. Smith, Haverford 96-89
Mrs. R. M. Mallory, Army Navy 92-87
Mrs. W. F. Diffee, Kenwood 93-86
Mrs. E. R. Morgan, Haverford 94-85

Mrs. Kopcsak Wins Golf Cup

Mrs. A. A. Kopcsak of Army Navy, shooting a net 89-87-71, won the Anderson Cup in Class C play of a Women’s District Golf Association event yesterday at Belle Haven.

Mrs. M. R. Eddy of Washington won in a draw for net runner-up honors over Mrs. George Rose of the host club after both had shot 89-89-74.

Mrs. Willard Brown of Kenwood won the gross division.

Spottes Cup Winner

Margaret Davis of Brooke Manor shot 88-90-88 to win the Women’s District Golf Association’s Class D Spottes Cup yesterday at Prince Georges Country Club. Mrs. George Rose of Belle Haven won the gross prize with a 71.

BECKNER CUP

Mrs. Meadows
Overcomes Ace
To Take Tourney

Mrs. John Meadows of Kenwood overcame a hole-in-one by Mrs. William Reed of Columbia yesterday to win her first major golf tournament.

Mrs. Meadows shot an 86-83-78 at Congressional to capture the WIGA Class C Beckner Cup by four strokes over Mrs. Edward Pach of Springfield. Mrs. William Diffee of Congressional captured low-gross honors with a 78.

The ace came on the 116-yard 18th hole, when Mrs. Reed put her five-wood shot in the cup over water.

The pride winners:

Mrs. John S. Meadows, Kenwood 88-79
Mrs. W. T. Beckner, Haverford 91-79
Mrs. B. H. Smith, Haverford 96-89
Mrs. R. M. Mallory, Army Navy 92-87
Mrs. W. F. Diffee, Kenwood 93-86
Mrs. E. R. Morgan, Haverford 94-85

Mrs. Kopcsak
Of Army Navy

Mrs. A. A. Kopcsak of Army Navy Country Club took a trip to Europe and while she was enjoying herself, her golf game went sour. But it all had a happy ending yesterday at Belle Haven Country Club.

Dropped to Class C because of lack of practice, Mrs. Kopcsak took advantage of her rank and won the Women’s District Golf Association’s Anderson Cup with an 89-87-71. The gross prize went to Mrs. Willard Brown of Kenwood who shot a 83.
MARTHA WILKINSON sinks chip shot off the 30th hole for a birdie 3 and wins the 1970 TRANS Championship 7 & 6 over Nancy Hager.
3rd Time is Charm for Martha Wilkinson in winning TRANS CHAMPIONSHIP

BY DOROTHY PEASE

Following victory came the champagne (left), as 1969 TRANS Champion Jane Bannachury pears for 1970 TRANS Champion Martha Wilkinson. Later, Martha received additional liquid refreshment when fully clothed, as she was issued in the Manor Country Club pool. Right. She makes a triumphant climb out. Center, Mrs. Robert Brandt, TRANS Director, and her outstanding work of art — the TRANS purple and white scoreboard.

Miss Martha Wilkinson, Anaheim, California, won the 1970 TRANS national championship at Manor Country Club in Rockville, Maryland. In 1969 Martha was Finalist to Carole Jo Skala in Battle Creek, Michigan. At Milledgeville, Texas, in 1969, Martha was again Finalist, losing on the 27th hole to her friend Jane Bannachury.

This year, Martha made it! She qualified with a 77 and won all her matches with large margins. The 36-hole finals found two 1970 Curtis Cup Team members as opponents — Martha and 17-year-old Nancy Hager of Dallas, Texas. Nancy qualified with a 90 and also easily won her way into the finals. Exhilarated defending champion Miss Jane Bannachury was defeated in the first round by Mrs. Richard Canney of Centreville, Virginia, on the 19th hole. Mrs. Canney was a Junior star golfer (Sawyer) in Maryland. Both players scored one over par in this match.

Jane Bannachury won for the second straight year the Women's Western in Rockford, Illinois on Saturday, July 25. She drew a TRANS on Sunday, and qualified one over par with a 74 on Monday without a practice round. Jane qualified for the Western last played in 1968 at the Broadmoor, the week prior to the Western, had played with Miss Ann Women's Open the week before that had been Finalist in the Intercollegiate. She was a fatigued young lady.

A most surprised and thrilled young lady was Jane Bannachury when she received a letter from President Richard Nixon. President Nixon wrote his letter to Jane as one Whittier, California golfer to another. He extended congratulations to Jane on winning again the Women's Western and good luck in the TRANS and other upcoming championships.

Semi-finalist Miss Carol Semple, Scranton, Pennsylvania, was forced to the 19th hole in her third match with Miss Paula Brophy of Brighton, Massachusetts, and again in her fourth match with Miss Lacy Smith of Snyder, New York. Carol lost to Nancy Hager 2 and 1 in the Semis.

Another semi-finalist, Miss Debbie Rhoden of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina, defeated Miss Jane Faunderg, one up, in the first round — then sidelined Mrs. Canney in her second match, lost to Nancy Hager the day before. Debbie played the semi with a one up victory and Miss Norm Schneider of Sacramento, California, in the fourth round.

Nancy Hager was 7 over par in Qualifying. She was 5 over par in Qualifying and 3 under for her five matches to gain the finals. She was 3 over in the 36-hole Finals.

Co-medalist Mrs. William Mahan of Corpus Christi, Texas, was Jr. medallist in 1969, when she was Miss Martha Painter. She is TRANS Texas state representative.

TRANS has initiated a Players Council. Mrs. William Symes of Black Forest, Colorado, was appointed chairman by the Executive Board, and the players elected their six council members at the Players meeting the day prior to Qualifying.

The players will act as good will ambassadors for the TRANS and will convey the player's viewpoint to the Executive Board through Mrs. Symes, who will act as liaison officer. Player Council members are: Jane Bannachury, Martha Wilkinson, Cynthia Hill, Carol Semple, Lacy Smith and Mrs. Mark Farnsworth.

Manor Country Club ladies under the direction of their general chairman, Mrs. A. Wayne Braten, performed an outstanding job in entertaining the TRANS. All of their preparations made the work of the TRANS Executive Board much easier to accomplish during TRANS Week.

Manor Country Club has extra copies of the 1970 TRANS-Mississippi Golf Annual for sale. The Annual contains over 150 pages of pictures and information of lady golf champions and of the state of Maryland. Maryland is published as the United States in miniature. Mail $1.50 to Manor Country Club — Rockville, Maryland.

The LADY GOLFER 7
IT'S JANE AGAIN!
In 70th Consecutive Women's Western Championship

In a top-flight 36 hole finals, Jane Bastanchury defeated Shirley Dommers (Mrs. Paul) of Belvidere, Illinois, 10 & 8, to win her second straight Women's Western Golf Association title. Twenty-two year old Jane carded two birdies on the first 18 to lead 5 up and shot three more birdies before closing out the match on the 36th hole.

This was Shirley's first appearance in the finals of a major championship. Wife of an M.D. and a mother, Shirley does not follow the tournament trail. She has won the Illinois state title four times including the 1970 one.

Shooting one over par 70's, Jane and Cynthia Hill — both Curtis Cup players — led the qualifying field over the 6,340 yard Rockford Country Club course in Rockford, Illinois. Former Western Champion — also British and TRANZS champion — Mrs. William Flemish (Carol Somerson) of Golden, Colorado, was next with a 76. Bonnie Lozer, Union Lake, Michigan and Sue Few Mathews, Portsmouth, Ohio, followed with 77's. Shirley Dommers shot a 78.

Tied for the 32nd spot in championship flight were 5 players posting 84's for three spots. The playoff was won by Lucille Smith, JoAnne Weinheimer, and Julie Savoy. Susan Hartman and Marcella Rose were the unlucky ones.

Only three of the five Curtis Cup team members entered made championship flight; Jane Bastanchury, Cindy Hill, and Martha Wilkinson. Jane Fouster and Mrs. Paul Dye, Jr. did not. Hollis Stacey, who qualified with an 83, had to default her first match after injuring her hand while blasting out of a heavy bunker.

An upset in the second round was Cindy Hill defeated by Lynne Zmolak. "It was one up. Later Cindy said, "I lost the second round to the Broadmoor, too, and I can tell you right now about the second round matches." Lynne was ousted in the second round match with Shirley Dommers on the 18th hole. Jane Bastanchury and Barbara Wilkinson met in the semi-finals. Jane posted an even par 74 to Mar tha's 73 and they were all even. It took a birdie 4 on the 19th for Jane to win over Martha's par 5.

Shirley Dommers had an easy win, match, winning 3 & 2 over Melanie Schiller of Waterloo, Iowa.

The beautiful, exciting Trans-Miss 1970 at Manor Country Club
SOMEONE STOLE MY BALL

Somebody stole my ball!
Somebody's got some ball!
Somebody came and took it away,
There's no use lookin'!
But trouble's cookin'.....

I miss that golf ball so,
Why did it have to go?
Oh, gee! If you should see
That little ball behind a tree,
Won't you send it right back to me?

Somebody stole my golf ball from me.....
Somebody stole my ball!

HAS ANYBODY SEEN MY BALL (Tune: Five Foot Two)

My Spaulding Dot...meant a lot,
I lost it when I flanked a shot,
Has anybody seen my ball?

A smile or two...a dot of blue,
It's not that mushroom in the dew,
Has anybody seen my ball?

It hit a tree and bounced toward me
Out on number four.
I took a look in the brook
But can't find what I'm searching for.

My Spaulding Dot...meant a lot,
'Cause it's the best ball that I've got.
Has anybody seen my ball?
WOULDN'T IT BE LOVELY?

Lots of trophies for us to win,
Pots of silver instead of tin,
Pie plates, punch bowls, ash trays, too,
Wouldn't it be lovely?

Winning golf balls each Tuesday morn,
Looks of envy that once were scorn,
Matches played with gallery,
Wouldn't it be lovely?

Golf games played in another city
with admiring crowds
Watching, wondering how I got this beautiful swing of mine.

Just one putt on each 18 holes
Stroking gently with breaks and rolls;
Left arm straight, shifting weight,
Wouldn't it be lovely?...lovely?...lovely!

WE COULD HAVE PLAYED ALL DAY

We could have played all day,
We could have played all day,
And then have played some more.
We could have changed our swings,
And done a thousand things
We've never done before.
We'll never know what made it so exciting,
Why all at once the ball took flight.
We only know our gaze will never be the same,
We could have played, played, played all day.
HEY, LOOK 'EM OVER!

Hey, look 'em over, the golfin' dames are here
Frankin' in the paddock for the Trans-Miss Cup
this year!
Fillies of the fairways, never in the rough,
Racin' down the stretch when the competition's tough.
They'll be far off the tee and swingin' for show,
Chippin' up for birdies, puttin' for the dough.
There's a big field for the Trans, like the National, this year,
And we're darned glad you're all here.

WE'VE GROWN ACCUSTOMED TO HER SLICE

We've grown accustomed to her slice,
That's the way her game begins.
We've grown accustomed to her sin
Of hitting outside in.
She looks, she hooks...she'll never win.

It's second nature to her now
This swinging back and lunging in,
Chasing squirrels from trees-tops,
Dabbling in the brook,
Wiggle-waggling with her hips
To get that golfer's look!

We've grown accustomed to her slice,
Accustomed to her hook,
Accustomed to her game!

SHE'S JUST A DUFFER

(Tune: Me and My Shadow)

She's just a duffer every time she hits a shot.
She's just a shanker. Lordy knows, she surely shanks a lot.
And when she's in the rough, we find it tough.
One thing is sure, each shot she'll muffy, 'cause
She's just a duffer,
A duffin', shankin' kind of dame.

TIPTOE DOWN THE FAIRWAY

Tiptoe down the fairway
Through the sand trap
And upon the green,
Come tiptoe round the golf course with me.

Tiptoe through the bunkers,
Into hazards
Where her ball will be.
Come tiptoe round the golf course with me.

Knee deep in rough we will stray,
And try to keep gates away.
So please come

Tiptoe down the fairway,
Round the tree trunks
Where the squirrels all play,
Come tiptoe on a fine golfing day.
A SAND WEDGE IS THE DUFFER'S FRIEND

When trapped in the sand,
It's quite fundamental--
A sand wedge is the duffer's friend.
A wood may be grand,
But it's inconsequential
In a bunker high,
Or blasting from a lousy lie.

When grass is tough, cut in the rough,
There is one club on which you depend:
A short-shafted, flat-chested club with the right face,
A sand wedge is the duffer's friend.

When trapped in the sand,
It's quite fundamental--
A sand wedge is the duffer's friend.
A wood may be grand,
But it's inconsequential
In a bunker high,
Or blasting from a lousy lie.

And when you pitch out of a ditch,
There is one club on which you depend:
A foot wedge, a sand wedge, a club with the right edge,
A sand wedge is the duffer's friend.

THE SWING'S THE THING
(Tune: The Rain in Spain)

The swing's the thing and don't forget the derriere.
Back on the heeels, but do not leave the area.
Keep down that lousy head,
Check your grip, pivot hip.
Hit down and through the ball,
Hit fair and square,
A wiggle-waggle will help a lot to win the game.
So wiggle-waggle and you'll be a golfing dame!

GIVE HER A LITTLE PUTT
(Tune: Siame a Little Kiss)

Give her a little putt, will ya, huh?
Just a little putt, will ya, huh?
Gosh, oh, gee! How's she gonna score?
With four-putt greens, her handicap'll soar!
Give her a little putt, will ya, huh?
Why do you wanna make her blues?

She lets you call it practice when you whiff upon the tee.
She even looks away when you are stymied by a tree.
So, give her a little putt, will ya, huh?
And she'll give a six-footer to you,
I promise,
She'll give that six-footer to you.
ODE TO A GOLF COURSE  (Recitation)

How do I play thee?
Let me count the ways......
I play thee from the sand traps
That bar me from the greens.
I play thee from the mud holes
That border all the streams.
I play thee from the fairways
And hit thee straight and true,
But often times I hit a shot
That makes me feel no blue.
I play thee with a passion
That fills my heart with fire.

No matter how I play thee,
Thy PAR is my desire.

GOLFER

(Theme: Mother Means the World To Me)

G is for the good shots, how she loves them.
G is for the ones that aren't so hot.
E is for the lies that give her tantrums.
E is for the fun and there's a lot.
E is for the easy puts, so many.
E is for the rough that makes her cross.

Put them all together, they spell GOLFER,
The dame who plays the game with us!

THERE IS NOTHING LIKE A DAME

We got golfers who ain't duffers.
We got gals who really score.
We got misses in the Trans-Miss.
Who can make the galleries roar.
We got harmony for singers.
We got lots of fun and games.
What have we got?
Lots of dames!

We got dames who know how to use wedges and putters!
We got dames with swings like which there ain't any others!

There is nothing like their games,
Nothing in this world.
There is nothing you can name
That is anything like these dames!

We got winners of the Eastern.
We got champions from the West.
We got gals who won the Open,
Of the amateurs the best!
We got slugsers from the Southern,
And of Mid-Atlantic fame.
What have we got?
Golfing dames.

We got dames with trophies women golfers long for!
We got dames with shapes the men are strong for!

There is nothing like a dame,
Nothing in this world.
There is nothing you can name
Like a par-shootin', golfin' dame!

GET ME TO THE TEE ON TIME

We're gettin' slaughtered in the morning.
Ding, dong, the alarm clock's gonna chime...
Roll out the body, drink down a toddy,
But get us to the tee on time.

We've got to be there in the morning,
Drink up and have a gin and lime,
Join in the chorus, it's dandy for us,
But get us to the tee on time.

If we could play now, we'd really go,
Score under par now and we'll win the dough.

We're gettin' slaughtered in the morning,
Our sinkin' and sinkin' is a crime,
So bring on the whiskey! We're gettin' frisky.
But get us to the tee, get us to the tee,
Be sure to get us to the tee on time!

HERE'S THE PRO
(Tune: Hess 'Em All)

Here's the Pro, Here's the Pro!
He's sure makin' all kinds of dough.

I've just upped the prices
On all kinds of balls,
My gloves are too tight,
And the shorts are too small.

Here's the Pro, Here's the Pro!
We wish that his carts would all go;
But they keep on stoppin'!
And leave us all hoppin'
And that's how our Pro makes his dough.
BY THE TREE
(Tune: By the Sea)

By the tree, by the tree,
By the beautiful tree,
Can't you see, can't you see
How unhappy are we.
What made me slice I will never know;
I swung just right, but then it curved.
And away I go........

By the tree, by the tree,
By the beautiful tree,
Out of bounds in our rounds
And the penalty's threes.
I hit that shot with a three iron club,
It hit the tree with an awful thud,
By the tree trunk,
By the beautiful tree.

YOU TELL ME YOUR SCORE

You tell me your score,
I'll tell you mine.
Mine was the best score
Because I played divine.....ly.

Come, duffer, tell me,
You is the tine,
You tell me your score
And I....will tell you mine.
Mrs. John Daddio (left) and Mrs. Jay Cone get together after finishing one-two in the qualifying for the District golf championship yesterday at Indian Spring. Mrs. Cone led with 76.

DISTRIBUT AMATEUR

Steady Mrs. Cone Leads Qualifiers

By STEVE HERSHEY

Apparently Mrs. Jay Cone is ready for another monotonous week on the links.

The attractive Bethesda Country Clubber, who used her steady short game to win the Maryland State Amateur title last week showed she's still in the groove by posting a 76 yesterday to win medalist honors in the Women's District championship at Indian Spring.

"Trouble? No, I guess I wasn't in any," she smiled, then added, "Oh, I did get in a trap on 14, but I made my par."

There wasn't even the threat of a double bogey as she breezed around the par-71 Big Chief course with two 36's, including a birdie on each side.

One of the four threes on her card came at the 300-yard 14th, when she putt in a 30-footer.

A frustrated second was Mrs. John Daddio, the long-hitting blonde from Prince George who was disappointed by Mrs. Cone in last Saturday's finals of the Maryland State.

As usual, Mrs. Daddio far outdistanced her rivals off the tee, but as many long-bitters painfully discover, the short game usually is the deciding factor.

Mrs. Daddio blew her chance for a 14 on the medal less than 20 feet from the pin. Her short putt to her last green missed a trap and it took her four to get down for a double bogey and 78.

If Mrs. Cone and Mrs. Daddio are to meet again this week, it will have to be in the final. They are in separate brackets in today's first round.

Despite their low scores, both drew rugged opponents. Mrs. Cone faced Rebecca Damon, a former champion, while Mrs. Daddio played Mrs. D. K. Homan, a 1-handicapper from Country Club of Fairfax who reached the finals five years ago and always is a threat.

Defending champion Mrs. Ned Lenney of Army Navy was exempt from qualifying and didn't even show up for a practice round. She played Mrs. Dick Wilson, wife of the pro at Lake-wood Country Club, who qualified with 76.

Mrs. Paul Dean of Brooks Manor ran in a 20-foot downhill putt for a par to join Mrs. Lloyd Denman of Washington GCC in the last two berths.

Before Nelson's triumph at Trafalgar, we were a Tradition.

We made it great. You made it famous. White Horse Scotch
To all my golfing friends.

And now I hope that in this fall,
There'll be sweet memories for all.
It's win or lose, it doesn't matter
Next year one always can do better!

It was a joy to keep this book
So all can have a second look -
And then with happiness recall
The joy which Golf brought to us all!!

See you next spring! (dingeling!)

Ankie

Until the dogwood's bloom again
I'm pushing the old broom again and dream of...
