Woman Golfers Plan Heavy Schedule of Intercity Play

A full schedule of intercity team matches, including a renewal of the series with players from Richmond and Philadelphia as well as a continuation of the home-and-home agreement with Baltimore, is in prospect for the District woman golfers next year.

Mrs. F. G. Awalt, who turned over the president's gavel to Mrs. L. E. Hutchison of Washington Golf and Country Club at the 26th annual meeting of the Women's District Golf Association yesterday at Congressional Country Club, said a full scale of intercity matches and a local program of first, second and third team intracub matches were among the recommended changes for next season.

The junior tournament may be revived, according to a recommendation, but the future of the District women's Class B championship event, a not too successful experiment last season, is in doubt.

Mrs. Hutchison, Golf Committee chairman at Washington and former second and first vice president of the association, said the matters would be discussed at the next board meeting. Other officers installed yesterday were Mrs. W. F. Patterson of Indian Spring as first vice president, Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor as second vice president, both new, and Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel of Kenwood and Mrs. H. Cochran Fisher of Columbia as secretary and treasurer, respectively, for another term.

Mrs. Patterson, efficient tournament chairman last season, will be asked to continue in that capacity while Mrs. Stokes, the Middle Atlantic champion, succeeds Mrs. M. J. Torlinski as District team captain. Mrs. Torlinski was commended for her excellent work with the teams last year.

MEETING NOTES—Mrs. Walter Romer, Prize Committee chairman, presented a silver bracelet to Mrs. Awalt on behalf of the association. . . . Rules Committee Chairman Mrs. Arnold McNitt recommended the association adopt the USGA rules in their entirety. . . . Mrs. Theodore Peyser of Woodmont suggested the adoption of the Chicago handicap system, a motion that will be discussed in the future. . . . A committee of pros will be asked to establish a new par for the member clubs. . . . Of the 111 class B players, Mrs. Edward Lockwood of Kenwood showed the greatest reduction in handicap, from 33 to 17, over the season's play. . . . Mrs. Frank Atwood of Kenwood topped the 149 class A players by reducing her handicap from 18 to 12. . . . The schedule will be announced at the March meeting of the Executive Committee. M. W. W.

Patty Berg Likes to Talk Golf, But Baseball Is First on List

By Merrell Whittlesey

"How do you think that little lefthander will do for the Nats this year?" a young lady asked yesterday, "You know, Mickey Haefner who used to pitch for Minneapolis."

The young lady went on. "They have Mickey Vernon at first again, huh, he's terrific. I'd like to see the opening game, but I won't be here. The only thing I like better than baseball is a Minnesota football game. You watch Bernie Bierman this year, he's going to make a comeback with the Gophers."

"Speed skating, no, I haven't done any speed skating since I was runnerup in the National Junior and that's been a good many years ago."

Finally Talks Golf.

The conversation ran like that for a half hour or so before the 29-year-old freckled red-top finally got around to talking golf. Her name, you see, was Patty Berg, and after all an exhibition match and a couple of golf clinics were her excuse for being in town and at Indian Spring Club yesterday afternoon. She's at Columbia today for the match and at Washington tomorrow.

A golf professional for seven years and winner of every major women's event in this country, Patty is a walking sports page. Her idol is not Ben Hogan or Sam Snead, it's Ted Williams; she thinks he's wonderful.

Patty had spent more than two hours in a shotmaking exhibition of the rights and wrongs of golf and she wanted to talk about other sports, but they finally edged her back to golf.

49 Weeks on Road.

The Minnesotan's yearly itinerary calls for 49 weeks on the road and 3 at home. She plays in all the tournaments, gives group lessons (none to individuals), talks before high schools and colleges, backed by the Wilson Co. Her idea is to get more women, and men, to play golf and those who play it to play it better.

Patty had several nice things to say about Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias, the current sensation of the women's golfing world, and said she looked forward to meeting her at match play some time this summer. "They talk about her driving but should see the Babe chip and putt," Patty said, "she's terrific." Incidentally, they never have met at match play.

The young golfer left a word of advice to all present. "Try to swing your club or hit a few every day," she said. "It's better to hit 100 balls every day than 500 3 times a week. And then she smashed one so-o-o-o-o-o far down the fairway.

Golf Clinic Today By Patty Berg At Indian Spring

Patty Berg, the par-busting gal golfer from Minneapolis, opens a three-day show in the District today with a clinic at Indian Spring at 2 p. m.

She'll do a repeat performance at Washington Golf and Country Club on Wednesday and wind up her stay Thursday by playing an exhibition at Columbia with Mrs. Walter Stokes, Mid-Atlantic champion, Pro Fred McLeod of Columbia and Pro Mel Shorey of Indian Spring.

Her clinics and exhibition here are being sponsored by the Women's District Golf Association. The public is invited to all events.

DWGA Lists 17 Tourneys

A 17-event summer tournament schedule was adopted yesterday by the Women's District Golf Association at a luncheon meeting held at the Broadmoor Hotel.

Feature of the slate is the annual District championship, to be played this year June 23-27 at Indian Spring. Mrs. A. B. Bower is defending champion.

Another high spot on the program is the Maryland State Women's championship, awarded this year to Kenwood, July 7-11.

The complete summer schedule:
May 7-8, Keefer Cup, Chevy Chase; 16, Times-Herald Class "B" Cup, Kenwood; 23, Times-Herald Class "A" Cup, Kenwood.
June 3, NBC Class "A" Cup, Army and Navy; 10, WMAL Class "B" Cup, Washington Golf and Country Club; 23-27, District championship, Indian Spring.
July 7-11, Maryland State Women's, Kenwood; 15, Duffers' Cup, Columbia; 25, mixed foursome, Columbia; 29, Star Class "A" Cup, Woodmont.
August 5, Star Class "B" Indian Spring; 13, CSC Class "B" Cup, Chevy Chase; 19, Post Class "A" Cup, Prince Georges; 25, Mid-Atlantic pro-ladies' tourney, Indian Spring.
September 5, Post Class "B" Cup, Prince Georges; 16, Corby Class "A" Cup, Columbia; 7, President's Plate, Washington Golf and Country Club.

18 Teams Will Shoot In Three Classes of Women's Golf Loop

Eighteen teams will play for the first, second and third team titles of the Women's District Golf Association with the first matches scheduled April 28. Last year only the first teams played.

Kenwood is the only club to enter a team in all three divisions. The first team matches will be played from scratch, but handicap allowances will be used in the second and third team play.

Seven first teams entered the six-week competition, including Manor's defending champions, eight second teams and three third teams.

The three months' residence rule was lifted and newcomers may join a team as soon as eligible under the WDGA rules. First and second teams will meet each other once, while the three third teams will play a round robin. Each team will be composed of six players.

The first team schedule was announced by Mrs. Ed Widmayer, District team captain; the second by Mrs. O. L. Young, second team captain, and the third by Mrs. Joseph Brantley, captain. Mrs. W. R. Stokes, vice president of the association, is the executive in charge of teams.

Golfers Stick Necks Out With Big Week Ahead

By Merrell Whittlesey

Not to be outdone by the Cherry Blossoms and opening day at Bowie, the tournament golfers stick their necks out this week in the beginning of what promises to be the District's greatest year of competitive golf.

The Women's District Golf Association, most active of the local golf groups, met this afternoon at the Broadmoor Hotel to announce its 1947 tournament schedule. The list was expected to be virtually a carbon copy of last year's card, with the exception of a few more team matches and the deletion from the schedule of the Class B championship.

Tomorrow afternoon Patty Berg, the red-haired woman pro golfer, is scheduled to open a three-day stand at local clubs. Miss Berg left Augusta, Ga., today after finishing fourth and leading the women pros in the title-holders event.

Patty will hold a clinic at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Indian Spring and another Tuesday at the same time at Washington Golf and Country Club. On Wednesday the ex-national women's champion will play an exhibition match at Columbia with Mrs. Walter Stokes, the Middle Atlantic titlist, host pro Fred McLeod and Mel Shorey of Indian Spring.

Miss Berg's visit is sponsored by the WDGA.

Georgetown, sponsoring golf on a major scale for the first time since 1942, opens its 15-match schedule Thursday at Washington Golf and Country Club against an eight-man team from Dartmouth.

The George Washington University golfers will conclude their tryouts today and tomorrow under George Diefenbaugh at Kenwood while Al Houghton expects to name the University of Maryland team after further practice rounds this week at Prince Georges.

Tomorrow is the opening day of the Maryland State Golf Association's two-week campaign to sell a State handicap card to every club member in the association. The drive will continue through April 15. The cards will be available in golf shops of all member clubs.

President Frank Mirth of the Maryland group said golfers positively will be denied admittance to State events unless they possess a card with a corrected handicap.

Of the six principal golf associations in this section, the Middle Atlantic PGA and the Middle Atlantic Amateur, the District Golf Association and Maryland States have announced their schedules. The women will add theirs today, leaving only the public links group to announce its tournament dates.

WDGA Results

Congressional and Army-Navy Club teams shared top honors yesterday with six points apiece as the first Women's District Golf Association interteam matches were played at Kenwood.

Congressional scored its points against Woodmont, Army and Navy against Chevy Chase.

In second team matches, Kenwood, with nine points, won at Washington Golf and Country Club. Kenwood's third team won five points from Washington Golf and Country to win honors in that division also.

Yesterday's first team match results.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Mrs. W. R. Stokes and Mrs. J. N. Dalley (Manor), 1½ points; Mrs. B. Bowen and Mrs. Frank Mirth (Indian Spring), 1½ points. Mrs. J. B. Brownell and Mrs. Bunker Hill (Manor) lost to Mrs. John Long and Mrs. M. S. Shahan (Indian Spring), 3-0. Mrs. Herb Love and Mrs. Ralph Zuber (Manor) won from Mrs. Don Hess and Mrs. R. D. Watson (Indian Spring), 2½ to ½. Mrs. Hugh Nicolson and Mrs. Landra Platt (Chevy Chase) won from Mrs. M. S. Little and Miss Ann Stonemetz (Army and Navy), 2 to 1. Mrs. E. P. Moore and Mrs. M. J. Torlinski (Army and Navy) won from Mrs. Woodliff Thomas and Mrs. Arnold Wilcox (Chevy Chase), 2 to 1. Mrs. R. C. Johnson and Mrs. S. P. Wright (Army and Navy) won from Mrs. Albert Walker and Mrs. Jarrett White (Chevy Chase), 3 to 0. Mrs. D. H. Henderson and Mrs. C. Dole (Congressional) won from Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith and Mrs. Henry Goodman (Woodmont), 2½ to ½. Mrs. Theo Peyser and Miss Ruth Simon (Woodmont) won from Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith and Mrs. Henry Goodman (Woodmont), 3 to 0. Mrs. Jami and Mrs. Chapman (Congressional) won from Mrs. Milton Harris and Mrs. E. I. Kaufman (Woodmont), 2½ to ½.

Army Navy's Sextet Is Surprise Winner In Women's Golf

The first-round matches in the Women's District Golf Association team series yesterday produced Army Navy as the surprise sextet of the first-team matches and Kenwood the big winner of the second-team series. Kenwood won the only third-team match over Washington, 5-4, while Columbia was idle.

The first-team matches, which opened at Kenwood, are being played from scratch this year after one season on a handicap basis. Army Navy scored heavily in the lower brackets, with Mrs. R. L. Johnson and Mrs. P. S. Wright coming through with three points to upset Chevy Chase, 6-3.

Manor's defending champions lost, 5-4, to Indian Spring. Mrs. W. R. Stokes and Mrs. John R. Daily of Manor salvaged a point and a half in the top bracket against Mrs. A. B. Bower and Mrs. Frank Mirth when Mrs. Stokes dropped a 30-foot putt on the 18th. In the other match Congressional edged Woodmont, 5-4. Kenwood drew a bye in the seven-team league.

Kenwood's 9-0 victory over Columbia, lowest handicapped team in the second-team series, was the biggest margin in the matches at Washington Golf and Country Club. Columbia had only five players, however, and Mrs. W. C. Hayes played alone in losing three points in the top bracket. Washington defeated Manor, 5½-3½, and Chevy Chase won, 5½-3½, over Congressional, while Prince Georges posted a 5-4 margin over Belle Haven.

The second matches in the round robin series will be played next Monday.

For the second straight week Army Navy Club women's golf team scored a convincing 6-3 triumph over one of the top teams in the class A series—yesterday it was Kenwood—to maintain the lead by a half-point over Indian Spring.

In other matches at Congressional, Indian Spring defeated Woodmont, 6½-2½, and Chevy Chase handed Manor's defending champs another setback, 6½-2½.

The second team series, played at Kenwood, looms as the closest of the lot. Matches between Kenwood and Chevy Chase, Prince Georges and Manor and Congressional and Washington were tied, 4½ each, while Belle Haven edged Columbia, 5½-3½.

88 Tee Off Tomorrow In Keefer Cup Golf Play

Four former champions, including two-time winner Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, are among the 88 entries in the opening event on the District Women's Golf Association schedule, the Keefer Cup tournament that starts tomorrow at Chevy Chase. The other ex-champs are Mrs. Marie Walper, Mrs. W. R. Stokes and Mrs. Landra Platt.

The field of 88 for the opening 18-hole round will be reduced to the low 32 and ties for Thursday's 18-hole final in the 36-hole handicap event. A new challenger for the low gross award will be Ann Stonemetz, the promising young club champion from Army-Navy.

Mrs. Russell Paces Field In Cup Play

Mrs. Marion Russell of Prince Georges Country Club, shot a net 77 to pace the field of 83 starters in yesterday's opening round of the Keefer Cup Tournament at the Chevy Chase Club.

Despite adverse weather conditions, Mrs. Russell put together rounds of 45 and 43 for a gross of 88, which with an 11 handicap gave her a 1-stroke advantage over Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg of Kenwood, who went around in 85-7-78.

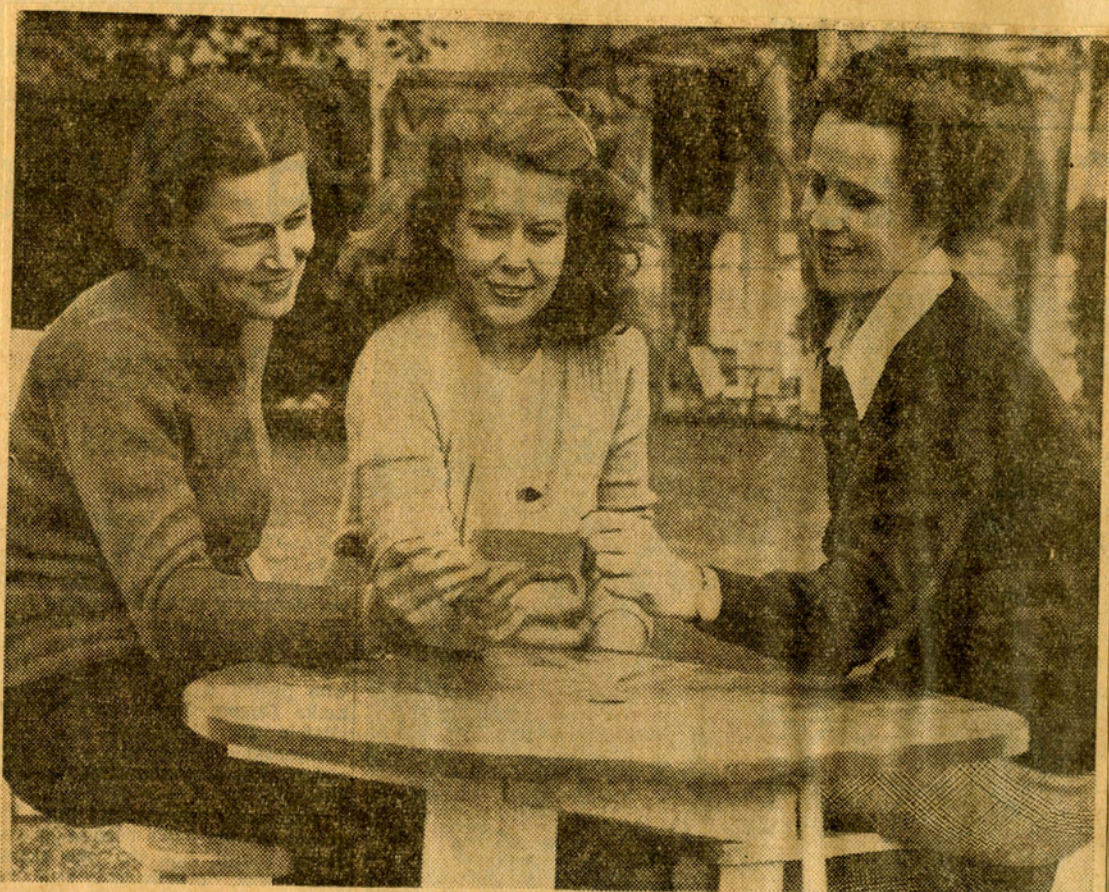

Mrs. Arthur Phelan of the Chevy Chase Club also managed to get into the 70s, with a 96-17-79, and third place.

Low gross honors went to Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, who shot an 83. Her handicap of 2 strokes gave her sixth place among the leaders with an 81.

Thirty-six women qualified for today's final 18-hole round. Yesterday's results and the starting times of today's twosomes follow:

Mrs. Marion Russell, Prince Georges, 88-11-77; Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg, Kenwood, 85-7-78; Mrs. Arthur Phelan, Chevy Chase, 96-17-79; Mrs. G. R. Five Players, Closely Grouped, Battle for Keefer Golf Cup

The perfectly groomed Chevy Chase course is a tonic for the occasional golfer, or at least it was in the first round of the Keefer Cup yesterday as Mrs. Marion Russell of Prince Georges and Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg of Kenwood took temporary possession of first and second place in their fourth and third rounds of the season, respectively.

The women golfers had a better break from the weather today—at least the wind wasn't blowing 48 miles an hour—and the scores figured to be closer to normal. Five players were grouped within four shots, all in contention for the cup in the 36-hole medal play event.

Mrs. Stokes Shoots 83.

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes had the best round of the day—an excellent 83 considering the conditions—and faced competition only from Kenwood club champion Mrs. Kreuzberg for low gross honors. The latter had an 85 and with a seven-stroke handicap was in a position for both net and gross.

Mrs. Russell, the Federal women's golf titlist, came up with one of her best rounds, an 88, and deducted 11 handicap strokes for a 77. Mrs. Kreuzberg had 85-7-78 and Mrs. Arthur Phelan, a second team player from the host club, had 96-17-79. The net 80 scorers were Mrs. G. R. Gable of Kenwood with 97-17-80, and Mrs. Arnold Willcox of Chevy Chase, 91-11-80.

Mrs. Stokes made her long shots behave in the wind, and with better putting luck would have been under 80. The Middle Atlantic titlist three-putted the 16th and turned a 10-foot putt for a birdie on the 17th into another three-putt green.

Two Others Break 90.

The only players in addition to Stokes-Kreuzberg and Russell who broke 90 were Mrs. Hugh Nicholson of the host club, and Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring. Each had 88. Defending Champion Mrs. Landra Platt had an even 90. Army-Navy's touted young star, Anne Stonemetz, ran into an eight on the 17th and finished with 94. Mrs. Marie Walper had 94 and Mrs. Betty Meckley, one of the low gross favorites, withdrew because of illness.

Other low first-round scores included Mrs. John Long of Indian Spring, 94-12-82; Mrs. J. T. Powell of Kenwood, 98-14-84; Ruth Simon of Woodmont, 99-15-84, from nines of 45 and 54, Miss Stonemetz, 94-10-84, Mrs. C. B. Monroe of Kenwood, 103-18-85; Mrs. Davis Weir of Congressional, 102-17-85, and Mrs. Nicholson, 88-3-85.

Anne Stonemetz Wins Keefer Cup With 156, Mrs. Gable 2d

Twenty-one-year-old Anne Stonemetz of Army-Navy Country Club blazed in with an 82 yesterday to win the annual Women's District Golf Association tournament for the Keefer Cup with a 36-hole net score of 156.

Back in the pack with a 94 in Wednesday's opening round at Chevy Chase, the young star went out in 38 and back in 44 for a five-stroke victory with a 36-hole handicap of 20. In second place was Mrs. G. R. Gable of Kenwood, competing in Class A for the first time, with rounds of 97 and 98 and a 34-stroke handicap.

Gross honors went to Manor Club's Middle Atlantic champion, Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, whose rounds of 83 and 84 for 167 beat out Mrs. Landra Platt of Chevy Chase by 3 strokes.

Miss Stonemetz's Cup Victory Erases Earlier Disappointment

Anne Stonemetz was a mighty golf posted by the Middle Atlantic champion, Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, who won gross honors by 10 strokes with 82-84, despite some very indifferent putting. "I spent so much time admiring these perfect greens I forgot to hit my putts," Mrs. Stokes said. Her tee-to-green golf was virtually perfect.

In the first place, the 21-year-old University of Delaware graduate knew she could do better. Secondly, she felt her Army-Navy teammates had given her too much buildup and had led the others to expect too much, and thirdly she had play-

Mrs. G. R. Gable of Kenwood celebrated her elevation to a class A player by winning second net with 97-98-195, 34, 161. Other net prize winners were Mrs. Arthur Phelan, Chevy Chase, 92-102-198, 34, 164; Mrs. William Foley of Kenwood, 107-97-204, 36, 168; Mrs. N. F. Hollander of Kenwood, 102-96-32, 166; Mrs. Arnold Willcox, Chevy Chase, 91-99-190, 22, 168, and Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood, 85-97-182, 14, 168. The first day's leader, Mrs. Marion Russell of Prince Georges, finished out of the prize list with 88-103-191, 22, 169.

ed in a gale, a condition, she confided later, that "scared her to death."

That's why that smart round of 82 yesterday brought out a big smile when the Navy captain's daughter was presented with the big Keefer Cup after the top comeback in the 16-year history of the 36-hole medal play tournament. The winning score was 94 and 82 for 176, minus 10 handicap strokes each day for a winning 156.

Stops Being Scared.

"The only difference in my 94 and 82 was that I made the putts the second day that I missed the first," Miss Stonemetz said, "and that all of a sudden I stopped being scared of a puff of wind and just ignored that small gale out there."

The Army-Navy Club champion pounds the ball for top distances for a woman golfer and that 82 included three three-put greens. She was out in 38, despite three putts on the ninth after hitting the green from the tee, and started back with a 2 on No. 10. Anne didn't have anything over a five until the 14th hole, when a penalty stroke and three-put green cost a 7.

The Keefer Cup winner was the Pensacola City champion at the age of 13, but had played little tournament golf since she was a youngster. Miss Stonemetz hopes to be around for a full season this year, however, and that 82 indicates it will be an interesting one.

Overshadowed by the winner's comeback were two fine rounds of

Anne Stonemetz Wins Keefer Cup With 156

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Anne Stonemetz, 21-year-old daughter of a naval captain, played the long, windy Chevy Chase club course in 82 strokes yesterday to turn the annual Women's District Golf association tournament for the Keefer cup into a rout with her 36-hole net score of 156.

The pretty, long-hitting Army and Navy Country club star, who won the Pensacola (Fla.) city championship when she was 13, was in a four-way deadlock for eighth place after Wednesday's first rounds, but yesterday when the leaders began to falter Miss Stonemetz went out in a remarkable 38 and returned in 44 to take over the show.

Carrying a 10-stroke handicap, which will go lower than the mercury in yesterday's thermometer after her performance in the final rounds, the pretty youngster posted 94 in her opening round and yesterday bettered that score by 12 shots in winning the coveted W.D.G.A. inaugural held in honor of Mrs. Frank Royer Keefer, former two-time president of the association.

Spoils Good Start

After getting out in 38, Miss Stonemetz birdied the 10th hole and appeared on the road to one of the finest scores ever made by a woman on Chevy Chase club's course. But, after getting fives on the long 11th and 12th holes, Miss Stonemetz took a double bogey at the 13th and a three-over par seven at the 14th to mar what could have been an even greater round.

Mrs. G. R. Gable, of Kenwood, playing as a class A player for the first time, finished second with 161. Putting together rounds of 97 and 98, and using a 17 stroke handicap per round, Mrs. Gable, who was a constant winner in the class B division, finished five strokes behind the winner and three shots in front of Mrs. Arthur Phelan of Chevy Chase, the third place winner. The Host club player had rounds of 96 and 102 and used a combined handicap of 34 for a 164 net.

Mrs. N. F. Hollander of Kenwood, finished fourth with 102-96-32-166, while Mrs. William Foley, a clubmate, had 107-97-36-168 to win fifth place in the card matching. Mrs. Arnold Willcox of Chevy Chase, with 91-99-22-168, took the sixth and final net prize, while Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg of Kenwood, the holder of second place on opening day,

Pitches 'n' Putts:

Times-Herald Class B Tourney Slated Friday

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Now that the class A players have opened their tournament season and the Keefer Cup event is a matter for the record book, the Women's District Golf association inaugural of the high handicappers—the Times-Herald tournament—will be played Friday at Kenwood Golf and Country club.

Mrs. C. P. Redick won the event last year but won't be able to defend because the Kenwood player has since been graduated into class A. However, Mrs. Redick will get a chance to do something that no other player has ever been able to do—be the winner of both the B and A Times-Herald tournaments. The A division of the Times-Herald is also scheduled for Kenwood and will be held Friday, May 23, just a week after the B divisional affair.

Mrs. Roderick Watson, chairman of the B tournament, said yesterday that the entries are coming in in great shape and that a record field is expected for the high handicap event. The pairings and starting times will be released in Tuesday's morning papers.

Big Events Coming

The two big events on the spring calendar hereabouts as far as the professionals are concerned are the qualifying trials for the National Open and the National P.G.A. The P.G.A. sectional tests are down for Monday, May 19, at Baltimore's Mt. Pleasant municipal course, while the open trials will be held June 2 at the Country Club of Maryland.

Lew Worsham, Sam Snead and Chandler Harper are all exempt from qualifying for the open at St. Louis, June 12, 13, and 14 and that leaves this area's trials a wide open affair. But there are no automatic qualifiers, except the champion, in the play-for-pay championship and Worsham, Snead and Harper will all have to take their chances with the rest in the 36-hole event at Mt. Pleasant.

Ely First to Enter

Worsham is going to be forced to make an overnight jump from Fort Worth, Texas to Baltimore to make the Middle Atlantic P.G.A. tests. The 28-year-old Washington pro, who recently signed as pro with Pittsburgh's famed Oakmont Country club, winds up play in the Colonial National Invitation on Sunday, May 18 and will take a

The first entry turned in for the Kenwood Golf and Country Club Invitation tournament was that of Roland Ely, who used to play his golf around Michigan and is considered one of the longest hitters among the amateurs in America. Ely is down to play with clubmate Comdr. H. J. Webb of the U. S. Coast Guard, a brother of Del Webb, part owner of the New York Yankees.

Both Ely and Webb play weekend golf at Washington Golf and Country club and Brick Wood reports that Ely can go with the best of them and will be a distinct threat. Webb, too, is considered a fine player and a good prospect for the championship flight.

Golf Chairman Bill Briggs has sent invitations to both Bing Crosby and Bob Hope for the May 20, 21 and 22 affair, and is hoping that at least one of the two will be able to make the event.

Indian Spring, Army-Navy Lead

Indian Spring and Army-Navy Country Club claimed the lead yesterday after third-round matches in first team play of the Women's District Golf Association, the first tripping Chevy Chase by 6½ to 2½, and the second whipping Congressional, 6-3.

Another first team match at the Manor links saw Kenwood turn back Woodmont, 7-2.

In second-team matches, played at Bell Haven, the hosts defeated Washington Golf and Country Club, 6-3; Kenwood blanked Manor, 9-0, and Chevy Chase downed Prince Georges, 6-3.

Army-Navy lost sole possession of first place in the Women's District Golf Association first team standings and Kenwood was ousted as the third team leader by Washington Golf and Country Club in the third week of team play yesterday. Kenwood remained on top among the second teams.

Indian Spring's 6½-2½ victory over Chevy Chase at Manor pulled the Four Corners Club into a tie with Army-Navy when the latter defeated Congressional, 6-3. Mrs. George Jani and Mrs. G. Chapman came through with three points for Congressional in the last bracket to prevent the Service club from taking the lead. In the other match Kenwood defeated Woodmont, 7-2. Manor drew a bye.

Columbia withdrew from the second team play and all its past and future opponents were awarded 9 points. In matches at Prince Georges yesterday, Kenwood blanked Manor, 9-0; Belle Haven defeated Washington, 6-3, and Chevy Chase won, 6-3, over Prince Georges.

Washington scored an 8½-½ victory over Columbia in a third-team match while host Kenwood drew a bye.

Field of 84 Women Listed for Kenwood Golf Tournament

The Women's District Golf Association's Class B players, those with handicaps of 19 and up, make their tournament debut Friday in the Times-Herald Cup play at Kenwood. Class B Tournament Chairman Mrs. R. D. Watson announced a field of 84 players for the 18-hole medal play handicap event, a near record.

The Class A players also will be active Friday in a team match against a 20-player team from Richmond at Congressional Country Club.

Times-Herald Golf Trophy Captured by Mrs. V. E. House

Here is Mrs. Vernon E. House, whose 99 total brought her the championship in the Women's District Golf association's Class B golf tournament at Kenwood yesterday.

Host Club Player Cards 78 Net Round

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Out of the mist that shrouded Kenwood Golf and Country club's course yesterday stepped Mrs. Vernon E. House, to win the annual Women's District Golf association's class B tournament for the Times-Herald cup.

The host club player, who had never figured prominently in major golf competition before, posted a gross round of 49-52-99, aided by a handicap allowance of 21 strokes for a net of 78, to not only be the low net winner but the low gross as well.

Low Gross Playoff

Mrs. House elected to become the second Kenwood player in succession to hold the coveted high handicap trophy and her decision tossed the low gross division of the event into a playoff between Mrs. Charles A. Jostes of the host club and Mrs. R. D. Young of Washington, both of whom had 102's and met Monday in an 18-hole extra session.

In succeeding her clubmate, Mrs. C. P. Redick, as the reigning titlist, Mrs. House was the only player in the record field of 85 to break a 100 over the Rover Road course. It marked the first time in the history of women's golf in this section that a complete entry list teed-off without a withdrawal.

Mrs. J. C. deJonge of Manor, and Mrs. Wilma Levy of Prince Georges, posted nets of 80 to be the early tournament leaders. But as things turned out the 108-28-80 turned in by Mrs. deJonge took the second low net award in the card matching system used by the W.D.G.A. and Mrs. Levy had to be content with third place with her round of 105-25-80.

Plenty of Deadlocks

There was also a deadlock for the fourth, fifth and eighth places in the tournament. Mrs. Paulina Remey of Prince Georges, had 105-24-81 and was awarded the prize when Mrs. Young decided to take a fling at the gross prize. Mrs. Young had 102-21-81.

Mrs. Jostes, who had 102-20-82, dropped out of the bunched net 82 shooters and Mrs. Doran Platt of Manor, came up as the winner of fifth place with 103-21-82. Mrs. Joseph Kerr of Kenwood, got sixth with 107-25-82, and Mrs. S. Hartshorn, of Columbia, seventh with 110-28-82.

Mrs. George Bond of Kenwood, was drawn out of the four-way deadlock for eighth place as the winner with a card of 104-21-83. The others in order were: Mrs. D. L. Moorman, Congressional, 105-22-83; Mrs. M. W. Fillius, Kenwood, 110-27-83; and Mrs. R. L. Brister, Washington, 109-26-83.

Capital's Linkswomen Score Heavily Over Richmond Team

The Richmond women's golf team took a 21-3 drubbing at the hands of 16 of the District's top players in the first intercity match of the season yesterday, but, paradoxically the visitors from Virginia almost stole the show.

They did it by averting a shutout in scoring three points in three matches where the handicaps of the Richmond twosomes more than doubled that of the handicaps of the District players. The matches were played from scratch.

In the only match won by the visitors, Mrs. Hiram Smith made it a triple celebration (it was her birthday and wedding anniversary) by pairing with Mrs. G. S. Hall to win 2 points to 1 for Mrs. L. G. Pray and Mrs. Rex Howard. The handicap totals were 22 for Richmond and 10 for Washington in that match.

The Virginia State and Richmond champion, Mrs. James Reynolds, and Mrs. S. R. Hall lost three points to the District's top team of Mrs. W. R. Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Bower. Mrs. Bower had 84, Mrs. Stokes 86 and Mrs. Reynolds 88. A return match will be played July 11 or 18 in Richmond.

Results, with Washington players named first:

Mrs. A. B. Bower and Mrs. W. R. Stokes scored 3 points to none for Mrs. James Reynolds and Mrs. S. R. Hall; Mrs. Hugh Nicolson and Mrs. Landra Platt scored 3 points to none for Mrs. Llewellyn Miller and Mrs. Clara Priddy; Mrs. L. G. Pray and Mrs. Rex Howard scored 1 point to 2 for Mrs. G. S. Hall and Mrs. Hiram Smith; Mrs. K. S. Giles and Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg scored 3 points to none for Mrs. R. B. Moore and Mrs. W. R. Pollard; Mrs. S. F. Little and Mrs. John Ives scored 2½ to ½ for Mrs. J. W. Hannabas and Mrs. Harry Schwartzchild; Anne Stonemetz and Mrs. D. H. Henderson scored 3 points to none for Frances Rand and Mrs. M. F. Taylor; Mrs. Marie Walper and Mrs. Henry Goodman scored 3 points to none for Mrs. C. M. Chichester and Mrs. H. E. Heatherbell; Mrs. Gale Pugh and Mrs. Frank Mirth scored 2½ points to ½ for Isabelle Coale and Mrs. Lewis Miller.

Mrs. Vernon E. House risked the jinx of a brand-new set of sticks and came out on top in the first Class B tournament of the season yesterday at Kenwood, the annual Times-Herald Cup play. For the first time on record, the original starting field of 85 teed off.

Mrs. House, whose husband, Vernon (Red) House, is a former national motorcycle hill-climbing champion, kept the cup at her home Kenwood Club with a round of 47-52-99, minus 21 handicap strokes for a net 78. Mrs. D. L. Moorman of Congressional and Mrs. M. W. Fillius of Kenwood tied for gross honors among the 19 and up handicapped players and will play off Monday.

Other prize winners: Mrs. J. C. deJonge (Manor), 108-28-80; Mrs. Wilma Levy (Prince Georges), 105-25-80; Mrs. Paulina Remey (Prince Georges), 105-24-81; Mrs. Doran Platt (Manor), 103-21-82; Mrs. Joseph Kerr (Kenwood), 107-25-82; Mrs. S. Hartshorn (Columbia), 110-28-82; Mrs. George Bond (Kenwood), 104-21-83, and Mrs. R. L. Brister (Washington), 109-26-83.

D.C. Women's Golf Team Opens Campaign as Richmond Visits

The Women's District Golf Association's intercity team of 20 players opened its most ambitious schedule in years by playing host to Richmond today at Congressional Country Club. With the handicaps of the District team ranging from 2 to 11 and those of the visitors from 7 to 24, the District team ruled a heavy favorite.

The Richmond match is the first of five for the Washington team, with a return match with the Virginians, home and home matches with Baltimore and one with Philadelphia, there, on the schedule.

The Class B players of the WDGA, like their Class A clubmates in the Keefer Cup last week, had little encouragement from the weatherman as 84 players teed off in the Times-Herald Cup tournament today at Kenwood Country Club. With Mrs. C. P. Redick now a Class A player, the 18-hole medal event was without a defending titlist.

Mrs. H. A. Knox's 46-11-35 was the low net score in the selective nine-hole tournament of the Congressional Women's Golf Committee yesterday. Mrs. C. T. Penn had 46-10-36 and Mrs. Davis Wier, 45-8-37. Mrs. F. G. Awalt posted low putts with 32. Two tied for low gross in Class C, Mrs. H. E. Gruver and Mrs. S. S. Bruce, with 35.

The weekly Women's Golf Committee event at Indian Spring found Mrs. A. B. Bower low net among the members with 80-4-76 while Mrs. R. E. Zuber of Manor topped the guests with 101-16-85.

Kenwood Wins At Army-Navy

The Kenwood, Manor, Chevy Chase and Army-Navy Country Clubs advanced in the Women's District Golf Association first team matches yesterday, at the Army-Navy Country Club.

Kenwood defeated Indian Spring, 5-4; Manor downed Woodmont, 6½-2½; Chevy Chase took Congressional, 6-3, and Army-Navy drew a bye.

In second team matches, Prince Georges defeated Congressional, 8-1; Chevy Chase and Belle Haven drew, 4½-4½, and Kenwood tied Washington, 4½-4½, on the Prince Georges links.

Kenwood won the only third team match played at Columbia by defeating Washington Golf and Country Club, 6-3. Columbia drew a bye.

The results of the first team matches:

KENWOOD, 5; INDIAN SPRING, 4
Mrs. A. B. Bower-Mrs. C. Gilles (IS), 2; Mrs. Rex Howard-Mrs. R. Kreuzberg, 1; Mrs. P. Mirth-Mrs. J. Costello (IS), 1½; Mrs. Pearson Mencher-Mrs. E. Widmayer, 1½; Mrs. J. H. Bullock-Mrs. R. Keedler (K), 2½; Mrs. R. B. Watson-Mrs. J. Sasser, ½.
MANOR, 6½; WOODMONT, 2½
Mrs. W. R. Stokes-Mrs. Leo Butler (M), 1½; Mrs. R. Goldsmith-Mrs. H. Goodman, 1½; Mrs. J. Bailey-Mrs. B. Hill (M), 2; Mrs. T. Peyser-Mrs. G. Hahn, 1; Mrs. H. Lacey-Mrs. R. Zuber (M), 3; Miss Ruth Simon-Mrs. M. Harris, 0.
CHEVY CHASE, 6; CONGRESSIONAL, 3

New Leaders Bob Up In WGDA Team Play

Indian Spring, 22; Manor, 13; Army Navy, 18; Congressional, 11; Chevy Chase, 18; Woodmont, 11; Kenwood, 15.

Second Team Standings.
Kenwood, 27; Congressional, 18; Belle Haven, 24½; Washington, 17½; Chevy Chase, 20½; Manor, 15½; Prince Georges, 20½.

Third Team Standings.
Kenwood, 17½; Columbia, 3; Washington, 15½.

The Women's District Golf Association's team match series passed the half-way mark yesterday with new leaders in two of the three divisions. While Army Navy was host to the first team matches and thus drew a bye, Indian Spring lost, 5-4, to Kenwood, but broke the tie and took a four-point lead. Chevy Chase defeated Congressional, 6-3, and Manor won, 6½-2½, over Woodmont.

Kenwood regained possession of the lead among the third teams by defeating Washington, 6-3, at Columbia.

Two ties marked the second team play as Kenwood protected its advantage by playing a 4½-all deadlock with Washington, while second-place Belle Haven tied Chevy Chase by the same score. Prince Georges won, 8-1, over Congressional.

Times-Herald Golf Reset for June 9

The Women's District Golf Association class A tournament for the Times-Herald Cup, originally scheduled for today at Kenwood Golf and Country Club, has been postponed until Monday, June 9.

This was announced yesterday by Mrs. Willard Edwards, class A tournament chairman, who said Kenwood has requested the change because the soft condition of the course would not allow the cutting of the fairways.

A record field of 91 were to have taken part in the 18-hole event for low handicappers.

Mrs. Edwards in making her announcement said the same pairings and starting times would hold over for the June 9 event.

Women's Golf Play Tomorrow Is Off

The Class A section of the Women's District Golf Association's Times-Herald Cup tournament, scheduled tomorrow at Kenwood, has been postponed due to the heavy rains which left the course too soggy to accommodate a field of that size. Ninety-five were scheduled to compete.

Mrs. L. E. Hutchison, president of the association, announced the postponement after talking with Kenwood Pro George Dffenbaugh. Mrs. Willard Edwards, acting tournament chairman, said the new date probably will be some time in July.

Maryland Golfwomen Consider Tournament Bids to Virginians

The informal invitation extended to three Virginia clubs, Army Navy, Washington and Belle Haven, to join the Maryland State Golf Association so that its women members may be eligible for the Maryland State championship at Kenwood July 7-11 will be put before the MSGA's Executive Committee meeting next week.

Mrs. Frank Mirth, wife of the president of the Maryland group and chairman of the Maryland Women's Committee, presented the plan at the spring meeting of the Women's District Golf Association yesterday at Chevy Chase. Mrs. Mirth said the proposal was not official, but it drew favorable response from the women members of the Virginia clubs.

Mrs. L. E. Hutchison, president of the WDGA, announced that the girls' junior championship would be revived this year if entries warrant.

it. Girl golfers from the public courses probably will be admitted.

Due to the large number of entries in the women's tournaments to date, it was decided not to accept post entries in future tournaments. Arrangements for the July 25 mixed scotch foursome at Columbia Country Club were discussed. The event is for the benefit of the Boys' Club summer camp fund.

Indian Spring moved 3½ points past Army Navy in the WDGA first-team matches yesterday by blanking Congressional, 9-0, at Chevy Chase, while Army Navy was held to a 5½-3½ triumph over Woodmont when Mrs. Theodore Peyser and Mrs. Gilbert Hahn scored three points in the second bracket. Manor and Kenwood tied, 4½ each.

Kenwood retained its lead among the third teams by defeating Columbia, 6-3, at Washington.

Indian Spring Wins Golf

Indian Spring pinned a 9-0 whitewashing on Congressional in the Women's District Golf Association first team matches at Chevy Chase yesterday.

In other first team matches, Manor and Kenwood split with 4½ points each, and Army-Navy defeated Woodmont, 5½-3½.

In the third team match at Washington Golf and Country Club, Kenwood, downed Columbia, 6-3, as Washington drew a bye.

The results follow:

Two Shoot 75's To Tie in NBC Women's Golf

Mrs. William Foley of Kenwood, and Mrs. O. L. Young of Prince Georges posted net rounds of 75 yesterday at Army and Navy Country club to deadlock for low net honors in the Women's District Golf association sponsored NBC Cup tournament.

Playoffs Set Tomorrow

Mrs. Foley turned in a card of 43-50-93 and was aided by a handicap allowance of 18 strokes, while Mrs. Young did a remarkable 39 on the front nine but took a 47 on the back. The Prince Georges player used an 11-stroke handicap. The playoff for the trophy has been set for tomorrow at 10:30 a.m.

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring carried off low gross honors with an 80, composed of twin nines of 40. The District champion recorded 10 pars but several double-bogeys marred what could have been a brilliant round.

Deadlock Broken

Mrs. Nick Hollander, 92-16-76, took third low net after a deadlock with Mrs. Bunker Hill, Manor, 89-13-76, had been broken via the W.D.G.A. card matching system. Mrs. Frank Mirth of Indian Spring, 88-11-77, took fifth place, Mrs. M. M. Alexander, Washington, 96-18-78, finished sixth and Mrs. George Bailey of Washington, 89-10-79, was drawn out of a group five ties for the final prize place.

The others were Mrs. M. J. Torlinski, Army and Navy; Mrs. J. H. Bullock, Kenwood; Mrs. E. P. Moore, Army and Navy; and Mrs. J. J. Corson, Washington.

Mrs. Young in Playoff With Mrs. Foley for Golf Cup Tomorrow

The Women's District Golf Association tossed out its matching cards rule for cup ties this season and decided to settle any deadlocks by playoffs, which means that Mrs. O. L. Young of Prince Georges and Mrs. William Foley of Kenwood will play off for the annual NBC Cup honors tomorrow at Army Navy.

Both players were well below their handicaps on the first nine in the 1-hole event yesterday at the service club, Mrs. Young with a 39 and Mrs. Foley with a 43, but they slipped to 45 and 50, respectively, on the back nine and tied for the cup. Mrs. Young had 86-11-75 and Mrs. Foley, 93-18-75.

Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District champion from Indian Spring, decided to play in one more event this season and won gross honors with a round of 80. Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor was second gross with an 84. Mrs. Bower had 10 pars and two birdies, by the men's card, on her round.

Other net prize winners were Mrs. Nick Hollander of Kenwood, 92-16-76; Mrs. Bunker Hill of Manor, 89-13-76; Mrs. Frank Mirth of Kenwood, 88-11-77; Mrs. M. M. Alexander of Washington, 96-18-78, and Mrs. George H. Bailey, Jr., of Washington, 89-10-79. Four players lost out in the draw, Mrs. M. J. Torlinski of Army Navy, 91-12-79; Mrs. J. H. Bullock of Indian Spring, 95-16-79; Mrs. E. P. Moore of Army Navy, 89-10-79, and Mrs. J. J. Corson of Washington, 93-14-79.

Defending Champion Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood had 89-6-83.

Mrs. F. W. Chambers was the winner in the weekly event of the Manor Country Club Women's Golf Committee, with a 101-31-70. Mrs. W. E. Welch was second, 93-22-71, and Mrs. S. F. Franks, third, 103-30-73.

Mrs. Bower Wins Low Net

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring won the Times-Herald Cup for her 79-2-77 low net score in the DWGA play yesterday at Kenwood.

Mrs. Bower went out on 41 and came home in 38 strokes for her winning score. She led a field of 84 players.

Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor was low gross winner with a 42, 43-85.

Second low net was Mrs. John Long of Indian Spring with 78, four down to par. She was followed by Mrs. M. S. White, Army and Navy, 78, five down to par; Mrs. Bunker Hill, Manor, 79, four down to par; Mrs. Webb Hays, Columbia, 79, foul down to par; Mrs. E. Wiemayer, Kenwood, 79, four down to par; Mrs. A. P. Sasscer, Indian Spring, 80, four down to par, and Mrs. A. A. Morrill, Kenwood, 80, six down to par.

Mrs. Jack Howard Defends Golf Title

The Class B women's golf tournament, sponsored by Station WMAL, will take place at the Washington Golf and Country Club Tuesday. Eighty-eight entries have been filed. The defending champion is Mrs. Jack Howard of Belle Haven.

Consistency Pays Off As Mrs. Bower Wins Kenwood Golf Title

Consistency, that gem of attributes, paid off for Mrs. A. B. Bower yesterday as the Indian Spring ace put together a card of 79-2-77 over Kenwood's tricky layout to take the Times-Herald Cup in the annual Women's District Golf Association class A event.

Mrs. Bower had to make every shot count for the keen handicap competition found two rivals knocking on victory's door at the final green. But, whereas the winner kept her scorching pace, the others faltered. Mrs. John Long, Mrs. Bower's fellow club member, arrived at the last hole needing a 4 to win and 5 to tie, but took 6 and finished second. The same fate in the same circumstance befell Mrs. M. S. White of Army Navy Club.

Mrs. Bower toured the outgoing nine in 41 strokes, and returned in 40, two over men's par. In electing to take the net prize she automatically relinquished gross honors to Mrs. Walter Stokes, who had a 85-2-83 card.

Mrs. White, sporting a 16-stroke handicap, posted a 47-47-94 to tie Mrs. Long for runnerup net award, but lost out on the WDGA system of matching cards.

A similar situation arose for fourth-place honors, with Mrs. Bunker Hill of Manor, 91-12-79, getting the decision over Mrs. Webb Hayes of Columbia, and Mrs. Ed Widmayer of Kenwood. Mrs. Hayes posted 91-12-79 for fifth prize, and Mrs. Widmayer's 93-14-79 took sixth.

Mrs. A. P. Sasscer of Indian Spring and Mrs. A. A. Morrill of Kenwood had net totals of 80, but the former drew seventh honors and Mrs. Morrill, eighth. Mrs. Sasscer's card was 93-13-80, and her rival's was 95-15-80.

Field of 88 Women In WMAL Golf Event

Mrs. Pratt Captures WMAL Golf Tourney

Mrs. H. G. Pratt of Washington Country Club will hold the WMAL Cup for a year after winning the Class B women's golf tournament yesterday over her home course.

She carded 98-20-78, two strokes better than Mrs. R. L. Hutchison, also of Washington, who had 103-23-80. Mrs. F. J. Hanrahan of Kenwood won low gross honors with 102.

Other low scores: Mrs. J. R. Hogan, Washington, 109-28-81; Mrs. Joseph Kerr, Kenwood, 108-25-83; Mrs. D. R. Monsees, Washington, 111-27-84; Mrs. C. F. Anderson, Manor, 103-18-84; Mrs. H. M. Nelson, Washington, 113-29-84, and Mrs. E. S. Hartshorn, Columbia, 111-26-85.

MRS. BOWER WINS WOMEN'S CLASS A GOLF

The Times-Herald Cup Has a New Owner

Mrs. A. B. Bower (left, above) receives the Times-Herald trophy from Mrs. L. E. Hutchison, president of the Women's District Golf association, after winning the Class

A tournament yesterday at Kenwood Country club. The District champion, who shoots a game that is the envy of most men, also had the low gross of the day—a 79.

Mrs. Stokes Takes Gross Prize With 85

86 Players Seek Times-Herald Cup

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Playing in what will probably be her last tournament of the year, Mrs. A. B. Bower, Indian Spring Club's District champion, an expectant mother, played the tricky water-logged Kenwood Golf and Country Club in 79 strokes yesterday to be just the whole show in the annual class A Women's District Golf Association event for the Times-Herald Cup.

A former Kentucky State champion and one of the nation's finest players before giving up big-time campaigning, Mrs. Bower took 41 strokes on her outward journey and then returned in a two over men's par 38 on the harder back nine to complete her great round. The Indian Spring Club champion was not only low net with 77 for the 18-hole medal play tournament, but low gross as well.

Mrs. Stokes Has 85

Mrs. Bower, who has a two stroke handicap, elected to take the low net award and as a result Mrs. Walter R. Stokes the Middle Atlantic champion, fell heir to the gross prize with a round of 85. The Manor club champion playing with Mrs. Bower, was out in 42 and back in 43.

Second low net in the record field of 86 players was Mrs. John Long, another Indian Spring club player, who finished with a net of 78. Mrs. Long came to the last hole needing a four to win the tournament, but the 12 handicapped player took a six to give her a 46 on the back nine after having had a 44 on the front side.

Mrs. M. S. White, of Army and Navy, was another player who could have won or tied for the coveted top honors, but she, too, finished with a disastrous six on the last hole.

Deadlock for Second

The service club player, carrying a 16-stroke handicap, posted a 47-47-94 to deadlock with Mrs. Long for second but lost out via the W.D.G.A. card-matching system.

Another deadlock occurred for fourth place and Mrs. Bunker Hill, of Manor, who had 91-12-79, got the nod over Mrs. Webb Hayes, of Columbia, and Mrs. Ed Widmayer, of Kenwood. Mrs. Hayes posted 91-12-79 to get fifth, and Mrs. Widmayer's 93-14-79 was dropped back into sixth place.

Mrs. A. P. Sasscer, of Indian Spring, and Mrs. A. A. Morrill, of the host club, finished with nets of 80, but Mrs. Sasscer was drawn into seventh place and the River Road club player took the eighth and last-place winning award. Mrs. Sasscer had 93-13-80, while Mrs. Morrill finished with 95-15-80.

Mrs. Bower's card, par for the course and the scores turned in are as follows:

Mrs. Bower—

Women's Links Teams Roll Up Loop Scores

One-sided triumphs marked play in the Women's District Golf Association team matches yesterday at Indian Spring Club. Manor, paced by Mrs. Walter Stokes' sizzling 77, walloped Army-Navy, 7½ to 1½. Kenwood took Congressional's measure by a similar margin as Mrs. Ed Widmayer turned in an 83.

Woodmont had a tougher time earning a 5½ to 3½ decision over Chevy Chase. Kenwood's victory advanced it to second place with 27 points, four points behind the pace-making Indian Spring team. Manor moved into a third-place tie with Army-Navy.

Women's D. C. Title Golf Play Opens at Manor Tomorrow

Fifty-five players tee off tomorrow morning at Manor in qualifying rounds for the Women's District Golf Association championship tournament. It appears a wide-open affair, with Mrs. A. B. Bower not defending her title won last year.

Among the prominent golfers entered are Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor, Mrs. Betty Meckley and Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, and Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia. A newcomer who has been playing a lot of good golf lately and who promises to be a threat is Mrs. E. P. Moore of Army Navy.

Tomorrow's qualifying test is at 18 holes and will cut the field down to four flights of 16 players. Play thereafter will be 18-hole match play each day until the title is decided.

Pairings and starting times:

9:15—Mrs. H. E. Davies (Man.) and Mrs. W. E. Welch (Man.). 9:19—Mrs. Bunker Hill (Man.) and Mrs. A. A. Morrill (Ken.). 9:23—Mrs. Roderick Watson (Man.) and Miss Grace King (Man.). 9:27—Mrs. J. R. District Championships

Betty Meckley, Mrs. Pray Are Upset in Women's Golf

Two favorites, Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, medalist, and Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, were upset yesterday in the first round of match play in the Women's District Golf Association championships at Manor.

Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, eliminated Mrs. Meckley, 1 up, by sinking an 8-foot putt on the eighteenth green. Mrs. Meckley won medalist honors Monday with a 78.

Mrs. Pray, recent winner of the Hinshaw Cup at Columbia, also lost on the eighteenth hole on a putt by Mrs. S. F. Little, Army-Navy.

Other results in the championship flight:

Mrs. Richard Kruezburg, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Webb Hayes, Columbia, 5-4.

Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor, defeated Mrs. E. P. Moore, Army-Navy, 5-3.

Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Roderick Watson, Manor, 2-1.

Mrs. J. R. Daily, Manor, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 3-2.

Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges, defeated Mrs. Bunker Hill, 4-3.

Miss Eleanor Finckel, Columbia, defeated Mrs. W. E. Welch, 7-6.

Pairings for today's second round:

- 9:50—Hill vs. Welch.
9:55—Moore vs. Watson.
10:20—Pray vs. Howard.
Mrs. Hayes vs. bye (Mrs. Meckley not playing).

Betty Meckley Has 78 for Medal in District Championship

Mrs. Pray Three Back With 81

Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, shot a 38-40—78 to take medal honors in the qualifying round of the Women's District Golf Association championships yesterday at Manor.

Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor and Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia followed three strokes behind Mrs. Meckley with identical cards of 39-42—81.

Seven strokes behind the leaders were Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges and Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood. Mrs. Walper carded 42-44—86, while Mrs. Kreuzburg toured the course in 41-45—86.

Other women in the 80s were Mrs. J. R. Dailey, Manor, who scored 45, 42—87; Mrs. Roderick Watson of Manor, 44, 44—88, and Miss Eleanor Finckel, Columbia, 46, 43—89.

Also qualifying for first flight play were Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, 47, 43—90; Mrs. S. F. Little, Army-Navy, 45, 45—90; Mrs. E. P. Moore, Army-Navy, 49, 44—93; Mrs. Bunker Hill, Manor, 45, 49—94, and Mrs. Webb Hayes, Columbia, 48, 46—94.

Also Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 44, 50—94; Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, 49, 47—96, and Mrs. W. E. Walsh, Manor, 49, 47—96.

Match play will start today at 9 a. m. and will continue Wednesday and Thursday. The final round will be held Friday morning.

Stokes-Ives Clash Headlines Women's Golf; Favorites Out

Fireworks were popping prematurely in the women's District Golf Association championship today at Manor Club with two pre-tourney favorites, Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood and Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, on the sidelines.

Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor, who automatically advances to the role of No. 1 choice with the above contestants out of the way, was to meet Mrs. John Ives of Columbia today in a match that had all the earmarks of a sizzler. Mrs. Stokes eliminated Mrs. E. P. Moore of Army-Navy by a decisive 5 and 3 margin, while Mrs. Ives was forced to the 17th green to gain a 2 and 1 verdict over Mrs. Roderick Watson of Manor.

Eleanor Finckel of Columbia, dark horse of the title fight, displayed keen form in ousting Mrs. W. E. Welch, 7 and 6, and was a slight favorite over Mrs. Marie Walker of Prince Georges, who defeated Mrs. Bunker Hill, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Meckley, medalist of the tourney, bowed out at the hands of Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, 1 up, when the latter dropped an 8-foot putt. A successful putt by Mrs. S. F. Little of Army-Navy also resulted in Mrs. Pray's elimination.

In other matches Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood downed Mrs. Webb Hayes of Columbia, 5 and 4, while Mrs. J. R. Dailey of Manor scored over Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, 3 and 2.

D. C. Golfwomen Open Match Play for Title

A three-way battle for the Women's District Golf Association championship was shaping up today among Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor and Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, who paced the field through yesterday's 18-hole qualifying round.

Mrs. Meckley won the medal with a neat 38—40—78 over Manor's long, curving fairways, while her rivals posted identical cards of 39—42—81. Scores as high as 96 qualified for the championship flight, with match play scheduled to begin today. The title match will be played Friday.

Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges and Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg of Kenwood turned in cards of 86, while others who broke 90 were Mrs. J. R. Dailey, Manor; Mrs. Roderick Watson, Manor, and Miss Eleanor Finckel of Columbia.

Mrs. Stokes' Six-Year Record Threatened By Mrs. Kreuzburg

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, who has been in the final of every District Women's Golf Association championship tournament since 1941, could maintain that record if she defeated Kenwood's titlist, Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, in a semifinal match today at Manor.

Mrs. Stokes, the Middle Atlantic and host club champion, expected to get more opposition from Mrs. Kreuzburg after winning her first two matches by a total of 12 up, the latest a 7-and-6 triumph over Mrs. John Ives of Columbia yesterday.

In the other semifinal Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges, the 1939 champion, met Mrs. S. F. Little of Army Navy. Mrs. Little, who scored one of the principal upsets of the first round, came back yesterday to overcome a 3-hole deficit and defeat Mrs. John Daily of the host club on the 18th, 2 up. Mrs. Walper won a match by the same margin over Elinor Finckel, an all-sports star from Columbia.

Mrs. Stokes won her first title in 1941 by defeating Mrs. Betty Meckley, 2 up. The following year she repeated with a 4-and-3 triumph over Mrs. T. O. Brandon, and the match play event was discontinued until last year. In 1946 Mrs. Stokes lost to Mrs. A. B. Bower, who did not defend, by a 2-and-1 margin.

Mrs. Kreuzburg advanced yesterday with a 3-and-2 triumph over Mrs. D. H. Henderson, the Congressional player who upset medalist Mrs. Betty Meckley in the first round.

The final match tomorrow between the Stokes-Kreuzburg victor and the Walper-Little winner will be played at 10 o'clock at Manor. Final matches in all other flights and consolations are scheduled.

Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Walper Reach Women's Golf Final

Title Round Set Today At Manor

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor kept her record of having gained every Women's District Golf Association final since 1941 intact as she defeated Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood, 3 and 2 yesterday at Manor.

In the other bracket, Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges downed Mrs. S. F. Little of Army-Navy, 2 up to win the right to meet Mrs. Stokes for the title today at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Stokes toured the Manor layout in a sparkling 78, and while Mrs. Kreuzburg had a respectable 82, it was not good enough to match the brand of golf exhibited by the Manor ace.

Mrs. Walper scored an 84 in her match with Mrs. Little, who went around in 86.

The results of the semifinals and consolation matches in the other flights follow:

First Flight Consolation—Mrs. E. P. Moore, Army-Navy, defeated Mrs. Webb Hayes, Columbia, 3 and 2; Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. W. E. Welch, Manor, 6 and 5.

Second Flight Title—Mrs. Florence Godfrey, Congressional, defeated Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, 1 up; Mrs. Leo Butler, Manor, defeated Mrs. O. L. Young, Prince Georges, 1 up.

Second Flight Consolation—Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Washington, defeated R. Morgan, Manor, 4 and 3; Mrs. J. J. Corson, Washington, defeated Mrs. J. T. Powell, Kenwood, 6 and 5.

Third Flight Title—Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, defeated Miss Margaret Cox, Prince Georges, 7 and 5; Mrs. Frank Mirth, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. R. Brooks, Belle Haven, 4 and 3.

Third Flight Consolation—Mrs. S. K. Franks, Manor, defeated Mrs. Roy Brister, Washington, 3 and 2; Mrs. Ted Burrows, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. M. Harper, Congressional, 3 and 1.

Keen Rival Threatens Mrs. Stokes' Bid for Golf 'Little Slam'

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, whose bid for a local women's golfing grand slam was shattered by Mrs. Marie Walper back in 1942, was out for a "little slam" in the District women's championship final today with Mrs. Walper again in her path.

Mrs. Stokes held the Maryland State and District titles in '42 and advanced to the final of the Middle Atlantic at Congressional where Mrs. Walper scored an upset.

At present Mrs. Stokes of Manor Club holds the Middle Atlantic crown and the Payne Cup, the Maryland State medal-play title. Oddly enough, although Mrs. Walper and Mrs. Stokes have been championship flight contestants in local tournaments for almost 10 years, the 1942 meeting was the only time they clashed at match play.

Mrs. Stokes played her best golf of the week yesterday in advancing to the final with a 3 and 2 triumph over Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Kenwood's titlist who also came up with an excellent round of golf and held Mrs. Stokes even for 12 holes.

After coming from behind three times to square the match, the third time on the 11th hole, Mrs. Stokes hit two long wood shots on the par-4 13th and dropped a five-foot putt for a birdie and won the next two holes with pars for her winning margin. Both played the round out and Mrs. Stokes finished with a 78 to Mrs. Kreuzburg's 81.

Mrs. S. F. Little, the surprise semifinalist from Army Navy, carried her bid for the title to the 18th hole against Mrs. Walper, after trailing by three holes with three to play, but Mrs. Walper won the 18th and the match, 2 up. Mrs. Walper, now a week-end golfer, if that, is playing in her first city or State championship tournament in four

Maryland State Open, Women's Title Golf Head July Card

By Merrell Whittlesey

Anything that happens on the July golf card will be anticlimax following the tremendous amount of June activity, but among the sectional titles to be decided will be the Maryland State Open and women's championships and a flock of smaller events.

Monday will be the biggest day of the month with the women qualifying in the State tournament at Kenwood, the municipal golfers of Baltimore and Washington competing for four places to the National Public Links in the sectional qualifying at East Potomac and the juniors bidding for an unknown number of places to the National Junior Amateur in local trials at Manor.

The State Open at Rolling Road July 15 will be preceded by a pro-amateur tournament on July 14, and according to Tournament Chairman Bill Edge the 36-hole medal play championship may be the biggest since it was subsidized as the Calvert Open.

Worsham's Start Doubtful

With National Open Champion Lew Worsham an extremely doubtful starter, the Maryland Open championship will be without an outstanding favorite unless it is Otto Greiner, Baltimore's newly turned professional. Greiner posted a 72 in his first round of the Tam O' Shanter Open yesterday.

The District Women's Golf Association as usual finds July an off month between its early summer and fall schedules. Only the Class A section of the Star Cup, July 29, over Woodmont's new golf course and the Duffer's Cup, July 14, are listed for the woman golfers, although they are co-sponsors of the mixed Scotch foursome, July 25, for the benefit of the Boys Club summer camp fund. A Maryland State mixed Scotch foursome is carded July 20 at Five Farms.

The new nine holes at Quantico Club will officially be opened July 21 in an added purse pro-amateur event. The Maryland State GA will hold its second and last pro-am of the year July 28 at Suburban.

Seniors to Have Day

The only event of the season that brings together the junior, amateurs, caddies, assistant pros and public links juniors—the Maryland Junior Open—is scheduled the 17th and 18th at the usual site, the Roland Park course of the Baltimore Country Club.

The seniors will have their day in the first Middle Atlantic Senior championship since 1942 at Burning Tree July 23.

The only national competition of the month will be the Public Links at Minneapolis July 21-26, with Washington contestants to be known Monday.

Worsham will resume his major tournament activities July 10-13 in the $10,000 Inverness four-ball with Johnny Palmer as a partner and will continue in the Canadian Open July 24-27. Lew is a definite starter in both events.

Mrs. Stokes Attempts To Add Third Major Golf Title This Week

By Merrell Whittlesey

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes this week will attempt to add the Maryland State women's golf championship to her District and Middle Atlantic titles, a feat that has evaded all but one of Washington's many fine woman golfers over the last quarter century.

A field of 46 will compete in the 26th annual State title play at Kenwood, which starts tomorrow with an 18-hole qualifying round. Three former titlists, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Betty Meckley and the defending champion, Baltimore's highly regarded Mrs. Maurice Glick, are among the entrants.

Can Match Mrs. Meckley

Mrs. Meckley is the only player to hold the three titles at the same time, but no player ever has won them the same year. Mrs. Meckley won the Middle Atlantic women's in the fall of 1935 and the State and District in '36, a feat Mrs. Stokes can match this week. Of course, if Mrs. Stokes wins the State crown she can go for the grand slam in defending her Middle Atlantic title in September.

The field for the Old Line women's crown is not too strong, but the field, in addition to the above-named ex-titlists, includes Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg of Baltimore C. C., who took Mrs. Glick to the 20th hole in last year's final; Mrs. M. Louise Bell, a former Mid-Atlantic champ; Mrs. Marie Walper, finalist in the recent District women's; Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, host club champion and District semifinalist, and June Vogel, a promising young player from Baltimore.

16 In Championship Flight

The schedule calls for the low 16 players tomorrow to go into the championship flight and the remainder into second and third flights. One match a day is scheduled through the final on Friday.

Starting times:

9:20—Mrs. V. E. House, Ken., and Mrs. Shirley Hayman, I. S. 9:25—Mrs. N. F. Hollander, Ken., and Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Ken. 9:30—Mrs. T. Peyser, Wood., and Mrs. H. Goodman, Ken. 9:35—Mrs. Frank Dole, Cong., and Mrs. Edgar Kreuzberg, Ken. 9:40—Mrs. Rita Ferguson, Ken., and Mrs. Patsy Abell, Ken. 9:45—Mrs. A. A. Morrill, Ken., and Mrs. C. B. Menzies, Ken. 9:50—Mrs. G. Awalt, Cong., and Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Man. 9:55—Mrs. E. V. Brunfel, Ken., and Mrs. G. E. Peterson, Ken. 10:00—Mrs. John Long, I. S., and Mrs. Paul Costello, I. S. 10:05—Mrs. Elliott Hansen, Cong., and Mrs. George Jani, Cong. 10:10—Mrs. John Ives, Col., and Mrs. Florence Godfrey, Cong. 10:15—Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Man., and Mrs. M. M. Alexander, Ken. 10:20—Mrs. J. Bontrone, Roll. Road, and Mrs. Roderick D. Watson, Man. 10:25—Mrs. Walker F. Peterson, Elkridge, and Mrs. W. J. Plather, Jr., Ch. Ch. 10:30—Mrs. T. Schluderberg, C. C. of Md., and Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, Man. 10:35—Mrs. M. Glick, Woodholme, and Mrs. Betty Meckley, Ken. 10:40—Mrs. Louise Bell, B. C. C., and Mrs. D. Henderson, Cong. 10:45—Miss Anna May Downey, C. C. of Md., and Mrs. Marie Walper, F. G. 10:50—Mrs. O. Coblenz, Roll. Rd., and Mrs. Frank Mirth, I. S. 10:55—Mrs. F. Hoffroge, Roll. Rd., and Mrs. Ed. Widmayer, Ken. 11:00—Miss Jeanette Myers, Woodholme, and Mrs. R. T. Kreuzburg, Ken. 11:05—Mrs. C. Richards, C. C. of Md., and Mrs. O. L. Young, P. G. 11:10—Miss June Vogel, B. C. C., and Mrs. Rex Howard, Ken. 11:15—Mrs. R. J. Jackson, Elk Ridge, Baltimore, and Mrs. Troughad, Annapolis Roads.

D. C., Baltimore Golfwomen Clash in Five Title Matches

Outnumbered in the title flight by nine players to six (one is from Annapolis), the Washington women golfers had an opportunity to reduce the Baltimore domination in the Maryland State women's championship today at Kenwood when they met their intercity rivals in five first-round matches.

An initial-round match that would befit the final brought together Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, the tournament favorite from Manor, and a co-medalist from Baltimore, 21-year-old Mary Anne Downey, who used the tremendous distance she gets from her wood shots to advantage in playing the course in 81 yesterday.

Miss Downey and the host Kenwood club choice, Mrs. Betty Meckley, will play off some time this week for the medal after tying with 81s. The feature of Miss Downey's round was a pair of birdie 4s on the long par 5 11th and 12th holes, while Mrs. Meckley finished one under par on the last four holes to pick up four strokes on her rival.

All of Baltimore's top players easily made the championship flight and they supplied four of the six low scorers. The current BWGA titlist, Mrs. M. Louise Bell, and last year's State finalist, Mrs. T. E. Schluder-berg, had the second low scores of 82. Jeanette Myers of Suburban was tied at 83 with Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, the host club titlist.

The only Washington player who figured to make the title flight but missed was Mrs. D. H. Henderson, upset victor over Mrs. Mackley in the District championship, who missed out with a 94. A score of 90 or better was required for the first flight.

Mrs. Meckley and Mrs. Maurice Glick, the defending champion, both are in the upper bracket along with Mrs. Bell, while the lower bracket includes Mrs. Stokes and Miss Downey, Mrs. Marie Walper, Mrs. Schluderberg, who met Mrs. Rex Howard today, and Mrs. Kreuzberg, who met Baltimore's June Vogel in one of the feature first round matches.

Today's championship flight matches:

Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood (81) vs. Mrs. C. E. Richards, C. C. of Md. (84); Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodbine (83) vs. Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale (86); Mrs. M. Louise Bell, Baltimore C. C. (82) vs. Mrs. Richard Jackson, Elkridge (84); Jeanette Myers, Suburban (83) vs. Mrs. Florence Godfrey, Congressional (85); Mary Anne Downey, Baltimore C. C. (81) vs. Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, Manor (84); Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Kenwood (83) vs. June Vogel, Rolling Road (87); Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, Baltimore C. C. (82) vs. Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood (84); Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges (84) vs. Mrs. Margery Troughad, Annapolis Roads (90).

QUALIFYING DAY SMILES—With all five players safely in the title flight and two of them tied for the medal, this group found the medal round of the Maryland State women's championship yesterday at Kenwood a pleasant day's work. Left to right, Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood, Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, Mary Anne Downey of Baltimore, co-medalist with Mrs. Meckley; June Vogel of Rolling Road, who was Mrs. Kreuzburg's opponent today, and Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor, the favorite. —Star Staff Photo.

Mrs. Stokes Wins District Golf, 2 and 1

Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor won her third Women's District Golf Association Championship as she defeated Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges 2 and 1, yesterday at Manor.

By winning, the defending champion avenged a defeat in the finals of this same tournament at the hands of Mrs. Walper in 1942.

Mrs. Stokes had advanced to the finals by defeating Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood, 3 and 2, while Mrs. Walper downed Mrs. S. F. Little of Army-Navy, 2 up in 18 holes.

By taking the WDGA title Mrs. Stokes added to her growing list of championships this season, which already includes the Maryland State medal, the Payne Cup, and the Middle Atlantic crown.

In the first flight consolation match, Mrs. E. P. Moore of Army-Navy downed Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, 7 and 5.

Mrs. Florence Godfrey of Congressional took the second flight championship by defeating Mrs. Leo Butler of Manor, 3 and 2, while Mrs. J. J. Corson of Washington won the second flight consolation from Mrs. G. W. Calvert, also of Washington, 4 and 3.

Third flight honors went to Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, who beat Mrs. Frank Mirth of Indian Spring, 3 and 1. Mrs. S. K. Franks, Manor won the consolation from Mrs. Ted Burrows of Indian Spring, 5 and 4.

Golf Mark Tied by Mrs. Stokes With District Title Win

By Merrell Whittlesey

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, the modest, soft-spoken new District women's golf champion, who played her first competitive golf in 1937, today is tied with Mrs. Betty Meckley for second place in achievements in the modern history of women's golf in this section.

When Mrs. Stokes defeated Mrs. Marie Walper, 2 and 1, over the former's home Manor Club course yesterday it marked Mrs. Stokes' eighth title in the major city and sectional tournaments. The all-time leader is Baltimore's Mrs. E. Boyd Morrow, who won three Middle Atlantic crowns and seven State titles for a total of 10.

Mrs. Stokes has won the District title three times, the Middle Atlantic and Maryland State twice each and the Payne Cup, the State 54-hole medal play test, once. Mrs. Meckley's conquests include three District and Mid-Atlantic crowns and two Maryland State.

Mrs. Stokes, whose background as an all-round athlete was a great aid when she took up golf in the middle 30s, has a well-balanced game. She hits the ball as far as any woman golfer in this section, has a good short game and is an excellent putter.

With five holes to play in yesterday's District final, Mrs. Stokes was one down to Mrs. Walper's best round of the week-long tournament. But the home club champion suddenly discovered her long backswing had been throwing her off balance and when she shortened her swing she played the next four holes in regulation fashion and won three and the match.

Mrs. Stokes had par in for a 77 when the match ended on the 17th green and Mrs. Walper, the 1939 champion, par for a 79. Mrs. Stokes joined Mrs. Meckley, the medalist on Monday, and Mrs. Hugh (Dorothy White) Nicholson as three-time winners of the Shannon Cup.

A spectator at the presentation yesterday was Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, who lost to Mrs. Stokes in the semifinal after leading the match three times, who would have had to default but she gained the title round. Mrs. Kreuzburg slipped and fell Thursday night and cut her left knee to the extent she probably will not be able to play in next month's Maryland State event over her home Kenwood course.

Winners and runnerup in all flights:

Championship flight consolation—Mrs. E. P. Moore, Army Navy, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 6 and 5.

Second flight—Mrs. Florence Godfrey, Congressional, defeated Mrs. Leo Butler, Manor, 3 and 2. Consolation—Mrs. J. J. Corson, Washington, defeated Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Washington, 4 and 3.

Third flight—Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, defeated Mrs. Frank Mirth, Indian Springs, 3 and 1. Consolation—Mrs. S. K. Franks, Manor, defeated Mrs. Ted Burrows, Indian Spring, 5 and 4.

COLLECTOR'S ITEM—"E Pluribus Unum" might be an appropriate inscription on this Women's District Golf Association championship trophy Mrs. Walter R. Stokes is holding. In winning it for the third time yesterday the Manor Club star has just about set a record for linkswomen hereabout in the accumulation of prizes.

Co-Medalists Mrs. Betty Meckley, Miss Downy Eliminated in Maryland State Women's Golf

Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood and Miss Mary Ann Downy of the Baltimore Country Club, who tied for medal honors with 81s on the opening day of the Maryland State Women's Golf Tournament, were both eliminated in the first round of match play yesterday at Kenwood Country Club.

Mrs. Meckley was upset by "unknown" Mrs. C. E. Richards of Country Club of Maryland, 1 up on 19 holes. Miss Downy was the victim of Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, 3 and 1. Mrs. Stokes, winner of the District and Middle Atlantic women's titles and trying for her third straight tourney crown, came through with a sparkling 78.

Mrs. Meckley, one up after the first nine, fell behind by two holes going to the sixteenth. She staged a stirring rally to tie her Baltimore adversary on the eighteenth. But Mrs. Richards, without an important tournament victory to her credit, prevailed on the nineteenth to beat one of the favorites.

Defending Champion Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme had an easy time, advancing to the quarterfinals with a 5-and-4 triumph over Mrs. Elizabeth Bonthron of Hillendale.

Yesterday's results:
First Flight—Mrs. C. E. Richards (Country Club of Maryland) defeated Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood), 1 up 19 holes. Mrs. Maurice Glick (Woodholme) defeated Mrs. Elizabeth Bonthron (Hillendale), 5 and 4. Mrs. M. Bell (Baltimore Country Club) defeated Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg (Kenwood), 4 and 3. Mrs. P. and Jackson (Elkridge), 4 and 3. Mrs. F. Godfrey (Congressional) defeated Mrs. Jeanette Myers (Suburban), 1 up. Mrs. Walter Stokes (Manor) defeated Miss Mary Ann Downy (Baltimore Country Club), 3 and 1. Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg (Kenwood) defeated Miss June Vogel (Rolling Road), 4 and 3. Mrs. T. E. Schludberg (Baltimore Country Club) defeated Mrs. Rex Howard (Kenwood), 5 and 4. Marie Walper (Prince Georges) defeated Mrs. Margery Troughard (Annapolis Road), 3 and 2.

Second Flight—Mrs. John Long (Indian Spring) defeated Mrs. Roderick Watson (Manor), 1 up 20 holes. Mrs. W. J. Flather, Jr. (Chevy Chase) defeated Mrs. Frank Mirth (Kenwood), 4 and 3. Mrs. P. Menoher (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. G. E. Peterson (Kenwood), 3 and 2. Mrs. H. H. Goodman (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. R. E. Zuber (Manor), 1 up. Mrs. W. F. Peterson (Elkridge) defeated Mrs. E. V. Brunfeli (Kenwood), 6 and 5. Mrs. Paul Costello (Indian Spring) defeated Mrs. Ed. Widmayer (Kenwood), 3 and 1. Mrs. O. L. Young (Prince Georges) defeated Mrs. C. W. Hoffrogge (Prince Georges), 6 and 5. Mrs. T. Peyser (Woodmont) defeated Mrs. F. Hollander (Kenwood), 6 and 5.

Third Flight—Mrs. E. E. Ferguson (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. A. A. Morrill (Kenwood), 1 up 20 holes. Mrs. E. B. Lockett (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. R. Hayman (Indian Spring), 5 and 4. Mrs. O. Coblenz (Rolling Road) defeated Mrs. Frank Dole (Congressional), by default. Mrs. E. Hanson (Congressional) defeated Mrs. E. Kreutzberg (Kenwood), 3 and 7. Mrs. W. S. Abell (Columbia), Mrs. H. Lacey (Manor), Mrs. G. Awalt (Columbia) and Mrs. V. E. House (Kenwood) drew byes.

Today's Pairings:
First Flight, 10:30 a. m.—Mrs. Richards vs. Mrs. Flather; 10:35—Mrs. Bell vs. Mrs. Godfrey; 10:40—Mrs. Stokes vs. Mrs. Kreuzburg; 10:45—Mrs. Schludberg vs. Mrs. Walper.

Second Flight, 9:50 a. m.—Mrs. Long vs. Mrs. Flather, Jr.; 9:55—Mrs. Menoher vs. Mrs. Goodman; 10:00—Mrs. Peterson vs. Mrs. Costello; 10:05—Mrs. Young vs. Mrs. Peyser.

Third Flight, 9:30 a. m.—Mrs. Hanson vs. Mrs. Abell; 9:35—Mrs. Coblenz vs. Mrs. Lacey; 9:40—Mrs. Lockett vs. Mrs. Awalt; 9:45—Mrs. Ferguson vs. Mrs. House.

State Women's Golf Finds Scoring Low As Four Break 80

By Merrell Whittlesey

The field in the 26th Maryland State Women's Golf Championship may lack a bit of the luster of some of the former tournaments but the golf that is being played at Kenwood Country Club certainly is as good as any shotmaking of the past few years.

Nobody could remember a first round of match play in which four players broke 80—and when the women golfers report a score it's authentic, whether match play or medal play—as most of them turn the scores in for handicaps.

The current favorite, District Champion Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, led the scoring in yesterday's initial round with a 78 while three other winners posted 79s; host club titlist Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg and Baltimore's Mrs. M. Louise Bell and Mrs. T. E. Schludberg.

The first round found the co-medalists eliminated but, paradoxically, neither match was an upset. Baltimore's long-hitting Mary Anne Downey certainly did not figure to beat Mrs. Stokes and Miss Downey played well to carry the match to the 17th green where she lost, 3 and 1.

Mrs. Meckley Loses.

Mrs. Betty Meckley, who tied Miss Downey for the medal with an 81, was a 19-hole victim of Baltimore's Mrs. C. E. Richards in a match that was even-up from the start. The Baltimore delegation has earned a wholesome respect for Mrs. Meckley's game for a number of years but the visitors had picked one of their most improved players to win. Mrs. Richards had 86 and Mrs. Meckley 85 for the 18 and the former won by dropping a 4-footer on the 19th.

It was the second straight tournament in which Mrs. Meckley figured in the medal but lost in the first round.

Today's feature was a rematch of last month's District women's championship semifinal attraction between Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Kreuzburg. Mrs. Stokes' 78 yesterday included a 6 on the last hole when the match was over, which means she needed par for a 76 when the Downey match ended on the 17th green. Mrs. Stokes has the grand slam of local women's tournaments in mind and wants to win this one.

Mrs. Kreuzburg Keen.

Mrs. Kreuzburg, however, is playing the best golf since she resumed the game after George and Judy Kreuzburg became of walking age and over her home course the one-time District junior girls' champion can be tough.

Mrs. Stokes was one down on the 11th hole of their first meeting over Mrs. Stokes' home course, and lost only when the District champion fired a birdie and two pars in succession on the toughest holes on the course. Mrs. Kreuzburg is using a new set of woods, a birthday gift from her husband, and is not conceding yardage to anybody.

A member of the Baltimore delegation is almost certain to reach the final in the upper bracket. Mrs. Florence Godfrey of Congressional pulled the only upset of the first round in beating Jeanette Myers of Suburban, but she can hardly repeat against Mrs. M. Louise Bell. Two-time Champion Mrs. Maurice Glick and Mrs. Richards are in the other upper bracket match.

Mrs. Marie Walper met Mrs. Schludberg to see who meets the Stokes-Kreuzburg winner in the second. Both won easily yesterday.

First Flight.

Mrs. Maurice Glick (Woodholme) defeated Elizabeth Bonthron (Hillendale), 5 and 4; Mrs. Louise Bell (Baltimore C. C.) defeated Mrs. Richard Jackson (Elkridge), 4 and 3; Mrs. F. Godfrey (Congressional) defeated Jeanette Myers (Suburban), 1 up; Mrs. Walter Stokes (Manor) defeated Mary Ann Downey (Baltimore C. C.), 3 and 1; Mrs. C. E. Richards (C. C. of Maryland) defeated Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood), 1 up on 20th; Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg (Kenwood) defeated June Vogel (Manor), 4 and 3; Mrs. T. E. Schludberg (Baltimore C. C.) defeated Mrs. Rex Howard (Kenwood), 5 and 4; Mrs. Marie Walper (Prince Georges) defeated Mrs. Margery Troughard (Annapolis Road), 3 and 2.

Maryland State Open, Women's Title Golf Head July Card

By Merrell Whittlesey

Anything that happens on the July golf card will be anticlimax following the tremendous amount of June activity, but among the sectional titles to be decided will be the Maryland State Open and women's championships and a flock of smaller events.

Monday will be the biggest day of the month with the women qualifying in the State tournament at Kenwood, the municipal golfers of Baltimore and Washington competing for four places to the National Public Links in the sectional qualifying at East Potomac and the juniors bidding for an unknown number of places to the National Junior Amateur in local trials at Manor.

The State Open at Rolling Road July 15 will be preceded by a pro-amateur tournament on July 14, and according to Tournament Chairman Bill Edge the 36-hole medal play championship may be the biggest since it was subsidized as the Calvert Open.

Worsham's Start Doubtful.

With National Open Champion Lew Worsham an extremely doubtful starter, the Maryland Open championship will be without an outstanding favorite unless it is Otto Greiner, Baltimore's newly turned professional. Greiner posted a 72 in his first round of the Tam O Shanter Open yesterday.

The District Women's Golf Association as usual finds July an off month between its early summer and fall schedules. Only the Class A section of the Star Cup, July 29, over Woodmont's new golf course and the Duffer's Cup, July 14, are listed for the woman golfers, although they are co-sponsors of the mixed Scotch foursome, July 25, for the benefit of the Boys Club summer camp fund. A Maryland State mixed Scotch foursome is carded July 20 at Five Farms.

The new nine holes at Quantico Club will officially be opened July 21 in an added purse pro-amateur event. The Maryland State GA will hold its second and last pro-am of the year July 28 at Suburban.

Seniors to Have Day.

The only event of the season that brings together the junior, amateurs, caddies, assistant pros and public links juniors—the Maryland Junior Open—is scheduled the 17th and 18th at the usual site, the Roland Park course of the Baltimore Country Club.

The seniors will have their day in the first Middle Atlantic Senior championship since 1942 at Burning Tree July 23.

The only national competition of the month will be the Public Links at Minneapolis July 21-26, with Washington contestants to be known Monday.

Worsham will resume his major tournament activities July 10-13 in the $10,000 Inverness four-ball with Johnny Palmer as a partner and will continue in the Canadian Open July 24-27. Lew is a definite starter in both events.

Mrs. Stokes Attempts To Add Third Major Golf Title This Week

By Merrell Whittlesey

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes this week will attempt to add the Maryland State women's golf championship to her District and Middle Atlantic titles, a feat that has evaded all but one of Washington's many fine woman golfers over the last quarter century.

A field of 46 will compete in the 26th annual State title play at Kenwood, which starts tomorrow with an 18-hole qualifying round. Three former titlists, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Betty Meckley and the defending champion, Baltimore's highly regarded Mrs. Maurice Glick, are among the entrants.

Can Match Mrs. Meckley.

Mrs. Meckley is the only player to hold the three titles at the same time, but no player ever has won them the same year. Mrs. Meckley won the Middle Atlantic women's in the fall of 1935 and the State and District in '36, a feat Mrs. Stokes can match this week. Of course, if Mrs. Stokes wins the State crown she can go for the grand slam in defending her Middle Atlantic title in September.

The field for the Old Line women's crown is not too strong, but the field, in addition to the above-named ex-titlists, includes Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg of Baltimore C. C., who took Mrs. Glick to the 20th hole in last year's final; Mrs. M. Louise Bell, a former Mid-Atlantic champ; Mrs. Marie Walper, finalist in the recent District women's; Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, host club champion and District semifinalist, and June Vogel, a promising young player from Baltimore.

16 In Championship Flight.

The schedule calls for the low 16 players tomorrow to go into the championship flight and the remainder into second and third flights. One match a day is scheduled through the final on Friday.

Starting times:

9:20—Mrs. V. E. House, Ken., and Mrs. Shirley Hayman, I. S. 9:25—Mrs. N. F. Hollander, Ken., and Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Ken. 9:30—Mrs. T. Peyser, Wood., and Mrs. H. Goodman, Ken. 9:35—Mrs. Frank Dole, Cong., and Mrs. Edgar Kreuzberg, Ken. 9:40—Mrs. Rita Ferguson, Ken., and Mrs. Patsy Abell, Ken. 9:45—Mrs. A. A. Morrill, Ken., and Mrs. C. B. Menoher, Ken. 9:50—Mrs. G. Awalt, Cong., and Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Man. 9:55—Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel, Ken., and Mrs. G. E. Peterson, Ken. 10:00—Mrs. John Long, I. S., and Mrs. Paul Costello, I. S. 10:05—Mrs. Elliott Hansen, Cong., and Mrs. George Jani, Cong. 10:10—Mrs. John Ives, Col., and Mrs. Florence Godfrey, Cong. 10:15—Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Man., and Mrs. M. M. Alexander, Ken. 10:20—Mrs. J. Bontrone, Roll. Road, and Mrs. Roderick D. Watson, Man. 10:25—Mrs. Walker F. Peterson, Elkridge, and Mrs. W. J. Flather, Jr., Ch. Ch. 10:30—Mrs. T. Schluderberg, C. C. of Md., and Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, Man. 10:35—Mrs. M. Glick, Woodholme, and Mrs. Betty Meckley, Ken. 10:40—Mrs. Louise Bell, B. C. C., and Mrs. D. Henderson, Cong. 10:45—Miss Anna May Downey, C. C. of Md., and Mrs. Marie Walper, P. G. 10:50—Mrs. O. Coblenz, Roll. Rd., and Mrs. Frank Mirth, I. S. 10:55—Mrs. F. Hoffrogge, Roll. Rd., and Mrs. Ed. Widmayer, Ken. 11:00—Miss Jeanette Myers, Woodholme, and Mrs. R. T. Kreuzburg, Ken. 11:05—Mrs. C. Richards, C. C. of Md., and Mrs. O. L. Young, P. G. 11:10—Miss June Vogel, B. C. C., and Mrs. Rex Howard, Ken. 11:15—Mrs. R. J. Jackson, Elk Ridge, Baltimore, and Mrs. Troughad, Annapolis Roads.

D. C., Baltimore Golfwomen Clash in Five Title Matches

Outnumbered in the title flight by nine players to six (one is from Annapolis), the Washington women golfers had an opportunity to reduce the Baltimore domination in the Maryland State women's championship today at Kenwood when they met their intercity rivals in five first-round matches.

An initial-round match that would befit the final brought together Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, the tournament favorite from Manor, and a co-medalist from Baltimore, 21-year-old Mary Anne Downey, who used the tremendous distance she gets from her wood shots to advantage in playing the course in 81 yesterday.

Miss Downey and the host Kenwood club choice, Mrs. Betty Meckley, will play off some time this week for the medal after tying with 81s. The feature of Miss Downey's round was a pair of birdie 4s on the long par 5 11th and 12th holes, while Mrs. Meckley finished one under par on the last four holes to pick up four strokes on her rival.

All of Baltimore's top players easily made the championship flight and they supplied four of the six low scorers. The current BWGA titlist, Mrs. M. Louise Bell, and last year's State finalist, Mrs. T. E. Schluder-berg, had the second low scores of 82. Jeanette Myers of Suburban was tied at 83 with Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, the host club titlist.

The only Washington player who figured to make the title flight but missed was Mrs. D. H. Henderson, upset victor over Mrs. Mackley in the District championship, who missed out with a 94. A score of 90 or better was required for the first flight.

Mrs. Meckley and Mrs. Maurice Glick, the defending champion, both are in the upper bracket along with Mrs. Bell, while the lower bracket includes Mrs. Stokes and Miss Downey, Mrs. Marie Walper, Mrs. Schluderberg, who met Mrs. Rex Howard today, and Mrs. Kreuzberg, who met Baltimore's June Vogel in one of the feature first round matches.

Today's championship flight matches:

Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood (81) vs. Mrs. C. E. Richards, C. C. of Md. (84); Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodbine (83) vs. Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale (86); Mrs. M. Louise Bell, Baltimore C. C. (82) vs. Mrs. Richard Jackson, Elkridge (84); Jeanette Myers, Suburban (83) vs. Mrs. Florence Godfrey, Congressional (85); Mary Anne Downey, Baltimore C. C. (81) vs. Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, Manor (84); Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Kenwood (83) vs. June Vogel, Rolling Road (87); Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, Baltimore C. C. (82) vs. Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood (84); Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges (84) vs. Mrs. Margery Troughad, Annapolis Roads (90).

QUALIFYING DAY SMILES—With all five players safely in the title flight and two of them tied for the medal, this group found the medal round of the Maryland State women's championship yesterday at Kenwood a pleasant day's work. Left to right, Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood, Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, Mary Anne Downey of Baltimore, co-medalist with Mrs. Meckley; June Vogel of Rolling Road, who was Mrs. Kreuzburg's opponent today, and Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor, the favorite. —Star Staff Photo.

Kenwood's Mrs. Kreuzburg Advances to Golf Semifinals

She Upsets Favored Mrs. Stokes

By Herb Heft
Post Reporter

Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, playing steady golf over her home course, assumed the role of "spoiler" yesterday as she eliminated the favored Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, 2 up, in the quarter-finals of the twenty-sixth Maryland State Women's Championship at Kenwood Country Club.

By upsetting the hard-hitting Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Kreuzburg knocked her out of a chance to become the second woman to annex all three major area tournaments during a one-year period. Mrs. Stokes had already won the District and Middle Atlantic titles this season.

Mrs. Kreuzburg now remains as the lone District area survivor in the semifinals of the Maryland tourney, Mrs. Florence Godfrey of Congressional and Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges both having been eliminated yesterday.

Mrs. Godfrey Bows

Finding the six over par 79 play of Mrs. Mary Louise Bell of Baltimore Country Club too much to cope with, Mrs. Godfrey bowed out, 1 up. Mrs. Walper was the 3-and-1 victim of Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, also of Baltimore Country Club.

Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme, defending champion, brought the number of semifinalists from Baltimore to three as she trimmed Mrs. C. E. Richards of the Country Club of Maryland, 5 and 4.

Kenwood' champion, Mrs. Kreuzburg, served early notice that she would give Mrs. Stokes a rough time. Shooting par four and five on the first two holes, she went into an immediate two up lead on Mrs. Stokes, who bogied twice. Going into the ninth tee, Mrs. Kreuzburg was three up. There, Mrs. Stokes, whose tee shots had been a bit on the erratic side, recovered to sink a birdie three from 8 feet away to cut the deficit to two.

On the 488-yard twelfth hole Mrs. Stokes registered a birdie four to trim the margin to one.

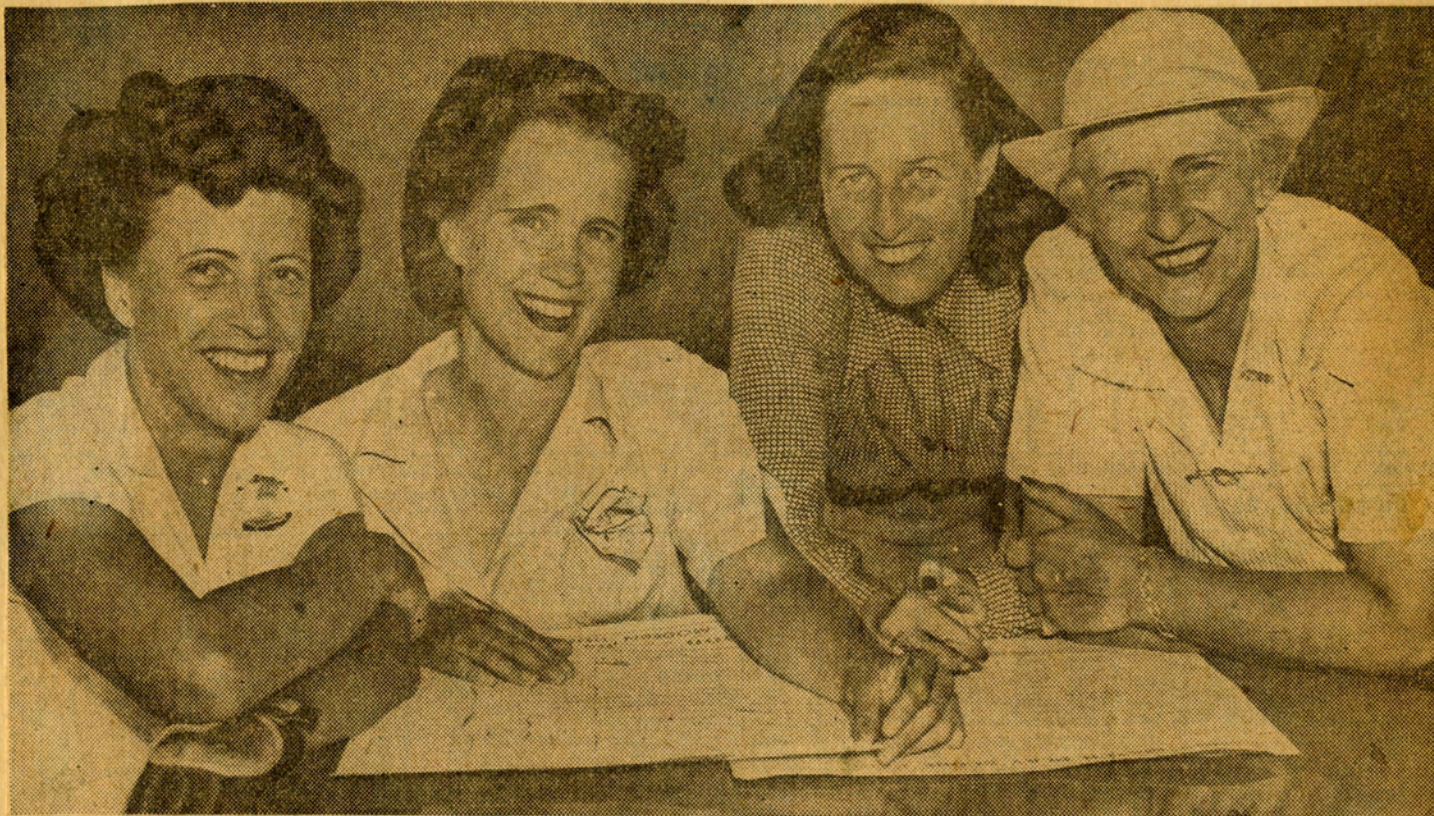

That distance remained going to the eighteenth. They both were within 2 feet of the pin in four strokes, but the match ended when Mrs. Stokes' putt rimmed the cup, but stayed out.

Mrs. Kreuzburg is paired against Mrs. Schluderberg and Mrs. Bell against Mrs. Glick in today's semifinals.

Yesterday's quarter-finals results:
First flight—Mrs. Maurice Glick (Woodholme) defeated Mrs. G. E. Richards (Country Club of Maryland), 5 and 4; Mrs. M. L. Bell (Baltimore Country Club) defeated Mrs. F. Godfrey (Congressional), 1 up; Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. W. R. Stokes (Manor), 2 up; Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg (Baltimore Country Club) defeated Mrs. Marie Walper (Prince Georges), 3 and 1.
Second flight—Mrs. John Long (Indian Spring) defeated Mrs. W. J. Flather (Chevy Chase), 5 and 4; Mrs. P. Menoher (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. H. H. Goodman (Kenwood), 2 and 1; Mrs. W. W. Peterson (Elkridge) defeated Mrs. Paul Costello (Indian Spring), 2 and 1; Mrs. T. Peyser (Woodmont) defeated Mrs. O. L. Young (Prince Georges), 7 and 5.

Third flight—Mrs. E. R. Ferguson (Kenwood) won by default over Mrs. V. E. House (Kenwood); Mrs. G. Awall (Congressional) defeated Mrs. E. B. Lockett (Kenwood), 5 and 4; Mrs. H. Lacey (Manor) defeated Mrs. O. Coblenz (Rolling Road), 5 and 3; Mrs. E. Hanson (Congressional) defeated Mrs. W. S. Abell (Columbia), 3 and 2.

Today's Semifinals Pairings
First flight, 10:05 a. m.—Mrs. Glick vs. Mrs. Bell, 10:10—Mrs. Kreuzburg vs. Mrs. Schluderberg.
Second flight, 9:45 a. m.—Mrs. Long vs. Mrs. Menoher, 9:50—Mrs. Peterson vs. Mrs. Peyser.
Third flight, 9:35 a. m.—Mrs. Lacey vs. Mrs. Hanson, 9:40—Mrs. Ferguson vs. Mrs. Awall.

HAPPY SEMIFINALISTS—Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg of Baltimore Country Club, Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood, Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme and Mrs. Mary Louise Bell of Baltimore Country Club (left to right) flash their victory smiles after advancing to the semifinals of the Maryland State Women's Golf Championship yesterday at Kenwood. Mrs. Schluderberg plays Mrs. Kreuzburg and Mrs. Glick plays Mrs. Bell in the semifinals today.

Mrs. Kreuzburg's Plans Upset By Her Upset of Mrs. Stokes

By Merrell Whittlesey

Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, who thought so little of her chances in the Maryland State women's golf championship that she gave her maid today off, had new hopes and a new baby-sitter today as Washington's only remaining hope for the title.

Tossed into the semifinals with three Baltimoreans after an upset victory over Mrs. Walter Stokes, 2 up, Mrs. Kreuzburg met Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg of Baltimore C. C., a 3-and-1 victor over Mrs. Marie Walper.

In the upper bracket semifinal the two-time and defending champion, Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme, met the Baltimore City champion, Mrs. M. Louise Bell of Baltimore C. C. Both were under 80 for the second straight day yesterday in winning easy quarterfinal matches.

Former Schoolgirl Star.

It's not that Mrs. Kreuzburg lacks confidence in her game, it's just that it didn't occur to her that she might beat Mrs. Stokes, who was bidding for a grand slam of the women's tournaments in this section.

When Helen Dettweiler, Marion Brown (now Mrs. Murphy Booth), Ellen Kincaid (now Mrs. Elbert Harris) and Virginia Pope (now Mrs. Kreuzburg) were schoolgirls a few years ago, the future Mrs. Kreuzburg won the District girls' junior title four times in that fast company. The pros said some mighty nice things about her future as a golfer.

But as Mrs. Kreuzburg was saying yesterday, "I never could take golf seriously. I never practiced because that's work and I play golf for fun; if I didn't, I'd quit today." "Don't you hit a few practice shots before each round?" somebody asked, and the attractive mother of two children answered, "No, because I'm always in a hurry. I've never arrived for a golf date yet more than 2 minutes ahead of time."

pleased with his wife's victory yesterday, but at home he tells her that her swing is terrible.

"I used to have the nicest little hook," the Kenwood women's champion said, "now I've lost it and my backswing is too long and I pull all my irons. Dick (her husband) says it's awful." But Mrs. Stokes hardly can agree.

After her schoolgirl golf, Mrs. Kreuzburg attended George Washington University, taught at the Cathedral School for Girls and now has two children, George, 5, and Judy, 3. Last year was her first

Kreuzburg Defeated on Extra Hole

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Washington's last contender for the 1947 Maryland state women's golf championship, lost out yesterday, one down on the 19th hole in a stirring match at the Kenwood Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. Kreuzburg's conqueror was Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, Baltimore Country Club, who will meet Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme Country Club, in an all-Baltimore affair today, starting at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Glick moved into the title contest by defeating Mrs. Mary Louise Bell, Baltimore Country Club, 4 and 3.

Gallery Applauds Them

Mrs. Kreuzburg, playing on her home course at Kenwood, waged a gallant duel with Mrs. Schluderberg, particularly from the 12th hole through the 17th, when one exceptional shot after another brought repeated applause from the gallery for both players.

But on the 18th and 19th Mrs. Kreuzburg lost the fine control that had enabled her to hold the lead for most of the match and the capable Mrs. Schluderberg made the most of her chances to grab the victory.

On the 18th, Mrs. Kreuzburg, standing 1 up, topped her second shot and put her third in a trap to the right of the green. Mrs. Schluderberg took a 5 while her opponent had a bogie 6.

On the 19th Mrs. Kreuzburg's ball landed in a trap and her recovery left her 30 feet from the pin. She three-putted for a 6, but Mrs. Schluderberg hit the middle of the fairway and was on in two strokes. Although she needed three putts, her 5 gave her the match.

Mrs. Glick Consistent

Mrs. Glick played steady golf to down Mrs. Bell as the latter's putter failed her when she needed it most.

Two up at the turn, Mrs. Glick won the tenth, eleventh and twelfth holes as Mrs. Bell three-putted on the tenth and twelfth.

Although she won the fourteenth with a par 4 to Mrs. Glick's 5, the white-haired Mrs. Bell could do no better than halve the fifteenth as the match ended 4 and 3.

Yesterday's semifinals results:
First Flight—Consolation—Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 3 and 1.
Second Flight—Mrs. P. Menoher, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. John Long, Indian Spring, 2 up. Mrs. W. Fairfield Peterson, Elkridge, defeated Mrs. T. Feyser, Woodmont, 2 up.
Second Flight—Consolation—Mrs. G. E. Peterson, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Roderick Watson, Manor, 2 up. Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. N. F. Hollander, Kenwood, 4 and 3.
Third Flight—Mrs. G. Awalt, Congressional, defeated Mrs. E. R. Ferguson, Kenwood, 3 and 2. Mrs. E. Hansen, Congressional, defeated Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, 3 and 2.
Third Flight—Consolation—Mrs. A. A. Merrill, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. R. Hayman, Indian Spring, 4 and 3.

Baltimore Golfwomen Tussling at Kenwood For Maryland Title

A replay of last year's final in the Maryland State Women's golf championship was on tap today at Kenwood, where Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme, defending titleholder, was to meet Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg of Baltimore Country Club.

It was a cheerful windup for the Baltimore contingent, which, unhappily saw Washington women make a runaway of the Middle-Atlantic tournament at Baltimore recently. Mrs. Glick last year won the title a second time, although she had to go to the twentieth green.

Mrs. Glick, who took up the game only a few years ago, but has developed into one of the smoothest club swingers in the section, was a slight favorite. Mrs. Schluderberg never has won the title.

Mrs. Glick entered the final by tripping another Baltimorean, Mrs. M. Louis Bell of Baltimore Country Club, 4 and 3, while Mrs. Schluderberg was carried to the nineteenth hole before eliminating Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Manor Club. Mrs. Kreuzburg played some of the best golf of the tournament and had defeated the pretourney favorite, Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor Club earlier.

Mrs. Glick never was behind in her match, but Mrs. Schluderberg had to rally to win. She was 1 down going to the eighteenth green, and at one time Mrs. Kreuzburg had a 2-up lead. But the latter topped her brassie second shot on the eighteenth and, after sending the third into a trap, took two putts that squared the match.

On the extra hole, the Manor golfer again miscued, putting her second wood shot into the rough. A tree hampered her next shot, which landed in a trap, and Mrs. Schluderberg took the hole with a safe bogey 5.

D. C. Golfwomen Look For Revenge After Shutout in Tourney

Washington's golfwomen are looking forward to the intercity team matches with Baltimore later in the season as a possible means of gaining revenge for their .000 batting average in the 26th Maryland State championship concluded yesterday at Kenwood.

Of the four prizes in the championship flight, the visiting Baltimore delegation won, that's right, four. They have the repeat champion, Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme, and supplied the runner-up in Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg of Baltimore C. C. Mary Anne Downey of Baltimore C. C. played 36 holes yesterday and won the title flight consolation over Elizabeth Bonthron of Hillendale and then won a playoff for the medal over Kenwood's Mrs. Betty Meckley with 81 to 84.

Not since the Washington golfers first started taking part in the State tournament has there been such a sweep. The visitors supplied nine of the 16 title flight qualifiers and three of the four semifinal berths, with Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg's semifinal stand the best District showing.

Mrs. Glick's Third Title

Mrs. Glick, who took up golf on a doctor's advice in 1938 when she quit teaching school, has accumulated a lot of silverware since that time. Yesterday's 2 and 1 triumph over Mrs. Schluderberg was Mrs. Glick's third State title. She won in '44 and '46, and in 1942 she was medalist and runnerup.

Mrs. Glick, who makes most of the Southern and Eastern circuit of major women's tournaments, has been playing the best golf of her career this season. Recently the Baltimorean finished fourth in the women's Eastern championship. She altered her swing this spring in the hopes of hitting a long, low ball off the tee, and to date she has been successful.

Mrs. Glick displayed a lot of patience in that final round yesterday. After taking a 2-up lead in the first six holes, the three-time champion watched Mrs. Schluderberg one-putt the next six greens in a row and square the match with a spectacular birdie 4 on the 12th, where the runnerup knocked a long iron shot within inches of the cup.

Posts Total of 82

But Mrs. Glick came right back to build another lead that held up. The finalists played the round out and Mrs. Glick posted a 78, the third time in five rounds she was under 80. She never was over 82. Mrs. Schluderberg, who has won a lot more matches than she has lost in the State tournament over a number of years, had 82 in falling in the final for the second straight year.

The medal playoff was a stroke-for-stroke affair with never more than two shots separating the finalists until the 21-year-old Miss Downey staged a brilliant 2-4 finish on Kenwood's tough par 3-4 finishing holes, to take home the marbles by a three-stroke margin. The co-medalists tied with 81s on Monday. The youthful Miss Downey found 36 holes in one day just a nice workout.

Well-Run Tournament

The Frank Mirths (he is the Maryland State golf president, Mrs. Mirth is the women's chairman) presented the prizes at the conclusion of the well-run and enjoyable tournament.

Only in the higher flights did the local players take down the prizes, and Baltimore had few representatives in them. Kenwood's Mrs. P. Menoher won the second over Mrs. W. F. Peterson of Kenwood, 2 up, and Mrs. Ed Widmayer of Kenwood won the second consolation over Mrs. G. E. Peterson (no relation) of Kenwood, 3 and 2. Congressional's Mrs. E. S. Hanson had an extremely good score for third-flight competition, 89, to win over Mrs. F. G. Awalt, 4 and 3, and Mrs. A. A. Morrill of Kenwood won the third consolation over Mrs. Edgar Kreutzberg of Kenwood, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Simmonds, Only Player To Break 100, Wins Tourney

Mrs. A. Gordon Simmonds won the Women's District Golf Association's Duffer's Cup in what probably will be her last appearance in Class B tournaments, as the 97 posted by the Washington Golf and Country Club player yesterday at Columbia probably will bring her within the Class A handicap range.

The only player to break 100, Mrs. Simmonds won both net and gross honors but took net, of course, 92-20—77. Low gross went to Mrs. A. J. Loda of Manor with 101.

Other prize winners in the oldest tournament on the schedule for the 18-and-up handicapped players: Mrs. R. L. Brister, Washington, 102-24—78; Mrs. Pauline Reney, Prince Georges, 101-23—78; Mrs. D. R. Monsees, Washington, 105-26—79; Mrs. Kathryn Nelson, Washington, 108-27—81; Mrs. G. R. Levy, Prince Georges, 104-23—81; Mrs. James Somes, Kenwood, 107-26—81, and Mrs. K. F. Veley, Manor, 108-27—81.

The first invitation tournament of the Woodmont Country Club Women's Golf Committee probably will be an annual event, at least that was the request of the 72 players who competed yesterday. It was the first trip over the new course for the women golfers and they were pleasantly surprised.

The winner was Mrs. Peggy Gillean of Belle Haven with 93-18—75 after matching cards with Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges who had 83-8—75. Mrs. Nick Hollander of Kenwood posted 93-15—78 to tie for third with Mrs. M. J. Torsinski of Army Navy with 90-12—78.

Club . . . The Women's District Golf Association's intercity team sneaked to Richmond last week and drubbed the Virginians, 20-6½, without a word to anybody, which is an exact opposite to their policy of the last few years. Mrs. W. R. Stokes topped the scores with a 78 in the unscheduled match . . .

Mixed Foursome Field Of 98 Teams in WDGA Tourney Friday

A field of 98 teams will compete in the Women's District Golf Association's mixed Scotch foursome tournament Friday at Columbia Country Club, according to the schedule released today by Mrs. Willard Edwards, tournament chairman.

All entry fees will be turned over to the Boys Club summer camp fund. Prizes will be donated by the member clubs.

The only post entries that will be accepted will be from teams able to start between 8:30 and 9 o'clock. All contestants must be off the tee before 1 o'clock. The entry fee is $2 per couple.

Ralph Bogart, Meckley Team Wins Golf Title

Combining the talent that has won them most of the Washington's individual golf titles at one time or another, Mrs. Betty Meckley and Ralph Bogart turned in a 74 yesterday for gross honors in the Women's District Golf Association mixed Scotch foursome tournament at Columbia Country Club.

The four-over-par effort was four strokes better than the nearest twosome, comprising Mrs. John Ives of the host club and Maury Fitzgerald of Kenwood. All gross scores under 82 received prizes in the event which contributed $530 to the summer camp fund of the Boys Club of Washington.

90 Linkswomen Will Compete In Class A Meet for Star Cup

The 30th renewal of the Class A section of The Star Cup tournament will attract 90 members of the Women's District Golf Association to Woodmont Country Club on Tuesday.

Both the sporty new nine holes, which is in splendid condition for a course in play only two months, and the original nine with the two new holes will be used for the 18-hole medal play event, oldest on the WDGA schedule.

Pairings and starting times were released yesterday by Tournament Chairman Mrs. Willard Edwards. The entry is a big one for late July when vacations usually cut the tournament fields.

Five Former Champs in Meet.

Last year's winner, Betty Ling, is no longer a resident of Washington, but five former champions will be on hand, including two-time winners Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood; Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia and Mrs. H. T. Nicolson of Chevy Chase. Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. Betty Meckley, both of Kenwood, are the other former winners entered.

Last year's low gross winner, Mrs. W. R. Stokes, the current District and Middle Atlantic champion, will not compete, as she will be out of town. However, Anne Stonemetz, Army Navy's Club champion, whose bid for local honors was stopped by an appendicitis operation, will return to competition in The Star Cup.

Mrs. E. R. Ferguson, jr., of Kenwood, winner of The Star Class B cup last year, will compete in the Class A section this year with her lower handicap.

Class B Tourney Next Week.

The event is for the members of the WDGA with handicaps of 18 and under. The Class B section will be held Tuesday, August 5, at Indian Spring. Low net and gross prizes and the original trophies are provided by The Star in both events with other prizes supplied by the WDGA. Pairings:

Linkswomen Play Off Three-Way Tie in Star Cup Tourney

By Merrell Whittlesey

If the playoff scores today in the 30th annual Star Cup tournament are a bit higher than yesterday's original efforts, it will be an excusable slip on the part of the three players who tied for the cup—because they will be trying to improve on their very best rounds.

Mrs. Henry Goodman of the host Woodmont Club and Mrs. Arnold Wilcox of Chevy Chase, both with 83—9—74, and Mrs. William Abell of Columbia with 89—15—74, posted their lowest competitive efforts in the 18-hole medal tournament for Class A players.

Mrs. Goodman, the host club champion, played the new nine holes at Woodmont in 40 and added a 43 for 83, the first time she had been under 85. Mrs. Wilcox, who had deducted three strokes from her handicap in the last few weeks, had 42—41—83 and Mrs. Abell, a Class B player at the beginning of the season, broke 90 for the first time in creating a three-way deadlock.

In conforming to the Women's District Golf Association rule of settling ties within three days, and with their own plans, the co-leaders of the field of 90 decided to settle the disposition of the cup in today's playoff.

Mrs. Walper Shoots 82.

There was a four-way tie for the big cup for a few minutes when Mrs. Marie Walper posted an 82 with a 8 handicap for a 74, but Mrs. Walper had not been informed of the latest handicap changes and with her new allowance of seven, the Prince Georges club titlist finished one stroke back.

In a day when six players shot 85 or better, Mrs. Walper's excellent effort of 40-42-82 stood up for low gross honors. Two of the players in the cup tie had 83s, Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood and Anne Stonemetz of Army Navy, 84s, and Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood an 85.

The players all enjoyed the variety of shots required by the new nine holes and although it is supposed to

3 District Women Play Off Tie Today at Woodmont Club

Mrs. Henry Goodman, Mrs. William Abell and Mrs. Arnold Wilcox will tee off at 10 a. m. this morning at Woodmont Country Club in quest of the District Women's Golf Association Star Cup.

The trio tied yesterday with scores of 74 in the low handicap event for the trophy.

Mrs. Goodman, former host club champion, and Mrs. Wilcox of Chevy Chase had gross cards of 83 with nine-stroke handicaps and Mrs. Abell of Columbia had a gross of 89 with a 15 handicap.

Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges won low gross honors with an 82; Mrs. John Ives, of Columbia, finished fourth low net with 77; Mrs. Webb Hayes, also of Columbia, was fifth with 78 and five players finished with nets of 79.

After the WDGA card matching system was applied, Mrs. A. G. Simmonds of Washington took sixth place with 50, 47—97—18—79.

Anne Stonemetz of Army and Navy came in seventh with a 42, 42—84—5, 79.

Eighth place went to Mrs. P. Menoyer of Kenwood, 48, 41—89—10—79; ninth to Mrs. Nick Hollander, of Kenwood, 48, 45—94—14, 79, and tenth to Mrs. E. N. Norton, Washington, 47, 49—96—17, 79.

DIVOT DATA—A topic of conversation around the scoreboard at The Star Cup was Mrs. Hugh Nicolson's round of the day before at Chevy Chase. The District team captain shot at 76, including a back nine of 36 strokes. . . . Mrs. E. R. Ferguson, jr., The Star Cup class B champion of last year, did not win a prize, but had the satisfaction of bringing Mrs. Abell, her playing partner and one of her good friends, home with a tie. . . . The class B section will be played next Tuesday at Indian Spring. . . . When Mrs. Webb Hayes finished in the prize list and only four shots out of a tie it recalled a prediction of her instructor, Charley Bassler of Chevy Chase, who said Mrs. Hayes would be finishing near the top by the end of the season. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Frost had been playing a comparatively short while.

be on the easy side, the scores were little if any lower than on the original nine, which has long been a stumbling block for par shooters.

With three players tied for the first three net prizes, Women's District Golf Association President Mrs. L. E. Hutchinson put the first three net prizes aside until today. Fourth low net went to Mrs. John Ives with a 89-11-78, after winning in a matching cards test with Mrs. Webb Hayes of Columbia, who had the same score.

Other Winners.

Other net prize winners with net 79s, in the order they won out by matching cards, were: Mrs. A. G. Simmonds of Washington, 97-18-79; Miss Stonemetz, 84-5-79; Mrs. P. Menoyer of Kenwood, 89-10-79; Mrs. N. F. Hollander of Kenwood, 93-14-79, and Mrs. E. N. Norton of Washington, 96-17-79.

A Check of the Cards Reveals Three-Way Tie for Cup

After adding and subtracting, these three golfers found they were deadlocked for low net in the Star Cup tournament yesterday at Woodmont and will clash in a playoff today for the links prize. Left to right are Mrs. William Abell of Columbia, Mrs. Arnold Wilcox of Chevy Chase, and Mrs. Henry Goodman, Woodmont. They had 74 scores.

Columbia's Mrs. Abell Is Star Cup Winner In Golf Comeback

There's a brand-new name on the 30-year-old Class A Star Cup today, that of Mrs. William S. Abell of Columbia Country Club, who broke the monopoly of the names familiar to local tournament golf by winning the cup in unexpected fashion.

Mrs. Abell, mother of three children—aged 7, 4 and 1—started playing golf again this season after an absence of more than four years, and played in some B class events. Her scores were not too good at first, but they started getting better and soon she was in with the class A players, those with handicaps of 19 and better.

In the 18-hole competition for The Star Cup on Wednesday, Mrs. Abell broke 90 for the first time in her life. It was too much to expect another sub-90 round in yesterday's three-way playoff, but Mrs. Abell's score was good enough, a 97-15-82, that was one stroke better than the net 83s of Mrs. Arnold Wilcox of Chevy Chase Club and Mrs. Henry Goodman of Woodmont Club, both with 92-9-83. Mrs. Wilcox and Mrs. Goodman had 83-9-74 and Mrs. Abell 89-15-74 in the event proper.

With a six-stroke advantage in handicaps, Mrs. Abell built up a sizeable lead in the playoff, aided by some fine wood shots that belied her handicap, although her chip shots often let her down. But on the 15th, 16th and 17th holes Mrs. Goodman, the home club champ, picked up five strokes on Mrs. Abell and Mrs. Wilcox picked up three. When Mrs. Abell drove out of bounds on the 18th her chances were not too good.

But the new Star Cup champion played the remainder of the hole in championship style and dropped a short putt that averted a second playoff. Mrs. Wilcox hit two fine wood shots on the 18th, but was trapped in two, and Mrs. Goodman missed a short putt that touched all sides of the cup.

Mrs. L. E. Hutchison, WDGA president, matched cards and announced Mrs. Wilcox as winner of second low net over Mrs. Goodman.

Goodman, Wilcox, Abell Tied in Star Cup Golf

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Mrs. Henry Goodman, former host club champion; Mrs. Arnold Wilcox of Chevy Chase, and Mrs. William Abell, comparative unknown from Columbia Country club, caused a three-way deadlock in the Women's District Golf association tournament for the Star Cup yesterday at Woodmont Country club when they filed scores of 74 in the low handicap event.

Both Mrs. Goodman and Mrs. Wilcox posted gross cards of 83 and used nine-stroke handicaps; while Mrs. Abell, who tossed away her chance of finishing in front all by herself when she took sevens on the tenth and sixteenth holes, had a gross of 89 and a handicap deduction of 15. The three will play off at 10 a.m. today for the trophy.

Sinks Long Putt

Mrs. Goodman, the first to report, was out in 40 and back in 43. Mrs. Wilcox came along moments later with an out nine of 42 and an in nine of 41. Then, late in the afternoon and all but trailing the field, along came Mrs. Abell to sink a long putt on the eighteenth green for an in nine of 47 after having gone out in a great nine of 42.

Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges, collected the low gross laurels with an 82. Getting around the out-going nine in 40 strokes, Mrs. Walper returned in 42 to win by a couple of shots.

Mrs. John Ives Fourth

Mrs. John Ives finished fourth low net with a 77. The Columbia club star, who played the course backwards, did a 41 on the back nine but faltered to a 44 on the trek home. She used an eight-stroke handicap.

Mrs. Webb Hayes, another Columbia club representative, was next in line for scoring honors with a net of 78. The pretty daughter of Norman Frost, one of Columbia's better players, was 44 out and 45 in for a gross 89 and was allowed an 11-stroke deduction in handicap.

TRIUMPHS IN PLAYOFF—Mrs. William Abell of Columbia Country Club is shown holding The Evening Star Trophy she won in yesterday's playoff with a net 82. She and Mrs. Arnold Wilcox of Chevy Chase and Mrs. Henry Goodman of Woodmont previously had tied with nets of 74, necessitating yesterday's playoff. —Star Staff Photo.

Mrs. Hartshorn Wins Class B Star Cup for Columbia Sweep

By Merrell Whittlesey

Columbia Country Club, which in a combined total of 36 years of competition in the A and B sections of The Star Cup tournament had housed the class A cup for only one year, now holds both as a result of some winning golf by two of its comeback competitors.

With Mrs. William Abell's victory in the class A competition less than a week old, Mrs. E. S. Hartshorn took The Star's class B cup tournament of the Women's Golf Association to Columbia yesterday after she broke 100 for the first time.

Mrs. Hartshorn, a 25-handicap golfer who took up golf six years ago, dropped it until last year and played in her first tournament this spring. She was off to a bad start yesterday but was encouraged by a par 3 on the third hole and went on to post a 51-45-96, minus her 25-stroke allowance for a winning net 71.

Indian Spring was host to the greatest scoring spree in the history of class B tournaments, those for the linkswomen with handicaps of 19 and up. Whereas any contestant who breaks 100 usually wins a gross prize, yesterday 19 players were 99 or better and it took a net 74 to crash the prize list.

Mrs. Martin Has Low Gross.

Low gross went to Manor Club's Mrs. George Martin, who also had her best score, a pair of 46s for a 92. It was only the second tournament for Mrs. Martin and like Mrs. Hartshorn she was a very excited person.

While Mrs. R. R. Hayman of Indian Spring, second low gross scorer with a 93, managed to finish among the net prize winners, a score such as a 94 by Mrs. C. F. Anderson of Manor, good for low gross and probably the cup in any other Class B tournament, went for naught. The Indian Spring course never has played easier and like the Class A players, who set records there last week in the Invitation tournament, the Class B players enjoyed a field day.

Second low net went to the wife of one of the District's top amateurs, Mrs. Ted Burrows, who posted a 95, minus a 23 handicap for a net 72, one stroke behind Mrs. Hartshorn.

The other prize winners, in the order of their finish by matching cards, were: Mrs. Howard Hopkins of Washington, 95-22-73; Mrs. R. L. Brister of Washington, 96-23-73; Mrs. Stanley Shanks of Kenwood, 95-21-74; Mrs. C. M. Hammersla of Kenwood, 94-20-74; Mrs. Mildred Brown of Woodmont, 97-23-74; Mrs. Hayman, 92-19-74; Mrs. H. B. Willey of Washington, 95-21-74, and Mrs. Dallas Rand of Belle Haven, 99-25-74. It was also Mrs. Rand's first trip under 100.

Mrs. Barefoot Pulls Comeback.

The only former champion in the eighth renewal of the Class B tournament, Mrs. Paul Barefoot of Washington Golf and Country Club, was credited with the best comeback of the day. Mrs. Barefoot had 58 on the out nine, but chopped off 11 strokes, coming back for a 47 and 95. The 1945 winner has been out of competition for more than a year and has been playing only a short time.

The contestants who broke 100, but were out of the prize list in the scoring spree, included Mrs. G. R. Levy of Prince Georges and Mrs. J. A. Brooks of Belle Haven, with 96s; Mrs. E. X. Murphy of Washington and Mrs. M. W. Fillius of Kenwood, with 98s, and Mrs. A. J. Loda of Manor, Mrs. M. L. Chambers of Manor and Mrs. Alfred Brandt of Belle Haven, with 99s.

Mrs. H. O. Porter, chairman of the Women's Golf Committee at Columbia for a number of years, said that women's golf at her club had been suffering from a lack of interest, but the consecutive victories in The Star Cup already had taken effect, and Mrs. Abell and Mrs. Hartshorn will be heard from again.

Mrs. Martin, a 20-handicap player, probably will be seen in Class A in her next outing, as that 92 may mean a handicap cut.

Of the original entry of 96, 89 teed off, according to Mrs. Roderick Watson, who conducted the tournament and presented prizes.

Hartshorn of Columbia Country Club here is shown displaying The Evening Star Trophy she won in the Woman's District of Columbia Golf Association Class B tournament at Indian Spring yesterday with a score of 96-25-71. Low Net Won By Hartshorn

Low scores were the order of the day as Mrs. E. S. Hartshorn of Columbia Country Club yesterday took down top prize in the annual Class B tournament of the Women's District Golf Association at Indian Spring for the Star Trophy.

Mrs. Hartshorn, firing nines of 51 and 45, used a 25-stroke handicap for a 71 and the day's first net prize. Gross honors went to Mrs. George Martin of Manor with 46, 46-92.

Second place in the net division went to Mrs. Ted Burrows, Indian Spring, with 95-23-72. Mrs. R. L. Brister of Washington Country Club took third place in a match of cards with clubmate Mrs. Howard Hopkins. Each had a net 73.

Women Stage Double Playoff for Laurel In CBS Golf Event

The first double playoff in memory in a Women's District Golf Association event is scheduled tomorrow morning at Chevy Chase to settle low net and low gross honors in the annual Columbia Broadcasting System Cup tournament for the class B players.

Mrs. M. W. Fillius of Kenwood and Mrs. Paulina Remy of Washington Golf and Country Club, who scored 100-22-78 and 99-21-78, respectively, in the 18-hole tournament at Chevy Chase, play tomorrow at 9:45 a.m. to settle the disposition of the main trophy.

Five minutes later Mrs. J. A. Brooks of Belle Haven and Mrs. Mildred Brown of Woodmont, who deadlocked for gross honors with 101s, will settle the tournament's second cup tie. Mrs. Remy actually posted the low gross score of 99, but passed it up in order to play for the trophy. Only one player broke 100 in comparison to the 19 100-breakers in a class B event at Indian Spring last week.

Despite the record heat a new class B record was set when 48 of the original 108 entries teed off. With the aid of some salt tablets placed on the first tee everybody finished, according to Mrs. Roderick Watson, class B tournament chairman, who conducted the tournament in the absence of WDGA president, Mrs. L. E. Hutchison.

Other prize winners, in order, were: Mrs. Lois Russell of Prince Georges, 105-26-79; Mrs. J. E. Gardner of Washington, competing in her first tournament, 109-30-79; Mrs. Gus Dimberg of Washington, 110-30-80; Mrs. Ben Dyer of Prince Georges, 109-28-81; Mrs. John Gunn of Kenwood, 102-20-82; Mrs. Dallas Rand of Belle Haven, 105-23-82, and Mrs. Norman Brown of Prince Georges, 111-29-82; Mrs. Gordon Fisher of Indian Spring, 112-29-83, and Mrs. James Somes of Kenwood, 108-24-84, over Mrs. Doran Platt of Manor, 105-21-84.

Consistent Mrs. Remy Takes CBS Cup Class B Golf Playoff

Mrs. Paulina Remy of Washington Golf and Country Club, the only player in the net and gross playoffs of the Women's District Golf Association's CBS Cup tournament who approached her original score, won the class B players' event with a 100-21-79 at Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Remy defeated Mrs. M. W. Fillius of Kenwood, who posted a 106-22-84 in the playoff after Mrs. Remy had 99 and Mrs. Fillius 100 in the 18-hole event Wednesday and tied with net 78s. The gross playoff went to Mrs. J. A. Brooks of Belle Haven with a 109 to 118 for Mrs. Samuel Brown of Woodmont after they tied with 101.

Mrs. George E. Martin, who won her first golf prize when she captured low gross honors in the class B Star Cup, came right back yesterday to win the playoff for the massive Schlosser Trophy at Manor Country Club.

Mrs. Martin had 95-20-75 and Mrs. Roy T. Brooks 98-16-82 after they tied with net 71s on Tuesday.

Washington Golf and Country Club's Women's Golf Committee held a cross-country event with Mrs. Jerome Cope the winner, followed by Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Mrs. M. H. Dinneen, Mrs. W. I. Horner, Mrs. E. M. Norton, Mrs. R. L. Hutchison, Mrs. D. R. Monsees and C. T. Siebold.

Mrs. John Darby Shoots 74 to Win Washington Post Cup

Mrs. Watson Awarded Second Place

By Bill Burnett
Post Reporter

The annual squabble for The Washington Post Cup, involving Washington's Class A feminine golfers, wound up yesterday with "flinches" in almost complete charge.

Mrs. John Darby, dark-eyed stroker from Columbia Country Club, took one-year possession of the coveted Post Cup in her first tournament triumph.

She toured the baked Prince Georges course in a sparkling 92, which with a handicap of 13, gave her a 74 and the trophy by one stroke.

Two Tie at 75

Pressing closely were Mrs. R. D. Watson of Manor and Mrs. George Jani of Congressional, another pair of first-time prize winners who turned in 75s. Mrs. Watson took second place in a match of cards against par.

In all, the prize list of 11 players included only two tournament winners. Mrs. Betty Meckley, perennial low scorer, failed for the fifth time to win the cup but managed for the only gross prize of the meet.

Playing with the low handicap, three strokes, her gross 82 placed her five strokes behind Mrs. Darby's net winner but one stroke up on the gross effort of Mrs. Marie Walper, home club entry.

Mrs. Walper Again

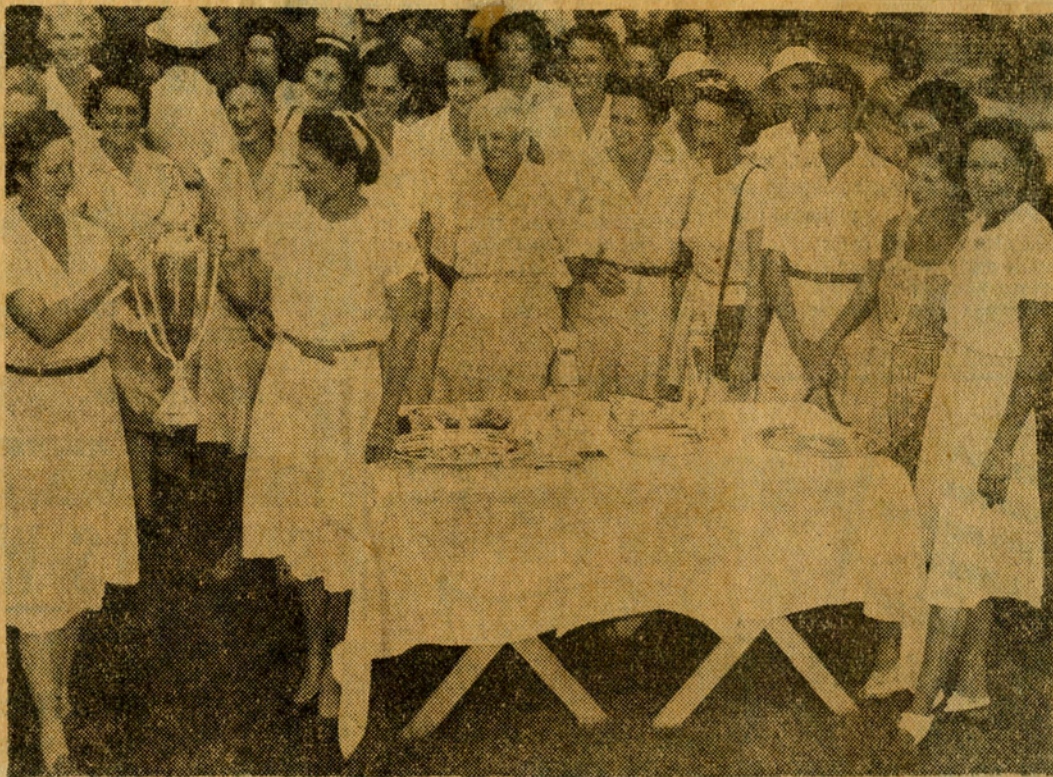

Mrs. Walper proved the only favorite to crack the net prize list. She tied with three other players with 77 and wound up ninth.

Other favorites far back in the field were Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg, 84-5-79; Anne Stonemetz, 88-4-84; Mrs. John Ives, 92-6-86, and Mrs. L. G. Pray, 91-4-87.

In placing her name on The Post Cup, which boasts the names of the city's best golfers, Mrs. Darby fired steady rounds of 45 and 47. Included on her card were three pars and a birdie on the par-3 fourteenth.

Prince Georges Team Choice in Cloverleaf Golf Tournament

By Merrell Whittlesey

Columbia Country Club will be host to considerable golfing talent Sunday in the second annual Cloverleaf Invitation Tournament, the event that brings together the pro, club champion, senior titlist and women's champion from each member club of the District Golf Association, with the winner decided on combined scores.

There will be two changes in the lineup of the defending champion Kenwood team, Charles Price for Bill Wenzel and Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg for Mrs. Betty Meckley as men's and women's club champs, respectively, but the 1946 winners will be equally as strong with the change in club champions in there.

Several of the foursomes will be stronger this year and Kenwood's winning 301 score of last year may not stand up. It was made up of 72s by Pro George Diefenbaugh and Nick Hollander, the senior titlist, a 74 by Wenzel and 83 by Mrs. Meckley. Two or three teams may have a substitute in one position, including Manor due to Mrs. W. R. Stokes' absence from the city, and Indian Spring, because Eddie Ault will be competing in a conflicting tournament.

Bogart With Chevy Chase.

District, Maryland and Middle Atlantic Amateur champion Bobby Brownell, who also rules as club titlist at Manor and Chevy Chase, decided to cast his lot with Manor, his first home club. Ralph Bogart stepped into Brownell's place with the Chevy Chase team.

In this novel tournament the senior golfer looms as the key to the winning team. Most of the pros are fairly well matched, only two or three club champions stand out and a majority of the women will be within a few strokes range. But some of the clubs have golfers in the 50 and up age class who are par-shooting threats, including Hollander, Elliott Spicer of Indian Spring, John R. Miller of Manor and Jess Baggett of Prince Georges.

When Chris Heurich, jr., Columbia's Golf Committee chairman, announced the team lists, several on-lookers selected the Prince Georges team as one with excellent balance and a very possible winner. With Al Houghton, George Voigt, Baggett and Mrs. Marie Walper there is not a weak spot on the team.

Team Lineups.

Play will start at 1:30 p.m.

The lineups, with the pro listed first, club champion second, senior champion and women's champion:

Army Navy—Allan Burton, Col. M. M. McGee, Gen. Jesse C. Drain and Anne Stonemetz.

Belle Haven—Tommy Ryan, Col. Bernard Schriever, J. B. Murphy, Mrs. Michael Mehan.

Chevy Chase—Charles Bassler, Ralph Bogart, Robert Stead, jr., Mrs. Hugh Nicholson.

Columbia—Fred McLeod, C. A. Slater, jr., Col. J. R. Francis, Elmer Finckel.

Congressional—Wiffy Cox, Mr. Parker Nolan, Jack McCarron, Mrs. F. R. Dole.

Indian Spring—Mel Shorey, Buddy Sharkey, Elliott Spicer, Mrs. K. S. Giles (tentative).

Kenwood—George Diefenbaugh, Charles Price, Nick Hollander, Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg.

Manor—Clagett Stevens, Bobby Brownell, John R. Miller, Mrs. John R. Dally.

Prince Georges—Al Houghton, George Voigt, Jess Baggett, Mrs. Marie Walper.

Washington—Dave Thomson, Claude Rippey, Leslie Whitten, Mrs. Lafayette Franklin.

Woodmont—Gene Larkin, Howard Nordlinger, L. E. Harris, Mrs. H. H. Goodman.

Prince Georges Team Upsets Predictions In Golf Triumph

The Cloverleaf Invitation tournament at Columbia Country Club is only two years old and, in both tournaments the galleryites have been way off on their score prediction.

Last year Kenwood won with a 301 total in the tournament where the combined score of the club professional, men's and women's champions and senior titlist decides the winner. That was several strokes lower than expected and they said the count would stand for years.

But yesterday a well-balanced Prince Georges team came along with a 296 total, or an average of 74 per player, to beat Kenwood's score by five strokes and the second best team, Chevy Chase, by eight.

Of course, Columbia was not as tough as it can be. Play was from the middle tees, which means the men played the course shorter, but the women found it a trifle longer.

George Voigt, who seemingly gets better with age, paced the winners with a two-under-par 68, one stroke better than Pro Al Houghton with a 69. Senior Jess Baggett had 73 and Mrs. Marie Walper an 86, with a near-disastrous eight on the 12th hole. That added to 296.

Chevy Chase already was in with its 304 total, featured by a three-under-par 67 by Charles Bassler, subbing for Bob Barnett as pro. Ralph Bogart was next with 69 and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson came back in 38 for an 82. Senior Hogert Stead, jr., was off his game and had an 86.

Bassler shot six birdies, three bogeys, including the first two holes, and nine pars while Bogart was more consistent with 15 pars, a bogey and two birdies.

The best composite score would have been 290. Bassler was low pro with 67, Voigt the top amateur with

Field Unable to Lick Par in Indian Spring Pro-Lady Tourney

The Middle Atlantic golf professionals gave no indication that they would tear the Indian Spring course to pieces in the $500-added District Open next month when par withstood the best efforts of 31 pros in the annual MAPGA Pro-Lady tournament yesterday at Indian Spring. Winter rules were played, too, which made the course easier.

Par of 70 was equaled by Manor's Clagett Stevens with his best competitive round of the season, Al Houghton of Prince Georges, who won the pro sweeps in the same event last year with the same score, and Baltimore's Andy Gibson of the C. C. of Maryland and Ralph Beach of Suburban.

Women Help Partners.

Ninety women golfers turned out and two of them, Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood and Mrs. Bernard Trupp of Suburban, really gave their partners some help, aided by a two-thirds handicap allowance. Mrs. Howard chipped in the cup for a birdie 3—and a net 2—on the fourth hole and with George Diefenbaugh posted a 66, a score tied by Beach, who had three birdies within a space of four holes on the back nine, and Mrs. Trupp.

Until some of the late starters came in, the event was almost a carbon copy of the one last year. Houghton had his same 70 and the host pro and assistant, Mel Shorey, and Bob Bowers, who tied for first last year, were deadlocked with new partners at 67 best ball scores. Shorey teamed with Southpaw Mrs. K. S. Giles and Bowers with Mrs. Charles Jorg.

Two other 67s that tied for second in the best-ball event were by Stevens and Mrs. H. E. Davies of Manor and John Shorey of the Farmington Club in Charlottesville and Mrs. J. T. Powell of the host club.

The next best pro score was a 71 by Bowers that included only 26 putts.

Greens True, But Heavy.

Although some of the lowest scoring of the season has been accomplished at Indian Spring, the pros cannot seem to do much with old man par there and it looks as if a par total might win the 36-hole D. C. Open. The greens were true, but heavy, and Shorey undoubtedly will be pestered by entrants desiring practice rounds before the tournament, to get another crack at the greens.

Middle Atlantic Golf Next After Post Cup

The top-notch woman golfers conclude their August tournament schedule and can rest until the Middle Atlantic championship in Richmond starting September 8 after the annual Women's District Golf Association's Post Cup tournament today at Prince Georges.

The next event for the class B players will be the second section of the Post Cup September 5 at Prince Georges.

Mrs. Levy Has 77, Captures Washington Post Golf Trophy

Mrs. Price Runnerup, Stroke Back

Mrs. G. R. Levy of Prince Georges Golf and Country Club shot a 96-19-77 to win The Washington Post Class B Trophy yesterday in the annual D. C. Women's Golf Association Tournament at Prince Georges.

Continuing to show marked improvement—Mrs. Levy has cut her handicap from 32 to 19 in one season—the Prince Georges golfer defeated a field of 68. After her victory, Mrs. Levy's handicap was lowered further to 17 and she was moved up to Class A.

The low gross award went to Mrs. Bradley Burrows, of Indian Spring, who toured the course in 100.

Mrs. Price Second

One stroke behind Mrs. Levy in the trophy competition was Mrs. Weldon Price of Washington Golf and Country Club, with a 105-27-78. Mrs. R. L. Hutchison of Washington had a 101-23-78 to take third place after matching with Mrs. Price.

Next came Mrs. James Somes of Kenwood, with 103-24-79, Miss Grace King, Manor, 103-24-79, and Mrs. Alfred Brand, Belle Haven, 101-22-79. Mrs. Gus Dimberg, Washington, shot a 110-29-81 and Mrs. W. G. Hipps, Army-Navy, 103-22-81.

Two Deadlock

Other prize winners were Mrs. Lois Russel, Prince Georges, 106-24-82; Mrs. Leonard Obert, Indian Spring, 113-30-83; Mrs. Houston Harper, Congressional, 111-28-83 and Mrs. Willard Edwards, Indian Spring, 106-28-83.

Mrs. Edgar Kreutzberg, Kenwood, finished in a deadlock for twelfth place with Mrs. Edwards at 83 but lost out in a drawing for the prize.

Mrs. Levy, Post Cup Victor, Due For Most-Improved Golf Award

The trophy that Mrs. G. R. Levy won in the annual class B section of the Post Cup tournament yesterday probably was not the last one of the season for the Prince Georges Club golfer. Mrs. Levy is almost a lock bet to win the Women's District Golf Association's prize for the player who showed the greatest improvement for the year.

The gross 96 that the host club player posted in the final tournament of the season for the class B players dropped her handicap to 17, into Class A, a 15-stroke reduction for the season. Mrs. Levy started with a 32-stroke allowance. It is extremely doubtful that any other woman golfer will cut her handicap by 15 strokes.

Mrs. Levy was the only player to break 100, but as she took the net prize that left low gross to Mrs. Bradley Burrows, wife of one of the District's top amateurs, with an even 100.

Mrs. Weldon Price of Washington with 105-27-78 and Mrs. R. L. Hutchison of Washington with 101-23-78 finished one stroke back of Mrs. Levy's winning 96-19-77.

Other prize winners were: Grace King of Manor, for the first time, with 103-24-79; Mrs. Alfred Brand of Belle Haven, 101-22-79; Mrs. Gus Dimberg of Washington, 110-29-81; Mrs. W. G. Hipps of Army Navy, 103-22-81; Mrs. Louis Russell of Prince Georges, 106-24-82, and Mrs. Leonard Obert of Indian Spring, 113-30-83. Mrs. Houston Harper of Congressional, with 111-28-83, and Mrs. Willard Edwards of Indian Spring, with 106-23-83, were drawn out of the prize list.

Mrs. John S. Conklin, an unheralded player at Army Navy, came up with one of the best rounds of the season at the service club to win the Women's Golf Committee's medal play handicap with an 83, minus a 12 handicap for a net 71. Mrs. Richard Oliver was second with 90-14-76.

Mrs. Stokes Defends Title in M. A. Golf

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes put her Middle Atlantic Women's Golf title on the line today at the Hermitage Club in Richmond with the Maryland State titleist, Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore, considered to be the toughest opposition for Washington's two-time champion.

The 12 Washington linkswomen in the field of 51 seeking the 16 match play berths in the championship flight in today's qualifying round are led by Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Betty Meckley, three-time winner, and Anne Stonemetz, promising young club champion from Army-Navy.

Match play rounds tomorrow through Friday's finals in all flights following the qualifying.

By William Klemm—The Washington Post
MOST IMPROVED PLAYER—Mrs. Wilma Levy, 3647 Minnesota ave. se., won The Washington Post trophy and the District women's Class B championship with a score of 96-19-77, at the Prince Georges Club. Mrs. Levy, the District's most improved young player, has been placed in Class A for future play, having reduced her handicap 15 strokes in one season.

Mrs. Glick Posts 78 for Medal in Women's Mid-Atlantic Golf

Mrs. Howard Has 85, Leads D. C. Entries

Richmond, Va., Sept. 8.—Mrs. Maurice Glick of the Woodholme Country Club, Baltimore, carded a one-over-par 78 today to win the qualifying medal as the Women's Middle Atlantic golf tournament got under way for a five-day stand in the midst of a series of thunderstorms which sent scores zooming.

Three strokes behind Mrs. Glick, the Baltimore City titlist, were Virginia's two chief hopefuls, Mrs. Jim Reynolds of Richmond and Mrs. J. B. Cralle of Roanoke, finalists earlier this summer for the Virginia women's crown. Mrs. Reynolds won.

Scores soared past the three leaders. Leading the District entries in the tourney was Mrs. Rex Howard of the Kenwood Country Club, who had an 85.

Other Washingtonians to make it to the championship bracket were Mrs. Ann Stonemetz of the Army-Navy Club, 86; Mrs. J. P. Trenchard, Kenwood, 87, and Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, 94. Mrs. Meckley won a three-way playoff to take the sixteenth playoff spot.

Mrs. Walter Stokes of Washington, defending champion, and a two-time winner, withdrew because of an eye infection.

The scores included:

Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, Washington, 47-47—94.

Mrs. J. T. Powell, Kenwood, Washington, 50-51—101.

Mrs. J. P. Touchard, Kenwood, Washington, 44-43—87.

Mrs. Herbert Lacey, Manor, Washington, 54-50—104.

Mrs. N. E. Davis, 54-56—110.

Mrs. Frank Mirth, Indian Springs, Washington, 51-49—100.

Mrs. M. Alexander, Washington Country Club, 58-57—115.

Mrs. Ann Stonemetz, Army and Navy Club, Washington, 44-42—86.

Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, Washington, 44-41—85.

Mrs. Meckley to Meet Mrs. Howard Today In Richmond Golf

Special Dispatch to The Star

RICHMOND, Sept. 10.—Washington was to be limited to one berth in tomorrow's semifinals of the annual Middle Atlantic women's golf championship here at the Hermitage Club as its only remaining representatives, clubmates, Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, met in a quarter-final match.

It's old home week for Mrs. Howard, the low District qualifier, who yesterday defeated another clubmate, Mrs. Pearson Menoher, 1 up, with a par 3 on the 18th hole.

The best match of the day was a hard one to lose for Anne Stonemetz, the Army Navy Club champion, who watched Mrs. Betty Cralle of Roanoke drop an 8-foot putt for a 3 on the 18th green to win 1 up. Mrs. Cralle was runnerup in the Virginia State women's championship. Both played good golf and were not separated by more than 1 up at any time in the match.

Most of the favorites won, including Mrs. Maurice Glick, the Maryland State champion; Mrs. Jim Reynolds, the Virginia titlist, and Mrs. Meckley. In a minor upset, Mrs. S. R. Hall of the Country Club of Virginia defeated Baltimore's Mrs. T. E. Schludenberg, Maryland State finalist, 1 up.

After being entertained at the host club Monday and the Country Club of Virginia yesterday, the contestants were slated for an after-noon party at the Glenwood club today.

First-round results, championship flight:

Mrs. Maurice Glick (Woodholme of Baltimore) defeated Jeanette Myers (Suburban of Baltimore), 2 and 1; Mary Ann Downey (Baltimore Country Club) defeated Mrs. Grayson Dashiell (Country Club of Virginia), 6 and 5; Mrs. Betty Cralle (Roanoke) defeated Anne Stonemetz (Army Navy), 1 up; Mrs. George Owens (Petersburg) defeated Mrs. J. B. Trenchard, 3 and 2; Mrs. Jim Reynolds (Glenwood of Richmond) defeated Mrs. Llewellyn Miller (Farmington Club of Charlottesville), 5 and 4; Mrs. S. R. Hall (Country Club of Virginia) defeated Mrs. T. E. Schludenberg (Baltimore Country Club), 1 up; Mrs. Rex Howard (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. Pearson Menoher (Kenwood), 1 up; Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. C. L. Gemmill (Farmington), 5 and 4.

Washingtonians in the second flight:

Mrs. Elise C. Hoke (Country Club of Virginia) defeated Mrs. Frank Mirth of Indian Spring, 8 and 7; Mrs. H. L. Lacey of Manor, 8 and 7; Mrs. M. F. Taylor (Hermitage) defeated Mrs. J. T. Powell (Kenwood), 4 and 3. Third flight—Mrs. R. C. Welton (Country Club of Virginia) defeated Mrs. M. M. Alexander of Washington, 4 and 3. Championship flight pairings for today—Glick vs. Downey, Cralle vs. Owens, Reynolds vs. Hall, Meckley vs. Howard.

D. C.'s Tourney Hopes Fade As Mrs. Stokes Drops Out

Special Dispatch to The Star

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 9.—With the withdrawal of Mrs. W. R. Stokes, the defending champion from Manor Country Club, Washington appeared to be without a serious threat for the title as match play in the Middle Atlantic women's championship got under way today at the Hermitage Country Club.

Mrs. Stokes reported she was bothered by a sty on her left eye and did not attempt to qualify after wiring regrets.

With the two-time titlist out, Medalist Mrs. Maurice Glick, who fashioned a fine 78 over a course made difficult by showers, took over the favorite's role. The Baltimorean is the Maryland State champion.

Washington qualified five players. Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood with an 85, Anne Stonemetz of Army Navy with an 86, Kenwood's Mrs. J. P. Trenchard with 87, Mrs. Pearson Menoher with 91 and Mrs. Betty Meckley, three-time champion, with a 94. Mrs. Meckley won a three-way playoff for the last berth in the title flight.

First-round pairings in the championship flight:

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme of Baltimore (78), vs. Jeanette Myers, Suburban of Baltimore (90); Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore C. C. (86), vs. Mrs. Grayson Dashiell, C. C. of Virginia, Richmond (91); Mrs. Betty Cralle II, Roanoke (81), vs. Anne Stonemetz, Army Navy of Washington (86); Mrs. J. B. Trenchard, Kenwood of Washington (87), vs. Mrs. George Owens, Petersburg (93); Mrs. Jim Reynolds, Glenwood of Richmond (91), vs. Mrs. Llewellyn Miller, Farmington of Charlottesville (90); Mrs. T. E. Schludenberg, Baltimore C. C. (89), vs. Mrs. S. R. Hall, C. C. of Virginia, Richmond (92); Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood of Washington (85), vs. Mrs. Pearson Menoher, Kenwood of Washington (91); Mrs. C. L. Gemmill, Farmington of Charlottesville (89), vs. Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood of Washington (94).

Pairings of Washingtonians in other flights:

Second flight—Mrs. Frank Mirth, Indian Spring of Washington (100), vs. Mrs. Elsie C. Hoke, C. C. of Virginia; Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor of Washington (104), vs. Mrs. G. S. Hall, C. C. of Virginia; Mrs. J. T. Powell (101), Kenwood of Washington, vs. Mrs. M. F. Taylor, Hermitage; Mrs. H. E. Davies, Manor of Washington (110), vs. Mrs. B. L. Phillips, Hermitage.

D. C. Golfer Wins, 3-2, in 2d Round

Richmond, Va., Sept. 10 (P).—A couple of reigning favorites—Mrs. James Reynolds of Richmond and Mrs. J. B. Cralle, 3d, of Roanoke—fell by the wayside today in second round matches of the Middle Atlantic Womens Golf Tournament.

Mrs. Reynolds, playing out of Glenwood Country Club, was the victim of a stunning upset at the hands of Mrs. S. R. Hall, of the Country Club of Virginia, Richmond, in a thrilling battle that ended on the twentieth green of the Hermitage Country Club course.

Mrs. Cralle, runnerup to Mrs. Reynolds in this year's Virginia State Womens Tournament, was ousted on the twenty-second hole by Mrs. George Owens of Petersburg.

Outside of these two overtime matches, results in the second round ran according to form. Tournament Medalist Mrs. Maurice Glick of the Woodholme Country Club, Baltimore, had a fight on her hands before eliminating Miss M. A. Downey of the Baltimore Country Club, one up on the nineteenth hole. In the only other first flight contest—the only one, incidentally, which did not go extra holes, Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, came in with a 3-and-2 triumph over Mrs. Rex Howard, also of the Kenwood Club.

Results in other flights today (all third-round matches):

SECOND FLIGHT—Mrs. R. B. Moore (Richmond) defeated Mrs. Gilmer Minor (Richmond), 7 and 6; Mrs. G. S. Hall (Amelia) defeated Mrs. Elsie Hoke (Richmond), 4 and 2; Mrs. Harry Swartzchild (Richmond) defeated Mrs. M. F. Taylor (Richmond), 3 and 2, and Mrs. W. J. Barton (Petersburg) defeated Mrs. B. L. Phillips (Richmond), 2 and 1.

THIRD FLIGHT—Mrs. C. F. Goddard (Richmond) defeated Mrs. Benno Janssen (Charlottesville), 1 up at twentieth hole; Mrs. R. C. Welton (Richmond) defeated Mrs. R. H. Godsey (Petersburg), 3 and 1; Mrs. Lewis Miller (Richmond) defeated Mrs. Glenn Knox (Richmond), 3 and 1, and Mrs. F. P. Brawley (Richmond) defeated Mrs. Robert Brydon 3d (Richmond), 3 and 1.

Mrs. Meckley Seeks Fourth M.-A. Title

Special Dispatch to The Star

RICHMOND, Sept. 12.—Mrs. Betty Meckley, the 1935-1937 and '44 Middle Atlantic women's golf champion, sought her fourth title here today but the Kenwood shotmaker was an underdog to Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore's Woodholme Club.

Mrs. Glick, the present Baltimore city and Maryland State champion and medalist here, has been playing the best golf of the week and has advanced over the strongest half of the draw. In the semifinals the visitor defeated Mrs. George Owens of Petersburg, 5 and 4, after holding a 5-up lead at the turn.

Mrs. Meckley, who qualified via the playoff route after a wobbly medal round, scored a 6 and 5 semifinal triumph over Mrs. S. R. Hall of the Country Club of Virginia. Mrs. Meckley also was 5 up at nine.

The 18-hole title match finds Mrs. Meckley seeking her first tournament victory in three years and Mrs. Glick after her first Middle Atlantic triumph, a title that evaded her in previous years.

A new champion will be crowned as Mrs. W. R. Stokes did not defend.

Easy Wins Scored in Semifinals

Richmond, Va., Sept. 11.—The Old Dominion's hopes of bringing back the Middle Atlantic women's golf championship were shattered at the Hermitage Country Club today as Mrs. Maurice Glick, the steady performer from Baltimore's Woodholme Country Club, and Mrs. Betty Meckley, of the Kenwood Country Club, Washington, turned in easy victories over their semifinal opponents.

Mrs. Glick and Mrs. Meckley will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock for the crown.

Both Mrs. Glick and Mrs. Meckley actually won their matches on the outgoing nines, being five up at that time.

Mrs. Glick, the medalist and Baltimore City champion, went on to defeat Mrs. George Owens, of Petersburg, 5 and 4. Mrs. Owens yesterday dropped Mrs. J. B. Cralle 3d, Virginia's No. 2 woman player, in a blistering 22-hole match, 5 and 4. Mrs. Meckley stopped Mrs. S. R. Hall of Richmond, 6 and 5. Mrs. Hall yesterday eliminated Mrs. Jim Reynolds, Virginia State champion.

Mrs. Glick had a par 38 at the turn today and was only 2 over par when the match came to an end on the fourteenth hole.

The pressure was also too much for Mrs. Hall whose game on the greens went to pieces for the first time during the tournament as Mrs. Meckley, seldom in trouble because of her accuracy, took advantage of Mrs. Hall's errors at every opportunity to end the match on the thirteenth hole.

Results:

Championship flight

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme Country Club, Baltimore, defeated Mrs. George Owens, Petersburg Country Club, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood Country Club, Washington, defeated Mrs. S. R. Hall, C. C. Va., Richmond, 6 and 5.

Mrs. Glick Ends Jinx In Winning M.-A. Title

Special Dispatch to The Star

RICHMOND, Sept. 13.—The only golf tournament remaining to be won in this section by Baltimore's Mrs. Maurice Glick is the 54-hole medal play Payne Cup tournament, as the Woodholme Club player already is the Baltimore and Maryland State titlist and the Middle Atlantic champion as of yesterday.

Mrs. Glick, who heretofore had found the Middle Atlantic a jinx tournament, thought for a minute yesterday that she would have to wait another year. That was when Washington's Mrs. Betty Mackley of Kenwood won the 11th and 12th holes—the first via a 20-foot putt—to square the match. But Mrs. Glick came through to win the next four holes and the match on the 16th green, 4 and 2.

Mrs. Glick, tournament medalist here at the Hermitage Club, can make a sweep of women's golf honors in this section if she can win the Payne Cup for the Maryland and District players next month at the C. C. of Maryland. By that time Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Washington, who did not defend her title here, is expected to return to competition.

The title flight consolation went to Army Navy Club's Anne Stonemetz, who defeated Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg of Baltimore C. C., the Maryland State runnerup, 1 up. Mrs. H. E. Davies was the other prize winner of the District contingent when she won the second flight consolation over Frances Rand of Richmond, 4 and 3.

Triumph of Mrs. Ives In Golf Final Caps Big Tourney Week

Mrs. John Ives scored a mild upset to climax a hectic women's club championship at Columbia yesterday, but the Congressional and Washington Golf and Country Club title tournaments were marked by decisive triumphs by the favorites in the final round. The three victors joined Mrs. Theodore Peyser of Woodmont as winners of club titles in "Women's Club Championship Week" of the WDGA. Several of the tournaments were postponed due to a conflict with the Middle-Atlantic championship.

Mrs. Ives defeated the star of Thursday's sensational match at Columbia, Elinor Finckel, by a 4-and-3 margin, to win her first title. Mrs. Ives won by being more steady on the greens.

The Congressional champion is Mrs. D. H. Henderson, medalist and favorite, who brought out her best game of the week to score a decisive 7-and-6 triumph over Mrs. H. M. Chapman. It also was Mrs. Henderson's first triumph.

Mrs. Joseph L. Mason, touted as a threat for the District title when she moved here from Des Moines last spring, did not compete in a tournament until the Washington club championship, and she won that yesterday with a 7-and-6 triumph over two-time former titlist, Mrs. George H. Bailey, jr.

Mrs. Mason, co-medalist with Mrs. Bailey, was a total of 26 up for the four matches in adding the local title to former triumphs in Des Moines.

Results in all flights:

Baltimore Linkswomen Sweep '47 Honors Against D.C. Team

Baltimore's woman golfers completed a season in which they shut out the District woman golfers without a single honor when the Baltimoreans won the third match of the intercity team series, 9½-8½, yesterday at Woodmont.

With Baltimore's Mrs. Maurice Glick in possession of the Middle Atlantic, Maryland State and Payne Cup titles, the team triumph gave the visitors a sweep. Last year the Baltimoreans won the team series in a rubber match, but the District had Mrs. Walter R. Stokes as the Mid-Atlantic and Payne Cup winner.

Both teams were without a number of their top players in the rubber match yesterday, but with one match to go the score was tied, 7½ all. In the No. 6 match June Vogel, one of Baltimore's top players, and Mrs. C. C. Barr won the 18th hole and the deciding point after losing the first nine to Mrs. Arnold Wilcox and Mrs. T. D. Peyser.

Scoring honors for the match went to Mary Ann Downey with an 80.

In five intercity matches for the season the District showed three victories and two defeats. The local linkswomen defeated Richmond twice and Baltimore once and lost two to Baltimore and a one-sided match to Philadelphia.

Baltimore, 9½; Washington, 8½.

Mary Ann Downey and Jeanette Myers (Baltimore) scored 1 point to 2 for Mrs. A. B. Bower and Mrs. Walter Stokes; Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg and Mrs. C. E. Richards (Baltimore) scored ½ point to 2½ for Mrs. Betty Meckley and Mrs. Landra Platt; Mrs. Jerome Sloman and Mrs. M. L. Bell (Baltimore) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. L. G. Pray and Mrs. Rex Howard; Mrs. H. H. Hoene and Mrs. Redmond Stewart, jr. (Baltimore) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. John Ives and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith; Mrs. H. C. Trace and Mrs. Donald Murray (Baltimore) scored 0 points to 3 for Mrs. E. P. Moore and Mrs. S. F. Little; June Vogel and Mrs. C. C. Barr (Baltimore) scored 3 points to 1 for Mrs. Arnold Wilcox and Mrs. T. D. Peyser.

Mrs. Emge Wins Corby Cup Golf

Mrs. Ora Emge of Prince Georges won the DWGA's Corby Cup tournament at Columbia yesterday, besting a field of 120 competitors with an 87-13-74.

Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood and Miss Ann Stonemetz of Army-Navy, tied for low gross with 84s, but Miss Stonemetz elected to receive a net prize and Mrs. Meckley was declared the gross winner.

Other winners, after cards were matched on several tie scores, were: Mrs. E. Harris of Kenwood, with 89-11-78; Mrs. N. Gilliam of Belle Haven, 9-13-78; Mrs. N. F. Hollander of Kenwood, 92-14-78; Mrs. A. G. Davies, Manor, 92-14-80; Mrs. O. B. Monroe, Kenwood, 98-18-80, and Miss Anne Stonemetz, Army-Navy, 84-4-80.

Women Increase Golf Schedule; Mrs. Emge Corby Cup Victor

Five definite days of tournament golf have been added to the women's fall golf schedule, but they concern only the top players and all the events will be out of town.

The Women's District Golf Association's intercity team will resume its series with Philadelphia after a lapse of several years in a one-day event at the Manufacturers' Club at Oreland, Pa., October 2. The second team match will be a return engagement with Baltimore at Woodholme October 17.

Players with handicaps of 14 and under will be eligible for the annual 54-hole medal-play Payne Cup event of the Maryland State Golf Association at Woodholme October 21-23. It is the only major medal-play event for the linkswomen of Baltimore and Washington and will find Mrs. Maurice Glick, already the Baltimore, Maryland and Middle Atlantic titlist, playing over her home course. Mrs. Walter R. Stokes is defending champion.

The WDGA tournament season for the class A players was concluded yesterday at Columbia with the annual Corby Cup event. A record class A field of 110 players started out of an original entry of 120.

Mrs. Emge Is Winner.

Mrs. Ora Emge, a former Prince Georges Club champion, knocked in a putt almost the width of the 18th green, but it only served to make her winning margin 4 strokes as she posted an 87, only 3 shots from the best score of the day, and deducted 13 handicap strokes for a net 74.

Low gross honors went to Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, with an 84, after an unusual decision on the part of Army Navy's Ann Stonemetz, who also posted an 84, but took a low net prize instead of playing off. Mrs. Stokes was just one shot back with an 85.

Mrs. Ellen Kincaid Harris, playing in her first tournament since the birth of her 4-month-old son, and her first 18-hole round of golf in almost a year, won second low net with 89-11-78. Last year's District champion, Mrs. A. B. Bower, also played her first competitive round since the birth of her baby three months ago and posted a commendable 86.

Tie for Second Net.

Mrs. Margaret Gilliam, of Belle Haven, with 91-13-78; Mrs. N. F. Hollander of Kenwood, 92-14-78, and Mrs. H. E. Davies of Manor, 92-14-78, tied for second net, but finished in that order after matching cards.

Other prize winners were: Mrs. H. H. Goodman of Washington, 92-12-80; Mrs. C. B. Monro of Kenwood, 98-18-80; Miss Stonemetz, who was out in 46 and back in 38 for 84-4-80; Lois Gladding of Prince Georges, 93-12-81; Mrs. Ed Widmayer of Kenwood, 93-11-82; Mrs. R. T. Brooks of Manor, 97-14-83; Mrs. Richard Johnson of Chevy Chase, 92-9-83; Mrs. George Jani of Congressional, 97-14-83; Mrs. Stokes, 85-2-83, and Margaret Cox of Prince Georges, 99-15-84.

Women's D. C. Golf Field Day Thursday at Three Clubs

Members of first, second and third teams that participated in the Women's District Golf Association team series will compete in the annual field day tournament Thursday at three courses.

First team members will play at the home course of the winning Indian Spring team, with 44 paired. The 46 second team members will play at Congressional instead of Kenwood, the winner, due to the condition of the Kenwood course and 16 third team players will be at Washington Golf and Country Club.

The greens on Kenwood's back nine are being transplanted to the new nine holes. The River Road Club loses its back nine this week when the lease runs out.

District Linkswomen Bow in Philadelphia

The Women's District Golf Association's intercity team returned from Philadelphia today with a 16½-1½ defeat and convinced that it must do something about its junior golf program here if the series is to be continued.

Most of the members of the winning team were products of junior golf in Philadelphia and were active in sponsoring play among the girl golfers.

Mrs. Hugh Nicolson and Mrs. Landra Platt, Chevy Chase teammates and semifinalists in the women's club championship at their home club, scored the only victory for the local team when they won the second nine from Mrs. J. C. Capers and Mrs. J. M. Gessler, jr. The match was played at Manufacturers Country Club.

Mrs. W. R. Stokes and Mrs. L. G. Pray, Washington, scored 0 points to 0 for Mrs. Flippen and Helen Selsel, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hugh Nicolson and Mrs. L. B. Platt, Washington, scored 1 point to 2 for Mrs. J. C. Capers and Mrs. J. M. Gessler, jr., Philadelphia.

Anne Stonemetz and Mrs. Rex Howard, Washington, scored ½ point to 2½ for Mrs. W. G. Hamilton, jr., and Mrs. R. I. Raynor, Philadelphia.

Mrs. D. H. Henderson and Mrs. Pearson Mencher, Washington, scored 0 points to 2 for Mrs. Frank O'Neill and Mrs. Frank Goodyear, Philadelphia.

Mrs. S. F. Little and Mrs. R. D. Watson, Washington, scored 0 points to 3 for Mrs. R. S. Morgan, jr., and Elaine Swope, Philadelphia.

Mrs. George Bailey, jr., and Mrs. Frank Mirth, Washington, scored 0 points to 3 for Mrs. Thomas Hulme and Mrs. Charles Hale, 3d, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Bower, Selector Of Golf Prizes, Wins One in Tournament

Mrs. A. B. Bower, who draws rave notices at each of the Women's District Golf Association tournaments for her selections as prize committee chairman, stepped up to receive one of her own selections as winner of the President's Plate yesterday at Washington Golf and Country Club.

The tournament is an annual affair for officers, committee members, club chairmen and past presidents of the association.

Mrs. Bower played Washington Golf and Country Club in 76 strokes, the best women's competitive score of the season, and deducted two handicap strokes for a net 74. That left low gross to Mrs. Betty Meckley, Rules Committee Chairman from Kenwood, who had an 80.

Other prize winners: Mrs. M. H. Dinneen of the host club, 89-11-78; Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor, 82-2-80; Mrs. Frank R. Keefer of Chevy Chase, 108-28-80; Mrs. R. D. Watson of Manor, 91-10-81; Mrs. G. W. Calvert of Washington, 97-15-82, and Mrs. W. S. Parsons of Army Navy, 92-10-82. Mrs. Keefer, who originated the tournament a number of years ago, returned Sunday

District Linkswomen End Home Season

The Women's District Golf Association has only the intercity team match with Baltimore next Friday on its schedule following yesterday's annual field day for the players who competed on the interclub teams.

The champion Indian Spring team was host to the class A teams and Washington Golf and Country Club, winner of the class C series, was host to the third team members. Although Kenwood was the class B team champion, Congressional played host yesterday as Kenwood has only nine holes in play.

Winners:

First teams—Mrs. Arnold Willcox, Chevy Chase, 84-8-76; Mrs. Florence Godfrey, Congressional, 87-10-77; Mrs. S. Sturges, Army Navy, 90-12-78; Mrs. Pearson Menoher, Kenwood, 88-9-79; Mrs. Harlan Chapman, Congressional, 94-14-80; Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 85-5-80; Mrs. Woodley Thomas, Chevy Chase, 89-9-80; Mrs. Ralph Zuber, Manor, 95-15-80; Mrs. Rod Watson, Manor, 92-10-82; Mrs. Paul Costello, Indian Spring, 91-9-82. Third Match to Settle Baltimore - District Women's Golf Series

For the second straight year the women's intercity golf teams of Baltimore and Washington will require a third match to settle the season's series. The Baltimore linkswomen's 14-4 triumph in a return match yesterday at Woodholme avenged a 10½-7½ defeat suffered here last spring and made a third match necessary.

Mrs. Frank Mirth, the Women's District Golf Association's intercity team captain, said the third match probably would be played at Woodmont, either October 29 or November 5.

Last year the Baltimoreans won the first regularly scheduled match, the District team the second and Baltimore won the rubber engagement. This year the Washington team has beaten Richmond twice, lost to Philadelphia and split with Baltimore.

Three players broke 80 in yesterday's match, with Washington's Mrs. Betty Meckley topping the scores with a 77 and Mrs. Maurice Glick and Jeanette Myers of the hosts posting 79s.

Results:

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Washington, scored ½ point to 2½ for Mrs. M. Glick and Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore; Mrs. L. G. Pray and Mrs. Rex Howard, Washington, scored ½ to a point to 2½ for Jeanette Myers and Mrs. M. L. Bell, Baltimore; Mrs. John Ives and Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Washington, scored 1½ points to 1½ for Mrs. Jerome Sloman and Mrs. C. Richards, Baltimore; Mrs. S. F. Little and Mrs. Arnold Willcox, Washington, scored ½ to a point to 2½ for Mrs. T. Schluderberg and Mrs. Mary Trace, Baltimore; Mrs. George H. Bailey and Mrs. Pearson Menoher, Washington, scored 1 point to 2 for Mrs. H. Horne and Mrs. D. Warfield, Baltimore; Mrs. Theodore Peyser and Mrs. O. L. Young, Washington, scored 0 points to 3 for June Vogel and Mrs. M. Kaplan, Baltimore.

Mrs. Glick Is Favorite In Payne Cup Contest

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21. — Mrs. Maurice Glick, already the holder of the Maryland, Middle Atlantic and Baltimore City titles, is a favorite to add the 54-hole medal play Payne Cup event that started today with the first of three 18-hole rounds over Mrs. Glick's home Woodholme course.

Washington's chief hopes to retain the title were Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, the defending champion, and Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, runnerup to Mrs. Glick in the Middle Atlantic.

The Payne Cup is the outstanding State-wide medal play event of the season.

The women golfers who did not compete in the Payne Cup and still wanted a round of tournament golf joined male partners today in the District Golf Association's mixed Scotch foursome tournament at Manor Country Club. The event was the final DGA activity of the season.

Captain and Mrs. Hunt Win District Scotch Foursome Golf

Captain and Mrs. R. B. Hunt of the Army-Navy Country Club carried off low net honors with a 62 in the annual District of Columbia mixed Scotch foursome at the Manor Club yesterday.

Three teams tied for low gross at 71. They were: Mrs. Landra Platt and Ralph Bogart of Chevy Chase, Mrs. M. Trenchard and Eddie Semmler of Kenwood, and Betty Meckley and Charley Price of Kenwood.

A record field of 60 teams competed in this novel event in which shots are alternated after selective drives.

The Hunts toured the back nine of the regular course in 41 and returned over the inside or ladies' course in 36 strokes to give them a 77 less their handicap of 15 for a net 62.

Outstanding hole of the day was an eagle on the sixteenth when Charley Price drove the green and Mrs. Meckley sank a 12-footer for a 2.

The following teams tied for low net at 65: Mrs. R. E. Aldred, Washington, and W. A. Walsh, Washington; Mrs. J. T. Powell, Kenwood, and W. B. McFerren, Indian Spring; Mrs. Cochran Fisher, Columbia, and Howard Nichols, Columbia; Mrs. R. E. Zuzer, Manor, and Maury Fitzgerald, Kenwood; Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince George, and Martin McCarthy, Columbia.

Mrs. Glick Leads Golf

Pikesville, Md., Oct. 21 (P).—Mrs. Maurice Glick, Middle Atlantic women's golf champion, shot an 80 at Woodholme, her home course, today to take a two-stroke lead in the first round of the Payne Trophy Tournament.

Mrs. L. G. Pray of the Columbia Country Club, Washington, was second, and Mrs. Walter Stokes, 1946 Middle Atlantic titlist from the Manor Club shot an 83 to end in a third-place tie with Jeannette Myers, Suburban Club, Baltimore. Another 18 holes will be played tomorrow and the final 18 on Thursday.

Today's scores (gross, handicap and net):
Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, 80—4—76
Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, 82—4—78
Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor, 83—3—80
Jeannette Myers, Suburban, 83—5—78
Mary Ann Downey, B. C. C., 91—4—87

Mrs. Glick's 159 Maintains Lead In Payne Golf

Pikesville, Md., Oct. 22 (P).—Mrs. Maurice Glick, women's Middle Atlantic golf champion, who led yesterday by two strokes, went three strokes ahead of the field today in the second round of the 54-hole Payne trophy medal play tournament at the Woodholme Country Club.

Mrs. Glick shot a four-over par 79 today to bring her two-day total to 159.

Mrs. Walter Stokes, defending titlist from the Manor Club, Washington, equaled Mrs. Glick's 79 for a second place total of 162, while Mrs. Jerome Sloman of Suburban Club shot an 82 to bring her total to 168.

Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, who had held the runnerup post at the end of the first round with an 82, slipped to an 86 today and placed her in a tie for fourth with Jeannette Myers of Suburban Club, Baltimore, whose 83—87 gave her a two-day total of 169.

Mrs. Glick's 151, on the basis of low net, places her well in front of the field in this division, in which a special prize will be awarded. Runnersup with 156's are Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Edmund Novak of the Baltimore Country Club. Mrs. Novak's gross is 188.

Mrs. Glick Wins Trophy

Pikesville, Md., Oct. 23 (P).—Scoring her second 79-round today, Mrs. Maurice Glick captured the 54-hole Payne Trophy tournament by a nine-stroke margin with 238 total over her home course at Woodholme Country Club.

After taking the Baltimore City, Maryland, and Middle Atlantic crowns in match play earlier this year, Mrs. Glick posted rounds of 80-79-79, to better by three strokes last year's winning total of 241. Mrs. Walter Stokes of the Manor Club, who won the event last year at her home course, slipped to an 88 and third place with 250.

Mrs. L. G. Pray, of the Columbia Club, Washington, recorded the tourney's best round, firing a three-over-women's-par 78 today, giving her 247 for second place.

The final results (today's score, total gross, total handicap, total net) included:
Mrs. Maurice Glick, 79—238—12—226
Mrs. L. G. Pray, 78—247—12—235

Mrs. R. D. Watson, withdrew.

Payne Cup Play Narrows to 4, With Mrs. Glick's 80 Leading

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.—The four players who broke 85 in the first round of the 54-hole medal play Payne Cup event settled down to what appeared to be a private scrap for the title in the second round today at Woodholme Country Club. The other 27 players were strung too far back and turned their interest to net prizes.

The top four—Mrs. Maurice Glick of the host club with an 80, Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia with 82 and Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor and Jeannette Myers of Suburban with 83s, were from three to six strokes ahead of the next best scores—at 86.

Mrs. Glick, seeking a sweep of sectional golfer honors in the final event of the season and the major medal play tournament on the Maryland schedule, combined nines of 38 and 42 for the low score of the day over the long course, a par 73 for men.

Mrs. Pray and Mrs. Stokes, the defending champion, are the only District players conceded a chance at the title. Mrs. Pray had a pair of 41s for one of the best rounds of the season, 82, and Mrs. Stokes had 41-42.

Other District scores: Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, 95-13-82; Mrs. H. E. Davies, Manor, 95-14-81; Mrs. O. L. Young, Prince Georges, 97-11-86; Mrs. Frank Mirth, Indian Spring, 100-14-86; Mrs. R. D. Watson, Manor, 103-11-92 and Mrs. M. M. Alexander, Kenwood, 109-17-92.

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor Club, Washington, set out this morning in an attempt to catch Mrs. Maurice Glick for the lead in the Payne Cup golf tournament at Woodholme Country Club. Mrs. Glick, Middle-Atlantic champion, led Mrs. Stokes, defending titlist by three strokes, after completion of yesterday's second 18-hole round. The two were paired in today's final 18.

Mrs. Glick, who also owns the Baltimore City and Maryland State crowns, carded a four-over-women's-par 79 yesterday for a two-day total of 159. Mrs. Stokes also carded a 79 for 162, while Mrs. Jerome Sloman of Suburban took over third place with an 82 for a total of 168.

Miss Jeannette Myers of Suburban and Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia found themselves out of the running, 10 stroke behind, after faltering yesterday. Mrs. Pray, who was only two strokes behind Mrs. Glick on Tuesday with an 82, carded an 87 yesterday, while Miss Myers added three strokes to her Tuesday score of 83.

Mrs. M. Louise Bell of Baltimore Country Club turned in the most improved performance, cutting her Tuesday's total of 93 by 12 strokes.

Other District scores, handicaps and net totals included Mrs. H. E. Davies, Manor, 95-97-192-14-164; Mrs. O. L. Young, Prince Georges, 97-95-192-11-170; Mrs. Frank Mirth, Indian Spring, 100-93-193-14-164; Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, 95-102-197-13-171; Mrs. R. D. Watson, Manor, 103-104-207-11-182; Mrs. M. M. Alexander, Kenwood, no card.

Mrs. Pray Runnerup In Payne Golf Meet

By the Associated Press

PIKESVILLE, Md., Oct. 24.—Mrs. Maurice Glick has added the Payne Trophy to her golf collection that already included prizes for winning the Middle Atlantic, Maryland and Baltimore City women's championships this summer. She won by a nine-stroke margin over Mrs. L. G. Pray of Manor, with a 79 round over her home course at Woodholme yesterday, giving her a 226 net for the 54-hole tournament.

Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor, last year's winner, slipped to an 88 yesterday and finished third. Mrs. Pray's last round of 78 was the tourney's best.

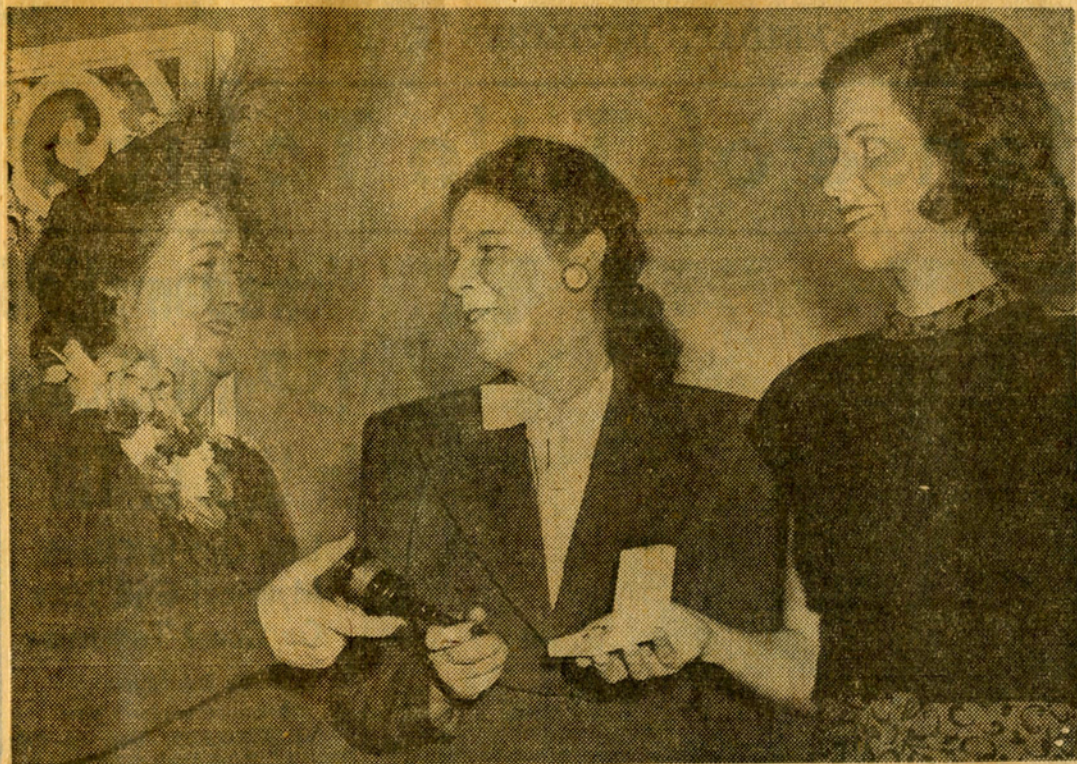

Final standings (yesterday's score, gross, handicap, net):

Mrs. M. Glick, Woodholme, 79-238-12-226
Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, 78-247-12-235

Women's Golf Association Plans Reduction in Fields Next Year

The Women's District Golf Association is going to have to reduce the number of contestants in its major cup tournaments next year, but the method of cutting the fields is a problem for the new administration.

Mrs. W. F. Patterson of Indian Spring was installed as the new president in the annual meeting yesterday at Columbia Country Club, succeeding Mrs. L. E. Hutchison of Washington Golf and Country Club. Mrs. Patterson said she planned to call a special December meeting and other winter meetings to discuss the "business is too good" theme.

It was pointed out that the association had 197 class A members last year with an average tournament entry of 95 and 193 class B players with an average tournament entry of 90.

Fields in the 90s are too big for the dozen or more cup tournaments. It takes almost all day to complete the events, some of the clubs are complaining, and the woman golfers maintain the events are losing popularity because of the unwieldy fields. In the Corby Cup last year, an 18-hole medal event at Columbia, a total of 124 class A players entered.

While some members favor adding C class tournaments to the schedule and thus reducing the handicap limits in classes A and B, a majority of the members present yesterday seemed to favor making classes A and B smaller and making the high handicap golfers work harder to qualify for tournament play.

As it is now, class A golfers are from scratch to 18 and class B from 19 to 36. A suggested plan would be to cut A from scratch to 15 and B from 16 to 26 or 30.

While sentiment was for reducing the fields in the medal play tournaments, Mrs. Patterson said one of the objects of the WDGA this year would be to make the match play championship tournament a bigger affair. Only 48 competed last year.

Other officers installed yesterday were Mrs. M. J. Torlinski of Army Navy as first vice president; Mrs. Willard Edwards of Manor as second vice president; Mrs. John Myers of Congressional as secretary and Mrs. O. L. Young of Prince Georges as treasurer.

Mrs. Hutchinson suggested that the mixed scotch foursome for the benefit of the Boys' Club summer camp fund, held for the first time last year, be made an annual event. The tournament contributed $537.35 to the fund.

Mrs. Patterson Slated To Head Linkswomen

Mrs. W. F. Patterson of Indian Spring is the nominee for president of the Women's District Golf Association. Her name heads a slate unanimously selected by the Nominating Committee for the elections scheduled on December 4 at Columbia Country Club.

Mrs. Patterson currently is the association's first vice president. Mrs. L. E. Hutchison, president, plans to be out of the city for several months next year and asked not to be considered for another term.

In nominating Mrs. Patterson for the post, Mrs. F. Gloyd Awalt, chairman of the committee, said it was the start of a plan to move officers upward in the association. Thus Mrs. Michael Torlinski of Army Navy, nominated for first vice president, would receive the nomination for presidency next year.

Other nominees are: Mrs. Willard Edwards, Manor, second vice president; Mrs. John Myers, Congressional, secretary, and Mrs. O. C. Young, Prince Georges, treasurer.

WDGA Nominates Mrs. Patterson

Mrs. W. F. Patterson, Indian Springs, has been nominated for the 1948 presidency of the Women's District Golfers Association.

Others unanimously selected on the slate which will be elected at the annual meeting December 4 at Columbia Country Club are Mrs. Michael Torlinski, Army-Navy, first vice president; Mrs. Willard Edwards, Manor, second vice president; Mrs. John Myers, Congressional, secretary, and Mrs. O. C. Young, Prince Georges, treasurer.

Limited Tournament Field Forced on Women Golfers

The Womens District Golf Association apologetically announced a forced reduction in the size of its tournament fields at a special meeting called at Indian Spring yesterday. Last year there were just too many players to accommodate comfortably in most of the events.

At the same time President Mrs. W. F. Patterson announced the Association would sponsor Class C tournaments for the first time with spring and fall tournaments for the players with handicaps of 28 through 36.

The handicap limit in Class A was reduced from 18 to 16, which will take about 35 players out of A class, and Class B will include 17 through 27 instead of 19 through 36 as last year. While Class B picked up 35 players in the 16-17 group, it lost 51 with handicaps over 27. Tournament entry fees doubled and the price of the budget book increased in a further attempt to reduce the size of the fields because of an insufficient number of playing sites.

"We're not trying to discourage golf," Mrs. Patterson said, "our job is to stimulate it, but we have so few courses available in comparison to other cities, we have a time limit by which we leave the first tee and other handicaps so that we just had to limit the size of the fields."

The District championship will be played at Woodmont this year the week of June 14-18. The interclub team matches start April 27 and continue through June 8. Four intercity matches are scheduled, one each with Richmond and Philadelphia here and a home and home series with Baltimore. Washington also gets the Middle Atlantic and Payne Cup tournaments this year, which were taken into consideration on the schedule. The Maryland State goes to Baltimore.

Committee appointments announced:

Class A handicap—Mrs. M. M. Alexander, Washington. Class B handicaps—Mrs. Verne Wilson, Columbia. Tournaments—Mrs. M. J. Torlinski, Army Navy; assistants, Mrs. Elmer Jenkins, Washington, and Mrs. Roderick Watson, Manor. Prizes—Mrs. George Jani, Congressional. Rules—Mrs. Doran Platt, Manor; assistants, Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, and Mrs. John Remey, Prince Georges. Auditor—Mrs. Harry Porter, Columbia. Team captain—Mrs. Willard Edwards, Manor. Intercity team captain—Mrs. Hugh Nicolson, Chevy Chase. Yearbook—Mrs. Charles Jorg, Indian Spring.

Star Cup Tournament Among 14 Scheduled For Linkswomen

The Star Cup Tournament will be held August 10 at Manor for Class A players and at the same club on August 20 for Class B players, according to the Women's District Golf Association schedule announced today by Mrs. W. F. Patterson, president.

The tournament schedule includes 14 events, opening in May with Post Cup play and ending in October with the President's Plate competition. Among the more important events will be the District championship at Woodmont from June 14 to 18 and Keefer Cup play at Chevy Chase on May 19 and 20.

A full schedule of team match play also has been arranged, with a total of 21 matches for both first and second teams. The schedule:

Army-Navy's 4 Top Seniors May Meet in Spring Tourney

The Army-Navy Country Club golf committee is thinking of holding a special senior's tournament this spring. Al Burton, pro at Army-Navy, says that four of the club's golfers are a match for any senior in the area. Gen. Jesse Drain, Col. R. G. Rogers, Col. William C. James and Col. R. A. Mountford already are shooting rounds in the mid-seventies although they have only played a few times this season.

Burton thinks matches between these four low-scoring seniors would be the feature of the contemplated tournament... Prince Georges Golf and Country Club boasts an unusual distinction. Two of its members, Army Capt. Fred G. Mosely and Navy Lieut. Jim Kinder, each holds the championship of his branch of service.

Al Price, veteran professional who is now in his twenty-first year at the Rock Creek Golf Course, estimates that he has given 10,000 golf lessons during that period. Al has this to say about the relative learning ability of men and women: "Women are far more serious about improving their golf game than men. Most women are apt pupils, while men, having their own ideas about how to swing at the ball, are harder to teach."

Mrs. W. F. Patterson, the president of the District Women's Golf Association, said she did not expect any hue and cry on the part of the woman golfers over the USGA's action of closing the National Open to Babe Didrikson Zaharias.

"It would have been fun to see her play in the Open, but I won't think the women will make an issue of it," Mrs. Patterson said. "There are plenty of open tournaments for the woman golfers, and after all, there have been some great woman golfers who did not attempt to participate in the Open championship and nobody pushed them."

It was obvious from the beginning that the Babe used the wrong approach toward playing in the Open. She used the bulldozing method but the august USGA would not stand for that. It came as no surprise to see the "for men only" sign hung out for the Open.

The Maryland State Golf Association is losing one of its real live-wire promoters when Bill Edge leaves this section for a new position in Chicago. As vice president in charge of the Tournament Committee for the last two years, Edge has provided a stimulus to the most active golf organization in this section.

The Baltimorean will be succeeded by John Cummings of the Hillendale Club, according to A. Herman Stump, the MSGA president.

Women's District Golf Matches Open on Tuesday

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

Many of the area's best women golfers will start play Tuesday as the Women's District Golf Association team matches open at Manor and Washington Country Clubs.

Seven teams will compete in this year's series of matches, which will continue every Tuesday through June 8. Second team competition also is listed for the same clubs.

Since the first teams play from scratch, the handicap totals listed serve merely to rate the potential strength of each squad. Kenwood, Chevy Chase and Army-Navy have materially lower totals than the others and thus must be conceded favorites' roles.

With last year's first team champion, Indian Spring, withdrawn from the competition, Kenwood's powerful team is a prime favorite to capture the title.

Kenwood can field a team with a total handicap of 40 strokes. Led by Mrs. Betty Meckley and Mrs. Rex Howard, the Kenwood women have a slight edge on paper over Chevy Chase, paced by Mrs. Hugh Nicholson and Mrs. Landra Platt. Chevy Chase's six-woman team carries a handicap total of 43 strokes.

A threat to Kenwood is Army-Navy. Army-Navy had added a newcomer, Mrs. F. C. Ferriday, who is already rated one of the top players in the District. With a 48 handicap total, Army-Navy is rated an outside chance of victory.

The second team matches are tossups, as the teams' use net, or handicap, scores.

Chevy Chase's team, with a handicap totals of 74 and 81, re-

Georges, with 90, have the strongest teams on paper, but as Manor, Kenwood, Washington, Belle Haven and Congressional can make full use of their higher stroke allowances, the competition should be very close.

Tuesday's schedule:

First team matches at Manor: Kenwood vs. Washington; Chevy Chase vs. Congressional; Woodmont vs. Army-Navy.

Second team matches at Washington: Chevy Chase vs. Manor; Belle Haven vs. Prince Georges; Kenwood vs. Congressional.

Second teams—Chevy Chase vs. Manor, Belle Haven vs. Prince Georges, Kenwood vs. Congressional.

3 Favored Teams Win in Ladies' Golf

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

In the opening round of the Women's District Golf Association first team matches at Manor Club yesterday, Army-Navy, Kenwood and Chevy Chase triumphed as expected.

Kenwood, a prime favorite to capture the title, routed Washington Golf and Country Club, 9-0. Mrs. J. P. Trouhard's 84 was the outstanding individual effort in Kenwood's one-sided triumph.

Army-Navy, another highly rated team, scored just as decisive a victory over Woodmont, 9-0, while Chevy Chase's strong team downed Congressional in a surprisingly close match.

Chevy Chase's margin of victory came on a default, which netted Mrs. H. Nicolson and Mrs. Landra Platt 3 points. In the other two matches, the Congressional golfers played even with their favored opponents.

Manor, the host team, drew a bye in the first round of competition. Next week's play will take place at Woodmont.

Manor Scores Upset In 2d Team Play

Manor, Prince Georges and Congressional scored decisive victories as the Women's District Golf Association second team matches opened at the Washington Golf and Country Club.

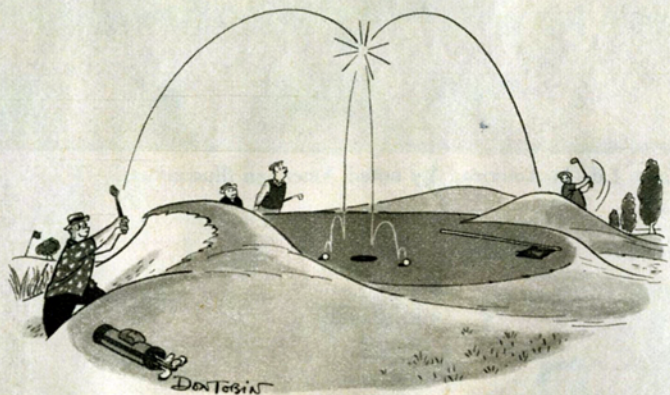

Biggest upset of the day was Manor's 8½-½ triumph over highly rated Chevy Chase, a strong favorite for the title.

Prince Georges strong team, paced by Mrs. Charles Frownfelter's 91, the lowest individual score of the day, had an easy time with Belle Haven, 7-2, while Congressional downed Kenwood, 6-3, in the day's closest match.

SPORTING ODDS

Last July, at the Vashon Golf Course (Vashon Island, Washington), Bill Ackley and Stan Anderson, playing the par-3 eighth hole, found their tee shots had ended in the rough on opposite sides of the elevated green. Out of sight of each other, they played their second shots simultaneously, both pitching high and strong. The balls collided directly above the flagstick. No, it wasn't a birdie deuce for either, but the balls dropped so close to the hole that each had an easy putt for a par.

Kenwood Lineup Looks Best In Women's Golf Team Play

According to the handicap list of the Women's District Golf Association, which is as strict a form sheet as you'll find in the game, Kenwood, Chevy Chase and Army Navy figure to finish in that order in the first team match series.

The opening matches yesterday at Manor Country Club were true to form, with Kenwood and Army Navy scoring 9-0 triumphs over Washington and Woodmont, respectively, while Chevy Chase defeated Congressional, 6-3. Manor drew a bye.

Kenwood, which has five of its six players with handicaps of eight or better, is the best team on paper, but Kenwood was highly regarded last year and finished third behind Indian Spring, which did not enter a team this season, and Manor.

The first team matches, unlike the second and third, are played from scratch, but the women's handicaps are true to the point that it would be almost impossible for any team but one of the three favorites to win.

Congressional Surprises.

Kenwood's players have a handicap total of 39 strokes while Chevy Chase has 43, Army Navy 48, Manor 67, Congressional 68, Woodmont 78 and Washington, 82. Congressional thus pulled somewhat of a surprise yesterday by holding Chevy Chase to a 6-3 score after forfeiting three points in the top bracket. Chevy Chase was handicapped by the absence of Mrs. Arnold Willcox, however, and Mrs. Y. E. Booker played alone in the second bracket and managed to break even. The team with the greatest number of points at the end of the seven-week series is the champion.

The question mark of the series is the Army Navy. The service team has a new top player in Mrs. Edward Ferriday, an attractive young mother of two children who was a junior champion in Wilmington, Del., and a junior finalist for three straight years in Philadelphia just a few years ago. Mrs. Ferriday played just enough golf last year to earn a four handicap but plans to return to competition this year.

Army Navy also has been strengthened in its third bracket by Mrs. O. L. Young, a 10-handicap player, also a member of Prince Georges and particularly good match play contestant. Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Young will leave for a tour of duty in Japan in a few weeks but she may be here until the series is completed.

Mrs. Trouchaud Low Scorer.

Typical of Kenwood's strength, however, is that its No. 5 player, Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, was low scorer yesterday with an all-putts-holed round of 84. Kenwood has the lowest handicapped top bracket of Mrs. Betty Meckley (2) and Mrs. Rex Howard (5) and its No. 3 player is Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, semi-finalist in the District and Maryland State last year.

Mrs. Kreuzburg's partner is Mrs. S. B. Crocker, who as Kay McCloskey was prominent in Pennsylvania golf circles at the Oakmont Club. Mrs. Trouchaud's partner is Mrs. Ed Widmayer, another player whose 11 handicap belies her match-play game.

Although Manor has the District champion, Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, as its top player, the handicap stroke total of 67 of last year's runner-up sextet leaves it with too much to overcome in the lower brackets. For instance, Manor's No. 2 player, Mrs. Roderick Watson, played No. 5 for last year's champions, Indian Spring.

In second team play yesterday at Washington Golf and Country Club, Manor scored an unexpected 8½-to-½ triumph over Chevy Chase, Prince Georges defeated Belle Haven, 7-2, and Congressional defeated Kenwood, 6-3.

Army-Navy Takes 2d in District Play

Kenwood and Army-Navy took over the first and second spots in the Women's District Golf Association team matches by scoring decisive triumphs yesterday in the second week's play at Woodmont.

Kenwood crushed Congressional, 9-0, to keep its unscored-on record intact, while Army-Navy convincingly defeated Chevy Chase's highly regarded team, 7-2.

In the day's other match, Washington Golf and Country Club jumped into the victory column by downing Manor, 6-3, after having been shut out by Kenwood a week ago.

Kenwood's strong team, a heavy favorite to win the team title, was paced by Mrs. S. Crocker, whose 82 over the rainswept links was the lowest individual score reported.

Pacing the Army-Navy golfers was Mrs. Kay Ferriday, a newcomer to District play who has already established herself as one of the area's top shotmakers. Mrs. Ferriday carded an 83 yesterday.

With two weeks' matches having been played, the teams stand in this order: Kenwood, 18 points; Army-Navy, 16 points; Chevy Chase, 8 points; Washington, 6 points; Manor, 3 points; Congressional, 3 points, and Woodmont, no points.

Next week's match will be played at Army-Navy.

Kenwood Club Favored For W.D.G.A. Title

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Kenwood Golf and Country club's strong golf team has been installed the favorite to cop the annual Women's District Golf association championship which begins Tuesday, April 20, at Manor Country club.

The River Road club aggregation, which opens against Washington Golf and Country club, has a combined handicap of 40 strokes, three strokes lower than Chevy Chase club, and eight shots better than Army and Navy. The event, played from scratch, will find Chevy Chase facing Congressional and Army and Navy meeting Woodmont. Manor draws a bye.

Kenwood earned the favoritism with a roster which includes such name players as Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg, Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. Marjorie Trouchaud.

Walter (Red) Cunningham is back in golf. The former Burning Tree club professional, who quit the game at the beginning of World War II, has opened a driving range on Route 1 opposite Belle Haven Country club and has applied for reinstatement as a member of the Middle Atlantic and National P.G.A.'s.

The range, which he has named the Penn Daw, will not only have 16 driving tees but will have a practice putting green, a miniature course and a practice sand trap as well.

Cunningham, before his retirement, was one of this section's leading professionals and was a consistent money winner in the Middle Atlantic tournaments.

The Maryland State Golf association has started beating the publicity drums for its seventh annual inter-collegiate championship scheduled for May 22 at the U. S. Naval academy. Frank Cronin's University of Maryland team will be favored in the State collegiate event.

Chevy Chase Women Will Test Kenwood

The Kenwood vs. Chevy Chase match in the open golfers first-team play next Tuesday at Army Navy will give the first line on the comparative strength of Kenwood and Army Navy, the co-favorites for the team title.

When Army Navy defeated Chevy Chase, 7-2, yesterday at Woodmont, it virtually knocked the latter out of the race and now Kenwood must defeat Chevy Chase by the same score, or higher, next week to retain the top spot.

Kenwood blanked Congressional, 9-0, and Washington defeated Manor, 6-3, in other first-team contests while Woodmont drew a bye. Low scores were by Mrs. S. B. Crocker of Kenwood, 82, and Mrs. Edward Ferriday of Army Navy, 83.

In second-team play Prince Georges defeated Kenwood and Washington won over Congressional, both by 6½-2½ margins, while Chevy Chase edged Belle Haven, 5-4. Manor, leader last week, drew a bye over its home course.

Army-Navy Takes 2d in District Play

Kenwood and Army-Navy took over the first and second spots in the Women's District Golf Association team matches by scoring decisive triumphs yesterday in the second week's play at Woodmont.

Kenwood crushed Congressional, 9-0, to keep its unscored-on record intact, while Army-Navy convincingly defeated Chevy Chase's highly regarded team, 7-2.

In the day's other match, Washington Golf and Country Club jumped into the victory column by downing Manor, 6-3, after having been shut out by Kenwood a week ago.

Kenwood's strong team, a heavy favorite to win the team title, was paced by Mrs. S. Crocker, whose 82 over the rainswept links was the lowest individual score reported.

Pacing the Army-Navy golfers was Mrs. Kay Ferriday, a newcomer to District play who has already established herself as one of the area's top shotmakers. Mrs. Ferriday carded an 83 yesterday.

With two weeks' matches having been played, the teams stand in this order: Kenwood, 18 points; Army-Navy, 16 points; Chevy Chase, 8 points; Washington, 6 points; Manor, 3 points; Congressional, 3 points, and Woodmont, no points.

Next week's match will be played at Army-Navy.
