Two Teams Tie For Top Honors In M.-A. Event

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Prince Georges Country club's team of Mrs. Charles Frownfelter and Al Houghton, the poor man's Jimmy Demaret, toured Indian Spring Country club's course in 65, five under par, yesterday to end up deadlocked with Mary Ann Downey and Walter Romans of Baltimore Country club, in a Middle Atlantic P.G.A. sponsored lady-pro tournament. And oddly enough the silver-haired local professional and Romans divided top money in the pro sweepstakes with 68s.

Houghton Dazes 'em

Attired in a dark-blue shirt with pearl buttons, light-green trousers and tan-and-white shoes, Houghton, who donned a red sports coat for the presentation ceremonies got out in a par exacting 35 on the front nine and started back with an eagle at 10 and a birdie at 11. The veteran, who completely dominated the pro ranks here a decade ago, three-putted the 14th hole from six-feet and his lone miscue of the round cost him top honors in both divisions of the tournament.

Mrs. Frownfelter, using a 12-stroke handicap, had a round of 87 and helped her partner on three holes. The former Prince Georges champion had a great chance to aid the cause on the 14th but she three-putted for a bogey on the short tricky hole.

Miss Downey Shoots a 76

Miss Downey, a little girl with a big swing, did an individual 76 and she too helped her partner on three holes. The Houghton-Frownfelter duo did 34-31 for their round while the Baltimore combination were out in 32 and back in 33.

Houghton came in for two more pieces of the prize money when his 66's with Mrs. Ina Kintz and Mrs. O. L. Young gave him third and fourth money in the best-ball division. Romans earned another place when he and Mrs. J. C. Frey's 67 gave the Baltimore Country club team a tie with Bobby Bowers and Mrs. John Long, Indian Spring, and Hugh McLellan and Mrs. H. W. Rowan of Aberdeen, Md.

Just finishing out of the money with 68's were: Bowers and Mrs. George Thornton; Al Jamison and Mrs. C. A. Roberts, Quantico, Va.; Charlie Bassler and Mrs. John Mears, Rolling Road, and Ralph Beach with Mrs. Lester Levy and Mrs. A. Wurtzburger of Suburban. To complete the list of 15 teams to break par were: Bowers and Mrs. C. B. Hartman, Indian Spring, Jamison and Mrs. H. J. Mitchener, Quantico; Andy Gibson and Mrs. C. E. Richards, C.C. of Md., and Allen Burton and Mrs. S. F. Little of Army and Navy.

Third money in the pro sweeps went to Beach with a 70. His assistant Severn White and Bobby Bowers had 71's to be tied for fourth.

Belle Haven Delays Opening New Nine

The Belle Haven Country Club has rescheduled the opening of its new nine holes for next Saturday, May 15, due to high waters along the Potomac River that left part of the course under water.

The entire program scheduled for today will be carried over, including the luncheon for past presidents, Board of Directors and the Organizing Committee of August 25, 1924, by Andrew W. Clarke, club president.

The postponed Post Cup Class A tournament of the Women's District Golf Association probably will be played Friday, May 28, at Army Navy, according to WDGA President Mrs. W. F. Patterson.

The event was scheduled for the Service Club yesterday but was rained out. The heavy tournament schedule of the next two weeks will prevent it from being played sooner than May 28.

Pro-Lady & Sweepstakes

Houghton Wins Four Prizes In Mid-Atlantic Tournament

Al Houghton, veteran Prince Georges Country Club professional, had one of the best days of his long career yesterday as he walked off with four of the prizes in the Middle Atlantic Golf Association Pro-Lady Tournament and Pro Sweepstakes at Indian Spring.

Besides sharing first prize in the sweepstakes with Walter Romans, Baltimore Country Club pro, Houghton and his three woman partners tied for first in the Pro-Lady best ball event and split third and fourth in the same event.

Houghton and Romans each shot 65s in their sweepstakes deadlock and the two pros tied again for first in the Pro-Lady. Houghton teamed with Mrs. C. T. Frownfelter, of Prince Georges, for a best ball 65 and Romans and his partner, Mary Anne Downey, had the same score.

In third position came Houghton and Mrs. O. L. Young and Houghton and Mrs. Ina Kintz, with 66 totals.

Bobby Bowers and Mrs. Grace Long, Indian Spring; Romans and Mrs. J. G. Frey, Baltimore Country Club and Hugh McLellan and Mrs. H. W. Rowan, Edgewood Arsenal, split the fifth, sixth and seventh prizes with best ball 67s.

Ralph Beach, of Suburban, took third in the sweepstakes with 69, Bowers and Severn White, Suburban, were next with 71s and Charlie Bassler, Rolling Road, had a 73 for sixth prize.

Pro-Lady summaries: Al Houghton-Mrs. C. T. Frownfelter, Prince Georges, 65. Walter Romans-Mary Anne Downey, Baltimore C. C., 65. Al Houghton-Mrs. O. L. Young, Prince Georges, 66. Kenwood Defeats Manor

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

Despite the brilliant effort of Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor, Kenwood's strong team held its lead in the Women's District Golf Association first team matches yesterday at Congressional.

Mrs. Stokes shot a 79 to enable her and her partner, Mrs. R. B. Watson, to take three points from Kenwood's Mrs. Betty Meckley and Mrs. Rex Howard, although Mrs. Howard shot a fine 83.

But that three points was all Manor was able to get because Kenwood's other two teams, Mrs. S. Crocker-Mrs. P. Trouchaud and Mrs. Ellen Harris-Mrs. Ed. Widmayer shut out their Manor opponents.

The victory enabled Kenwood to stay in front of Army-Navy, who trounced Washington Golf and Country Club, 8-1.

In the day's other match, Chevy Chase took over third place in the team standings by virtue of a one-sided 9-0 triumph over Woodmont.

The clubs now stand: Kenwood, 30½; Army-Navy, 24; Chevy Chase, 19½; Manor, 12; Washington, 10, and Woodmont and Congressional, 6 points each.

Manor Wins, Takes Second Team Lead

Manor Country Club took over the lead in the Women's District Golf Association second team matches yesterday at Prince Georges by scoring a crushing 9-0 victory over Congressional.

The triumph gave Manor 22½ points and a 3-point lead over idle Prince Georges after four weeks of play.

In other matches, Kenwood downed Belle Haven, 6½-2½, and Washington Golf and Country Club edged Chevy Chase, 5-4.

Kenwood is now in third place with 15½, followed by Chevy Chase, 15; Washington, 15; Belle Haven, 12½, and Congressional, 8½.

Mrs. Mitchell 2d in Golf Field of 62

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

Mrs. J. Y. Lichtenwalner, of Army-Navy, finished first in a field of 62 golfers to win The Washington Post Class B golf championship yesterday at Army-Navy.

Playing over the hilly, rain-drenched course, Mrs. Lichtenwalner's 103-22-87 was two strokes better than the 102-19-83 turned in by Mrs. R. C. Mitchell, of Kenwood.

Mrs. Mitchell also finished in a tie for low gross with Mrs. C. P. Redick of Kenwood. Since Mrs. Mitchell won the prize for second low net, Mrs. Redick was awarded the low gross trophy.

Mrs. Werber Third

Third low net went to Columbia's Mrs. William Werber, with 107-23-84, and four women turned in net scores of 85.

After matching cards, Mrs. H. M. Nelson of Washington Golf and Country Club, 109-24-85, took fourth prize; Mrs. R. L. Hutchison, Washington, 107-22-85, was fifth; Mrs. D. R. Monsees, Washington, 108-23-85, was sixth and Mrs. C. A. Jostes, Kenwood, 105-20-85, was named seventh-place winner.

First Area Triumph

Mrs. Walter Dinsmore of Belle Haven, 106-20-86, won the eighth and final prize with 106-20-86 after matching cards with Mrs. G. R. Levy, Prince Georges, 104-18-86, and Mrs. J. H. Kerr, Kenwood, 106-20-86. Mrs. Levy, incidentally, won last year's tournament.

The triumph was Mrs. Lichtenwalner's first in Women's District Golf Association play since her arrival here from California last August. She had an outgoing nine-hole score of 51 and came in in 52. Her 22 handicap gave her the edge over Mrs. Mitchell, whose rounds of 50 and 52 fell short when her 19-stroke handicap was deducted.

Mrs. Martin Masters Fast Greens to Lead In Keefer Cup Golf

Mrs. George Martin, an attractive addition to women's golf from the day she picked up her first club in the summer of 1946, was one of the last off the tee in her class A tournament debut in the Keefer Cup yesterday at Chevy Chase. The Manor Club member arrived after many had played nine holes, and the howls she heard would have scared most 16-handicap players.

"The greens, the greens," the girls were saying. "They're so fast everybody is three and four putting." It seems Dick Watson and his greens crew had been stymied by the weather and had been forced to cut the greens twice within 18 hours to prepare for the tournament. That, coupled with the fact the cool weather retarded normal growth, left them perfectly true but as fast as a billiard table.

The grass has been comparatively long on the greens at most clubs and thus the slick surfaces caught the woman golfers by surprise. But Mrs. Martin, who has packed a lot of golf knowledge in her 20 months of play, took advantage of her advance information.

The blond Manorite, taking a cue from players with nine holes experience, started coying the ball for the cup. She'd barely stroke the pill and merely attempt to drift it toward the hole. Mrs. Martin was 49 out, not her best game, but she came back in 42, a magnificent score at Chevy Chase for a 16-handicap player, for 91, and minus her handicap led the first round by three strokes with a net 75.

Steadied by Mrs. Stokes.

The best part of Mrs. Martin's round was even par golf of 3-4-4 from 12 through 14. The Keefer Cup leader was steadied by her playing partner, District Champion Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, and the latter pointed out that it was Mrs. Martin's first glimpse at the Chevy Chase course.

Last year Mrs. Martin won gross honors in the class B section of The Star Cup tournament. Since that time she has moved into class A, and in her first step in fast competition takes a three-shot lead into the final round of the major medal play event of the season.

In second place with 81-3-78 was the tournament-wise Mrs. Hugh Nicolson, a former District champion, who played her home course in 44-37-81. Mrs. Nicolson played the shot of the day on the 15th hole. She hit her second into a trap, left it there in three, then proceeded to knock the ball into the cup from the trap for a par four.

The only other players with a reasonable chance of overtaking Mrs. Martin in the second and final round of the event were Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges, with 84-5-79, and Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring, 84-3-81, the latter despite four putts on the 11th green.

Three in Gross Battle.

The scrap for gross honors appeared to be a three-way battle among the three former District champions, Mrs. Nicolson, Mrs. Walper and Mrs. Bower, with the present titlist, Mrs. Stokes, only an outside possibility after an opening 86.

The scoring was the highest in the history of the tournament, named for Mrs. Frank Royer Keefer, first president to serve more than one term in the Women's District Golf Association.

Scores of the leaders:

Mrs. George Martin (Man.)	91-16-75

A Big Day in Golf

Indian Spring, Chevy Chase Hold Three Events Today

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

Virtually every leading man and woman golfer in the District will see action as the Indian Spring Invitation Tournament and the Women's District Golf Association Class A Keefer Cup Tournament start today.

In addition, the final round of the fifteenth annual Scholastic Golf Championship between Coolidge's Dick Foster and Billy D. Wolfe of Montgomery Hills Junior High is on the schedule.

Indian Spring's Invitation will have 126 entries including many of the area's top men players.

Such stars as Spencer Overton, Ralph Bogart, Volney Burnett, Jerry Hart, Earl McAleer, Jim Gardner, Earl Skinner and Eddie Ault, Parker Nolan, Billy Griffin, Roy Smith, Bill Wenzel and a host of others will compete in today's 18-hole medal play qualifying round.

The low 96 scorers will be paired in six flights of match play, with two rounds slated Thursday and the semifinals and finals of each flight on tap Friday.

At Chevy Chase, 97 women begin the two-day, 36-hole medal play Keefer Cup competition.

Titleholder Absent

Just about every Women's Class A player is included in the field, with representatives from all of the area clubs entered.

Miss Anne Stonemetz, last year's winner, has moved out of the District and her title will pass over to another woman star.

Also at Chevy Chase, Foster and Wolfe will meet for The Washington Post Trophy, symbolic of District schoolboy supremacy, at 3 p. m.

Downed Wolfe's Brother

Foster, who captured the youth prize in the National Celebrities Tournament Sunday, defeated Wolfe's brother, Eugene, in the semi-final round of the Scholastic Tournament.

So young Billy, a 14-year-old golfing prodigy, will be out to avenge the family honor against Foster. A cool competitor whose 75 in the qualifying round of the tournament stamped him as a favorite, Wolfe is one of the best young golfers ever turned out here.

Shiny Keefer Golf Trophy Joins Old Ones in Nicolson Collection

Mrs. Hugh Nicolson found it a struggle, but a pleasant one, to carry the beautiful Keefer Cup and a shining silver bowl in her arms at the same time. Mrs. Nicolson was a little out of practice in toting hardware away from golf tournaments, although she has quite a collection at home.

Rounds of 81 and 82 over her home Chevy Chase course, minus six handicap strokes, netted Mrs. Nicolson the major medal play tournament of the Women's District Golf Association scheduled with a net 157.

The odd part of the winner's rounds was that her first nine scores were a mediocre 44 Wednesday and 45 yesterday, but each time Mrs. Nicolson played the back nine in 37 strokes.

"I never practice much and always was a slow starter," the Keefer Cup champion said, adding "my second nines usually are much better than my first."

Held D. C. Title Five Times.

From 1926 through 1929 Dorothy White Nicolson won four consecutive District championships, representing Washington Golf and Country Club. She was a finalist in 1930 and came back to win in 1932. The following year golf became secondary in her life. A family, a new position, a boat and other interests took her away from the game. She didn't even follow the winner of the title she held five times.

Mrs. Nicolson was only a very occasional golfer until 1943 when she and her husband joined Chevy Chase. Then she started playing again and in 1945 won the club championship.

A golfer since she was a young girl, Mrs. Nicolson believes that her game of the last two days was as good as she played in her title-winning years. She still hits a ball with a long roll, a ball that looks as though it will stop quickly—but doesn't.

Mrs. Nicolson intends to play considerable tournament golf this season. She figures that if you're going to play a lot of golf it's much more fun to do it in tournaments as it helps concentration.

Mrs. Nicolson Cleans Up.

The 36-hole tournament was a clean sweep for Mrs. Nicolson as her 163 total also was the lowest gross score. But as contestants are limited to one prize, gross honors went to Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring with an 80 yesterday, the best round of the tournament, and 84 for 164.

Mrs. George Martin, the sophomore golfer from Manor Club, who led at the half-way mark, was so excited she was four strokes off in adding her first nine score, an error that was corrected before she posted her card. Mrs. Martin finished second net with 91 and 100, minus 32 handicap strokes for a net 159.

Other prize winners were Ann Reh of Washington, 194-32-162; Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor, 169-4-165; Mrs. Landra Platt of Chevy Chase, 175-10-165; Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges, 175-10-165; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood, 183-16-167, and Mrs. G. W. Calvert of Washington, 195-28-167.

Mrs. Nicolson Wins Keefer Cup With 163

Mrs. Hugh Nicolson of Chevy Chase, five-time winner of the District women's title, added the 36-hole Keefer Cup Tournament to her collection yesterday at Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Nicolson added an 82 to the 81 she shot yesterday for a 163 gross total. Her handicap of

Mrs. Nicolson's Card:
Par out	455 345 464-40
Mrs. Nicolson	655 437 573-45
Par in	354 345 445-37-77
Mrs. Nicolson	354 344 554-37-82

three strokes per round gave her a 36-hole net of 157, one less than Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring.

Coming in with a gross 164 fashioned from rounds of 84 and 80, Mrs. Bower's identical handicap left her a stroke behind Mrs. Nicolson in the net standings. However, she was awarded the low gross prize for her fine score.

In second low net position was Mrs. George Martin, yesterday's leader, who added a round of 100 to her 91 on the opening day for a 191 gross total. With her 36-hole handicap of 32, she finished two strokes off the pace with a 159.

Miss Anne Reh, Washington Golf and County Club, was next with 194-32-162, followed by Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor, 169-4-165; Mrs. Landra Platt, Chevy Chase, 169-4-165, and Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges, 175-10-165. After matching cards, the latter three women finished in the order given.

Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, followed with 183-16-167, and the final low net award went to Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Washington, who finished with 195-28-167.

Kenwood Scores Over Woodmont Club, 9-0

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Kenwood Golf and Country club all but clinched the Women's District Golf association team championship yesterday at Chevy Chase club by applying a 9-0 whitewash job to Woodmont Country club, the loop laggards, and getting an unexpected boost from Manor's 5-4 upset victory over Army and Navy.

Everybody, including the most loyal Manor club members, expected Army and Navy to come up with at least a 6-3 victory, but Mrs. H. L. Lacey and Mrs. H. E. Davies furnished the surprise by taking two of a possible three nassau points from Mrs. M. J. Torlinski and Mrs. Sam Sturgis.

Weakened by Replacements

Weakened by two replacements, Army and Navy pitted Mrs. O. L. Altman, taking Mrs. Kay Ferriday's place on the team, and Mrs. E. P. Moore against Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and Mrs. R. D. Watson. The Stokes-Watson combination, a consistent winner, chalked up the first three points.

Mrs. S. F. Little and Mrs. W. F. Parson of Army and Navy evened the count at 3-all by defeating Mrs. J. R. Daily and Mrs. Gale Pugh. It was in the third bracket that Army and Navy was dealt its devastating blow, which places them in the precarious position of having to score a 9-0 victory in their final match and winning by at least a 6-3 margin in their match against Kenwood next Tuesday at Washington.

Mrs. Meckley Fires 80

Kenwood, paced by Mrs. Betty Meckley's great round of 80, had little trouble posting its landslide victory over Woodmont. Mrs. Meckley was 42-38 in her individual performance, while her partner, Mrs. Rex Howard, did 48-40 to land the first three points. Mrs. Howard's score tied for the second low individual round of the day with Mrs. Stokes, who had a brilliant 40 on the more difficult outward nine, but slumped to a 48 on the journey home.

Kenwood's victory gave it a total of 39½ points, but the River Road club plays only one more match, drawing a bye on the final day of the series at its home course June 14. Army and Navy's four points gave it a 28 point total, but the service club players have two more matches to play.

In the other match, Congressional defeated Washington, 6½ to 2½, to land in a deadlock for fifth place with its opponents. Chevy Chase, which drew a bye yesterday, is third with 19½, Manor fourth with 17 and Woodmont last with six.

Title Near, Kenwood Women Next Meet Army Navy at Golf

Kenwood Country Club's woman golf team is expected to go through the formality of clinching the Women's District Golf Association's first-team title next week, as even the most optimistic members of the Army Navy team have about conceded the title.

Kenwood was the low-handicapped team and the favorite, but the service club sextet made a match of it for the first four weeks. Army Navy lost its first and sixth players for the season prior to yesterday's matches, however, and without Mrs. Kay Ferriday and Mrs. O. L. Young the service club took a 5-4 beating from Manor.

Kenwood drubbed last-place Woodmont, 9-0, yesterday in the matches at Chevy Chase and pulled 11½ points ahead of Army Navy with two matches to play for the latter and one for Kenwood. Army Navy is faced with the task of beating Kenwood, 6-3, in next Tuesday's match at Washington and then defeating Congressional, 9-0, while Kenwood draws a bye. That would make up 12 points, and the second-place team is 11½ back.

Manor handed Army Navy its first defeat with Mrs. W. R. Stokes and Mrs. Roderick Watson scoring three points over Mrs. E. P. Moore and Mrs. O. L. Altman and Mrs. H. L. Lacey and Mrs. H. E. Davies winning two from Mrs. M. J. Torlinski and Mrs. Sam Sturgis.

The best score of the day was an 80 by Mrs. Betty Meckley, while

Woodmont Loses, 9-0, To Kenwood

Kenwood strengthened its lead in the Women's District Golf Association first team cup competition with a 9-0 sweep over Woodmont yesterday at Chevy Chase Golf and Country Club.

Fourth-place Manor sprang the day's surprise, scoring four points against second-place Army-Navy, and losing by only one point. In order to stay in the running for the W. D. G. A. cup, Army-Navy must win at least five points in its match against Kenwood next week.

In the other match yesterday, Congressional scored 6½ to 2½ for Washington to place the two clubs in a tie for fifth place. Chevy Chase drew a bye.

In WDGA Play

Woodmont Loses, 9-0, To Kenwood

Kenwood strengthened its lead in the Women's District Golf Association first team cup competition with a 9-0 sweep over Woodmont yesterday at Chevy Chase Golf and Country Club.

Fourth-place Manor sprang the day's surprise, scoring four points against second-place Army-Navy, and losing by only one point. In order to stay in the running for the W. D. G. A. cup, Army-Navy must win at least five points in its match against Kenwood next week.

In the other match yesterday, Congressional scored 6½ to 2½ for Washington to place the two clubs in a tie for fifth place. Chevy Chase drew a bye.

Standing and point totals with two weeks left in the Cup series find Kenwood with 39½; Army-Navy, 28; Chevy Chase, 19½; Manor, 17; Congressional and Washington, 12½; and Woodmont, 6.

Keen Duel for Post Cup Looms As Linkswomen Play Off Tie

Ordinarily when a three-handicap player meets a 13-handicap golfer in a head-to-head match, the odds favor the top player despite the handicap difference, but in the case of the playoff for the Post Cup next week, the three-handicap player is plenty disturbed.

Mrs. A. B. Bower, one of the South's best woman golfers as "B" Little, when she was Kentucky State champion and a Maryland and District champion in the past few years, posted a 78-3-75 at Army Navy Club yesterday, but it only gained a tie.

Mrs. Bower's opponent in the playoff set for next Thursday morning will be Mrs. George E. Martin of Manor Club, who scored 88-13-75.

What's disturbing Mrs. Bower is that Mrs. Martin apparently is unstoppable in her drive to improve her golf game and might be a 10-handicap player next week, but still will get the same handicap allotment she received yesterday.

Mrs. Martin Bettering Game.

Last week Mrs. Martin took the first round lead in the Keefer Cup with a 91-16-75. Although she shot 100 the next day, she came back with an 89 at Belle Haven in the second team matches on Tuesday and her handicap dropped from 16 to 13 in the Post Cup. Otherwise she would have won the cup by three strokes.

Mrs. Martin has been playing golf less than two years—seriously for only one year. She has a relaxed and natural swing and took to the game quickly. She admitted she lost the Keefer Cup because she was excited, but each tournament gives her more of a competitive edge and 10 strokes may be a tremendous handicap for Mrs. Bower to overcome.

Mrs. Bower could have won if she had not been too bold. The Indian

Spring shotmaker was out in 38, but was going for men's pars on the back nine and finally her boldness cost her a 6 on the comparatively easy par 4 15th.

Low Gross to Mrs. Stokes.

With Mrs. Bower in a playoff for low net, the low gross went to District Champion Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor, with an 81. The scoring was extremely low and the net 79s were out of the money, which is unusual.

Other prize winners were: Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood, 85-8-77; Mrs. S. F. Little of Army Navy, 85-8-77; Mrs. G. H. Bailey, jr., of Washington, 86-9-77; Mrs. M. J. Torlinski of Army Navy, 87-10-77; Margaret Cox of Prince Georges, 92-15-77; Mrs. Charles Frownfelter of Prince Georges, 89-11-78; Mrs. Haig Russell of Prince Georges, 90-12-78, and Mrs. M. H. Dinneen of Washington, 89-11-78.

The Woman's Golf Committee event at Congressional found Mrs. F. R. Dole the Class A flag tourney winner with a last shot 3 feet from the cup on the 17th green.

Mrs. G. M. Street won Class B by playing her last shot in the 18th fairway and Mrs. B. L. Eberts won class C by finishing on the 17th green. Mrs. D. L. Moorman won putting honors with 19.

Middle Atlantic Amateur Golf Entry Will Be Closed Tuesday

The Middle Atlantic Amateur golf championship, oldest of tournaments in this section, is less than a week away and Secretary Dr. Robert A. Keilty reminds all participants to file their entries before Tuesday at 6 o'clock with Edgar Lucas at the Baltimore Country Club.

Qualifying rounds in the 45th annual tournament are scheduled for next Thursday over the Five Farms, course of Baltimore Country Club. At the same time, four-man teams from member clubs will count their scores toward the team trophy.

Match play rounds will follow Friday and Saturday, two rounds each day through the final Saturday afternoon. The tournament is open to members of member clubs and to especially invited guests.

Women golfers were competing for the Post Cup in the Class A section of the 18-hole medal play event today at Army Navy. The event was postponed from May 7.

Blair and Bethesda, both unbeaten in the Metropolitan section of the Schoolboy Golf League, met for the title among the suburban and prep schools today at Congressional. The feature match found Stanley Mouser of Bethesda against Eugene Wolf of Blair.

Mrs. R. D. Watson continued to show improvement in her golf scores by posting an 86-14-72 to win the Indian Spring Women's Golf Committee event yesterday. Second net went to Mrs. H. L. Winston with 109-35-74 and guest prize to Mrs. E. N. Smith of Kenwood with 96-29-67.

Playoff Thursday

Mrs. Martin, Bower Tie For Post Cup

The Washington Post Trophy, for which the area's Class A women golfers have scrapped since 1933, was assured a brand-new home for a year yesterday as Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring and Mrs. George Martin of Manor wound up in a tie for top spot in the 18-hole tournament at Army Navy Country Club.

Mrs. Bower, a seasoned competitor, fired a brilliant 78 and used a 3-stroke handicap for a net 75. Mrs. Martin, whose handicap has dropped to 13 since she took up golf only two years ago, accomplished her 75 with a fine round of 88.

The pair will play off for The Post Trophy next Thursday over the 18-hole tournament at Army-Navy.

Passes Low Gross Prize

Because she has never included The Post Trophy in her numerous triumphs, Mrs. Bowers passed up a chance for yesterday's low gross prize and elected to take her chances in a playoff. Her 78 was three strokes better than the next low scorer, Mrs. Walter Stokes, the Manor star who thus took the gross award.

A banner field of 74 competed in this year's renewal of the featured event. Defending champion was Mrs. J. J. Darby, who was out of the prize list when her clubs failed to produce.

Two Strokes Ahead

Some of the District's finest linkswomen were also out of the running as Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. Martin finished two strokes ahead of nearest competition.

There was a five-way tie for third place, eventually won by Mrs. T. Rouchard of Kenwood, with 85-8-77, on a match of the cards against par. Deadlocked were Mrs. F. F. Little, Army-Navy, 85-8-77; Mrs. George Bailey, Washington, 86-9-77; Mrs. M. J. Torlinsky, Army-Navy, 87-10-77; and Miss Margaret Cox, Prince Georges, 92-15-77.

A stroke back at 78 were two contenders from Prince Georges, Mrs. Charles Frownfelter and Mrs. Hardy Russell, and Washington's Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen.

All net scores of 78 or better shared in the prize list.

82 Women In NBC Golf Tourney Today

A field of 82 entries will tee off at 8:30 a. m. today in the National Broadcasting Cup Class A women's golf tournament today at the Washington Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. O. L. Young, winner of last year's NBC tournament is en route to Japan and her crown will be sought by just about every Class A player in the District. All players are requested to bring their own caddies.

Today's pairings and starting times:

Women Tie Again in Post Cup Playoff

The Washington Post Cup, for which Class A women golfers of this area have battled since 1933, failed to find a home again yesterday.

Mrs. A. B. Bower and Mrs. George E. Martin, who deadlocked for the huge trophy in last week's renewal of the annual tournament, wound up in another deadlock yesterday in an 18-hole playoff at Army-Navy Country Club.

According to Women's District Golf Association rules, a playoff cannot be settled by the "sudden death" method, so two rivals will meet in another 18-hole playoff Monday at the same site.

Yesterday's tying scores, 76's, were a single stroke above those of last week. Mrs. Bower, a seasoned golfer, used a 3-stroke handicap with a 79 to wind up with 76. Mrs. Martin, a newcomer to the game from Manor, fired an 89 with a 13-handicap.

Mrs. Martin got off to a fast start yesterday and led by a stroke on the gross score at the seventh. A pair of sixes on the eighth and ninth, while Mrs. Bower was marking up fours, put the new contender three strokes back at the turn with a 43 to Mrs. Bower's 40.

On the in nine, Mrs. Bower scored a sizzling 39 to Mrs. Martin's 46, setting up the most unusual finish in the history of competition for The Washington Post Cup—a second playoff next Monday.

The cards:
Mrs. Bower... 555 533 644-40
454 545 543-39-79-3-76
Mrs. Martin 644 553 466-43

Kenwood Clinches Golf Title; Defeats Army-Navy, 6-3

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

Kenwood's powerful team clinched first place in the Women's District Golf Association first-team matches by defeating its closest competitor, Army-Navy, yesterday at Washington Golf and Country Club.

By winning, 6-3, Kenwood's point total for the six weeks of play soared to 45½, with Army-Navy solidly entrenched in second place with 31 points.

Mrs. Fay Ferriday, one of Army-Navy's strongest players, was taken ill two weeks ago; Mrs. O. L. Young, another bulwark of the team, has departed for Japan, and Mrs. M. J. Torlinski, still another fine player, missed yesterday's match through illness.

In other matches, Manor defeated Chevy Chase, 5½-3½, and Congressional routed last place Woodmont, 7-2.

Low medal score of the day was Mrs. Walter Stokes' 81, a fine performance over the slow Washington links.

Three two-somes completed their sixth straight week of competition with the distinction of having never lost a point to their opponents. Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Roderick Watson of Manor, Mrs. Ed Widmayer and Mrs. Trouchaud of Kenwood and Mrs. S. F. Little and Mrs. W. F. Parsons of Army-Navy, boast perfect records.

The teams now stand: Kenwood, 45½; Army-Navy, 31; Chevy Chase, 23; Manor, 22½; Congressional, 19½; Washington, 12½; Woodmont, 8.

Manor Nears WDGA Second Team Title

Manor Club's golf team virtually clinched first place in the Women's District Golf Association second team matches by crushing Washington Golf and Country Club, 7-2, yesterday at Kenwood.

The triumph gave Manor a commanding seven-point lead in the cumulative team standings with only one match left to play.

Second place Prince Georges, which last week was all but eliminated from contention by Manor's team, also scored an easy 7-2 victory over Chevy Chase. By winning, Prince Georges held a five-point margin over third place Washington.

In the day's other match, Belle Haven edged Congressional, 5-4, to move into a last place tie with its victim and Kenwood, which drew a bye yesterday. The final day's matches will take place next Tuesday at Chevy Chase.

The teams now stand: Manor, 36; Prince Georges, 29; Washington, 24; Chevy Chase, 20½; Kenwood, 17½; Congressional, 17½; Belle Haven, 17½.

Last-Place Woodmont Ties Manor

Army-Navy defeated Congressional, 5½ to 3½, yesterday at Kenwood Golf and Country Club to grab second place honors in the Women's District Golf Association first team tournament.

Kenwood, which drew a bye clinched the trophy last week with a seven-week total of 45½ points. Army-Navy wound up with 36½. Indian Springs, which did not field a first team this year, won the trophy in 1947.

In other matches yesterday, third-place Chevy Chase defeated Washington, 6½ to 2½, and last-place Woodmont surprised by holding Manor to a 4½ to 4½ tie. Trailing Kenwood and Army-Navy in the final standings were: Chevy Chase, 29½; Manor, 27; Congressional, 23; Washington, 15; and Woodmont, 12½.

Yesterday's two outstanding games were turned in by Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor and Mrs. Hugh Nicholson of Chevy Chase. Mrs. Stokes was five over par with 39-41-80. Mrs. Nicholson had 41-41-82.

Manor Women Win Second Team Title

Manor scored a 9-0 victory over Kenwood yesterday at Chevy Chase Golf and Country Club to win the Women's District Golf Association's second team trophy.

Needing only 3½ points to clinch the title over second place Prince Georges, the Manor team came through convincingly to run its final point total to 45.

Other matches saw Prince Georges defeat Congressional, 7-2, and Belle Haven defeat Washington, 5½-3½. Behind Manor in the final standings were: Prince Georges, 37; Washington, 27½; Belle Haven, 23; Chevy Chase and Congressional, 19½ each; and Kenwood, 17½. The tourney lasted seven weeks.

MANOR, 9; KENWOOD, 0.

Mrs. Bower Wins Post Cup Tourney

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring Country Club added the Class A Washington Post Trophy to her rapidly growing collection of area championships yesterday at Army-Navy Country Club.

In her second playoff with Mrs. George E. Martin of Manor Club, Mrs. Bower shot a four-over-par 80

Par, out	554	543	434	—37
Mrs. Bower	665	443	534	—40
Mrs. Martin	684	664	444	—46

Mrs. Bower	454	545	643	—40—10—80
Mrs. Martin	464	865	854	—50—46—96

over the hilly course to win her second straight Class A tournament.

Only last week Mrs. Bower captured the NBC Cup play and in the Keefer Cup competition a few weeks previous the Indian Spring star took the low gross award. She won the District title in 1946 and was 1945 Maryland State champion.

A model of consistency, Mrs. Bower's three gross rounds during The Washington Post tournament were 80, 79 and 80.

With her three-stroke handicap, Mrs. Bower yesterday had a 77, while Mrs. Martin, who has risen to the Class A ranks only this season, could do no better than a 96—13—93. In her two previous deadlocks with Mrs. Bower, the Manor golfer had scores of 90—13—77 and 89—13—76.

Bad luck haunted Mrs. Martin yesterday or she would have again been up with Mrs. Bower. On the second, thirteenth and sixteenth holes she carded eights. In each instance her ball found the deep ditch running across the fairways and the resultant penalties caused her score to mount.

Mrs. Bower, meanwhile, was racking up 10 pars and 2 birdies during her steady round. She had 5 bogies and never was more than a stroke above par on any hole.

Manor Takes Class B Title

Manor Country club's entry in the class B division of the Women's District Golf association team championship swamped Kenwood, 9-0, yesterday at Chevy Chase club to win the second division title almost as easy as Kenwood won the first division diadem.

Manor accumulated 45 points in the series, eight points in front of the second place Prince Georges team. Washington was third with 27½ points, Belle Haven fourth with 23, Chevy Chase and Congressional deadlocked in fifth place at 19½ points and Kenwood in the cellar with 17½.

The final matches in the first division were played at Kenwood but the idle host club team clinched the title last week and sat by to watch the others battle away for the remaining places in the final standings. Army and Navy finished second with 36½ points, nine points behind the champions, and Chevy Chase took third with 29½, Manor fourth with 27, Congressional fifth with 23, Washington sixth with 15 and Woodmont finished at the tail end of the loop with 12½ points.

Mrs. Fillius Joins 'Third-Year' Arrivals Among Golf Victors

The third year of a woman golfer's career is becoming a charm when it comes to winning tournaments, with Mrs. M. W. Fillius of Kenwood the latest to crash the circle with her winning 95-18-77 in the WMAL Class B Cup play yesterday at Prince Georges.

Mrs. Fillius, who had her handicap reduced from 20 only two days ago (a 16-stroke reduction from two years back according to Pro George Diffenbaugh) may have won her last Class B tournament as her scores soon will put her in Class A.

A three-way tie for the best gross score of 100 will find Mrs. J. Y. Lichtenwalter of Army Navy, winner of the Post Cup, in a playoff with Mrs. R. Hayman of Indian Spring. The third player, Mrs. R. D. Young of Washington, took third low net with 100-20-80. Second net was won by Mrs. Albert Cohen of Woodmont with 106-27-79. Mrs. Cohen played in her first Class B tournament.

Other prize winners: Mrs. Estelle Smith of Prince Georges, 106-26-80; Mrs. E. X. Murphy of Washington, 101-21-80; Mrs. George Freeman of Prince Georges, 105-24-81; Mrs. Gene Olmi of Belle Haven, 109-27-82 and Mrs. Walter Densmore of Belle Haven, 103-20-83.

Mrs. Norman Frost and Mrs. John Ives were Class A winners in the Columbia Country Club women's golf committee tournament yesterday, with respective odd and even hole net scores of 37 and 39. Mrs. W. B. Jarvis, with 34, and Mrs. Fred True, with 41, won Class B honors.

The Army Navy Club's hickey tournament was won by Mrs. J. F. Conklin, with 51 points, over Mrs. J. B. Cline and Mrs. M. J. Torlinski, with 50. Nine-hole blind bogey winners were Mrs. W. A. Robertson, with 40, and Mrs. C. H. White, 41.

Mrs. W. I. Horner, with 93-15-78, and Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, 89-11-78, tied for low net honors in the women's tournament at Washington. Mrs. George H. Bailey, jr., was third, with 88-9-79.

Two Important Tourneys Scheduled For Area Golfers During Week

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Two major tournaments—the women's District and the men's Maryland State amateur—are on tap for the week, one in Baltimore and the other at Woodmont Country club.

Mrs. W. Stokes

The women's city championship should prove the more interesting of the two inasmuch as the competition will be keener than ever before in the history of the championship.

Mrs. Hugh Nicholson of Chevy Chase, who as Dorothy White of Washington Golf and Country club, won five championships, will try for a sixth title.

Mrs. Nicholson, recent winner of the Keefe cup, won the District title in 1926, '27, '28, '29 and '32, but hasn't played in the tournament since her 1932 triumph. She has been a consistent tournament performer all this year and will be a threat for the crown won last year by Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor.

Mrs. Bower Seeks Title

The 1946 champion, Mrs. A. B. Bower, of Indian Spring, didn't play last year but the former Kentucky State champion is bent on regaining the title she won in her first session as a Washington resident. She probably will rank as co-favorite with Mrs. Stokes.

Then there will be Mrs. Betty P. Meckley and Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg of Kenwood, and Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges, all former champions and all capable of winning again. Mrs. E. P. Moore of Army and Navy, Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud and Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, and Mrs. L. G. Pray, of Columbia, all are threats.

The 18-hole qualifying trials in the women's event will be played tomorrow and a match-a-day will be waged until the final on Friday.

Brownell Entered

The qualifying trials in the Old Line State event are down for Thursday, with the final on Sunday.

Bobby Brownell, the defending champion who has made but one tournament appearance this year, is entered, as is Ralph Bogart, the other half of Chevy Chase club's Gold Dust Twin act. The twins will be favored to win, with Baltimore's opposition being furnished by the veterans Roland MacKenzie and Spencer Overton.

MacKenzie, once one of the nation's big-name amateurs who turned pro and then bounced back into the amateur ranks, won the Middle Atlantic Amateur two weeks ago at Baltimore in his first major tournament comeback. But the former Walker-cupper who is a member of two Baltimore and two Washington clubs didn't have the opposition in the Middle Atlantic that he will face in the State test.

Entries for the State event close at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Woodholme Country club, the site of the tournament. A record field is expected for the thirty-eighth playing of the event and at least half of the field will be from clubs in the Washington area.

D. C. Golf Crown Duel Between Mrs. Bower, Mrs. Stokes Looms

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Bower, co-favorites in the District women's golf championship, begin a week in which they are expected to see a lot of each other by qualifying together tomorrow at Woodmont Country Club.

Five consecutive tournament rounds of 80 or better have established Mrs. Bower, 1946 champion, as the top player of the season to date. Defending champion Mrs. Stokes has strong support, however, and is known to play her best golf in the match play events.

Although two other former champions are in the field of 64, Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, the 1930-31 and '36 titlist, and Mrs. Marie Walper, winner in 1939, the final is almost an even money proposition to be between Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Bower, provided they are in the opposite half of the draw.

Mrs. Stokes won in 1941, '42 and last year and was runnerup to Mrs. Bower in 1946. Mrs. Bower was not in competition last season.

Tomorrow's qualifying round will be followed by one match a day through the final on Friday in the championship flight and three other sixteens. Players are to bring caddies.

Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg and Mrs. S. F. Little, semifinalists last year, Mrs. Walper, the runnerup, and Mrs. Meckley, the 1947 medalist, all figure prominently in the annual championship.

D. C. Title Golf Medal Captured By Mrs. Stokes

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor Country club, made an auspicious beginning in defense of her District championship yesterday at Woodmont Country club where from the men's tees the 1947 titlist captured low medal honors in the 18-hole qualifying trials with a 79.

Taking 40 strokes on the out-nine, Mrs. Stokes made the trek home in 39 to win the medal with a shot to spare. The Manor club champion faces Mrs. E. K. Harris of Kenwood, in today's opening match play round.

Elizabeth "Betty" Garber, a teacher at Wilson high school, was the surprise package of the tests. Miss Garber posted an 81 and deadlocked for the second qualifying spot with Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, but could easily have been the medalist if she hadn't tossed away her chances on the back nine.

Miss Garber did the front nine in a two-over men's par 37 but then faltered badly to take a 44 on the easier back nine. The tall, smooth-swinging munny links star, one of the first public parks players to ever play in the city championship, takes on Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, today.

Mrs. Pray, who was out in 39 and back in 42, meets Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen of Washington, in her first match play trial.

Next in line for scoring honors came Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, a former champion, and Mrs. Rex Howard, both of Kenwood. Mrs. Meckley, whose opponent this morning will be Mrs. C. L. Egenroad of Washington, was 44-40-84; and Mrs. Howard, who was 41-43-84, meets Mrs. George Martin of Manor.

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring, the 1946 champion, posted an 86 and her opening opponent will be Mrs. Ora Emge of Prince Georges. Another former titlist, Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood just barely eked into the match play rounds with a 91 and by a bad break in the draw meets Mrs. P. J. Trouchaud, a clubmate in the first rounds. Mrs. Trouchaud had an 87.

Mrs. Stokes' 79 Wins Medal in Women's Golf

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

Firing a two over par 79, Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor began the defense of her District Golf championship by winning the medal in yesterday's qualifying round at Woodmont Country Club.

Only a double bogey six on the seventh hole kept the Manor star from equalling women's par figures.

She parred all but five holes, and on those five she had the aforementioned double bogey, two bogeys and a pair of birdies.

Two Tie at 81

But Mrs. Stokes, despite having the only score below 80, was closely pressed by two rivals.

Miss Elizabeth Garber, playing unattached, shot a fine 37-44-81 and Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia Country Club matched that score with 39-42-81.

The 37 strokes with which Miss Garber negotiated the first half of her round was the lowest single nine-hole score of the day. But for her 44 on the incoming nine she might have caught Mrs. Stokes.

Other Scores

Others to score well in the qualifying round were Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, with 44, 40-84; Mrs. Rex Howard Kenwood, 41, 43-84; Mrs. A. B. Bower, Indian Spring, 41, 45-86; Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges, 42, 45-87 and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 44, 43-87.

Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, and Mrs. E. K. Harris, Kenwood had 88s; Mrs. M. H. Dinneen, Washington scored 89; Mrs. George Martin, Manor; Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince Georges and Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington had 90s and Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg and Mrs. S. Crocker, both of Kenwood, shot 91s to complete the championship flight.

Match play in all four flights will begin today and will continue each day through Friday when the finals will be played.

School Teacher Quits to Play For D. C. Golf Title, Shoots 81

By Merrell Whittlesey

Betty Garber, a sports-minded school teacher (until yesterday) is a solid contender as the District Women's Golf Championship enters the match play rounds today at Woodmont, but only after she quit her job to play in the tournament and forced the Women's Golf Association into executive session to consider her entry.

More than a month ago Miss Garber, who bears a resemblance to Babe Didrikson Zaharias, applied for a week's leave from Wilson High School to play in the tournament. She has been teaching physical education there for 10 years.

But when it came tournament time and Miss Garber had a substitute ready, her grades in and she had offered to report after the tournament each day to go over next year's curriculum, her application for leave was denied.

Instead of withdrawing from the tournament, Miss Garber decided to resign, a move that almost created an uproar at Wilson as a number of students threatened to skip classes and watch her play—until she talked them out of it.

May Seek Reinstatement.

She said today she may apply for reinstatement, "after next year," although she has not heard yet whether her resignation has been accepted.

As Miss Garber is not a member of one of the WDGA's member clubs, her entry was not accepted until last Thursday when the Executive Committee approved her name provided she paid a $10 assessment as an unattached player, plus a $3 tournament entry fee.

A former public links champion, but never a contender for the city title, Miss Garber was a trifle nervous as she started her qualifying round at Woodmont Country Club yesterday. Playing the back nine first, she posted a 44, but soon gained control of her shots and came back in 37, the best nine of the day, for an 81.

Paradoxically, if Miss Garber had been teaching golf at Wilson she probably would have been permitted to take leave to compete in the tournament, but as she gave up golf classes several years ago, the tournament did not fall within the line of duty.

Mrs. Stokes' Game Strong.

While Miss Garber's entrance into the tournament was the topic of conversation, Defending Champion Mrs. Walter Stokes played most of the golf.

Playing from the men's tees over the 18 holes, as did the entire field, Mrs. Stokes was out in 40 and back in 39 for a 79. The Manorite, a three-time champion, played consistently good golf all the way and did not make any long putts.

Miss Garber's 81 was tied by Mrs. L. G. Pray, who, heartened by a lesson from Fred McLeod on Saturday, decided to play in the tournament after snapping out of a streak that almost caused her to lose interest in the game.

All of the favorites except Mrs. S. F. Little of Army Navy, a semifinalist last year, made the match-play grade. Mrs. Little was out with a 97. Mrs. George Bailey, jr., of Washington missed the title flight for the first time.

Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, also a semifinalist last year, almost missed out when her year-long jinx, shanked short iron shots, caused her to send nine chip shots scooting off her eight and nine irons at right angles.

Gains Title Flight.

But she was hitting her long shots so well she managed to gain the title flight by struggling around in 91 after shanking two shots in a row on the 18th hole, which left her farther from the green in 4 than she was in 2. Woodmont Pro Gene Larkin offered some helpful suggestions after her round, however, and Mrs. Kreuzburg hopes to improve.

If today's matches run true to form, there may be unexpected fireworks tomorrow as Miss Garber and Mrs. A. B. Bower will meet if both win today. Mrs. Bower has been playing the best golf of the season, but slipped yesterday with an 86 in her qualifying round.

Championship flight pairings:

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, Manor (79), vs. Mrs. Elbert Harris, Kenwood (88); Mrs. Betty Meckwey, Kenwood (84), vs. Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington, G. C. C. (90); Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia (81), vs. Mrs. M. H. Dinneen, Washington (89); Mrs. J. P. Troushaud, Kenwood (87), vs. Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Kenwood (91); Betty Garber, unattached (81), vs. Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional (88); Mrs. A. B. Bower, Indian Spring (86), vs. Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince Georges (90); Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood (84), vs. Mrs. George Martin, Manor (90); Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges (87), vs. Mrs. S. B. Mrs. Walter Stokes Upset In D. C. Women's Title Golf

By Roger Wolbarst
Post Reporter

In the local season's biggest upset, Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor was eliminated by Mrs. E. K. Harris of Kenwood in the first round of match play for the Women's District Championship yesterday at Woodmont.

Mrs. Harris, an experienced performer who has not played much golf this season, won by 2 and 1 over the Manor ace who was defending titlist and whose 79 won the medal yesterday.

Gaining a 1-up advantage at the turn, Mrs. Harris shot an 82 to Mrs. Stokes' 84.

Other outstanding performances were recorded by Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia; Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Kenwood; Mrs. A. B. Bower, Indian Spring; Mrs. George Martin, Manor; Miss Elizabeth Garber, unattached; Mrs. S. B. Crocker, Kenwood, and Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood.

Wins by 9-and-8

Mrs. Pray scored the most decisive victory of the day in downing Mrs. M. H. Dinneen of Washington, 9-and-8. Her 38 going out was one of the best nines of the first round.

Mrs. Kreuzburg was headed for a round in the low 80s as she ousted Mrs. Trouchaud, a pre-tournament favorite, by a 5 and 3 margin. Miss Garber, a dark-horse in the tournament, jumped into contention with a fine round in which she carded four birdies in downing Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Bower, whose great play recently won her The Washington Post Cup, had an easy time with Mrs. Ora Emge of Prince Georges, 6 and 5. The Indian Spring star finished her round with a 77, lowest score recorded in the tournament to date.

Mrs. Howard Out

An upset of considerable proportions was Mrs. George Martin's victory over Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood. Mrs. Martin, who has only joined the Class A ranks this season, won 1 up as she shot an 84, the lowest round she has yet recorded in competition. Mrs. Howard also had an 84, but Mrs. Martin's four on the final hole gave her the match.

Mrs. Crocker, another Kenwood entry, upset Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges, 2 and 1, and Mrs. Meckley won as expected over Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington, 4 and 3, to complete the first flight matches.

Championship Flight

Mrs. E. K. Harris (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. Walter Stokes (Manor), 2 and 1. Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. Charles Egenroad (Washington), 4 and 3. Mrs. L. G. Pray (Columbia) defeated Mrs. M. H. Dinneen (Washington), 9 and 7. Mrs. Kreuzburg (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. J. P.

Rain, Rain, Go Away And Don't Hurry Back

Jim Wilfong, jr., of 1541 Montana ave. ne., answers my complaints about the recent abundance of rain by reminding me that "Into each life a little rain must fall."

But what I want to know is why does it invariably do its falling when I have an afternoon off.

The jinx has gotten so bad lately that I'm thinking of making myself a barrel of money by touring the drought areas and, for a substantial fee, opening up the heavens with the magic words:

Golfers in the Rough

Arlington detectives would like to encounter the divot-minded thieves who early yesterday stole four gunny sacks full of golf balls from an Arlington driving range.

Proprietor "Brick" Wood told police the balls had been purloined from his driving range on Lee blvd., near the Fairfax County line, sometime between midnight and 8 a. m. yesterday. He said the balls were worth about $800.

Mrs. E. K. Harris Upsets Champion In Women's Golf

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Disaster struck in the first rounds of the Women's District Golf association championship yesterday at Woodmont Country club and when the debacle was over, Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, the defending champion, Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges, and Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. F. J. Trouchaud of Kenwood, were among the casualties.

Mrs. Stokes' conqueror was Mrs. E. K. Harris of Kenwood, who has played little tournament golf in the last three years. Mrs. Harris in eliminating Mrs. Stokes, 2 and 1, caused one of the biggest upsets in the history of the tournament.

Plays In 82 Strokes

Mrs. Harris, the former Ellen Kincaid who was one of this section's most promising players before giving up the game to raise a family, played the course in 82 strokes.

Mrs. Trouchaud, given a good chance of winning the title off her recent tournament accomplishments, was eliminated by Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, a club-mate and former District titleholder, 5 and 3.

Wins, 1 Up

Mrs. Walper, another former champion, was shuffled to the sidelines by Mrs. Samuel Crocker of Kenwood, 2 and 1. Mrs. Crocker, who as Katherine McCloskey of Pittsburgh's Oakmont club, had a national ranking, posted an 81.

Mrs. Howard's expulsion came at the hands of Mrs. George Martin of Manor. The slim Manor club star did a remarkable 4-5-3-4 finish to win out on the home green, 1 up.

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring, the 1946 champion, fired a par equaling 77 to eliminate Mrs. Ora Emge of Prince Georges.

The results:

Championship Flight

Mrs. E. K. Harris, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, Manor, 2 and 1; Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington, 4 and 3; Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, defeated Mrs. M. H. Dinneen, Washington, 9 and 7; Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. P. J. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 5 and 3; Elizabeth Garber, unattached, defeated Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, 5 and 4; Mrs. A. B. Bower, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince Georges, 6 and 5; Mrs. George Martin, Manor, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 1 up; Mrs. Samuel Crocker, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges, 2 and 1.

Second Flight

Mrs. George Bailey, Washington, defeated Mrs. J. B. Patterson, Chevy Chase, 2 and 1; Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. John F. Conklin, Army-Navy, 7 and 5; Mrs. Theodore Peyser, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel, Congressional, 5 and 4; Mrs. Milton Harris, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. H. H. New Faces Scramble Women's Title Golf

By Merrell Whittlesey

The District women's golf championship has lost its usual cut-and-dried appearance, and from today through Friday it bids to be the most interesting tournament held by the golfing girls in many years.

The cry for new names and new faces was answered in wholesale fashion in yesterday's first-round matches at Woodmont Country Club, and while the biggest upsetter of them all has been around before, the name of Mrs. Elbert Harris is new to some.

Most golfers are more familiar with her maiden name—Ellen Kincaid. As a junior champion in the late 30s, Ellen was matching strokes with Marion Brown Booth, Helen Dettweiler, etc., but after 1941 it was marriage, a spell in the hospital, the war years and a year-old son that kept her from the game.

Ellen has been playing once-or-twice-a-week golf for several months now and yesterday she reached the peak of her game in eliminating Defending Champion Mrs. Walter Stokes, 2 and 1. Mrs. Harris needed par for an 81 when the match ended on 17. Some explained Mrs. Stokes' defeat by saying it was the medalist jinx, but the Manorite put the blame on a short game that suddenly had its faults after a brilliant 79 in the qualifying round.

The faces new to this tournament are Betty Garber, Mrs. George Martin and Mrs. S. B. Crocker. Two of these three golfers were not supposed to win first-round matches.

Miss Garber was. The unattached player, who quit her high school teaching job in a huff after being denied annual leave, had little trouble against Mrs. D. H. Henderson and iron shots that she learned to play at West Potomac were responsible for four birdies. Miss Garber won, 5 and 4.

Today's match between Miss

Garber and Mrs. A. B. Bower, the co-favorite with Mrs. Stokes, befits a final. It's Miss Garber's big test. She likely will have to be good to win, judging from Mrs. Bower's 77 in breezing into the quarter-final.

Mrs. Martin is the attractive young mother of two whose tremendous improvement has fascinated her golfing companions. She was pleasantly surprised when she qualified for the championship flight but had her biggest golfing thrill in upsetting Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, 1 up. One down and four to play and at the stage where inexperienced players usually fall apart, Mrs. Martin proceeded to play the tough finishing holes in 4-5-3-4, one-putting each green, and won the match on 18.

The other newcomer to this tournament—but not to golf—is Mrs. Crocker. As Kay McCloskey she several times was champion of Western Pennsylvania, and yesterday she was champion of ex-District Champion Mrs. Marie Walper, whom she defeated 2 and 1.

Not to be overlooked is Mrs. Lloyd G. Pray of Columbia, who for the two days has played the best golf of the tournament. After an 81 in the qualifying round she was only 3 over men's par in winning yesterday. Mrs. Betty Meckley continued to play well in a bid for a fourth championship, and Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, who shanked only one shot after an impromptu lesson from Gene Larkin, was under 80 in advancing with ease.

After yesterday only a foolhardy person would attempt to pick today's winners between Harris-Meckley, Pray-Kreuzburg, Garber-Bower and Martin-Crocker.

Championship flight results:

Mrs. Elbert Harris, Kenwood, def. Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor, 2 and 1; Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, def. Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington, 4 and 3; Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, def. Mrs. M. H. Dinneen, Washington, 9 and 7; Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Kenwood, def. Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 5 and 3; Betty Garber, unattached, def. Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, 5 and 4; Mrs. A. B. Bower, Indian Spring, def. Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince Georges, 6 and 5; Mrs. George Martin, Manor, def. Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 1 up, and Mrs. S. B. Crocker, Kenwood, def. Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges, 2 and 1. Today's pairings: Mrs. Harris vs. Mrs. Meckley; Mrs. Pray vs. Mrs. Kreuzburg; Miss Garber vs. Mrs. Bower, and Mrs. Martin vs. Mrs. Crocker.

Pro's Golf Tips Put Mrs. Pray At Peak for D. C. Semifinal

By Merrell Whittlesey

Mrs. Lloyd Pray's success to date in the District Women's Golf Championship is an object lesson to all golfers—if you're in a slump, go to a professional and find the flaw—don't try to work it out and a result get deeper in the rut.

Mrs. Pray's last round in Florida last winter was a 77 at Miami Country Club. Somewhere between Miami and Washington she lost her touch, and by her own admission spent part of the spring playing her poorest golf in many years. She was hitting way behind the ball, flubbing shot after shot and shooting in the high 80s and 90s. With the District championship only two days away, Mrs. Pray called Columbia Pro Fred McLeod last Saturday and asked for a lesson. After a few minutes on the tee she found the source of her troubles.

Monday in the qualifying round, Mrs. Pray was only two shots behind the medalist with an 81. Tuesday, in her first-round match, she was out in 38 and won 9 and 7. Yesterday she played Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Kenwood in the semifinal and won, 3 and 1, netting par on the last hole for an 81, despite a driving rain that fell throughout the match.

Mrs. Pray's Scoring Best.

Today Mrs. Pray continued her bid for the District Women's golf championship in a semifinal meeting with Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, a three-time titlist. For the three days of play to date, Mrs. Pray's total score has been the best of the tournament, and all because of a few minutes on the lesson tee.

"Confidentially," Mrs. Pray said yesterday, in a nonconfidential manner, "I went to the final of this tournament in 1935 and beat Mrs. (Betty) Meckley to get to the final. Winnie Faunce beat me." Mrs. Pray has a reputation of pulling occasional upsets, but except for 1935, a semifinal berth was her best bid. Right now she is playing the best golf of her career.

Although the District women's golf records are not too complete, there is little doubt that Mrs.

Meckley is driving for the honor to be the second player to win the title more than three times. Mrs. Hugh Nicolson won it five.

Mrs. Meckley's card, which showed par for a 77 in defeating the first day's big upsetter, Mrs. Elbert Harris, 4 and 3, was remarkable considering the conditions. Mrs. Meckley is playing one of her favorite golf courses—and playing it well.

Favorites Splash to Wins.

The other semifinalists are linkswomen whose achievements are better known outside of Washington than in. The match pits Mrs. A. B. Bower, the 1936 District champion but formerly one of the South's top players when she was a Kentuckian, against Mrs. S. B. Crocker, a frequent winner of sectional events in Pennsylvania.

In contrast to the upset theme of the first day, favorites splashed into the semifinal yesterday. Betty Garber's big bid for the title was turned back by Mrs. Bower, 3 and 2, as Miss Garber went 3 down in a hurry and just couldn't take advantage of several opportunities Mrs. Bower tossed her way.

The inevitable letdown caught Mrs. George Martin and the Manor Club player was no match for Mrs. Crocker in losing, 6 and 5.

The title match will start tomorrow at 10 o'clock at Woodmont, to be preceded by finals in all flights and consolations.

School Teacher Giving Golf Lessons Is Held Within Code

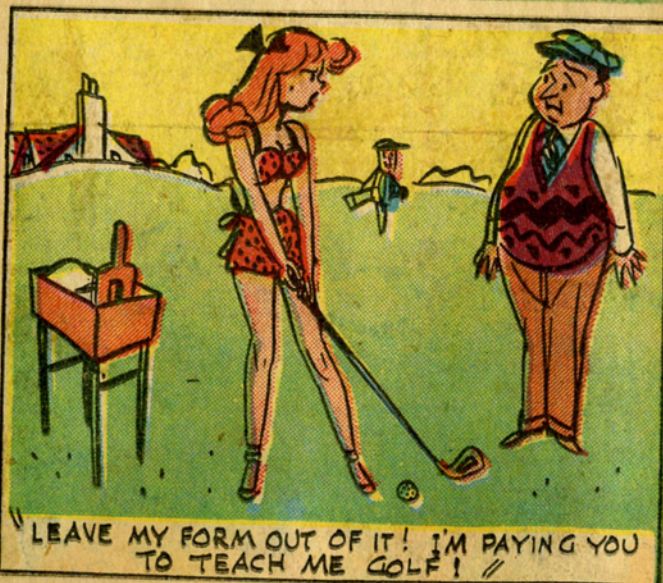

Following a story in The Star of Tuesday which mentioned that Miss Betty Garber had included golf instruction in her duties as athletic instructor at Wilson High School, the question was raised at the District women's championship yesterday as to whether Miss Garber had violated the amateur conduct rule.

Joe Dey, secretary of the United States Golf Association, who was reached at the USGA New York office, said that although he preferred to review the case in writing his opinion from the facts presented was that Miss Garber positively was not guilty of any violation.

Formerly a full-time faculty member could give instructions in golf at a recognized institution if it came within the regular course of studies, and if the faculty member did not receive extra compensation. This rule was reversed last year to read that faculty members who give any golf instruction, regardless how incidental, will be declared professionals—but Miss Garber gave her only student lessons in the spring of 1946.

At that time she received some publicity for competing in a golf tournament, and it was suggested by the principal at Wilson High that she give student instructions. However, she did not receive compensation nor receive personal benefit for the instructions, and thus did not violate the amateur conduct rule in Dey's opinion.

Mrs. Bower Wins, 4 & 2, Gains Golf Semifinals

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring turned back Miss Elizabeth Garber, unattached, 4 and 2, in the feature first-flight match of the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Woodmont.

Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, and Mrs. S. B. Crocker of Kenwood also reached the semifinals of the first flight, which will start today at 10 a. m. on the Woodmont course.

Fourteen matches in four brackets were completed yesterday despite a driving rain which continued through most of the day's play.

In second-flight play Mrs. John Ives of Columbia defeated Mrs. George Bailey of Washington, 3 and 2. Other winners were Mrs. Theodore Peyser of Woodmont, Mrs. R. E. Zuber of Manor and Mrs. O. L. Altman of Army-Navy.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Betty Meckley Wins, 4 and 3, in Heavy Rain

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Heavy rains failed to halt the second match play rounds of the Women's District Golf association championship yesterday and Woodmont Country club's water-logged course appeared covered with multi-colored mushrooms as the gals marched under their huge umbrellas into the semi-finals. All matches ran according to form.

Mrs. E. K. Harris, of Kenwood, who upset Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, Manor club's defending champion in the opening rounds on Tuesday, felt the sting of defeat herself yesterday, losing to Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, a clubmate.

Mrs. Meckley's opponent today will be Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, who, like the Kenwood player, is no newcomer to the upper brackets of women's golf hereabouts. Mrs. Pray fired an 82 to oust Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, of Kenwood, 3 and 1.

In the other semifinal today, it will be Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring, the 1947 champion, against Mrs. Samuel B. Crocker of Kenwood, who before coming to Washington was one of the best players in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Bower killed the title aspirations of Elizabeth (Betty) Garber, an unattached many links player who had caused quite a stir in the tournament before her 4 and 2 expulsion yesterday.

Mrs. Crocker earned her place in the round of four by defeating Mrs. George Martin, the sensational Manor club player, 6 and 5. The results:

Championship Flight—Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. E. K. Harris, Kenwood, 4 and 3. Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, Kenwood, 3 and 1. Mrs. A. B. Bower, Indian Spring, defeated Betty Garber, unattached, 4 and 2. Mrs. S. B. Crocker, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. George Martin, Manor, 6 and 5.

Championship Flight Consolations—Mrs. C. L. Engenroad, Washington, defeated Mrs. W. R. Stokes, Manor, default. Mrs. J. P. Trenchard, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. M. H. Dinneen, Washington, 1 up. Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, defeated Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince Georges, 3 and 2. Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges, 1 up in 19 holes.

Second Flight—Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. George Bailey Jr., Washington, 3 and 2. Mrs. Theodore Peyser, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. Milton Harris, Woodmont, 5 and 4. Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, defeated Mrs. H. H. Goodman, Washington, 2 up. Mrs. O. L. Altman, Army-Navy, defeated Mrs. Woodlief Thomas, Chevy Chase, 3 and 1.

Third Flight—Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Washington, defeated Mrs. R. T. Schlossburg, Belle Haven, 5 and 4. Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, defeated Mrs. R. R. Hayman, Indian Spring, 3 and 2. Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. Gilbert Hahn, Woodmont, default. Mrs. J. R. Normington, Belle Haven, defeated Mrs. W. E. Foley, Kenwood, 1 up in 19 holes.

Fourth Flight—Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. R. L. Hutchison, Washington, 4 and 3. Mrs. H. C. Fisher, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Chester Morrill, Kenwood, 2 up.

Mrs. Bower Wins

Indian Spring Mrs. A. B. Bower squelched the hopes of Miss Elizabeth Garber in the feature first flight match of the Women District Golf Association championships yesterday at Woodmont, 4-2.

Kenwood's Mrs. Betty Meckley, Mrs. S. B. Crocker and Columbia's Mrs. L. G. Pary also reached the semi-finals which will start at 10 p. m. today at Woodmont. Mrs. Meckley defeated woman club member Mrs. E. K. Harris 4-3, Mrs. Pray edged Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg 3-1, also of Kenwood.

Sparkling Round By Indian Spring Ace Earns Title

Winner on Woodmont
Links, 5-4, Ties Men's Par on First Nine

By Merrell Whittlesey

Mrs. Albert B. Bower of Indian Spring played one of the finest rounds in women's golf history here today to defeat Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, 5 and 4, at Woodmont, for the District women's championship.

Mrs. Bower, in regaining a title she held last in 1946, played the new front nine of the links near Bethesda in 35 strokes, even men's par, in an amazing exhibition. She was 5 up at the turn.

Mrs. Meckley won only one hole, the 13th, where she played a strong shot out of the rough and dropped a 10-footer to keep the match alive. On the previous hole, Mrs. Meckley had holed an 8-foot putt to keep from being closed out, 7 and 6.

Mrs. Bower ended the match on the 14th with a par 3 that barely missed being a birdie. For the 14 holes of the match, Mrs. Bower was 2 over men's par and needed par in for a 71.

Only Bogey at Start.

Mrs. Bower won the first hole with her only bogey of the front nine when Mrs. Meckley was in trouble. Mrs. Bower won the third with a par 5 and the fourth where she dropped a 12-foot birdie 3 put. They halved through the sixth hole and on the seventh Mrs. Bower chipped dead for a par 4 and a 4-up lead.

On the ninth hole, she dropped a 20-foot putt for a par on the 420-yard par 4 to turn 5 up.

On the 10th hole, Mrs. Bower played probably her finest shot of the match, an 8-iron within two feet of the pin on the elevated green, and scored a par 4 on the 430-yard hole. That made her 6 up. They halved 11 and 12 before Mrs. Meckley won her only hole of the match and it was over on the 14th.

Mrs. Bower required 14 putts on the front nine and took eight putts on the five holes coming back. She outdrove Mrs. Meckley by 5 to 25 yards, although the latter made a fine stand against unbeatable golf.

Loser Has Good Round.

Mrs. Meckley's round probably have won any other match in the tournament. The defeat of her bid for a fourth title in the District tournament.

Mrs. Bower was in the rough on only one hole, the ninth, where she pulled her drive to the left of the fairway. But her 20-foot putt more than made up for her only error off the tee. Otherwise, she was straight down the middle and long and accurate with her iron shots. She did not three-putt a green.

There also was some good golf in the championship flight consolation, where Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood had three birdies in her round in defeating Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional by a 6-and-4 margin.

Meckley, Bower Play for Title

Two down at the turn and apparently beaten, pretty Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring blazed a sensational path to defeat Mrs. S. B. Crocker of Kenwood, 4 and 2, in semifinal action of the Women's District Golf association championship yesterday at Woodmont.

The slim Indian Spring matron won five straight holes on the second nine and recorded birdies on the 14th and 17th as she finished out the round with a card of 42-36—78.

Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood turned in an expected victory in the other semifinal when she won over Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, 5 and 3.

First flight consolation—Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood defeated Mrs. C. L. Egenroad of Washington Golf and Country club, 4 and 5. Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional defeated Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, 1 up.

Second flight—Mrs. John Ives of Columbia defeated Mrs. Theodore Peyser of Woodmont, 5 and 3. Mrs. O. L. Altman of Army Navy defeated Mrs. R. E. Zubar of Manor, 3 and 1.

Second flight consolation—Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel of Congressional defeated Mrs. John Conklin of Army Navy, 2 and 1. Miss Ruth Simon of Woodmont defeated Mrs. A. G. Simmonds of Washington, 2 up.

Third flight—Mrs. G. W. Calvert of Washington defeated Mrs. H. L. Lacey of Manor, 3 and 7. Mrs. Sam Brown of Woodmont defeated Mrs. W. E. Foley of Kenwood, 2 and 1.

Third flight consolation—Mrs. W. E. Welsh of Manor defeated Mrs. A. W. Loda of Manor, 3 and 2. Mrs. E. S. Hanson of Congressional defeated Mrs. L. W. Dennis of Washington, 1 up on 19th.

Fourth flight—Mrs. E. B. Lockett of Manor defeated Mrs. H. C. Fisher of Columbia, 4 and 3 (final).

Mrs. Bower Takes D. C. Golf Title

MRS. A. B. BOWER

Betty Meckley Bows
In Final Match, 5-4

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Piece by piece, Mrs. A. B. (Bea) Bower of Indian Spring Country club took Woodmont Country club's course apart yesterday and buried deeply in the debris was Kenwood club's Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, a 5 and 4 victim in one of the greatest rounds in the history of the Women's District Golf association championship.

It was Mrs. Bower's second try at the coveted city title and her second victory. But the real thrill in winning wasn't the title itself but the round in which she accomplished it.

Improved Each Time Out

Had Mrs. Bower elected to go on and see what she could do with the remaining four holes of the great round, the Indian Spring star might easily have finished the trek by matching men's par of 70.

Mrs. Bower, a former Kentucky State champion, won the title in her first try in 1946 but did not play last year. This year the pretty Indian Spring matron qualified almost unnoticed with a mediocre 86 but with each match play round Mrs. Bower got warmer and warmer as she neared yesterday's final. In that round she took only 35 strokes to get to the turn and at the juncture Mrs. Bower had built up a tremendous five-hole lead.

Match Ends on 14th

Her greatest shot of the round came at the 10th hole where she increased her edge to six-up with a birdie. Playing her second shot safe short of the ditch, Mrs. Bower lofted a niblick shot that landed just short of the pin, ran around the edge of the cup, and stopped just a few short inches beyond.

Mrs. Meckley, who won the title in 1930, '31 and '35, didn't win a hole until the 13th where she knocked in a birdie putt to prolong the proceedings. But the match ended on the 14th where Mrs. Bower played a fine 4-wood to the green and put her approach putt inches from the cup. Mrs. Meckley needed a 15-footer to halve but didn't bother to putt and instead walked over and conceded to Mrs. Bower.

Mrs. Bower needed only 22 putts for the 14 holes, using but 14 of them on the front nine. Her birdies came on the fourth, eighth, ninth and 10th holes.

Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, of Kenwood, carried off top honors in the championship flight consolation, defeating Mrs. D. H. Henderson, of Congressional, 5 and 4.

Mrs. John Ives of Columbia won the second flight title edging out Mrs. O. L. Altman of Army-Navy, 2 and 1. Mrs. Sam Brown of the host club won the third flight defeating Mrs. G. W. Calvert of Washington, 1 up in 19 holes; and Mrs. E. B. Lockett of Kenwood took the fourth flight by defeating Mrs. H. C. Risher of Columbia, 4 and 3.

Ruth Simon returned a victor over Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel of Congressional, 1 up, in the second consolation flight. Mrs. E. S. Hanson of Congressional, won the third from Mrs. W. E. Welch of Manor, 7 and 6, and Mrs. R. C. Suttleff of Army-Navy gained a 3 and 2 decision over Mrs. Ted Burrows of Manor in the fourth.

Mrs. Bower and Mrs. Meckley's cards and women's par for the course:

D. C. Golf Victory Mrs. Bower's Birthday Gift to Year-Old Son

Nine years after she won the Kentucky State women's golf title at the age of 16, Mrs. "B" Little Bower is District women's golf champion for a second time, but unlike her outlook after her first important golf triumph, Mrs. Bower is not too concerned over new fields to conquer.

Asked if she intended to compete in the Maryland women's championship in mid-July at Baltimore Country Club, the Indian Spring golfer replied, "Heavens no," and then told how she actually almost missed yesterday's District final at Woodmont because the Bowers' baby-sitter did not show up. After all, Mike Bower was having a pretty important day of his own—his first birthday—and he wasn't in any mood to be left alone.

Mrs. Bower plans to compete in the remaining big tournaments in the District this year—the Middle Atlantic and the Payne Cup—but out-of-town events are out.

Victor's Play Her Best Ever.

The small gallery that followed the match in which Mrs. Bower defeated Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood club, 5 and 4, saw one of the finest competitive rounds in local tournament history and Mrs. Bower proudly admitted it was the finest round of golf she ever had played. With four unplayed holes to go when the match ended, Mrs. Bower needed par for a 71. She played Woodmont's year-old front nine in 35 strokes, which matches the card for men.

Mrs. Bower comes out of a slow, deliberate backswing to hit the ball a long way—farther than ever, she explained, because she is stronger. After five straight competitive rounds of 80 or better before the tournament, she slipped to 86 in the qualifying round, then rebounded with three of her four match play rounds definitely in the 70s.

There was more than polite applause for Mrs. Meckley when the match ended for the three-time champion had not given up in the face of Mrs. Bower's near-flawless performance. Mrs. Meckley missed only two shots badly and would have won any other match in the tournament with yesterday's round. Mrs. Meckley had the unfortunate experience of needing par for a 76 after 14 holes and losing a match, 5 and 4.

The second night went to Mrs. John Ives of Columbia over Mrs. O. L. Altman of Army Navy, 2 and 1, and the third to the host club's Mrs. Sam Brown over Mrs. G. W. Calvert of Washington, 1 up in 19 holes. Mrs. E. B. Lockett of Kenwood won the fourth over Mrs. H. C. Fisher of Columbia, 4 and 3.

In the consolations, Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood included three birdies on her card in defeating Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional in the championship fight, 6 and 4. Ruth Simon of Woodmont captured the second over Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel of Kenwood, 1 up, and Mrs. E. S. Hanson of Congressional had the lowest round of her career, an 88, in defeating Mrs. W. E. Welch of Manor, 7 and 6. The fourth consolation went to Mrs. R. C. Sutcliffe of Army Navy over Mrs. Ted Burrows of Manor, 3 and 2.

In the absence of Mrs. W. F. Patterson, District Women's Golf Association president, First Vice President Mrs. M. J. Torlinski conducted the tournament, assisted by Mrs. Willard Edwards and Mrs. Elmer Jenkins. M. W.

Mrs. Bower Wins District Championship, Brilliant 35 Equals Men's Par on First Nine

Indian Spring Star Beats Mrs. Meckley 5 and 4 for 2d Title

By Roger Wolbarst

Playing one of the greatest competitive rounds in local women's golf history, Mrs. A. B. "B" Bower of Indian Spring defeated Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, 5 and 4 to win the District Championship at Woodmont.

In winning her second District title in three years, the tall Indian Spring star shot a 35 to equal men's par on the outgoing nine and take an almost unbeatable five-up lead at the turn.

Mrs. Bower's beautiful round, probably the finest ever scored in major competition here, was three strokes under women's regulation figures over the rolling Woodmont course.

Mrs. Meckley shot a fine 40, only two strokes over women's par on that first nine, but against a round like Mrs. Bower's, her effort was wasted.

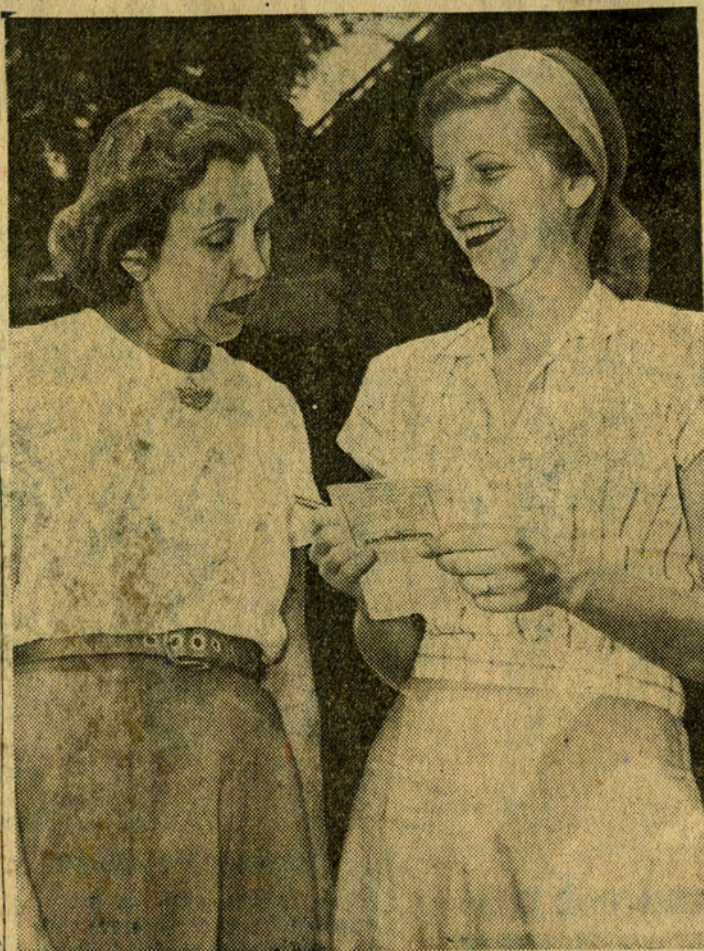

With her huge lead at the turn, Mrs. Bower added to her margin by winning the tenth with a birdie four and the players halved the eleventh and twelfth.

Mrs. Meckley won her only hole of the day on the thirteenth with a birdie four, but when they halved the fourteenth with threes, the match was over.

In winning her third Class A title of the season—she had previously captured The Washington Post and NBC trophies—Mrs. Bower never once went over par figures.

She birdied the fourth with a 10-foot putt following a beautiful pitch shot; the eighth with a good second shot and two putts; the ninth with a 20-foot putt and the tenth with a great iron shot which left her 2 feet from the pin.

And around her four birdies she sandwiched 10 pars. During her round she had seven one-putt greens—a truly remarkable exhibition.

Mrs. Meckley herself had five one-putt greens and only three bogies. She parred 11 holes and had one bird. Golf like that would have won a majority of local tournaments, but against Mrs. Bower it just wasn't good enough.

A three-time District champion herself, the Kenwood star said after the match that she had never run into a brand of golf such as was played by her opponent yesterday.

In the first-flight consolation, Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood made use of three birdies in defeating Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, 6 and 4.

Mrs. John Ives of Columbia took the second-flight title by downing Mrs. O. L. Altman of Army-Navy, 2 and 1, while Miss Ruth Simon of Woodmont edged Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel of Congressional, 1 up.

Third-flight honors went to Mrs. Sam Brown of Woodmont, who downed Mrs. G. W. Calvert of Washington, 1 up in 19 holes. Mrs. E. S. Hanson of Congressional won 7 and 6 over Mrs. W. E. Welch of Manor in the third-flight consolation.

Mrs. E. B. Lockett of Manor was fourth-flight winner over Mrs. H. C. Fisher of Columbia, 4 and 3, and Mrs. R. C. Sutcliffe of Army-Navy won the consolation prize over Manor's Mrs. Ted Burrows, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Meckley's 78 Sets Record

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Mrs. Betty P. Meckley established a new women's competitive record for Kenwood Golf and Country club's course yesterday, firing a great round of 78 to be the gross winner in a field-day event honoring the Kenwood team that won the Women's District Golf association team championship.

Mrs. Meckley, who played the No. 1 spot on the host club's championship team and who has won just about everything worth winning in this section, was out in 40 and back in 38. Her feat marked the fourth time in two weeks that 80 has been broken at Kenwood by feminine golfers. Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud did a 78 for an unofficial record and Mrs. Rex Howard had two 79's.

Mrs. Egenroad Gets Ace

Some of the glory of Mrs. Meckley's brilliant round was stolen by Mrs. C. L. Egenroad of Washington Golf and Country club, who dunked a 4-wood shot on the sixth hole for a hole-in-one. Mrs. Egenroad was far out of the winner's circle with her round of 93 but she wouldn't have traded her ace for all the prizes in the tournament.

Mrs. George Bailey jr. of Washington, carted off the low net prize in the class A event with her card of 84-9-75. Mrs. Bailey was 43 on the front nine and 41 on the trip home.

Mrs. George E. Martin of Manor, one of this campaign's most persistent winners, finished in the second low net spot with a card of 86-10-76. Mrs. Rex Howard of the host club followed with 82-4-78. Mrs. Howard was out in 38, but slumped to a 44 on the back nine.

Four Record 79's

Other winners in the Kenwood class A event were Mrs. Roderick Watson, Manor, 89-10-79; Mrs. John Conklin, Army and Navy, 89-10-79; Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel, Congressional, 92-13-79; Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, 81-2-79, and Mrs. George Jani, Congressional, 91-11-80.

In the class B Field day at Manor, Mrs. Fred Chaimson of Prince Georges was the low net victor with 89-14-75. The low putts prize went to Mrs. Jack Howard of Belle Haven with 28.

Mrs. Pray, And Crocker Eliminated

Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood and Mrs. A. B. Bower of Indian Spring will tee off at 10 a. m. today at Woodmont Country Club for the first flight championship of the Women's District Golf Association.

Mrs. Meckley gained the finals yesterday with a 5-and-3 triumph over Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia. Mrs. Bower had a more difficult time in her semifinals match with Mrs. S. B. Crocker of Kenwood. Mrs. Bower trailed 2 down at the end of nine holes, but won six of the next seven holes to gain the finals, 4 and 2.

Mrs. John Ives of Columbia outstroked Mrs. Theodore Peyser of Woodmont, 5 and 3, in second flight semifinals play. Her finals opponent at 9:55 a. m. today will be Mrs. O. L. Altman of Army-Navy who yesterday defeated Mrs. R. E. Zuber of Manor, 3 and 1.

Mrs. E. B. Lockett of Kenwood yesterday won the fourth flight championship when she defeated Mrs. H. C. Fisher of Columbia, 4 and 3.

In third flight play Mrs. G. W. Calvert of Washington trounced Mrs. H. L. Lacey of Manor, 8 and 7, and Mrs. Sam Brown of Woodmont defeated Mrs. E. Foley of Kenwood, 2 and 1. The two winners will meet for the third flight title today at 9:35 a. m.

Yesterday's Results

First Flight—Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, 5 and 3; Mrs. A. B. Bower, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. S. B. Crocker, Kenwood, 4 and 2.

Second Flight—Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Theodore Peyser, Woodmont, 5 and 3; Mrs. O. L. Altman, Army-Navy, defeated Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, 3 and 1.

Third Flight—Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Washington, defeated Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, 8 and 7; Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. E. Foley, Kenwood, 2 and 1.

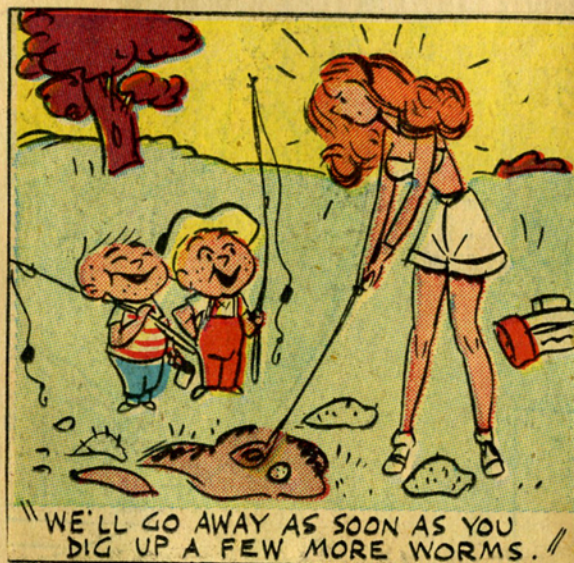

Fourth Flight—Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. H. C. Fisher, Columbia, 4 and 3.

Today's Pairings

First Flight—10 a. m., Mrs. Meckley vs. Mrs. Bower.

Second Flight—9:55 a. m., Mrs. Ives vs. Mrs. Altman.

Third Flight—9:55 a. m., Mrs. Calvert vs. Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Meckley's 78 Ties Record

Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood's No. 1 woman player, shot a 40-38-78 yesterday and captured low gross honors in the Class A field day event sponsored by the Women's District Golf Association at Kenwood.

Her score tied a course record for women's competition at Kenwood and highlighted the program given in honor of her championship team.

Another feature of the day was a hole-in-one on the No. 4 hole by Mrs. C. L. Egensoud of Washington Country Club. But Mrs. Egensoud was out of the running with a 93 score.

Low net laurels went to Mrs. George Bailey of Washington with 84-9-75. Trailing her were Mrs. George Martin of Manor with 86-10-76, and Mrs. Rex Howard with 82-4-78.

The Class B field day at Manor produced Mrs. Fred Chaimson of Prince Georges as the low net champion. She had 89-14-75. Low putts went to Mrs. Jack Howard of Belle Haven with 28.

Leading contenders for low net prize were Mrs. John H. Bullock of Kenwood, 94-15-79, Mrs. C. F. Anderson of Manor, 90-10-80, Mrs. John Myers, Congressional, 99-19-80, and Mrs. M. Meehan of Belle Haven, 94-14-80.

Mrs. W. A. Walsh Wins WDGA Tourney

The average golfer shoots his best score under non-competitive conditions, with nothing at stake but nickel skins; but that's not true of the tournament-minded of the Women's District Golf Association.

The three players who won the major prizes in the annual Duffer's Cup Tournament for the Elizabeth Harris Trophy at Indian Spring, on July 6, all posted the very best scores of their respective golfing careers and all, as the boys say "with the pencil on 'em."

Mrs. W. A. Walsh, whose position with the General Accounting Office (Passenger Travel Unit, Civilian Travel Section of Audit Division) limits her golf to week-ends only, posted her first 92 in the tournament for B and C class players only. And after deducting a 21-stroke handicap won the Harris Cup for Washington Golf and Country Club with a net 71.

Josephine started playing three years ago and her first handicap was a fat 36. She gradually chopped off stroke after stroke and yesterday she dropped two more. Which means another shot and she will be a Class A player.

After the excitement was over, one of the ladies said "Jo, are you on sick leave or annual leave?" and the reply was "Annual leave, you dope!"

Push Your Putt, Don't Stroke It, Jamison Advises

By Merrell Whittlesey

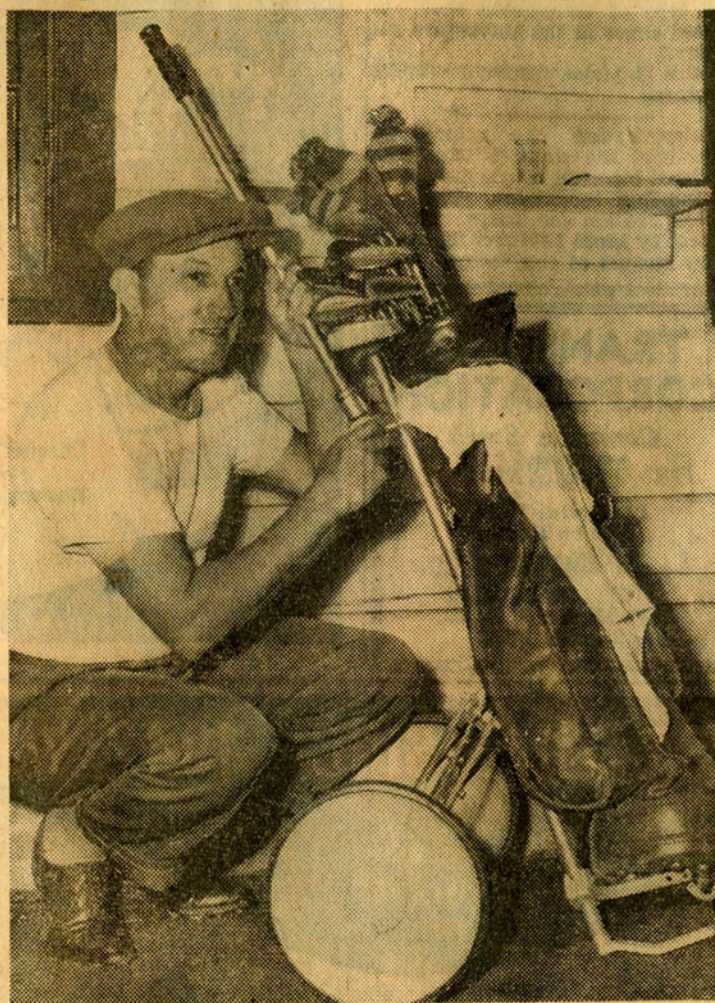

Al Jamison never has been the tournament golfer he would like to be, but the Quantico professional always has been respected for his theories on the game. He's a deep thinker on every phase of golf and he was off on one of his pet subjects late yesterday as he watched a score of Maryland Open contestants on the velvety practice putting green at Chevy Chase.

"Look at those amateurs," Jamy said, "most of them are hitting those putts with a beautiful stroke, but what good does it do them, they're way behind the times? The art of putting now is to push the ball, not stroke it."

Jamison's comment brought to mind Jimmy Demaret's advice on how to putt. Demaret would have his pupils place a ball in front of their putter blade and merely shove the ball toward the hole hour after hour, keeping the blade in contact with the ball until the ball gets out of reach. A few days of that and the pupil gets the point.

"Today's touring golf pros could not stand the tremendous pressure of tournament play if they stroked the ball," Jamison said. "A stroke calls for co-ordination of every muscle in the arms and hands, and if those fellows had to go through that every time they stepped up to a putt that meant several hundred dollars they would lock, or freeze, some time in the round."

"They have an easier method. It's the push, just a shove of the putter that calls for little back stroke but a lot of follow through. You watch those fellows and often the blades of their putters will extend beyond the ball as it gets under way. That way a ball has three ways of getting into the cup. It can go in the middle or fall in from the left or right. If you stroke the ball it can only go in the center of the cup."

Harold Oatman, the Norfolk pro who made part of the winter tour last year, overheard the conversation and was in full agreement. "The best putters today are Johnny Palmer, Bobby Locke and Jim Ferrier," Oatman said, "all push-

ers. But the guy who really started pushing putts was Paul Runyan, the greatest putter of them all."

"How about Horton Smith?" somebody asked. "He is one of the greatest putters of modern golf and he strokes the ball." But Jamison and Oatman refused to budge on their point. He is an exception, they claimed.

Eddie Ault, an onlooker, said, "Here comes the best putter we've ever had around here, let's see his method." The professional to whom Ault was referring was Mel Shorey, the Indian Spring pro with his reliable potato-masher putter.

Shorey stepped up to a few practice putts and Jamison and Oatman beamed as Mel accentuated a push with every putt, not a stroke.

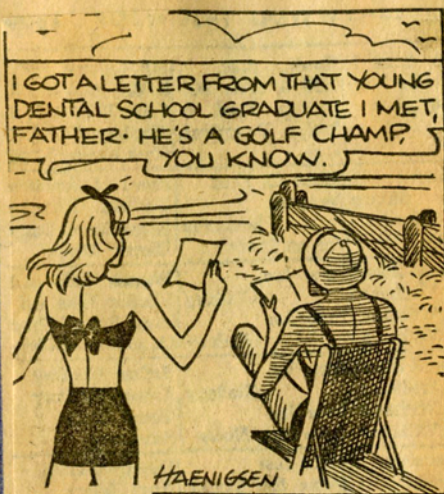

"Take Jimmy Nichols, the one-arm golfer, for example," Jamison said. "He hits the ball from left to right on all shots but putting, but he putts the other way as that's the only way he can push the ball. In other words, with his one arm he hits right handed but putts left handed."

Shorey said Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District women's champion, came up to him some time ago and asserted she couldn't sink a putt. "She hit a few putts for me and she had lost the art of pushing the ball. So I adjusted her game and she won the District championship the next week and now is putting better than ever."

Jamison again took over and added that the push was done almost exclusively with the right hand. "Don't get the pushed putt confused with a jab," Jamison warned. "A pushed putt dies at the cup and you never see great putters banging against the back of the cup. The ball just falls in the hole, yet it's up."

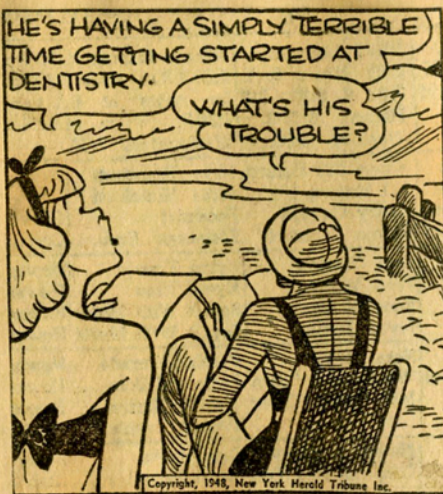

Bubby Worsham walked up and the next subject was his big brother, Lew. "Lew shoves the ball," Jamison added, "and he's a good putter, and he patterned his putting after Demaret's."

But Bubby refused to be convinced. "Here I am going to play in a tournament tomorrow and these guys are trying to teach me a new way to putt, let me out of here," he said. And Bubby took off, leaving Jamison and Oatman with one less non-paying pupil.

District Linkswomen Facing Rugged Going In Maryland Meet

Woman golfers of Washington who plan to compete in the Maryland State championship next week at Five Farms in Baltimore were not too encouraged by the result of yesterday's intercity team match, which went to the host Baltimoreans by the lopsided count of 14½ to 3½.

The caliber of women's golf in Baltimore has picked up this year, as in addition to Mrs. Maurice Glick, holder of the city, State, Middle Atlantic and Payne medal play titles, the Maryland metropolis team has two prominent newcomers. They are Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce, four-time Kentucky State titlist, and Mrs. C. M. Nes of England, who has won several foreign titles.

Mrs. Boyce Leads With 80.

Mrs. Boyce played Five Farms in 80 strokes, an excellent round at that great golf course considering summer rules were in vogue, to top both teams. The best score reported by a Washingtonian was Mrs. Stokes' 84.

Only two of the Washington duos were able to avert a three-point shutout, with Mrs. A. B. Bower and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson, the team captain, breaking even in the second bracket, while Mrs. S. F. Little and Mrs. D. H. Henderson scored a 2-1 triumph in the fifth.

Mrs. Glick and Mrs. Boyce were too much for Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Meckley in the top match of the day.

The State women's championship starts Monday at Five Farms, an alternate site after Baltimore Country Club's Roland Park course was not in satisfactory condition to take care of the tournament. Mrs. Glick, who last week won the city title for the third time, is the favorite.

Statistics of Tourney.

Results:

Mrs. C. Boyce and Mrs. Maurice Glick (Baltimore) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and Mrs. Betty Mackley; Jeanette Myers and Mary Ann Downey (Baltimore) scored 1½ points to 1½ for Mrs. A. B. Bower and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson; Mrs. C. M. Nes and Mrs. M. L. Bell (Baltimore) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. L. G. Pray; Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg and Elizabeth Bonthron (Baltimore) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. I. P. Trouchaud and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith; June Vogel and Mrs. Jerome Sloman (Baltimore) scored 1 point to 2 for Mrs. S. F. Little and Mrs. D. H. Henderson; Mrs. H. H. Hoene and Mrs. Milton Caplan (Baltimore) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. S. B. Crocker and Mrs. George H. Bailey, Jr.

D. C. Women Golfers Lost

Baltimore, July 8.—Washington's women took a 14½-3½ lacing from a picked team of Baltimore golfers today at the Roland Park golf course.

The Washington women only managed to win one of the six matches and gain a tie in another.

Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce (Elkridge) and Mrs. Maurice Glick (Woodholme), 3; Mrs. Walter Stokes (Manor) and Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood), 0.

Jeanette Myers (Suburban) and Mary Ann Downey (Baltimore C. C.), 1½; Mrs. A. B. Bower (Indian Spring) and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson (Chevy Chase), 1½.

Mrs. Charles M. Nes (Green Spring) and Mrs. M. Louise Bell (B.C.O.), 3; Mrs. Rex Howard (Kenwood) and Mrs. L. G. Pray (Columbia), 0.

Mrs. P. E. Schluderberg (B.C.C.) and Elizabeth Bonthron (Hillendale), 3; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud (Kenwood) and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith (Woodmont), 0.

Mrs. Jerome Sloman (Suburban) and June Vogel (Rolling Road), 1; Mrs. E. F. Little (A-N), and Mrs. D. H. Henderson (Congressional), 2.

Mrs. Herman Hoene (Elkridge) and Mrs. Milton Caplan (Woodholme), 3; Mrs. S. B. Crocker (Kenwood) and Mrs. George Bailey (Washington), 0.

Three District Women Seek State Golf Title

Only three woman golfers from Washington will compete in the week-long Maryland State championship that starts tomorrow with an 18-hole qualifying round at the Five Farms course of the Baltimore Country Club.

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, a former champion from Manor; Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, semifinalist in the recent District women's tournament and Ruth Simon of Woodmont are the lone District representatives in the field of 38.

All of Baltimore's top players are entered, including Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme, the defending champion.

Mrs. Stokes will play her qualifying round tomorrow with Elizabeth Bonthron of Hillendale at 10:30 while Mrs. Pray's partner will be Mrs. Mary Louise Bell of Baltimore C. C. Miss Simon and Adelaid Lewis of Annapolis Roads start at 10:50.

The Maryland State women's golf championship that was underway with a qualifying round today at Five Farms virtually was a duplication of the Baltimore City women's championship that was completed two weeks ago. Of the 40 players, 36 are from Baltimore.

Mrs. Maurice Glick, defending champion who has a 2-year unbroken streak of victories in sectional tournaments, was favorite with Washington's Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, a former champion, and Mrs. L. G. Pray among the challengers. One of Mrs. Glick's last defeats was at the hands of Mrs. Pray in the Middle Atlantic three years ago.

Mrs. Charles M. Nes, Jr. (86) vs. Mrs. Herman M. Hoene (94).

Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg (85) vs. Elizabeth Bonthron (92).

Mrs. M. Louise Bell (89) vs. Stuart Foxwell (94).

Mrs. Glick, Mrs. Pray Again Golf Rivals as State Play Opens

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, July 13.—Mrs. Maurice Glick, who if memory serves is unbeaten in sectional golf tournaments since she lost to Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia in the semifinals of the 1946 Middle Atlantic championship, ran smack into Mrs. Pray today in a first-round match of the Maryland State women's play at Five Farms.

Mrs. Pray posted a 93 to be one of two Washington qualifiers in the title flight. The other was Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, who tied Jeanette Myers of Suburban Club for medal honors with an 81.

Mrs. Stokes, who was medalist in the recent District women's tournament, met Mrs. Adele Lewis, a 91 shooter from Annapolis, in the first round. All the other qualifiers were from Baltimore.

Mrs. Glick, who is in the opposite bracket from Mrs. Stokes, qualified handily with an 85 as she started defense of her title.

First-round pairings:

Jeanette Myers (81) vs. Mrs. Jerome Sloman (90).

Mrs. Maurice Glick (85) vs. Mrs. Lloyd G. Pray (93).

Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce (82) vs. Mrs. Cameron C. Barr (91).

Mary Ann Downey (87) vs. June Vogel (94).

Mrs. Walter Stokes (81) vs. Mrs. Adele Lewis (91).

Mrs. Charles M. Nes, Jr. (86) vs. Mrs. Herman M. Hoene (94).

Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg (85) vs. Elizabeth Bonthron (92).

Mrs. M. Louise Bell (89) vs. Stuart Foxwell (94).

Mrs. Stokes Opposes Mrs. Nes in Tourney

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, July 14.—Washington's Mrs. Walter R. Stokes carried her bid for a third Maryland State women's golf championship into the second round today at Five Farms with Mrs. Charles M. Nes, Jr., of Green Spring Valley as her quarter-final opponent.

To date Mrs. Stokes has reported the best golf of the tournament. After an 81 that tied for medal honors she scored the most one-sided victory of the first round with an 8 and 7 triumph over Mrs. Adele Lewis of Annapolis.

Mrs. Nes, winner of several foreign titles, figures to give Mrs. Stokes top-flight opposition today in what looms as the feature match in the title fight. The former advanced with a 1 up triumph over Mrs. H. H. Hoene.

Washington's other contender, Mrs. L. G. Pray, held the defending champion and tournament favorite, Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme, even for 13 holes yesterday, but Mrs. Glick won the next three and the match, 3 and 2.

First round results:

First Flight.

Jeanette Myers, Suburban, defeated Mrs. Jerome Sloman, Suburban, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, defeated Mrs. Lloyd G. Pray, 3 and 2.

Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce, Elkridge, defeated Mrs. Cameron C. Barr, Country Club of Maryland, 4 and 3.

Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, defeated June Vogel, Rolling Road, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor, defeated Mrs. Adele Lewis, 8 and 7.

Mrs. Charles M. Nes, Jr., Green Spring, defeated Mrs. Herman Hoene, Elkridge, 1 up.

Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale, defeated Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, Baltimore Country Club, 1 up.

Mrs. Stuart Foxwell, Rolling Road, defeated Mrs. M. Louise Bell, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Stokes Wins, Mrs. Pray Beaten In Md. Amateur

Baltimore, July 13 (P).—Mrs. Walter Stokes of Washington's Manor Country Club, one of the comedialists, scored a decisive 8 and 7 victory over Mrs. Adele Lewis of Annapolis Roads to advance in the women's State golf championship today.

Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore's Woodholme, the defending champion, rallied late and carded a 3 and 2 victory over Mrs. L. G. Pray of Washington's Columbia Country Club.

That left Mrs. Stokes the only non-Baltimorean still in the running.

Mrs. Charles Nes, Jr., Green Spring Country Club, defeated Mrs. Herman H. Hoene of Elkridge Country Club, 1 up.
Mrs. Stuart Foxwell, Rolling Road Country Club, defeated Mrs. M. Louise Ball of Baltimore Country Club, 4 and 3.
Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce, Elkridge, defeated Mrs. Cameron C. Barr, Country Club of Maryland, 4 and 3.
Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, defeated June Vogel, Rolling Road, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Stokes Loses, 3 and 2

Baltimore, July 14 (P).—Mrs. Charles Nes of Baltimore's Green-spring Country Club put Mrs. Walter Stokes of Washington's Manor Country Club out of the Maryland State women's golf championship in the quarter-final round today.

The upset disposed of the last non-Baltimorean in the tournament and one of the co-medalists. The other, Jeanette Myers of Suburban Country Club, was beaten by Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme, the defending champion.

The defeat of Mrs. Stokes, 3 and 2, was a major tournament upset.

Mrs. Glick beat Miss Myers, 5 and 4, by shooting the front nine in 38 strokes while her opponent was taking 43. Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore County Club gained the semifinals bracket opposite Mrs. Glick by beating Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce of Elkridge Country Club, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Glick Gains Md. Golf Final

Baltimore, July 15 (P).—Mrs. Charles Nes, a former Belgium and southern France champion, is the only hurdle remaining in the path of Mrs. Maurice Glick's fourth straight Maryland State women's golf championship.

Mrs. Nes, playing for Green Spring, and Mrs. Glick of Woodholme won their semifinal matches today by identical scores—5 and 4.

Mrs. Stokes Winner In Medal Playoff

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, July 16.—Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme is seeking her fourth straight Maryland State women's golf championship in today's title match against Mrs. Charles Nes, Green Spring. Both won their semifinal matches by 5 and 4 scores yesterday.

Mrs. Walter Stokes of Manor and Jeanette Myers of Suburban, comedialists who were eliminated earlier in the tourney, played off their medal tie yesterday. Mrs. Stokes won with an 83 score to Miss Myers' 87. Both had 81s on Monday.

June Vogel, Rolling Road, defeated Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, 4 and 3, in yesterday's first-flight consolation. Mrs. H. L. Lacey of Manor defaulted her second-flight consolation to Mrs. Martin Geiger, Baltimore Country Club. Ruth Simons of Woodmont won her way to the third-flight final by defeating Mrs. George Johnson, B. C. C., 2 and 1. She's meeting Mrs. O. B. Coblenz, Jr., of Rolling Road today.

I. S. Event Won By Mrs. Bower

Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District champion, fired a great 75 over her home Indian Spring Country club course yesterday to be the low gross winner in that club's annual field day.

Mrs. Bower was out in 39 and back in 36. The low net in class A went to Mrs. George Martin of Manor, with 81-9-72.

Mrs. Willard Edwards, of the host club, posted 46-45-91 to be gross winner in class B and Mrs. Eli Amanuel, another Indian Springer, had 99-26-73 to be the net victor.

Mrs. N. R. Jarmon, of Kenwood, won the blind bogey event with 90-15-75. Mrs. Rex Howard won the driving event and Mrs. Roderick Watson of Manor, was second. Mrs. Charles Jostes of Kenwood, took the putting event, and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood, was second.

Glick and Nes Gain Md. Final

BALTIMORE, July 15.—Mrs. Maurice Glick will be shooting for her fourth straight Maryland State women's golf championship when she meets Mrs. Charles Nes in tomorrow's final round. Both won their semifinal matches by identical scores of 5 and 4.

Mrs. Walter Stokes of Washington's Manor Country club won a playoff with Jeanette Meyers for the tournament medal by a score of 87 to 83.

Golf Field Day Topped By Mrs. Bower's 75

District women's champion, Mrs. A. B. Bower, threatened men's par again yesterday as she topped a field of 90 in the annual field day of the Indian Spring Women's Golf Committee with an excellent round of 75.

Mrs. Bower matched men's par for the first six holes before she ran into a double-bogey 6 on the seventh. She was out in 39 and back in 36 for a 75.

Low net went to Mrs. George Martin of Manor with her best competitive round, an 81 minus 9 handicap strokes for a net 72. After that round Mrs. Martin almost is a cinch to win "most improved player of the season" honors.

Class B low gross went to Mrs. Willard Edwards with a 91, her best round at Indian Spring, with net to Mrs. Eli Amanuel of the host club with 99-26-73. The blind bogey went to Mrs. W. R. Jarman of Kenwood with 90-15-75.

Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. Roderick Watson finished 1-2 in the driving contest and Mrs. Charles Jostes and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood 1-2 in the putting.

Class C Women's Play At Prince Georges Club

A field of 22 class C golfers will compete today in a Women's District Golf association 18-hole handicap medal play event at Prince Georges Golf and Country club. The pairings and starting times:

9:30—Mrs. Hortella Rosenberger, I. S., and Mrs. Melvin Rose, I. S.; 9:35—Mrs. P. O. Pelland, Cong., and Mrs. E. L. Eberts, Cong.; 9:40—Mrs. Ellen Hart, Wash., and Mrs. Gordon O'Neil, Wash.; 9:45—Mrs. Gus Dimberg, Wash., and Mrs. Conrad Selbold, Wash.; 9:50—Mrs. E. G. Goetz, Wash., and Mrs. W. W. Smith, Col.; 9:55—Mrs. E. W. Lawson, Man., and Mrs. W. K. Beck, Man.; 10—Mrs. A. L. Cochran, Man., and Mrs. A. F. Schmidt, Man.; 10:05—Mrs. Kathryn Schrank, P. G. and Mrs. Homer Head, P. G.; 10:10—Mrs. F. Winston, I. S. and Mrs. M. Kaufman, I. S.; 10:15—Mrs. J. Minovich, I. S. and Mrs. A. Sugar, I. S.; 10:20—Mrs. Elmer Clark, I. S. and Mrs. Lorderna Hutton, Ken.

Class C Linkswomen Compete Tomorrow

The Class C members of the Women's District Golf Association will make another attempt to play their first tournament tomorrow at Prince Georges. The event was rained out several weeks ago and the club and the WDGA could not reach a postponement date in the meantime.

A field of 22 of the high handicapped players will compete, according to pairings released by Mrs. Roderick D. Watson.

Mrs. Stokes Quiets Banterers As Star of Intercity Golf Win

Mrs. Walter Stokes knocked in a 5-footer for a very commendable 76 to feature the intercity golf team victory for Washington over Richmond yesterday at Congressional and as she walked off the green she remarked, "I hope some of my husband's friends read about that."

It seems that last week Dr. Stokes encountered a golfing companion, who remarked, "I see where your wife is getting beat by everybody these days" and the quote was not too well received at home.

It came just a day after Mrs. Stokes had lost in the second round of the Maryland State women's tournament in Baltimore and that was just a few days after the Manor Club champion and her partner lost in the intercity team match with Baltimore. And last month Mrs. Stokes lost in the first round of the District championship.

The fact is that Mrs. Stokes' golf has been as good as in the years she won the city, Maryland State, Middle Atlantic or Payne Cup titles, but as luck would have it she's been having scattered poor rounds on days that her upset conquerors have been posting very good ones.

Defeats Featured Over Victories.
After winning medal honors in the District and Maryland State tournaments, naturally she commanded most of the attention, so Mrs. Stokes' defeats were featured more than the victories of others.

Mrs. Stokes not only has the two medals to her credit but has won gross honors in several one-day events and was a member of the only first-foursome team to go unbeaten in the inter-club team series.

Mrs. Stokes was the only 80-breaker as the Women's District Golf Association's inter-city team blanked the visitors from Richmond, 18-0. Mrs. Stokes had a 40-36-76 and with Mrs. Bower they reported a best ball 73, too good for Virginia Champion Mrs. James Reynolds and Mrs. Glenn Knox, although the latter duo held a two-up-and-three to-play lead on the front nine.

It's a hackneyed phrase, but it's true that most of the matches were much closer than the final score indicated. Mrs. Marie Walper and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith put together a best ball 36 on the back nine, but only won by only 1 up over Mrs. S. R. Hall and Mrs. C. M. Chichester. Mrs. Walper had a 38 for 81.

Mrs. Landra Platt and Mrs. John Ives posted an excellent best ball 74 for their three-point sweep.

Have .500 Percentage.
The victory gave Mrs. Hugh Nicolson's team a .500 average in intercity competition, with a return match with Baltimore and the annual match with Philadelphia yet to be played.

Mrs. A. B. Bower (Manor) and Mrs. Walter R. Stokes (Manor), scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. James Reynolds and Mrs. Glenn Knox (Richmond). Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood) and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson (Chevy Chase) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. R. B. Moore and Mrs. Walter Rice (Richmond). Mrs. L. G. Pray (Columbia) and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud (Kenwood) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. G. S. Hall and Mrs. M. F. Taylor (Richmond). Mrs. Marie Walper (Prince Georges) and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith (Woodmont) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. S. R. Hall and Mrs. C. M. Chichester (Richmond). Mrs. Landra B. Platt (Chevy Chase) and Mrs. John Ives (Columbia) scored 3 points to 0 for Mrs. Warren Pollard and Mrs. Robert Brydon III (Richmond). Mrs. D. H. Henderson (Congressional) and Mrs. A. A. Wilcox (Chevy Chase) scored 3 points to 0 for Frances Rand and Mrs. C. F. Goddard (Richmond).

District Women Rout Virginia Golfers, 18-0

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Bower combined their talents yesterday at Congressional Country club to fire a best-ball round of 73 to lead a Women's District Golf association team to an 18 to 0 rout of a picked team of stars from Richmond, Va.

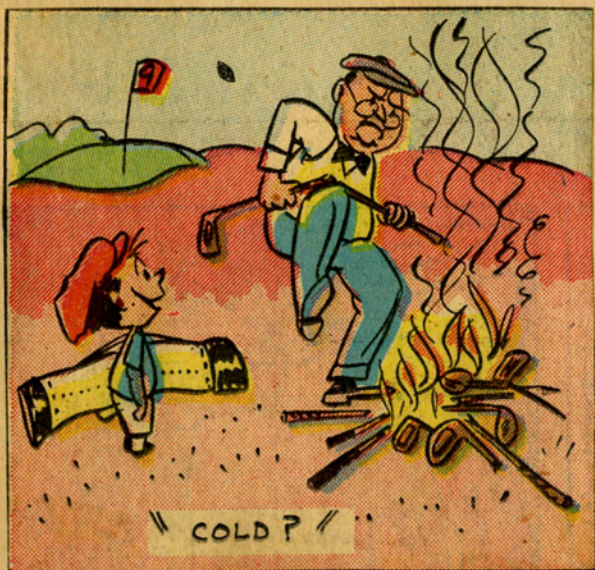

Mrs. Stokes, who was low individual scorer with a 76, and Mrs. Bower, were two down and three to play on the first nine to Mrs. James Reynolds and Mrs. Glenn Knox but managed to win the remaining three holes to take a 1 up lead at the turn. On the back nine the Stokes-Bower combination had a par 35 to win the second nine and 18-hole point with ease.

Mrs. Betty P. Meckley and Mrs. Hugh Nicholson, captain of the Washington team, reported the second clean sweep victory over Mrs. R. B. Moore and Mrs. Walter Rice and Mrs. L. G. Pray and Mrs. T. J. Trouchaud followed with a lopsided verdict over Mrs. G. S. Hall and Mrs. M. F. Taylor.

Mrs. Marie Walper and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith assured the picked team of District stars its victory with the fourth white-wash job. They turned back Mrs. S. R. Hall and Mrs. C. M. Chichester.

With the match safely tucked away, Mrs. L. B. Platt and Mrs. John Ives reported a clean sweep victory over Mrs. Warren Pollard and Mrs. Robert Brydan 3d, and Mrs. D. H. Henderson and Mrs. A. A. Wilcox made possible the rout by winning all three points from Frances Rand and Mrs. C. F. Goddard.

86 Women Golfers Await T.-H. Tourney

Prince Georges Golf and Country club, one of this section's toughest tests of golf, will be the scene Tuesday of the 1948 edition of the Times-Herald class A Cup tournament.

A field of 86 low handicap players will compete in the Women's District Golf association sponsored 18-hole medal play handicap event.

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor club is the tournament's defending champion. The District champion is out to repeat her great performance of last year despite the field which will include such name stars as Mrs. W. R. Stokes, Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Mrs. Rex Howard, Mrs. S. F. Little and Mrs. L. G. Pray.

EIGHTY-SIX of this area's finest feminine golfers will tee off Tuesday at Prince Georges Golf and Country club in quest of the Times-Herald Cup, top honor in an 18-hole Women's District Golf association class A medal play handicap tournament.

Included in the large field of low handicapped players will be Mrs. A. B. "Bea" Bower, of Manor club, who won last year's event with a fine score of 79-2-77. Mrs. Bower, who came here as the Kentucky State titlist and has since added two District championships to her collection, is one of the smoothest swinging golfers in the entire Middle Atlantic section.

Long off the tee and with a crisp iron game, Mrs. Bower has had to restrict her tournament playing because she felt that raising a family was more important business. All of her tournament campaigning had to be done around home and for that reason the Manor club star had to let her club-mate, Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, battle unsuccessfully to bring the Maryland State title back to Washington.

Mrs. Bower makes one of her rare appearances Tuesday in a tournament which promises to be one of the toughest of the summer campaign. With such name players as Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Mrs. Rex Howard, Mrs. John Ives, Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Mrs. L. G. Pray, Mrs. S. F. Little, Mrs. O. L. Altman and Mrs. Marie Walper blocking her way to a successful defense of her laurels, Mrs. Bower is going to need some of that sensational shotmaking she used to beat Mrs. Meckley in the final of the city championship at Woodmont.

SKEE REIGEL will lay his National Amateur crown on the line at Memphis beginning August 30 and this section hopes to send a contingent strong enough to make its presence felt at the big Southern shindig. But the only way this can be done is to build up a sectional qualifying field large enough to increase the allotment of places for the Middle Atlantic area.

The Maryland State Golf association is running this section's show for the United States Golf association and the Old Line governing body actually is out to solicit entries for the sectional tests. The 36-hole trials are slated to be held August 18 at Baltimore Country club's Five Farms course.

The entry lists close at 5 p.m. on August 2 and must be in the office of the U.S.G.A. at 73 East 57th street, New York 22, N. Y.

Fast Fairways Help Women Golfers Set New Scoring Mark

This is the time of year for the average golfer to post his dream rounds, when the fairways are sun-baked and the ball rolls a mile and almost every course is conducive to low scoring.

It affects the middle handicap group more than others, as while the top players still take two strokes to reach the average par 4 hole the average player can also get home in two, while in winter, spring or fall the latter group does not have the distance to reach the green in regulation figures.

Last week end some of the scoring in intra-club play was phenomenal. Yesterday in the Class A section of the Women's District Golf Association's Times-Herald Cup play the scoring was the lowest in memory of anyone present. It took a net 69 to tie for the cup, while usually anything below the middle 70s is a sure winner.

The players who will return to Prince Georges tomorrow for the 18-hole playoff are Lois Gladding, one of the Nation's top duckpin artists who posted her lowest golf score, 80-11-69, and Ann Reh of Washington Golf and Country Club with 85-16-69 in her first round under 90, despite a seven on the 18th.

Miss Gladding started 3-3, birdies according to men's par, while Miss Reh birdied two, three and five as the players took advantage of shortened women's tees and fast fairways to go on a scoring spree.

Mrs. A. B. Bower, the defending champion, salvaged gross honors with a 78 but with only a one handicap that left her net score at 77. Mrs. Bower was out in 40 but played the back nine in 38, including the last six holes even with men's par. Mrs. Walter R. Stokes trailed with an 82, the best score behind those of Mrs. Bowers and Miss Gladding.

Other prize winners were: Mrs. J. W. Kinder of Prince Georges, 88-16-72; Mrs. C. B. Hartman of Indian Spring, 89-15-74; Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington, 85-11-74; Mrs. Michael Mehan of Belle Haven, 88-13-75; Mrs. F. C. Hunter of Kenwood, 91-16-75; Ruth Simon of Woodmont, 89-13-76, and Mrs. Charles Frownfelter of Prince Georges, 86-10-76. Two net 76s were matched out of the money, Mrs. John Long of Indian Spring with 89-13-76 and Mrs. Chester Morrill of Kenwood with 92-16-76.

The next events on the WDGA schedule will be the Class A and B sections of The Star Cup, oldest event on the card, both at Manor Country Club. The A section will play August 10 and B August 20.

Women Have Playoff for Golf Trophy

Ann Reh of Washington Country Club and Lois Gladding of the host club each posted a record-breaking low net score of 69 yesterday at Prince Georges Golf and Country Club to cause a playoff for the Class A Championship of the Women's District Golf Association and the Times-Herald cup.

The twin 69's, lowest net totals ever recorded in the association, will cause a special playoff Thursday.

Defending Champion Mrs. A. B. Bower, playing without a handicap, had to be content with low gross honors for her sparkling 78, the only sub-80 card in the field of 86.

Miss Reh toured the par 75 course in 41-44-85, Miss Gladding in 40-40-80. Miss Reh had a handicap of 17, Miss Gladding's 11.

Mrs. J. W. Kinder of Prince Georges was runnerup to the winner with an 88, 16-72. Other prize-winners in the order named were Mrs. C. B. Hartman of Indian Spring, 89, 15-74; Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington, 85, 11-74; Mrs. Michael Mehan of Belle Haven, 85, 13-75; Mrs. F. G. Hunter of Kenwood, 91, 16-75; Ruth Simon of Woodmont, 89, 13-76, and Mrs. Charles Frownfelter, Prince Georges, 86, 10-76.

Mrs. Werber Breaks Ice for Family as Golf Cup Winner

Bill Werber's baseball accomplishments are set forth in the record books, but when the brilliant infielder retired from baseball he took first to fishing and hunting and then was bitten mildly by the golf bug.

But Bill never seriously took to golf, so the first golf trophy in the Werber home was won by his wife, the victor in the Women's District Golf Association's Times-Herald Class B Cup tournament yesterday at Congressional Country Club.

Mrs. Werber has been knocking at the door in the medium-handicap events for some time and was in the prize list twice this year before posting her lowest score yesterday, a 96, minus 22 handicap strokes for a net 74.

Mrs. Werber and Mrs. G. R. Levy of Prince Georges actually tied for low net at 74, but Mrs. Levy previously had won a Class B event (last year's Post Cup), and as her 91 yesterday put her in Class A, she gracefully stepped aside and took low gross honors instead of playing off for a low net.

Mrs. Werber paired 48s for her 96 but showed a real comeback spirit on the back nine, when after having taken a big nine on the 13th hole she came back with a birdie two on the 14th. Mrs. Levy was out in 48 but back in 43 despite a seven on the 17th.

Other prize winners, in order, were: Mrs. William Welch of Manor, 92-17-75; Mrs. Kay Dyer of Prince Georges, 94-19-75; Mrs. R. H. Rife of Washington, 103-26-77; Mrs. Dwight Avis of Congressional, 104-27-77; Mrs. R. D. Young of Washington, 97-19-78; Mrs. Estelle Smith of Prince Georges, 100-22-78; Mrs. J. Kerr of Kenwood, 98-19-79, and Mrs. Virgil Myers of Kenwood, 104-25-79.

The latter won in a draw over Mrs. Willard Edwards of Manor, 100-21-79; Mrs. George Bond of Kenwood, 100-21-79; Mrs. T. E. Fairchild of Prince Georges, 102-23-79, and Mrs. Dallas Rand of Belle Haven, 97-18-79.

Mrs. Cochran, Manor Golfer, Wins Second Event in Two Days

Mrs. A. L. Cochran, a Manor Club golfer who had her handicap reduced on Tuesday after winning a women's golf committee event at her home club, had enough left to win the first Class C tournament of the Women's District Golf Association yesterday at Prince Georges.

Mrs. Cochran scored a 109-29-80 to top a field of 22 players in the recently inaugurated class of links-women with handicaps of 28 and over. On Tuesday she posted a 105-31-74 at Manor, a score that sliced two strokes from her allowance.

Low gross honors were won by Mrs. B. L. Eberts while other net awards were won by Mrs. Melvin Rose of Indian Spring, 120-36-84 and Mrs. D. G. Goetz of Washington, 116-32-84. Mrs. Ellen Hart of Washington was the best sport.

Woodmont Women's Golf Committee Chairman Mrs. Theodore Peyser announced Woodmont's second annual 18-hole medal play invitation tournament will be held Friday, August 6.

Each member club of the Women's District Golf Association is invited to send at least 10 players.

Mrs. Peyser and Mrs. Henry Goodman will accept entries until August 3.

95 Women Seek Class B Honors

A field of 95 high handicap players, a record for class B competition this year, will tee off today at Congressional Country Club in an 18-hole Women's District Golf association medal play handicap event for the Times-Herald Trophy.

Mrs. V. E. House, last year's trophy winner, and Mrs. Charles Jostes and Mrs. R. D. Young, who deadlocked for low gross honors, will be among the starters. Mrs. House posted a card of 99-21-78 to win main honors last year while Mrs. Jostes and Mrs. Young had 102 to tie for gross, which Mrs. Young won in a playoff.

The Times-Herald, in addition to the permanent trophy, is offering sterling silver prizes for the low net and low gross winners.

The first pair to tee off from the first tee will be Mrs. A. J. Loda and Mrs. J. R. Keppler of Manor, at 9 a.m. At 9:30, Mrs. R. O. Cork and Mrs. C. G. DeKay of Army and Navy, will be the first to drive off from the tenth tee.

Class C Golf Play To Mrs. Cochran

Mrs. A. L. Cochran of Manor Country club, captured the Women's District Golf association class C medal play handicap tournament yesterday at Prince Georges Country club with a card of 109-29-80.

Low gross honors in the high handicap event went to Mrs. B. L. Eberts of Congressional, with 112. Second low net honors were collected by Mrs. Melvin Rose of Indian Spring with 120-36-84.

Mrs. D. G. Goetz of Washington carted off the third low net award with a card of 116-32-84. Mrs. Ellen Hart of Washington received the prize for the tournament's best sport.

Mrs. Cochran's 80 Wins Golf Handicap

Mrs. A. L. Cochran of Manor Country Club won the Class C medal play handicap tournament of the Women's District Golf Association yesterday at Prince Georges Country Club. Her card was 109-29-80.

Mrs. B. L. Eberts of Congressional won low gross honors with a 112. Second low net was taken by Mrs. Melvin Rose of Indian Spring, 120-36-84. Mrs. D. C. Goetz was third low net, 116-32-84.

Winners of Times-Herald Class B Tourney Trophies

ciation; Mrs. William Werber, Columbia Country club, who won the low net prize, and Mrs. Gilbert Levy, Prince Georges Country club, who won the low gross trophy. Mrs. Werber's score was 96-22-74.

Times-Herald Golf Cup Won by Mrs. Werber

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Mrs. William Werber of Columbia Country club, and Mrs. G. R. Levy of Prince Georges Country club, posted low net scores of 74 yesterday at Congressional Country club in the Women's District Golf association class B tournament for the Times-Herald Cup, but after a conference between the two players it was decided not to risk a playoff for the coveted net trophy and that Mrs. Werber would take the net and Mrs. Levy the gross.

The pretty wife of Bill Werber, former major league star, played the long River Road course in 96 strokes and used a handicap allowance of 22 strokes to earn a tie with Mrs. Levy. The Prince Georges player, the wife of a former G-man, turned in a 91 and her handicap allowance of 17 strokes reduced her to a 74.

The Feminine Angle

But when the players were told by W.D.G.A. officials that should there be a playoff the loser relinquishes her right to low gross the two players got their heads together and figured that a bird in hand was worth two in a bush. So, in making the unique decision, Mrs. Levy was presented a sterling silver bowl offered by the Times-Herald for low gross, and Mrs. Werber received the sterling silver award for low net that goes along with temporary ownership of the permanent tournament trophy.

Mrs. Werber posted twin nines of 48, despite a near disastrous nine on the thirteenth hole, while Mrs. Levy was getting a 48 on the front nine and a fine 43 on the journey home.

Mrs. William Welch of Manor, and Mrs. Kay Dyer of Prince Georges, finished with nets of 75 to toss second low net in the event into another deadlock, The W.D.G.A. card matching system was used to untangle the tie and Mrs. Welch's 92-17-75 earned second place and Mrs. Dyer's 94-19-75 was dropped down into third place.

Mrs. R. H. Rife of Washington, produced a card of 103-26-77, to be declared the fourth place winner after card matching with Mrs. Dwight Avis of the host club, who finished with 104-27-77. Mrs. R. D. Young of Washington, last year's low gross winner, posted 97-19-78; to deadlock with Mrs. Estelle Smith of Prince Georges, who had 100-22-78. Mrs. Young edged out Mrs. Smith for sixth place.

Eighth place went to Mrs. Joseph Kerr of Kenwood, who had 98-19-79; and ninth low net went to Mrs. Virgil Myers of Manor, who had 104-25-79. Mrs. Willard Edwards of Manor, Mrs. George Bond, Kenwood; Mrs. T. E. Fairchild, Prince Georges, and Mrs. Dallas Rand of Belle Haven, also had nets of 79, but lost out in the card matching for two remaining prize places.

They Both Have an Interest in This Coveted Award

Miss Ann Reh (left) of Washington Golf and Country club and Miss Lois Gladding of Prince Georges, admire the Times-Herald cup, for which they fired low nets of 69 to tie yesterday in Class A competition on the Prince Georges course. They will playoff Thursday to decide possession of the award. Eighty-five golfers competed in the tourney.

Reh and Gladding Tie For Times-Herald Cup

By MAURY FITZGERALD

A new record for low scoring in a Women's District Golf association event was established yesterday at Prince Georges Golf and Country club where Ann Reh of Washington, and Lois Gladding of the host club, posted net scores of 69 to cause a playoff for the annual class A division of the Times-Herald Cup tournament.

Miss Reh, the first to report a record score, posted a card of 85-11-69 to tie the new mark. The pair will play off Thursday for the trophy.

Posts Low Gross

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor club, the defending champion, battered her 79-2-77 score of last year but had to be content with low gross honors for her 78 of yesterday. The pretty District titlist did a 40 on the front nine and a 38 on the back nine to be the only player in the field of 85 to break 80 over the long sun-baked course.

It was the first time in the long career of Miss Reh as a tournament player that she has broken 90. Starting with a big seven and finishing with another, Mrs. Reh was out in 41 and back in 43. She had birdies on the second, third and fifth holes for her fine outnine score and could easily have won the tournament all by herself with any kind of a finish on the comparatively easy 18th hole.

Forced to Finish Strong

Miss Gladding, on the other hand, had to put on a great finish with a brace of pars on the 16th, 17th and 18th holes to earn her place in the limelight. Getting out in 40, with birdies on the first and second holes, the Prince Georges player then returned with another nine of 40 for the finest round of golf she has ever played—tournament or otherwise.

Mrs. J. W. Kinder, another Prince Georges color-bearer, posted a net of 72, a score which win most class A tournaments. Getting an 88, and carrying a handicap allowance of 16 strokes, Mrs. Kinder finished third low net in the fast field.

Mrs. C. B. Hartman of Indian Spring, and Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington, finished with 74's to deadlock for the fourth low net position. Mrs. Hartman's 89-15-74 won in the card matching and Mrs. Egenroad's 85-11-74 was dropped back to fifth place.

Mrs. Michael Mehan of Belle Haven, and Mrs. F. G. Hunter of Kenwood, were next in line with nets of 75. Mrs. Mehan took the sixth place with her card of 85-13-75, and Mrs. Hunter seventh with 91-16-75.

Four players deadlocked for the remaining two prize places with nets of 76. Ruth Simon of Woodmont, was drawn into the eighth prize place with her card of 89-13-76, and Mrs. Charles Frownfelter of the host club, took ninth with 86-10-76. Drawn out of the winners' circle was Mrs. John Long of Indian Spring, 98-13-85, and Mrs. Chester Morrill of Kenwood, 92-16-76.

Gladding Wins Class A Playoff

Times-Herald Trophy Awarded P. G. Golfer

Lois Gladding captured the 18-hole playoff for the Times-Herald Cup yesterday at Prince Georges Golf and Country club, where the new Class A title holder fired a round of 87-11-76 to win easily over Ann Reh of Washington.

The players deadlocked for the Women's District Golf Association medal play handicap event on Tuesday with net scores of 69. But yesterday both players scored well above their performances in the tournament proper.

Miss Gladding, who had 80-11-69 on Tuesday, was out in 42 and back in 45 yesterday. Miss Reh did an 85-16-49 in the tournament proper and a 98-16-82 yesterday. The cards:

Mrs. A. B. Bower Maintains Hot Golf Pace at Woodmont

Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District women's champion and low scorer in the Woodmont Women's Invitation tournament yesterday with an even 80, is en route to one of the most impressive medal play performances over the season in the local record books.

In the seven tournaments in which she has taken part, only in the first round of the 36-hole Keefer Cup and in qualifying for the District championship, has Mrs. Bower's score been topped, and after failing to win the medal in the District she went on to win the title.

In the Post Cup, the NBC and in the invitation events at Indian Spring and Woodmont, Mrs. Bower could have won both low net and gross if two prizes were allowed, but in each event she accepted low net honors. In the Keefer and Herald Cup tournaments she won low gross.

In 10 tournament rounds this season she has been 80 or better eight times. Mrs. Bower's scores read like this: 84-80-78-79-80-80-86-78-75-80, for competitive rounds in cup competition. This does not include, of course, any of the match play rounds in the District championship, where in the final she had par for a 71 with four holes to play.

The former Kentucky and Maryland titlist will have another opportunity to add to her silver plate collection in The Star Cup Tuesday at Manor Country Club, Mrs. Bower's new home course.

Despite a 6-3-6 start, Mrs. Bower turned in an excellent 80 in the Woodmont Invitation and minus a one handicap won net honors with a 79. That left low gross to Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood with an 83.

Other net prize winners in the field of 65 were: Elinor Finckel of Columbia, 88-8-80; Mrs. C. T. Frownfelter of Prince Georges, 90-10-80; Mrs. Norman Brown of Prince Georges, 104-24-80; Mrs. George Freeman of Prince Georges, 100-18-82; Mrs. H. Kipp of Indian Spring, 106-24-82; Mrs. H. M. De Volt of Argyle, 100-17-83; Mrs. Rex

Howard of Kenwood, 86-3-83; Mrs. J. F. Gross of Columbia, 95-12-83, and Mrs. Elbert Harris of Kenwood, 91-8-83.

The Hopkins trophy tournament of the Washington Golf and Country Club Women's Golf Committee went to Mrs. R. L. Brister with 105-22-83 over Mrs. H. M. Nelson, 108-24-84; Mrs. W. E. Baker, 111-27-84, and Mrs. W. A. Price, 112-27-85. Low gross went to Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen with 94 and low putts to Mrs. G. W. Calvert.

The Congressional Club intracub tournament went to Mrs. V. B. Bagnall with 95-16-79 in class A. The class B winner was Nina Crampton with 99-23-76, and Mrs. A. G. Wood won class C with 119-36-83. Mrs. C. T. Penn and Mrs. C. J. Wilkinson tied for low putts with 30 each.

Mrs. Long's Finest Golf Round Captures Evening Star Cup

Mrs. John J. Long, who plays week-end golf for fun and staggers her annual leave from the Department of Agriculture's Tobacco Section to coincide with the Women's District Golf Association's tournament schedule, holds The Star's Class A Cup for a year after the best round of her life.

A 12-handicap player from Indian Spring, Mrs. Long paired 43s for an 86, and minus her allowance for a net 74 won the 31st playing of the women's oldest continuous tournament over a field of 88 yesterday at Manor Country Club.

It was the first tournament victory of Mrs. Long's career, although she almost won the Herald Cup last year. In that tournament Mrs. A. B. Bower finished late to edge Mrs. Long by a stroke.

Mrs. Long's handicap has fluctuated between 12 and 15 for several years, a consistent high-80 and low-90 shooter in her week end rounds and occasional tournament appearances. Everything was clicking yesterday as she hit 86 for the first time, and the new Star Cup champion staged a particularly fine finish, a 3 on the tough par 3 seventeenth and a par 4 on the dog-leg eighteenth, where she dropped a 7-footer to win the tournament by two strokes.

District Champion Mrs. Bower, who has won low net or low gross in every tournament this season, put together a 39 and 38 for 77 to keep her sub-80 streak intact in winning low gross by 3 strokes over Mrs. Rex Howard who, like Mrs. Bower, is a former Star Cup winner.

Mrs. Bower scrambled a bit for her 77, with her short game taking most of the credit for her fine score. Mrs. Howard said she knocked in three or four 30-footers, and that helped her to a woods nine score of 38.

Second low net went to Congressional's Mrs. H. M. Chapman with an 87-11-76, while matching cards settled a four-way tie for third in this order: Mrs. Jack Howard of Belle Haven, 92-15-77; Mrs. Rex Howard, 80-3-77; Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen of Washington Golf and Country Club, 87-10-77, and Mrs. J. R. Lewis of Prince Georges, 93-16-77.

The net 78 scorers also were prize winners, Mrs. Elbert Harris of Kenwood, with 86-8-78; Mrs. Burton Kintz of Prince Georges, 90-12-78, and Mrs. R. T. Brooks of Manor, 91-13-78.

Mrs. W. F. Patterson, president of the WDGA, and Mrs. M. J. Torklinski, vice president, presented the prizes.

The class B section of The Star Cup will be played August 20 at Manor Club.

The big class A cup goes to Indian Spring for the seventh time. Mrs. William S. Abell, last year's winner from Columbia, did not compete yesterday.

Mrs. Long Wins Star Cup Event

First Major Victory
For Indian Springer

By MAURY FITZGERALD

A new name broke into the winners' circle in Women's District Golf association class A competition yesterday at Manor Country club where Mrs. John Long, of Indian Spring Country club, filed a net score of 74 to be the victor in the Star Cup tournament.

Mrs. Long, who has campaigned in tournaments for a long time, had never won a major victory until yesterday. She was out in 43 and returned in 43 for a gross round of 86. She carried a handicap allowance of 12 strokes which gave her the featured net prize by a margin of two strokes.

Mrs. Bower Low Gross

Low gross in the 12-hole medal play handicap event went to Mrs. A. B. "Bea" Bower of the host club, who posted a fine round of 77. The city champion reached the turn in 39 strokes and then played the harder back nine in 38 strokes to keep her string of gross victories unbroken for the season. It also marked her third consecutive tournament in which she has broken 80.

Mrs. H. M. Chapman of Congressional, finished in second place with a card of 87-11-76. Mrs. Chapman, whose score appeared a certain winner until Mrs. Long appeared on the scene, did a 42 on the front nine and 45 on the back.

Four Tie for Third

Four players finished with net cards of 77, to deadlock for third low net and when the W.D.G.A. card shuffle was over Mrs. Jack Howard of Belle Haven, emerged on top with a card of 92-15-77. Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, drew the fourth place with her card of 80-3-77. Getting out in 38, Mrs. Howard took a six on the eighteenth hole for a 42.

Fifth place went to Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen of Washington, who turned in a card of 87-10-77, and sixth went to Mrs. J. R. Lewis of Prince Georges, with 93-6-77.

The pressure is on Bradley H. 95 tied her lowest round over her home course and, in addition to making the long putts, she never was out of the fairway.

Low gross honors went to Congressional's Mrs. Frank Murphy, jr., with a 96, a score that tied her best previous round. Mrs. Murphy has been playing less than three years and this was her second tournament and her first prize. Mrs. Murphy was scheduled to visit her children at summer camp yesterday, but she had a hunch she would win The Star Cup, so she begged off the visit.

Mrs. D. R. Monsees of Washington, who played the last few holes in the afternoon downpour that caught the late finishers, took second net with 102-22-80. Mrs. Monsees was five down to par after matching cards, which put her ahead of Mrs. H. M. Nelson of Washington with 102-22-80 and Mrs. Dwight Avis of Congressional, both six down.

Other prize winners were: Mrs. V. J. Erkenbeck of Army Navy, 101-20-81; Mrs. Harry Kipp of Indian Spring, 104-23-81; Mrs. Aline Fairchild of Prince Georges, 103-20-83, Mrs. A. J. Loda of Manor, 100-17-83 and Mrs. R. G. Lochiel of Congressional, 101-18-83.

Mrs. Roderick Watson, the Class B tournament chairman, and Mrs. George Jani, the prize committee chairman, conducted the tournament in efficient fashion in the absence of Mrs. W. F. Patterson, president of the Women's District Golf Association.

Mrs. Burrows Takes Star Cup Golf Tourney

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Things are going to be a lot different from now on in the household of Bradley H. Burrows.

For years Ted Burrows has been winning golf trophies but yesterday at Manor Country club, Mrs. Burrows won her first tournament—the Women's District Golf association class B event for the Star cup. The wife of the former seven-time city muni links champion filed a gross round of 48-47—95 and used a handicap allowance of 18 strokes for a winning net of 77.

Mrs. Murphy Wins Gross

Mrs. Burrows' score was also low gross for the event but because a player is allowed only one award, Mrs. Frank Murphy of Congressional fell heir to the prize with a 96.

Three players deadlocked for second place with net cards of 80 but rain-soaked Mrs. D. R. Monsees of Washington won out via the W.D.G.A. card-matching system. Mrs. Monsees, who played the last three holes of her round in a down-pour, posted a card of 102-22—80. Mrs. H. M. Nelson of Washington was third with 102-22—80; and Mrs. Dwight Avis of Congressional took fourth with 104-24—80.

Mrs. V. J. Erkenbeck of Army-Navy finished fifth with a card of 101-20—81; and Mrs. Harry Kipp of Indian Spring was drawn into sixth place with 104-23—81. Other prize winners were: A. J. Loda, Manor, 100-17—83; Mrs. Aliphe Fairchild, Prince Georges, 103-20—83, and Mrs. R. G. Lochiel, Congressional, 101-18—83.

Women's CBS Golf Play Faces 3-Week Delay

The Women's District Golf Association's CBS Cup tournament, a Class B event, will be re-scheduled in late September or early October, according to Mrs. W. F. Patterson, president.

The 18-hole medal play event was postponed yesterday because of rain. It was scheduled at Kenwood. Next week is women's club championship week and the following week the Middle Atlantic Tournament, and thus it will be impossible to hold it for at least three weeks.

Field of 100 Women To Compete Friday In Corby Cup Golf

The Women's District Golf Association will conclude its schedule of cup tournaments Friday in the annual Corby Cup tournament at Columbia Country Club. A field of 100, a record for the season, will compete in the Class A event.

The quarter-final rounds in the District Amateur championship also will be played Friday at Columbia, but in the afternoon. The last starting time for the women golfers is 10:48.

Pairings and starting times as announced by Mrs. Willard Edwards, acting Class A tournament chairman:

First Tee.

Meckley Takes Corby Cup Golf

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Braving the wind and the heavy rains which yesterday turned Columbia Country club's great course into a quagmire, Mrs. Betty P. Meckley of Kenwood, turned the annual Corby Cup Tournament into a one-gal show with a brilliant round of 82.

The round, described by Women's District Golf association officials as one of the great performances of the year, included twin nines and was played under conditions which made good golf almost an impossibility. But the conditions failed to hinder Mrs. Meckley's effort and the score was good enough for both low net and low gross.

The Kenwood star's decision to take the featured net prize made Mrs. Hugh Nicolson of Chevy Chase club, fall heir to the gross award. Mrs. Nicolson, with 45-44—89, was the only other player in the field of 85 starters besides Mrs. Meckley to break 90 over the puddled layout. Mrs. Meckley used a two stroke handicap to reduce her gross score to a net of 80.

Margaret Cox's card of 97-13-84, led for most part of the day until Mrs. Meckley's appearance dropped the Prince Georges club player down into undisputed possession of second place. She was out in 45 and back in 52 for a gross of 97 and used a handicap allowance of 13 strokes.

Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges, and Mrs. W. A. Walsh of Washington, reported net scores of 85, but Mrs. Walper's 90-5-85 earned the third place award via the W.D.G.A. card matching system. Mrs. Walsh, who had 101-16-85, took the fourth place prize.

Mrs. E. P. Moore of Army and Navy, produced the only net score of 86 to capture fifth place. The service club player turned in a gross of 92 and used a sixstroke handicap.

Mrs. Sasscer Sixth

Mrs. A. P. Sasscer of Argyle, had 98-11—87 to be sixth; and Mrs. William Gilliam of Belle Haven, took seventh with 99-12—87. The other winners were: Mrs. E. L. Egenroad, Washington, 97-9—88; Mrs. S. F. Little Jr., Army and Navy, 92-4—88; Mrs. H. E. Davies, Manor, 100-12—88; Mrs. George W. Bailey Jr., Washington, 96-8—88; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 91-3—88; Mrs. Franklin Babcock, Chevy Chase, 103-15—88; Mrs. Ann York, Army and Navy, 97-8—89; Mrs. M. J. Torlinski, Army and Navy, 99-10—89. Drawn out of the prize list were: Mrs. G. W. Calbert of Washington, 102-13—89, and Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince Georges, 97-8—89.

Fine 82 Posted in Rain By Mrs. Meckley in Corby Golf Win

The Women's District Golf Association Class A tournament schedule was concluded with the 21st playing of the Corby Cup Tournament at Columbia Country Club yesterday and it was fitting that the finale was marked by probably the finest round of golf of the season.

Mrs. Betty Meckley, newly crowned Kenwood Club champion, played from water-logged fairways and putt through streams of water on the greens over the last eight holes and still posted a 41-41—82 to win one of the few tournaments that had escaped her in previous years.

Eighty-five players of the original field of 103 braved threatening skies to start and the next best score, an 89 by Mrs. Hugh Nicolson of Chevy Chase, was seven shots higher than Mrs. Meckley's exceptional round. Mrs. A. B. Bower, District champion from Indian Spring, did not compete and thus her cup tournament streak was not broken.

Mrs. Meckley was the winner with 82-2—80, lowest net score by four strokes. The field struggled through casual water conditions on the back nine as the rain soaked the course to an extent the men's District amateur play, scheduled in the afternoon, was postponed.

Mrs. Bower Wins Medal In M.A. Play

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor Country club, compiled a two-over par 78 yesterday at Congressional Country club to be the medalist in the Women's Middle Atlantic championship.

Mrs. Bower, who won the Dis-

MRS. W. R. STOKES

trict championship earlier this year in sensational fashion and is the favorite to carry off this title, was out in 40 and back in 38 to barely nose out Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, a clubmate and former champion, and Mrs. S. F. Little sr. of Army and Navy, both of whom had scored earlier 79s.

A Former Ky. Champion

Mrs. Bower, former Kentucky State champion, had a chance to have an even lower score but a triple-bogey six at the comparatively easy par-three ninth kept her from an under-par performance on the front nine.

By the luck of the draw, Mrs. Bowers drew a tough assignment in Betty Garber, the tall school teacher who got into the championship flight with an 84. Mrs. Little, who was 40-39-79, plays Jane Vogel of Baltimore Country club, who got in with an 85, and Mrs. Stokes, who also was 40-39-79, plays Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, another 85 shooter.

Three Tie for Third

Third low scoring honors were divided between Mrs. Betty P. Meckley of Kenwood, and Baltimore Country club's Mary Ann Downey and Mrs. T. E. Schludenberg with 81's. Mrs. Meckley was off to a poor start with a 43 but returned in 38, drew Mrs. D. H. Henderson of the host club, her conqueror in the 1946 District amateur. Miss Downey plays Mrs. S. B. Crocker of Kenwood, and Mrs. Schludenberg faces Mrs. R. D. Watson of Manor.

Mrs. Bower's card and starting times, scores and pairings for today's match play rounds are as follows:

Mrs. Bower — Out—525 454 546—40
In—543 545 534—38—78
Women's par—Out—435 554 553—49

Mrs. Bower Cards 78 to Win Medal

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor Country Club topped the field of Middle Atlantic women golf qualifiers yesterday at Congressional Country Club, winning the medal with a score of 78.

Mrs. Bower managed the two-over par figure despite a wobbly ninth hole where she used six strokes on a par 3. But she hit back at par with five birdies, on the second, fourth, eighth, eleventh, and seventeenth holes.

It was an auspicious return to Middle Atlantic competition for the one-time Kentucky and Maryland State champion who had to pass up this event last year in favor of a new addition to the family.

In 1946, she was Middle Atlantic runnerup to Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, of Manor, who finished one stroke behind Mrs. Bower yesterday with a 79. Mrs. S. F. Little, jr., Army-Navy, the current Fort Benning women's champion, also had a 79.

Mrs. Bower recently changed her membership to Manor from Indian Spring, where she once held the women's championship. She passed up the Manor women's championship tournament last week to prepare for this week's activities.

The title flight is composed of 12 Washington area players, the three Baltimoreans and Mrs. Herbert Allen, jr., of the James River course in Newport News, Va.

Mrs. Allen won a place in the title flight by scoring a par four on the first hole in a playoff for the sixteenth position. Mrs. Theodore Peyser of Woodmont, Mrs. G. P. Moore of Army-Navy, and Mrs. George Calvert of Washington Golf and Country Club took fives.

Today's pairings, starting times, and qualifying scores:

Medalist Wins First Match, 1-Up

The Middle Atlantic women golfers yesterday proved themselves excellent mudders, playing their first round of match play at Congressional Country Club through a daylong deluge with nary a default.

In a championship flight loaded with top-ranking area linkswomen, no real upsets were recorded.

Perhaps the closest thing to an upset was June Vogel's defeat of Mrs. Ann Stonemetz Little, 3 and 1. Miss Vogel, who was the Baltimore Country Club champion in 1946 at the of 21, had her bags packed before her match with the Fort Benning titlist. Tied up at the end of 14 holes, Miss Vogel took the next three holes to win going away, 3 and 1.

Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District champion who won the qualifying medal with 78, took the full 18 holes to defeat Elizabeth Garber, a District school teacher. Mrs. Bower trailed her opponent for 15 holes before she rallied to even it up on the 16th, finally gaining her one-hole margin of victory on the 17th. They halved the 18th.

Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood had an even steeper uphill grind in her match against Mrs. S. F. Little, sr., of Army-Navy. Mrs. Trouchaud had to make up a four-hole deficit at the turn to beat Mrs. Little, 1 up.

The lone south Virginian entered, Mrs. Herbert Allen, Newport News, survived the day, beating Mrs. L. G. Pray, of Columbia, 1 up, in 22 holes.

Somebody "big" has got to fall in today's matches, as Mrs. Walter Stokes, of Manor, and Mrs. Betty Meckley, of Kenwood, with five Middle Atlantic titles between them, meet in the second round. Both have recently won their club championships.

Mrs. Meckley had no great difficulty in disposing of Mrs. D. H. Henderson, 4 and 2, yesterday. Mrs. Stokes, whose game was somewhat ragged, won a 2 up victory over Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood.

Yesterday's results:

Championship Flight

Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Miss E. Garber, guest, 1 up; Miss M. A. Downey, B.-C. C., defeated Mrs. S. B. Crocker, 2 up; Miss J. Vogel, B.-C. C., defeated Mrs. S. F. Mrs. Bower Pressed To Win M. A. Match

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Favorites in the women's Middle Atlantic championship wallowed home like trained ducks in the rain yesterday at Congressional Country club, but not before Mrs. A. B. Bower, the medalist, got the scare of her young life.

Mrs. Bower, who has already carted off the District championship, had to overcome a two-hole deficit before nosing out Betty Garber, the schoolmarm, 1 up, on the last green. Miss Garber got out in 40 over the rain-soaked layout and held a 2-up advantage at the turn, but Mrs. Bower shot a par on the last hole to earn the verdict.

Mrs. Bower's opponent today will be little, swashbuckling Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore Country club, who ousted Mrs. S. B. Crocker of Kenwood, 2 up.

The nearest thing to an upset was Jane Vogel's 3 and 1 victory over Mrs. S. F. Little, jr. The tall Baltimore Country club star, who faces a stiffer test in Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood today, played good, steady golf in ousting the Army and Navy club player on the 17th green.

The most decisive victory was the 8 and 6 pasting handed Mrs. R. D. Watson, of Manor, by Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, of Baltimore Country club. Mrs. Schluderberg's opponent today will be Mrs. Herbert Allen, of Newport News, Va., who accomplished a slight upset in defeating Mrs. L. G. Pray, of Columbia, 1 up, in 22 holes.

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, a former holder of the title, earned a shaky 2 up decision over Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood. The Kenwood player led Mrs. Stokes for most part of the wet journey and finally was able to catch and pass Mrs. Howard with a great back nine rally.

Mrs. Stokes meets Mrs. Betty P. Meckley of Kenwood, in the second round. Mrs. Meckley avenged a licking handed her in last year's District championship by Mrs. D. H. Henderson by eliminating the host club star, 4 and 2.

Championship Flight—Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Betty Garber, unattached, 1 up; Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore, C.C., defeated Mrs. S. B. Crocker, Kenwood, 2 up; Jane Vogel, Baltimore, C.C., defeated Mrs. S. F. Little jr., Army and Navy, 3 and 1; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. S. F. Little sr., Army and Navy, 1 up; Mrs. W. R. Stokes, Manor, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 2 up; Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, 4 and 2; Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, Baltimore, C.C., defeated Mrs. R. D. Watson, Manor, 7 and 6; Mrs. Herbert Allen, James River, defeated Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, 1 up in 22 holes.

Second Flight—Mrs. S. Brown, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. T. Peyser, Woodmont, 2 and 1; Mrs. Ann York, Army and Navy, defeated Mrs. John Long, Indian Spring, 3 and 2; Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Washington, defeated Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel, Congressional, 3 and 1; Ruth Simon, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. W. F. Foley, Kenwood, 3 and 1; Mrs. G. P. Moore, Army and Navy, defeated Mrs. J. Conklin, Army and Navy, 5 and 3; Mrs. D. L. Altman, Army and Navy, defeated Mrs. A. Lewis, Army and Navy, 3 and 2; Mrs. E. Harris, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith, Woodmont, 3 and 2; Mrs. P. Costello, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. W. S. Parson, Army and Navy, 2 up.

Third Flight—Mrs. H. M. Chapman, Congressional, defeated Mrs. D. Weir, Congressional, 5 and 4; Mrs. E. C. Atwood, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Marie Spates, Prince Georges, 9 and 8; Mrs. E. S. Hanson, Congressional, defeated Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, 4 and 3; Mrs. R. G. Gable, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. W. E. Welch, Manor, 2 and 1; Mrs. G. M. Jani, Congressional, defeated Mrs. B. H. Burrows, Manor, 1 up in 19 holes; Mrs. D. Lewis, Congressional, defeated Mrs. T. F. Wessels, Congressional, 4 and 3; Mrs. A. J. Phelan, Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. C. B. Monro, Kenwood, 3 and 2; Mrs. J. L. Geddes, Congressional, defeated Mrs. J. S. Myers, Congressional, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Bower Also Gains Semifinals

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes easily defeated Mrs. Betty Meckley, 5 and 3, in the battle of former champions which featured yesterday's Middle Atlantic Golf Tournament quarterfinals at Congressional County Club.

Off to a 1-up lead at the turn, Mrs. Stokes of Manor closed out the match on the fifteenth hole. She played out her round, though, and carded a fine 78.

Her victory leaves Mrs. Stokes as the only former Middle Atlantic titleholder in the field. She won the title in 1939 and '46. Mrs. Meckley captured the crown in 1935, '37 and '44.

The best golf of the quarterfinals was turned in by Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor. The District Amateur queen whipped Baltimore's Mary Ann Downey, 7 and 6. Leading 5 up at the halfway mark, she ended the match with a brilliant 40-foot putt, which gave her a birdie 2 on the twelfth green.

Mrs. Bower also played out the 18 holes and finished with 76, ladies' par.

Mrs. Bower's foe in today's semifinals is June Vogel of Baltimore, who squeezed out a 1-up victory over Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood.

Mrs. Stokes' semifinals opponent is Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, who nosed out Mrs. Herbert Allen, jr., of Newport News, Va., 2 up.

Championship flight quarterfinals results: Mrs. A. B. Bower (Manor) defeated Miss Mary Ann Downey (Baltimore), 7 and 6; Miss June Vogel (Baltimore) defeated Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud (Kenwood), 1 up; Mrs. Walter R. Stokes (Manor) defeated Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood), 5 and 3; Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg (Baltimore) defeated Mrs. Herbert Allen, jr. (Newport News), 2 up.

Today's championship flight semifinals pairings: Mrs. Bower vs. Miss Vogel, 9:50; Mrs. Stokes vs. Mrs. Schluderberg, 9:55.

Championship flight consolation quarterfinals results:

Mrs. S. B. Crocker (Kenwood) defeated Miss Elizabeth Garber (unattached), 2 and 1; Mrs. S. F. Little, jr. (Army-Navy) defeated Mrs. S. F. Little, sr. (Army-Navy), 3 and 2; Mrs. D. H. Henderson (Congressional) defeated Mrs. Rex Howard (Kenwood), 3 and 2; Mrs. L. G. Pray (Columbia) defeated Mrs. R. D. Watson (Manor), 6 and 5.

Today's championship flight semifinals pairings:

Mrs. Crocker vs. Mrs. Little, jr., 9:20 a. m.; Mrs. Henderson vs. Mrs. Pray, 9:25.

Mrs. Stokes Defeats Miss Vogel for Title

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor Country club, carted off her third Middle Atlantic women's championship yesterday at Congressional Country club, defeating June Vogel, inexperienced 23-year-old Baltimore Country club player, 6 and 5.

The tall, long-hitting Baltimorean failed to show the form she displayed in upsetting the favored Mrs. A. B. Bower in the semifinals and Mrs. Stokes, who won the title in 1938 and 1946, could have routed Miss Vogel by an even greater score had she chose to do so. Twice times in the match Mrs. Stokes three-putted and on both occasions it appeared that the Manor club champion was trying to let her younger opponent down easy.

Not a single hole was halved on the front nine. Mrs. Vogel winning one and Mrs. Stokes taking 8 to be 7-up at the turn. Getting out in 39 and hitting the ball like a champion should, Mrs. Stokes won the first five holes in 1-under par women's figures.

Miss Vogel took her first hole at the sixth with a bogey 5 when Mrs. Stokes missed the green badly and took four shots to get down. Mrs. Stokes birdied the seventh and parred the eighth and ninth holes to go 7-up.

At the tenth Mrs. Stokes three-putted from 12 feet to let the pretty Baltimore Country club lassie win her second hole and decrease the new champion's lead to six holes. The edge went back to seven for Mrs. Stokes at the 11th where she needed two putts for a birdie.

Miss Vogel again cut the lead to six taking the 12th with a par. At that hole Miss Vogel hit a great tee shot to within eight feet of the pin and needed only to play safe for a sure par and a win over Mrs. Stokes, who had missed the green and played a poor approach.

Mrs. Stokes played three great shots to the long par five 13th green and needed only two-putts from 18 feet to make the final count 7 and 5. But Mrs. Stokes, needing only a six to end matters, deliberately three-putted to keep the score down.

Mrs. S. F. Little jr., of Army and Navy Country club, carried off top honors in the championship consolation flight, defeating Mrs. D. H. Henderson of the host club, 5 and 4. In the second flight Mrs. E. P. Moore of Army and Navy was the winner, defeating Ruth Simon of Woodmont, 4 and 2. In the consolations Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith of Woodmont, won a 4 and 3 decision over Mrs. W. F. Foley of Kenwood.

Mrs. A. J. Phelan of Chevy Chase was the third flight victor, defeating Mrs. E. C. Atwood of Kenwood, 5 and 4. The consolation division went to Mrs. Davis Weir of the host club, a 1-up victor over Mrs. T. F. Wessles of Army and Navy.

Mrs. Stokes Also Gains Title Round

Statuesque June Vogel of Baltimore sprang the biggest upset of the Middle Atlantic Golf Tournament as she eliminated Medalist Mrs. A. B. Bower, 1 up, in the semifinals yesterday at Congressional Country Club.

The 23-year-old Western Maryland alumna, who has never won a major tournament was joined in today's finals by Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, who has won the M. A. crown twice.

Mrs. Stokes swept past Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg of Baltimore, 4 and 3, in their semifinals match yesterday.

Pushed to the eighteenth in each of her two previous match play performances, Miss Vogel squeezed by with the narrowest of victories yesterday. Both she and Mrs. Bower used 81 strokes over the 6472-yard layout, but Miss Vogel's putter came through for her at the most strategic times.

Forewarning what was to come, Miss Vogel won the first and fifth holes with a par four and five to go two up. The Manor star squared the match with a par four on the sixth and birdie four on the seventh. Miss Vogel moved ahead again on the ninth with a par four.

The District Amateur queen moved into a short-lived lead by winning the tenth and eleventh holes. But Miss Vogel was back to win the twelfth, thirteenth and fifteenth. Mrs. Bower rallied to win the seventeenth. But Miss Vogel sank a 2-foot putt to halve the last hole and wrap up the victory.

Mrs. Stokes was off to an unsteady start when Mrs. Schluderberg hank a 35-foot putt for a birdie three on the first hole. Mrs. Stokes squared the match on the second hole, went three up at the turn, halved the first five holes on the back nine, and closed out with a par four on the fifteenth.

Championship flight semifinals—Mrs. June Vogel (Baltimore) defeated Mrs. A. B. Bower (Manor), 1 up; Mrs. Walter R. Stokes (Manor) defeated Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg (Baltimore), 4 and 3. Final today at 10 a. m.

Second flight semifinals—Mrs. R. S. Simon (Woodmont) defeated Mrs. Ann York (Army-Navy), 4 and 3; Mrs. E. Harris (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. E. P. Moore (Army-Navy), 7 and 6. Final today at 9:45 a. m.

Third flight semifinals—Mrs. E. C. Atwood (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. E. J. Hanson (Congressional), 1 up; Mrs. H. J. Phelan (Chevy Chase) defeated Mrs. G. M. Jani (Congressional), 1 up, 21 holes. Final today at 9:30 a. m.

Cup Golf Paced By Mrs. Stokes

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Bundled up in sweater, muffler and wind-breaker, Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, the Middle Atlantic champion, played Columbia Country club's long, water-soaked course in 84 strokes yesterday to take the lead in the first round of the 54-hole Payne trophy tournament.

The Manor club champion, getting out in 43 and back in 41, built up a lead of two strokes over her field for the gross division of the event and finished in a tie for the net lead with Mrs. Betty P. Meckley of Kenwood, at 81. Mrs. Meckley, the national senior champion, posted a gross round of 86 and used a five-stroke handicap, while Mrs. Stokes was handicapped at three.

The big disappointment of the day was Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor, the District titlist, who found the soggy going not to her liking and finished with a round of 90. Mrs. Bower was out in 46 and back in 44 and used a handicap of three to wind up with a net 87.

Third place in the net scramble was Mrs. H. E. Davies of Manor, and Mrs. F. C. Hunter of Kenwood, both of whom had nets of 82. The Manor club player posted 95-13—82; and Mrs. Hunter was 94-12—82.

Mrs. S. F. Little jr., of Army-Navy, and Mrs. R. D. Watson of Manor, were next in line for scoring honors with nets of 83. The pretty service club star was 86-3—83, while Mrs. Watson was 94-11—83.

All alone in the 84 department was Mrs. George E. Martin of Manor. Mrs. Martin, the most improved of this year's campaigners, was 95 for her round and used an 11 stroke handicap.

The second round will be played today and the final on Friday. Pairings for today and yesterday's scores are as follows:

9:30, Mrs. George Jani, Congressional (109-11—98) and Mrs. E. C. Atwood, (105-7—96).

Kenwood (111-14—97), 9:35, Mrs. M. Scandiffio, Manor (108-14—94) and Mrs. Helen Sasser, Indian Spring (110-12—97), 9:40, Mrs. Ralph Zuber, Manor (105-14—91) and Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor (106-13—93), 9:45, Mrs. W. S. Mrs. Stokes' 84 Takes Lead In Payne Cup

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, recent winner of the Middle Atlantic championship, took a first-round lead yesterday in the 54-hole Payne Cup golf tournament at Columbia Country Club.

The veteran Manor queen stroked an 84, creditable for the wet, slow conditions. Trailing Mrs. Stokes were Mrs. S. F. Little, jr., of Army and Navy, and Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, each with 86.

The field of 32 continues play at 9:30 this morning with another round of 18.

Today's starting times and yesterday's scores:

9:30 a. m.—Mrs. George Jani (Cong.), 109; Mrs. E. P. Atwood (Kenwood), 111.

District Women Beaten By Baltimore Golfers

By MAURY FITZGERALD

The Women's District Golf association team took its second straight trouncing from a picked aggregation of Baltimore players yesterday at Prince Georges Golf and Country club, 14 to 4.

Though the final count was a lopsided one, every one of the matches were close. So close, in fact, that five of the six four-somes went to the last hole before a decision was reached.

Mrs. Boyce's 80 Tops

Mrs. Prevost Boyce, former Kentucky State champion, playing the No. 2 spot for the invaders, fired an 80 over the long Prince Georges course to be the low individual scorer and the one who started Washington on the downward.

Mrs. Boyce paired with Mrs. Maurice Glick to take two points out of a possible three against Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Bower.

In the second match, Baltimore took all three points when Mary Ann Downey and Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg won the ninth hole with a birdie to take the first side from Mrs. Betty P. Meckley and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson and then won the back nine by the same score.

Invaders Take Long Lead

Baltimore took a long lead when Mrs. Charles Ness and Mrs. M. Louise Bell took all three points from Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud. In the fourth match, Mrs. Claude Richards and Jeanette Myers of Baltimore won all three points from Mrs. L. G. Pray and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith to insure the Monumental City team's second victory in as many matches this year.

The only victorious Washington team was Mrs. L. B. Platt and Mrs. E. P. Moore, who took 2½ points to a ½ for Mrs. Redmond Stewart and Mrs. Jerome Sloman. In the sixth and last match, Mrs. Donald Murray and Mrs. Bertram scored 2½-½ for Baltimore over Mrs. K. S. Giles and Mrs. Sam Crocker.

District Women's Golf Team Beaten Again by Baltimore

Baltimore's women's golf team scored another convincing triumph over Washington, 14-4, today at the Prince Georges Country Club to sweep the home-and-home series.

The past two years Baltimore won the honors in a rubber match of the series, but today's 10-point triumph followed a 14½-3½ victory scored in the spring.

Maryland State Champion Mrs. Maurice Glick and Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce took two out of three points from District Champion Mrs. A. B. Bower and Mrs. W. R. Stokes, recent winner of both the Middle Atlantic and Payne Cup titles. Mrs. Boyce, like Mrs. Bower, an ex-Kentucky champion, had an 80 and Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Glick posted 82s.

The low best ball of the day was a 78 by Mrs. Charles Nes, jr., and Mrs. M. Louise Bell of the visitors and it included two pars by Mrs. Nelson Holes where she encountered penalty strokes.

In the only match in which Washington held the edge, Mrs. Landra Platt and Mrs. E. P. Moore won 2½ to ½ for Mrs. Jerome Sloman and Mrs. Redmond Stewart, jr. Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Moore played perfect partner golf to win the front nine, 1 up, and the back nine was halved.

Results: Baltimore, 14; Washington, 4.
Mrs. Maurice Glick (Woodholme) and Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce (Elkridge) of Baltimore scored 2 points to 1 for Mrs. Walter R. Stokes (Manor) and Mrs. A. B. Bower (Manor) of Washington.

Mary Ann Downey (Baltimore C. C.) and Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg (Baltimore C. C.) of Baltimore scored 3 points to none for Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood) and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson (Chevy Chase) of Washington.

Mrs. Charles Nes, jr. (Green Spring Valley) and Mrs. M. Louise Bell (Baltimore C. C.) of Baltimore scored 3 points to none for Mrs. Rex Howard (Kenwood) and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud (Kenwood) of Washington.

Jeanette Myers (Suburban) and Mrs. Claude E. Richards (C. C. of Maryland) of Baltimore scored 3 points to none for Mrs. L. G. Pray (Columbia) and Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith (Woodmont) of Washington.

Mrs. Jerome Sloman (Suburban) and Mrs. Redmond Stewart, jr. (Green Spring Valley) of Baltimore scored ½ point to 2½ for Mrs. Landra Platt (Chevy Chase) and Mrs. E. P. Moore (Army-Navy) of Washington.

Mrs. Donald Murray (Rolling Road) and Mrs. Bert Friedman (Suburban) of Baltimore scored 2½ points to ½ for Mrs. K. S. Giles (Indian Spring) and Mrs. S. B. Crocker (Kenwood) of Washington.

Mrs. Stokes Makes Bid for 3d Golfing Triumph in Row

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, who regained her winning touch in the Manor Club championship last month, and then went on to win the Middle Atlantic title, takes a two-stroke lead into the second round of the Payne Cup tournament today in a bid for her third straight tournament triumph.

The 54-hole medal play event for women golfers of Maryland and the District—which is the most important medal event on the sectional schedule—is made up of an all-Washington field for the first time. The fact that the Baltimore players were here just two weeks ago for the Middle Atlantic championship probably is the reason for their absence. Baltimore's Mrs. Maurice Glick won last year.

Mrs. Stokes posted a creditable 84 in the first round yesterday at Columbia Country Club as the scores ran high because the course was long and heavy and the players were bundled up. The leader's round was two strokes better than the 86s of Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood and Mrs. S. F. Little, jr., of Army Navy. They were the only players to break 90.

District Champion Mrs. A. B. Bower posted her highest total of the season, a 90, and trails Mrs. Stokes by six strokes with 36 holes to play. Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood also had 90s and Mrs. E. P. Moore and Mrs. S. F. Little, sr., of Army Navy 91s.

Mrs. Stokes also was the coleader in the net scoring with Mrs. Meck-

Mrs. Trew Wins CBS Golf Event With Net of 76

The sun finally shone for the Women's District Golf association class B CBS Trophy tournament yesterday and the thrice rained-out high handicapped event was won by Mrs. Fred Trew of Columbia, with a net score of 76.

The pretty winner, who rushed away to attend a wedding after grabbing her cup on the fly, turned in a gross round of 100 and used a handicap allowance of 24 strokes. She was out in 48 and back in 52.

Mrs. R. D. Young of Washington, and Mrs. Herman Neugass of Woodmont, deadlocked for the low gross prize with cards of 98 but rather than go through a play-off, Mrs. Neugass elected to take third low net with an 80 and Mrs. Young, last year's gross winner via a playoff, fell heir to the gross.

Mrs. Harry Kipp of Indian Spring, took the second net with 101-22-79. Fourth went to Mrs. Paul Barefoot of Washington, in a draw, with 103-23-80. The other winners were: Mrs. Y. Jesson, Prince Georges, 106-25-81; Mrs. A. L. Cochran, Manor, 105-24-81; Mrs. Dwight Avis, Congressional, 106-24-82; Mrs. R. H. Northwood, Army and Navy, 101-18-83; Mrs. Flora Nooter, Manor, 101-18-83; Mrs. Alfred Brand, Belle Haven, 102-19-83; Mrs. W. A. Price, Washington, 110-26-84; Mrs. Helen Watzman, Indian Spring, 111-27-84.

George Bernard of Washington, is the only known golfer ever to hit a President of the United States with a golf ball. Bernard was playing at East Potomac in 1923, when one of his shots struck President Harding in the seat of the pants. The first Bernard knew of it was when two Secret Service men grabbed him. They merely cautioned him about being more careful. . . . Bernard is still playing golf at East Potomac. And his luck is still good. Last Sunday he started out with three golf balls and when he ended his round he had 14.

Golf World reports a wonderful pun by a Miami golf fan who was a little tired of watching Cary Middlecoff, the world's slowest player, go through his antics. Middlecoff walked in and out of a trap, selected one club after another, walked to the green, took a dozen practice swings and just as he was about to hit the ball a plane flew over and he stopped. "That plane took off from La Guardia Field just as Middlecoff started to play that shot," the fan said in disgust.

Oh, but she's different—
She uses a golf ball —
