Major Class Revision, Smaller Fields Slated For Woman Golfers

By Merrell Whittlesey

Approximately 110 women golfers will be shut out of tournament golf next season—simply because the District's private courses with their jam-packed membership lists cannot spare the golfing gals enough time for their competitive activities.

Last year the Women's District Golf Association listed 403 active members with handicap cards—a total that will be cut to less than 300 next season in the opinion of Mrs. W. E. Patterson, who yesterday was elected to a second term as president of the association.

Instead of catering to women golfers with handicaps of scratch through 36, the association probably will reduce the maximum handicap limit for tournaments to 26 next year. Based on last year's lists, Class A will be from one through 14 handicaps with 111 members; Class B, 15 through 20 with 100 members, and Class C, 21 through 26 with 85 members.

In addition to the District championship, the WDGA now has six major cup tournaments for both the A and B class players. But, to take care of the new C class, sponsors may be asked to rearrange their cups so that each class will have four medal-play tournaments.

In the past year the Class A and B fields became too bulky and it has become increasingly difficult to obtain courses for the large fields. Under the new plan the maximum tournament entry list probably would not exceed 75.

But Mrs. Patterson does not plan to leave the 27 to 36 handicapped golfers without an incentive. Heretofore the association has allotted funds for a junior golf program that never has been successful. Those funds would be earmarked for special events for the beginner class linkswomen.

Next season the tournament fields will be bigger than ever because Argyle and Bethesda Country Club both became members of the association and members of those clubs will swell the entry lists.

Instead of discouraging the high-handicapped players, Mrs. Patterson is of the opinion that the new system, which the Executive Committee is expected to approve, will give the 27-36 handicap players added incentive to reduce their handicaps to where they will become eligible for the major tournaments.

Three other officers were re-elected at the annual meeting at the Wardman Park Hotel: Mrs. M. J. Torlinski of Army Navy as first vice president; Mrs. J. S. Myers of Congressional as secretary, and Mrs. H. O. Porter of Columbia, treasurer. The only newcomer to the slate was Mrs. M. M. Alexander of Washington and Columbia, who succeeds Mrs. Willard Edwards of Indian Spring as second vice president.

Women's Star Cup Golf Friday at Washington Attracts 73 Players

The Class A section of The Star Cup tournament, oldest event on the Women's District Golf Association schedule, will open the tournament season Friday at Washington Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. R. C. Sutliff, Assistant Class A tournament chairman, announced pairings and starting times for a field of 73 players for the 18-hole medal play handicap event.

The Class A Cup tournament is for players with handicaps of 14 and under. The Class B event, for WDGA members with handicaps of 15 through 20, tentatively is scheduled for June 1 at Chevy Chase but will be changed because it conflicts with the National Open qualifying rounds.

Friday's field will include Mrs. John Long of Indian Spring, last year's winner with an 86-12-74, and Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor, gross winner last year with a 77 at Manor Club.

Star Cup Golf Begins Today

Seventy-three golfers tee off this morning in the first event of the District Women's Golf Association at Washington Country Club. The Star Cup Class A women start off at 8:30 instead of the original 9 a. m. tee off time.

Favorite Score of 78 Wins Star Golf Cup For Mrs. Bower

The 32d play for The Star Cup inaugurated the Women's District Golf Association's medal play schedule yesterday, but there was little to indicate that it was a brand-new season.

Last year Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District woman's champion, had 78 in the first tournament of the season, 78 in her last one and in between shot 78 to win gross honors in The Star Cup, oldest event on the schedule. It was her favorite score all season.

Washington Golf and Country Club played a trifle slow yesterday and it was hot and humid climbing the hills of the Virginia course, but there was Mrs. Bower with her same 78, this time good for the cup. Mrs. Bower deducted a 1 handicap from her 78, lowest score of the day by seven strokes, to win net honors by one shot.

Putts Well at Finish.

The former Maryland and Kentucky champion, as well as twice District titlist, was hitting for accuracy and distance with her woods, but putting only so-so for 16 holes. Then after trapping a second shot on the 17th Mrs. Bower putted out of the trap and dropped an 8-footer for a 4. On the 18th, she calmly rapped in a 15-footer for a par 4 to avert a playoff.

Mrs. Bower, who had 41-37 for the nines, scored her first victory here when she first won The Star Cup in 1945.

Until Mrs. Bower staged her smashing finish there was a two-way tie for net between Mrs. George H. Bailey, Jr., a former host club champion who had 46-40-86-8-78, and Mrs. Paul Streit of Army Navy with a pair of 44s for 88-10-78. Mrs. Streit won second net by matching cards.

A former Star Cup winner, Mrs. Betty Meckley, added to her low gross triumphs in the tournament with an 85, despite a flock of three-putt greens, which usually are not a part of the Kenwood player's game.

Other Prize Winners.

Other prize winners, in order, were: Mrs. M. H. Dinneen of Washington with 98-9-80; Mrs. George Martin of Manor, out in 50, but back in 40 for 90-8-82; Mrs. Ora Emge of Prince Georges with 91-9-82; Mrs. H. H. Goodman of Washington, 95-13-82, and Mrs. William Walsh, the fourth host player in the prize list, 97-14-83.

Two players, Mrs. Calvin Hartman of Indian Spring with 97-14-83 and Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional 89-6-83, had little luck and were drawn out of the prize list.

Inasmuch as Mrs. Bower could accept only one prize, Mrs. Meckley won gross over Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor, who was a stroke back with an 86.

Birdie Earns Net 76 . . .

Fancy Putt Wins Star Cup Golf for Mrs. A. B. Bower

A 25-foot uphill putt which rolled precisely into the cup on the 18th green won the Star Cup trophy yesterday for Mrs. Albert B. Bower, of Manor Country Club, in the first tournament of the Women's District Golf Association.

Leading a field of 67 players over the trick Washington Golf and Country Club course, Mrs. Bower shot 41, 37-78 with a birdie on the 18th hole. Mrs. Bower, with a 1 handicap, had low net honors as well as low gross score. She elected to take the low net, and the cup.

Mrs. Betty Meckley, of Kenwood Country Club, carded a 42, 43-85 to take the low gross prize.

Mrs. Paul Streit, of Army and Navy Country Club, competing in her first District event, and Mrs. George Bailey, Jr., of Washington Country Club, tied for second low net with 78's, but in accordance with the rules of the W. D. G. A., Mrs. Streit was the winner when the matched cards showed her to be 1 down to par, while Mrs. Bailey was 3 down to par.

Mrs. M. H. Dinneen, also of Washington, was the fourth low net winner, with an 89-9-80.

Other winners:
Fifth low net, Mrs. George Martin, Manor, 90-8-82, 3 down to par. Sixth low net, Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince Georges, 91-9-82, 5 down to par. Seventh low net, Mrs. H. H. Goodman, Washington, 95-13-82, 5 down to par. Eighth low net, Mrs. William A. Walsh, Washington, 97-14-83, 4 down to par.
Mrs. C. B. Hartman of Indian Spring and Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, with net 83's, were eliminated from the prize winners in the matching of the cards.

"A wonderful shot, Popsie . . . but, strangely enough, your clubs are all out here!"

76 Women in Keefer Cup

Women Golf Stars Open Play for Keefer Cup

The top women golfers in the District opened play today in the annual Keefer Cup competition of the WDGA at Chevy Chase. A field of 76, all with handicaps of one through 12, started.

The low 32 net scorers will qualify for tomorrow's 18-hole final in the 36-hole medal play handicap tournament. Mrs. Hugh Nicolson of the host club is defending champion.

76 Women Golfers In Keefer Cup Play

Seventy-six feminine golfers will tee off today at Chevy Chase club in the first round of the 36-hole Women's District Golf association tournament for the Mrs. Frank R. Keefer Cup.

Garber Leads In Keefer Cup With 77 Round

By MAURY FITZGELAND

Betty Garber, a former local high school physical instructor, took the first day lead in the annual 36-hole Women's District Golf association tournament for the Keefer Cup yesterday at Chevy Chase club with an opening net round of 77.

The tall, smooth-stroking Argyle Country club player posted an 82, the low gross round of the day, and used a five-stroke handicap to hurtle into a five-shot lead on her field. Getting out in 43, with a near-disastrous seven at the eighth, Miss Garber returned in 39.

Mrs. Foley Has 80

And oddly enough, another Argyle representative—Mrs. R. Foley—took undisputed possession of second place with a net 80. Mrs. Foley, a comparative unknown, turned in a gross score of 91 and used an 11-stroke handicap to earn the second spot.

Third place was taken by Mrs. William A. Walsh of Washington Golf and Country club, with 95-14-81. Fourth place was filled by five players with net scores of 82. They were Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, the Middle Atlantic champion; Mrs. David N. Clark, a former Middle Atlantic titlist; Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional; Mrs. Robert Wilson of the host club, and Mrs. John Mancos of Belle Haven.

Tie for Eighth

Mrs. Stokes turned in an 83, the day's second low gross round, and the Manor club star used a one stroke handicap to earn her place among the net 82 shooters. Mrs. Clark had 88-6-82; Mrs. Henderson, 88-6-82; Mrs. Wilson, 96-14-82; and Mrs. Mancos, 93-11-82.

Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, and Mrs. George Bailey jr., of Washington, finished with nets of 83 to tie for eighth place. Mrs. Howard had 87-4-83 and Mrs. Bailey, 91-8-83.

Mrs. Nicolson, a former Middle Atlantic champion and winner of this event last year, finished with 88-3-85 to find herself in a six-way tie for tenth place.

A field of 76 players braved the chilly weather in the opening round but only the first 32 low scorers and ties were allowed to remain for today's second round. Net scores of 89 made the qualifying grade and 35 players finished in that group.

Miss Garber's cards and scores, pairings and starting times are as follows:

Betty Garber Paces Tourney, Hurries Off to Practice Tee

The young lady hitting practice shots at Rock Creek yesterday afternoon was the Keefer Cup leader—Betty Garber of Argyle Country Club, who passed up cocktails and lunch at Chevy Chase to iron out the kinks after shooting the best round of the day.

Miss Garber took a three-stroke lead into the second and final 18 today of the major medal play tournament on the Women's District Golf Association schedule. She played Chevy Chase in 82 strokes, deducted a five handicap allowance for a net 77.

But the former school teacher wasn't content with that round, despite finishing 4-5-4-4 on four rugged par four holes for the men. And as her new home club, Argyle, was a good many miles out just to make the trip for a few practice shots, she went to her old stamping grounds—Rock Creek.

A lot of the women golfers were rooting hard for Miss Garber today. Last season she had two good rounds in the District women's championship before losing to Mrs. A. B. Bower, but before her defeat Miss Garber ran into petty difficulties—one because she was playing unattached and another because she once encouraged her Wilson High pupils to play golf, which some thought touched on professionalism.

Again in the Middle Atlantic championship Miss Garber was among the low qualifiers, but ran smack into Mrs. Bower in the first round, shot an 80 and lost. Mrs.

D. C. Clubs Hosts In Maryland Golf

The flip of a coin was kind to District clubs for Sunday's semifinals in the Maryland State Golf Association's team championship, as both Washington Golf and Country Club and Prince Georges will entertain Baltimore rivals.

The break was particularly a fortunate one for Washington, which has hopes of upsetting the defending champions over its home course, but had little hopes of scoring a surprise if the match was to be played in Baltimore. Prince Georges will rule a heavy favorite over its home course.

Bower passed up the current tournament.

Argyle, which never has held the Keefer Cup, was in a good position to gain temporary possession. The second low net scorer was another Argyle player—Mrs. Richard Foley, who had 91-11-80 in her first District women's tournament. Mrs. Foley formerly played at Indian Spring.

The first-round leader proved to be low in both net and gross play. The second best gross score of the day was a 43-40—83 by Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, who, in turn, was 4 strokes ahead of Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, whose 87 was third low gross.

In third place in the net division—which determines the cup winner—was last year's Duffer's Cup champion, Mrs. William Walsh of Washington Golf and Country Club, who justified her new class A rating with a 95-14—81.

Five tied with net 82s, Mrs. Robert Wilson of Chevy Chase with 96-14—82; Mrs. John Mancos of Belle Haven, 93-11—82; Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, 88-6—82; Mrs. Davis H. Clark of Chevy Chase, 88-6—82, and Mrs. Stokes, 83-1—82. Mrs. Howard was 87-4—83, along with Mrs. George H. Bailey, Jr., of Washington, 91-8—83, while last year's champion, Mrs. Hugh Nicolson of Chevy Chase, had 88-3—85.

Betty Garber Leads Golf

Miss Betty Garber of Argyle Golf Club took the lead in both low gross and low net scores in the first day's play of the Keefer Cup at Chevy Chase yesterday.

Miss Garber carded an 82 gross, and with a 5-point handicap deduction had a 77 for a 3-point lead over the field of 70 players.

Today's pairings and times:
9:30, Miss Betty Garber, Argyle, and Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor; 9:34, Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, and Mrs. David Clark, Chevy Chase; 9:38, Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson, Chevy Chase; 9:42, Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, and Mrs. Betty Meekley, Kenwood; 9:46, Mrs. Landra Platt, Chevy Chase, and Mrs. J. P. Trenchard, Kenwood; 9:50, Mrs. George Bailey, Jr., Washington, and Mrs. R. Foley, Argyle; 9:54, Mrs. Karl Giles, Indian Spring, and Mrs. John Mancos, Belle Haven; 9:58, Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, and Mrs. E. P. Moore, Army and Navy.
10:02, Mrs. Samuel Crocker, Kenwood, and Mrs. William Walsh, Washington; 10:06, Mrs. Henry Bodman, Chevy Chase, and Mrs. S. W. Parsons, Army and Navy; 10:10, Mrs. F. C. Hunter, Kenwood, and Mrs. Webb Hayes, Chevy Chase; 10:18, Mrs. J. S. Phillips, Army and Navy, and Mrs. Arnold Wilcox, Chevy Chase; 10:22, Mrs. John Long, Indian Spring, and Mrs. Davis Weir, Congressional; 10:26, Mrs. Fred Lewis, Prince Georges, and Mrs. H. L. Davies, Manor; 10:30, Mrs. W. R. Jarman, Kenwood, and Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont; 10:34, Mrs. Lloyd Dennis, Washington; Mrs. E. H. Goodman, Washington, and Mrs. Franklin Babcock, Chevy Chase.

Betty Garber, Mrs. Foley Meet In Keefer Cup Golf Playoff

By Merrell Whittlesey

Mrs. Richard Foley, who today was engaged in a playoff for the Keefer Cup at Chevy Chase with Argyle clubmate Betty Garber, yesterday introduced something new in women's golf when asked by a reporter to "tell me something about yourself."

"I'm 37 years old and have a 19-year-old daughter," Mrs. Foley said, thus shocking all within hearing, as there is an unwritten law in women's golf that such statements are taboo.

"I work for the Public Health Service," Mrs. Foley continued, "am tickled to death that Argyle finally is going to win something. I was terribly nervous today, I three-putted too many greens and nobody is more surprised than I am that I tied for the cup. And I'm just a week-end golfer. This is my second tournament."

No one as frank and obliging as Mrs. Foley would object to the above statements being printed. As soon as the tie was official, Mrs. Foley called her boss and received permission to play off for the cup today.

For the first time since Mrs. Frank Royer Keefer, 1930-31-32 president of the Women's District Gold Association, donated the cup, it was headed for Argyle. Miss Garber, first-round leader over Miss Foley, has been a member of the club for a few weeks.

Betty had rounds of 82 and 86 for a 168 total and deducted 10 handicap strokes, 5 each day, for a 158 net. Mrs. Foley had 91 and 89 for 180, minus 22 handicap strokes, for 158. Thus in today's medal playoff Mrs. Foley received six more strokes than Miss Garber.

Going into the 15th hole yesterday, Betty had the same number of strokes that she required for the same distance in her excellent round of 82 on opening day, a round played under far worse weather conditions. But where she finished 4-5-4-4 in the first round, she finished 6-4-5-6 yesterday and that was the difference in the former public links player's score.

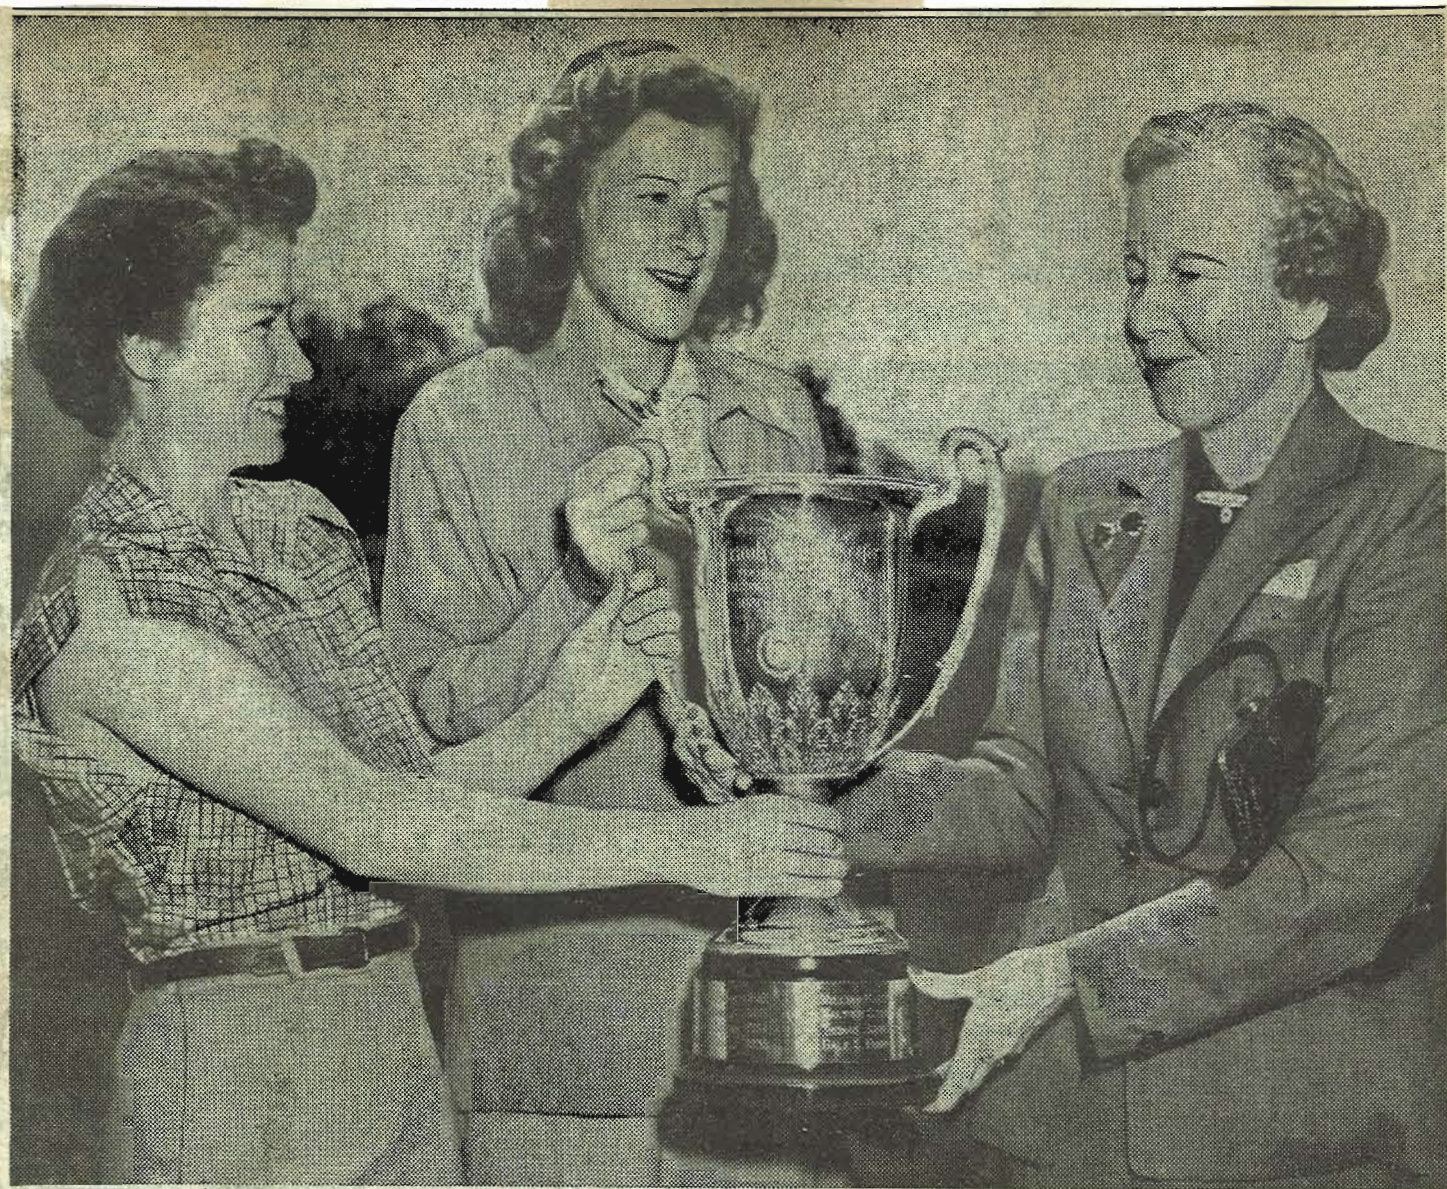

There wasn't the usual wholesale switch in places among the prize winners. Mrs. William Walsh of Washington Golf and Country Club retained third place with a pair of 95s for 190, minus a 28-stroke allowance for a net of 162. Mrs. Robert Wilson of Chevy Chase, better known for her tennis play, retained fourth place with 96-97—193—28—165.

Former Keefer Cup winner, Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor, whose 83-86—169 was a stroke higher than Miss Garber's gross score, won gross as a player is limited to one prize. Mrs. Stokes was five strokes better than the next best gross score.

Other net prize winners were Mrs. Landra Platt of the host club, a former winner, with 90-86—176—10—166; Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional 88-90—178—12—166; Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia, two-time winner and yesterday's low scorer, 89-85—174—8—166, and Mrs. Henry Bodman of Chevy Chase, 95-92—187—20—167.

Mrs. Keefer and Mrs. W. F. Patterson, current president of the Woman's District Golf Association, officiated at the prize presentation.

Argyle Women Share Keefer Golf Cup—for Now

Yep, it's all smiles now as (left to right) Mrs. Richard Foley and Miss Betty Garber accept the Frank Royer Keefer trophy from Mrs. Keefer after they tied for the low net score in the Keefer Cup tourney finals yesterday at Chevy Chase. But it'll be all business today when Mrs. Foley and Miss Garber play off the tie for the cup.

Garber, Foley to Settle Keefer Cup Tie Today

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Both Betty Garber and Mrs. Richard Foley had the coveted Keefer Cup tucked safely away standing on the 18th green yesterday at Chevy Chase club but both Argyle Country club players three-putted and this morning at 10 a.m. the two clubmates meet in an 18-hole playoff to decide a winner in the 36-hole Women's District Golf association tournament. Both players finished with net scores of 158.

Miss Garber, a former high school physical instructor and the first day leader at 82-5-77, finished early with 86-5-81, and had to sit nervously by as one after another of the challengers fell by the wayside. And then along came Mrs. Foley needing to get down in two on the treacherous 18th to be the winner but she, too, took three putts to allow a reprieve for Miss Garber.

In Second Tourney

Mrs. Foley, playing her second W.D.G.A. tournament, had finished in second place on Wednesday with 91-11-80 and yesterday she was 89-11-78. And three-putter at the home green wasn't her only one of her round for the little Argyle player took five others, any of which would have spelled victory for her.

Miss Garber's rounds of 82 and 86 were also low gross for the tournament but the tall former munny links star elected to go after the event's main award—a trophy played for each year in honor of Mrs. Frank Royer Keefer, a former two-time president of the W.D.G.A. Miss Garber's decision made Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, of Manor, the gross prize winner with a 169 score. The Middle Atlantic champion opened with a round of 43-40 and closed with 42-44.

Third place in the net division of the tournament went to Mrs. William A. Walsh, of Washington, with a net score of 162. Mrs. Welsh, who was third going into yesterday's round with 95-14-81, and yesterday she posted the same score, failing to improve her position.

Mrs. Robert Wilson of the host club, earned the fourth place award with a 165 net score. The Chevy Chase player opened with 96-14-82 and closed with 97-14-83.

Three players finished with 166 nets to deadlock for fifth place. Mrs. Landra B. Platt of Chevy Chase, was given the position via the WDGA card matching system and Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional took sixth and Mrs. L. G. Pray of Columbia had to be content with seventh place.

The eighth and final net prize place went to Mrs. Henry Bodman of Chevy Chase with 167.

Betty Garber, Mrs. Foley Tie For Golf Cup

Two clubmates, both newcomers to competition in the Women's District Golf Association events, scored low nets of 158 in the final day's play of the Keefer Cup, throwing honors for first place into a tie, and necessitating a play-off at Chevy Chase at 10 a. m.

Miss Betty Garber and Mrs. Richard Foley, both representing Argyle Country Club, started the days' round with three strokes difference in score, Miss Garber having turned in an 82-5-77, and Mrs. Foley a 91-11-80 for the first 18 holes.

Miss Garber, a former physical ed instructor, found considerable difficulty on the greens. She took three putts on the eighteenth green and ruined her chances for a clear title. She carded nines of 43's for 86 with a handicap of 5 for 81.

Mrs. Foley, a week-end golfer, playing only the second time in local tournaments, was out in 44, and carded a 45 on the back nine despite three 3-putt greens. Her handicap of 11 gave her a net 78, and a tie for the cup.

Mrs. Walter Stokes, of Manor Country Club, was automatically declared the low gross winner of the tournament with 169, although she was one stroke off, when Miss Garber elected to by-pass her claim to that spot. Mrs. Stokes had an 83 on Wednesday for second low gross, and 86 yesterday.

Other winners: For 36 holes of competition—
Third low net, Mrs. William A. Walsh, Washington, 95-14-81; 95-14-81-162.
Fourth low net, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Chevy Chase, 96-14-82; 97-14-83-165.
Fifth low net, Mrs. Landra Platt, Chevy Chase, 90-5-85; 86-5-81-166.
Sixth low net, Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, 88-6-82; 90-6-84-166.
Five down to par.
Seventh low net, Mrs. L. G. Pray, Columbia, 89-4-85; 85-4-81-166. Six down to par.
Eighth low net, Mrs. Henry Bodman, Chevy Chase, 95-10-85; 92-10-82-167.

Mrs. Foley Wins Keefer Playoff From Mrs. Garber

Mrs. Richard Foley of Argyle Country Club yesterday defeated her clubmate, Miss Betty Garber, in the playoff for the Keefer Cup at Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Foley, with an 11-stroke handicap, scored a 94 for a net 83, but Miss Garber, playing one of the poorest rounds of her golfing career, managed a 92, and with a 5 handicap allowance, netted an 87.

Mrs. Foley actually won the cup on the seventeenth hole when, with a rare chance to tie up the score, Miss Garber took a disastrous seven to the winner's bogie 5.

Keefer Golf Cup To Mrs. Foley

Mrs. Richard Foley captured the Keefer Cup golf tournament yesterday at Chevy Chase club in the all-Argyle Country club playoff, defeating Betty Garber by four shots with a net of 83.

The two clubmates finished with 36-hole net scores of 158 on Thursday to cause the playoff that ended in Mrs. Foley's favor with a card of 94-11-83. Miss Garber had a 92-5-87.

Miss Garber took 44 strokes to play the front nine and appeared to be well on the road to take the coveted trophy when her opponent took 48. But on the back nine the victor took 46 and Miss Garber 48, with a seven at the seventeenth and a six at the eighteenth. The cards:

Mrs. Foley—
Out..... 565 546 674-48
In..... 565 455 556-45-94-11-83
Miss Garber—

Mrs. Foley Becomes First From Argyle To Win Keefer Cup

Mrs. Richard Foley was a bit more consistent in playing to her handicap and thus won the play-off for the Keefer Cup yesterday at Chevy Chase in her second start in a Women's District Golf Association tournament.

After rounds of 91 and 89 in the 36-hole medal play handicap event, Mrs. Foley had 94 in the playoff and deducted 11 handicap strokes for a net 83. The Argyle player's clubmate, Betty Garber, soared to 92 in the playoff, minus 5 handicap strokes for a net 87, after gross rounds of 82 and 86 in the tournament proper.

Mrs. Foley and Miss Garber tied with net scores of 158 at the end of 36 holes. The cup went to Argyle for the first time.

Mrs. Rand Wins WMAL Golf Cup

Mrs. Dallas Rand of Belle Haven Country Club, scoring a 94-17-77 was the winner of the WMAL Cup tournament yesterday at Congressional in the first Class B event of the Women's District Golf Association. Mrs. Rand's 94 was also good for the low gross, but she elected to take the net cup instead.

The low gross honors went to Mrs. Bradley Burrows of Manor Country Club, who shot a 95. The host club came up with a winner when Mrs. Frank Murphy, jr., turned in a 96-17-79 to take the second low net prize. Third low net went to Mrs. Joseph Kerr of Kenwood, with a 96-17-79.

Other winners:
Fourth low net, Mrs. R. H. Northwood, Army and Navy, 97-18-79, 4 down to par; fifth low net, Mrs. Mildred Jorg, Indian Springs, 96-16-80, 6 down to par; sixth low net, Mrs. Robert McNaull, Bethesda, 100-20-80, 7 down to par; seventh low net, Miss Nina Crampton, Congressional, 98-17-81.
Mrs. Carl Matthews, Congressional; Mrs. James Geddes, Congressional; Mrs. Walter Densmore, Belle Haven, and Mrs. G. R. Gable, Kenwood, all with net 81's were drawn out of the prize winners under the matching of cards system demanded by the association.

First Golf Cup for Mrs. Rand Won With WMAL Meet Net 77

The WMAL Class B tournament of the Women's District Golf Association produced a first-time cup winner at Congressional Country Club yesterday in Mrs. Dallas Rand of Belle Haven, who shot a 94 and deducted 17 handicap strokes for a net 77.

Mrs. Rand went to Pro Tommy Ryan at Belle Haven three years ago and said she'd like to start playing golf. Under Ryan's constant tutelage she has improved each year and is about ready to move into Class A. Mrs. Rand has finished in the prize list of Class B tournaments before, but never on top.

The winner's 94 also was good for gross honors, but with each contestant limited to one prize the low gross went to Mrs. Bradley Burrows of Manor with a 95. Mrs. Burrows was the only prize winner in her family this week as her husband finished out of the money in the Kenwood Invitation and their son was eliminated in the schoolboy tournament.

Other prize winners, in order, were: Mrs. Frank Murphy, jr., of Congressional, 96-17-69; Mrs. Joseph Kerr of Kenwood, 96-17-79; Mrs. R. H. Northwood of Army Navy, 97-18-79; Mrs. Mildred Jorg of Indian Spring, 96-16-80; Mrs. Robert McMaull of Bethesda, 100-20-80, and Nina Crampton of the host club, 98-17-81.

Mrs. Maksim's Low Net 78 Wins Manor Duffer Cup

Mrs. George Maksim of Manor Country Club, won the Duffers Cup yesterday in the first event sponsored by the Women's District Golf Association for higher handicapped players. Her score of 102 minus a 24 handicap gave her a low net of 78.

Mrs. H. M. Nelson of Washington with 100 was the low gross winner. Second low net went to Mrs. J. J. McCarthy of Indian Spring, with 106-26-80.

The third place award was won by Mrs. Harry Kipp, also of Indian Spring with 106-26-80. A tie for fourth place between Mrs. H. C. Fisher and Mrs. Verne Wilson, both of Columbia, necessitated a "sudden death" playoff. Mrs. Fisher was the winner, retaining fourth place, while Mrs. Wilson dropped down to the fifth for the last prize.

Mrs. Saunders' Net 77 Takes Star's Class B Trophy Golf

Almost deciding not to show up for the ninth annual Washington Star Class B Trophy golf competition at Chevy Chase Club yesterday, Mrs. DeButts Saunders of Belle Haven took advantage of her sex's privilege by changing her mind and then proceeding to win the event with a 93-16-77.

Mrs. Saunders' doubts about playing in the Star Cup tourney were caused by the fact that a round of golf the day before had left her tired, but rather than cause confusion in the pairings she put in an appearance.

The casual manner in which she participated, plus a 9 on an early hole which seemed further reason to play with abandon, brought out the best in her game, believes Mrs. Saunders, enabling her to edge Mrs. Edgar Kreutzberg of Kenwood and Mrs. Clyde Hammersla of the same club, who finished in a tie for second low net with 98-20-78.

Mrs. Saunders turned the front nine in 51, but returned in 42 for her winning 77.

Low gross was a tie at 94 between Mrs. Jack Smith, Prince Georges, and Mrs. Walter Densmore, Belle Haven. They will play off for this prize Monday at Chevy Chase.

Other prize winners:

Fourth low net, Mrs. Robert Keeler (Kenwood), 96-17-79; fifth low net, Mrs. Dallas Rand (Belle Haven), 96-16-80; sixth low net, Mrs. J. D. Morgan (Kenwood), 97-16-81; seventh low net, Mrs. Tracey Fairchild (Prince Georges), 101-20-81; eighth low net (won draw), Mrs. Charles A. Thomason (Argyle), 97-16-81.

Other scores: Mrs. Paul Barefoot (Washington), 101-20-81; Mrs. Charles Jorg (Indian Spring), 96-15-81; Mrs. William Werber (Columbia), 101-20-81; Mrs. J. Northwood (Army Navy), 99-18-81; Mrs. Herman Neugass (Woodmont), 98-17-81; Mrs. James Geddes (Congressional), 100-18-82; Miss Nina Crampton (Congressional), 99-17-82; Mrs. John Gunn (Kenwood), 100-18-82; Mrs. Norman Brown (Prince Georges), 102-20-82; Mrs. Howard C. Woster (Prince Georges), 101-19-82; Mrs. E. R. Ferguson (Kenwood), 102-19-83; Mrs. Joseph Kerr (Kenwood), 99-16-83.

Mrs. Saunders Wins Star Cup With 93-16-77

By Leila Edwards

Mrs. DeButts Saunders of Belle Haven Country Club, yesterday won the Star Cup in a tournament for Class B players sponsored by the Women's District Golf Association.

Leading a field of 69 players over the difficult Chevy Chase course, Mrs. Saunders scored a 93, and with a 16 handicap had a net 77 to win the cup by one stroke.

There was a two-way tie for low gross when Mrs. Walter Densmore, also of Belle Haven, and Mrs. Jack Smith of Prince Georges both posted 94s. There will be a play-off for the gross award next Monday.

Mrs. Edgar Kreutzberg of Kenwood was the second low net winner with 98-20-78, 1 up to par.

The third spot went to Mrs. Clyde Hammersla, also of Kenwood, with a 98-20-78, 2 down to par.

Another Kenwood entrant, Mrs. Robert Keebler, placed fourth with 96-17-79, 4 down to par.

Mrs. Dallas Rand of Belle Haven was fifth with 96-16-80.

Other winners were Mrs. J. D. Morgan, Kenwood, 97-16-81, 2 down to par; Mrs. Tracy Fairchild, Prince Georges, 101-20-81, 2 down to par, and Mrs. Charles A. Thomason, Argyle, 97-16-81, 3 down to par.

Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Bower Tie for Low at 79

By Leila Edwards

Two Manor Country Club stars, Mrs. A. B. Bower, and Mrs. Walter Stokes, were comedialists yesterday in the qualifying rounds of the Women's District Golf Association Championship at Columbia. Playing in the same twosome, they carded identical nines of 39 and 40, for 79st, to be three strokes over women's regulation figures.

Mrs. Bower, who is the defending title-holder, waived her right to a playoff for medalist honors to Mrs. Stokes who was also 1948 medalist.

The first flight pairings revealed the familiar names of Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, 82; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 84; Miss Elinor Finckel, Columbia, 85; Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, 86, and Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges, 86.

A newcomer to District competition took the eighth spot when Mrs. W. B. Pollard of Arlington, Va., playing as an unattached member, turned in an 87.

A playoff for the last place in the first flight took place when Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington and Mrs. Webb Hayes of Chevy Chase reported 93s. Mrs. Hayes won out in the "sudden death" that followed.

Pairings and times for the first round of match play follow:

FIRST FLIGHT

Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, (79) vs. Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith, Woodmont, (90) at 10:00. Miss Elinor Finckel, Columbia, (85) vs. Miss Betty Garber, Argyle, (91) at 10:05. Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, (82) vs. Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, (82) at 10:10. Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, vs. Mrs. George Martin, Manor, (91) at 10:15. Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor, (79) vs. Mrs. John Mancos, Belle Haven, (90) at 10:20. Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges, (86) vs. Mrs. Arnold Willcox, Chevy Chase, (91) at 10:25. Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, (84) vs. Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, (90) at 10:30. Mrs. W. B. Pollard (unattached) (87) vs. Mrs. Webb Hayes, Chevy Chase, (93) at 10:35.

Mrs. Bower Ties For Golf Medal, Gives It to Foe

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and defending champion Mrs. A. B. Bower, both of Manor Country club, posted scores of 79 yesterday to deadlock for low medal honors in the Women's District Golf association championship at Columbia Country club, but in an unprecedented decision Mrs. Bower conceded the medal to her clubmate rather than participate in a playoff.

Both cards were almost identical, Mrs. Bower taking a six on the long par five fifth hole and Mrs. Stokes a seven. Mrs. Bower led Mrs. Stokes by a stroke going into the sixteenth but took a bogey there to a three for Mrs. Stokes.

In this morning's first round matches, Mrs. Bower meets Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith of Woodmont, who qualified with a 90. Mrs. Stokes, opening opponent will be Mrs. John Mancos of Belle Haven, a qualifier with a 90.

Mrs. Webb Hayes of Chevy Chase and Mrs. C. L. Egenroad of Washington posted 93's to tie for the last qualifying place and Mrs. Hayes took a four on the first playoff hole to earn the place. Mrs. Betty P. Meckley was third in the qualifying with an 82 and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud was next with 84. Results and pairings:

FIRST FLIGHT

10:00—Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor (79) vs. Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith, Woodmont (90). 10:05—Elinor Finckel, Columbia (85) vs. Betty Garber, Argyle (91). 10:10—Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood (82) vs. Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood (82). 10:15—Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional (86) vs. Mrs. George Martin, Manor (91). 10:20—Mrs. W. R. Stokes, Manor (79) vs. Mrs. John Mancos, Belle Haven (90). 10:25—Mrs. Marie Walper, Argyle (86) vs. Mrs. Arnold Willcox, Chevy Chase (91). 10:30—Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood (84) vs. Mrs. John Ives, Columbia (90). 10:35—Mrs. W. B. Pollard, Unatt. (87) vs. Mrs. Webb Hayes, Chevy Chase (93).

SECOND FLIGHT

10:40—Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington (93) vs. Mrs. R. R. Hayman, Indian Spring (99). 10:45—Mrs. Michael Meehan, Belle Haven (97) vs. Mrs. George Jani, Congressional (101). 10:50—Mrs. John F. ## Three Ex-Champions Challenge Mrs. Bower In District Golf

The District women's golf championship enters the match-play phase today at Columbia with co-favorites Mrs. A. B. Bower, the defending champion, and Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, the Middle Atlantic and Payne Cup winner of last year, in opposite halves of the draw.

Teammates on Manor's District championship first team for eight straight weeks, Mrs. Bower and Mrs. Stokes requested they qualify together. They played almost stroke for stroke all the way around, halving 11 holes, and tied for the medal with 79s, the same score with which Mrs. Stokes won the medal last year at Woodmont.

But there is no assurance they will meet in the final. In the top half of the draw with Mrs. Bower, who conceded the medal to Mrs. Stokes rather than play off, is Mrs. Betty Meckley, who lost to Mrs. Bower in the title round last year when Mrs. Meckley was after her fourth title. In addition, there is Betty Garber, the Argyle player, who came up with her poorest round in District competition, a 91, yet qualified with two strokes to spare.

Mrs. Stokes, who is after her fourth District title after winning in 1941-2 and '47, has a former champion with her in the bottom bracket in Mrs. Marie Walper of Prince Georges. A little known contender in the bottom bracket who qualified with a respectable score is Mrs. W. B. Pollard of Purcellville, Va. Mrs. Pollard, who shot 87, is an unattached member of the association.

Mrs. Meckley's 82 was the second best score yesterday and today she runs smack into her regular playing partner, Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood. Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood was fourth low scorer with an 84 and Elinor Finckel, Columbia's all-sports star, had 85.

Mrs. Webb Hayes of Chevy Chase won the playoff for the last spot in the title fight over Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington. Mrs. Hayes' 4 on the first extra hole was a nice comeback after an 8 on the last hole sent her in the playoff.

One round a day is scheduled through the final Friday afternoon.

Championship flight pairings:

Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor (79) vs. Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith, Woodmont (90). Miss Elinor Finckel, Columbia (85) vs. Miss Betty Garber, Argyle (91). Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood (82) vs. Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood (82). Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional (86) vs. Mrs. George Martin, Manor (91). Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor (79) vs. Mrs. John Mancos, Belle Haven (90). Mrs. Marie Walper, Prince Georges (86) vs. Mrs. Arnold Willcox, Chevy Chase (90). Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood (84) vs. Mrs. John Ives, Columbia (90). Mrs. W. B. Pollard, unattached (87) vs. Mrs. Webb Hayes, Chevy Chase (93).

Women's D. C. Title Tourney Heads Big Week in Golf Here

Tournament golf hits better than a two-event-a-day pace this week, starting with the qualifying round for the District women's championship today at Columbia Country Club and Al Jamison's pro-amateur at the Quantico Marine Base course.

A field of 71 women teed off at Columbia in the week-long play for the District championship. Tomorrow the District Junior at Washington and the National Public Links qualifying at East Potomac are scheduled for one-day stands, while Wednesday the five-day Congressional Member-Guest Invitation gets underway.

D C Women's Amateur Set At Columbia

COLUMBIA COUNTRY CLUB is rapidly gaining the moniker, "Home of the Tournaments." In the last two weeks two major tournaments have been held there with another scheduled for the coming week.

Ralph Bogart burned up the 6612-yard course to win the Middle Atlantic amateur championship there June 7, 8, 9. Bogart defeated Jim Gardner, 2 and 1, in the finals.

This weekend Bogart is favored to retain his Maryland State amateur championship again at Columbia. Ralph faces Jim Gardner again in the 36-hole finals today.

Starting tomorrow, the women hold their District amateur at Columbia. Mrs. B. A. Bowers, defending champion, is given a good chance to repeat with major competition expected to come from her Manor Club teammate, Mrs. Walter Stokes.

Mrs. W. Pollard Steals Golf Show In W.D.G.A. Play

By MAURY FITZGERALD

While the medalist and defending champion were moving into the second round of the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Columbia Country club on a wave of 8 and 7 victories, Mrs. W. W. Pollard, an unknown unattached golfer was stealing the show.

The quiet new star, who has been playing all her golf on two Virginia public courses, upset Mrs. Webb Hayes of Chevy Chase club, 5 and 4, and this morning plays Mrs. J. P. Trenchard of Kenwood, who yesterday ran into a tough assignment in Mrs. John Ives of Columbia, the favored Kenwood player being carried to the home green before winning.

Mrs. Bower Wins

Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor, defending champion and co-medalist, had a 78 in the blistering heat and played out the full round despite the fact that her match officially ended on the twelfth green. She defeated Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith of Woodmont, 8 and 7.

Mrs. W. R. Stokes of Manor, who had a 78 along with her clubmate but was made the medalist when Mrs. Bower decided against a playoff, eliminated Mrs. John Mancos of Belle Haven, 8 and 7. Mrs. Stokes used 40 strokes to get to the turn and built up an eight-up lead at that juncture.

Mrs. Bower plays Betty Garber of Argyle in this morning's second round. Miss Garber took an extra hole match from Elinor Finckel of the host club, after losing the seventeenth and eighteenth holes to be even at the home green.

Scores Day's Upset

Mrs. Stokes' opposition in the second round will be furnished by Mrs. A. Wilcox of Chevy Chase. Mrs. Wilcox turned in the only real upset of the day—a 2-and-1 victory over Mrs. Marie Walper of Argyle.

Mrs. R. D. Watson of Manor stole some of the limelight from the first-flighters when she holed a seven-iron shot on the seventeenth for a hole-in-one, but she still lost her match to Mrs. Theodore Jeyser of Woodmont, 1 up. Mrs. Watson, a member of Manor club's W.D.G.A. championship team, got so excited in making her second hole-in-one of her career that she couldn't play golf on the remaining holes.

FIRST FLIGHT—Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith, Woodmont, 8 and 7; Betty Garber, Argyle, defeated Elinor Finckel, Columbia, 1 up in 18 holes; Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 2 and 1; Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, defeated Mrs. George Martin, Manor, 3 and 2; Mrs. W. R. Stokes, Manor, defeated Mrs. John Mancos, Belle Haven, 8 and 7; Mrs. A. A. Wilcox, Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. Marie Walper, Argyle, 1 up; Mrs. J. P. Trenchard, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, 1 up; Mrs. W. B. Pollard, unattached, defeated Mrs. Webb Hayes, Chevy Chase, 5 and 4.

SECOND FLIGHT—Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, defeated Mrs. R. R. Hayman, Indian Spring, 5 and 4; Mrs. Michael Mehan, Belle Haven, defeated Mrs. George Jani, Congressional, 1 up; Mrs. J. F. Kirkman, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Owen Hines, Washington, 6 and 5; Mrs. Theodore Peyser, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. E. C. Atwood, Kenwood, 4 and 3; Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel, Congressional, 4 and 3; Mrs. H. L. Davies, Manor, defeated Mrs. Arthur Phelan, Chevy Chase, 3 and 2; Mrs. B. H. Burrows, Manor, defeated Mrs. William Abell, Columbia, 3 and 2; Mrs. Franklin Babcock, Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. Paul Barefoot, Washington, 5 and 3.

THIRD FLIGHT—Mrs. C. A. Thomason, Army Navy, defeated Mrs. Ann York, Army Navy, 1 up; Mrs. A. W. Gilliam, Belle Haven, defeated Mrs. Milton Harris, Woodmont, 4 and 3; Mrs. J. D. Morgan, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Roy Brister, Washington, 6 and 5; Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. E. C. Atwood, Kenwood, 4 and 3; Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. E. V. Brumfiel, Congressional, 4 and 3; Mrs. H. L. Davies, Manor, defeated Mrs. Arthur Phelan, Chevy Chase, 3 and 2; Mrs. B. H. Burrows, Manor, defeated Mrs. William Abell, Columbia, 3 and 2; Mrs. Franklin Babcock, Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. Paul Barefoot, Washington, 5 and 3.

FOURTH FLIGHT—Mrs. Chester Morrill, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. H. M. Nelson, Washington, 5 and 4; Mrs. John Meyers, Argyle, a bye; Mrs. W. F. Patterson, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. L. A. Wells, Kenwood, 3 and 2; Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Kenwood, a bye; Mrs. Jack Howard, Belle Haven, defeated Mrs. J. C. McCord, Army Navy, 2 and 1; Mrs. Herman Neugass, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. Grace King, Manor, and Mrs. Fred Trew, Columbia, all drew byes.

Choices Win In Women's Golf Tourney

By Leila Edwards

A field of 60 players ignored the heat and humidity yesterday at Columbia Country Club to play in the first round of matches for the Women's District Golf Association championship.

The first flight favorites in the upper bracket won their matches according to form. Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, the defending champion, disposed of Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith, Woodmont, 8 and 7; Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, defeated her clubmate, Mrs. Rex Howard, 2 and 1; and Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, eliminated Mrs. George Martin, Manor, 3 and 2.

The closest match of the day was a red-hot battle between Miss Elinor Finckel of the host club and Miss Betty Garber of Argyle. Miss Finckel sank a long putt on the 18th green to tie up the match, but Miss Garber went on to take the 19th hole and drop her opponent into the consolation playoff.

Results and pairings for tomorrow follow:

FIRST FLIGHT
Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith, Woodmont, 8 and 7. Miss Betty Garber, Argyle, defeated Miss Elinor Finckel, Columbia, 1 up in 19 holes. Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 2 and 1. Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, defeated Mrs. George Martin, Manor, 3 and 2. Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor, defeated Mrs. John Mancos, Belle Haven, 8 and 7. Mrs. Arnold Wilcox, Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. Marie Walper, Argyle, 1 up. Mrs. J. P. Trenchard, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, 1 up. Mrs. W. B. Pollard, unattached, defeated Mrs. Webb Hayes, Chevy Chase, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Wilcox, Upsetter, Faces Mrs. Stokes, D. C. Golf Medalist

Mrs. Arnold Wilcox of Chevy Chase, whose 1-up victory over former champion, Mrs. Marie Walper, created first-round excitement in the District women's golf championship at Columbia, ran smack into Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, medalist and co-favorite, in the second round today.

Mrs. Wilcox played steady golf to eliminate Mrs. Walper, always a tough match-play competitor, to prevent a clean sweep of the favorites in the championship fight.

Betty Garber, the Argyle player who caused a stir in this tournament last year, just can't dodge Mrs. A. B. Bower in any tournament and today Miss Garber meets the defending champion in the second round. Just as Miss Garber gets started in the women's match-play events, she runs into Mrs. Bower, to whom she lost twice last year although playing excellent golf both times.

Miss Garber is fortunate to be around still, however, as she had to go 19 holes to defeat Elinor Finckel of the host club.

Newcomer Mrs. W. B. Pollard, an unattached player whose golf has been confined to the Purcellville and Fairfax courses, meets Kenwood's Mrs. J. P. Trenchard today after defeating Mrs. Webb Hayes of Chevy Chase, 5 and 4. Mrs. Pollard qualified nicely with an 87 and may be a threat in the lower bracket.

Mrs. Betty Meckley, who had to play some of her best golf to defeat Kenwood Teammate Mrs. Rex Howard, 2 and 1, yesterday, today runs into her upset conqueror in the District two years ago, Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional.

Mrs. Bower and Mrs. Stokes justified their co-favorite roles by winning, 8 and 7, in first-round matches.

The best shot of the day was in the second flight, where Mrs. Roderick Watson of Manor arched a seven iron into the cup on the 16th hole, and then became so excited she lost her match to Mrs. Theodore Peyser on the 18th.

First-round results:

First flight—Mrs. A. B. Bower (Manor) defeated Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith (Woodmont), 8 and 7; Betty Garber (Argyle) defeated Elinor Finckel (Columbia), 1 up in 19 holes; Mrs. Betty Meckley (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. Rex Howard (Kenwood), 2 and 1; Mrs. D. H. Henderson (Congressional) defeated Mrs. George Martin (Manor), 3 and 2; Mrs. W. R. Stokes (Manor) defeated Mrs. John Mancos (Belle Haven), 8 and 7; Mrs. A. A. Wilcox (Chevy Chase) defeated Mrs. Marie Walper (Argyle), 1 up; Mrs. J. P. Trenchard (Kenwood) defeated Mrs. John Ives (Columbia), 1 up; Mrs. W. B. Pollard (unattached) defeated Mrs. Webb Hayes (Chevy Chase), 5 and 4.

Mrs. Bower Wins In W.D.G.A. Play

By MAURY FITZGERALD

It was favorite day yesterday at Columbia Country club, where all the form players in the quarter-finals of the Women's District Golf association advanced with but feeble opposition from the "Dark Horse" brigade.

Mrs. A. B. Bower, co-medalist and defending champion, squelched the title aspirations of Betty Garber of Argyle, 4 and 2. The Manor club star took an early lead on the former high school athletic instructor and was never in danger of an upset.

Mrs. Bower in today's semifinals meets Mrs. Betty P. Meckley of Kenwood. The former D. C. titlist and present United States Senior champion, pushed past Mrs. D. H. Henderson on Congressional, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, a former champion and co-medalist in this event, eliminated Mrs. A. A. Wilcox of Chevy Chase, 6 and 5, in the shortest match of the day. Mrs. Wilcox, who upset Mrs. Marie Walper of Argyle, in the opening round, couldn't match the steady stroking of the Middle Atlantic champion and was disposed of at the thirteenth green.

Mrs. Stokes' opponent today will be Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood. Mrs. Trouchaud played good steady golf to eliminate Mrs. W. B. Pollard, an unattached player who was the surprise package of the opening rounds. But Mrs. Pollard failed to produce the game she showed against Mrs. Webb Hayes on opening day and lost at the sixteenth green. Results:

First flight—Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Betty Garber, Argyle, 4 and 2; Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, 5 and 4; Mrs. W. R. Stokes, Manor, defeated Mrs. A. A. Wilcox, Chevy Chase, 6 and 5; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. W. B. Pollard, unattached, 3 and 2.

Second flight—Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington, defeated Mrs. Michael McMahon, Belle Haven, 6 and 5; Mrs. J. F. Kerkam defeated Mrs. T. Peyser, Woodmont, 4 and 3; Mrs. M. S. Shahan, Prince Georges, defeated Mrs. H. H. Goodman, Washington, 1 up; Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Washington, defeated Mrs. Richard Argyle, 1 up in 19 holes.

Third flight—Mrs. A. W. Gilliam, Washington, defeated Mrs. C. A. Thomas, Army-Navy, 1 up; Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. J. B. Morgan, Kenwood, 5 and 3; Mrs. H. L. Davies, Manor, defeated Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, 5 and 4; Mrs. Franklin Babcock, Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. D. H. Burrows, Manor, 4 and 3.

Fourth flight—Mrs. Chester Morrill, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. John Meyers, Congressional, 1 up in 19 holes; Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. W. F. Patterson, Indian Spring, 1 up; Mrs. Jack Howard, Belle Haven, defeated Mrs. Herman Neugass, Woodmont, default; Mrs. Fred Trew, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Grace King, Manor, 5 and 4.

First flight (Consolations)—Mrs. Elinor Finckel, Columbia, defeated Mrs. R. Goldsmith, Woodmont, 6 and 5; Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. George Martin, Woodmont, 3 and 4; Mrs. John Mancos, Belle Haven, defeated Mrs. Marie Walper, Argyle, default; Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Webb Hayes, Chevy Chase, default.

Mrs. Stokes Shoots 33 to Reach Finals

By Leila Edwards

In one of the most exciting finishes in District competition, Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, 1 up in 20 holes, yesterday in the semifinals of the Women's District Golf Association championships at the Columbia Country Club.

Mrs. Bower, defending champion, caught Mrs. Meckley when she was playing her best game, and Mrs. Bower was three down in the first six holes.

Three down and three holes to go at the sixteenth hole, Mrs. Bower regained her game and tossed two birdies and a par at her opponent to tie up the match on the eighteenth green. They halved the nineteenth and the match was closed out when Mrs. Meckley, experiencing both water hazard and sand trap trouble on the twentieth, conceded.

The best golf of the tournament was played in the other semifinal match between Mrs. Walter Stokes, also of Manor, and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood. Mrs. Stokes, a favorite to go into the finals, found herself 2 down on the front nine, but rallied on the home side to shoot a magnificent 33 for a 4-3 win.

Her score of 75 tied the course record for women's competitive golf.

Mrs. Bower and Mrs. Stokes will play at 10 a. m. today for the title.

RESULTS IN THE FIRST FLIGHT
Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, 1 up, 20 holes; Mrs. Walter Stokes, Manor, defeated Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 4-3.

Fourth flight—Mrs. E. B. Lockett vs. Mrs. Fred Trew at 9:30.

Bower, Stokes Enter W.D.G.A. Final Round

By MAURY FITZGERALD

There were fireworks aplenty yesterday at Columbia Country club as Mrs. A. B. Bower, defending champion and co-medalist, and Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, co-medalist, moved into the final round of the Women's District Golf association championship.

Mrs. Bower survived a 20-hole match with Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood club's National Seniors champion, while Mrs. Stokes played the back nine of the long Connecticut avenue course in 33 strokes to squelch what could have been a major upset.

Mrs. Bower Sinks Putt

Mrs. Bower came to the last hole dormie and needed to win the last hole to keep the match and her title hopes alive. Upon her arrival at the home green, Mrs. Bower found a ball indentation between her ball and the cup, and needing the putt to win the hole, the defending champion called for a ruling on the putt.

The W.D.G.A. ruled she couldn't move her ball and, despite all the confusion, Mrs. Bower stepped up and knocked the ball into the hole. And after halving the nineteenth, Mrs. Bower won the twentieth when Mrs. Meckley put her second shot in the ditch in front of the green.

Mrs. Stokes Wins

Mrs. Stokes ran into a tartar in Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood, and was one-down at the turn. But Mrs. Stokes, one of this section's finest competitive golfers, caught fire and started a string of birdies and pars that ended Mrs. Trouchaud's hopes of an upset on the fifteenth green.

Other results:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT—Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood, 1 up in 20 holes; Mrs. W. R. Stokes, Manor, defeated Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 4 and 3.

CHAMPIONSHIP CONSOLATIONS—Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, defeated Elinor Finckel, Columbia, 1 up; Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. John Mancos, Belle Haven, 4 and 3.

SECOND FLIGHT—Mrs. J. F. Kerkam, Columbia, defeated Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington, 3 and 2; Mrs. G. W. Calvert, Washington, defeated Mrs. M. S. Shahan, Prince Georges, 1 up.

CONSOLATIONS—Mrs. George Jani, Congressional, defeated Mrs. R. D. Watson, Manor, 2 up; Mrs. George Bailey Jr., Washington, defeated Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, default.

THIRD FLIGHT—Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. A. W. Gilliam, Washington, 1 up in 20 holes; Mrs. H. L. Davies, Manor, defeated Mrs. F. Babcock, Chevy Chase, 2 and 1.

CONSOLATIONS—Mrs. Roy Brister, Washington, defeated Mrs. Milton Harris, Woodmont, 1 up in 19 holes; Mrs. Arthur Phelan, Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. Paul Barefoot, Washington, 2 and 1.

FOURTH FLIGHT—Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Chester Morrill, Kenwood, 2 up; Mrs. Fred Trew, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Jack Howard, Belle Haven, default.

Stokes-Bower Final In D. C. Women's Golf in Making

Unless either Mrs. Betty Meckley or Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood can do something today to prevent it, the awaited match between Manor Club Teammates Mrs. W. R. Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Bower for the District women's championship is only one match away.

In today's semifinals at Columbia Country Club, Mrs. Bower meets Mrs. Meckley, whom she defeated, 5 and 4, in the final round last year. Mrs. Stokes, co-medalist with a 79 and a total of 14 up in her two matches, rules a heavy favorite over Mrs. Trouchaud.

Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Bower won the Mid-Atlantic, Payne Cup and the District championship between them last year, Mrs. Stokes winning the first two, and they played as an unbeaten combination for Manor's championship first team in the matches recently completed. They're the top women golfers in town to date and both have been playing excellent golf in this tournament.

Mrs. Bower was expected to have her hands full against Betty Garber in yesterday's second-round feature, but the defending champion enjoyed a comfortable lead all the way and won, 4 and 2.

Mrs. Stokes played her round out for a 78 in defeating Mrs. A. A. Wilcox of Chevy Chase, 6 and 5. Mrs. Meckley scored 5 and 4 over Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional.

Mrs. Trouchaud's superior short game gave her a 3-and-2 triumph over Mrs. W. B. Pollard, surprise quarterfinalist, who entered the tournament as an unattached player.

Tomorrow's final in the title fight starts at 10 o'clock.

Late News Bulletins

Mrs. Bower Again Champ

Mrs. A. B. Bower successfully defended her District woman's golf championship today by defeating her Manor Club teammate, Mrs. W. R. Stokes, 2 and 1, in the finals at the Columbia Country Club. It was the third District triumph for Mrs. Bower in the last four years.

Mrs. Egenroad Scores Upset In Md. State Golf

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington Golf and Country club, furnished the only upset in the opening match play rounds of the Maryland State women's championship yesterday at Manor Country club, defeating Mrs. T. E. Schludenberg of Baltimore Country club, 6 and 5.

For Mrs. Egenroad it will be like jumping from the frying pan into the fire. The Virginia clubwoman takes on Mrs. Maurice Glick, the defending champion, today, but should she produce the same brand of golf she showed yesterday, Mrs. Egenroad will have a chance to become a real tournament darkhorse.

Three Overtime Battles

Mrs. Egenroad was out in 40 strokes to erect a big three-up lead and, though the match ended on the thirteenth green, the winner played the round out for an 81. Mrs. Glick got the surprise of her life in her match with Mrs. R. D. Watson of the host club, and had to win the tenth, thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth holes to win 4 and 3.

Three overtime battles feature the day's opening matches. The first to go into an extra session was Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood, who eliminated Elizabeth Bonthron of Hillendale, with a par four on the nineteenth green. Mrs. Trouchaud today plays Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, her clubmate, who didn't have to go out and get a drenching because her opponent failed to show for the match.

Mrs. Martin Triumphs

Mrs. George Martin of Manor, was the next extra hole victor, defeating Mrs. Theodore Peyser of Woodmont, with a bogey five on the nineteenth. Then along came Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, and Mrs. Patsy Smith of the Country Club of Maryland, finishing even at the eighteenth but the local player took the match with a par at the first hole of the quick-death playoff.

Mrs. A. B. Bower, the host club's District champion, came up with the shortest match of the day—an 8 and 7 jaunt with Elinor Finckel of Columbia. Mrs. Bower took 38 strokes to get to the turn and was five-up at that juncture.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, defeated Mrs. R. D. Watson, Manor, 4 and 3; Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, defeated Mrs. T. E. Schludenberg, Baltimore C. C., 6 and 5; Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. John Long, Indian Spring, default; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, defeated Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale, 1 up in 19 holes; Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Elinor Finckel, Columbia, 8 and 6; Mrs. George Martin, Manor, defeated Mrs. Theodore Peyser, Woodmont, 1 up in 19 holes; Mary Ann Downey, C. C. of Maryland, defeated Ann York, Army Navy, 4 and 3; Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Patsy Smith, C. C. of Maryland, 1 up in 19 holes.

SECOND FLIGHT

Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. John R. Daily, Manor, 7 and 5; Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, defeated Mrs. Jules Friedenson, Woodmont, 9 and 7; Mrs. Paul Costello, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, 3 and 2; Mrs. A. Lewis, Annapolis Roads, defeated Mrs. Harold Freeman, Woodmont, 6 and 4; Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, defeated Mrs. William Abell, Columbia, default; Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. E. D. Lockett, Kenwood, 4 and 3; Mrs. Herman Goodman, Woodmont, drew a bye.

Mrs. Glick Tries for Sixth Md. Women's Golf Title

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, will be looking for her fifth Women's Maryland State championship this morning in six years when she meets Miss Ann Downey, Country Club of Maryland, in the tourney finals at Manor.

Each advanced yesterday making it an all-Baltimore final. Defending champion Mrs. Glick disposed of Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 7-6, while Miss Downey surprised District champion Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, 2-1.

Except for the first hole when Mrs. Bower took a one-up lead which she relinquished on the very next hole, Mrs. Bower was never in the lead.

Mrs. Bower, despite a respectable score of 39, was one-down at the turn. Her Bogey on the 10th put her two-down. She rallied briefly on the 14th to cut Miss Downey's margin to one-up when Miss Downey registered her only bogey of the day. However, the Baltimorean took the 16th to go two-up again. They halved the 17th which gave Miss Downey her 2-1 margin.

Mrs. Trouchaud simply wasn't in Mrs. Glick's class. Mrs. Glick rolled to a five-up margin on the first nine and coasted in from that point.

Baltimoreans Defeat Trouchaud, Bower

By MAURY FITZGERALD

The chances of bringing the 1949 Maryland State women's title back to Washington were blasted beyond repair yesterday at Manor Country club where Mrs. Maurice Glick, the defending champion, and Mary Ann Downey of the Country Club of Maryland, turned the tournament into an All-Baltimore final.

Mrs. Glick, seeking her fifth Old Line title in six years, turned back Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood with surprising ease, 7 and 6. The spunky little Miss Downey blasted the hopes of Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District champion, 2 and 1.

Fifth Meeting for Duo

Today's match will mark the fifth time the two Monumental City players have met in major competition, but as yet Miss Downey hasn't been able to get the best of her crosstown rival. The match is scheduled at begin at 10 a.m.

The defending champion used 38 strokes to reach the turn and amassed a huge five-hole lead on her shaky opponent. Mrs. Glick won the tenth with a par four and the eleventh with a birdie two to increase her edge to seven holes. The twelfth hole was halved and the match ended there.

Mrs. Bower's Lead Fades

Miss Downey toured the Norbeck, Md., layout in 76 strokes to upset the host club star. Getting out in 37, Miss Downey forged a one-lead and then knocked a 12-footer for a birdie into the cup on the sixteenth to go two-up. The seventeenth was halved in bogeys when both Miss Downey and Mrs. Bower were trapped off the tee.

Mrs. Bower won the very first hole of the match to take her only lead in the match, but Miss Downey won the second to square the match. From there on in it was all Miss Downey's match as Mrs. Bower blew chance after change to take advantage of any of her opponent's miscues. Results:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

SEMI-FINALS—Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, defeated Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 7 and 6; Mary Ann Downey, C.C. of Md., defeated Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, 2 and 1. Consolations—Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale, defeated Mrs. R. D. Watson, Manor, 7 and 5; Ann York, Army-Navy, defeated Elinor Finckel, Columbia, 5 and 3.

SECOND FLIGHT

SEMI-FINALS—Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Paul Costello, Indian Spring, 3 and 2; Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, defeated Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, 2 and 1. Consolations—Mrs. John Daily, Manor, defeated Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, 9 and 7; Mrs. E. D. Lockett, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Albert Cohen, Woodmont, 2 and 1.

6 From D. C. Advance to 2d Round

By Leila Edwards

Three closely fought contests, not decided until the nineteenth hole, featured the first round of matches in the Maryland Women's State Championship at Manor Country Club yesterday. The field was narrowed to eight with local winners outnumbering the Baltimore entries, 6 to 2.

Heavy rains delayed the start until noon.

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, defeated Mrs. Roderick Watson, Manor, 4 and 3. The defending champion had unexpected trouble with Mrs. Watson, who matched her game for the first nine holes. Then she won five straight holes on the back nine, and the match was over on 15.

Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, scored a surprising upset in eliminating Mrs. T. E. Schludenberg, Baltimore Country Club, one of the most consistent winners in Maryland tournaments. Mrs. Egenroad's score of 81 was the lowest of the day, and gained a 6 and 5 victory over her opponent.

A close match between Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, and Miss Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale, was won by the former one up in 19 holes. A par four to her opponent's 5 gave the match to Mrs. Trouchaud.

SECOND FLIGHT RESULTS

Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. J. R. Daily, Manor, 7 and 5; Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, defeated Mrs. Jules Friedenson, Woodmont, 9 and 7; Mrs. Paul Costello, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, 3 up; Mrs. Adelaide Lewis, Annapolis Roads, defeated Mrs. Harold Freeman, Woodmont, 6 and 4; Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, defeated Mrs. William Abell, Columbia, default; Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. E. D. Lockett, Kenwood, 4 and 3; Mrs. Herman Goodman, Woodmont, drew a bye.

Mrs. Glick's 78 Captures Md. Medal

By Leila Edwards

Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme Country Club, Baltimore, was the medalist yesterday in the qualifying round of the Women's Maryland State Championship at Manor Country Club. Mrs. Glick, the defending champion, shot consistent nines at 39-39, four over women's regulation figures, to score her victory.

Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, was runnerup with a 79. Four 3-putt greens hurt the District titlist's score, and a 39 on the long back nine wasn't quite good enough to overcome a weak 40 going out.

QUALIFYING SCORES

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, 78; Mrs. A. B. Bower, 79; Mrs. Betty Meckley, 80; Miss Mary Ann Downey, C. C. of Md., 80; Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, Baltimore, C. C., 80; Mrs. George Martin, Manor, 82; Miss Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale, 83; Mrs. Patsy Smith, C. ## Mrs. Bowen Ousted in Manor Golf

By Leila Edwards

Miss Mary Ann Downey, Country Club of Maryland, dispelled all hopes of the Women's Maryland State Championship coming back to Washington, defeating Mrs. A. B. Bower, of Manor, yesterday in the semifinal match at Manor Country Club.

In the other semifinal match, Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, won handily from Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 7 and 6. Mrs. Glick accumulated a steady lead of 5 up on the front nine when Mrs. Trouchaud was unable to repeat her steady game of the day before, and the contest closed on the thirteenth hole.

The all-Baltimore final will be played today at 10 a. m. and will find Mrs. Glick, a four-time winner, matching her shots against the long-driving Miss Downey.

Miss Downey, who has been methodically eliminating her opponents all week, pulled one of her best games out of the bag, and tossed a 37, 39 at her opponent to win, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Bower, only Washington contender in the first flight, took an early lead of 1 up on the first hole, but Miss Downey's even par from there in was too perfect for her to overcome. Despite a good 39, she was 1 down at the end of nine holes of play.

A par on the tenth hole by Miss Downey to a 1 over 5 put the local player 2 down. She staged a slight comeback on the fourteenth when the Baltimore player took her first bogey after 12 holes of regulation figures. Mrs. Bower was then 1 down. The fourteenth and fifteenth holes were halved. Then two superb shots and a short putt gave Miss Downey another win on the sixteenth hole, and she was 2 up again, with 2 to go.

Trouble found Mrs. Bower again on 17 when her tee shot hit a sand trap, and her explosion shot came out too strong over the green. An approach was short of the cup, and the best she could do was a 4 to tie the hole.

First Flight

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, defeated Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 7 and 6; Miss Mary Ann Downey, C. C. of Maryland, defeated Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, 2 and 1.

First Flight Consolation

Miss Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale, defeated Mrs. Roderick Watson, Manor, 7 and 6; Miss Ann York, Army and Navy, defeated Miss Elinor Finckel, Columbia, 6 and 5.

Second Flight

Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Paul Costello, Indian Spring, 2 and 1; Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, defeated Mrs. E. C. Widmayer, Kenwood, 2 and 1.

Second Flight Consolation

Mrs. J. R. Daily, Manor, defeated Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, 1 up; Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Albert Cohen, Woodmont, 5 and 4.

Times and Pairings Today

Mrs. Glick vs. Mrs. Downey at 10; Miss Bonthron vs. Miss York at 9:50; Mrs. Ives vs. Mrs. Lacey at 9:30; Mrs. Daily vs. Mrs. Lockett at 9:20.

Mrs. Trouchaud Scores Upset

Betty Meckley Bows
In Md. State Tourney

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood Golf and Country club, whittled a great round of 76 from Manor club's water-logged course yesterday to furnish the women's Maryland State championship with its only upset of the quarterfinal rounds.

The smooth-swinging protege of pro George Diefenbaugh eliminated clubmate Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, United States senior champion, 5 and 4. Arriving at the turn in 39 strokes, Mrs. Trouchaud built up a two-up lead and then played the next five holes in one under par to end the match on the fourteenth green. She played the match out but, with four pars for a 73, Mrs. Trouchaud took three bogeys to end up with the low round so far in the entire tournament.

Faces Champ Today

Mrs. Trouchaud meets the favorite and defending champion—Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme—this morning in the semifinals. The Baltimore city champion took the measure of Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington, 5 and 4. Mrs. Egenroad, who upset Baltimore's Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg in the opening rounds, could not match Mrs. Glick's out-nine of 39 and was five down at that point.

In the other semifinal it will be Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District champion, and Mary Ann Downey of the Country Club of Maryland. Mrs. Bower, of the host club, defeated Mrs. George Martin, her clubmate, 3 and 2, while Miss Downey was eliminating Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, 5 and 3.

Mrs. Bowers Out in 41

Mrs. Bower, who has been going about her business almost unnoticed, went out in 41 to build up a three-up edge and then finished things at the sixteenth. Miss Downey took 40 strokes to reach the turn to be even in what appeared to the closest match of the day. But Mrs. Howard's game began deteriorating, and she lost five of the next six holes. The results:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

QUARTER-FINALS—Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, defeated Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, 5 and 4; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, Kenwood, 5 and 4; Mrs. A. B. Bower, Manor, defeated Mrs. George Martin, Manor, 3 and 2; Mary Ann Downey, C. C. of Maryland, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 5 and 3.

SECOND FLIGHT

Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, defeated Mrs. R. E. Zuber, Manor, 4 and 3; Mrs. Paul Costello, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. A. Lewis, Annapolis Roads, 6 and 5; Mrs. H. L. Lacey, Manor, defeated Mrs. M. Kraft, Woodmont, 2 and 1; Mrs. Ed Widmayer, Kenwood, defeated Mrs. Herman Goodman, Woodmont, 3 and 2.

CHAMPIONSHIP CONSOLATIONS

Mrs. R. D. Watson, Manor, defeated Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, Baltimore C. C., default; Elizabeth Bonthron, Hillendale, defeated Mrs. John Long, Indian Spring, default; Elinor Finckel, Columbia, defeated Mrs. Theodore Peyser, Woodmont, 4 and 3; Ann York, Army Navy, defeated Mrs. Patsy Smith, C. C. of Maryland, 1 up.

SECOND FLIGHT CONSOLATIONS

Mrs. John Daily, Manor, defeated Mrs. Jules Friedenson, Woodmont, 5 and 4; Mrs. Sam Brown, Woodmont, defeated Mrs. H. Freeman, Woodmont, 6 and 4; Mrs. Albert Cohen, Woodmont, and Mrs. E. B. Lockett, Kenwood, drew byes.

New Maryland State Women's Golf Champion Reaps Reward

Miss Mary Ann Downey (center), of Baltimore Country club, receives her trophy from Frank McArdle, vice president of the Maryland State Golf association, after defeating defending champion Mrs. Maurice Glick (left), of Woodholme Country club, for the 1949 title yesterday at Manor. Mrs. Glick holds the runner-up award.

Mrs. Glick Upset By Ann Downey For Md. Golf Title

By MAURY FITZGERALD

A brand-new name was inscribed on the Maryland State Golf association's cup for the women's Old Line title tournament yesterday at Manor Country club when Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore Country club, upset Mrs. Maurice Glick, the defending champion, in the final round, 4 and 3.

Miss Downey, who has played second fiddle to Mrs. Glick in Baltimore golf for the last two years, not only won her first major title but scored her first victory over the Woodholme Country club player in five meetings.

The 23-year-old Baltimore Country club champion played terrific golf on the Norbeck, Md., club's first nine but then almost tossed the match away on the back nine with a lot of bad golf that was saved only by some putting magic on the greens.

Mrs. Glick Evens Matters

Miss Downey wheeled her little white pellet around the front nine in 37 strokes. And with a three-putt green at the eighth, too. The little Baltimore player won the first hole when she dunked a six-footer on the very first hole, but Mrs. Glick evened matters at the second with a par when the new champion sliced her tee shot off into the woods.

Miss Downey then won the third hole when she chipped her ball out of a bad lie to the left of the par three hole and rammed home an eight-footer for her par.

Miss Downey, putting for a birdie and a win from 15 feet at the eighth, rolled her ball three feet past the pin and missed coming back to allow the former champion to slice her lead down to two holes. Both took par fives at the ninth, leaving the defending champion on the short end of a two-hole deficit at the turn.

Break for Miss Downey

Mrs. Glick had what appeared as easy chances to win the tenth and twelfth holes but took three shots from just off the fringe to give Miss Downey halves on each hole. The Baltimore Country club star won the thirteenth with a great four and again Mrs. Glick took three from just short of the green to go three down.

The big break of the match for Miss Downey came at the fourteenth where her five-foot putt for a halve rimmed around the cup and rolled in the back door for a halve. Both missed the fifteenth green with their third shots, but Miss Downey pitched close and rolled in a seven-footer to paste Mrs. Glick with the worst licking she has ever suffered in this section since becoming a top-flight player nearly a decade ago.

The first-flight consolation title went to Elizabeth Bonthron of Hillendale, who defeated Ann York of Army Navy club, 1 up on the nineteenth green.

Mrs. Jones Ives of Columbia Country club, took second-flight honors, defeating Mrs. H. L. Lacey of the host club, 5 and 4, in the final.

Mrs. Lady Has 71, Wins Post Cup

By Leila Edwards

Mr. H. R. Lady of Washington Golf and Country Club toured a blazing hot Belle Haven golf course yesterday in nines of 47 and 42 to win the Women's District Golf Association Class B Tournament for the Post Cup.

Her score of 89—18—71 won the event by one stroke.

It was the first time Mrs. Lady had won a major competition event, and the first time she had scored under 94.

The low gross award of the tourney went to Mrs. De Butts Saunders, Belle Haven, with a 49, 39—88.

Second low net was won by Mrs. J. A. DeVos, Army and Navy, with 95—20—75.

Mrs. Walter Densmore, a second winner from the host club, took the third net prize with 92—16—76.

A three-way tie for fourth place resulted when Mrs. George Maksim, Manor; Mrs. C. A. Thomason, Argyle, and Mrs. T. L. Ryan, Belle Haven, all reported nets of 78. In the matching of cards which followed, Mrs. Ryan was drawn out of the prize list.

Mrs. Lady's Post Golf Cup Win Boosts Virginia Clubs' Laurels

Class B golfers at the nearby Virginia clubs are monopolizing the Women's District Golf Association tournaments in the 15-20 handicap group. Mrs. H. R. Lady's victory in the Post Cup at Belle Haven yesterday made it two straight for Washington Golf and Country Club players, while Belle Haven members have won two Class B events out of the five played.

Mrs. Lady, who Pro Dave Thomson at Washington predicts soon will be a Class A player, was out in 47 and back in 42 for 89 and deducted 18 handicap strokes for a net 71. It was one of the few times if not the first, a Class B player has broken 90 in a WDGR event. The other Washington victor was Mrs. D. R. Monsees in the CBS Cup.

But the host club also supplied a record breaker in Mrs. De Butts

Saunders, winner of The Star Cup earlier in the season, who broke 40 on the back nine with a 39, and added it to an outgoing 49 for an 88 that won gross honors.

Second low net went to Mrs. J. A. De Vos of Army Navy with a 95-20-75 and third to Mrs. Walter Densmore of Belle Haven, who tied for low gross in The Star Cup play.

Three players tied for fourth low net with Mrs. George Maksim winning out by match cards after shooting a 98-20-78. Mrs. Maksim of Manor Club won the Duffer's Cup, the only Class B event that did not go to a Virginia club player. Mrs. C. A. Thomason of Argyle was next with 93-15-78 while the unlucky net 78 shooter who was matched out of the prize list was Mrs. Tom Ryan of Belle Haven, wife of the pro, who had 95-17-78.

Mrs. Frost's 71 Takes Times-Herald Golf Cup

By MAURY FITZGERALD

After a poor start, Mrs. Norman Frost of Columbia Country club put on one of the finest finishes of the year yesterday at Manor Country club to capture the class A Women's District Golf Association tournament for the Times-Herald trophy with a net round of 71.

Mrs. Frost, taking sevens on the fourth and ninth holes, took 45 strokes to reach the turn. Hot and tired, but undismayed, Mrs. Frost played the back nine in 39 strokes for a gross round of 84, which was reduced to the winning count by a 13 stroke handicap.

It marked the first time in a long career of tournament playing that the Columbia club player had won a major event. Her fine round, one of the lowest of the year, was good by the slim margin of two shots.

Tie for Low Gross

Mrs. Hugh Nicolson of Chevy Chase club, and Mrs. G. H. Bailey jr. of Washington, fired rounds of 81 to deadlock for the low gross award but Mrs. Bailey decided her chances against Mrs. Nicolson in a play-off weren't too good and elected to take third net with a 74 and allow the former Middle Atlantic champion to receive the gross prize. Mrs. Nicolson was 40-41, while Mrs. Bailey was 38-43. The Washington player used a seven stroke handicap for a net of 74.

Second low net honors went to Mrs. Paul Costello of Indian Spring, with 74-11-73. Mrs. Costello was out in 41 and returned in 43, and with five sixes on her card, too.

Three players finished with nets of 76 but when the W.D.G.A. card matching system was put to work Mrs. Charles Egenroad, of Washington, was shuffled to the top with her card of 83-7-76. Mrs. Burton Kintz of Prince Georges was drawn into fifth place with 87-11-76.

Mrs. Davies Sixth

Mrs. H. E. Davies of the host club, an early finisher whose card stood at the top of the list for most part of the day, was dropped down into sixth place with her round of 89-13-76.

Three more players deadlocked for the two remaining prize places with nets of 77. Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, with 83-6-77, came out on top and Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen of Washington, took the eighth net with 86-9-77. Mrs. William Schoech, Army-Navy, was drawn out of the winners circle. Her score was 91-14-77. Mrs. Frost's card:

WEDNESDAY, JULY 27,

Mrs. Frost Captures Times-Herald Cup

Mrs. Norman Frost of Columbia Country Club, bothered by sevens on the first two par five holes she played in the Class A section of the Times-Herald Cup play yesterday at Manor, dropped a long putt for a birdie four on the third par five of the round and won the cup by overcoming the temporary jinx.

Mrs. Frost, mother of one of the District's most attractive linkswomen—Mrs. Webb Hayes of Chevy Chase—shot a 45-39-84 and deducted 13 handicap strokes for a winning net 71. Mrs. Frost has been a prize winner in one-day cup competition many times, but never before had taken home one of the big bowls.

Both the tree-lined fourth hole and the dog-leg ninth proved troublesome to Mrs. Frost as she took sevens on both of the long holes. But coming to the 14th she met the challenge of par five holes and scored a welcome birdie.

Low gross was a tie at 81 between former Washington Club champion Mrs. George H. Bailey, jr., and Mrs. Hugh Nicolson, the Keefer Cup champion of last year from Chevy Chase. But as Mrs. Bailey also was eligible for third low net she took that prize with 81-7-74 to avoid a playoff in the heat.

Mrs. Paul Costello of Indian Spring finished second net with 84-11-73, a score good enough to win the average cup tournament.

Other prize winners were: Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington, 83-7-76; Mrs. Burton Kintz of Prince Georges, 87-11-76; Mrs. H. E. Davies of Manor, 89-13-76; Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, 83-6-77, and Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen of Washington, 86-9-77. That left Mrs. William Schoech of Army Navy matched out of the prize list with 91-14-77. Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood missed gross honors by a stroke with an 82.

Mrs. Meckley Takes Another Golf Prize

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Proving that it pays to know your golf course, Mrs. Betty P. Meckley, the U. S. Senior's champion, played her home course at Kenwood Golf and Country club in 77 strokes yesterday to be both low gross and low net in an 18-hole Women's District Golf association tournament for the Post cup.

Mrs. Meckley, who at one time or another has won every championship tournament in this section, played the rugged outgoing nine in 39 strokes and then returned in 38 shots to win with one of the most impressive scores of the year. Her handicap allowance of three strokes reduced her card to a net of 74, which gave her the feature prize of the day.

Only one prize is allowed a player in W.D.G.A. sponsored events and Mrs. Meckley elected to take the net, thus allowing her clubmate, Mrs. J. P. Troughaud, to become the gross victor with a 44-39-83 score.

Mrs. Mildred Jorg of Indian Spring, carried off the second low net award with 89-14-75. Mrs. Jorg was out in 41, but tossed away her chances of winning the featured net prize by slumping to a bad back nine of 48.

Third place went to Mrs. W. A. Schoech, a newcomer from Army Navy Country club, with a 76. The service club player was out in 44 and back in 45. Fourth place went to Mrs. George Bailey Jr., of Washington, with 42-42-84-7-77.

Mrs. Jack Howard of Belle Haven, took the fifth place award with 92-14-78, winning out in the draw over Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen, Washington, who had 87-9-78.

Five players finished with nets of 79 but three of them lost out in the W.D.G.A. card matching system. Mrs. Ora Emge of Prince Georges, took the seventh place with 88-9-79; and Mrs. W. B. Pollard, unattached, was the last-place winner with 85-6-79. Losing out in the draw were: Mrs. Philip Israel, Chevy Chase, 92-13-79; Mrs. R. M. Gibbons, Army Navy, 92-13-79; and Mrs. A. A. McEntee, Kenwood, 93-14-79.

Mrs. Jory's 75 Captures 2d Low Net

Mrs. Betty P. Meckley and Mrs. J. P. Troughaud, both playing from Kenwood Country Club, won the two major awards of the 16th annual Women's District Golf Association Class A tournament for the Washington Post Cup yesterday.

Mrs. Meckley scored a 77-3-74 to win the trophy, while her clubmate shot a 44-39-83 for the low gross prize.

The Kenwood course was heavy and most of the scores were high. However, Mrs. Meckley found the slow going to her liking and she played her best tournament golf of the season. Her card showed a 39 on the front nine, four over women's regulation figures, and a 38-9—one over par—on the back lines. Her 77 included nine pars, two birdies and seven holes in one-over-pars.

Mrs. Jorg Second

The Washington Post Cup was the only local major trophy which had previously eluded Mrs. Meckley during a long and successful golfing career.

Until Mrs. Meckley posted her net 74, Mrs. Mildred Jorg of Indian Spring Club, with an 89-14-75, appeared the winner. Mrs. Jorg started off with a good 41 going out but a 48 on the home side, including two three-putt greens on the last two holes, put her a stroke behind the winner with a net 75, good only for second place.

The third low net award went to Mrs. W. A. Schoech, Army and Navy Club, with 89-13-76, and the fourth prize to Mrs. George W. Bailey, Jr., Washington, who had 84-7-77.

Tie For Fifth

Two players deadlocked for the fifth spot, Mrs. Jack Howard, Belle Haven, 92-14-78, and Mrs. M. H. Dinneen, Washington, 87-9-78.

Mrs. Ora Emge of Prince Georges took the seventh low net with 88-9-79, 5 down to par, and Mrs. W. B. Pollard, unattached, won the last prize with 85-6-79.

Three players, Mrs. Philip Israel, Chevy Chase, 92-13-79; Mrs. R. M. Gibbons, Army and Navy, 92-13-79, and Mrs. A. A. McEntee, Kenwood, 93-14-79, were drawn out of the prize list via the matching of cards system of the association.

Women's District Golf Winners Beam Over Times-Herald Awards

Smiling visitors in yesterday's Women's District Golf association competition for the Times-Herald trophies receive the silverware at Indian Spring Country club. Mrs. William F. Patterson (center), president of the W.D.G.A., is making the awards. Mrs. Flora Nooter (left) of Manor club, took the low gross prize with a 91. Accepting the Times-Herald cup for low net is Miss Joan Crampton of Congressional Country club, who posted a card of 88-19-69.

Joan Crampton Wins Times-Herald Golf Cup

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Rain and a big nine at the tenth hole were no obstacles to Miss Joan Crampton, Congressional Country club, who yesterday traversed Indian Spring Country club's dripping wet fairways in 88 strokes to steal the whole show in the Women's District Golf association tournament for the class B Times-Herald cup.

Miss Crampton took only 40 strokes on the outgoing nine but when she realized that the coveted trophy was within her grasp, the River Road club player skidded to a 48 on the back nine, but her slide turned out to be no casualty. Her front nine, consisting of five fives, three fours and a three, put her so far out in front that her few brief shaky moments proved one thing—that with a little experience the Congressional player is destined to even bigger tournament victories.

Two-Way Winner

Miss Crampton took both low gross and low net in the 18-hole handicap affair but the featured prize was low net and the Congressional player elected that. Her decision left the low gross in a five-way muddle which took the Solomon-like judgment of Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen, class B tournament chairman, to untangle. When the juggling was over Mrs. Flora Nooter, of Manor club, emerged the low gross victor and the other four—Mrs. George Bond, Kenwood; Mrs. H. C. Woster, Prince Georges; Mrs. Haden Alldredge, Kenwood, and Mrs. Norman Brown, Prince Georges—dropped down into the net division where all collected prizes.

Mrs. Bond, whose name stood at the top of the scoreboard for most of the day, took second net with her card of 91-19-72. Mrs. Woster followed in third place with 91-18-73.

Five Card 76

Mrs. Brown won fourth low net in a card matching bout with Mrs. Eli Amanuel of the host club. The Prince Georges player reported a score of 91-17-74, while Mrs. Amanuel turned in 94-20-74.

Mrs. Alldredge's card of 91-16-75 took the sixth place award, while five players followed with nets of 76 for the remaining three places. Mrs. Joseph Hopkinson of Kenwood proved the lucky one and came out of the draw with seventh place with 93-17-76.

Mrs. Marty Gordon of Indian Spring (92-16-76) took eighth net and Mrs. Paul Barefoot, Washington (95-19-76), finished ninth and last. Drawn out of the select circle were: Mrs. Ralph Sewell, Kenwood, 95-19-76, and Mrs. Walter Kinsinger, Indian Spring, 96-20-76.

Seventy-six players teed off in the event. Other scores follow:

39 to Vie Wednesday In WDGA Handicap Tourney at Argyle

The Women's District Golf Association's Class C players will conclude their season Wednesday in an 18-hole handicap tournament at Argyle Country Club.

Women Golfers' New Class Here to Stay; Miss Pierson Wins

The Women's District Golf Association's Class C players completed their first season in the championship cup tournament at Argyle yesterday, and at the conclusion of five tournaments there's no doubt that the high handicap class is here to stay.

Class C was an unsuccessful experiment last year, but this season the players with handicaps of 21 through 26 have enjoyed competing with players of equal ability and a number of them have moved into Class B after gaining experience and improving their game.

Mrs. W. F. Patterson, president of the WDGA, announced the association had purchased a championship cup for the C class players and the winners of the last tournament of the season would be the champion.

The honor yesterday fell to Isabel Pierson, whose duties at the Embassy of Pakistan prevent her from playing anything but weekend golf. Miss Pierson played her home Argyle course in 49-45-94 and deducted 22 handicap strokes for a net 72. It was her best score in competition.

Mrs. Louis Watzman of Indian Spring won the gross prize with 50-49-99.

Other net winners were: Mrs. G. C. Macartee of Columbia, 104-25-79; Mrs. Karl Corby of Columbia, 102-22-80; Mrs. E. W. Lawson of Manor, 105-25-80, and Mrs. E. L. Duffies of Washington, 102-21-81. The Host Committee added two prizes which went to Mrs. Howard Hopkins of Washington with 103-22-81 and Mrs. Jules Friedenson of Indian Spring, 105-24-81.

Has 75 Net

Corby Cup Taken by Mrs. Levy

By Leila Edwards

Consistent golf won the highly coveted Corby Cup for Mrs. Gilbert R. Levy of Prince Georges Country Club yesterday at Columbia in the last event scheduled by the Women's District Golf Association.

Steady nines of 44 and 43 gave Mrs. Levy an 87, and she deducted a 12 handicap for a net 75. Ten one-putt greens, plus the ability to avoid hazards and sandtraps which plagued most of the field of 100 players accounted for her victory.

The lowest gross score of the day was posted by Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor. Mrs. Bower, who has been a winner in every tournament she has played in this year, scored a 40-39-79 to win.

Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, also of Manor, trailed Mrs. Bower by two strokes, shooting a 45-36-81.

Second low net was the best Mrs. H. E. Davies, Manor, could do as three-putt greens added unnecessary strokes to her card of 89-13-76.

Mrs. Frank Mirth, Washington, with 89-12-77, was given third net, while Mrs. J. R. Lewis, Prince Georges, placed fourth with 90-12-78.

Two players tied for the fifth spot, Mrs. John Long, Indian Spring, 91-11-80, and Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional, 85-5-80. Mrs. Long won out in the matching of cards, 6 down to par, and Mrs. Henderson was sixth with 9 down.

Another tie occurred when two of the lower handicappers, Mrs. Stokes, Manor, with 81-0-81, and Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 85-4-81, deadlocked for seventh place. Mrs. Stokes was matched into the top space, with 8 down to par, and Mrs. Howard received eighth prize, 11 down.

Other winners:

Ninth—Mrs. C. B. Hartman, Indian Spring, 95-13-82.

Tenth—Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, 87-5-82.

Eleventh—Mrs. Lillian Riley, Washington, 94-12-82.

Twelfth—Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood, 85-3-82.

The field of 103 players in the Women's District Golf Association's Corby Cup tournament Friday at Columbia Country Club probably means another revision in the handicap limits for next year.

The women golfers and the clubs agree that fields near the hundred mark are too large. The class A maximum may be reduced to 12 from 14. At present the A class is scratch through 14, B, 15 through 20 and C class is 21 through 36.

Mrs. Herbert Lacey turned in a 90-13-77 to win low net honors in yesterday's ladies' day play at Manor. Low putting score was the 31 by Mrs. William Welch.

Mrs. Betty Meckley, who next week will defend her United States Women's Senior championship, won gross honors in a field day of the Prince Georges Women's Golf Committee yesterday with a 79. Other low gross scores were by Betty Garber of Argyle, 83, and Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, 85.

Net prize winners in the section for players with WDGA handicaps were: Mrs. Fred Chaimson of Prince Georges, 84-11-73; Mrs. Pearl Mattingly of Prince Georges, 107-32-75; Mrs. Frank Mirth of Washington, 88-12-76, and Mrs. Norman Brown, 92-16-76; Mrs. Frank Browning, 93-17-76, and Mrs. Jack Smith, all of Prince Georges, 88-11-77.

Top prize winners in the section for players with club handicaps were Mrs. Charles Faller, 111-34-77; Mrs. Edna Johnson, 102-24-78, and low gross to Mrs. Dorothy Hall with 101. All are from Prince Georges.

Mrs. Levy's 'Cup-a-Year' Pace Pays Off in Corby Cup Golf

Mrs. Gil Levy maintained her "cup a year" average in Women's District Golf Association competition by taking the Corby Cup with a gross 87, minus 12 handicap strokes for a net 75, in the final Class A event of the season yesterday at Columbia Country Club.

Two years ago the Prince Georges Club player won the Post Cup and last year tied for the Times-Herald Cup, both B class events. The winner had nines of 44 and 43.

The District's top players of recent seasons, District Champion Mrs. A. B. Bower and Mid-Atlantic Titlist Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, both of Manor, returned to competition for the first time in several weeks and finished 1-2 in gross play, Mrs. Bower winning with a 79 and Mrs. Stokes trailing with 81 after playing the out nine in 45 and the back nine in 36, one over men's par. Mrs. Bower had 40-39.

Other net prize winners in the biggest field of the season were: Mrs. H. E. Davies of Manor, 89-13-76; Mrs. Frank Mirth of Washington, 89-12-77; Mrs. J. R. Lewis of Prince Georges, 90-12-78; Mrs. Grace Long of Indian Spring, 91-11-80; Mrs. D. H. Henderson of Congressional, 85-5-80; Mrs. Stokes, 81-0-81; Mrs. Rex Howard of Kenwood, 85-4-81; Mrs. C. B. Hartman of Indian Spring, 95-13-82; Mrs. John Ives of Columbia, 87-5-82; Mrs. Henry W. Riley of Washington, 94-12-82, and Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, 85-3-82. Mrs. Hugh Nicolson of Chevy Chase had 84-2-82, but was drawn out.

Mrs. C. G. DeKay won the class A section of the ringer tournament at Army Navy Country Club with a 68 score, one stroke better than the 69 of Mrs. J. S. Phillips. Mrs. William A. Schoech finished third with 76. Mrs. C. P. Martin was the class B winner with 78, while Mrs. Philip F. Wakeman had 81.

Mrs. Frank C. McCord won the ladies' day handicap event, scoring 110-28-82. Mrs. C. P. Martin was runnerup with 109-26-83. The nine-hole event went to Mrs. L. K. McIntyre with 58-14-44 over Mrs. E. P. Schrup, 61-14-47.

Congressional's Ladies' Day event went to Mrs. Dixon Lewis with 99-18-81 in Class A. The Class B winner was Mrs. D. L. Moorman, 98-20-78, while Class C honors went to Mrs. C. H. Zevallas with 107-29-78.

Junior golf championships were decided at Columbia, Minor and Kenwood.

Dick Foster retained his Columbia title with an easy 8-and-6 triumph over Dick Hoffman. Previously, former winners were ineligible at Columbia, but that was changed this year.

Don Dedrick won the Kenwood crown over John Eisinger, 4 and 3.

Lee Edwards, a finalist in the Indian Spring junior, won the Manor title over Carlton Kraft, 3 and 2. Bradley Burrows, jr., won the second flight and John Keresztesy the 12- and -under flight over Andy Miller, 3 and 2.

Three Are Mentioned For Presidency of D. C. Linkswomen

The District Women's Golf Association concluded activities for the year yesterday with its annual President's Plate tournament for officers, committee chairmen and past presidents. It also was the last official event for Mrs. W. F. Patterson of Indian Spring, who is stepping down as president.

Although Mrs. Patterson was noncommittal on the subject, it was learned that her successor as president probably will be Mrs. M. J. Torlinski of Army Navy. Mrs. H. Hale Dinneen of Washington Golf and Country Club or Mrs. Willard Edwards of Manor. The slate will be named at next month's meeting of the Nominating Committee.

Mrs. Patterson served two progressive years as president, in which her top contribution was the encouragement of high handicap players and establishing a class C schedule. Mrs. Patterson also attempted to promote junior girls' golf, had a hand in establishing handicap classes which were more equally divided, and continually fought for a handicap system which would make local women's handicaps compare with players of equal ability in other cities.

Mrs. Dinneen, the Class B tournament chairman, won net and gross honors yesterday at Indian Spring, but took the President's Plate, the low net award, with 85-9-76. Low gross went to Mrs. S. B. Crocker, the assistant prize chairman from Kenwood, who had 86.

The prize list included two past presidents, Mrs. Robert Lacey of Columbia with 102-24-78, and Mrs. Frank Mirth of Washington, 91-11-80.

Other prize winners were: Mrs. William E. Welch of Manor, 92-15-77; Marie Spates of Prince Georges, 93-15-78; Mrs. L. N. Hill of Kenwood, 105-26-79; Mrs. Gordon Fisher of Indian Spring, 105-25-80, and Mrs. Theodore Peyser of Woodmont, 89-9-80.

Mrs. S. B. Crocker of Kenwood had a busy day on the golf course yesterday. After a morning round in the President's Plate tournament at Indian Spring, Mrs. Crocker hurried to Kenwood for her first round match in the Kenwood women's club championship. She won easily over Mrs. Frances Hunter, 4 and 3.

In other championship flight matches, Mrs. Betty Meckley, medalist and defending champion, defeated Mrs. Rex Howard, 4 and 3; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud defeated Mrs. Ed Widmayer, 6 and 5, and Mrs. J. H. Bullock defeated Mrs. Roy Jarmon, 6 and 5.

Manor women's Golf Committee staged a nine-hole sweepstakes with Mrs. Mario Scandifio the winner with 46-7-39 over Mrs. F. W. Chambers, 51-10-41 and Mrs. E. W. Lawson, 55-12-43. The inside nine winner was Mrs. A. E. Thompson with 59-15-44.

Most of Washington's top women golfers apparently were going to pass up the three-day Payne Cup tournament of the Maryland State Golf Association that started today at Rolling Road in Catonsville.

Betty Gardner of Argyle appeared to be the District's top hope for the title won last year by Mrs. Walter R. Stokes of Manor.

Columbia Country Club's member-guest invitation golf tournament was under way today with an 18-hole qualifying round scheduled for the 42 teams. One round of match play is scheduled for the championship and other flights tomorrow and Friday, with semifinals and final on Saturday.

The annual field day and stag party, the highlight of the golf schedule at Manor Country Club, will be held for the 28th year on Saturday. The program includes a golf tournament, dinner and presentation of prizes won in the club championship, and entertainment under the direction of Gene Archer.

Members of the Middle Atlantic PGA will compete in a pro-member tournament tomorrow at the Five Farms course of the Baltimore Country Club. Host Pro Walter Romans will supply all the partners, who in turn will supply the prize money and be hosts at a dinner to follow.

The 18-hole invitation tournament of the Women's Golf Committee at Congressional Country Club attracted 72 players yesterday, with guests winning most of the honors. Low net went to Anne York of Army Navy with 81-7-74, and low gross to Mrs. A. B. Bower of Manor with an 81.

Low gross in class B went to Mrs. D. Tomlinson of Belle Haven with an 84, with net honors to Mrs. J. V. Hall of Argyle with 98-20-78. Class C honors went to Mrs. Esther Klossner with a gross of 96, and Mrs. A. L. Cochran of Manor a net 101-23-78.

Mrs. Glick Leads Field Into Payne Golf Final

Special Dispatch to The Star

CATONSVILLE, Md., Oct. 7.—Mrs. Maurice Glick of the Woodholme Club took a 6-stroke lead into the final round of the 54-hole medal play Payne Cup tournament today at Rolling Road.

Mrs. Glick yesterday added an 80 to an opening 78 for a 158 total, while Mary Ann Downey, Maryland State women's champion, equaled her own course record with a 76 to pull into second place with 88-76-164.

Mrs. Glick also is the low net leader with 156 for the two rounds, with Helen Ruff of Rolling Road second with 91-10-81 yesterday for a 157 total.

Betty Garber, Argyle Club champion, was low scorer of the Washington delegation with 84-88-172. Miss Garber's 164 was the low net score of the District players, with Mrs. A. G. Simmonds of Washington Golf and Country Club, 98-14-84-165; Mrs. John Long of Indian Spring, 99-12-87-165, and Mrs. H. E. Davies of Manor, 101-12-89-165, next.

Betty Garber Second In Payne Golf at 84

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore led the field today as 18 women from the Maryland-District of Columbia area prepared to tee off in the second round of the Payne Trophy golf tournament.

Mrs. Glick traveled over the Rolling Road Club course in 78 to run up a 6-stroke lead over her nearest competitor, Betty Garber of Argyle Club of Washington. Women's par is 75.

Helen Ruff of Rolling Road led the net scores with 86-10-76.

Helen Ruff, Rolling Road, 86-10-76; Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, 78-1-77; Mrs. J. J. Long, Indian Spring, 80-12-78; Betty Garber, Argyle, 84-4-80; Mrs. George Calvert, Washington G. and C. ## Mrs. Dinneen's 76 Wins President's Plate Event

Mrs. M. Hale Dinneen, Washington Country Club, 85-9-76, won low net prize in the President's Plate tournament at Indian Spring yesterday. Gross was won by Mrs. S. B. Crocker, Kenwood, 86.

Other net winners in order were: Mrs. William Welsch, Manor, 92-15-77; Mrs. Marie Spates, Prince Georges, 93-15-78; Mrs. Robert Lacey, Columbia, 102-24-78; Mrs. L. N. Hill, Kenwood, 105-26-79; Mrs. Gordon Fisher, Indian Spring, 105-25-80; Mrs. Theodore Peyser, Woodmont, 89-9-80; Mrs. Frank Mirth, Washington, 91-11-80.

Mrs. Glick Shows Way In Payne Trophy Golf

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, Oct. 8.—Despite a morning rain that slowed fairways and greens, Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme Country Club posted a 2-over-par 77 to win the Payne Trophy golf tournament which wound up yesterday at Rolling Road. With previous rounds of 78 and 80 she had a three-day total of 235 for a 10-stroke margin over her nearest competitor.

Second low gross was Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore Country Club with 81 yesterday and a 245 total. Helen Ruff of the host club was net leader with 93-10-83 yesterday and a 240 total, followed by Mrs. James Duke of Bonnie View, 89-9-80-243. Of Washington area golfers, Betty Garber of Argyle was best, finishing fifth among net leaders with 87-4-83-247.

Mrs. Glick Wins Payne Golf Title

BALTIMORE, Oct. 7 (AP). Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore's Woodholme Country club fired a two-over-women's-par 77 today to win the Payne trophy golf tournament at the Rolling Road course by a 10-stroke margin. Her total for the 54-hole, three-day meet was 235.

Second was Mary Ann Downey of the Baltimore Country club with 245. After whipping through with a 76 yesterday, Miss Downey faltered today over the slow, soggy course to an 81. She slid in to an 88 the first round.

In the handicap division, Helen Ruff of the host club was low with 240. She had 93-10-83 in the last round. Mrs. James Duke of Bonnie View was second with a net 243 after a final round of 89-9-80.

Despite the wet greens after the hard downpour early today, Mrs. Glick played the front nine in one under par 36, but came back with a 41 after two bad holes.

She also won the tourney, sponsored by the Maryland State Golf association, two years ago.

Today's complete results (gross, handicap, net, three-day net):

Mrs. M. Glick, Woodholme	77-1-76	232

Mrs. Glick Is Favored As M. A. Linkswomen Begin Match Play

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, Oct. 11.—Three players from Washington and 13 from Baltimore started match play in the Middle Atlantic women's golf championship today at the Country Club of Maryland. The District had only a trio of entries, but all made the grade in the title fight, Betty Garber of Argyle with an 84, Mrs. Betty Meckley, a former champion from Kenwood with 86, and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood with 90.

Mrs. Maurice Glick, winner of the Payne Cup tournament last week by a 10-stroke margin over many of the same players, won medal honors here by six strokes, and definitely is the player to beat.

Mrs. Glick, winner of this tournament in 1947, lost her Baltimore City and Maryland State titles this summer, but now apparently has regained the touch that helped her dominate women's golf in this section for several years.

Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce of Elkridge and Mrs. Claude Richards of the host club tied with 83s for the second best score of yesterday's qualifying round, while Miss Garber's 84 was next.

Both Miss Garber and Mrs. Meckley are in the upper bracket with Mrs. Glick.

Pairings:

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme (77), vs. Mrs. Charles Nes, Jr., Green Spring (88); Betty Garber, Argyle (84), vs. Mrs. Burke Davis, Hillendale (92); Mrs. Claude E. Richards, C. C. of Maryland (83), vs. Mrs. T. E. Schluderberg, B. C. C. (84); Mrs. Betty Meckley, Kenwood (86), vs. Mrs. Harry Trace, C. C. of Maryland (90); Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce, Elkridge (83), vs. Mrs. Herman Hoene, Elkridge (84); Ann Downey, B. C. C. (81), vs. Mrs. Jerome Sloman, Suburban (84); Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood (90), vs. Mrs. M. Louise Bell, B. C. C., vs. Mrs. Camille G. Bell, C. C. of Maryland (90).

Mrs. Meckley Is Lone D. C. Golf Survivor

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, three-time champion and the last Washington survivor, met Mrs. Claude Richards of the host club in the second round of the Middle Atlantic women's golf championship today at the Country Club of Maryland.

Mrs. Meckley won, 6 and 4, over Mrs. Harry Trace of the host club to advance to the second round. The other two Washington players were defeated, Betty Garber of Argyle by Mrs. Burke Davis of Hillendale, 1 up in 20 holes, and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood by Jeanette Myers of Suburban, 2 and 1.

In other matches today, Mrs. Maurice Glick, former champion and medalist, met Mrs. Davis; Mary Ann Downey, the Maryland State champion played Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce of Elkridge and Miss Myers met Mrs. M. Louise Bell of Baltimore C. C., also an ex-titlist.

Meckley-Glick Battle In M. A. Golf Feature

Special Dispatch to The Star

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Maurice Glick of the Woodholme Club in Baltimore and Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood in Washington, final round opponents for the Middle Atlantic women's golf championship two years ago, met today in the feature semifinal at the Country Club of Maryland.

In the other match, Mary Ann Downey, Maryland State champion from Baltimore C. C., met Mrs. M. Louise Bell, a clubmate who won the title in 1930.

Mrs. Meckley has won the title three times, in 1935, 1937 and 1944, while Mrs. Glick triumphed two years ago when she defeated Mrs. Meckley for the title.

Mrs. Meckley defeated Mrs. Claude Richards of the host club, 3 and 1, yesterday while Mrs. Glick, medalist and winner of the Payne Cup last week, scored a 6 and 5 triumph over Mrs. Burke Davis of Hillendale. Miss Downey won over Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce of Elkridge, 4 and 3, and Mrs. Bell over Jeanette Myers of Suburban, 3 and 2.

Kenwood Star Plays Mrs. Glick

Baltimore, Oct. 12.—Mrs. Betty Meckley of the Kenwood Country Club of Washington, D. C., gained the semifinals in the Middle Atlantic Women's golf championship by defeating Mrs. Claude E. Richards of the Country Club of Maryland, 3 and 1, at the Country Club of Maryland here today.

Second round matches reduced the field to four today. In addition to Mrs. Meckley the survivors are:

Mrs. Maurice Glick, the medalist from Woodholme Club, Baltimore; Mary Ann Downey, State champion from the Baltimore Country Club and Mrs. M. Louise Bell of the Baltimore Country Club.

In tomorrow's round to decide the two finalists, Mrs. Glick will meet Mrs. Meckley and Miss Downey will match strokes with Mrs. Bell.

The championship round will be played Friday.

In today's results: Mrs. Glick defeated Mrs. Burke Davis of the Hillendale Club, 6 and 5; Miss Downey defeated Mrs. C. Prevost Boyce, Elkridge, 4 and 3 and Mrs. Bell defeated Jeanette Myers, Suburban, 3 and 2.

Linkswomen Startling Team Play Tuesday

The Womens District Golf Association's team matches get underway Tuesday with the first teams at Chevy Chase, the second teams at Kenwood and the third at Washington Golf and Country Club. The round-robin series will run nine weeks and will be concluded with the team field day June 28.

With an odd number of teams entered in each class, the home team will draw a bye each week.

Mrs. M. M. Alexander of Columbia Country Club, the District team captain, announced the pairings.

In the first team matches at Chevy Chase, Manor meets Woodmont on the first tee at 9:30 and Army Navy plays Kenwood at 10 o'clock on the first tee. Tenth tee pairings are Congressional and Washington at 9:30 and Prince Georges and Belle Haven at 10.

Kenwood's defending champions are the first team favorites. Manor has the top first bracket of Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District champion, and Mrs. Walter R. Strokes, the Middle Atlantic titlist, and it and Chevy Chase are rated the chief threats to Kenwood. Mrs. H. D. Conklin of Army Navy is the first team captain.

In second team play at Kenwood, where Manor is the defending champion, Chevy Chase meets Manor at 9:30 on the first tee and Columbia plays Prince Georges at 10. On the tenth tee, Congressional plays Army Navy at 9:30 and Washington meets Belle Haven at 10. Mrs. Walter Jarvis of Columbia is the second team captain.

In third team play at Washington, Manor meets Indian Spring at 9:30 and Kenwood plays Columbia at 10. Mrs. Russell Aldred of Washington is the third team captain. The third teams are playing for the first time in three years.

Women Start Golf Play

The District Women's Golf Association team play opens today with the first teams competing at Chevy Chase, second teams at Kenwood, and third teams at Washington Golf and Country Club.

Due to the odd number of teams in each classification, the host team draws a bye in all classes. Play will be held every Tuesday for the next nine weeks with the closing field day June 28.

Today at Chevy Chase, in the first-team class, Manor meets Woodmont on the first tee at 9:30, while Congressional plays Washington on the tenth tee at the same time. A half hour later, Army-Navy tees off against defending champion Kenwood on the first tee and Prince Georges clashes with Belle Haven on the tenth tee.

At Kenwood, the second-team defending champs from Manor face Chevy Chase on the front tee at 9:30, while Congressional meets Army-Navy on the back nine. At 10, Prince Georges and Columbia tangle on the first tee with Washington and Belle Haven mixing it on the tenth.

For the first time since the war the third teams will play in league competition. At Washington, Manor and Indian Springs at 9:30, with Kenwood and Columbia meeting at 10.

W.D.G.A. Schedule Starts Tomorrow

First and second teams of the Women's District Golf association will launch a nine-match schedule tomorrow and the third teams will open a five-match slate starting at 9:30 a.m. First teams will play at Chevy Chase, second teams at Kenwood and the third teams at Washington. First and 10th tees will be used in all but third team matches.

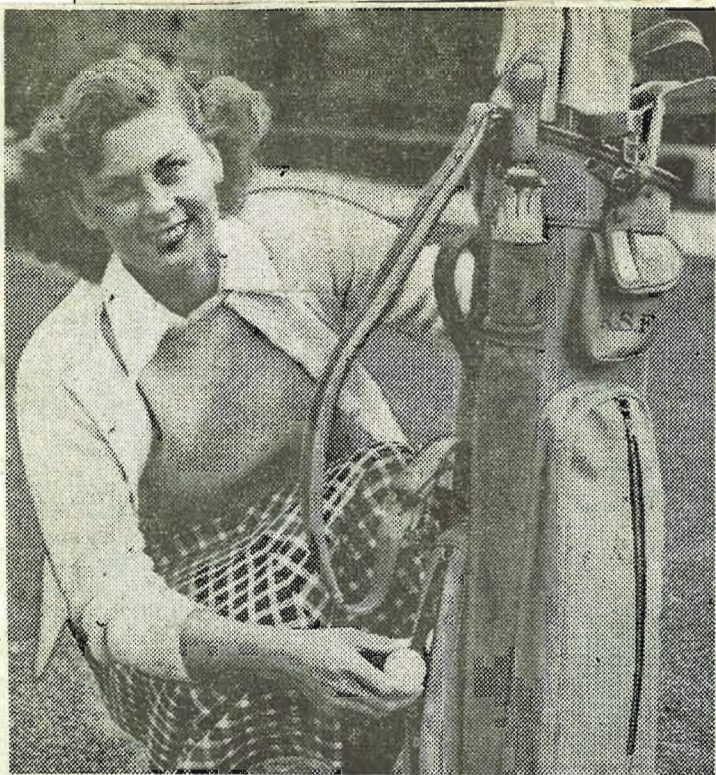

"This is Mrs. Hinkle. I'm going to teach her to play golf today. Remember, you taught me yesterday?"

ALL IN A LIFETIME

—By Frank Beck

LUCKY LINKSWOMAN—Here's Mrs. Edward G. Ferriday, who, with Mrs. W. F. Parsons, also of the Army Navy Club, scored a major upset by earning all three points from Kenwood's second bracket of Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. S. B. Crocker as the WDGA team championships got under way on three fronts yesterday. Mrs. Ferriday sank a 15-foot putt on the final hole to clinch the third point. —Star Staff Photo.

Kenwood Golfwomen, Victors At Start, Favored to Keep Title

With only six handicap strokes difference between its first and last player, Kenwood's defending champions rule the favorites to repeat in the Women's District Golf Association's first team matches, despite their comparatively narrow 6-3 triumph over Army Navy in the first day's play yesterday at Chevy Chase.

Although handicaps do not count in the first team play, they still give an accurate line on a team's strength, and with its six-woman team carrying a total of only 32 strokes Kenwood has the lowest handicap total by 11 strokes.

Manor, with its top bracket of Mrs. Walter Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Bower carrying only one stroke handicap each, is second with a total of 43 handicap strokes for its six players. Other totals are Chevy Chase 48 strokes, Army Navy 49, Woodmont 61, Congressional 63, Washington 64, Prince Georges 73 and Belle Haven 83.

Army Navy Duo Surprises.

Mrs. E. C. Ferriday, prominent in Eastern women's golf circles before moving to Washington, and Mrs. W. F. Parsons supplied the surprise for Army Navy yesterday when they teamed to win all three points from Kenwood's second bracket of Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. S. B. Crocker. Mrs. Ferriday dropped a 15-foot putt on the last hole for a par four to wrap up the third point.

Manor won 8½-½ over Wood-mont as Mrs. Henry Ralph Goldsmith and Ruth Simon salvaged a half point in the second bracket from Mrs. George Martin and Mrs. Roderick Watson.

Congressional and Washington gave ample evidence of the WDGA's strict handicapping, as with only one stroke difference in their totals, they played to a 4½-4½ tie. Congressional won the top bracket as Mrs. D. H. Henderson and Mrs. J. W. Godfrey took 2½ to ½ from Mrs. George H. Bailey and Mrs. Charles Egenroad.

Prince Georges Victor.

Prince Georges won, 6-3, over Belle Haven with the Alexandria team avoiding a shutout when its third bracket of Mrs. De Butts Saunders and Mrs. Walter Desmond won three points from Mrs. James Kinder and Mrs. Gil Levy.

Chevy Chase, a threat to Kenwood with Mrs. David Clark again in its lineup, drew a bye.

Manor, defending champion in the second team play, lost 7-2 to Chevy Chase at Kenwood. The hosts drew a bye. The other matches were close as Belle Haven edged Washington, 5-4; Congressional and Army-Navy battled to a 4½-4½ tie and Columbia and Prince Georges tied at the same score.

Kenwood took the lead in the third team play at Washington by defeating Columbia, 7½-1½, while Indian Spring defeated Manor, 5-4. The hosts drew a bye.

Manor Women Take Top Spot In W.D.G.A. Play

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Manor Country club's golf team took a two-point lead in the standings of the Women's District Golf association championship yesterday at Woodmont Country club, defeating Washington, 6½ to 2½.

The Manor club aggregation won all three points in the first and second matches but dropped a ½ point to 2½ decision to Washington's third group to lose a chance to build a bigger edge over the defending champion Kenwood team. While Manor was swelling their total points to 15, Kenwood was defeating Congressional, 7-2, to have a total of 13 points in the two matches played.

Chevy Chase club's strong team played its first match yesterday and met unexpected opposition from Belle Haven but managed to win, 6-3. The lead-off pair of Mrs. Hugh Nicolson and Mrs. Landra Platt were upset by Mrs. J. Manco and Mrs. Michael Meehan to give the Belle Haven team a three-point edge after the first foursome reported. But Chevy Chase came through with clean sweep victories in the two remaining foursomes to remain very much in the running for the title. Results in all three divisions:

Mrs. Bower's 78 Maintains Lead In W.D.G.A. Play

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Mrs. A. B. Bower fired a round of 78 at Congressional Country club yesterday to lead Manor Country club to a 6-3 victory over Prince Georges and retain for her club the lead in the close race for the District Women's Golf association team championship.

Mrs. Bower paired up with Mrs. Walter R. Stokes to win all three points from Lois Gladding and Mrs. Ora Emge, the Prince Georges lead-off team. Mrs. J. R. Lewis and Mrs. Gilbert Levy stayed off a possible Manor club rout by taking all three points in the final foursome from Mrs. R. E. Zuber and Mrs. F. W. Williams.

Kenwood Favored

Kenwood club, the defending champion, turned back Chevy Chase club, 6-3, to stay two points off Manor club's pace with a total of 19 points.

To date Kenwood has met the stronger teams in the loop and, with the weaker teams ahead, is heavily favored to retain the title. But should Manor club's lower brackets win against the better teams then the race to the wire is going to be a very close one.

Army Navy Third

Army Navy turned back Belle Haven, 6½ to 2½, to move into third place with a total of 16½ points and still remain a threat in the title race.

The Women's District Golf Association, tired of being criticized because of the excessive time required to run its tournaments, is cracking down on the slow players and will follow warnings with disqualification penalties.

Not too many years ago the women golfers used to figure on three hours for an 18-hole round of golf. Now they are averaging more than four, and in some cases take five hours, all because of 10 or 12 players who slow up the entire field.

Mrs. W. F. Patterson, president of the WDGA, asserts her chairmen have been instructed to follow the new rule of the United States Golf Association, which calls for a two-stroke penalty in medal play and disqualification in match after a warning for slow play. If a threesome or foursome falls an entire hole behind the group in front and does not permit other players to play through, the group tying up the course will be liable for a penalty.

In first team play at Congressional yesterday, Manor held its lead as Mrs. A. B. Bower shot a 78 to lead the way, but the Norbeck Club lost three points to Prince Georges in the third bracket to dim its title chances. Manor defeated Prince Georges, 6-3, Chevy Chase scored in every bracket against Kenwood but lost, 6-3, Washington defeated Woodmont, 7-2, and Army Navy won over Belle Haven, 6½-2½.

The race for the second team crown was tightened at Belle Haven where Army Navy defeated Columbia, 7½-1½; Manor won over Kenwood, 5-4; Chevy Chase defeated Congressional, 5-4 and Prince Georges and Washington tied, 4½ all. In third team play, Washington defeated Manor, 5½-3½ at Kenwood and Columbia won over Indian Spring, 6½-2½.

Manor Golfers Advance in Race

Mrs. Stokes Bags 76
To Pace Team Win

By MAURY FITZGERALD

Manor Country club's desperate bid to dethrone Kenwood Golf and Country club as the Women's District Golf Association team champions was strengthened yesterday at Army Navy Country club where Mrs. Walter R. Stokes fired a great round of 76 to lead Manor to an 8-1 win over Belle Haven.

The victory moved Manor into a 2½ point lead over the champions, but Kenwood still has a slight edge in view of the fact that the River Roaders have a weaker schedule remaining.

Kenwood rolled to a 7½ to 1½ point victory over Prince Georges to let Manor pick up a one-half point in the standings. Chevy Chase club scored the first rout of the season by tallying a 9-0 score against Washington and Woodmont came up with the big surprise of the day—a 7½ to 1½ victory over Congressional.

Army and Navy nosed out Woodmont, 5-4, to continue to lead in the second team race. Just a half point away is Chevy Chase, a 6-3 winner over Columbia at Manor.

Indian Spring defeated Kenwood, 5-4, to pace the third team title chase with 18½ points. But Washington, a 6½ to 2½ victor over Columbia at Prince Georges, is in second place with 18 points and has played one less match than the leaders.

There was little change among the leaders in the Women's District Golf Association's first team play at Army Navy Club yesterday, but a lot of commotion in the lower half, where Woodmont won one of its most decisive victories in several seasons to steal the show.

While Kenwood, Manor and Chevy Chase kept pace with one-sided triumphs, Woodmont's happy sextet jumped two places out of the cellar with a 7½-to-1½ triumph over Congressional.

The individual high light of the day was a fine 76 by Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, Manor's Middle Atlantic champion, from nines of 39 and 37. Mrs. Stokes set what is believed to be an unofficial women's record for the second and third nines, the ones now in play. Another sub-80 score was a 79 by Mrs. Landra Platt of Chevy Chase.

Manor Remains in Front

Woodmont's first bracket of Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith and Mrs. Theodore Peyser won 2½ points from Mrs. David Henderson and Mrs. J. W. Godfrey of Congressional. Woodmont's second bracket of Mrs. H. H. Goodman and Mrs. Sam Brown won three and the third bracket of Mrs. Milton Harris and Mrs. Herman Neugass won two.

Manor kept its place on top with an 8-1 triumph over Belle Haven, gaining ground when Mrs. Frank Williams and Mrs. R. E. Zuber won 3 points in the third bracket. Kenwood won 7½ to 1½ over Prince Georges, losing 1½ in the third where Mrs. J. R. Lewis and Mrs. Gil Levy of Prince Georges split with Mrs. Elbert Harris and Mrs. Ed Widmayer.

Chevy Chase scored the first clean sweep of the first team series with its 9-0 shutout over Washington as Mrs. Platt, Mrs. Hugh Nicolson, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, Mrs. Arnold Wilcox, Mrs. David Clark and Mrs. Philip Israel swept their matches. The hosts drew a bye.

Second Team Race Close

Army Navy and Chevy Chase remained within a point of each other in first and second place in the second team play, but Kenwood, in third place and having played one less match, was in the best position with 19 points to 22½ and 21½ for the first two teams.

At Prince Georges in second team play yesterday, Kenwood defeated Belle Haven, 8½-½; Chevy Chase won over Columbia, 6-3; Army Navy defeated Washington, 5-4 and Congressional defeated Manor, 5-4.

The third teams will play their final match next week and the winner will be decided when Washington meets Kenwood. Indian Spring leads by a half point but has completed its schedule. Kenwood must beat Washington 6-3 to tie and more than that to win as the Washington team, winner in 1947 the last time the third team matches were played, leads Kenwood by three points.

In third team matches at Manor yesterday, Washington defeated Columbia, 6½-2½ and Indian Spring won over Kenwood, 5-4.

Manor Women Boost Lead

Manor Country Club's golf team defeated Belle Haven, 8-1, yesterday in the fourth round of the Women's District Golf Association team championship, and boosted its lead to 2½ points and its total score to 29. Kenwood, by defeating Prince Georges 7½-1½, retained second place with 26½ points, while Chevy Chase routed Washington 9-0 to move into third position with 18 points.

Kenwood Wins, Takes Lead in Women's Golf

The lead for the championship in the Women's District Golf Association team matches changed hands yesterday when Kenwood Country Club scored a solid nine points against Belle Haven to take possession of first place.

The clean sweep of the matches gave Kenwood, last year's winner, a total of 33½ points, and a lead of 2½ points over Manor.

The Manor Club team, which had been leading the field for four weeks, encountered unexpected opposition in Congressional, and could manage only an even break of 4½-4½.

Kenwood's defending champions took over first place—probably for good—in the Women's District Golf Association team matches yesterday, while in the third-team play Washington Golf and Country Club won the title for the second time in three years. The third teams did not compete last year.

Washington, which needed only 3½ points out of 9 in its match with Kenwood for the third team title, won 5½-3½. Manor defeated Columbia, 8-1, to slip into second place at Indian Spring, where the hosts drew a bye. The winning Washington team was made up of Mrs. H. M. Nelson, Mrs. D. R. Monsees, Mrs. H. M. Willey, Mrs. R. N. Rite, Mrs. P. F. O'Halloran and Mrs. Russell Aldred. The third teams finished before the others because there was only five teams.

Kenwood's 9-0 sweep of Belle Haven vaulted it into the top spot in the first team play as Manor, leader since the season started, split with Congressional, 4½-4½. Woodmont surprised by holding Chevy Chase to a 4½-4½ tie while Washington defeated Army Navy, 5-4, blasting the service club's slim hopes of the championship.

Army Navy retained its lead in the second-team play which left the standings closer than ever after Chevy Chase and Prince Georges tied, 4½-4½; Army Navy beat Manor, 5-4; Columbia and Kenwood tied, 4½-4½, and Congressional won over Belle Haven, 7½-1½.

First-team matches were at Prince Georges and second at Washington.

Kenwood Women Golfers Swamp Belle Haven, 9-0

Kenwood Golf and Country club routed Belle Haven, 9-0, yesterday at Prince Georges Golf and Country club to replace Manor club as the leaders in the race for the Women's District Golf association team championship.

Manor club, the leader since the season began, was held to a surprising 4½ to 4½ deadlock by Congressional. In another surprise, Woodmont tied Chevy Chase, 4½ to 4½. In the other match, Washington eked out a 5-4 victory over Army-Navy.

Washington Golf and Country club won the third team title at Indian Spring with 23½ points. Manor finished second with 21.

In the second team matches at Washington, Chevy Chase deadlocked with Prince Georges, 4½ to 4½, Army-Navy defeated Manor, 5-4; Congressional routed Belle Haven, 7½ to 1½, and Columbia and Kenwood split, 4½ to 4½.

Kenwood Women Retain Lead In Team Golf Race

Kenwood Golf and Country club continued to hold its slim two point lead over Manor Country club in the Women's District Golf association team championship, both teams winning 7½ to 1½-point victories in matches held yesterday at Washington Golf and Country club.

Kenwood, the defending champions, defeated Woodmont, while Manor was winning over Army-Navy Country club. The Manor top team of Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Stokes remain the only undefeated duo in the loop by collecting all three points from the service club combination of Mrs. E. P. Moore and Mrs. E. C. Ferriday.

Manor Regains Lead in Ladies' Team Matches

Manor Country club's golf team regained the lead in the Women's District Golf association team championship yesterday at Belle Haven Country club, upsetting Kenwood, the defending champions, 6-3.

Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District champion, had a great round of 75 and Mrs. Walter R. Stokes, the Middle Atlantic titlist, had a 76 and together they spun a brilliant best-ball of 71 to easily defeat the Kenwood top team of Mrs. Betty P. Meckley and Mrs. J. P. Trou-

Army Navy	22
Washington	19
Second Teams
Chevy Chase	33
Congressional	31½
Army Navy	30½
Prince Georges	25½
Kenwood	25

There is little change among first-team leaders in the Women's District Golf Association team championships, but yesterday's second-team results produced a little shuffling.

Among first teams, Kenwood and Manor continued their neck-and-neck race as both won, 7½-1½. Kenwood held its 2-point edge by defeating Woodmont while Manor was winning over Army Navy. Manor's No. 1 team of Mrs. Walter R. Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Stokes won all three points over Mrs. E. P. Moore and Mrs. E. C. Ferriday to remain the only undefeated combination in the league.

In other matches, Chevy Chase defeated Prince Georges, 5½-3½; and Belle Haven won over Congressional, 5-4.

In the tight second-team races, Army Navy dropped from first to third while losing to Prince Georges, 6-2. That enabled P. G. to move from fifth to fourth, ahead of Kenwood, a 7½-1½ victim of Congressional. Chevy Chase took over the lead by beating Belle Haven, 7-2, while Manor and Washington continued in a second-division deadlock by splitting, 4½-4½.

Parker Nolan won the tournament at Congressional yesterday during celebration of the club's 25th anniversary. He fired a 73 to top 154 competitors. Low net leaders were: J. W. Faltley, 81-14-67; Dr. W. J. Evans, 76-8-68, and F. E. McArdle, 80-11-69.

Mrs. D. S. Platt won the blind bogey at Manor with 108-26-82, while the low-putts prize went to Mrs. Roy Brooks with 31. In the nine-hole tourney, Mrs. F. E. Lambert was low with 47 and Mrs. H. E. Hansbury had 15 putts.

Georgetown Prep surprised yesterday by handing Coolidge High, leader in the Interhigh League, a 9-0 defeat in a match over the Prep course.

Kenwood Golfwomen Return to First Place

A policy of watchful, hopeful waiting has been adopted by the linkswomen of Kenwood club. They are back in undisputed possession of first place in the Women's District Golf Association team standings, even if it is only temporary—which, of course, they hope it isn't.

It all depends on next week's match between Manor and Chevy Chase. Manor took over the lead last week by beating Kenwood. The lead, which has been bouncing back and forth between the two teams all season, went back to Kenwood by 8 points yesterday, as Kenwood swept to a 9-0 victory over Washington Country Club at Washington. This was Kenwood's last match of the season. Manor drew a bye yesterday and will wind up its slate next week.

In other finals team matches, Woodmont beat Belle Haven, 5½ to 3½; Prince Georges whipped Congressional, 6½ to 2½, and Chevy Chase won over Army Navy, 6-3.

In second team matches, Manor beat Columbia, 5½ to 3½; Washington defeated Congressional, 7½ to 1½; Prince Georges defeated

Belle Haven, 6½ to 2½, and Army Navy edged out Kenwood, 5½ to 3½. Chevy Chase, which leads the standings and needs only four points next week to take the title, drew a bye.

Kenwood Women Win, 9-0; Take Lead in Golf League

Kenwood swept through Washington Country Club, 9-0, yesterday at Washington to go ahead by eight strokes in the team play standings of the Women's District Golf Association.

Dropping to second place was Manor, which drew a bye. Manor was leading by one point going into yesterday's matches.

Manor has a chance to catch up again in the final matches last week when it faces strong Chevy Chase. Kenwood, having finished its slate will receive a bye.

Manor Country Club's first team in the Women's District Golf Association matches, which needed eight points to tie Kenwood's defending champions and nine to win in yesterday's final matches, won the nine with the help of an unusual break and nosed out the idle hosts by 56 points to 55.

Meanwhile, Chevy Chase won the second-team title at Army Navy, topping the idle Service Club team by 45 points to 40 in the final standings, although Chevy Chase lost its last match, 5½-3½ to Washington.

Manor's chances of taking eight or nine points from Chevy Chase, the third-place team in the first team matches, did not appear favorable. But the latter was forced to play with only three of its regulars and one substitute and forfeited the three points in the third bracket. That eased Manor's path to the title.

Chevy Chase might have been able to use Mrs. David Clark, a former Middle Atlantic champion and a designated regular on the team, but Mrs. Clark found herself ineligible for the final match. It was under the ruling whereby a designated first-team player must play at least four matches. Mrs. Clark had played only two with one match to go and thus was not eligible.

Despite the break in the final match Manor's team felt it deserved the title, however, as in the head-to-head clash between the leaders Manor had defeated Kenwood, 6-3, and Manor produced the highest scoring and only undefeated combination in Mrs. Walter Stokes and Mrs. A. B. Bower, the Middle Atlantic and District champions, respectively.

The second highest scoring team in first team play was Kenwood's Mrs. Betty Meckley and Mrs. J. B. Trouchaud, which lost to the Mrs. Stokes-Mrs. Bower combination yesterday, and the third highest scoring team was Kenwood's Mrs. Rex Howard and Mrs. S. B. Crocker. The points were announced by Mrs. James F. Conklin, first team captain.

Manor's winning team was made up of Mrs. Stokes and Mrs. Bower; Mrs. George Martin and Mrs. R. D. Watson in the second bracket and Mrs. Mario Scandiffo and Mrs. R. E. Zuber in the third bracket.

In the second-team play Chevy Chase, which had only a remote chance of losing the title to either Prince Georges or Congressional in the final day, won the second-team play by a 5-point margin.

The Chevy Chase team that clinched the title was made up of Mrs. Albert Walker, a substitute; Mrs. Philip Israel, Mrs. Franklin Babcock, Mrs. Arthur Phelan, Mrs. Jarrett White and Mrs. John Burnside.

In other first team matches yesterday Congressional defeated Army Navy, 6-4, Washington won over Belle Haven, 8½-½, and Prince Georges defeated Woodmont, 6½-2½. In second team play Congressional defeated Columbia, 5½-3½, Manor won over Belle Haven, 7-2, and Kenwood defeated Prince Georges, 6½-2½.

Chevy Chase Bows, 9-0, in Final Match

By Leila Edwards

Manor Country Club defeated Chevy Chase, 9-0, yesterday to win the first team championship of the Women's District Golf Association in the closest finish of the matches since 1939.

from Kenwood, scored a clean sweep of all three brackets, and edged into the lead by one slim point.

Kenwood, last year's champions, drew a bye on their home course for the last match.

Despite its whitewash, Chevy Chase, which has been in third position for the better part of the season, finished in that spot. Prince Georges won fourth place.

Bower, Martin Win in W.D.G.A. Field Day Golf

By MAURY FITZGERALD

The champions of the three divisions of the Women's District Golf association team competition played host to the vanquished members of the three loops yesterday, but at Manor Country club, where the first team Field day was held, the champions were a little rough on the guests—winning almost all the prizes.

Nearly every member of the Manor club's team finished in the prize group, with Mrs. A. B. Bower, the District champion, taking the low gross with a 79, and Mrs. George Martin the low net with 85-8-77. Mrs. Bower played the wooded first nine in 38 strokes but took 41 on the journey home, while Mrs. Martin was getting out in 40 and back in 45.

Mrs. Matthews Steals Show

Mrs. R. D. Watson, Mrs. W. R. Stokes and Mrs. M. Scandiffio were the other members of the Manor club team to earn prize places. The low putts award in the class A event went to Mrs. M. H. Dinneen of Washington with 28.

In the second team event at Chevy Chase club the surprise package was Mrs. Carl Matthews of Congressional, who just about stole the whole show. Mrs. Matthews, whose card of 87-16-71 was both low net and low gross, elected to take the low gross price.

Gross to Mrs. Gable

Falling heir to the net prize because of Mrs. Matthews decision was Mrs. Jack Smith of Prince Georges, with 82-13-79. Mrs. Arthur Phelan of Chevy Chase, was next with 94-14-80. The putts award went to Mrs. Jarrett White of the host club, with 27.

Mrs. G. R. Gable of Kenwood, fired a round of 92 to be the gross winner in the third team Field day at Washington. Mrs. A. J. Loda of Manor, was the low net victor with 98-18-80. The putts prize went to Mrs. Robert Keebler of Kenwood, with 30.

Other winners in the events were:

First Teams—Mrs. Rex Howard, Kenwood, 84-4-79; Mrs. M. J. Torlinski, Army-Navy, 88-9-79; Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, 88-8-80; Mrs. Ora Emge, Prince Georges, 89-5-80; Mrs. William Walsh, Washington, 93-13-80; Mrs. W. R. Stokes, Manor, 81-0-81; Mrs. R. D. Watson, Manor, 92-9-81; Mrs. M. Scandiffio, Manor, 93-12-81; Mrs. Milton Harris, Woodmont, 84-13-81.
Second Teams—Mrs. A. V. McMullen, Prince Georges, 101-20-81; Mrs. Franklin Babcock, Chevy Chase, 96-14-82; Mrs. R. M. Gibbons, Army-Navy, 92-16-82; Mrs. B. H. Burrows, Manor, 93-17-82; Mrs. John Ives, Columbia, 90-8-82; Mrs. Max Taylor, Manor, 97-15-82; Mrs. H. K. Lady, Washington, 101-19-82.
Third Teams—Mrs. C. W. Braden, Manor, 103-21-82; Mrs. H. M. Nelson, Washington, 104-21-82; Mrs. R. E. Aldred, Washington, 109-26-83.

Woman's Ingenuity Prevails Again

Betty Jameson didn't let a little thing like a grandstand stymie her during a round in the women's division of the All-American golf tournament at Tam O'Shanter, Chicago. She calmly banked her shot against the boards as the spectators ducked and the gutta-percha (in air) rebounded to the edge of the eighteenth green. It's a good trick to remember.

"They don't have much faith in a woman's ability to play the game at this course, do they?"
