

The Women's
District of Columbia
Golf Association

1959 SCHEDULE

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

Outgoing committee chairmen recommended that the Women's District Golf Association close its cup tournaments to junior golfers and discontinue the intercity team matches with Baltimore and Richmond at the recent annual meeting. Both recommendations probably will be passed.

The WDGA sponsors five junior cup tournaments, and it was the sentiment of the committee that those events would be sufficient activity for the young girls, particularly because the fields in the A through E class tournaments are overcrowded.

Kathryn Diggs, intercity team captain, recommended discontinuing the four-match schedule until there is renewed interest. Miss Diggs pointed out she had to contact 49 players to round up a team of 10 for one of last year's matches.

Mrs. William P. McKelway of Chevy Chase Club showed the greatest improvement of WDGA members in 1958, reducing her handicap almost seven strokes. Mrs. Jess Nettles and Mrs. N. I. Looney of Army Navy were next, reducing their handicaps six and a fraction shots.

Tommy Doerer, Jr., is the new golf course superintendent at Fort Belvoir. Tommy, until recently pro-manager-superintendent at Fredericksburg, Va., also is the new secretary-treasurer of the Middle Atlantic Superintendents, . . . Andrews Air Force Base is planning a new nine holes.

Pete Nee called the Congressional golf shop the other day and told the boys he was in his office on Wisconsin avenue, and would be at the club in five minutes. He wasn't kidding. Five minutes later Nee landed in the parking lot in a helicopter. He was the first golfer to land at Congressional by that mode of transportation since Tommy Bolt pulled the same stunt in the last Celebrities tournament.

The District lost one of its outstanding women golfers when the George Nobles (she was three-time women's club champion at Kenwood) returned to Texas.

If the Middle Atlantic golf pros are looking for a site for their winter seminars, Frank Cronin is offering the facilities of the University of Maryland, which include indoor driving nets, a classroom and projection room, plus the convenience to Baltimore and Washington.

Allan Burton, the Army Navy pro, was cheered by mail from overseas the other day. Anna Krishina Broman, a former Strayer's College student who took lessons from Burton during two years in Washington, enclosed clippings of a course-record performance in a 72-hole tournament in Helsinki. "Chris" as she was known here, shot 77-76-80-76 to win an important tournament, and gave full credit to Al for her golf game.

Mrs. J.R. De Farges, affectionately known as "Bunch" to her many friends in District women's golf, died last week at the age of 78. After retiring from active golf she remained a tournament follower.

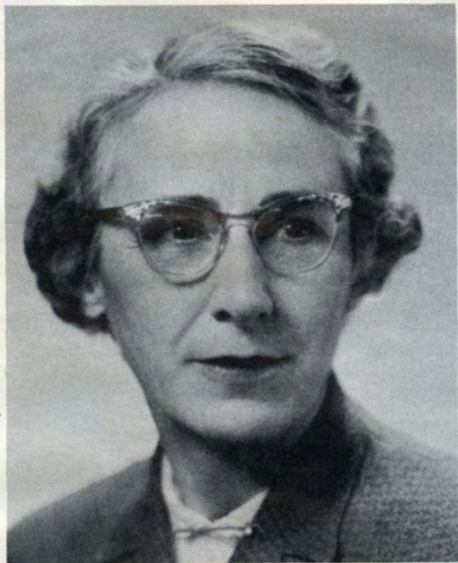

An organization which has taken the name of Washington Amateur Golf Association, which hopes to promote tournaments and have centralized handicaps for members to use in outside events, will meet Tuesday night at Oxon Run at 8 o'clock. Joseph Bachmurski hopes to have two representatives each from Fort Dupont, Glenn Dale, Andrews AFB, Bethesda Naval, Fort Meade, Rock Creek, East Potomac, Sligo Park, Glenbrook, and his club.

Many thanks to Mrs. John Mancos, outgoing president of the Women's District Golf Association, for her graciousness, efficiency and co-operation during her two-year term, plus other years in office while working up to the presidency.

As an example of the added duties of golf pros, Manor's Clagett Stevens and Kay Kendall, his son-in-law, were in Augusta, Ga., for a convention on the maintenance of electric golf carts.

With Montgomery County due to lose three public courses this summer because of roads, developments and hospital sites, shouldn't that spur faster action on a proposed new course near Rockville?

Woman Golfers Get Mrs. Streit As New President

Mrs. Paul H. Streit of Chevy Chase Club will be installed as president of the Women's District Golf Association at the annual luncheon meeting Thursday at Belle Haven Club.

There was competition for offices on the women's golf slate for the third consecutive year. For many years prior to 1957 the Nominating Committee's report was accepted, and installation of officers was automatic.

Mrs. Streit, club champion at Chevy Chase, won a close contest over Mrs. E. L. Duffies of Washington G&CC, the current first vice president. Mrs. Streit is second vice president.

Mrs. Arnold Babb of Bethesda will be installed as first vice president after winning a contest over Mrs. John Flatley of Congressional.

Mrs. Arthur Sims of Woodmont will be the new second vice president, and Mrs. N. J. Morgan of Belle Haven, the new secretary. Mrs. Ray Weisberg of Norbeck was re-elected treasurer.

CONSTITUTION OF THE
WOMEN'S DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA GOLF ASSOCIATION

Revised
3/27/57

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of this Association shall be the Women's District of Columbia Golf Association.

ARTICLE II

PURPOSE

This Association has been formed and exists for the purpose of promoting and conserving the best interests of the women golfers of the District of Columbia, and those within that area generally considered as the "Greater Metropolitan Area of Washington."

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

The members of this Association shall be those clubs and individuals who are eligible under the following provisions:

1. Clubs

Any privately owned golf or country club of the District of Columbia or within that area generally considered as the "Greater Metropolitan Area of Washington", having proper and adequate facilities, and holding membership in the United States Golf Association, shall be eligible to membership upon application in writing and election by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

2. Individual

Any individual woman golfer, belonging to a Member Club, which said Club is in good standing in this Association, shall be eligible for membership in this Association upon qualifying in accordance with the specific rules covering membership.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of this Association shall be a President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected and shall hold office for one year and may be re-elected. However, any President or Vice-President who has served two consecutive terms shall not be eligible for re-election to the same office until two years have elapsed.

Section 2. Vacancies in the office of President shall be filled by the Vice-Presidents, in the order of their precedence, and vacancies so created or otherwise occurring in the office of Vice-President, and in the offices of Secretary and Treasurer, shall be filled by a 2/3 vote of the delegates at a meeting especially called therefor, and all persons so elected to fill vacancies shall serve until the next Annual Meeting.

BY-LAWS OF THE
WOMEN'S DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA GOLF ASSOCIATION

Revised
3/25/59

ARTICLE I.

MEMBERSHIP

The application for and acceptance of membership in the Association shall bind each member to abide by the provisions of the Constitution, By-Laws, and such rules and regulations as may be enacted by the Executive Committee and/or Standing Committees, and shall bind such member to accept and enforce all decisions of the Executive Committee and/or Standing Committees, made within their jurisdiction. Refusal or neglect on the part of any member-club or individual member of the Association to comply with these provisions shall render such member liable to suspension or expulsion by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE II.

DUES & FEES

Sec. 1. The annual dues of a Member-Club of this Association shall be Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars. Failure of any Member-Club to pay the prescribed dues shall provide reason for suspension of the Club, and shall render void the voting power of the delegate designated to represent that Club.

Sec. 2. Individual members of this Association shall pay Participation Fees annually, on the following bases:

(a) "Full" Participation Fee shall entitle the individual to Handicap Service, a Budget Book, and participation in all WDGA events.

(b) In the case of persons qualifying for participation in Association events after April 1st and before August 1st, "Full" participation fee shall apply; after August 1st the fee would be reduced proportionately.

(c) "Partial" Participation Fee shall cover Handicap Service only for any persons not desiring to participate in Association events. There shall be a flat fee for this service.

ARTICLE III.

PARTICIPATION APPLICATIONS

Sec. 1. Participation Applications shall be distributed to all member-clubs, and any qualified individual golfer belonging to a member-club and residing in the "Greater Metropolitan Area of Washington" shall be required to submit the necessary application on or before February 15th, together with the applicable fee.

Sec. 2. Provision shall be made for the acceptance of applications after February 15th only in the following cases: (A) A golfer who reduces her handicap to the highest handicap allowed for participation; (B) A golfer who may join one of the member-clubs after February 15th and is duly qualified; (C) A golfer who lacked the required number of scores for participation prior to February 15th.

Sec. 3. A golfer who has extenuating circumstances may appeal her case to the Executive Board.

Women's Golf Tourney Listed at Washington

Washington Golf and Country Club was awarded the women's team championship for September 29-October 1 at the annual meeting of the Virginia State Golf Association Saturday night in Richmond.

H. M. (Bunny) Blankinship of Lynchburg moved from secretary-treasurer to the presidency of the association. Tom Lennon, managing director of The Homestead at Hot Springs, was among those elected to the board. Lennon is a former Washingtonian, and still is a member of Congressional.

The women's team play, which was awarded to Washington for the first time, is a three-day event which was won last year by the James River Club of Warwick over the Country Club of Virginia in Richmond. Washington won the title several years ago.

Tournament dates and sites announced:

MEN:

State Amateur: July 1-5 at Cascades course, Hot Springs; Seniors, July 1-5, at Homestead course, Hot Springs; Juniors, July 21-24, at Monacan Hills, now Richmond Country Club; State team matches will be played at Lynchburg, dates to be announced, and the Virginia Open dates and sites are to be announced; Carolinas match: August 1-5 at Cascades.

WOMEN:

State Amateur: July 20-24 at Hermitage in Richmond; Seniors, July 20-24, at Lakeside in Richmond; team championship: September 29-October 1 at Washington G&CC.

BROOKE MANOR—Dewey Peake and Paul Hook maintained their perfect record in Division III of the club's winter golf league, defeating Monte Emmerich and Paul Taschke, 3-0. The winners now have a maximum nine points for three matches.

Sam Parks and Nye Fraser top Division I with 6½ points after a 2-1 match with Henry Woodfield and Clark Sherwood, the runnerup team. Dick Hill and Bill Buehler lead Division III with eight points after winning 3-0 over Henry Benoit and Carl Miller.

ARGYLE—Wilson Howard and Bob Townsend are awaiting the February 8 playoffs in the Argyle winter league after having clinched the Division I title ahead of schedule with a 20-point total. They won their last match by default.

Bobby Clark and Dick Bedell lead Division II after a three-point sweep over Art Williamson and Jim Weaver. Don Reich and Ed Kelleher lead Division III and Dick Loveless and Ray Cole are on top in Division IV.

BETHESDA—The new leaders in the winter league's Division A are Walter Rochow and Larry Brennan after a 2-1 victory over Doug Lindsay and Chick Cullinane. Art Lund and Rudy Hinzman lead Division B after a sweep over John Llewellyn and Jack Devine.

Md. Women Play Here For Golf Title

The women's Maryland State Golf Association championship will be played over a Washington area course, according to the 1959 MSGA schedule released yesterday.

The women's event will be played July 6-10 at a site to be announced later.

The men's championship will be played at Congressional, June 18-21.

Other MSGA events scheduled to be played in Washington are the Baltimore-Washington team match (Oct. 3), Father and Son (Aug. 28), and a women's field day (July 16).

The women's Payne Trophy will be played in Baltimore for the first time, Oct. 7-9. It had previously been a fixture at Congressional but because of the Washington club's crowded schedule it was moved to Baltimore.

The schedule:

April 12-May 10—Maryland state team match championship.
May 8—Mixed Scotch foursome at Baltimore.
May 22—Mixed Scotch foursome at Washington.
June 18-21—Men's Maryland state amateur at Congressional.
June 26—Maryland state junior open at Baltimore.
July 6-10—Women's Maryland state at Washington.

July 24—Two-man team handicap event at Washington.
Aug. 1—Mixed Scotch foursome at Eastern Shore.
Aug. 28—Father and son at Washington.
Sept. 3—Women's field day at Baltimore.
Sept. 25—Maryland state senior at Baltimore.
Oct. 7-9—Payne Trophy at Baltimore.
Oct. 3—Baltimore-Washington team match at Washington.

Women Golfers Given Early Tourney Dates

The Women's District Golf Association's usual schedule of 21 cup tournaments and the District championship was released yesterday and shows most of the tournament dates advanced because of the national activity here in August. All except one of the WDGA Cup tournaments will be played before the Women's National Amateur championship is played at Congressional Country Club August 24-29.

And the four junior cup tournaments and the District girls' championship will be played before Manor Country Club is host to the USGA Girls' championship August 17-21.

Argyle

The women's schedule was announced by Mrs. Arnold Babb of Bethesda, tournament chairman, and the girls' schedule by Mrs. C. Gunder Gilbertson of Court House.

The District Women's championship goes to Argyle Country Club June 15-19, the first time it has been held there.

The Evening Star Class A Cup tournament, oldest on the WDGA schedule, will be held July 13 at Indian Spring. The Class B section of The Star Cup goes to Washington G&CC August 11.

There will be five Class A cup tournaments plus the District championship and four cup events in Classes B, C, D and E.

The team matches start later this year. They will run from April 28 through June 2.

The WDGA's Executive Committee approved the schedule at a meeting yesterday at Chevy Chase Club.

The schedule:

April 28, May 12, 19, 26 and June 2—team matches, six divisions of five teams.
May 13-14, Keefer Cup (A) at Chevy Chase.
May 20—Gable Cup (E) at Kenwood.
May 21—Post-Times Herald Cup (B) at Norbeck.
May 27—Scates Cup (D) at Prince Georges.
May 28—Shorey Cup (C) at Bethesda.
June 12—Post-Times Herald (A) at Prince Georges.
June 15-19—District championship at Argyle.
June 23—Mark Evans Cup (B) at Belle Haven.

August 18—Corby Cup (A) at Columbia.
August 21—WDGA (C) at Indian Spring.
September 16—WRC Cup (A) at Woodmont.
October 6—President's Plate at Chevy Chase.

The schedule of junior events:

June 22—Margaret Allen Cup at Army Navy.
July 13—UVS Cup at Court House.
July 20—Berry Digs Cup at Belle Haven.
July 31—Carbert Cup at Kenwood.
August 11-12—District girls junior championship at Bethesda.

WHITT-FITZ DINNER HONOREES—Star Cartoonist Gib Crockett caricatures Merrell Whittlesey of The Star (left) and Maury Fitzgerald of the Post and Times Herald, veteran golf writers who were honored by the area's golfers with a testimonial dinner last night at the Willard Hotel.

Whittlesey, Fitzgerald Given Trip to Scotland

District golfers, more than 600 in number, gave two of their favorite writers a sendoff last night.

They are sending them to Muirfield, Scotland, to cover the Walker Cup matches May 15-16. Deane Beman, one of the District area's best amateurs, will be a member of the United States team.

The occasion was a testimonial dinner at the Willard Hotel honoring Merrell Whittlesey, Evening Star golf writer, and Maury Fitzgerald, who has the same position on The Washington Post and Times-Herald.

The dinner was a spontaneous gesture on the part of Washington area golfers who have been "covered" by Whitt and Maury for years. Now all the boys have to do is get the time off from their papers to cover the event.

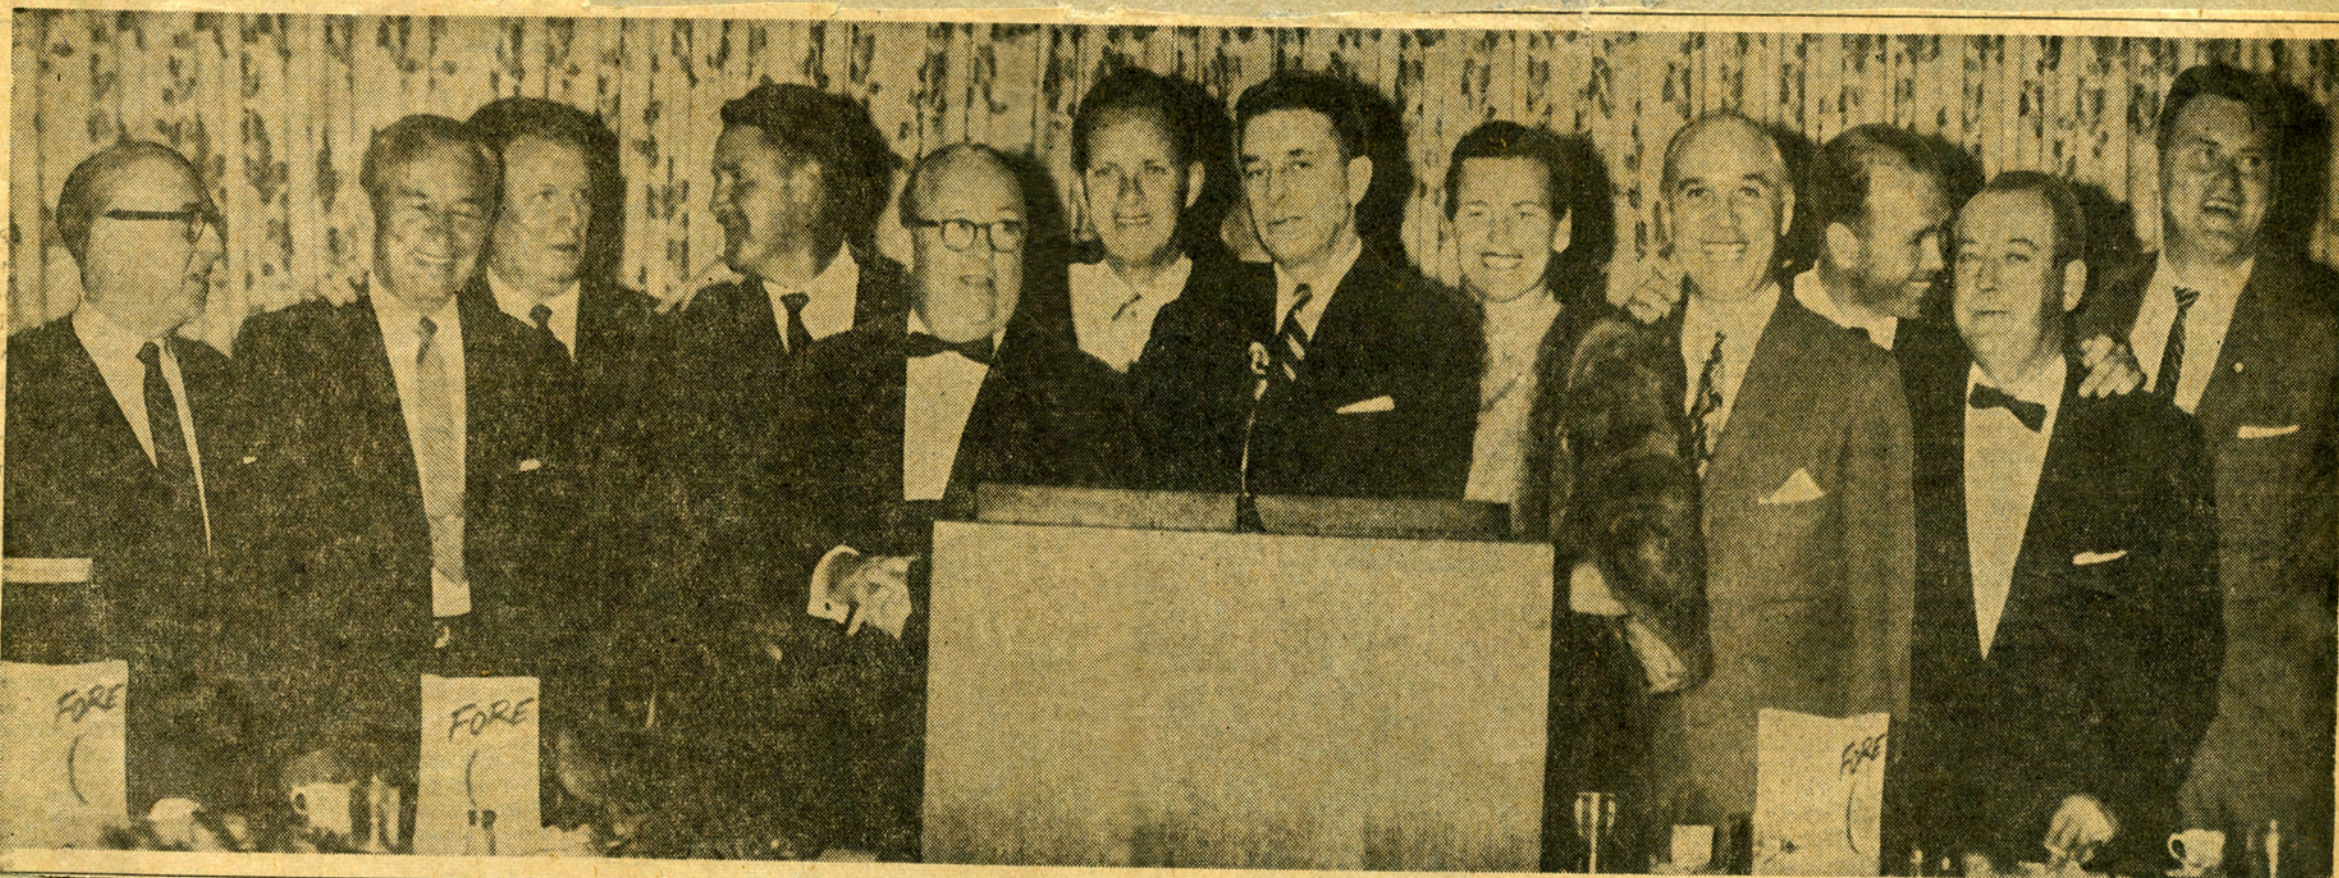

In addition to the trip to Scotland, Whittlesey and Fitzgerald were presented five-piece silver services, gifts from the United States Golf Association and Golf Writers Association of America, a cartoon drawn by Gib Crockett of The Star and a scroll with the names of all the guests at the dinner.

President Eisenhower sent them telegrams from his vacation retreat at Augusta, Ga., and Vice President Nixon wrote them both a personal letter.

Among the speakers at the dinner were Jimmy Thompson, former pro at Burning Tree Country Club; Lew Worsham, former National Open champion and native District pro; Peggy Kirk Bell, noted woman pro; Freddie McLeod, Columbia Club pro, and Robert Drum of Pittsburgh, president of the golf writers organization.

John H. Cline, associate editor of The Star, and Donald Bernard, vice president of the Washington Post and Times-Herald, both paid tribute to the writers.

Area golfers, duffers and experts alike, gathered at the Willard Hotel last night for a testimonial dinner for golf writers Maury Fitzgerald of The Washington Post and Merrell Whittlesey of The Evening Star. Among those attending were, left to right: Don Bernard, vice president of The Washington Post in charge of public affairs; Martin McCarthy, Columbia Country Club, dinner chairman; Jimmy Thomson, New York, the game's original long-ball hitter;

Lew Worsham, Washington, former National open champion; Fitzgerald; Whittlesey; Joseph Dey, executive secretary, United States Golf Association; Peggy Kirk Bell, prominent women's professional; Frank Mirth, Washington Golf and Country club; Ralph Bogart, Chevy Chase; Tom Carney, president of Manor Club; Robert Drum, Pittsburgh newspaperman and president of the Golf Writers Association. The Ballroom was filled by 555 players.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

Bill Downing, former pro at Bethesda Naval, made the right move when he left here to become assistant to Lew Worsham at Coral Ridge in Fort Lauderdale. Through Worsham's efforts, Downing recently was named pro at Fox Chapel, one of the top clubs in the Pittsburgh area.

Members of the Golf Writers Association of America, who in their six years of competing in their championship tournament at Myrtle Beach, S. C., have voted the 13th hole at the Dunes Club one of the toughest in the country because of their first-hand knowledge.

The 24 golf writers who competed at Myrtle Beach last week played the 595-yard par five in 65 strokes over par. The hole borders a lake and it is impossible, even for George Bayer, to reach the green in two. The second shot is challenging, because there's always the temptation to bite off more of the shot across the lake than is wise.

There were three pars on the hole, one by Dan Jenkins of Fort Worth, the new champion. The highest was a 15 by Jim Foster of the Salisbury (N. C.) Post. This department is taking the Fifth Amendment on his score.

Among the leftover notes from the Masters: Jack Burke, who had successive practice round scores of 69-66-64, tied for 34th when the bell rang, and Bayer, the longest hitter of them all, finished last among the qualifiers. That adds proof that Augusta National is a placement-driving course.

And, how did Ed Oliver get away with throwing a putter in the water on the 11th hole and slamming a ball in the pond on the 16th? Or did he? He might get a letter from Cliff Roberts.

And wasn't Crooner Don Cherry the most disappointed man among the amateurs? Cherry took a 6 on the par 3 16th on his final round to miss qualifying for next year by 1 stroke.

Manor Club will hold its annual spring "get-together" tonight. Larry Hill will explain the golf schedule for the year. There will be other speakers and movies. . . . On Wednesday, April 22, Manor will honor George Thornton, its golf chairman of the last four years, at a dinner at the club.

The District's women golfers will learn their part in the Women's National championship to be held here in August at a luncheon next Thursday at Congressional. The Women's Golf Association of Congressional will be host.

Monday's opening pro-amateur at Rolling Road in Catonsville will be a pro and two partner event. The host club will supply one partner for each pro and add $300 to the purse. There's a line on the bottom of the announcement card, printed in capital letters, that says "The professional is responsible for the amateur's handicap."

Add opening field days: Argyle's on April 22.

Area Women Get Briefing on USGA Tourney

Wiffy Cox told women committee members of District golf clubs yesterday that Congressional Country Club was entertaining the Women's Amateur Championship this year at the request of President Eisenhower.

The occasion was the kickoff luncheon for the USGA championship to be played at Congressional August 24-29.

Congressional entertained the women committee members to acquaint them with program advertising, and program and ticket sales. Cox pointed out that a successful championship would be a credit to the entire Middle Atlantic section.

Speakers in addition to the club pro were Mrs. Frank Murphy, jr., wife of the general chairman; Nina Crampton, women's chairman, and Walter E. Gallagher, publicity chairman.

Each person who attended the luncheon received a kit containing information on the championship, won last year by Anne Quast, a Stanford student from Maryville, Wash.

Gene Sarazen was a surprise luncheon visitor. Sarazen played at Congressional yesterday. He told the women guests that he played Congressional the year the club opened in 1922. He didn't mention it, but that also was the year he won the National Open and the PGA championship.

WHETHER MONTGOMERY County gets a new municipal golf course or not will be decided tomorrow night in the County Auditorium at Rockville . . . An appropriation of $210,000 for the purchase of a parcel of land on Falls road, between Rockville and Potomac, will be the last item to come up before the County Council, at about 10 p. m. . . . Golfers interested in the project should attend the budget hearing because, as one county official said at a recent luncheon, "it is now or never."

Argyle had a pro-amateur event listed for June 15 but discovered that the Women's District Amateur had previously been scheduled to start that same day at Argyle . . . So Manor Club graciously agreed to take the date off Argyle's hands for its Pro-President event and in turn give Argyle its own original July 6 date . . . Ward Cobb has the distinction of being the first and probably the last person to ever get a double-eagle on Westbriar's par five 14th hole . . . Playing with Sid Teplin, Lou Chelec and Max Gershen, Zeibert canned five putts measuring from 40 to 60 feet for birdies . . . THE SUNDAY STAR 22 March 1959 Norbeck, Congressional Get 2 Major Golf Tests

Norbeck Country Club gets the State women's championship, and Congressional the men's amateur June 25-28, according to the Maryland State Golf Association's tournament schedule, which was released yesterday.

Thus the District area will be host to two of the MSGA's three major events. The other, the Maryland Open, will be played July 14 at Woodholme in Baltimore, preceded by the State pro-am championship July 13.

The women's amateur will be played July 6-10 at Norbeck. The latter club was host to the District women's championship last year, with Mrs. Frank Cush the winner.

Congressional will host the State amateur a week later than usual to avoid a conflict with other tournaments.

The opening event will be the first round of the State team matches April 12. The matches will run for five weeks.

In addition to the State amateur and women's championships, Washington area clubs get a mixed two-ball at Manor; the two-man team championship at Chevy Chase; a women's field day at Indian Spring, and the Baltimore-Washington team at Congressional.

The schedule:

April 12-19-26, May 3-10—State team matches.
May 8—Mixed two-ball at Rolling Road.
May 22—Mixed two-ball at Manor.
June 19—Junior Open at Roland Park, Baltimore C. C.
June 25-28—Maryland Amateur at Congressional.
July 6-10—Maryland Women's at Norbeck.
July 13—Pro-am championship at Woodholme.
July 14—Maryland Open at Woodholme.
July 16—Women's field day at C. C. of Maryland.
August 1—Mixed two-ball at Green Hill, Salisbury.
August 4—Two-man team at Chevy Chase.
August 28—Father-and-son championship at Elkridge.
September 3—Women's field day at Indian Spring.
September 25—Maryland senior at Green Spring Valley.
October 3—Baltimore-Washington team match at Congressional.
October 7-9—Payne Cup at C. C. of Maryland.

RULES AND REGULATIONS
OF THE 1959 W.D.G.A. TEAM MATCHES

2/2/59

The Club teams, comprised of six players each, shall be divided into six or less Divisions, consisting of five (5) teams each.

METHOD OF DIVISION

To be eligible to participate in Team Match Play, a player must be a full member of the W.D.G.A.

ELIGIBILITY

Clubs must submit their proposed teams with the names of their regular team members and their District handicaps, with differential, by February 20th to the District Team Chairman. Any subsequent changes may be made only with the approval of the District Team Chairman.

DEADLINE
TEAMS

The five (5) teams with the lowest total aggregate handicaps will comprise the First Division; the next lowest five (5) teams, the Second; and so on. No Division shall consist of less than five (5) teams.

COMPOSITION OF DIVISIONS

When submitting team lineups, each Club shall submit the names of at least twice as many substitutes as it has teams, i.e. if a Club has three (3) teams, submit the names of at least six (6) substitutes.

At the end of the season's play, the team in each Division winning the most number of points will be the winner of that Division. The team winning the next most number of points in each Division will be the runner-up of that Division. The winner of the First Division will be the District Team Champion.

WINNERS

Regular team members must play in at least half of the Team Matches, unless given dispensation by the District Team Chairman and 2nd Vice President. Penalty: Any Regular Team Member, failing to comply with this regulation, will cause those points won by her and her partner to be withdrawn from the total won by their Team. Regular Team members may not be used as substitutes.

REGULAR TEAM MEMBERS

Any club member who is a full member of the W.D.G.A. may be used as a substitute on any team, provided her handicap is no more than two (2) points lower than that of the regular team member of that team with the lowest handicap, except for the First Division, where no handicap limits will be imposed. Substitutes shall take their places in the line-up of the team according to handicap, not in the vacancies created by absent regular team members.

SUBSTITUTES

Play in the First Division will be from scratch. Play in all other Divisions will be with handicap strokes as follows:

HANDICAP
ALLOWANCE

Reduce handicaps of all players by the handicap of the lowest handicap player in the match, be she tardy or not. The lowest handicap player will thus play from scratch. Each of the other players will be allowed 85% of the difference as strokes, to be taken according to the score card.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

Two golf professionals have made requests within the last two weeks that the newspapers discontinue printing the pro scores in the Monday tournaments. One was a head pro speaking for himself, the other, a club pro speaking for his assistant.

This is a rather delicate subject, but a number of pros, reporters, spectators, etc., were asked for their opinions at the last two events. It almost was unanimous that the pros who requested the omission of the high scores were out of line.

The first pro who made the request said it was embarrassing to him, and he knew it was to others, to have scores in the paper showing him shooting in the 80s. The second pro said he had a young assistant who needed encouragement, but the youngster already was discouraged because of the ribbing he has been taking from the members over a score in the middle 80s.

"My boy only gets to play once a week and never has an opportunity to practice," the pro said. "I think you only should carry the scores of the prize winners."

The immediate advice to the pro who is worried over scores made by his assistant is why doesn't he give the fellow more time to play and practice? Some pros are old fashioned enough to keep their assistants under lock and key True, some of the boys want to play golf all the time and as a result they neglect their work. But there's a happy medium.

Bill Clarke, the Middle Atlantic PGA president from Hillendale, told one of the pros that he was out of order because he virtually was asking for censorship. "You let the newspapers decide what scores they're going to print," Clarke told the PGA member. Then he added, "Personally, I hope they print my scores and those of my assistants every time we play, whether we shoot 69 or 99."

The newspapers are begged to run the pairings for the pro tournaments, and they do so on the assumption that several hundred club members are interested in the activities of their club pro.

But the papers would be neglecting their duty if they printed starting times for 60 pros, and then only reported scores for a half-dozen or so who shot 72 or better. The members would be left wondering whether their pro shot 73 or 103, was struck by lightning, or absconded with the club funds.

It would seem that a young pro would consider a poor round a challenge to better himself. If he had an 86 beside his name one week and took a ribbing, it would be a great satisfaction to cut a dozen strokes from that score in the next tournament.

On the side of the pros; some of the members are unfeeling with remarks such as, "I know where to look for your score—start at the bottom," etc. That's all right if you're a close buddy, but otherwise it's not too funny.

But all of the pro scores are going to be printed, on the assumption that they're news whether under par, or in the no card column.

The Women's District Golf Association's opening team matches, postponed yesterday because of rain, will be played next Tuesday, according to Mrs. Lee Alexander, team chairman.

Next Tuesday is an open date on the schedule because it was the original date of the Middle Atlantic women's championship. Yesterday's schedule will be followed.

NOTES — The new Metropolitan Washington Golf Association will sponsor a sweepstakes from 7:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday at Rock Creek. There will be three handicap divisions for men, and two divisions for women. All temporary officers were made permanent with the exception of secretary at a recent election. Milton Brown of Oxon Run was elected secretary. Joe Bachmurski was retained as president. . . . Jim Meyers, who has been helping out in the All View Shop for some time, is turning professional. . . . That wasn't a bad 75 by Pro Bill Gilbert of Argyle in the Pro-am Monday, considering his small car spinned out of control and smashed a fence en route.

Two of the longest shots of the season, previously unreported, that found the cup were by Nina Crampton, who holed a five-wood shot for an eagle deuce on the 17th at Congressional, and by Burt Langhenry, who was in trouble off the tee on the first hole at Manor, and then holed a full 3½ wood shot for an eagle two.

Argyle Women Posing Threat In D. C. Golf

Chevy Chase's defending champions in the Women's District Golf Association's first team matches drew a bye yesterday. But after they watched Argyle's challengers in action, the Chevy Chase players may have gone straight to the practice tee.

Argyle defeated Army Navy, 7-2, and Kenwood won over Columbia, 7-2, but the Argyle lineup appears particularly formidable.

In the No. 1 bracket Argyle has Mrs. Frank Cush, the District women's champion, and Georgia Mae McKeever, the runnerup. The No. 2 bracket is Mrs. Helen Konopa, the Keefer Cup champion, and Alice Ratcliffe. Mrs. Wilson Howard and Mrs. J. D. Hanley make up the third bracket.

The first and third bracket swept three points from their Army and Navy opponents yesterday. However Mrs. Konopa and Miss Ratcliffe lost, 2-1 to Mrs. N. I. Looney and Mrs. E. King.

Kenwood has Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney and Mrs. Betty Meckley in the first bracket, Mrs. Lee Alexander and Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud in the second, and Mrs. Harold Price and Mrs. Jim Somes in the third. Mrs. MacCartney and Mrs. Meckley were held to a 1½-1½ split by Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg and Mrs. John Kerkam of Columbia.

Chevy Chase, which makes its debut against Columbia Tuesday, has virtually the same lineup that won the title last year, Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, Mrs. Webb Hayes, Mrs. Charles B. Hawley, jr., Mrs. Arnold Willcox, Mrs. W. S. Parsons and Mrs. Landra Platt. Mrs. Paul H. Streit, club champion and president of the Women's District Golf Association, is in Europe and will be a substitute when she returns.

Results, with the home team drawing a bye in each division.

Chevy Chase Wins Over Columbia

Army Navy served notice on the Women's District Golf Association yesterday that it is going to be a tough competitor in the team championship this year.

In second round play yesterday the service club defeated Kenwood, 8-1, at Argyle with some sparkling golf. In the other first division match defending champion Chevy Chase, making its first start, beat neighborhood rival Columbia, 5½-3½.

Newcomer Mrs. E. W. King has added strength to the Army Navy team. Mrs. King shot 80 yesterday as she and Mrs. N. I. Looney defeated Mrs. Lee Alexander and Mrs. Peter Trouhard, 2½-½.

Mrs. John Kerkham and Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Columbia won over Mrs. Webb Hayes and former District champion Mrs. E. C. Ferriday of Chevy Chase, 2½-½, in the number one match between these two teams.

Army Navy leads the first division with 10 points. Kenwood is second with eight and Argyle, idle yesterday, third with seven. Chevy Chase has 5½ and Columbia 5½.

Argyle Goes To Front in WDGA Golf

When four of the 10 prize winners in the Women's District Golf Association Keefer Cup play last week came from Argyle it might have been a tipoff on what was coming this summer in the WDGA team matches.

In scoring an 8½-to-½ point victory over Columbia yesterday at Army Navy Fairfax Club, Argyle vaulted into first place in Division I as last week's leader, Army Navy, drew a bye. Argyle has a team total of 15½ points.

Chevy Chase, defending champion, defeated Kenwood, 6-3, to take second place with 11½ points. Kenwood is third with 11 points followed by Army Navy, 10, and Columbia, 6.

Women's Golf Dominated by New Teams

Six different clubs will win Women's District Golf Association team championships if the present leaders hold their positions through next week's final round of play.

Argyle lacks only the mathematical certainty of the First Division title, leading the defending champions from Chevy Chase by 8 points. They meet next week at Kenwood and Chevy Chase would have to win eight and one-half to a half for a tie.

Washington Golf and Country Club already has clinched the Second Division title with virtually the same team that was a First Division threat the last couple of years.

Court House Leads

Court House leads the Third Division by 3 points. Congressional has completed its schedule in the Fourth Division and leads by 4½ points. Columbia is 4 points ahead in the Fifth Division and has completed its schedule, while Belle Haven leads the Sixth Division.

Argyle made a rout of the First Division play by blanking Kenwood, 9-9, at Columbia yesterday. The top team of Mrs. Frank Cush and Georgia Mae McKeever, finalists in the District women's last year, won three points in the top bracket and had 78 and 79, respectively. Mrs. Helen Konopa shot a 76, and she and Alice Ratcliffe a best ball 73 in winning three points in the second bracket. Mrs. W. E. Howard and Mrs. J. D. Kenwood Team Fails To Score

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Argyle Country Club just about clinched the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Columbia Country Club.

Argyle champions in 1956 and 1957, defeated Kenwood yesterday, 9-0, and now has a total of 24½ points in three matches.

Chevy Chase, defending champions, barely defeated Army Navy, 5-4, and now has a total of 16½ points.

Chevy Chase meets Argyle in the final match next Tuesday at Kenwood and the defending champions will have to win all of a possible nine points from Argyle to retain the title.

Mrs. Frank Cush and Georgia Mae McKeever fired a best-ball of 76 and took all three points from Mrs. Hartwell MacCarteney and Mrs. Betty P. Meckley of Kenwood. Mrs. Cush had 78 with her own ball and Miss McKeever 79.

Alice Ratcliffe and Mrs. Helen Kenopa had the low best-ball score of the day, 73, in taking all three nassau points from Kenwood's No. 2 team of Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud and Mrs. Harold Price.

In the third foursome Mrs. L. D. Hanley, recent winner of the Keefer Cup, and Mrs. W. E. Howard added three more points by taking the measure of Mrs. James Somes and Mrs. Robert Williams.

RAIN POSTPONES WOMEN'S GOLF

The final Women's District Golf Association team matches, scheduled for today over six courses, were postponed because of rain and wet courses.

They will be rescheduled at a later date.

2 Team Golf Titles Won By Belle Haven Women

Finals in five of the six divisions of the Women's District Golf Association were held yesterday, with Belle Haven the winner in two divisions.

The first division finals will be played Monday, June 22, at Kenwood. Argyle leads the division by eight points with defending champion Chevy Chase second. They will meet in the finals.

Belle Haven won the fourth and six divisions. Washington Golf and Country Club, idle yesterday, won the second division, Court House the third and Argyle the fifth.

The most notable improvement was registered by Congressional in the second division. It came from last place in last week's standings to finish second with 18 points as the result of its 8½-½ victory over Indian Spring yesterday.

Yesterday's results, final standings and members of the winning teams:

WDGA Team Title Won by Washington

Washington Golf and Country Club was idle yesterday but still won the Women's District Golf Association second team championship.

The Virginia club team finished the round robin series with a total of 26½ points, 8½ points ahead of the second place Congressional.

Court House won the third team title and Belle Haven won both the fourth and sixth championships. Argyle took the fifth team title.

The first team championship won't be officially decided until June 22 at Kenwood Golf and Country Club.

Results:
SECOND TEAMS: Standings—Washington, 26½; Congressional, 18; Prince Georges, 17; Woodmont, 15½; Indian Spring, 13.

Argyle Women Win District Team Title

Argyle captured the Division A title of the Women's District Golf Association yesterday with a 5-4 triumph over Chevy Chase, runnerup, had 20½.

Argyle had a total of 29½ points for the championship; Chevy Chase, runnerup had 20½.

Army Navy was third with 20 points, followed by Kenwood with 11 and Columbia with 9 points.

Georgia Mae McKeever, Women's District Amateur champion, and Mrs. Frank Cush, her opponent in last week's final, took all three points from Chevy Chase's Mrs. Paul Streit and Mrs. Richard Johnson.

Mrs. Webb Hayes and Mrs. W. S. Parsons of Chevy Chase, scored three points against Mrs. Thomas Konopa and Alice Radcliffe.

Mrs. W. E. Howard and Mrs. J. I. Hanley of Argyle scored the deciding two points against Mrs. Charles Hawley and Mrs. Arnold Wilcox of Chevy Chase.

In another Division A match yesterday at Kenwood, Army Navy scored a 6-3 triumph over Columbia.

ARMY NAVY, 6; COLUMBIA, 3
Mrs. L. F. Lightner and Mrs. J. Nettles scored two points to one for Mrs. Richard Kruezbarg and Eleanor Finchel, Columbia; Mrs. N. I. Mooney and Mrs. J. T. Keigler scored two points to one for Mrs. Sam Crocker and Mrs. Irving Swenson, Columbia; Mrs. R. M. Oliver and Mrs. J. I. Bandy scored two points to one for Mrs. James Hagerly and Mrs. George Barnes, Columbia.

Argyle Women Capture Title

Argyle had a close call against Chevy Chase in its head to head match in the Women's District Golf Association's first team play yesterday, winning only 5-4. However, it made little difference since Argyle needed only one of the nine points to clinch the title because of a big lead built up in the early matches.

Yesterday's final was scheduled for play three weeks ago, but was postponed by rain and then delayed by a heavy schedule.

Argyle clinched the title early as Georgia Mae McKeever, the new District champion, and Mrs. Frank Cush won three points from Mrs. Paul Streit and Mrs. Richard Johnson. The Chevy Chase second bracket of Mrs. Webb Hayes and Mrs. W. S. Parsons won three points from Mrs. Helen Konopa and Alice Ratcliffe in a mild surprise.

Argyle had a 2-1 edge in the third bracket, Mrs. W. E. Howard and Mrs. J. D. Hanley over Mrs. Charles B. Hawley, jr., and Mrs. Arnold Willcox.

Army Navy defeated Columbia, 6-3 in the other first team match.

Chevy Chase was the defending champion.

Women Golfers Reschedule Final

The second through the sixth divisions of the Women's District Golf Association team matches, postponed by yesterday's rain, will be played tomorrow at the scheduled courses. It is the final day of play.

The first teams will conclude their play Monday, June 22 at Kenwood. Argyle leads Chevy Chase by eight points in the first-team play.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

After reading the report on Muirfield by S. L. McKinlay, editor of the Glasgow Evening Times and a former British Walker Cupper, in Sports Illustrated, this department can hardly wait for this week's trip to the Walker Cup matches.

However, we have made one revision in the week's plans. McKinlay's piece about the terrors of Muirfield has changed our thinking about playing the course when the matches are over. The Scots would be suspicious of the handicap system at Manor Country Club if they watched this alleged 7-handicapper flounder on the links of the Honourable Company of Edinburgh Golfers. We pass.

Bill Briggs, executive secretary of the Middle Atlantic Golf Association, and an international traveler of some experience, will be a welcome traveling companion.

Two of the top women golf pros, Mary Lena Faulk and Betty Jameson of the Spalding staff, will spend two busy days here this week. They'll give a clinic for the Congressional women golfers Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m., following lunch.

Wednesday Misses Faulk and Jameson will give a clinic at Andrews AFB at 11 a.m., and after lunch they'll play a nine-hole exhibition match against Pro George Pigott and Mrs. Sandy Miller, the women's club champion. They have an 8 o'clock date at the Indian Spring driving range for another clinic.

Scores of some of the good college golfers at Woodmont in last week's Southern Conference championship indicate the scores will be high in the National Open qualifying May 18 when 42 District pros and amateurs play at Woodmont for eight places to the second qualifying rounds June 1 at Congressional.

Incidentally, what were the collegians doing all that time on the golf course? It took most of them over five hours to play 18 holes, which is much, much too long.

Chuck Lubar will be favored to become the fifth player in 26 years to defend his Metropolitan Washington Invitational Schoolboy championship successfully when play starts a week from tomorrow at Norbeck Country Club. Billy Shea, Sidney Lanier, the late Bubby Worsham, and Deane Beman won two years in a row. Alton Willett and Billy Wolfe won two titles, but not consecutively.

The 10th annual CYO Father-and-Son championship will be held Saturday at Georgetown Prep, starting at 1 p.m.... Billy Cigich of Bethesda is entered in the 13th annual National Pee-Wee championship June 13-14 at Orlando, Fla.

Joe Zoeller, sectional representative of the USGA on public links golf, called to remind that June 4 is the entry deadline for the National Public Links championship. Sectional qualifying will be held June 22 at the new Pine Ridge course in Baltimore, site of the Eastern Open. The championship is July 13-18 at Denver. Jerry Long at East Potomac has entry blanks for the District golfers.

Formal course openings this week include the redesigned nine at Sligo Park Friday and the dedication of the University of Maryland's new course the same day.... The jam-packed schedule includes the Keefe Cup, major medal-play event of the District women golfers, Wednesday and Thursday at Chevy Chase; the Manor Member-Guest all week, and the Kenwood Member-Guest Friday and Saturday.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

The prolonged hot spell has been getting blamed for almost everything else, so we might as well add that the heat wave helped pound home how slow some golfers are playing — if any reminder is needed.

Last week in the Maryland Amateur championship at Congressional one match was on the course just a few minutes under four hours. That's just two players in a head-to-head match. They tied up all traffic behind them and finished 45 minutes back of a match that preceded them off the tee by 7 minutes.

In Monday's Pro-Amateur at Bonnie View in Baltimore, Jim Hightower of Argyle was second off the tee, at 9:06. He reported that he finished 4½ hours later after waiting on every shot. In a case such as that, with only one foursome ahead, the group that forced Hightower's foursome to be on the course that long should have been penalized.

Argyle, incidentally, is one of the few clubs that is doing something about slow play. Don Sullivan has been the instigator, and he has speeded up play thanks to some volunteer help from the golf committee members.

Argyle members are clocked off the first tee. That same foursome is clocked again when it leaves the 9th green, and if it has required more than two hours, there is a warning. If the next foursome does not replace the pin on the 9th hole in 7 minutes, it also receives a warning.

The foursome is then clocked off the 10th tee, and again when it completes the round.

If it takes more than four hours, it has been too slow.

The slow players receive a letter the first time they take too long. Another letter is sent for the second offense, and then a warning of suspension on the third occasion. The same system could work in the Mid-Atlantic PGA Pro-Amateurs, where it has been taking five and more hours to complete a round. The foursome off the tee at 9 a.m. should leave the 9th green before 11 o'clock and if not, it should receive a warning from a member of the tournament committee.

Ralph Bogart, who won the Maryland Amateur for the seventh time, is the second vice president, and is slated to head the association in 1961. Bogart is extremely conscientious about his executive duties. He has been trying to help keep peace in a tournament in which he has been the star performer.

Bogart pointed out after a recent tournament there should be more teeth in golf rules to govern penalties for slow play. "I realize there was a boy out there this morning who was playing much too slow," Bogart said. "But what can we do about it? His opponent didn't complain. It was the people behind them."

"I know there's a lot of talk about slow play, but can anybody at this table tell me of an instance where anybody actually was penalized?" Bogart asked. Nobody could.

The principal dawdler at Congressional was a collegian who took either six or seven practice swings before every single shot and on the greens, he practically studied every blade of grass on all four sides of the cup. It was maddening to watch him play.

Because Carl Lohren has received more warnings about slow play than any other District golfer, it is only fair that we report that Lohren was not the guilty party in this instance.

If competitive and week end golf is going to require a police force to make players keep pace and make the game pleasant for everybody, then the associations and the clubs should enlist help who will see that the slow players are warned, then penalized, and then bounced out of the club, or the tournament.

The frightening aspect to slow play is that it's the younger players who are mostly at fault. They take too many practice swings, take too long to decide on a club, study imaginary rolls in the greens, and then freeze over the ball.

The only consolation is that the slow players aren't beating anybody. They're only beating themselves with their aggravating tactics. It's good ridance when they're eliminated from a tournament.

MRS. MARTIN TOPS BIG FIELD

Woman Golfer Breaks 90 for First Win

Mrs. Lawrence Martin of Manor Country Club broke 90 for the first time in her golf career to win the Mel Shorey Cup, a Class C event of the Women's District Golf Association, yesterday at Bethesda Country Club. The field of 89 was the biggest for a cup tournament this year.

Mrs. Martin, who has four children and four grandchildren, returned to golf a couple of seasons ago after taking time out to rear a family. She started in Class E last year, rose to D, then C, and is on the verge of having her handicap low enough for Class B.

Mrs. Martin had a 44 on each nine for an 88 and deducted a 20 handicap for a net 68. Her round included two birdie fours and on each nine she overcame a shaky start of a seven on 1 and 10.

Low gross went to Mrs. J. M. Rice of Army Navy with a pair of 44s for an 88.

Net prize winners, in order: Mrs. Isadore Laskin, Norbeck, 90-20—70; Mrs. George Leyser, Belle Haven, 89-19—70; Mrs. C. A. Thomason, Argyle, 90-20—70; Mrs. Arnold Babb, Bethesda, 91-20—71; Mrs. W. C. Densmore, Belle Haven, 91-19—72; Mrs. Edwin Sills, Indian Spring, 90-18—72.

And Mrs. R. M. Powell, Kenwood, 92-19—73; Mrs. Harry Seeman, Bethesda, 93-20—73; Mrs. Pat Martino, Argyle, 91-18—73; Mrs. Robert Luckie, Army Navy, 91-18—73; Mrs. D. I. Thomas, Army Navy, 91-18—73; Mrs. Balfour Goldman, Indian Spring, 93-20—73, and Mrs. E. J. Mather, Columbia, 93-19—74.

Low-Scoring Golf Won by Mrs. Wiles

The Class E players of the Women's District Golf Association staged a scoring binge in the Gable Cup tournament at Kenwood yesterday, topped by Mrs. Leon Wiles' winning 93 minus 27 handicap for a net 66.

All of the prize winners in the event for 24-27 handicap players broke 100, and it took a net 72 to get into the prize list. The perfect day and the excellent condition of the Kenwood course were among the reasons for the low scoring.

Mrs. Wiles of Belle Haven is believed to have set a record for net events with her 66. Low gross went to Mrs. C. R. Miles of Washington G&CC with a 93. A field of 65 competed.

Other net prize winners, in order:

Mrs. P. W. Moran of Washington, 94-27—67; Loetitia Barbour of Belle Haven, 95-25—70; Mrs. William Barnes, Argyle, 96-25—71; Mrs. George Grange, Court House, 98-27—71; Mrs. E. X. Murphy, Washington, 96-25—71.

And, Mrs. Eric Timm, Belle Haven, 97-25—72; Mrs. Harry Fletcher, Washington, 98-26—72; Mrs. Richard Friedman, Woodmont, 97-25—72, and Mrs. Robert Schoenhair, Belle Haven, 99-27—72. Mrs. C. T. Taylor, Court House, with 97-25—72 was matched out.

Mrs. Footer Wins Spates Golf Cup

The home of Dr. Jerry Footer, four-time men's golf champion at Woodmont Country Club, already well stocked with trophies, has another one today.

Mrs. Footer, shooting a 94-23—71 yesterday at Prince Georges, won the Marie Spates Cup in the Class D handicaps of the Women's District Golf Association. Mrs. F. R. Kadie of Kenwood won low gross with 94.

Other net winners were Mrs. N. C. Furguson (Belle Haven), 95-22—73; Mrs. Hallie Houston (Prince Georges), 95-22—73; Mrs. J. S. Wueste (Bethesda), 97-23—74; Mrs. C. L. Fenner (Manor), 96-21—75, and Mrs. Patrick Baton (Belle Haven) and Lou Wilson (Prince Georges), 98-23—75.

Women's Golf

Mrs. Wiles Wins Cup

Mrs. Leon Wiles of Belle Haven came up with a record score of 93—27—66 yesterday and won the Women's District Golf Association Class E tournament for the Gable Cup at Kenwood.

Mrs. C. R. Miles of Washington was the gross winner with 93. Another Washington player, Mrs. P. W. Moran, had 94—27—67 in finishing second net in the 18-hole tournament.

Other prize winners were: Lolita Barbour of Belle Haven, 95—25—70; Mrs. William T. Barnes, Argyle, 98—27—71; Mrs. George Grange, Court House, 98—27—71; Mrs. E. X. Murphy, Washington, 96—25—71; Mrs. E. Timm, Belle Haven, 97—25—72; Mrs. Harry Fletcher, Washington, 98—26—72; Mrs. Richard Friedman, Woodmont, 97—25—72; Mrs. R. Schoenhair, Belle Haven, 99—27—72.

Mrs. Hanley Wins Keefer Cup Golf

Mrs. J.D.Hanley of Argyle won the Women's District Golf Association Keefer Cup at Chevy Chase yesterday in a sudden death playoff with Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, Jr. of the host club.

The two were tied for low net 147, after the regulation 36 holes of play. Mrs. Hanley won on the third hole of the play-off.

Mrs. Ferriday, the first round leader with a 77-7-70 fired an 84 -7-77 yesterday. The winner had rounds of 86-12-74 and 85-12-73.

Mrs. Ferriday's 161 for the 36 holes gave her low gross honors.

Other results:

Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle 83-84-12-155
Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington 87-86-18-155
Mrs. Edward King, Army Navy, 84-90-18-156

'58 Champion, Medalist Favored in WDGA Golf

Mrs. Frank Cush and Mrs. Charles Egenroad were favored today as match play began in the Women's District Golf Association amateur championship at Argyle Country Club.

Mrs. Cush, defending champion from the host club, was not required to compete in yesterday's qualifying round. She drew Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring as her opponent today.

Mrs. Egenroad, club champion of the Washington Golf and Country Club and holder of that title for seven of the last 10 years, was medalist yesterday with an 82. That earned her the top spot in the bottom bracket and pitted her against Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood in first-round play today.

Until Mrs. Egenroad came in with her 82, a "sudden death" playoff for the medal between Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle and Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday of Chevy Chase, a former titleholder, was in the making as each had posted 40-43-83. But Mrs. Egenroad, like the others in the field, battled strong winds and lightning-fast greens to post rounds of 42-40 for medal honors.

Favorites Score In Women's Golf

Two former champions and the medalist were easy winners in first-round matches of the women's District Golf championship today at Argyle Country Club.

Mrs. Frank Cush of the host club won over Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring, 5 and 4, and Mrs. Edward Ferriday of Chevy Chase, a two-time winner, had the same margin over Mrs. Paul H. Streit. Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington, the medalist with an 82, defeated Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood, 4 and 3.

Barbara Diggs of Manor birdied the 18th to defeat Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney of Kenwood, 1 up. Other winners were Georgia Mae McKeever, former home club champion; Mrs. J. D. Hanley, also of Argyle, and Mrs. Helen Konopa.

Mrs. Egenroad Wins D. C. Amateur Medal

Battling 30-mile winds and lightning-like greens, Mrs. Charles Egenroad played Argyle Country Club's course in 82 strokes yesterday to win the qualifying medal in the Women's District Amateur championship.

The Washington Golf and Country Club champion got off to a bad 5-6-6 start but still managed to get 42 on the first nine. Mrs. Egenroad, a finalist for the past two years in the Virginia Amateur, had 40 on the back nine.

Mrs. Edward Ferriday, a former titleholder from Chevy Chase Club, and Georgia Mae McKeever of the host club had cards of 40, 43-83 to tie for second low. Miss McKeever was a finalist in last year's championship.

Mrs. Frank Cush, the defending champion, was an automatic qualifier and did not choose to contest the medal. Mrs. Cush, a member of the host club, was given the top seed spot in the pairings and drew Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring as her first-round opponent.

Mrs. Egenroad was given the top spot in the bottom bracket and drew Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood as her opening opponent. Mrs. Trouchaud qualified with 90.

The pairings and scores of the championship flight:

10 a.m.—Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle (automatic) vs. Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring (89).
10:05—Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle (86) vs. Mrs. R. C. Townsend, Argyle (91).
10:10—Mrs. E. C. Ferriday, Chevy Chase (83) vs. Mrs. Paul Streit, Chevy Chase (91).
10:15—Barbara Diggs, Manor (88) vs. Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney, Kenwood (93).
10:20—Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington (82) vs. Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood (90).
10:25—Lillian Lea, Court House (86) vs. Nina Crampton, Congressional (92).
10:30—Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle (83) vs. Mrs. J. S. Connolly, Washington (91).
10:35—Mrs. J. D. Hanley, Argyle (89) vs. Mrs. M. R. Shiff, Argyle (94).

Miss Lea Wins on 23d Hole

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Mrs. Frank Cush began defense of her Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday by eliminating Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring in a first round match at Argyle, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Cush, a member of the host club, was seven over men's par for the 14 holes. In today's second round the defending titlist plays Mrs. Helen Kenopa, a clubmate, who advanced at the expense of Mrs. R. C. Townsend of Argyle, 2 and 1.

Lillian Lee, pretty 18-year-old Court House club champion, won the most exciting match of the day. Miss Lea birdied the fifth hole of a quick-death playoff and disposed of Nina Crampton of Congressional.

The Virginia club lassie almost made a hole-in-one on the 150-yard par three fifth hole, her tee shot rolling around the cup and ending up 24 inches behind the flag. She knocked in the putt to end the marathon match.

Barbara Diggs of Manor Club pulled the comeback of the day in defeating Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney of Kenwood, 1-up. Four down through eight, Miss Diggs birdied the 18th to win the match.

One of the best rounds of the day was produced by Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle. Miss McKeever, a finalist in last year's championship, was 79 in eliminating Mrs. John S. Connolly of Washington, 6 and 4.

Mrs. Charles Egenroad, the medalist, advanced to round two by defeating Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood, 4 and 3. The Washington Golf and Country Club champion plays Miss Lea in today's second round. Results:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

Mrs. P. L. Smith, Congressional, defeated Mrs. D. Kreider, Prince Georges, 2-up.

AS WOMEN'S TITLE PLAY OPENS

Co-ed Golfers Shine In Tightest Matches

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY
Star Staff Writer

The co-eds were the show stealers in the first round of the Women's District golf championship at Argyle Country Club yesterday, and they could prove troublesome today in matches against ranked players.

Barbara Diggs, 20-year-old senior at American University, and Lillian Lea, who will enter Duke University in the fall, won the day's most exciting matches. Today Miss Diggs met Mrs. Edward Ferriday, jr., of Chevy Chase, two-time champion, and Miss Lea encountered the medalist, Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington G&CC.

Just Became Eligible

Miss Lea, the District and Middle Atlantic junior, and the Court House club champion, is eligible for the District women's by five days. She was 18, the age minimum, last Wednesday.

Lillian went five extra holes against Nina Crampton of Congressional yesterday before hitting an iron shot dead to the pin for a conceded birdie deuce and the match, 1 up.

Miss Diggs was four down after eight holes but finally birdied the 18th to defeat Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney of Kenwood, 1 up.

Neither of the girls have been playing much golf. Barbara had little time because of studies at AU, and Miss Lea was busy with graduation at Fairfax High School.

The matches other than the ones involving the co-eds are all-Argyle affairs today. Mrs. Frank Cush, the defending champion, met Mrs. Helen Konopa, and Georgia Mae Mc-Keever, the club champion, met Mrs. J. D. Hanley, the Keefer Cup winner. All but Mrs. Hanley were semifinalists last year.

The semifinals are scheduled tomorrow and the 18-hole finals Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Championship flight first round:

Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, defeated Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, 5 and 4; Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, defeated Mrs. R. C. Townsend, Argyle, 2 and 1; Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, Jr., Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. Paul H. Streit, Chevy Chase, 5 and 4; Barbara Diggs, Manor, defeated Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney, Kenwood, 1 up.

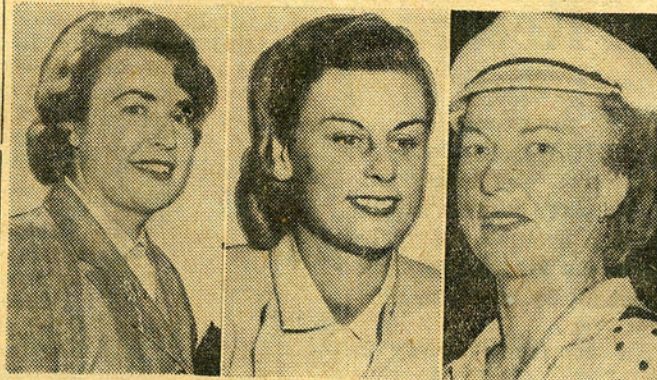

Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, defeated Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 4 and 3; Lillian Lea, Court House, defeated Nina Crampton, Congressional, 1 up, 23 holes; Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, defeated Mrs. John S. Connolly, Washington, 6 and 4; Mrs. J. D. Hanley, Argyle, defeated Mrs. M. R. Shiff, Argyle, 3 and 2.

Pairings: Mrs. Cush vs. Mrs. Konopa, Mrs. Ferriday vs. Miss Diggs, Mrs. Egenroad vs. Miss Lea, Miss McKeever vs. Mrs. Hanley.

Lillian Lea Eliminates Mrs. Egenroad in D. C. Golf

McKeever, Ferriday, Cush Also Advance

Miss McKeever Mrs. Ferriday Mrs. Cush

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Pretty Lillian Lea might not have had the best score in yesterday's round of the Women's District amateur championship at Argyle but she did perform the mightiest deed. The champion then proceeded to win the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th holes to take a 6-up lead.

Mrs. Konopa won the 15th and 16th holes to square the match. But Mrs. Cush won 17 with a par and then made a great 90-yard pitch to the last green and holed out a three-foot putt for her par to keep the match from going into extra holes.

Only three holes were halved in the match, the first, 14th and 18th. On the 18th, Mrs. Konopa had a 20-foot putt for a birdie which would have prolonged the match but she went too strongly for it and her ball rolled 24 inches past the cup.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

Second Rounds

Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, defeated Mrs. Helen Konopa, 1 up.
Mrs. E. C. Ferriday, Chevy Chase, defeated Barbara Diggs, Manor, 3 and 2.
Lillian Lea, Court House, defeated Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, 4 and 3.
Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, defeated Mrs. J. D. Hanley, Argyle, 7 and 5.

CHAMPIONSHIP CONSOLATIONS:

Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. R. C. Townsend, Argyle, 5 and 3; Mrs. Paul Strell, Chevy Chase, defeated Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney, Kenwood, 3 and 2; Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, defeated Nina Crampton, Congressional, 5 and 4; Mrs. J. S. Connolly, Washington, defeated Mrs. M. R. Shiff, Argyle, 3 and 2.
FIRST FLIGHT: Mrs. Frank Smith, Congressional, defeated Mrs. Pat Martino, Argyle, 4 and 3; Mrs. R. Hoern, Congressional, defeated Mrs. B. Williamson, Bethesda, 3 and 1; Mrs. C. L. Jewett, Congressional, defeated Mrs. S. Stewart, Army-Navy, 6 and 4; Roland DeLauney, Prince George's, defeated Mrs. P. L. Smith, Congressional, 7 and 6.

'58 Finalists to Clash Again in Women's Golf

Mrs. Frank Cush and her Argyle clubmate, Georgia Mae McKeever, today won semifinal matches in the District Women's golf championship over their home course. They will meet for the title for the second straight year at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Mrs. Cush defeated the two-time champion, Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, jr., of Chevy Chase, 1 up, in a well-played match. Miss McKeever, who was runnerup to Mrs. Cush last year, had an easier time, defeating Lillian Lea, 18-year-old Court House Country Club champion, 5 and 4. Miss McKeever was 3 up at the turn. She played the round out and shot an 82.

Mrs. Cush was 2 up after eight holes, but lost 9, 11 and 13 to Mrs. Ferriday to go 1 down. The defending champion then won 14 and 15 with a conceded birdie three and a par four to go 1 up. They halved the last three holes in pars.

Mrs. Cush picked up on the 13th hole, where she drove into high grass, and Mrs. Ferriday was only five feet from the pin with her tee shot. Giving Mrs. Cush a four on that hole, she would have had a 77. Mrs. Ferriday also picked up on one hole, the sixth, and would have had about a 78.

Results of yesterday's play:

Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, defeated Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, 1 up; Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, jr., Chevy Chase, defeated Barbara Diggs, Manor, 3 and 2; Lillian Lea, Court House, defeated Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, 4 and 3; Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, defeated Mrs. J. D. Hanley, Argyle, 7 and 6.

Mrs. Cush, McKeever Gain WDGA Final

Ferriday, Lillian Lea Eliminated

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

For the second year in a row Mrs. Frank Cush and Georgia Mae McKeever will meet in the final of the Women's District Golf Association championship.

The two Argyle Country Club golfers will tee off on their home course today at 10 a. m. in a continuation of the rivalry which saw Mrs. Cush take the title last year.

The match will mark one of the few times, if not the first, in tournament history that two players from the same club have met in the final on their own home grounds.

Mrs. Cush eliminated Mrs. E. C. Ferriday of Chevy Chase, 1-up, in yesterday's semifinals while Miss McKeever was defeating 18-year-old Lillian Lea of Court House, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Cush, 1955 Maryland state champion, was out in 39 to be 1-up at the turn on the 1954 and 1956 WDGA champion. Mrs. Ferriday, who had 38 on the back nine but still lost, won the 11th hole with a par and the 13th with a birdie to take a one-up advantage.

Mrs. Cush, however, rallied to take the 14th and 15th holes to regain the lead. Both played the remaining three holes in par.

Mrs. Ferriday had a four-foot birdie putt at 17 that would have squared the match, but the Chevy Chase player's ball skimmed past the cup and stopped a few inches beyond.

Miss McKeever, a former softball star who bats the golf ball with man-sized authority, ran off with the lead on the third hole and was never caught in her match with Miss Lea.

The host club player was 3-up through eight holes but had her advantage cut to two at the turn when the pretty Virginia lass won her first hole at nine. Miss McKeever then closed out the match on the 14th green.

Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, and Mrs. John S. Connolly, Washington, meet in the championship consolation final. Mrs. Weitzen eliminated WDGA president Mrs. Paul Streit, Chevy Chase, 1-up, while Mrs. Connolly was sidelining Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud, Kenwood, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Frank K. Smith, Congressional, and Mrs. Lincoln Jewett, Congressional, reached the final of the first flight. Mrs. Smith advanced at the expense of Mrs. John Hoen, a Congressional clubmate, 3 and 1. Mrs. Jewett eliminated Mrs. Roland DeLauney, Prince Georges, 2 and 1.

Miss McKeever Wins District Women's Golf

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY
Star Staff Writer

Georgia Mae McKeever won her first District Women's golf championship today by defeating her Argyle clubmate, Mrs. Frank Cush, 2 and 1, in a windswept match over their home course.

Last year Mrs. Cush defeated Miss McKeever in four extra holes in the finals at Norbeck.

The new champion picked up on one hole, the par 3 fifth where she hit her tee shot in the water.

Miss McKeever was 3 up after eight holes, but lost the ninth and 11th to par 4s, and it appeared the match would go even on the 12th. But Georgia Mae knocked in a 6-footer for a par 5 and Mrs. Cush missed one half that distance and Miss McKeever went 2 up.

Miss McKeever lost the 13th when she failed to blast out of a sand trap, but salvaged a half in par 4s with a fine chip shot on the 14th and won the 16th hole to go 2 up again. They halved the 17th in bogie 4s when the strong cross-wind blew both of their tee shots into the right-hand trap.

Miss McKeever wins, 2 and 1. Miss McKeever had it easier than Mrs. Cush in yesterday's semifinals, beating Lillian Lee, the 18-year-old Court House player, 5 and 3. Mrs. Cush scored a 1 up victory over Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, Jr., of Chevy Chase, the 1953 and '55 champion.

Mrs. Cush was one down on the 13th, but took the 14th and 15th when Mrs. Ferriday was too bold with approaches.

Miss Lea was not as sharp as in her previous matches. She was three down after eight holes. Miss McKeever played the round out and shot an 81.

In the championship consolation, Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring defeated Mrs. Paul H. Streit of Chevy Chase, 1 up, and Mrs. John Connolly of Washington defeated Mrs. J. P. Trouchaud of Kenwood, 3 and 2.

The second flight finalists are Mrs. Frank Smith of Congressional, who defeated Mrs. J. L. Hoen of Congressional, 4 and 3, and Mrs. C. Lincoln Jewett of Congressional, who defeated Mrs. Roland DeLauney of Prince Georges, 2 and 1.

McKeever Wins Women's Golf

BUT STILL FRIENDS—Old friends and teammates, Georgia Mae McKeever, left, and Mrs. Frank Cush met yesterday at Argyle for the women's District Golf Association championship. Miss McKeever won, 2 and 1. They also were finalists in last year's tournament, Mrs. Cush winning that time, 1-up in a struggle over 22 holes.

Mrs. Cush Loses Title Match, 2 and 1

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Argyle Country Club's windswept course and lightning-like greens were just what Georgia Mae McKeever needed to win her first Women's District Golf Association championship.

The G-Girl from the State Department's Near East travel division, putted the way a champion should, and defeated Argyle clubmate, Mrs. Frank Cush, the defending titlist, in yesterday's final, 2 and 1.

Both players were on their home course but Miss McKeever's great work on the greens, or Mrs. Cush's lack of it, was the big difference between the two.

Miss McKeever made up for a lot of mistakes from tee to green by sinking payoff putts. On the other hand, Mrs. Cush, who defeated Miss McKeever in last year's championship final, 1-up in 22 holes, three-putted two greens and missed several putts of the "gimme" variety.

A Birdie on Second

Miss McKeever, who beat Mrs. Cush to win the 1958 Argyle women's club championship, birdied the second hole for a 1-up lead, but lost her ball in the pond on the short par three fifth to give Mrs. Cush a conceded hole.

The new champion turned an almost sure loss into a win at six. Mrs. Cush was nearly as far on her tee shot as Miss McKeever was with her second, but Mrs. Cush took four to get down from the edge of the green, three-putting for 15 feet, and lost the hole to a six.

Miss McKeever then won the seventh, sinking one of her long putts for a three, and the eighth in regulation fashion to go 3-up. Mrs. Cush three-putted the eighth but took the ninth with a par to be 2-down going over to the back nine.

Victory Snatched Away

Mrs. Cush had almost certain victory snatched from her grasp at 10 when Miss McKeever rolled in a 20-foot putt for a half in par. Mrs. Cush won the 11th hole with a par, became only one-down, but made a present of the next hole to McKeever by taking four to get down from just off the green for a six.

Miss McKeever on the 12th knocked a side-hill four-footer into the cup for her five after having hit an excellent approach shot to the green from deep rough to the left.

The champion got tangled up in a trap at 13th and took a double-bogey five, losing the hole to Mrs. Cush's par three. They halved the 14th, 15th and 16th holes.

The End in Sand Traps

The match ended on the 175-yard par three 17th where both were trapped on tee shots. Miss McKeever got out and two-putted for a four while Mrs. Cush left the ball in the sand in her first attempt to explode onto the green.

Mrs. John S. Connolly, of Washington, won the championship consolations, defeating Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, 1-up in 20 holes. Mrs. Connolly was three-up and three to play but Mrs. Weitzen squared the match with pars at 16 and 17 and a birdie at 18.

Mrs. Lincoln Jewett defeated her Congressional clubmate,

Mrs. Frank K. Smith, 3 and 2, in the first flight final. In the first flight consolations, Mrs. Harold Woster, Argyle, defeated Mrs. W. S. Stewart, Army-Navy, 2-up.

In the 36-hole medal play second flight, Mrs. Lawrence Martin, Manor, 197-18-161, was the winner. Mrs. Francis Tompkins, Chevy Chase, 206-44-162, was second.

Joanne Goodwin Takes Eastern Golf Lead With 74

Mrs. Cush Shoots 79, Ties for 3d

TIMONIUM, Md., June 9
Joanne Goodwin of Haverhill, Mass., shot a superb four over men's par, 37, 37-74, at Five Farms today and took a four stroke lead in the first round of the 54-hole women's Eastern Amateur golf championship.

Miss Goodwin, 23-year-old daughter of a golf pro, was one of five to break 80. Her nearest rival is another of the younger set, Cynthia Sullivan of Florence, S. C., who had 78.

Mrs. Frank Cush, of Washington's Argyle Country Club, tied for third at 79 with Mrs. Edward McAuliffe, also from Haverhill, and Mrs. John S. Haskell, of Huntington, Pa.

Janssen Shoots 86

Mary Patton Janssen, of Charlottesville, Va., defending champion is far back at 86.

An attractive brunette, Miss Goodwin played a marvelous round marked by an impressive display with her long irons and some brilliant chipping.

Putting lapses gave her two bogies, both on par-three holes.

On the ninth, a difficult up-hill shot to a sloping green 179 yards from the tee, she placed a three-iron on the back edge and took three to get down.

Again on the 13th, a 141-yard par-three, she hit the back of the green and failed to get down in two.

Birdie on 17th

She got one of these strokes back with a birdie on the 155-yard 17th after a three-iron left her four feet from the cup.

Four times when Miss Goodwin missed the green she chipped to within a foot of the cup for her pars.

The second round will be played Wednesday, the third and final round Thursday.

Miss Goodwin Shoots 76, Keeps Golf Lead

TIMONIUM, Md., June 10—Grim Joanne Goodwin, of Haverhill, Mass., took a major step toward winning her second Women's Eastern Amateur golf championship today, shooting a second round 76 today at Five Farms.

Mrs. Cush

Miss Goodwin now has a 150 total after 36 holes of the 54-hole event which she won two years ago and leads Mrs. Edward McCauliffe, also of Haverhill, by four shots.

Defending champion Mary Patton Janssen, from Charlottesville, Va., is out of contention with 171.

One stroke behind Mrs. McCauliffe after a fine 75 today is Cookie Swift Berger, of Buffalo, N. Y., followed by Washington's Mrs. Frank Cush, who shot 77 and has a 156 aggregate.

Others under 160 are Alice Gray, of Philadelphia, with 158, and Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, with 159.

Miss Goodwin went out in 38, three over men's par and came back in 39 on a course which concedes little yardage to women. Ladies' tees are placed no more than 10 yards in front of the regular men's markers in most cases.

She strayed over par on only two holes, on the front side taking a double bogey six on the second and a bogey six on the dogleg fifth, a par five which plays about 550 yards.

Coming in she was trapped on the par four twelfth and took a bogey five, hit into a trap on the par three thirteenth but blasted out beautifully about a foot from the hole and sank her putt.

She took four to reach the green on the very long par five fourteenth for another bogey, then played another wonderful chip after going over the fifteenth to salvage par.

A weak pitch cost her a bogey on the sixteenth when her shot from the right rough was short, but she almost got it back barely missing a birdie putt of eight feet on the seventeenth.

McAuliffe Takes Golf

BALTIMORE, June 11 (UPI)
Mrs. Edward McAuliffe, of Haverhill, Mass., realized a lifelong ambition today when she won the Women's Eastern Amateur Golf Association championship at the rugged Five Farms course of the Baltimore Country Club.

Mrs. McAuliffe, W. E. G. A. president, defeated Joanne Goodwin, also of Haverhill, and Cookie Swift Berger, Buffalo, N. Y., in an 18-hole playoff after all three had tied at 232 at the end of the regulation 54 holes.

The powerful hitting New Englander shot 81 in the playoff round while Miss Goodwin had 82 and Mrs. Berger 85.

Joanne had gone into the final round today leading Mrs. McAuliffe by four strokes after opening with 74, 76-150, but faded to an 82 while Mrs. McAuliffe, with 79 and 75 rounds behind her, shot 78 and Mrs. Berger, 80, 75 in the first two rounds, shot 77.

The leaders:

Baltimore's Mary Ann Downey finished fourth with 237 while Mrs. Frank Cush, of Argyle, was tied with Mrs. H. S. Semple, Pittsburgh, with 241.

Mrs. McKeever Wins Post Cup With a Net 69

Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle fired a 76-7—69 yesterday and won The Washington Post Class A District golf title at Prince Georges Country Club.

Mrs. William Walsh of Washington had 83-12—71 for second place.

Low gross went to Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, 80.

Other scores: Mrs. James Swink, Belle Haven, 83-11—72; Mrs. Arnold Wilcox, Chevy Chase, 84-12—72; Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, 84-12—72; Mrs. Fred Chaimson, Prince Georges, 85-13—72; Mrs. Herbert Rudd, Bethesda, 86-13—73.

WOMEN'S GOLF

PRINCE GEORGES—Georgia Mae McKeever won the Washington Post and Times Herald Cup Class A championship yesterday with 76-7—69, while low gross honors went to Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle with 80. Barbara Diggs of Manor was second low gross with 81.

Behind Miss McKeever on the net list were Mrs. William Walsh of Washington, 83-12—71; Mrs. James Swink, Belle Haven, 83-11—72; Mrs. Arnold Wilcox, Chevy Chase, 84-12—72; Mrs. Charles Egenroad, Washington, 81-9—72; Mrs. Fred Chaimson, Prince Georges, 85-13—72; and Mrs. Herbert Rudd, Bethesda, 86-13—73.

Simon Cup Won By Mrs. Keyser Of Congressional

Mrs. A. G. Keyser of Congressional captured the Simon Cup tournament of the Women's District Golf Association for Class C golfers yesterday at Court House Country Club.

Mrs. Keyser's 90—20—70 won net honors and the Simon Cup. Her 90 also was the best gross score. But Mrs. Keyser elected to accept the net prize instead of the gross award.

It was only the second city-wide tournament for Mrs. Keyser, 33, who began playing golf three years ago.

Mrs. Roger B. Williamson of Bethesda won the gross prize with a 91. Runnerup in net was Mrs. Katharyne A. Thomason of Argyle with a 93—19—74.

Mrs. Keyser Wins Class C Golf Honors

The Women's District Golf Association events are producing their usual number of first-time winners in the higher handicap classes this year. Mrs. A. G. Keyser of Congressional joined the list yesterday by winning the Class C Simon Cup in her second start in a cup tournament.

Mrs. Keyser shot a 90 in the event for 18-20 handicap players at Court House Club, and deducted 20 handicap strokes to win by four shots. Mrs. B. Williamson of Bethesda won low gross with a 91.

A field of 58 entered the event but only 40 started. The high percentage of withdrawals partly was blamed to the 99-degree heat. All of the women who started completed their rounds.

Other net winners, in order: Mrs. C. A. Thomason of Argyle, 93-19—74; Mrs. Irwin Ritz of Indian Spring, 93-18—75; Mrs. W. R. Simmons of Belle Haven, 95-20—75; Mrs. Richard Goodridge of Bethesda, 93-18—75; Mrs. M. Shulman of Indian Spring, 95-18—77, and Mrs. Gunder Gilbertson of Court House, 96-19—77.

WASH. POST 6/27/59 Mrs. Braden Wins Anderson Cup

Mrs. A. W. Braden of Manor captured the Anderson Cup for Class D golfers of the Womens District Golf Association yesterday at Army Navy with a 89—23—66.

Mrs. J. H. Pennoyer of the host club took low gross with a 90.

Other low net scorers were:

Mrs. W. R. Harris, Washington, 91—21—70; Mrs. B. H. Bond, Army Navy, 92—22—70; Mrs. R. M. Murphy, Prince Georges, 93—21—72; Mrs. Jack Baum, Argyle, 96—23—73; Mrs. Sydney Sellman, Norbeck, 96—23—73; and Mrs. H. R. Brinkman, Army Navy, 96—22—74.

Net 66 Captures Class D Trophy For Mrs. Braden

Mrs. A. W. Braden of Manor Country Club, who devotes many hours promoting junior girls golf, took time out yesterday to promote her own golf game by winning the Women's District Golf Association's Class D Anderson Cup at Army Navy.

Mrs. Braden shot an 89, best score of the 21-23 handicap players. She deducted 23 handicap for a net 66, which was low by four strokes. With Mrs. Braden taking low net, the low gross honors went to Mrs. J. H. Pennoyer of the host club with a 90.

Other prize winners, in order:

Mrs. William R. Harris of Washington, 91-21—70; Mrs. C. H. Bond of Army Navy, 92-22—70; Mrs. R. M. Murphy of Prince Georges, 93-21—72; Mrs. Jack Baum of Argyle, 96-23—73; Mrs. Sidney Fellman of Norbeck, 96-23—73, and Mrs. H. R. Brinkman of Army Navy, 96-22—74.

Takes Evans Cup Mrs. Lyons Golf Winner

Mrs. A. J. Lyons won her second Women's District Golf Association class B tournament yesterday, the Mark Evans Trophy at Belle Haven Country Club.

The Court House Country Club golfer, who won her first Evans Trophy in 1955, posted a 83—15—68 yesterday and was low in both the net and gross departments.

A contestant is allowed only one prize and because of that rule, Mrs. L. J. Erla, the defending champion, fell heir to the gross prize with 87.

Mrs. Frank K. Smith of Congressional, who tied Mrs. Erla of Army Navy for gross but lost in the card matching, took second net with 87—16—71. Other prize winners were:

Mrs. Eli Amanuel, Indian Spring, 87—15—72; Mrs. O. D. Yarbrough, Court House, 89—17—72; Ruth Andrews, Court House, 89—16—73; Mrs. R. E. Schattman, Indian Spring, 88—15—73; Audrey Peterson, Argyle, 90—17—73; Mrs. A. P. Litrento, Prince Georges, 90—17—73.

Mrs. Lyons Wins WDGA Evans Cup

Mrs. A. J. Lyons of Court House Country Club has a knack for playing her best golf in the Mark Evans Cup tournament, a Class B event of the Women's District Golf Association.

In 1955 Mrs. Lyons, a senior in the women's golf ranks, won the cup with an 88 minus 13 handicap for a net 75.

Yesterday Mrs. Lyons played the best golf of her lifetime, an 83, and deducted a 15 handicap for a net 68. The winner was out in 43 and back in 40 at Belle Haven to win by three strokes.

Mrs. Lyons was the low gross scorer by four shots, but took the net prize. Three tied for low gross with 87s, Mrs. L. J. Erla of Army Navy, the cup winner last year, Mrs. Frank Smith of Congressional, and Mrs. Eli Amanuel of Indian Spring.

Mrs. Erla won by matching cards without handicap. Mrs. Smith won second net with 87-16—71 and Mrs. Amanuel third net with 87-15—72.

Other net prize winners, in order, Mrs. O. D. Yarbrough of Court House, 89-17—72, Ruth Andrews of Court House, 89-16—73, Mrs. R. E. Schattman of Indian Spring, 88-15—73, Audrey Peterson of Argyle, 90-17—73 and Mrs. Anthony Litrento of Prince Georges, 90-17—73.

Mrs. Lamont Wins Wiesberg Cup at Norbeck

Mrs. Edward Lamont of Bethesda fired a 91-25—66 yesterday at Norbeck and captured the Wiesberg Cup in a Women's District Golf Association Class E tournament.

Mrs. John Turbush of Argyle was runnerup with 95-26—69. Mrs. William Barnes of Argyle had low gross, 92.

Other low net scores were: Mrs. D. E. Ball, Washington, 97-27—70; Mrs. Harry Hais, Norbeck, 97-26—71; Mrs. Albert Brodsky, Norbeck, 96-25—72; Mrs. David Marr, Congressional, 97-25—72; Mrs. S. W. Devlin, Bethesda, 97-25—72; Mrs. Harry Fletcher, Washington, 98-26—72; Mrs. Howard Sherer, Norbeck, 98-26—72; Mrs. R. Schoenhair, Belle Haven, 96-24—72; Mrs. George Thomas, Manor, 99-27—72, and Mrs. J. E. Chaeney, Prince Georges, 97-24—73.

Bethesda Golfer Wins Cup Event On First Attempt

Mrs. Edward Lamont of Bethesda played in her first Women's District Golf Association cup tournament yesterday—the Class E Wiesberg Cup at Norbeck Country Club—and won it with a 91 minus 25 handicap for a net 66.

A field of 70 competed in the event for players in the 24-27 handicap bracket.

Mrs. William T. Barnes of Argyle won low gross with a 92.

Other net prize winners, in order: Mrs. John Turbush of Argyle, 95-26—69; Mrs. D. E. Ball of Washington, 97-27—70; Mrs. Harry Hais of Norbeck, 97-26—71; Mrs. Albert Brodsky of Norbeck, 96-24—72; Mrs. David Marr of Congressional, 97-25—72; Mrs. F. W. Devlin of Bethesda, 97-25—72; Mrs. Harry Fletcher of Washington, 98-26—72; Mrs. Howard Sherer of Norbeck, 98-26—72; Mrs. R. Schoenhair of Belle Haven, 96-24—72; Mrs. George Thomas of Manor, 99-27—72, and Mrs. J. E. Chaeney of Prince Georges, 97-24—73.
