TEE TO GREEN

MERRELL WHITTLESEY

*Jan 8
31st*

The women golfers are being somewhat hush-hush about the matter, but a group of the more progressive thinkers can see the day when the Women's District Golf Association will be split into Maryland and Virginia sections. It makes sense.

The WDGA now has 17 member clubs with the addition of Westbriar and Brooke Manor, 12 in Maryland and five in Virginia.

The current series in The Star on new clubs in the area has made some of the committee members more cognizant of a problem that is only two or three years away.

For instance, say Chantilly, near the new Dulles International Airport, and Lakewood, two miles north of Rockville, would be admitted in three years. If a player who lived a mile or two from Chantilly had a 9:15 starting time for a tournament at Lakewood, or vice versa, she'd have to set the alarm for dawn to be ready.

And that's not the only problem. With the addition of the two clubs, the WDGA probably is going to have to cut its handicap maximum from 27 strokes for Class E to 25. When several more clubs are admitted, and present member clubs have increased rosters, the women's tournament fields will be unwieldy.

There will be many meetings and much discussion before the split, but it's inevitable. There probably will be cup tournaments for the Virginia members, cup tournaments for the Maryland members, a limited field District championship and maybe one or two other events for all.

The Women's District Golf Association, of course, does not have a member club in the District.

Congressional Country Club took the first round lead in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Argyle, defeating Indian Spring, 7½-1½.

Army Navy pulled into second place by defeating Columbia, 7-2, and Chevy Chase won from Washington, 6½-2½.

The championship Argyle team drew a first round bye.

The heavily favored Argyle team opens its title defense Thursday at Chevy Chase in a match with Washington.

Washington started off as if it was going to give the strong Chevy Chase team a close tussle. Mrs. Charles Egenroad and Mrs. William Walsh gave Washington a 2½ to a ½ point lead in the first foursome but from there on the Virginia club didn't win a point.

Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, former city champion, and Mrs. Irving Swanson gave Columbia its only points by taking two of a possible three from Army Navy's top team of Mrs. C. P. Phoebus and Mrs. N. I. Looney.

First round matches in five lower divisions were also played yesterday. Results:

Army Navy Grabs Lead In WDGA

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Army Navy Country Club's golf team raced to a big lead in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday, whitewashing Indian Spring in a second round match, 9-0.

The Virginia service club team won a 7-2 victory over Columbia in last Tuesday's opening matches at Argyle. Yesterday's big victory over last place Indian Spring gave Army Navy a 16-point total.

Argyle, last year's winner, played its first match yesterday and finished with a 7½-1½ victory over Washington. But Argyle didn't appear to be as strong as last year and Army Navy now looms a distinct threat.

Congressional, Tuesday's leader, fell back into second place by losing a 5-4 decision to Columbia.

Chevy Chase drew a second bye and, like Argyle, has played one less match than the leaders. Chevy Chase is still a strong contender, having won a 6½-2½ point victory over Washington in its opener.

The league goes back on a one-match-a-week schedule next week. The third round is scheduled for Tuesday, May 3, at Army Navy but the host team will draw the bye.

Argyle Takes Aim on Leader For WDGA Title

Army Navy Country Club is out front in the battle for the Women's District Golf Association team championship, but Argyle, the defending champion and Chevy Chase both have high hopes of taking over next Tuesday.

The third-round matches will be held at Army Navy, with Army Navy drawing a bye.

Argyle, which sat out first-round play, yesterday whipped Washington, 7½-1½, at Chevy Chase. That moved Argyle into third place, but Army Navy, the leader with 16 points, and Congressional, runnerup with 11½ points, both have played two matches.

Argyle has 7½ points followed by Columbia, with 7; Chevy Chase, 6½; Washington, 4, and Indian Spring, 1½. Chevy Chase also has played only once.

Army Navy won its second match, 9-0, over Indian Spring yesterday, while Columbia edged Congressional, 5-4.

Argyle Wins Over Columbia, 5½-3½

Army Navy Holds Lead In WDGA

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Army Navy Country Club was idle yesterday but, with an assist from Columbia, retained the lead in the round robin matches for the Women's District Golf Association team championship.

The service club team accumulated 16 points in its first two matches but, as host team, drew a third round bye yesterday.

Argyle, defending champion, squeaked past a stubborn Columbia team, 5½ to 3½, and dropped three points behind Army Navy in the standings.

Mrs. Frank Cush played the best golf of the day but the Argyle captain and her partner, Georgia Mae McKeever, won only 2 of a possible 3 points from Columbia's top pair of Mrs. R. T. Kreuzburg and Mrs. Irving Swanson. Mrs. Cush picked up on one hole, giving her a bogey five there, but she had 76 over the rugged service club course.

Chevy Chase moved up into second place, a half point behind Army Navy, by taking all nine points from Indian Spring. Each of the top two teams and Argyle, which is in fourth place, have played two matches and the championship appears to be strictly a battle among the three.

Washington defeated Congressional, 6-3, in the third match. Next week's matches will be played at Congressional and could prove the most important of the series.

Argyle plays Indian Spring and a clean sweep victory over the league's cellar-team could put it in the lead. Army Navy plays Washington and Chevy Chase takes on Columbia. Results:

WDGA Likely To Go to Wire Deciding Title

The Women's District Golf Association's first team matches pass the halfway mark in Tuesday's fourth round at Congressional, but there is little likelihood that the three-way scrap for the title will be settled until Argyle, Chevy Chase and Army Navy complete their head-to-head matches.

The current standings are meaningless because none of the top three teams has met each other, and because of the byes.

However, Argyle lost ground yesterday in a 5½-3½ victory over Columbia. The defending champions lost 1½ points by comparison to the idle Army Navy team, which earlier defeated Columbia, 7-2.

Deciding Point

Mrs. Sam Crocker's par three on the 18th hole was good for the deciding point as she and Mrs. James Hagerty won, 2½-½, over Mrs. J. D. Hanley and Dorothy Omelecki.

Argyle won, 2-1, in the first bracket as Mrs. Frank Cush started birdie-eagle. Mrs. Cush and Georgia Mae McKeever lost the back nine to Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg and Mrs. Irving Swanson. Argyle's third bracket of Mrs. Wilson Howard and Mrs. R. C. Townsend won three points.

Chevy Chase Scores Rout

Chevy Chase blanked Indian Spring, 9-0, although some of the points were closely contested. Washington Golf and Country Club won, 6-3, over Congressional as the latter club swept three points in the first bracket. Nina Crampton and Mrs. D. H. Henderson upset Mrs. Charles Egenroad and Mrs. William Walsh.

Chevy Chase meets Army Navy's question-mark team May 17 at Indian Spring. Army Navy plays Argyle the following week, and in the final match that could decide the title, Argyle's defending champions play Chevy Chase May 31.

Army Navy Holds Lead In WDGA

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Army Navy Country Club ran into sterner opposition from Washington than was expected yesterday in the fourth round of the Women's District Golf Association team championship at Congressional but still managed to retain the league lead.

While the service club team was winning, 6-3, from Washington, defending champion Argyle was getting back into contention with an 8-1 victory over Indian Spring.

Army Navy's six points gives the club a total of 22 points, a half-point lead over Chevy Chase and an advantage of one point over Argyle.

Chevy Chase suffered an unexpected defeat at the hands of Columbia, 5½ to 4½. One of the pre-season favorites, Chevy Chase won only a ½ point in the first foursome, one point in the second but Mrs. Charles Hawley Jr. and Mrs. W. S. Parson saved the former champions from further humiliation by taking all three Nassau points in the third foursome.

None of the big three teams have faced each other as yet. Chevy Chase plays Army Navy in a fifth-round match Tuesday, May 17 at Indian Spring. On the same day, Argyle will get a chance to go into the lead in a tussle with fourth-place Congressional.

Mrs. E. W. King, Army Navy club's No. 3 player, produced the best golf of the day over the windswept course. The service club player had 38 on Congressional new second nine, a score that enabled Mrs. King and Mrs. J. S. Nettles to take all three points from Washington's second pair of Mrs. Lloyd Dennis and Mrs. John Connolly. Results:

Argyle Women Choice to Keep Title in WDGA

The big three in the Women's District Golf Association's team matches — Argyle's defending champions, Army Navy and Chevy Chase—passed the halfway mark yesterday with only two points separating them and with the same assignments ahead.

Each of the top three teams has had its bye match, and in the three remaining must play Congressional, and the other two leaders.

Army Navy has 22 points after a 6-3 victory over Washington Golf and Country Club yesterday at Congressional. Argyle has 21 after winning, 8-1, over Indian Spring, and Chevy Chase has 20 after being held to a 4½-4½ tie by Columbia. The tie was considered to be a heavy blow to Chevy Chase's chances.

However, those close to the matches figure Argyle definitely is the team to beat if its working girls can arrange for days off on the dates of the three remaining matches.

Takes Front Nine

The last-place Indian Spring team was pleased to take a point from Argyle when Mrs. Ben Frauwirth and Mrs. Dick Schattman won the front nine from Mrs. Helen Konopa and Mrs. J. D. Hanley. Argyle's combinations of Mrs. Frank Cush and Georgia Mae McKeever, and Mrs. Wilson Howard and Mrs. R. C. Townsend won three points each.

Army Navy was off to a 5½-½ lead over Washington as Mrs. C. P. Phoebus and Mrs. N. I. Looney won 2½ points, and Mrs. E. W. King and Mrs. J. S. Nettles won three. But two Washington substitutes, Mrs. Gordon Simmonds and Mrs. Henry Riley, punctured Army Navy's hopes by winning 2½ from Mrs. W. S. Stewart and Mrs. F. N. Phillips.

Columbia's top team of Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg and Mrs. Irving Swanson won 2½-½ over Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, Jr., and Mrs. Paul Streit, and Mrs. Sam Crocker and Mrs. James Hagerty upset Mrs. Webb Hayes and Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney, 2-1.

Salvages Tie

Chevy Chase salvaged a tie when Mrs. Charles B. Hawley, Jr., and Mrs. W. S. Parsons won three points.

In the other divisions, Belle Haven has a four-point lead over Army Navy in second team competition. Woodmont leads Army Navy by a point in third team play, and Army Navy has a 2½ point lead over Court House in fourth team competition.

Other results:

2nd teams at Court House: Belle Haven, 6½; Kenwood, 2½. Army Navy, 7½; Prince Georges, 1½. Brooke Manor, 5; Chevy Chase, 4.
3rd teams at Army Navy: Woodmont, 6½; Bethesda, 2½. Manor, 6; Congressional, 3. Indian Spring, 5½; Westbriar, 3½.

Argyle Takes Lead In Women's Team Golf

Argyle Country Club's entry in the Women's District Golf Association team championship forged into the lead yesterday at Indian Spring Country Club, defeating Congressional, 6½-2½.

Mrs. Frank Cush, Maryland state amateur champion and No. 1 player on the Argyle team had 79, low individual round of the day.

Argyle's victory gave the defending champions a ½ point lead over Army Navy Country Club. The service club team edged Chevy Chase, 5-4.

In the other match, Columbia downed Washington, 6½-2½. Results:

Argyle Women Golfers Pushed By Army Navy

A two-team scrap for the Women's District Golf Association's first team title is in prospect between Argyle's defending champions and Army Navy after the latter virtually eliminated Chevy Chase with a 5-4 victory yesterday at Indian Spring.

Argyle leads by a half point and still has to meet Army Navy and Chevy Chase. The service club has a somewhat easier assignment, as it still must play Argyle and Congressional, the fifth-place team.

Argyle lost an opportunity to widen its lead yesterday when it was held to a 6½-2½ victory by Congressional. Argyle's first and third brackets of Mrs. Frank Cush and Mrs. Helen Konopa and Mrs. Wilson Howard and Mrs. R. C. Townsend won 3 points each.

Second Bracket Loses

But Congressional's second bracket of Mrs. J. L. Barnicle and Mrs. F. K. Smith scored an important 2½ points over Mrs. J. D. Hanley and Helen Hanson.

Army Navy's top duo of Mrs. C. P. Phoebus and Mrs. N. I. Looney scored 2-1 over Mrs. Paul H. Streit and Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, jr., of Chevy Chase, and the third bracket of Mrs. W. S. Stewart and Mrs. F. N. Phillips won all three points.

Chevy Chase won three points in the second bracket as Mrs. Webb Hayes and Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney defeated Mrs. E. W. King and Mrs. Jess Nettles.

Takes Fourth Place

Columbia took over fourth place by a 4½-point margin by defeating Washington, 6½-2½.

Congressional holds the key to the winner. Army Navy and Argyle appear about evenly matched after the top bracket, so the one that wins the most points against Congressional could take the title.

Georgia Mae McKeever, the District champion, did not play for Argyle yesterday, but is expected to be available for the final matches the next two Tuesdays.

Second Teams at Chevy Chase

Belle Haven, 5½; Army Navy, 3½; Kenwood, 8½; Prince Georges, ½; Court House, 7½; Brook Manor, 1½.

Third Teams at Bethesda

Indian Spring, 6½; Congressional, 2½.

Fourth Teams at Court House

Washington, 6; Woodmont, 3.

Argyle, 8; Indian Spring, 1.

Army Navy, 8; Prince Georges, 1.

Fifth Teams at Congressional

Kenwood, 8½; Woodmont, ½.

Belle Haven, 5½; Columbia, 3½.

Manor, 6; Brooke Manor, 3.

Sixth Teams at Manor

Bethesda, 5; Kenwood, 4.

Norbeck, 6½; Washington, 2½.

Columbia, 8; Prince Georges, 1.

Argyle Wins Over Army Navy

Argyle retained its lead in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Columbia by defeating Army Navy Club, 6½-2½.

The defending champions go into next week's final round with a 1½ point lead over Chevy Chase Club, its last opponent in the annual round robin series.

Chevy Chase pulled into contention yesterday with a lopsided 8½-½ point victory over Congressional. In the other match, Washington defeated Indian Spring, 8-1.

Yesterday's results:

*Completed season.

Argyle's defending champions are in the driver's seat with one match to go in the Women's District Golf Association's first team play.

They lead Chevy Chase by 1½ points and play Chevy Chase next week in the final match at Washington G&CC. Argyle needs only four of nine points to maintain first place.

Army Navy has a mathematical chance as it trails Argyle by 4½ points and Chevy Chase by 3. The Army Navy team meets Congressional but needs a sweep of 9 points and a close victory for Chevy Chase over Argyle.

In the second team play, Court House and Belle Haven are tied, but Court House plays the last-place Prince Georges team in its final match.

Manor leads Army Navy by two points in the third team series and they play each other. Army Navy is three points ahead of Washington in the fourth team series, while Columbia is 7½ points on top of Norbeck in the sixth division, and will be the champion unless Norbeck scores eight of nine points in its final match.

Argyle bettered its position in the first team race by beating Army Navy, 6½-2½ at Columbia yesterday. Mrs. Frank Cush and Georgia Mae McKeever in the first bracket and Mrs. Wilson Howard and Mrs. R. C. Townsend in the third scored 2½ points, while Mrs. Helen Konopa and Mrs. J. D. Hanley split with Mrs. E. W. King and Mrs. Jess Nettles in the third.

Chevy Chase helped its cause with an 8½-½ victory over Congressional, the worst defeat the latter has taken. Washington Golf and Country Club won over Indian Spring, 8-1.

Second teams at Belle Haven: Court House 6½, Kenwood 2½. Army Navy 5½, Chevy Chase 3½. Prince Georges 4½, Brooke Manor 4½.

Third teams at Indian Spring: Manor 8, Woodmont 1. Bethesda 6, Congressional 3. Westbriar 5½, Army Navy 3½. Fourth teams at Army Navy: Court House 5½, Prince Georges 3½. Indian Spring 5, Woodmont 4. Washington 5, Argyle 4.

Fifth teams at Brooke Manor: Manor 8, Congressional 1. Belle Haven 8½, Woodmont ½. Columbia 7, Kenwood 2. Sixth teams at Prince Georges: Bethesda 7½, Washington 1½. Norbeck 6½, Kenwood 2½. Columbia 7, Manor 2.

Winner of WDGA Matches

Title First For Service Club Team

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Army Navy Country Club, with a hefty assist from Chevy Chase Club, won its first Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Washington Golf and Country Club.

The service club team also became the first team in this year's round robin series to win all nine points from Congressional. That feat and Chevy Chase Club's 5½ to 3½ victory over Argyle, the defending champions, decided the new champion.

Army Navy was conceded only a slim outside chance of winning the title after losing 6½ to 2½ last week to the defending champions. Third going into yesterday's final, Army Navy was 3½ points behind Argyle and trailed Chevy Chase by 3.

Close Contest

The close battle between Argyle, seeking its fifth title, and Chevy Chase, trying for its eighth championship, gave Army and Navy its chance.

Mrs. C. P. Phoebus and Mrs. N. I. Looney started the Virginia service club on its way to victory by taking all three nassau points from Congressional's top pair of Nina Crampton and Mrs. D. H. Henderson.

In the second bracket, Mrs. E. W. King and Mrs. Jess Nettles won three points from Congressional's second pair of Mrs. F. K. Smith and Mrs. Adele Pugh. The upset victory was clinched in the final foursome when Mrs. N. S. Stewart and Mrs. F. N. Phillips completed the route by taking three points from Mrs. P. L. Smith and Mrs. J. R. Keppler.

Wait for Results

Congressional and Army Navy played ahead of Chevy Chase and Argyle and the new champions spent a tense half hour waiting for its finish. Mrs. E. C. Ferriday and Mrs. Paul Streit of Chevy Chase split even with Mrs. Frank Cush, Maryland State champion, and Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, 1½ points apiece.

Mrs. Webb Hayes and Mrs. Hartwell MacCarteney gave Chevy Chase Club the advantage with a 2-1 victory over Mrs. Helen Konopa and Dorothy Omolecki in the second match. Mrs. W. R. Parsons and Mrs. Charles Hawley insured the Army Navy victory by winning a 2-1 victory over Argyle's third pair of Mrs. W. E. Howard and Mrs. R. C. Townsend.

Army Navy finished with 38½ points. Chevy Chase was a ½ point back and Argyle finished third with 37½.

Belle Haven Wins

Belle Haven won the second team title at Army Navy by beating Chevy Chase, 7½ to 1½. Court House was tied with Belle Haven going into the final match but lost by a point after taking a 6½-2½ decision from Prince Georges.

Army Navy took all nine points from the league leading Manor team to win the title in the third division. Army Navy also won the title in division four, nosing out Washington by three points with 36½ points.

The fifth was postponed because Belle Haven's course was unplayable yesterday. The sixth title went to Columbia with 34 points.

CHEVY CHASE FINISHES SECOND

Rally Gives Army Navy First Women's Crown

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY
Star Staff Writer

Women golfers at Army Navy Country Club are celebrating a triple triumph in the Women's District Golf Association's team play today, with most of the excitement in the championship division, where the service club sextet accomplished an outstanding rally to dethrone Argyle.

Army Navy also won the third and fourth division, Belle Haven won the second and Columbia the sixth division. The fifth division matches were postponed because of water on the Belle Haven course. The champion there will be Columbia, or Belle Haven, which draws a bye and can back in if Columbia wins less than five points. All divisions except the first were played with handicaps.

The Army Navy team blanked Congressional, 9-0, in the first division play, but it could not have won without an assist from Chevy Chase, which upset Argyle, 5½-3½.

Takes Second Place

Chevy Chase could have won the title with another point in the last bracket, but with two of three points there moved into second place. Army Navy won with 38½ points to 38 for Chevy Chase and 37½ for the favored Argyle team.

The Army Navy lineup was the same each week, Mrs. C. P. Phoebe and Mrs. N. I. Looney in the first bracket, Mrs. E. W. King and Mrs. Jess Nettles in the second, and Mrs. W. S. Stewart and Mrs. F. N. Phillips in the third. The girls kept plugging even after last week's 6½-2½ defeat by Argyle.

Argyle did not win a single bracket from the inspired Chevy Chase team. Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, jr., and Mrs. Paul H. Streit of Chevy Chase held Mrs. Frank Cush and Georgia Mae McKeever, the respective Maryland and District champions, even, with 1½ points for each team.

Mrs. Webb Hayes and Mrs. Hartwell MacCartney won 2-1 over Mrs. Helen Konopa and Dorothy Omolecki, and Mrs. W. S. Parsons and Mrs. Charles B. Hawley, jr., won, 2-1, over Mrs. Wilson Howard and Mrs. R. C. Townsend.

Needed Sweep and Assist

Army Navy needed a sweep over Congressional, something no other team had accomplished, and a narrow margin for Chevy Chase over Argyle. It received both. The new champions, who won the first team cup for the first time since it was put in play in 1931, posted their 9-0 triumph while the Argyle-Chevy Chase match was still on the course.

Each tie or victory for the Chevy Chase team boosted Army Navy's hopes. It suddenly appeared that Chevy Chase was winning too many points and could take it all with three points in the last bracket.

The last-place Indian Spring team was consoled by holding Columbia to a 4½-4½ tie. In the first bracket Mrs. William Weitzen and Mrs. Paul Costello, seven down at the turn, halved the back nine point with Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg and Mrs. John Kerkam. Then Mrs. Ben Frauworth and Mrs. Harry Hirshberg won two points, as did Mrs. Eli Amanuel and Mrs. Allen Henkin. The latter two brackets gave Indian Spring its first victories of the season.

Personnel of the championship teams:

Second division, Belle Haven: Mrs. James A. Swink, Mrs. Roy Smalley, Mary Lee, Mrs. Clarence Miller, Mrs. Walter Densmore, Mrs. Chrisman Hanes.

Third division, Army-Navy: Mrs. W. C. Crampton, Mrs. J. O. Beckner, Mrs. J. L. Erler,

Mrs. D. I. Thomas, Mrs. R. G. Luckie, Mrs. H. J. Waters

Fourth division, Army Navy: Mrs. C. F. Pollock, Mrs. J. M. Normington, Mrs. R. B. Kadel, Mrs. W. F. Gallogly, Mrs. W. L. Lockhart, Mrs. R. E. Tompkins.

Sixth division, Columbia: Mrs. Roland Haynes, Mrs. J. J. Darby, Mrs. Glen Garvin, Mrs. H. Holmes Vogel, Mrs. Robert Harrell, Mrs. Lester Briggs.

Columbia Country Club's women golfers added a second team title to the Women's District Golf Association's team championships when they won the fifth division yesterday in a match postponed from last week.

Columbia also won the sixth division. Army Navy earlier won the first, third and fourth divisions and Belle Haven the second division.

In the fifth division final matches, Columbia defeated Congressional, 8-1, Manor defeated Kenwood, 9-0, and Brooke Manor beat Woodmont, 5-4.

The winning Columbia fifth team was made up of Mrs. K. L. Kimble, Mrs. Ed Hickey, Mrs. John Ryerson, Mrs. William Werber, Mrs. William Denton, jr., and Mrs. E. W. Mollohan.

The Army Navy Club's women golf team was a surprise winner of the Women's District Golf Association team title yesterday with an unusual 9-0 sweep over Congressional and an assist from Chevy Chase, which upset Argyle,

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

The Sam Snead School of Golf in Silver Spring has closed with a loss "in excess of $100,000," to the stockholders according to Edward Falck, the former head of the War Production Board, who is the president of the local franchise.

Falck said the stockholders did not get a cent of their investment back. All the money went for rent and salaries. "Our investment was based on an erroneous economic concept," Falck said yesterday. He said Snead did not have any of his money invested.

Golfers who have contracted for lessons will receive them at Larry Hogan's Driving Range on Viers Mill road, with Hogan and Gene Auldridge doing the instructing.

A $7,500 pro-amateur is being planned for Wednesday, June 27, the day before the Eastern Open. The fee for amateurs will be $50. There will be 50 pros, 37 of them from the tour, and 13 named by the Mid-Atlantic section.

Columbia and Washington's senior teams meet for the first District senior team title today, three foursomes playing at Columbia and three at Manor.

The new Tamarack Country Club at Seneca, Md., plans twice-monthly receptions for prospective members. The first was held last week at Kenwood Country Club, where board members of Tamarack were on hand to meet invited guests.

Tamarack's lofty goals are a $2,750,000 clubhouse by August 1, 1961, and a 27-hole golf course by the spring of 1962. The golf course will cover 300 acres of the club's 535, with homesites on the remainder.

John Bender, an engineer, who is spokesman for the group, said the search for a name ended when he happened to be glancing over a bookcase and spotted a volume entitled "The Tamarack Tree." The club, 18 miles from the District Line at Wisconsin avenue, out River road, extended, is catering to the comfortable income bracket. Eddie Ault, the golf architect, had his blueprints at the first meeting. Future get-togethers will be held at Kenwood and other locations.

Snead and Gary Nixon of White Sulphur Springs will attend a press luncheon at the Sheraton-Carlton tomorrow afternoon to explain their affiliation with the new Lakewood Club, where Buster Reed is the home pro.

Baltimore's Bill Collins, whose bonuses in his recent Houston Classic victory topped his $5,300 check for first money, won another $500 bonus in last week's $50,000 Open at Indianapolis for a 65, low round of the last day. Collins' prize money before the bonus was $950.

The most unpopular golf hole in this area for the women golfers must be the dog-leg, ditch-guarded par five 15th at Washington Golf and Country Club. In last week's Middle Atlantic championship, Mary Ann Downey, the defending champion, had an 8 there, Barbara Diggs, the Manor club champion, a 9, Mrs. Charles Egenroad, the host club star, a 10, and Mrs. Paul H. Streit, the Chevy Chase Club titlist, an 11.

Friends of Dr. Noah Pomeroy, the 89-year-old golfing regular at Kenwood, are putting up a trophy in his honor to be awarded the low gross winner in next Sunday's club senior championship. . . . Ray Lawrenson, the District Golf Association secretary, reminds the District's senior golfers of the senior two-man handicap tournament scheduled Thursday at Argyle. The event, a new one, was postponed from May 26.

The three rainy days of Memorial Day week end produced little more rainfall than the tears of the area golf pros, who saw their electric golf cars grounded and their driving ranges closed by the foul weather on what figured to be the most lucrative week end of the year.

The Women's District Golf Association's first team championship may be a double round-robin series between four clubs next year, Army Navy, Argyle and Chevy Chase, plus one other. . . . The Women's District championship starts a week from tomorrow at Army Navy Club, where the home club players may have considerable to say about who wins the title.

The Prince Georges County Jaycees will sponsor a tournament for junior golfers under 18 at Glenn Dale on June 30. Winners will qualify for the Maryland Jaycee junior golf championships at Frederick in July, and the winners there will go to Iowa later in the month for the Jaycees' national.

Mrs. Handley Takes Lead for Keefer Cup

Defending Champ Has Net of 74

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Mrs. J. D. Handley of Argyle, defending Keefer Cup champion, took the first-round lead in the 36-hole Chevy Chase Club golf tournament yesterday with a net score of 74.

Mrs. Handley posted a gross score of 44-39—83 and used a 9-stroke handicap to go into today's second and final round with a stroke lead over Mrs. Bruce Bollermann of Court House.

Mrs. Bollermann, a newcomer to area women's tournament competition, finished with a gross 86 and had an 11-stroke handicap to finish with a 75.

Mrs. Frank Cush had 82 and took the gross lead. The Maryland State Amateur champion was 43 to the turn and 39 on the back nine, finishing a stroke ahead of Mrs. Hanley, an Argyle teammate.

Mrs. John Connolly of Washington and Mrs. Arnold Willcox of the host club were next in line with 76s. Mrs. Connolly was 88-12-76 and Mrs. Willcox, 87-11-76.

Mrs. Cush and Mrs. N. I. Looney of Army Navy were bracketed at 77. The Argyle star was 82-5, while Mrs. Looney was 86-9.

Only one player, Mrs. W. E. Howard, another member of Argyle's Women's District Golf Association champion team, finished with a net 78. Mrs. Howard was 89-11-78.

Other first round leaders: Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, Mrs. F. G. Griffith, Army Navy, and Mrs. R. C. Townsend, 80; Mrs. J. L. Barnicle, Congressional, Mrs. C. B. Hawley, Chevy Chase, Mrs. Roy Smalley, Belle Haven, and Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, 81.

Pairings and scores for today's final round:

9—Mrs. R. C. Townsend, Argyle (92-12-80) and Mrs. F. J. Griffith, Army Navy (92-12-80).

9:06—Mrs. Lloyd Dennis, Washington (91-12-79) and Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle (85-5-80).

9:12—Mrs. Eli Amanuel, Indian Spring (91-12-79) and Mrs. Richard Johnson, Chevy Chase (90-11-79).

9:30—Mrs. J. D. Handley, Argyle (83-9-74) and Mrs. Bruce Bollermann, Court House (86-11-75).

9:36—Mrs. John Connolly, Washington (88-12-76) and Mrs. Arnold Willcox, Chevy Chase (87-11-76).

9:42—Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle (82-5-77) and Mrs. N. I. Looney, Army Navy (86-9-77).

9:48—Mrs. J. L. Barnicle, Congressional (92-11-81) and Mrs. Charles B. Hawley Jr., Chevy Chase (91-10-81).

9:54—Mrs. Roy Smalley, Belle Haven (91-10-81) and Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle (86-5-81).

10—Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring (91-9-82) and Mrs. Paul Streit, Chevy Chase (90-8-82).

10:06—Mrs. Harry Bowen, Argyle (94-12-82) and Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington (90-8-82).

10:12—Dorothy Omolecki, Argyle (91-9-82) and Mrs. E. W. King, Army Navy (91-9-82).

10:18—Mrs. James Swink, Belle Haven (91-9-82) and Nina Crampton, Congressional (91-8-83).

10:24—Mrs. D. H. Henderson, Congressional (93-10-83) and Mrs. Landra B. Platt, Chevy Chase (93-10-83).

10:30—Mrs. S. D. Crocker, Columbia (93-10-83); Mrs. J. A. Smith, Prince Georges (91-7-84, and Mrs. Adele Pugh, Congressional (96-12-84).

KEEFER CUP LEADER WITH NET 74

Mrs. Hanley Heading For Repeat Victory

There's something about the superb condition of the Chevy Chase course and the fast but true putting greens that scares some of the District's top women golfers. But this is not true when it comes to Mrs. J. D. Hanley of Argyle, the defending champion in the Keefer Cup, and the leader going into the final round today.

The Keefer Cup is a 36-hole medal play tournament for Class A golfers held annually at the home club of the late Mrs. Frank Royer Keefer, a former president. It usually is the first event where summer rules are played.

Mrs. Hanley shot an 83 yesterday and deducted nine handicap strokes for a net 74 and a one-stroke lead over Mrs. Bruce Bollerman of Court House, who had 86-11-75.

The scores ran high, with only two under 85. Most of the girls blamed playing summer rules for the first time, and the fact that they couldn't putt. They admit the greens are perfect, possibly so good they are scared of them.

But Mrs. Hanley, who won the tournament as a 12 handicap player last year, was high in praise of what she calls her favorite golf course. She played the back nine first and had a 39, and had a 44 on the front nine.

Mrs. Frank Cush, the Maryland State champion from Argyle, was the only player with a score lower than Mrs. Hanley. Mrs. Cush had a 43-39-82. Others in competition for low gross include Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle, 85; Mrs. N. I. Looney of Army Navy and Georgia Mae McKeever, the District champion, with 86s, and Mrs. Arnold Wilcox of Chevy Chase, 87.

Mrs. Bollerman, who is in second place, is an attractive blond who has been a member of the Fairfax Club since early in 1958, but has played in few District tournaments.

Mrs. Hanley is attempting to take the Keefer Cup to Argyle for the fourth straight year. Mrs. Helen Konopa and Dorothy Omolecki preceded her as winners from Argyle.

The leaders:

Takes Keefer Cup by Six Strokes

Konopa Wins Gross Prize, 167

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Mrs. Bruce Bollermann made her area golf tournament debut an auspicious one yesterday at Chevy Chase Club.

Wet, bedraggled, but happy, Mrs. Bollermann walked off the 18th green an easy winner in the annual Keefer Cup tournament.

The Court House Country Club golfer played the long Connecticut Avenue course in 44, 42-86 on Wednesday in the first round and was second with a net 75.

Yesterday in a pouring rain, Mrs. Bollermann, an attractive blonde, who has been living in the area since 1958, but has not played in a major tournament, was around the rain-puddled course in 42, 43-85 to win the 36-hole medal play event by six strokes with a net 149.

Mrs. Helen Konopa won gross honors in the Women's District Golf Association event with 167 but it took a match of the cards to put her ahead of her Argyle clubmate, Mrs. Frank Cush.

Mrs. Konopa opened with 85 but had 82 yesterday to overhaul the Maryland state amateur champion. Mrs. Cush, who led the race for gross honors with an opening round of 82, skidded to 85 yesterday after playing the front nine in 38.

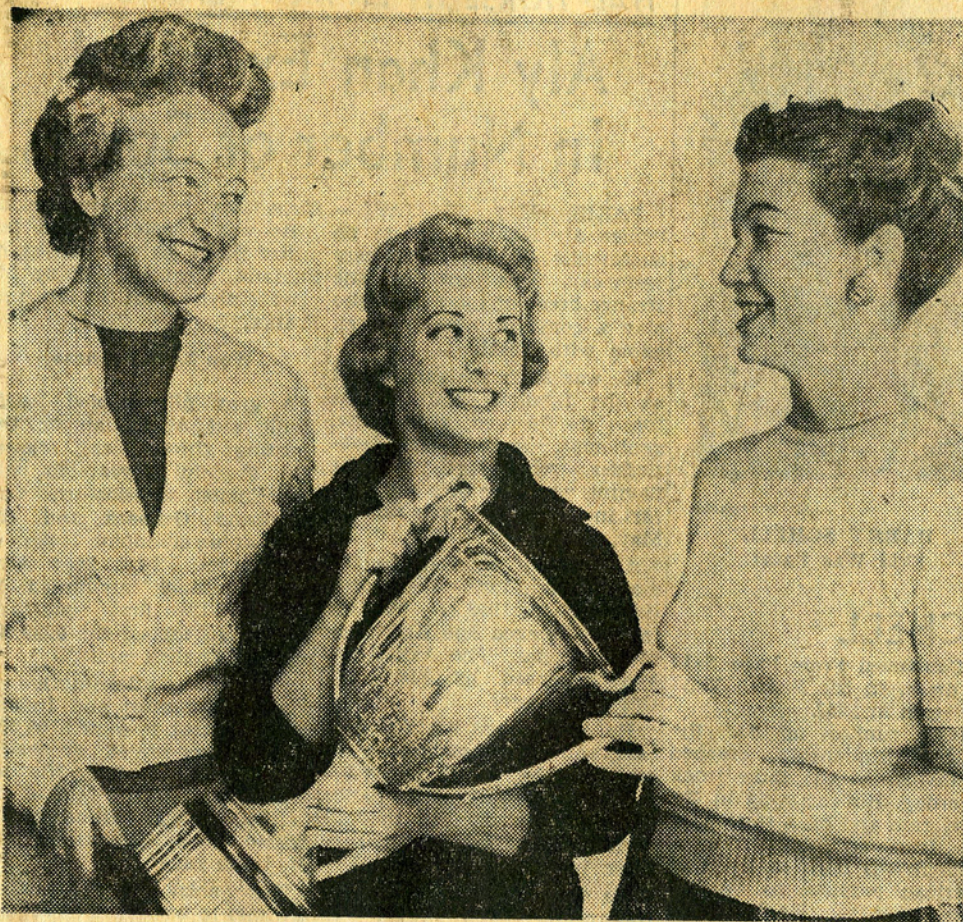

Mrs. Arnold Willcox of the host club finished second in the net division with 155. Mrs. Wilcox opened with 87-11-76 and closed with 90-11-79.

Mrs. W. E. Howard, Argyle, took third net with 89-90-22-157. The defending champion, Mrs. J. D. Hanley, also of Argyle, finished with 159 for fourth.

Mrs. Hanley went into the final round with a stroke lead over Mrs. Bollermann with 83-9-74 but ran into considerable trouble yesterday and finished with 94-9-85.

Other prize winners in the event were: Mrs. John S. Connolly, Washington, 88-91-18-161; Mrs. Lloyd Dennis, Washington, 91-94-24-161, and Mrs. F. J. Griffith, Army Navy, 92-93-24-161.

Mrs. Bruce Bollermann (center) of Court House Club is the proud possessor of the Keefer Cup after rounds of 86-85 at Chevy Chase, minus 11 handicap from each for a winning net 149. Mrs. J. D. Hanley, defending champion and first-round leader, is on the left and Mrs. Helen Konopa, who won low gross with 82-85 on the right.—Star Staff Photo.

MRS. BOLLERMANN WINS

Victory in Keefer Cup May Be Stepping Stone

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Bruce Bollermann made her first contribution to District women's golf when she won the Keefer Cup at Chevy Chase Club yesterday, but there's every indication that the pretty, young blond will make many more contributions before the season is over.

Mrs. Bollermann, a member of the Court House Club in Fairfax, shot 86-85 in the 36-hole medal play tournament, and deducted 11 handicap strokes from each round for a winning net total of 149.

The Bollermanns moved here from Glen Ridge, N. J., in September, 1958. Mrs. Bollermann played in the Keefer Cup and several other tournaments last year, including the club championship, where she lost to Lillian Lea in the second round.

Mrs. Konopa Has 82

This season, however, she is off to a flying start. Her 85 in the rain yesterday was the second low round of the day, topped only by an 82 by Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle.

Mrs. Bollermann played 36 holes at Chevy Chase with only one 3-putt green, which more than anything was responsible for her 6-stroke victory margin. And she made a couple of long putts, including a 40-footer for a birdie 2 on the 13th hole of her second round.

The new champion's playing partner was the defending titlist, Mrs. J. D. Hanley of Argyle, who also was the first-round leader. But Mrs. Bollermann met the challenge with her best round, while Mrs. Hanley lost out on the back nine.

Mrs. Konopa's 85-82-167 was good for low gross after matching cards with Mrs. Frank Cush, the Maryland State champion and an Argyle teammate, who had 82-85. Mrs. Cush was out in 38 yesterday but took 47 on the back nine, including an 8 on the 11th hole where she wasted 3 strokes in a sand trap.

Ex-Champ Is Second

Mrs. Arnold Willcox, a former Keefer Cup champion from the host club, finished second with 87-90 minus 11 handicap each round for a 155.

Other net winners, in order, were: Mrs. Wilson Howard of Argyle, who holed a 40-footer on the 18th for a 89-90 minus 22 for 157; Mrs. Hanley, 83-92 minus 18 for 157; Mrs. John Connolly of Washington, 88-95-24-159; Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg of Columbia, 88-91-18 for 161; Mrs. Lloyd Dennis of Washington, 91-94-24 for 161, and Mrs. F. J. Griffith of Army Navy, 92-93-24 for 161.

Due to the rain and the season's introduction to summer rules, the scores probably were the highest in Keefer Cup history. Mrs. Bollermann's victory probably will cost her a stroke or two off her handicap, but from now on she figures to be more in contention for the gross prizes than the net.

Mrs. Ritz' Fine Rally Wins Star's B Golf Cup

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Erwin Ritz of Indian Spring made a strong comeback yesterday to win her first Women's District Golf Association Cup tournament, the Class B section of The Evening Star Cup at Manor Country Club.

Mrs. Ritz played the back nine first and posted a 47. Anything close to that coming back and she would have finished out of the prize list in the event for 13-16 handicap players.

But Mrs. Ritz stuck close to women's par for the first seven holes of the woods nine, and then chipped into the cup for a birdie deuce on the par three eighth hole. She became entangled in some rough stuff in a roadway on the 9th hole and had to one-putt for a seven. But she still was back in 41 for an 88 and deducted 15 handicap strokes for a winning net 73.

Low gross went to Mrs. I. W. Elliott of Army Navy, a newcomer to the club from Springfield, Pa. Mrs. Elliott had a 42-46-88.

Mrs. W. C. Crampton of Army Navy won second net with nines of 43-46-89, minus 14 handicap for a net 75. Mrs. Howard Grothe of the host club started with a birdie three and finished with 43-48-91 minus 15 for a 76 and third low net.

Other net prize winners, in order, Mrs. J. H. Blades of Kenwood, 92-15-77; Mrs. L. J. Erler of Army Navy, 92-15-77; Mrs. F. D. Peters of Army Navy, 91-14-77. Mrs. Peters had low score of the day on the longer back nine, a 43.

Also, Mrs. Stanley Levy of Indian Spring, 93-16-77; Mrs. P. L. Smith of Congressional, 92-15-77; Mrs. T. K. Taylor of Chevy Chase, 92-15-77, and Mrs. J. R. Gessley of Court House, 92-14-78. Mrs. Max Mudrick of Norbeck had 94-16-78 but was matched out of the prize list.

Mrs. Paul H. Streit, president of the Women's District Golf Association, presented the prizes. Mrs. Anthony Litrento of Prince Georges, tournament chairman of the WDGA, ran the event in the absence of the usual Class B workers who had a conflicting tournament after the days' postponement of The Star Cup.

Mrs. Ritz Wins Star Cup Golf

Mrs. Erwin Ritz of Indian Spring captured the Women's District Golf Association class B tournament for the Star Cup yesterday at Manor, 88-15-73.

Mrs. I. W. Elliott of Army Navy finished with an 88 and won the gross award. Other net winners: Mrs. W. C. Crampton, Army Navy, 89-14-75; Mrs. Howard Grothe, Manor, 91-15-76; and Mrs. J. H. Blades, Kenwood, 92-15-77.

Mrs. Hanna Takes Class C Simon Cup

Mrs. C. H. Hanna, Court House, captured the Women's District Golf Association Class C Simon Cup yesterday at Brooke Manor Country Club, 87-19-68.

Gross honors in the event went to Mrs. Pat Martino, Argyle, 86. Other net winners: Mrs. Audrey Peters, Argyle, 91-19-72; Mrs. H. L. Sherman, Manor, 91-19-72; Mrs. Howard Briggs, Kenwood, 90-17-73; Mrs. C. E. Collett, Prince Georges, 91-18-73.

Mrs. Hanna's Victory Gives Court House Second Cup

Mrs. Elizabeth Hanna made it two out of three Women's District Golf Association cup tournaments this season for Court House women golfers when she won the Class C Simon Cup at Brooke Manor yesterday with an 87 minus 19 handicap for a net 68.

Mrs. Hanna, a former club champion at the Fairfax Club when she was more active, was out in 41 and back in 46. Mrs. Bruce Bollermann won the Class A Keefer Cup for the Court House players last week.

It was the first Women's D. C. Association Cup tournament ever held at Brooke Manor, which joined the association this year, and the 17-19 handicap girls went on a scoring binge.

Mrs. Pat Martino, wife of the former Argyle Club champion, won low gross with an 86. Other net prize winners, in order: Mrs. Audrey Peterson of Argyle, 91-19-72; Mrs. H. L. Sherman of Manor, 91-19-72; Mr. Howard Briggs of Kenwood, 90-17-73; Mrs. C. E. Collett of Prince Georges, 91-18-73; Mrs. C. A. Thomason of Argyle, 92-19-73; Mrs.

Morris Shulman of Indian Spring, 90-17-73.

And, Evelyn Tyler of Westbriar, 91-17-74; Mrs. Harold Jack of Brooke Manor, 91-17-74; Mrs. D. R. Monsees of Washington, 92-18-74; Mrs. Leo Shaudis of Manor, 92-18-74; Mrs. C. H. Gilbertson of Court House, 93-18-75; Mrs. V. C. Kohlhaus of Kenwood, 93-18-75, and Ruth Andrew of Court House, 92-17-75.

Mrs. Billich's 70 Wins Gable Cup

Mrs. N. K. Billich, Manor, won the Gable Cup for Class E players of the Womens District Golf Association at Kenwood yesterday. 93-23-70.

Low gross went to Mrs. C. E. Frazier, Manor, 95.

Second net was shared by Mrs. Giles Morrow, Manor, 96-24-72, and Mrs. Lester Briggs, Columbia, 97-25-72.

Belle Haven Golfer Wins Harris Cup

Mrs. Walt R. Simmons won the first of the season's Class D Cup tournaments of the Women's District Golf Association yesterday when her 99 minus 20 handicap for a net 79 was low in the Harris Cup play at Argyle.

The field of 47 players in the 20-21 handicap bracket competed, many of them playing summer rules for the first time this season.

Mrs. Simmons, who had nines of 50-49, was the only player to break 100, but the Belle Haven player was eligible for only one prize and inasmuch as she took the cup that left low gross to Mrs. Lloyd Worden of Court House with a 100.

Other net prize winners, in order: Mrs. H. R. Brinkman of Army-Navy, 101-20-81; Mrs. L. A. Francisco of Belle Haven, 102-21-81; Mrs. Paul Barefoot of Washington, 102-21-81; Mrs. Vance Senseman of Manor, 101-20-81; Mrs. Richard Friedman of Woodmont, 103-20-83; Mrs. Alfred Wall of Belle Haven, 104-21-83; Mrs. Harry Carragher of Bethesda, 103-20-83 and Rita Beuchert of Kenwood, 104-21-83.

Mrs. Simmons Takes Class D Harris Golf Cup

Mrs. Walter H. Simmons, only player in the field to break 100, won the Women's District Golf Association Class D Harris Cup yesterday at Argyle County Club, 99-20-79.

Low gross went to Mrs. Lloyd Worden, Court House, 100.

Other net winners were: Mrs. H. R. Brinkman, Army Navy, 101-20-81; Mrs. L. A. Francisco, Belle Haven, 102-21-81; Mrs. Paul Barefoot, Washington, 102-21-81, and Mrs. Vance Senseman, Manor, 101-20-81.

Manor Club Dominates Women's Class E Golf

Members of the Women's District Golf Association Class E 22-25 handicap group had their most satisfactory day in the Gable Cup tournament yesterday at Kenwood since the bracket was created a year ago.

It was unusual that 15 of the 16 prize winners in the field of 90 broke 100. Obviously, some of the girls will be moving to D or C classes if they continue improving.

Manor Country Club provided the champion, Mrs. Mildred (Billie) Billich, the low gross winner in Mrs. Charles E. Frazier, and four other prize winners.

Mrs. Billich, who was a 17-handicap player under the old handicap system, won the Bunker Hill Cup at Manor last year, but this was her first District triumph. She shot a 47-46-93 and deducted 23 handicap for a net 70.

Mrs. Billich would have won by more than her three-stroke margin except for a nine on the 14th hole, but she shook it off and played her best golf on the finishing holes.

Mrs. Frazier won low gross with a 49-46-95.

Mrs. Giles Morrow made it three straight for the Manor delegation with a 96-24-72 for second net.

Other prize winners, in order:

Mrs. Lester Briggs of Columbia, 97-25-72; Mrs. J. R. Graves of Washington, 96-23-73; Mrs. Robert Nathan of Westbriar, 95-22-73.

Mrs. Leonard Kardy of Manor, 96-22-74; Mrs. H. W. Porter of Washington, 99-25-74; Mrs. Wendell Maroshek of Congressional, 96-22-74; Mrs. Glen Garvin of Columbia, 97-23-74; Mrs. D. L. Spivey of Court House, 98-24-74; Mrs. Chester Ward of Washington, 99-25-74; Mrs. W. E. McDonald of Washington, 96-22-74; Mrs. Robert Kidwell of Manor, 98-24-74; Mrs. George Rose of Belle Haven, 98-23-75, and Mrs. Stan Olmen of Manor, 100-25-75. Mrs. Lawrence Burdick of Court House was matched out with 97-22-75.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

Women golfers can come up with some of the most unusual requests for rulings. In the Keefer Cup at Chevy Chase Club the other day, a contestant scooped some water out of the cup on the 17th hole before putting, using her hand, because the cup was so full of water she was afraid her ball might skip over it.

The player was questioned as to whether taking water out of the cup was legal. She asked the golf shop for a ruling, and Pro Ward Burgess said as far as he knew there was no penalty.

Also in the Keefer Cup, a contestant was penalized for patting down a repaired ball mark on the green with her foot. The 1960 rule that makes it permissible to repair ball marks before putting stresses that the foot must not be used.

The worst thing that has happened to Arnold Palmer this year is that he was picked to win the current Colonial Invitation at Fort Worth by the press-radio-TV poll. The poll never has come up with the tournament winner, and twice the champion did not receive a pre-tournament vote.

The Maryland State Golf Association has a mixed two-ball tournament scheduled Friday at Woodmont. . . . The people around the 18th green at Manor who watched Ernie Werner's full four-wood shot sail into the cup from 200 yards away thought they were applauding an eagle two. Officers of the Women's District Golf Association maintain that the team championship is a popular event, yet some of the players are saying the matches need a complete overhauling. It apparently is a case of the contestants not letting their chairman know how they feel.

LIKE THE MAN SAID, you can't please everybody! The inveterate swimmers complain that the gorgeously blue-skied sunny weather which followed upon the heels of the rain-drenched debacle of the Memorial Day weekend made it too cool for the pool.

For the golf and tennis fanciers, the weather was just fine. All area country clubbers report that courts and fairways are filled to capacity with invitationals and tournaments popping out all over the place. And with the strange turns which things seem to be taking currently, the golfing clubs, originally built for male members, are being commandeered in numbers by women and children.

It's only the occasional retired or ultra relaxed male who can afford to take as much time away from business as the average mama seems to be able to eke out of her household schedule. "I just go weekends and hack around," says attorney John Kirkam whose wife, Elinor last year was woman's golf chairman at Columbia Country Club, and thereby at the club, golfing every day.

RIGHT NOW, Elinor's taking a small break in her golfing schedules. After daughter Donna and son Johnnie graduated from college and high school respectively, the same weekend, she joined her parents on a trip to Bangor, Me. Which means she'll miss that very important District Women's Golf Association Championship play at the Army and Navy Country Club all this week.

Mrs. Anthony Iitrento of Prince Georges Country Club, District Tournament Chairman, says that playing is to start Monday morning at 8:40 a. m. sharp, from the clubs front and back tees. The initial qualifying tournament will whittle the 109 women who've signed up for play down to 80, representing 17 clubs. According to much-interested entrant, Mrs. C. P. Phoebus of Army and Navy Country Club, they'll be grouped in "five flights" of 16 women each. Mrs. William J. Ely, wife of Brig. Gen. Ely, USA, is Army-Navy Club chairman of arrangements for the tournaments; Mrs. Harry Brinkman is the club's women's golf chairman.

Mrs. Paul Streit of the Chevy Chase Club is overall president of the Women's District Golf Association, with Mrs. Arnold Badb of Bethesda as her first vice president. And Bethesda Country Club this week should be feeling very smug about what all the participating ladies described as a "beautiful invitational" last mid-week. Prince Georges Country Club was another planning the same sort of hospitable gesture for the lady golfers.

A REALLY SENSIBLE piece of opportunism is being conducted out at

Indian Springs Country Club whose woman's golf chairman, B. C. Stern, admits to trying to get the sub-teen and early teen-age female set golf-minded "While it's still too cool for the pool."

Twice a week for the past few weeks, girls from 11 years of age up, have been invited out to the club for free lessons in the rules of golfing, with special emphasis on good golfing manners and safety. The youngsters are permitted to play three holes at a time. Pro Billy Mitchell donates his services. Held through the school year on Mondays and Fridays at 4:30 p. m., they'll be pushed up earlier now that school is out.

108 Compete Monday for Golf Berths

A field of 108 tees off Monday in qualifying rounds for the Women's District Golf Association championship at Army Navy Country Club.

109 Women In District Golf Tourney

The drive of the women golfers to spur interest in the District Women's championship has paid off with a field of 109 listed to qualify tomorrow at Army Navy Club.

This is more than double the size of last year's field, and the largest in many years.

Tomorrow's 18-hole qualifying round will determine the 16 championship flight contestants for match play rounds that run through Friday's finals. There will be four additional flights.

Georgia Mae McKeevers, defending champion from Argyle, has decided to pass up the qualifying round. She thus will be placed No. 1 in the draw.

Pairings and starting times for the qualifying round:

Mrs. Ferriday Captures WDGA Medal, 78

C-4 ★★ Sports THE EVENING STAR Washington, D. C., Tuesday, June 14, 1960

Mrs. Ferriday in Form For D. C. Golf Tourney

Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, jr., of Chevy Chase, who struggled through several poor rounds in the team matches in the late spring, appears to have found her game just in time for the District Women's championship.

The strikingly attractive winner of the District title in 1953 and 1955 won medal honors with a 78 yesterday at Army Navy Club, three strokes better than the next best score in the field of 105, largest in many years.

Mrs. Ferriday is in the lower bracket as match play starts today, with one round daily scheduled in the championship and the other four flights through Friday's finals.

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, who needs this title to hold the Maryland, Middle Atlantic and District championships concurrently, is in the lower bracket, a potential semifinal opponent of Mrs. Ferriday if both win their first two matches.

Army Navy Places Five

Army Navy is host to the tournament for the first time since it was started in 1926, and the service club placed five players in the championship flight, four members of its championship first team, and Mrs. W. J. Ely.

It took 86 to make the title bracket and Mrs. Bruce Bollermann, the Keefer Cup champion from Court House, was the only one of the 86 shooters to make it in a playoff. She won with a par on the first hole over Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle, Mrs. William Stewart of Army Navy and Mrs. Forrest Love of Westbriar.

The only upsets of the day were the failure of Mrs. Konopa and Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington to qualify. The latter had 90.

Found Touch Recently

Mrs. Ferriday appeared to find the touch in the last two rounds of the recent Middle Atlantic championship, in which she started with an 88 but then posted 81-79, which equalled the best score of anybody in the last two rounds. She played her home course in 80 Saturday in the National Golf Day competition.

Georgia Mae McKeefer, the defending champion from Argyle, passed up a crack at the medal for the automatic No. 1 position in match play. Miss McKeefer meets Mrs. Paul H. Streit of Chevy Chase, president of the Women's District Golf Association, in the first round.

There is no guarantee of play following the form sheet in women's golf, but if it should the semifinal matches on Thursday would be Miss McKeefer and Barbara Diggs of Manor in the upper bracket, and Mrs. Ferriday against Mrs. Cush in the lower.

However, the Army Navy girls may have something to say about who wins the title, as their course is one where local knowledge plays a big part. Mrs. C. P. Phoebus, the Army Navy champion, could be a quarter-final opponent of Miss McKeefer.

Mrs. Swink Soars

The best nine-hole round of the qualifying was a 36 by Mrs. James Swink of Belle Haven, who then took 7 on the 10th hole and a 45 on the back nine for 81. She runs smack into Mrs. Cush.

Pairings for the title flight: Georgia Mae McKeefer, Argyle (automatic qualifier) vs. Mrs. Paul H. Streit, Chevy Chase (83). Mrs. Hartwell MacCarteney, Chevy Chase (82) vs. Mrs. C. P. Phoebus, Army Navy (84). Mrs. N. I. Looney, Army Navy (81) vs. Barbara Diggs, Manor (84). Mrs. Jack Smith, Prince Georges (82) vs. Mrs. Irving Rosen, Westbriar (85). Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, jr., Chevy Chase (78) vs. Mrs. William J. Ely, Army Navy (84). Mrs. E. W. King, Army Navy (82) vs. Mrs. Jess Nettles, Army Navy (84). Mrs. James Swink, Belle Haven (81) vs. Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle (84). Kathryn Diggs, Manor (83) vs. Mrs. Bruce Bollermann, Court House (86).

Former Winner Only Golfer to Break 80

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Two-time titlist Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday won the qualifying medal in the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Army Navy Country Club with 78.

The pretty Chevy Chase Club golfer, winner in 1953 and 1955, was out in 37 and back in 41 over the rugged service club course. Mrs. Ferriday was the only contestant in a field of 109 to break 80.

Georgia Mae McKeefer, the defending champion, was an automatic qualifier and did not elect to play for the medal. A government employee, Miss McKeefer drew Mrs. Paul Strait, Chevy Chase Club champion, as today's first round match play opponent.

The Middle Atlantic and Maryland State champion, Mrs. Frank Cush, qualified with 84. The Argyle Club star was out in 41 with an 8 on the par four second and back in 43 with a seven on the par four 11th.

Mrs. Cush, a finalist in last year's championship, plays Mrs. James A. Swink of Belle Haven in today's first round. Mrs. Swink tied for second low in the qualifying trials with an 81.

Mrs. Swink was low going out with a one-under women's par 36 but, starting with a seven at the comparatively easy par four 10th, the Belle Haven champion staggered home in 45.

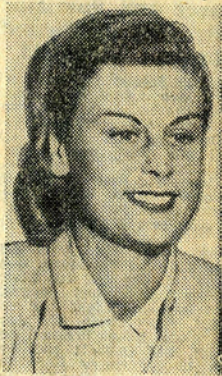

Tying with Mrs. Swink for second in qualifying was Mrs. N. I. Looney of the host club. Mrs. Looney had 38-43—81 and is scheduled to meet Barbara Diggs, American University coed who qualified with 84.

Mrs. E. W. King, Army Navy, Mrs. Jack Smith, Prince Georges, and Mrs. Hartwell MacCarteney, Kenwood Club champion who now plays out of Chevy Chase, all qualified with 83s.

Mrs. Bruce Bollermann of Court House Country Club, who won the recent Keefer Cup Tournament, earned a place in the championship flight after qualifying with 86 and winning in a playoff. She won with a par five on the first hole and eliminated Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, Mrs. Pat Love, Westbriar, and Mrs. W. S. Stewart, Army Navy.

Pairings, starting times and scores:

Three Upsets Feature District Women's Golf

By BOB HANSON

Star Staff Writer

A new champion will be crowned Friday in the District women's golf tournament at Army Navy Country Club and the best bet now, following several upsets in yesterday's opening round, is Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday of Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Ferriday, winner of the event in 1953 and 1955 and medalist in qualifying rounds Monday, was hard pressed in eliminating Mrs. W. J. Ely of the host club, 1 up, as Defending Champion Georgia Mae McKeever, Mrs. Frank Cush and Mrs. Bruce Bollerman were ousted.

In second-round play today, Mrs. Ferriday looks to be the strongest in the field, although Mrs. Jack Smith of Prince Georges may turn out to be a serious threat. Mrs. Smith, a finalist in 1954, had yesterday's shortest match, knocking out Mrs. Irving Rosen of Westbriar, 8 and 7.

The upsets started with the first match as Mrs. Paul Streit, club champion at Chevy Chase and president of the Women's District Golf Association, went 2 up over Miss McKeever at the turn and never relinquished her lead as she finished with a 3-and-2 victory.

But the biggest surprise was scored by Mrs. James Swink of Belle Haven, who turned back Mrs. Cush of Argyle, the Maryland and Middle Atlantic champion, 2 and 1. Mrs. Swink former club champion at Belle Haven, was 2 up after nine holes. Mrs. Cush evened the match with a birdie on No. 11 and a par at No. 12 only to have Mrs. Swink take the 14th and 16th with pars and halve the 17th to close out the match.

The other upset of note was the 3-and-2 victory by Kathryn Diggs of Manor over Mrs. Bollerman of Court House, the Kiefer Cup champion.

Mrs. Ferriday, 2 up after 9, allowed Mrs. Ely to catch up at the 12th and Mrs. Ely went 1 up with a par 5 at the 13th. Mrs. Ferriday regained the lead, 1 up, with pars on the 14th and 15th. They halved the remaining holes, although Mrs. Ely gave her opponent a scare on the 18th when a 20-foot putt stopped about an inch from sending the match into extra holes.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT

McKeever, Cush Lose; Mrs. Ferriday Gains

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Defending champion Georgia Mae McKeever and Mrs. Frank Cush, Maryland state and Middle Atlantic titlist, were among the first round casualties in the Women's District amateur golf championship yesterday at Army Navy Country Club.

Miss McKeever

It was the darkest first round in the 31-year history of the tournament for logical contenders. Three favored players were sidelined, leaving Mrs. E. C. Ferriday, the medalist and 1953 and 1955 champion, as the sole remaining pre-tourney favorite.

Miss McKeever, who defeated her Argyle clubmate, Mrs. Cush, in last year's final, was the first of the favored players to fall. The defending champion was eliminated by Mrs. Paul Streit, club champion at Chevy Chase, 3 and 2.

Hero of the day's biggest upset was Mrs. James A. Swink of Belle Haven Country Club. The former Belle Haven champion pushed Mrs. Cush into the discard, 2 and 1.

In the other upset, Mrs. N. I. Looney of the host club defeated Barbara Diggs, American University coed from Manor Club, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Ferriday came within an inch of being a possible upset victim. The former champion from Chevy Chase won by a slim 1-up score over Mrs. W. J. Ely of the host club.

Mrs. Ely, once one of Army Navy Club's outstanding players but now supposedly past her peak and not good enough to play on the service club's city championship team, hit a 20-foot putt on the last green that stopped an inch from sending her match into extra holes.

In upsetting Miss McKeever, Mrs. Streit, president of the Women's District Golf Association, was out in 40 and 2-up on the champion. Mrs. Streit won the first hole and never relinquished the lead.

Mrs. Swink was out in 39 and 2-up on Mrs. Cush. She started by winning the first and second holes but Mrs. Cush managed to square matters with a birdie at 11 and a par at 12.

Mrs. Swink came back to take the 14th and 16th holes with pars and capped her upset victory with a half in par at the 17th. The attractive Virginia club golfer's next opponent will be Kathryn Diggs of Manor.

Miss Diggs eliminated Mrs. Bruce Bollerman, Kiefer Cup champion from Court House, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Jack Smith, finalist in 1954, came up with the shortest match of the day. The Prince Georges grandmother won by a whopping 8 and 7 score from Mrs. Irving Rosen of Westbriar.

Mrs. Smith plays Mrs. Looney in today's second round. Mrs. Looney won three of the first four holes from Barbara Diggs and then played the back nine in 38 to keep her advantage out of reach.

Mrs. Ferriday, in her second round match, meets Mrs. E. K. King of the host club. Mrs. King, who played all Spring as the partner of Mrs. Jess Nettles on Army Navy's championship team, eliminated her partner with a birdie on the 19th hole.

Mrs. Jack Smith, a handsome grandmother from Prince Georges Golf and Country Club, became a threat to win the Women's District amateur golf championship yesterday at Army Navy Country Club.

Mrs. Smith, a finalist in 1954, eliminated Mrs. N. I. Looney of the host club, 3 and 2, reaching the semifinals where today her opposition will be furnished by Mrs. Paul Streit of Chevy Chase. In the other semifinal match it will be the heavily favored Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday of Chevy Chase against Mrs. James A. Swink of Belle Haven.

Mrs. Smith was out in 40 but was 1 down to her service club opponent at the turn. She lost 11 to go 2 down to Mrs. Looney, a usually consistent player and member of Army Navy's championship team.

On Comeback Trail

The former Prince Georges champion, who is making a comeback after being out of golf for several years because of illness, played the next five holes in a succession of pars and won them all. With a 3-up lead going to the 16th, Mrs. Smith matched Mrs. Looney's par and there the match ended.

Mrs. Streit, president of the Women's District Golf Association, defeated Mrs. C. P. Phoebus of the host club, 2 and 1. The Chevy Chase Club champion was 42 to the turn but managed a 1-up lead.

Mrs. Ferriday advanced at the expense of Mrs. E. W. King, another of the five players Army Navy qualified for the championship flight, 4 and 3. The 1953 and 1955 champion was out in 39 and 5-up at the turn.

Mrs. Ferriday won the 10th to go 6 up but then Mrs. King settled down and tried desperately to make a closer match of it. The Army Navy player won the 11th and 12th holes but gave up the ghost at 15.

Eliminates Miss Diggs

Mrs. Swink advanced to the round of four by eliminating Kathryn Diggs of Manor, 3 and 2. The former Belle Haven champion used only 13 putts to get to the turn in 38 and be 4-up at that juncture.

Mrs. Swink, who upset Maryland State and Middle Atlantic titlist, Mrs. Frank Cush, in the surprise of the tournament on Tuesday, lost the 10th and 12th holes but stemmed Miss Diggs' belated rally by taking both the 13th and 15th holes.

Mrs. Jack Smith of Prince Georges Golf and Country Club, a finalist in the District women's golf championship six years ago, and Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday of Chevy Chase, a two-time champion, appear to be headed for the finals of this year's tourney at Army Navy.

In today's semifinals Mrs. Smith met Mrs. Paul Streit, club champion of Chevy Chase and president of the Women's District Golf Association, and Mrs. Ferriday, who took the District title in 1953 and 1955, played Mrs. James Swink, former Belle Haven club champion.

In second-round play yesterday, Mrs. Smith defeated Mrs. N. I. Looney, a member of Army Navy's championship team, 3 and 2. Mrs. Ferriday turned in a 4-and-3 victory over Mrs. E. W. King, also of Army Navy.

Mrs. Streit was a 2-and-1 winner over Mrs. C. P. Phoebus, another of the five players from Army Navy who qualified for the championship flight, and Mrs. Swink eliminated Kathryn Diggs of Manor, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Smith, whose 8-and-7 victory over Mrs. Irving Rosen of Westbriar was the biggest margin in the first day's matches, rallied on the back nine yesterday to oust Mrs. Looney.

Mrs. Smith lost the 10th to go 2 down but then won the next five holes in a row with pars.

Mrs. Ferriday built up an early advantage, going 6 up after 10 holes. Mrs. King won the 11th and 12th, but it was all over on the 15th.

Mrs. Streit, 1 up at the turn, closed out Mrs. Phoebus on the 17th in the day's longest match. Mrs. Swink, 4 up at the turn, saw her lead cut in half after 12 holes, but she staved off Miss Diggs' late bid.

A darkhorse at the beginning of the Women's District Amateur golf championship, Mrs. James A. Swink now finds herself cast in the role of the favorite in today's final at Army Navy Country Club.

The former Belle Haven club champion, who meets Mrs. Paul Streit at 10:15 a. m. for the title, smote down two tourney favorites en route to her first championship final.

Mrs. Swink in her first round upset Mrs. Frank Cush, Maryland State and Middle Atlantic titlist. Yesterday the former Belle Haven club champion scored her second major upset in winning a close 1-up decision over Mrs. E. C. Ferriday, 1953 and 1955 champion.

Mrs. Streit, who eliminated Georgia Mae McKeever, defending champion, in a first round match, defeated Mrs. Jack Smith of Prince Georges in yesterday's other semifinal, 3 and 2.

Out in 39

Mrs. Swink was out in 39 and 3-up on Mrs. Ferriday, a heavy favorite to win a third title after the unexpected elimination of Miss McKeever and Mrs. Cush, finalists in the 1959 championship.

Mrs. Ferriday won the 11th and 15th holes to be only a hole behind with three holes remaining in play. But Mrs. Swink dormied the match by taking the 16th with a par.

Mrs. Ferriday missed a 6-foot birdie putt at 17 but her par was still good enough to keep her championship hopes alive. At the 18th, after Mrs. Swink had missed her tee shot and barely reached the green on the par three hole in two, Mrs. Ferriday needed to get down in two-putts from 40-feet to send the match into extra holes.

Mrs. Ferriday's approach putt was short by 5 feet and her try for a par and a win on the hole rolled around the hole and stopped inches beyond. Mrs. Swink put her approach putt 18 inches from the cup and sank the putt to get a half on the hole and win the match.

Grandmothers Battle

In the battle of the grandmothers, Mrs. Streit, present club champion at Chevy Chase, was out in 40 and 1-up on Mrs. Smith. She was 3-up at the end of the first four holes but Mrs. Smith won the sixth, seventh and eighth holes to square the match.

Mrs. Streit, who is president of the Women's District Golf Association, won the ninth with a par to go 1-up. She added wins at the 14th and 15th holes with pars and closed out the match on the 16th green.

In the consolation final, Barbara Diggs, American University coed from Manor, meets Mrs. Cush at 10 a. m. Miss Diggs advanced at the expense of Mrs. Hartwell MacCarteney, Chevy Chase, 5 and 4, and Mrs. Cush won by the same score from Mrs. Jess Nettles of the host club.

FAVORITES FAIL IN WOMEN'S GOLF

Mrs. Swink Playing Mrs. Streit in Final

By BOB HANSON
Star Staff Writer

In anyone had been bold enough to bet at the start of the District women's golf championship at Army Navy Club that not one of such respected golfers as Mrs. Frank Cush, Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, Mrs. Bruce Bollerman and Georgia Mae McKeever wouldn't be in today's finals they could have cleaned up.

But such is the case. The last of the highly regarded group to fall was Mrs. Ferriday of Chevy Chase, a two-time winner, who was beaten, 1 up, by Mrs. James Swink of Belle Haven in yesterday's semifinals.

The other semifinals winner was Mrs. Paul Streit, also of Chevy Chase, who knocked out Mrs. Jack Smith of Prince Georges, 3 and 2. It is the first time Mrs. Swink and Mrs. Streit have advanced to the finals.

The pattern for the tourney, being played at Army Navy for the first time in the 31-year history of the event, started with the first day of match play when Mrs. Swink turned back Mrs. Cush of Argyle, the Maryland State and Middle Atlantic champion, 2 and 1.

Also victims the first day were Mrs. Bollerman of Court House, the Keefer Cup champion, and Miss McKeever of Argyle, the defending District champion.

In yesterday's semifinals, Mrs. Ferriday was favored over Mrs. Swink, while the match between Mrs. Streit and Mrs. Smith was a tossup.

Mrs. Swink got by two rugged opponents in a row in Mrs. Cush and Mrs. Ferriday, and if she stays on her game, could be the new champion. But in meeting Mrs. Streit she will run into an opponent who has played steady if unspectacular golf.

Mrs. Swink held a 3-up lead over Mrs. Ferriday after nine holes. She lost the 11th and the 17th to cut her advantage to 1-up going to the 18th.

On the par 3, 190-yard 18th, Mrs. Ferriday put her drive on the green, but Mrs. Swink halftopped her drive and although down the middle was about 40 yards out. Her approach was 15 feet from the pin. Mrs. Ferriday, with a chance to tie the match and send it into extra holes, three-putted while Mrs. Swink cautiously took two putts for a half and victory.

Mrs. Streit, 1-up at the turn, picked up two more holes on the back nine and closed out her match with Mrs. Smith on the 16th.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

When Ben Hogan shot a last-round 73 in the National Open championship after a morning 69 it was the first time in his career that his second-round score was higher than his first when he played 36 holes in one day.

Hogan had pointed out earlier in the week, when somebody asked him if he thought the 36-hole grind would be too much, that he never had failed to shoot a lower score in the afternoon when he played two rounds in one day.

And despite the number of records broken or tied in the 60th Open championship probably the most memorable shot-making feat in the eyes of the true golf fans was Hogan's achievement of hitting 34 consecutive greens in par figures on the last day. Hogan won the tee-to-green championship of both the Masters and Open, but tied for sixth in the Masters, and tied for ninth in the Open.

The reporters in Denver who said Tommy Bolt didn't throw his driver in the lake on the 18th—that the club slipped out of his hands—can see how wrong they were on page 27 of Sports Illustrated. Bolt's magnificent form could qualify him as an Olympic hammer-thrower. The pictures are terrific.

The famed No. 2 course at Pinehurst will be reopened for the July 4 weekend, marking the first time in the long history of the North Carolina resort that two of its courses have been open in the summer. The No. 1 course will be open all summer.

Belle Haven Club honored its new District champion, Mrs. James Swink, at a reception at the club the other night. And the club's beginner group of women golfers is having a "beat Delle Swink" tournament, in which they will match their scores, minus handicap, against Mrs. Swink's score.

What a week for the juniors, enough to keep Frank Emmet, Joe Gambatese and everybody else on the run. Tomorrow the Interclub Junior League is busy at four clubs, with Kenwood opening its title defense against Chevy Chase in the Central Division at Congressional. The Western Division plays at Bethesda, the Eastern at Norbeck, and Southern at Belle Haven.

Also tomorrow, the Silver Spring Jaycees will hold their qualifying round for the Maryland State tournament at Indian Spring, starting at 11:30. Montgomery County boys under 18 are eligible. The two low scorers go to Hagerstown July 8-9.

The Maryland State Junior is scheduled Tuesday at Woodholme in Baltimore. Emmet has chartered two buses, one leaving the National Theater at 7:45 a.m., with a stop at the Silver Theater in Silver Spring. The other bus leaves the Hiser in Bethesda at 9:30.

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Mrs. James A. Swink has been trying for more than 10 years to win the Women's District Amateur golf championship and yesterday at Army Navy Country Club she finally achieved that ambition.

The former Belle Haven Club champion defeated Mrs. Paul Streit of Chevy Chase Club, 4 and 2.

Mrs. Swink not only eliminated two of this area's finest players enroute to the title but never was down or even after playing the first hole in any of her four matches.

The Virginia club golfer won the first hole from all four of her opponents and never once failed to break 40 on the front nine. In yesterday's final, Mrs. Swink was out in 39 and 4-up.

After winning the first hole, Mrs. Swink birdied the fourth and eighth and took the fifth and seventh with pars to accumulate a 5-up lead. Mrs. Streit, president of the Women's District Golf Association, won her first hole at the ninth when Mrs. Swink three-putted. She also won the 11th and 13th to trail by two.

The new champion put the chill on Mrs. Streit's rally with two fine wood shots on the 14th to again lead by three.

After both sank 8-foot putts for pars on 15, Mrs. Swink parred the par-five 16th and closed out the match when the Chevy Chase Club champion took three to get down from just short of the green.

The finest golf of the day, however, didn't happen in the championship final. It came in the championship consolations where Barbara Diggs, American University coed, fired a one-under par 73 and defeated Maryland state champion Mrs. Frank Cush, 5 and 4.

The long-hitting redhead from Manor Club birdied the third, fourth and fifth holes, shot the front nine in 33 and was 5-up on her more experienced opponent.

According to host club pro Allan Burton it was the first time 33 ever has been shot on the par 36 front nine by a feminine golfer.

Mrs. Connolly Wins Class A Golf in Playoff

Mrs. Cush Has Bogey On 19th

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Mrs. John Connolly won the Women's District Golf Association class A tournament for the WRC Cup yesterday at her home Washington Golf and Country Club course in a playoff.

Mrs. Connolly posted 83-12-71 and tied Mrs. Frank Cush, Middle Atlantic and Maryland state titlist from Argyle, 71-5-71.

On the 19th hole, the host club player put her second in a trap and Mrs. Cush was short with her approach. Mrs. Connolly blasted out of the sand to within a foot of the hole and won with a par when Mrs. Cush was again short with her third shot and missed her putt.

Mrs. Cush's 76 gave her the gross prize. Second gross went to Mrs. Georgia Mae McKeever, also of Argyle, 80.

Mrs. E. C. Ferriday of Chevy Chase Club won second net, 82-10-72. Other net winners: Dorothy Omolecki, Argyle, 82-9-73; Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington, 83-9-74; Mrs. Harry Herschberg, Indian Spring, 85-10-75; Mrs. C. P. ## Playoff Nets WRC Cup for Mrs. Connolly

Mrs. John S. Connolly of the host Washington Golf and Country Club won her first playoff and her first cup tournament in Women's District Golf Association competition yesterday. But there was consolation for the loser—Mrs. Frank Cush.

Mrs. Connolly won the WRC Cup, a Class A event, with a fine par 4 on the first hole after her 83-12-71 tied a 76-5-71 by Mrs. Cush for low net and the cup. Mrs. Cush, who had to spot her opponent a handicap stroke on the playoff hole, took a five.

Ready to Defend Title

But Mrs. Cush's round of 76 over the same course where she won the Middle Atlantic championship a few weeks ago indicates she is on her game and ready to defend her Maryland State women's crown next week in Baltimore.

Mrs. Connolly said she has been in playoffs for cup tournaments before and lost them. Her round was 41-42, despite a couple of bad holes.

Mrs. Cush took low gross after losing the playoff. Second gross went to Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle with an 80. She won in a draw over Kathryn Diggs of Manor, who also had 80.

Has Letdown

Mrs. James Swink of Belle Haven, the new District champion, was defending champion in the WRC Cup. She had a natural letdown after winning the District last week. She shot a creditable 85 despite five three-put greens.

Second net went to Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, jr., of Chevy Chase with 82-10-72. Other net winners, in order, were Dorothy Omolecki of Argyle, 82-9-73; Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington, 83-9-74; Mrs. Harry Hirshberg of Indian Spring, 85-10-75; Mrs. C. P. Phoebes of Army Navy, 84-9-75; Mrs. Lloyd Dennis of Washington, 87-12-75; and Mrs. George Maksim of Congressional, 87-12-75.

Mrs. Ritz Wins Evans Trophy in Class B Golf

Mrs. Erwin Ritz won the Women's District Golf Association class B tournament for the Mark Evans Trophy yesterday over her home Indian Spring course with a net of 68.

Mrs. Ritz, who earlier this year won the Star B Cup at Manor, posted a gross round of 83 and used a handicap allowance of 15 strokes. Gross went to Mrs. H. N. McClary, Court House, with 83.

Other net winners were: Mrs. A. W. Gilliam, Belle Haven, 83-12-71; Mrs. T. V. Wilder, Manor, 86-15-71; Mrs. A. J. Lyons, Court House, 88-16-72; Mrs. H. C. Woster, Argyle, 88-16-72.

Second Cup Of Year Won By Mrs. Ritz

Mrs. Erwin Ritz of Indian Spring became the first double cup winner in Women's District Golf Association events this season when she added the Mark Evans Class B Cup to her Evening Star Cup yesterday over her home Indian Spring Course.

Mrs. Ritz shot an 83 and deducted 15 handicap strokes for a net 68. She recently won The Star Cup with an 88-15-73 at Manor Club.

Mrs. Ritz probably will move into Class A with the latest of her rapidly improving scores.

Mrs. H. N. McClary of Court House won low gross with an 83.

Other low net winners, in order, in the field of 72 in the 13-16 handicap were: Mrs. A. W. Gilliam of Belle Haven, 85-14-71; Mrs. Tom Wilder of Manor, 86-15-71; Mrs. A. J. Lyons of Court House, 88-16-72; Mrs. H. C. Woster of Argyle, 88-16-72.

And, Mrs. M. Schulman of Indian Spring, 89-16-73; Mrs. Forest Degnor of Westbriar, 87-14-73; Mrs. Henry Riley of Washington, 88-14-74; Mrs. W. C. Crampton of Army Navy, 88-14-74; Mrs. L. J. Erler of Army Navy, 90-16-74; Mrs. Harry Gorin of Woodmont, 88-13-75.

Mrs. Densmore Takes Class C Shorey Cup

The Women's District Golf Association has five cup tournaments scheduled this week, and the first three have been won by contestants who were playing their home course.

Mrs. Walter Densmore followed the pattern yesterday when she won the Class C Mel Shorey Cup at Belle Haven with an 86-17 for a net 69. Today there is the Class E Weisberg Cup at Norbeck, and tomorrow the Class D Anderson Cup at Brooke Manor.

On Monday Mrs. Erwin Ritz won the Mark Evans Cup at Indian Spring and on Tuesday Mrs. John Connolly won the WRC Cup at Washington, her home course.

Low gross in the Shorey Cup, donated by the former Indian Spring pro, now in Pennsylvania, was won by Mrs. Robert Deigert of Kenwood with a 90.

Other net winners, in order: Mrs. R. W. Lufkin of Prince Georges, 90-18-72; Mrs. Edwin Talbot of Belle Haven, 93-19-74; Mrs. Helen Levy of Indian Spring, 92-18-74; Mrs. John Mancos of Belle Haven, 93-19-74; Mrs. Edward Lamont of Bethesda, 91-17-74; Evelyn Toby of Westbriar, 92-17-75; Mrs. Leo Shaudis of Manor, 93-18-75; Mrs. Anthony Litrento of Prince Georges, 98-18-75, and Mrs. C. H. Hanna of Court House, 93-18-75.

Net 66 Earns Mrs. Skelton Class D Cup

Mrs. Robert T. Skelton of Brooke Manor won the Class D Anderson Cup with an 87 minus 21 for a net 66 yesterday, and became the fourth player this week to win a Women's District Golf Association cup tournament over her home course.

The WDGA had an unusually heavy schedule, with five events this week. Mrs. Erwin Ritz won the Class B Evans Cup at her home Indian Spring Club Monday. Mrs. John Connolly won the Class A WRC Cup over her home Washington course Tuesday, and Mrs. Walter Densmore won the Class C Shorey Cup at her home Belle Haven Club Wednesday. The only exception was Mrs. Robert Kidwell of Manor, who won the Class E Weisberg Cup at Norbeck Thursday.

Mrs. Vance Senseman won low gross with an 88 in the Anderson Cup.

Other net winners, in order: Amy Goode of Indian Spring, 89-20-69; Mrs. V. Bradley Tyree of Washington, 90-20-70; Audrey Raffell of Indian Spring, 93-21-72; Mrs. Harry Carragher of Bethesda, 93-21-72; Mrs. Walter Simmons of Belle Haven, 93-20-73, and Mrs. W. B. Fargo of Army Navy, 94-21-73.

Tip From Golf Book Helps WDGA Class E Champion

Mrs. Robert W. Kidwell proved one can learn from golf books when the Manor Club player won the Women's District Golf Association's Class E Weisberg Cup yesterday.

Mrs. Kidwell had the lowest round of her brief golf career, a 45-47-92. She deducted 24 handicap strokes for a net 68 to win by 3 shots in the event for 20-25 handicappers.

Mrs. Kidwell was a prize winner in the recent Gable Cup tournament of the WDGA, but hadn't been able to get under 95. The other day she was reading Louise Suggs' new book, "Golf for Women" and one of the tips was to keep your nose over the ball.

"I kept my nose right over it and even had a birdie on the long eighth hole," the excited new trophy winner said after her round. And the 92 included an 8 on the 17th where she went out of bounds. The girls played summer rules, too.

Low gross went to Mrs. Charles E. Frazier, also of Manor, with a 94.

Mrs. W. L. Benedict of Argyle won second net with 95-24-71. Other low net winners, in order, were: Mrs. J. E. Montpetit of Bethesda, 95-23-72; Mrs. W. Bruce Alexander of Belle Haven, 98-25-73; Mrs. George Meleney of Kenwood, 85-22-73; Mrs. George Oleson of Court House, 95-22-73.

And, Mrs. Irvin Keller of Indian Spring, 97-23-74; Mrs. R. T. MacBryde, Court House, 100-25-75; Mrs. J. C. Angsten of Washington, 100-25-75; Mrs. J. P. Flatley of Congressional, 99-23-76; Mrs. A. C. Low gross went to Mrs. Charles E. Frazier of Manor, 94.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

Ben Hogan's words at the National Open to the effect that golfers do not lose their shotmaking prowess as they get older—not until they become feeble—is true in this section thus far this year.

The Maryland State Amateur champion is 47-year-old Sergt. Harold Ridgley, and the Virginia Open champion is 46-year-old Chandler Harper. The leading pro of the section is 51-year-old Clarence Doser, who has qualified for the National Open and PGA, and has the lowest scoring average.

The Women's District champion is Mrs. James Swink, proud winner at 49, and the Maryland State Women's titlist is Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore, who doesn't give her age. But Mrs. Glick had been a school teacher before she even took up golf, and she has won 11 State titles since she took her first one in 1944.

Deane Beman pulled out of the Maryland Open at the last minute to compete in the Trans-Mississippi Amateur this week in Wichita, Kans. Beman was runnerup in the Trans-Miss last year to Jack Nicklaus, the National Amateur champion.

This also means that Beman will not be available for the District-Virginia team match next Sunday at Congressional. Tom Wheeler, president of the District Golf Association, is acting team captain and will announce his lineup this week. The District team scored an upset victory last year in Richmond, its fifth in the 11-year series.

Argyle Country Club has mailed invitations for its invitation tournament starting Tuesday, August 2, with the first of two days qualifying. There will be a minimum of 10 flights for the match play rounds August 4-7. Entries close at 6 p.m. July 29.

Ray Lawrenson calls attention to the District Golf Association's mixed scotch foursome Friday at Washington Golf and Country Club. . . . Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring will defend her Class A Star Cup title in the oldest cup tournament on the Women's District Golf Association schedule Tuesday at Congressional.

Indian Spring members will say thanks to Bobby Bowers for his years of service on the pro staff there at a cocktail party July 20 at the club. Bowers, the new Springfield pro, then will have dinner with the Indian Spring Board of Governors. . . . The Kiwanis Club of the Potomac is sponsoring a hole-in-one contest for the benefit of the Arlington Community Hospital all week at Brick Wood's Driving Range at 6000 Arlington boulevard, Route 50. Top prize is a $250 savings bond, plus other bonus, door prizes, and daily prizes of golf balls. The contest will be open from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. through next Sunday.

The Interclub Junior League will sponsor a championship of junior champions in the late summer or fall, date and club to be selected. Boy and girl champions of the 18 clubs in the league will be invited to compete in the 18-hole event.

The annual Worsham Memorial Junior tournament is scheduled Tuesday through Friday at Bethesda Country Club.

September 15 is the opening date for Lakewood Country Club's course, according to Pro Buster Reed. . . . The Maryland State Golf Association may limit the size of the Maryland Open field next year. This would be a welcome pattern for club events, junior tournaments, etc. With so many new clubs and new golfers in the area, all championships are going to have to be more selective, rather than the constant bragging about record fields. The pros would welcome this.

Fort Meade will be host to the Army area championship July 18-23. . . . The Middle Atlantic Amateur championship, slated for July 21-24 at Columbia Country Club, figures to be one of the outstanding amateur events of the mid-summer. Entries close at 6 p.m. next Sunday. . . . A special prize of the foreign car will go to the first pro making a hole-in-one during the $25,000 Eastern Open July 28-31 at Pine Ridge in Baltimore.

Net 72 by Mrs. Cush Takes Star Golf Cup

THE EVENING STAR
Washington, D. C., Wednesday, July 13, 1960

Women's par is 77 at Congressional County Club and Mrs. Frank Cush matched it in winning the The Evening Star Cup tournament of the Women's District Golf Association yesterday, but she didn't make it by shooting a string of pars.

In fact, Mrs. Cush had only three pars according to the women's card in her round. The other 15 holes were eight bogeys, six birdies and a three on the eighth.

The Argyle Country Club player, who holds the Middle Atlantic title, played a wonderful tee-to-green round, and would have matched men's par except for five three-putt greens.

Mrs. Cush has won so many Class A cups she can't recall them all. Her WDGA cup triumphs include the Keefer Cup and the Corby Cup three times.

She deducted a five handicap from the card of 38-39-77 for a 72 to win The Star Cup by one stroke.

Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington Golf and Country Club and Mrs. Paul H. Streit of Chevy Chase, WDGA president, tied for low gross, Mrs. Egenroad with 41-40-81 and Mrs. Streit with 39-42-81. Mrs. Egenroad won in a draw. Mrs. Cush had the low gross score, but took the net trophy.

Mrs. W. E. Howard of Argyle, a former Star Cup winner, was second low net with 82-9-73. Other net winners, in order, were Mrs. H. N. McClary of Court House, 86-12-74; Mrs. J. R. Gessley of Court House, 86-12-74; Mrs. W. E. King of Army Navy, 81-7-74; Mrs. James Swink of Belle Haven, 84-9-75; Nina Crampton of Congressional, 85-10-75, and Dorothy Omolecki of Argyle, 85-10-75.

Three players with net 75s were matched out, Mrs. Roy Smalley of Belle Haven, 85-10-75; Mrs. I. W. Elliott of Army Navy, 86-11-75 and Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle, 81-6-75.

Georgia Mae McKeever just missed the prize list with one of the best rounds of the day, an 82-6-76.

WMAL Cup Victory Gives Mrs. Densmore Double

Mrs. Walter Densmore of The Evening Star and Evans Belle Haven became the season's second double winner in Cups in Class B.

Mrs. A. J. Lyons of Court House was the low gross winner yesterday with an 89.

Other net winners, in order: Ruth Andrews of Court House, 90-15-75; Mrs. Max Mudrick of Norbeck, 90-15-75; Mrs. W. C. Crampton of Army Navy, 90-13-77; Mrs. Harold Lewis of Prince Georges, 90-13-77.

Previously Mrs. Densmore won the Shorey Cup while competing in Class C.

The other double winner of the season was Mrs. Erwin Ritz of Indian Spring, who won

Mrs. Lufkin Gets Ace, but Loses, In 'C' Playoff

A sudden-death playoff and a hole-in-one featured play in the Class C Division of the District Women's Golf Association yesterday at Norbeck.

The sudden-death playoff involved Mrs. Herbert Sherman of Manor and Mrs. Rodney Lufkin of Prince Georges for low net prize. Mrs. Sherman won it on the second extra hole with a par.

Only minutes before Mrs. Lufkin made a hole-in-one with a six-iron shot on the par three, 118-yard 16th hole, which helped her tie Mrs. Sherman at the end of 18 holes.

Mrs. Sherman had 89-19-70 for low net. Mrs. Lufkin had an 88 for low gross.

Other net winners were Mrs. Julia Nelson of Brooke Manor, 89-17-72; Mrs. Wiley Beale, Prince Georges, 90-18-72, and Mrs. Leo Shaudis of Manor, 91-18-73.

Class C Girls Prove They, Too, Are Good

The girls in the Class C division of the Women's District Golf Association had themselves quite a time yesterday at Norbeck.

The girls put on a show that included a hole-in-one and a sudden death playoff for first place.

Mrs. Rodney Lufkin figured in both attractions.

The Prince Georges member dropped a six-iron shot into the cup on the par three, 118-yard 16th hole. That shot enabled her to tie Mrs. Herbert Sherman for low net at the end of 18 holes, necessitating a sudden-death playoff.

On the second extra hole, Mrs. Sherman, Manor, played a near-perfect nine iron shot. Mrs. Lufkin, perhaps thinking of her hole-in-one, missed her putt for a par and watched Mrs. Sherman plunk her ball in to the cup for the Class C Cup.

Mrs. Sherman had 89-19-70 for the low net. Mrs. Lufkin had 88 for low gross.

Other net winners: Mrs. Julia Nelson, Brooke Manor, 89-17-72; Mrs. Wiley Beale, Prince Georges, 90-18-72; and Mrs. Leo Shaudis, Manor, 91-18-73.
