Mrs. Friedman's Class D Cup Win Is First of Career

Mrs. Richard Friedman, who has "caught the hang" of the golf game according to her Woodmont teacher, Gene Larkin, won the Women's District Golf Association's Class D Goldsmith Cup at Woodmont yesterday with a 91 minus 20 handicap for a net 71.

Mrs. Friedman may go from Class D to Class B as the result of her recent scores. They include an 88 and 89 over her home course and they have counted on her handicap.

Mrs. Friedman has been playing golf four years. This was her first WDGA Cup triumph, although she has won in club events.

Mrs. John Mancos, of Belle Haven, immediate past president of the WDGA, won low gross with a 93.

Mrs. Robert Skelton of Brooke Manor won second net with 93-21-72.

Other net winners, in order, were: Mrs. William Stern of Indian Spring, 93-20-73; Edna Janes of Indian Spring, 94-20—74; Mrs. W. B. Fargo of Army Navy, 94-20—74; Mrs. A. E. Wall of Belle Haven, 95-20—75; Amy Goode of Indian Spring, 95-20—75, and Claire Burns of Brooke Manor, 97-21—76.

Mrs. Lockhart Wins

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Mrs. W. L. Lockhart's husband has been made a Lt. Colonel in the Air Force and the attractive Army Navy Country Club golfer celebrated by winning her first major golf tournament yesterday at Woodmont Country Club.

The service club player, whose husband is also a member of the golf committee at Army Navy, posted a round of 88—16—72 and won the Women's District Golf Association class B tournament for The Washington Post Cup.

It was Mrs. Lockhart's first tournament as a B class player. She was out in 42 and back in 46 to be both low gross and net in a field of 66 that withstood yesterday's intense heat to play in the 18-hole event.

The Virginia service club player elected to take the more important net trophy and her decision forced a match of the cards of three tying players at 89 for the gross trophy.

Mrs. Morton Shiff of Argyle emerged victorious in the card matching, but Mrs. Clarence L. Miller, Belle Haven, and Mrs. Lawrence Jacobs, Woodmont, the other 89 shooters, gained a measure of consolation by being included in the net prize list.

Mrs. Miller was drawn into the second net position with a card of 89—14—75. Mrs. Jacobs, who had the low nine of the day with 40 on the front side, wound up third net with 89—14—75.

Mrs. Pat Martino of Argyle, 91—15—76, won fourth net; Mrs. O. B. Stanley, Army Navy, 92—16—76, fifth and Mrs. Ellis Edlowitz, Woodmont, 92—16—76, sixth. Seven players finished with net 77s and after another card matching session, Mrs. Walter Densmore, Belle Haven, 91—14—77, emerged the seventh place winner.

Mrs. J. Hoen, Congressional 91—14—77, took the eighth place prize, Mrs. W. E. Teeter, Belle Haven, 93—16—77, was ninth, Mrs. A. P. Litrento, Prince Georges, 91—15—77, 10th, Mrs. Joseph Waugh, Brooke Manor, 92—15—77, 11th and Mrs. Richard Friedman, Woodmont, 92—15—77, 12th. Mrs. H. W. Riley, Washington, 92—15—77, was drawn out.

Net 69 Earns Mrs. Tyree Meckley Cup

Mrs. W. B. Tyree of Washington Golf and Country Club won her first trophy in Women's District Golf Association competition yesterday when she won the Betty Meckley Cup at Kenwood with an 87 minus 18 handicap for a net 69.

Mrs. Tyree had been a low 80 golfer at Fort Bragg and Raleigh in North Carolina about 10 years ago. Then she started to raise a family of four children and virtually quit the game.

This is her first year in District competition. She won the Furr Cup at Washington. A field of 69 competed despite the intense heat.

Mrs. W. G. Ekman of Manor won low gross with an 89.

Other prize winners, in order:

Mrs. Paul Bauman, Woodmont, 89-18—71; Mrs. H. E. Davies, Manor, 89-18—71; Mrs. Frank Kadie, Kenwood, 91-19—72; Mrs. J. M. Defeats Mrs. Cush for Post Cup

Youngster Wins After Playoff

Daphne Dutton, 19-year-old player from Kenwood, captured The Washington Post Cup yesterday in a Women's District Golf Association Class A tournament at Westbriar.

Miss Dutton had to win the trophy the hard way—in a sudden death playoff with Mrs. Frank Cush, former Maryland State amateur champion from Argyle.

Both had a net score of 70 at the end of the regular 18 holes. Miss Dutton had a gross 80 with a ten handicap and Mrs. Cush used a five handicap for her 70.

On the first extra hole, Miss Dutton pushed her second shot just short of the green. She used a putter on her third shot and the ball stopped inches from the pin. She dropped in the shortie for her par four.

Mrs. Cush also was shy of the green on her second shot but stubbed her approach and two putted for a five.

Mrs. Cush won the low gross.

Other net winners were Miss Dorothy Omolecki, Argyle, 82—10—72; Mrs. James Swink, Belle Haven, 83—8—75; Mrs. Roy Smalley, Belle Haven, 86—10—76; Mrs. I. H. Rosen, Westbriar, 84—8—76; Mrs. F. N. Phillips, Army Navy, 88—11—77; Helen Konopa, Argyle, 84—6—78.

Bostrom Leads Junior Golf

Jane Bostrom of Prince Georges toured the Manor Country Club course in 41, 39—80 yesterday and took the lead at the halfway point in the District Junior Girls Golf Championships in the 16-17-year-old division. Robbye King, Army Navy, is second with 43, 40—83. The final round will be played today.

In 15-year-old competition Theresa Orner of Argyle leads with 46, 43—89. Sue Matthews of Manor shot 49, 51—100 and leads the 14-year-olds.

D. C. Junior Girls' Golf Appears 2-Way Race

Jane Bostrom and Robbye King, a pair of 17-year-olds who have dominated junior girls golf here this season, appeared to have the District Junior championship to themselves going into the final round today at Manor Country Club.

Jane, of Prince Georges, had an 80 despite an eight on the par-five ninth hole yesterday for a three-stroke lead over Robbye, who had 83. In previous cup events this season Miss King has won two and Miss Bostrom one.

The closest challenger is Mary McCahon of Court House, with an 88. Theresa Orner of Argyle, who leads the 15-year age bracket, had 89. Pam August of Argyle, the defending champion, had a 90.

Miss Bostrom and Miss King will join five other District girls in the USGA Junior in Tulsa in two weeks. Today's event will mark their last appearance in junior competition here, as 17 is the age minimum.

Jane, a protege of Pro Al Houghton of Prince Georges, played excellent golf except for the eight. She came to the ninth hole needing par for a 38, but played the hole through the trees. Robbye's round was marred by four 3-putt greens.

Frances Edmonston of Columbia, with a 98, was second to Miss Orner's 89 in the 15-year class. The 14-year leaders were Sue Matthews of Manor with 100 and Donna Blumentthal of Woodmont with 102. Kathy Muse had a fine 46 on the front nine and 52 on the back for a 98 and the lead in the 13-year group. Kathy's 46 included an eight on the fourth. Carol Carragher of Bethesda had 108 for second plpace.

Robbye King Gets Cup for Girl Golfers

As Army Navy was winning the Interclub Junior Golf League championship yesterday at Burning Tree, Army Navy's 17-year-old Robbye King was firing a fine 73 at Woodmont to carry home the Carbert Cup for junior girls.

Miss King shot 37-36 for her one-under-women's-par total, and subtracted her seven handicap for a net 66. That was three strokes better than Pam August of Argyle, who had 84-15—69 for second place. Vicki Swaggert of Manor shot 101-31—70 for third.

Jane Bostrom of Prince Georges won low gross with a 79. Nine-hole winners were Bonnie Dolan of Court House, 50-23—27, and Arlene Stoppa, also of Court House, with a gross 54.

A field of 24 girls, most of whom will compete in the District Junior Girls championship Monday and Tuesday at Manor, competed yesterday, plus 13 more in the nine-hole section.

Jane Bostrom Takes Junior Girls Golf Title

Jane Bostrom, 16-year-old Prince Georges golfer, won the Women's District Golf Association junior girls title yesterday at Manor Country Club with a 36-hole score of 164.

Miss Bostrom posted 80 in the first round Monday and yesterday reported an 84 which gave her a three stroke margin over her nearest competitor.

Robbye King, Army Navy, 83, 84—167, was second. Pam August, last year's champion from Argyle, was third with 90, 86—176.

Jane Bostrom Is Fullfilling Pro's Hopes

Al Houghton, the Prince Georges pro, has been predicting golf stardom for Jane Bostrom since her early teens. The 17-year-old youngster began justifying her teacher's faith by winning the District Girls Junior title yesterday at Manor.

Houghton, who claims Jane can hit the ball farther than any girl he has seen in years, laughs when he tells her she must stop getting upset when she misses a shot. Sometimes it takes her two or three holes to recover.

The teacher would have been proud yesterday to watch Janie. She overcame several bad holes to win the 36-hole championship with 80-84—164 at Manor Club.

Loses Lead

Janie took a three-stroke lead over Robbye King of Army Navy into the final round. Robbye passed her rival on the first two holes with a 3-5 start to Miss Bostrom's 6-6.

But Janie played the next six holes in one over men's par to go back on top. She had sevens on the 9th and 13th, but still shot 84.

Miss King was runnerup with 83-84—167. She was the 16-17-year age group winner over Pam August of Argyle, the tournament's defending champion, who had 90-86—176.

Fires a Slick 82

The sensation of the second day was Bridgett Donahue of Bethesda, who finished out of the prize list, but had the satisfaction of cutting 18 strokes off her first-round score with an 82, low round of the day. She started with a 100.

Theresa Orner of Argyle was the 15-year winner with 89-88—177 over Mary Frances Edmonston of Columbia with 98-89—178. Sue Matthews of Manor won the 14-year group with 100-93—193 over Donna Blumental of Woodmont, 102-94—196. Cathy Muse of Army Navy was the 13-year group winner with 98-103—201. Carol Carragher of Bethesda was second with 108-102—210.

Misses Bostrom, King, August, Carragher, Edmonston, Donahue and Gana Roberts of Manor will play in the USGA Junior championship starting August 15 in Tulsa. Mrs. A. Wayne Braden, USGA committeeman from this section, will accompany the girls

Robbye King, Jane Bostrom Take Honors at Westbriar

Robbye King and Jane Bostrom between them have taken most of the girls' junior golf honors this season and yesterday at Westbriar they didn't change the script.

The 17-year-old Miss King, from Army Navy Country Club and runnerup in the District junior tournament, won the United Voluntary Services Cup with 38-38—76 at the Vienna, Va., course.

Jane Bostrom of Prince Georges, the District junior champion, won the 16-17-year-old class with 46-36—82. Bev Jones of Court House was runnerup with an 86.

Mary Frances Edmonston of Columbia was the winner in the 15-year-old group with a 96 and Sue Morrell of Bethesda was runnerup with 105.

Donna Blumenthal of Woodmont won the 14-year-old class with a 93 and Joan Sampson of Army Navy was second. The winner of the 13-year-old class was Carol Carragher of Bethesda with a 93. Kathy Muse of Army Navy was second with 104.

Area Girl Gains In Junior Golf Play

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 17 (Special).—Robbye King of Arlington, Va., was the Washington area's last hope in the National junior girls' golf tournament as the field was narrowed to 16 for a pair of 18-hole match-play rounds today.

Miss King, from Army Navy Club and the District junior runnerup, defeated Jeanie Butler of Harlingen, Tex., 2 and 1, in her opening round yesterday.

Jane Bostrom, representing the Prince Georges Club in Landover, Md., the only other Washington area girl competing here, was eliminated. Miss Bostrom, the District junior champion, lost to Mary Carey of Chicago, 2 down.

The comedalists, Judy Rand of Aurora, Ohio, and Carol Sorenson of Janesville, Wis., survived. Miss Rand, defending champian, disposed of Joan Gavigan of Waukesha, Wis., 4 and 2, and Miss Sorenson eliminated Nancy Way of Grand Rapids, Mich., 2 up.

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 18 (AP) Sharon Fladoos, recent winner of the Western Junior championship, enters the National Junior girls golf tournament semifinals today in good position to become the "little slam" champion of junior golf circles.

The 17-year-old Dubuque, Iowa, star defeated Sandra Haynie of Austin, Tex., in her quarter-final match and meets Ann Baker, Maryville, Tenn., in today's semifinals. Miss Baker defeated Heidi Prentice, Wilmette, Ill., 1 up, with three straight pars starting at the 14th hole.

Miss Haynie provided some fireworks in the second round when she defeated Judy Rand, Aurora, Ohio, the defending champion and a co-medalist, 2 up, with a pair of 4-foot birdie putts on the last two holes.

The youngest player in the championship flight, 13-year-old Roberta Albers, Tampa, Fla., carried Carol Sorenson, Janesville, Wis., to the 20th hole before she lost to a par 4 on the 358-yard hole.

Judy Torluemke, St. Louis, made her way into the semi-finals with a 4 and 3 decision over Robbye Lee King of Arlington, Va. Miss King earlier in the day had won by default from Mary Lowell, Alameda, Calif., who was unable to play because of illness.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

District Golf Association officials are claiming it's a trend, or a transition period, and that there's no cause for alarm, but some of the golfers are saying there's something wrong with the format, or the dates, of the District Amateur championship.

You'd have to say the golfers who are wondering about the future of the tournament have a case. When you talk about the top amateurs in the District you think immediately of Deane Beman, Ralph Bogart, Harold Ridgley, Carl Lohren, Buddy Sharkey, Bobby Brownell, Larry Murphy, Bill Brownrigg, Ronnie Righter and Henry Kerfoot, and not one of them entered the current District Amateur.

There were various reasons. Tournament conflicts and vacations were the top two, but there also was lack of interest. The tournament that ends today at Congressional is flat.

* * * *

The medalist in the District Amateur a couple of seasons ago, a week-end-plus golfer in his middle 30s, said he wouldn't play if it was in his backyard.

"Say I was lucky and reached the finals," he said. That would be 18 holes one day and 36 holes the next three days. I couldn't make it. Look who reached the Middle Atlantic finals," he said, "a pair of 22-year-olds (Beman and Lohren). And they were in the District finals last year."

What the fellow didn't add was that they are the two top amateurs in town, and probably would have reached it under any style of play.

But when a championship is played over a course with the appeal of Congressional and only a handful of the city's top players enter, it would appear that new dates might be advisable. The tournament originally was moved to August from the fall to accommodate the high school and college players.

Of those who started at Congressional, only Bob Martino, John Eisinger, Perky Cullinane and Claude Wild rate ranking in the top dozen of District amateur golf. The situation might be worthy of attention when the tournament officials meet during the winter months.

"James Monroe," the big hitter who also has all the other shots, who dazzled the East Potomac regulars by winning several challenge matches over the past couple of weeks for sizeable stakes, added two pros, both non-PGA members, to his victims late last week.

In the meantime "Monroe," who some of the boys thought was Mysterious John Montague, was seen talking to one of the Washington Senators the other night.

The ball player identified Monroe as Peewee Campbell of Paw Paw, N. C. He played semi-pro baseball, and is a nephew of Paul Campbell, formerly of the Detroit Tigers.

"He's a good golfer but I don't know how he'd make out against one of the top names," the ball player, who formerly was with Charlotte, said. "But I'll tell you one thing, he can hit a ball farther than any man alive."

Most of the people at East Potomac who have seen Campbell play will buy that statement.

NOTES—The September issue of Charley Price's GOLF magazine has an exceptionally readable section commemorating the 30th anniversary of Bobby Jones' grand slam. Contributors include Paul Gallico, Furman Bisher and Price, and one of O. B. Keeler's stories on Jones is included. Also, there are pro pointers by Jones, said to be the first instructional material published by Jones in 25 years.

Maryland State events this week include a two-man handicap tournament Tuesday at Columbia, and the Father-and-Son championship Friday at Manor. Entries for the latter close tomorrow. . . . The juniors play their next-to-last tournament, the 54-hole Dettweiler Cup, at Brooke Manor Wednesday, Thursday and next Sunday.

Wednesday is the entry deadline for the USGA Senior championship, which will be played September 19-24 at Oysters Harbor, Mass. Sectional qualifying will be held September 7 at Five Farms. Entries, as usual, must be in the USGA offices in New York at that time. . . .

Lakewood Country Club reports heavy play on its nine holes opened last Tuesday. The second nine will be ready between Labor Day and the date of the Sam Snead-Arnold Palmer match September 11. . . . A pint of blood is the entry fee to the Traffic Club's golf tournament Saturday and next Sunday at East Potomac. Blood may be donated at the Red Cross.

Jane Bostrom, the District girls' champion from Prince Georges, won the consolation event of the USGA Girls' championship with a 78 in Tulsa. . . . Al Houghton, the Prince Georges pro, and three of his members, Tony Litrento, Bill Picco and Jack Wilson, will play in Danny Kay's tournament at Taiminent in the Poconos this week.

Curtis Cuppers Dominate Play In National

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 24 (AP).—Six internationalists were still in command of the National Women's amateur golf championship today as the head-to-head match play battle moved into the third round.

Two rounds will be played today to cut the original field of 102 to eight quarter-finalists. A strong possibility existed that six members of the Curtis Cup team could be in the stretch drive for the title now held by Barbara McIntire, pretty brunette from Lake Park, Fla.

Mrs. James R. Biddick, Tulsa, defeated Jane Bostrom, Hyattsville, Md., 1 up, while Mary Patton Janssen, Charlottesville, Va., defeated Mrs. Grant Messinger, Denton, Tex., 4 and 3, and Frances Rich, Dallas, Tex., defeated Mrs. Maurice Glick, Baltimore, 4 and 3, in matches yesterday.

The six Curtis Cup team members on hand for this tournament are Miss McIntire, Ann Casey Johnstone, Mason City, Iowa; Ann Quast, Marysville, Wash.; JoAnne Gunderson, Kirkland, Wash.; Judy Bell, Wichita, Kans., and Judy Eller, Old Hickory, Tenn.

Miss McIntire defeated 17-year-old Sharon Fladoos of Dubuque, Iowa, Western Junior champion, 3 and 1, with a 3-over-par effort. Yesterday Miss Bell was an easy 5-and-4 winner over Sandra Palmer, Fort Worth, Tex.

Miss Eller eliminated Beth Stone, Oklahoma champion, from Muskogee, 2 and 1. Miss Quast helped to keep the younger contingent in its place with a 2-up win over Carol Sorenson, the new junior champion from Janesville, Wis., 2 up. Miss Gunderson Advances

Bostrom Beaten in 2d Round

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 23 (AP) Tall blonde JoAnne Gunderson, Kirkland, Wash., created most of the excitement in the second round of the National Women's Amateur golf championship today as a strong group of Curtis Cup players continued their mastery over the field.

Miss Gunderson defeated veteran Marjorie Burns, Greensboro, N. C., 3 and 1, with a 1-over par performance over the par 35, 36—71 Tulsa Country Club course.

Miss Gunderson, a coed at Arizona State University, fired a two-under par 33 on the front nine. This gave her a three hole advantage which she protected with a steady game coming home. She closed out the match by winning the 17th hole with a par 4 when Miss Burns encountered trouble.

Jane Bostrom, of Hyattsville, Md., lost to Mrs. James R. Biddick, Tulsa, 1-up. Mary Patton Janssen, Charlottesville, Va., defeated Mrs. Grant Messinger, Denton, Tex., 4 and 3. Mrs. Maurice Glick, Baltimore, lost to Frances Rich, Dallas, 4 and 3.

Curtis Cup players winning their matches today besides Miss Gunderson were Mrs. Ann Casey Johnstone, Mason City, Iowa, Anne Quast, Marysville, Wash., Judy Eller, Old Hickory, Tenn., defending champion Barbara McIntire, Lake Park, Fla., and Judy Bell of Wichita, Kan.

Kansas Girl Upsets McIntire in Women's Amateur

Gunderson, Johnstone, Eller Win

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 25 (AP) Jean Ashley, a tall Kansan from Chanute, matched strong determination with a solid game today and defeated defending champion Barbara McIntire of Lake Park, Fla., 1 up in the quarterfinals of the National Women's amateur golf championship.

Miss Ashley, a 21-year-old player making her first start in the amateur championship, birded the 17th hole with a 15-foot putt to even the match and won the 18th with an 8-footer for a par after Miss McIntire had missed from 9 feet.

Joining the surprising Kansan in Friday's semifinals were cup players Mrs. Ann Casey Johnstone, Mason City, Iowa; Joanne Gunderson, Kirkland, Wash., and Judy Eller, Old Hickory, Tenn.

Mrs. Johnstone putted phenomenally in sidelining former champion Anne Quast, Marysville, Wash., 2 and 1, and Miss Gunderson, another former titlist shot 1-under-par golf for 12 holes to eliminate Natasha Matson, Wichita, Kan., 7 and 6.

Miss Eller birded the 16th hole for the third straight day and beat Andrea Cohn, Waterloo, Iowa, 3 and 2.

Miss Ashley found herself two down after she bogied the first two holes and at one time was three down after Miss McIntire birdied the sixth hole.

The defending champion went one-up at the 15th with a 12-foot putt for a par after Miss Ashley caught the high rough and got out poorly, settling for a bogie 5. The 16th was halved with regulation par 5.

On the rough 380-yard windup hole, Miss Ashley hit a tremendous 235-yard drive down the middle of the fairway and hit a six-iron shot just inches to the right of the green. Her approach putt from 40 feet rolled past the hole but she steadied for the clinching putt.

Miss McIntire's drive was to the right rough and she left herself about 30 yards short with a four-wood. She chipped up strongly to the left of the hole and a gallery of about 500 moaned as her putt hung on the right lip of the cup. Miss Ashley then left Miss McIntire's ball where it lay, using it as a guide to help make her right breaker.

Semifinals starting at 2 p. m. Friday (CST) sends Mrs. Johnstone, 38-year-old western champion, against Miss Ashley, and Miss Gunderson against Miss Eller, two-time national junior champion.

GUNDERSON VS ASHLEY

Youngsters in Final Of U. S. Women's Golf

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 27 (AP).—A confident former champion and a courageous Chanute, Kans., school teacher playing in her first major tournament battle today for the National Women's Amateur golf championship.

The finalists, both 21, are JoAnne Gunderson of Kirkland, Wash., the 1957 titleholder and veteran of topflight competition, and slim Jean Ashley. They were to tee off this morning in the critical 36-hole match.

Miss Gunderson lived up to her advance billing as a possible winner by beating her traveling companion, Judy Eller of Old Hickory, Tenn., 2 up, using her strong tee power to good advantage on the three tough finishing holes over the 6,150-yard Tulsa Country Club course.

Miss Ashley, who admitted that she would have been "tickled to death" just to get to the quarter finals of her first United States Golf Association championship, held on tenaciously to sideline the 38-year-old veteran, Mrs. Ann Casey Johnstone, Mason City, Iowa, 1 up.

The affable Kansan became a crowd favorite and a solid dark horse when she eliminated Polly Riley, veteran Curtis Cupper from Fort Worth, Tex., 1 up in 21 holes in the fourth round. She added to her prestige with a 1-up verdict over Barbara McIntire, the defending champion and current British Amateur champion, in the quarter-finals.

Yesterday Miss Ashley started a hot streak at the ninth hole to win the semifinal match. She won four straight holes, two of them with birdies, and outlasted Mrs. Johnstone down the stretch.

Miss Gunderson's decision over Miss Eller came when the two-time National Junior champion fell apart on the final three holes, losing all of them to pars, three-putting the 16th, hitting over the green on the 17th and missing a fairway wood on her second shot on the 380-yard uphill 18th hole where Miss Gunderson got home in two.

JoAnne Gunderson Wins 2d U. S. Title

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 27 (AP).—JoAnne Gunderson, daughter of a Kirkland, Wash., carpenter, hammered out a 6 and 5 decision over Jean Ashley of Chanute, Kans., today and packed up her second national Women's Amateur golf championship within four years.

Miss Gunderson, a sturdy 21-year-old blond physical education major at Arizona State University at Tempe, won the Tempe, won the title in 1957 with an 8 and 6 victory over Mrs. Ann Casey Johnstone of Mason City, Iowa.

After the Washington shotmaker, who took up the game at an early age while practicing with old wooden shaft clubs near the Sand Point Country Club, whizzed to a 4 up advantage in the morning round, there appeared little doubt but that she would come home with another title.

Miss Ashley, another 21-year-old making her first start in a major tournament, captured the fancy of a gallery of 1,000 at the Tulsa Country Club course. It was her determined effort which sidelined former Curtis Cupper Polly Riley, Mrs. Johnstone and Defending Champion Barbara McIntire.

It was the strong powerful tee shots that helped Miss Gunderson. Some of her tremendous belts were reminescent of the days of the late Babe Didrikson Zaharias, who won every major championship during her fabulous career, including the same tournament at Tulsa's Southern Hills Country Club 14 years ago.

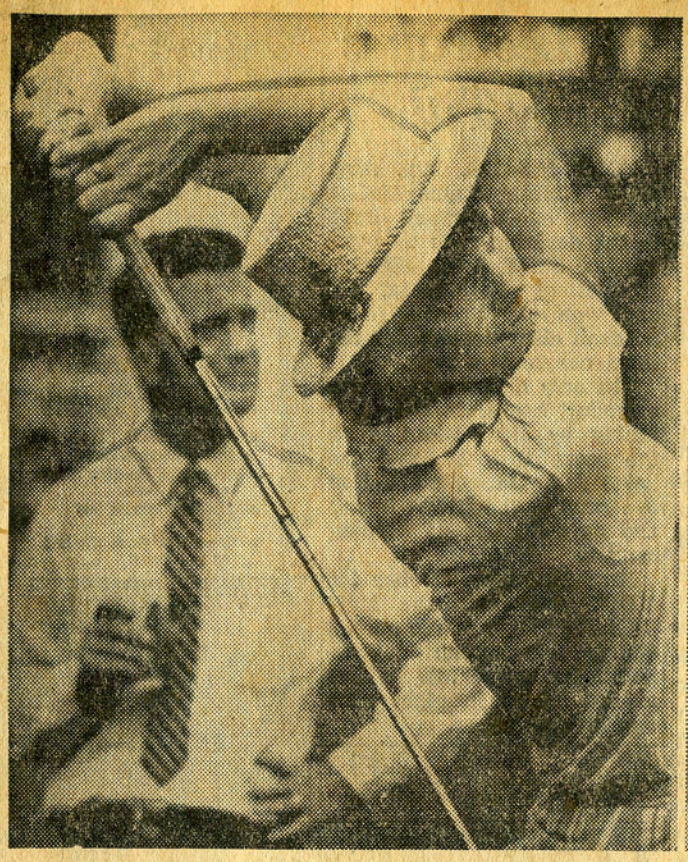

Miss Ashley held her own on the first nine of the afternoon round but lost the 27th hole to a par when she chipped 5 feet past the cup and missed her putt for a bogie. Miss Gunderson then rammed in a 15 footer for a birdie on the 187-yard, par-3 29th hole to gain a 5 up lead.

After the 30th was halved in par 4s, Miss Gunderson closed out the match spectacularly with a 14-foot birdie putt on the par-4 31st after the Kansas lass missed her birdie attempt from 22 feet. The ball just lipped the cup and the steady Washingtonian then came through with her putt that was followed by the handshaking.

Miss Gunderson, a Curtis Cupper and winner of the national intercollegiate title this year, was only one over par for the 13 holes of the afternoon round. She had a mediocre 75 in the morning over the 6,150-yard course which played to a tough par of 35-36—71 for the women. Miss Ashley soared to an 80 in the morning but steadied and was only 3 over par in the afternoon.

JoAnne Gunderson of Kirkland, Wash., seems a bit upset over a missed putt in her match against Jean Ashley of Chanute, Kans., in yesterday's final round in the Women's Amateur golf championship at Tulsa, Okla. Win by Mrs. King's Team Gains Verdict for Virginians

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., May 21 (AP).—A 1-point lead garnered in the opening round stood up for Virginia's women golfers yesterday and gave them a 24½ to 23½ victory over the favored Carolinas team.

The teams fought to a 12-12 standoff in the final 18 holes of best-ball competition over the par 71 Princess Anne Country Club course here. Thus the deciding factor was the 12½ to 11½ lead Virginia had gained Thursday.

Oddly enough, all the triumphs in yesterday's eight foursomes were 3-0 shutouts. As in Thursday's opening play, Virginia's victory wasn't nailed down until the last of the eight foursomes came in.

The Carolinas ladies led, 23½ to 21½, when the issue was decided by the Virginia team of Mrs. E. W. King of Arlington and Mrs. Mary Gillespie of Newport News in a 3-0 victory ove rthe Carolinas twosome of Mrs. Pearson Menocher of Southernpines and Miss Elsie Shaw of Charlotte.

Low score of the two days of competition was the 73 posted by Miss Marge Burns of Greensboro on Thursday. Yesterday's low was a 75 by Mrs. H. S. Covington of Orangeburg, S. C.

Miss Marge Burns, Greensboro, and Mrs. Grant Bennett, Florence (Carolinas), defeated Mrs. Bob Davis, Norfolk, Va., and Miss Sidney Elliott, Charlottesville (Va.), 3-0.

Mrs. William Pollard, Charlottesville, and Mrs. Charles Eggenroad, Arlington (Va.), defeated Miss Agnes Cocke, Wilmington, and Miss Minnie Deschamps, Sumter (Carolinas), 3-0.

Miss Mary Pat Janssen, Charlottesville, and Mrs. Ralph Patrone, Blacksburg (Va.), defeated Mrs. H. S. Covington, Orangeburg, and Mrs. William Albergetti, Columbia (Carolinas), 3-0.

Mrs. Ned Looney, Arlington, and Mrs. Glenn Knox, Richmond (Virginia) defeated Mrs Fatsy Rendelman, Salisbury, and Mrs. J. D. Pittman, Lancaster (Carolinas), 3-0.

Mrs. Graham Trott, Raleigh, and Miss Annette Roddy, Sumter (Carolinas), defeated Mrs. Lewis Rawls, Suffolk, and Mrs. Herbert Smith III, Virginia Beach (Va.), 3-0.

Mrs. T. S. Callender, Greensboro, and Mrs. G. M. Truluck, Orangeburg (Carolinas), defeated Mrs. T. C. Enger, Norfolk, and Mrs. William Walsh, Arlington (Va.), 3-0.

Mrs. Michael Brown, Wilmington, and Mrs. Joe Lee, High Point (Carolinas), defeated Mrs. James Swink, Arlington, and Mrs. H. N. Allen, Newport News (Va.), 3-0.

Mrs E. W. King, Arlington, and Mrs. Mary Gillespie, Newport News (Va.) defeated Mrs. Pearson Menocher, Southern Pines, and Miss Elsie Shaw, Charlotte (Carolinas), 3-0.

Final score: Virginia, 24½; Carolinas, 23½.

Virginia Women Defeat Carolinas In Team Golf

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va., May 21 — Virginia's women golfers scored a 24½-23½ victory over the Carolinas in the annual women's team match at the Princess Anne Country Club.

Trailing 23½-21½ with one match to go, Mrs. E. W. King of Army Navy Country Club, Arlington, Va., and Mrs. Mary Gillespie of Newport News, won 3-0 over Mrs. Pearson Menocher of Southern Pines and Miss Ellise Shaw, Charlotte.

The second match will be played at Lineville, N. C., in September.

TEE TO GREEN

By MERRELL WHITTLESEY

There is a serious note to the number of golf professionals whose health has been threatened of late. In most cases the collapses, or near collapses, have been diagnosed as the result of overwork, extreme tension, irregular eating, etc.

With most golf courses packed from early morning until dark all but one or two days a week with regular play, tournaments, or outside parties, demands on the pro staff are increasing.

And in most cases the allotments for hiring competent assistants are insufficient.

People who plan tournaments are becoming inconsiderate of the fellows in the golf shop, of people involved with the game, and even the contestants. Everyone wants to brag about a record field, instead of holding tournaments to workable size, and not starting anybody after say, 2 o'clock.

These matters have a bearing on the golf pros who have been dropping in alarming numbers. Al Burton was helped off the teaching tee at Army Navy, and a week ago Sunday Al Houghton gave his Prince Georges members a fright, and was sent home under doctor's care.

* * * *

The Glen Echo Rescue Squad rushed Warner Gray to Washington Hospital Center from Congressional Country Club last Sunday, and about the same time the rescue squad was called to All View when Pro Johnny Musser passed out.

Ernie Garlem of Westbriar went for a physical last Monday after not feeling up to playing in the pro-amateur. And Cliff Spencer quit at Laurel Pines because the hours were too much.

Thankfully, none of the cases have been serious. Burton and Houghton are back on the job, Warner is at his home for a few days' rest before reporting back to work, and Musser hopes to play in the Open qualifying tomorrow.

But to prevent further scares to the families of the golf pros and their assistants, a sensible thing would be to relieve the tension, lessen the hours, and have club members become more considerate. Sam Snead is the only rich golf pro, and he spends more time fishing than in his shop.

NOTES—Ronnie Righter and Keith Bowie of Prince Georges, the youngsters who meet Larry Murphy and Bill Brownrigg of Manor in the postponed finals of the Belle Haven Invitation 4-Ball at 1 o'clock today, have been playing and practicing daily since the scheduled final of two weeks ago. They must be regarded the favorites.

The second round of the District senior team championship today finds Columbia meeting Congressional and Manor against Prince Georges in the upper bracket, and Washington meets Belle Haven and Bethesda goes against Kenwood in the lower. In first-round matches last week, Columbia beat Army Navy, and Belle Haven won via a playoff over Argyle.

Speaking of seniors, the District Golf Association will hold its first two-senior, combined score, handicap tournament Thursday at Argyle. Post entries will be accepted . . . Joe Zoeeler has 44 entries for the National Public Links qualifying June 7 at East Potomac. Zoeller is attempting to arrange all-expense trips to Hafaii for the three qualifiers.

Brooke Manor Club will have a new golf shop for Dewey Ricketts and Jim Hightower plus an addition to the locker room, new showers and other improvement by late summer. . . . The Middle Atlantic Golf Association is banking on a banner field for its women's championship June 1-2-3 at Washington Golf and Country Club. Mary Ann Downey, the former Curtis Cup player from Baltimore, will defend her title.

Court House Country Club of Fairfax continues its ambitious building program. It has plans for seven new holes within the next two years. Also a nine-hole, par-three course on some of the holes now in play.

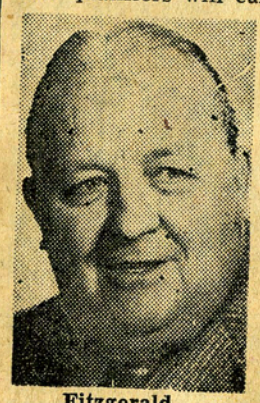

The second announcement of new dates for the Maryland scholastic championship over the University of Maryland course has the event scheduled for Wednesday, June 1. Next year a closer study of late-May scholastic and tournament obligations for the teen-agers would avoid the confusion.

Woodmont will use its original 18-hole course for the National Open championship local qualifying rounds tomorrow, but the second and third nines will be used for Thursday's Invitation Pro-Member. . . . The Tri-State League opens play today at Court House. . . . Kenwood has a record field lined up for its 36-hole medal play member-guest Friday and Saturday.

TWENTY-FIVE professionals and 12 amateurs tee off Monday in 36-hole local qualifying trials for the U. S. Open championship at Woodmont Country Club . . . The seven low qualifiers will earn the right to compete in sectional trials Tuesday, June 7, at Prince Georges Golf and Country Club . . . A record number of 2472 players have entered the 60th Open championship which will be played at Cherry Hills Country Club, Denver, Colo., June 16-18 . . . One hundred and 29 players will survive the local and sectional trials and join 21 players exempt from both events, providing a starting field of 150 at Cherry Hills . . . Deane Beman, British Amateur champion, is the only exempt player in the Washington area . . . Belle Haven Country Club officials have set 1 p. m. today as tee-off time in the replay of its four-ball invitation tournament final . . . Ronnie Righter and Keith Bowie, Prince Georges "Whizz Kids," play Billy Brownrigg and Larry Murphy of Manor in a match postponed because of heavy rains . . . Gen. Nathan Twining will have Gene Sarazen and Jess Sweetser as playmates in the celebrities foursome at the National Aviation Club's first golf tournament at Goose Creek Tuesday, June 7 . . . Harold Harwood and W. B. West won the qualifying medal in Columbia club's annual Cummings Cup event with 72 . . . the event is being played from scratch, the back tees and under summer rules . . . KIDS of every size, age and description, collect at Norbeck Country Club Monday for the qualifying trials in the 27th annual Invitational Schoolboy championship . . . The 16 low players will compose the championship flight . . . First rounds of match play will be held Tuesday at Kenwood, the second at Woodmont on Wednesday, the semifinals Thursday at Chevy Chase and the final Sunday, May 29, at 3 p. m. at Columbia Country Club . . . Billy Care, whose swat of 339 yards won a driving contest at the recent Norbeck member-guest tournament, drove the second green and made his putt for a deuce in a practice round . . . the hole measures 349 yards . . . the District Golf Association debuts its first annual senior two-man handicap tournament Thursday, May 26, at Argyle Country Club . . . Players of member clubs 55 years of age and over are eligible to enter . . . Brooke Manor is building pro Dewey Ricketts a new golf shop at the first tee . . . The locker room is being enlarged to contain 100 more lockers and eight new shower stalls.

A. G. (Otts) Dezendorf, playing with golf committee chairman Jim Geddes at Congressional, sank a 3-wood shot on the long eighth hole for an eagle.

WIFFY SMITH and Peggy Kirk Bell will play an exhibition match, Tuesday, May 24, at Andrews AFB . . . They will play with Harold Ridgley, 1957 British Amateur finalist and host club pro George Pigott in a nine-hole match at 5 p. m.

NEWS that Sam Snead would never again be allowed to play in the Greensboro (N. C.) Open as long as the event is held at Starmount Forest must have rustled the greenbacks in Old Sambo's money belt . . . Throwing Sam Snead off the premises in a golf tournament is like hanging a "no sale" sign on your ticket booths . . . Big victim of the affair is the Junior Chamber of Commerce which has a contract to play their tournament in 1961 and 1962 at Starmount . . . It seems a bit ridiculous that a baseball player can put the blast on a ball park with impunity but in golf, for some silly reason, it is considered unsporting to say a course is bad.

BUCKY SKINKER, 17-year-old son of Columbia Club's Earle Skinker, looks like a chip off the old block . . . Bucky hit two great wood shots on the par five 12th at Columbia the other day and then chipped in from off the green for an eagle . . . The University of Maryland-sponsored invitational schoolboy championship that was supposed to have been played yesterday was postponed because of state-wide school exams and was rescheduled for Wednesday, June 1 . . . Mary Ann Downey, former Walker Cup star from Baltimore Country Club, has decided to defend her Middle Atlantic amateur championship, June 1-2-3, at Washington Golf and Country Club . . . One of the finest fields in the history of the tournament is expected for the 54-hole medal play event . . . Entries close at 5 p. m., Friday, May 27.

33 Women Golfers Sign Up For Mid-Atlantic Tourney

George Taylor, secretary of the Middle Atlantic Golf Association, said today 33 players already have signed for the Middle Atlantic Women's golf championship to be played Wednesday through Friday of next week at Washington G&CC.

Friday at 5 p.m. is the entry deadline at the host club. Mrs D. R. Monsees is accepting entries.

The field includes Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore, the defending champion; Donna O'Brien, runnerup for the Virginia Amateur last year from Richmond; Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle, the District champion; and Jane Schiller of Salisbury, Md., medalist in the Maryland State last year.

The Evening Star Cup tournament of the Women's District Golf Association, Class B section, scheduled tomorrow at Manor Country Club, has been postponed until Friday.

The event was changed out of respect to the memory of Harry G. Pitt, one of the District's all-time golf greats from Manor, whose funeral will be held tomorrow.

The District Golf Association also switched its two-man senior invitation tournament from tomorrow until Thursday, June 9. Mr. Pitt, who died on Sunday, was a past president of the District Golf Association.

Kenwood's two-day member-guest tournament is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, with a record field already signed up. Play will be best ball, handicap.

Miss Downey Takes Middle Atlantic Golf Lead, 77

Schiller, Mrs. Cush Trail by Four Strokes

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Even a horrendous triple bogey 6 on acomparatively easy par 3 hole couldn't deter Mary Ann Downey's determined march to the first round lead in the women's Middle Atlantic amateur championship yesterday at Washington Golf and Country Club.

The former Curtis Cupper from Baltimore Country Club, seeking her fourth title, fired 77 over the hilly Virginia course and took a 4-stroke lead in the 54-hole medal play event.

Miss Downey, after going out in 40, bogied the 10th and then pulled her iron tee shot on the short 11th into the tall grass to the left of the green. She knocked her second shot over the green and was still short in 3.

Mary Ann Downey

Miss Downey finally made the putting surface in 4 and took 2 putts. Unperturbed, the defending champion birdied the 13th and 15th holes to return in 37.

Pretty 21-year-old Jane Schiller, a junior at the University of Maryland, and Mrs. Frank Cush, Maryland state amateur champion, were next in line with 81s.

Miss Schiller, winner of last year's Payne Cup, was 41-40, while Mrs. Cush reversed those figures.

Mrs. W. E. Howard of Argyle finished well back of the leaders with an 88 but gained some consolation in a hole-in-one she made on the same 11th hole where Miss Downey almost met her waterloo. Mrs. Howard was five over par on the par threes despite the hole-in-one she made with her trusty 6-iron.

Mrs. C. E. Richards of Baltimore finished in fourth place with twin nines of 42. Next were three 85s posted by Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, Mrs. Jess Nettles, Army Navy, and 16-year-old Janie Bostrom of Prince Georges.

Mrs. Konopa got off to a fine start with 39 on the front nine but floundered badly on the back for 46. Both Mrs. Nettles and Miss Bostrom were 41-44. Scores:

Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore	40	37	77

MRS. HOWARD HAS ACE

Miss Downey Clicks On Strange Course

Mary Ann Downey has two formulas for playing a tournament course, either know it well or play it blind. She used the latter in shooting a 77 at Washington Golf and Country Club yesterday for a 4-stroke lead in the first round of the Middle Atlantic Women's golf championship.

"I never had seen the course," the former Curtis Cup player from Baltimore said, "so there wasn't any use in coming over here Tuesday for one practice round. One look at a course is worthless in my opinion. All you learn is where the trouble is."

The only time Mary Ann might have doubted her theory was on the 135-yard 11th hole, where she was undecided as to what club to use, and finally picked a 7 iron, which was one too many. She took six on the short par three, but that must have raised her dander, because she played the next seven in one under men's par.

Tied for Second

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle and Jane Schiller of Salisbury, a junior at Maryland, tied for second with 81s, and the score was a very creditable one for Mrs. Cush, the Maryland State champion, after a discouraging start.

Mrs. Cush took six on the par four first, five on the par three second, and drove in the ditch on the third. But she rallied at that point and still is in contention.

Mrs. Wilson Howard of Argyle had the biggest thrill of the day, smacking a 6-iron shot true to the pin on the 135-yard 11th and it bounded into the cup for an ace. Mrs. Howard figured she had some luck coming on a par three, because she had taken an eight on the short second after two horrible lies. Mrs. John Connolly of the host club was Mrs. Howard's playing partner, and witnessed the ace.

Mrs. Konopa Has 39

Mrs. Claude Richards of the C. C. of Maryland in Baltimore trails with an 84 while in the 85 bracket are Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle, whose 39 was the best out-nine of the day; Mrs. Jess Nettles of Army Navy and Jane Bostrom, the junior star from Prince Georges. Mrs. Jim Swink of Belle Haven, Mrs. Don O'Brien of Richmond and Georgia Mae McKeever, the District champion from Argyle, had 86s.

Barbara Diggs of Manor, playing her first full round since last September, had 87. Barbara has been busy with her senior activities at American U.

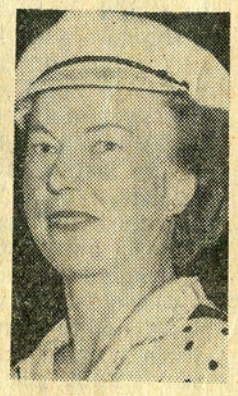

The second round was being played today and the final round tomorrow in the 54-hole medal play tournament being revived after a one-year lapse. Miss Downey won in 1957 and '58, the last two years the event was played.

Downey's Lead Cut to Stroke

Mrs. Cush Shoots 78 In Mid-Atlantic Golf

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

The walkaway predicted for Mary Ann Downey in the women's Middle Atlantic championship turned into a two-way battle yesterday at Washington Golf and Country Club when Mrs. Frank Cush posted 78 to be only a stroke behind the defending champion going into today's final round.

Mrs. Cush

The former Curtis Cup star from Baltimore Country Club started the day with a four stroke lead over Mrs. Cush but the Maryland State amateur champion's 39-39 erased three strokes from that advantage.

Miss Downey, who led the first day with 77, despite a triple bogey, had another one of those things yesterday, causing her to soar to 81 and a 36-hole 158 total. Playing the front nine in 40 for the second straight day, Miss Downey got her pars at 10 and 11 to be four strokes better at that juncture than she was on Wednesday.

At the par five 15th, Miss Downey drove into a parallel water hazard. After taking a penalty stroke to drop out, the Baltimore player who is seeking her fourth Middle Atlantic title, hit her ball back into the drink and ended up with an eight on the hole and a back nine of 41.

Mrs. Cush, who had sixes on the third and 15th holes, had a chance to actually take the lead but bogeyed both the 17th and 18th holes. The Argyle Club player's 159 score gave her a five stroke lead over Jane Schiller, who is third with 164.

The University of Maryland junior, who tied Mrs. Cush for second after an opening round of 81, took 41-42—83 in yesterday's second round to all but be eliminated from contention.

Tying for fourth at 167 were Mrs. C. E. Richards, Country Club of Maryland, and Mrs. Donald O'Brien, The Country Club of Virginia.

Mrs. Cush Is Stroke Off Pace in Mid-Atlantic

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle was Washington's lone hope to bring the Middle Atlantic women's golf title here for the second time since 1948 as she played in the final round today at Washington Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. Cush, the Maryland State champion from Argyle, rallied nicely for a 78, low round of the day, and second low round of the tournament, yesterday. She had a two-round total of 81-78—159. That was one stroke back of Mary Ann Downey, the defending champion from Baltimore Country Club, who had 77-81—158.

The District dominated the Middle Atlantic championship from the mid 1930s to the late 1940s, winning 10 of 13. But Mrs. Ann Barry was the last District player to win the title. That was in 1948.

Mrs. Cush, Maryland State champion in 1955 and District titlist in 1958, was five strokes ahead of the next closest player, Jane Schiller, the University of Maryland junior from Salisbury. Jane, who is going to work and plans to play only in the State amateur this summer, had a two-round total of 81-83—164.

Miss Downey's caddie blamed a yardage marker for Mary Ann's 81. He said her drive on the 15th was slicing back to the fairway when it hit the marker and bounded into a ditch. She took eight on the hole. Mary Ann, always a good sport, said she hit the drive poorly.

Mrs. Donald O'Brien of Richmond, Mrs. Edward C. Ferriday, jr., of Chevy Chase and Miss Downey tied for second low of the second day with 81s. Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. C. E. Richards of the Country Club of Maryland in Baltimore were tied for fourth with 167s.

In the handicap divisions for prizes, other than the championship, Jane Bostrom of Prince Georges and Mrs. James Swink of Belle Haven were 1-2 in Division II, Miss Bostrom with 85-86 and Mrs. Swink with a pair of 86s.

Mrs. J. N. Sweeney of Army Navy led Division III with 90-91—181, and Mrs. D. R. Monsees, the tournament chairman, was low in Division IC with 98-91—189.

Mrs. Cush Wins Mid-Atlantic Golf Title With 239

Downey Beaten by Three Shots

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Mrs. Frank Cush, who already has won the Maryland State and District Amateur title, added the Middle Atlantic championship to her collection yesterday at Washington Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. Cush, present Maryland state titlist, fired a third round of 80 for a 54-hole total of 239 and won her first Middle Atlantic title.

District champion in 1956 and Maryland state titlist in 1955 and 1959, Mrs. Cush captured the Middle Atlantic, a title the Argyle Club redhead has been trying to win for nearly a decade.

Mrs. Cush started her uphill climb to the title on Thursday when her 78 pulled her from behind a four stroke deficit and sent her into yesterday's final round only a stroke behind Mary Ann Downey, the defending champion. Miss Downey shot a final round of 84.

Three-putting the third, seventh and eighth greens, Mrs. Cush reached the turn in 41 strokes and was even with the former Curtis Cup star from Baltimore Country Club.

The new champion three-putted the 13th but rallied to finish the back nine in 39.

Miss Downey, seeking her fourth Middle Atlantic title, lost what chance she had of retaining her title by taking sixes at the 15th and 16th.

Miss Downey three-putted the sixth and seventh greens and was out in 42. She had trouble for the second straight day with the stream that parallels the 15th fairway and finished with six.

Visibly shaken by her misfortune at 15, Miss Downey put her drive in a trap at 16 and missed the ball completely in an attempt to dislodge the ball from a bad lie in the sand. She wound up with six.

Jane Schiller, pretty junior from the University of Maryland, finished third with 243, a stroke behind the floundering defending champion. Mrs. C. E. Richards of the Country Club of Maryland took fourth with 244. Results:

Victory Puts Mrs. Cush In Select Golf Group

Mrs. Frank Cush became the third District woman golfer to win the Maryland State, District and Middle Atlantic championships when the Argyle Country Club player won the latter title yesterday at Washington Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. Cush is two-time District champion and the present Maryland State titlist. The only other District players to win the three titles are Mrs. Betty Meckley of Kenwood, and Mrs. Ann Barry (no longer a resident here.

Mrs. Cush will have an opportunity to tie Mrs. Barry's record of holding the three titles at the same time when she competes in the District women's championship later this month at Army Navy.

The new Mid-Atlantic titlist had rounds of 81-78—80 for 239 and a three-stroke margin over the defending and three-time champion, Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore. The latter started with a 77, but in a rarity for her, played progressively worse, adding 81 and then 84 for 242.

Jane Schiller of Salisbury finished with a 79 for 243 and third place over Mrs. C. E. Richards of the Country Club of Maryland, whose 77 was the low round of the final day. Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle and Mrs. E. C. Ferriday, jr., of Chevy Chase had 79s on the last day. Miss Downey's opening 77 and Mrs. Cush's second-round 80 were the only sub-80 round of the tournament.

Mrs. Cush and Mrs. Konopa won the team title for Argyle with a 487 total. Mrs. Konopa was fifth with 248.

Mrs. James Swink of Belle Haven won Division II with rounds of 86-86-82 for 254. Mrs. N. I. Looney of Army Navy defeated her clubmate, Mrs. Jess Nettles, in a playoff for second. Mrs. Robert Williamson of Bethesda won Division III with a 266 total, and Mrs. D. R. Monsees of Washington won Division IV with 285.

Talented Golfers Challenge Mrs. Cush for State Title

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle opens defense of her Maryland State women's golf championship tomorrow at the Suburban Club of Baltimore, with the top talent in the State lined up against her.

Baltimore's big three of Mrs. Joseph Singhass, who recently won her second straight city title, Mrs. Maurice Glick, 10-time State women's champion, and Mary Ann Downey, the former Curtis Cup player, are entered. Jane Schiller, the 1958 Payne Cup champion from Salisbury, and last year's State medalist, also will compete.

Mrs. Singhass, runnerup to Mrs. Cush last year at Norbeck Country Club, played spectacular golf in winning the Baltimore title two weeks ago, and must be ranked as the favorite.

Georgia Mae McKeever, the 1959 District champion, Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle, and Barbara Diggs of Manor, are other top contenders in the District's eight-player delegation.

Tomorrow's 18-hole qualifying round will be followed by one round of match play daily through the finals on Friday. Ralph Beach, the host pro, said his course is in excellent condition.

Pairings of the District entries:

10:48—Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, and Barbara Diggs, Manor.

10:54 — Mrs. Roland DeLauney, Prince Georges, and Mrs. Hubert Slocum, Fountain Head.

11:12 — Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, and Mrs. William Bibby, Cumberland.

11:18—Mrs. J. R. Gessley, Court House; and Mrs. Richard Carvell, Chester River.

11:24—Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Goose Creek, and Mrs. A. C. Dick, Chester River.

11:30—Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, and Mrs. Claude Richards, C. C. of Maryland.

11:36—Mrs. George Olseon, Court House, and Mildred Ihrie, Rolling Road, and Mrs. Ernest Freiberger, Chestnut Ridge.

Mrs. Cush, McKeever, Barbara Diggs Win

BALTIMORE, June 28—Two down with five to play, Mrs. Frank Cush, of Argyle, the defending champion, rallied to defeat Mrs. Claude Richards, Country Club of Maryland, 2 and 1, in the first round of the Maryland Women's Amateur golf championship today at Suburban Country Club.

Mrs. Cush joins two other Washingtonians in Wednesday's second round. Barbara Diggs, of Manor, defeated Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Goose Creek, 2-up, and Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, won a 5 and 3 decision over Mrs. J. R. Gessley, Court House.

Seeking her third championship, Mrs. Cush saw her hopes fading when Mrs. Richards went two up with a par on the 11th and a birdie on the par-three 12th. She nearly went three down when she hit into the water on the 13th, but Mrs. Richards, normally an outstanding short player, three-putted and they halved in double bogies.

Mrs. Cush then won four straight, running in a 20-foot birdie putt on the par five 14th and a 15-footer for another birdie on the par four 15th.

Par threes on the next two when Mrs. Richards couldn't hit the greens brought Mrs. Cush's victory.

Mrs. Helen Konopa, also of Argyle, came from behind and took Mrs. Joseph Singhass, All View, to the 19th hole before bowing to a par.

Two down after 11, Mrs. Konopa won three of the next four to go one up, but lost 16 to a par and 17 to a birdie. She evened the match on the home hole with a par and sent the match into extra holes, one of two in the first round.

Mary Ann Downey, of the Baltimore Country Club, defeated Mrs. Charles Emrich, Rolling Road, in the other nineteen hole match.

FIRST ROUND RESULTS

Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, defeated Mrs. Claude Richards, Country Club of Maryland, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Redmond Stewart, Green Spring, defeated Midge Kaufman, Woodholme, 1-up.

Mrs. Joseph Singhass, All View, defeated Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, 1-up 19 holes.

Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, defeated Mary Alice Sawyer, Clifton Park, 2-up.

Jane Schiller, Salisbury, defeated Mrs. Gary Black, Green Spring, 6 and 4.

Barbara Diggs, Manor, defeated Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Goose Creek, 2-up.

Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, defeated Mrs. Charles Emrich, Rolling Road, 1-up 19 holes.

Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, defeated Mrs. J. R. Gessley, Court House, 5 and 3.

3 D. C. Golfers Play For Semifinal Berths

BALTIMORE, June 29 (Special). — Washington still had three survivors going into the Maryland State Women's golf championship quarter - final round today. This is a rarity when the tournament is played in Baltimore.

Mrs. Frank Cush, the defending champion from Argyle, was a solid favorite over Mrs. Redmond Stewart of Green Spring in the only quarter-final match not regarded as a toss-up.

Barbara Diggs of Manor, who returned to active golf three weeks ago at the completion of studies at American University, was a solid threat to Salisbury's Jane Schiller.

And, Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle, last year's District champion, who played the best golf of the first round yesterday at Suburban Club, figured to be a formidable opponent for Mary Ann Downey, the former Curtis Cup player. Miss McKeever had a 76 in defeating Mrs. J. R. Gessley of Court House, 5 and 3.

The other match will be a replay of the Baltimore City women's final of two weeks ago between Mrs. Joseph Singhass of All View, the winner, and Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme, the 10-time State champion.

Washington almost had a fourth quarter-finalist, but Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle lost on the first extra hole to Mrs. Singhass after twice coming from behind. Mrs. Konopa was two down after 11, squared the match, and then won 18 after falling behind a second time. She lost the first extra hole to a par four.

Miss Downey had to go 19 holes to beat Mrs. Charles Emrich of Rolling Road. Miss Schiller had the only easy match, winning 6 and 4 over Mrs. Gary Black of Green Spring.

Semifinals are scheduled tomorrow morning and the 18-hole finals on Friday.

Championship flight results:

Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, defeated Mrs. Claude Richards, Country Club of Maryland, 2 and 1; Mrs. Redmond Stewart, Green Spring, defeated Midge Kaufman, Woodholm, 1 up; Mrs. Joseph Singhass, All View, defeated Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, 1 up, 19 holes; Mrs. Maurice Glick, Woodholme, defeated Mary Alice Sawyer, Clifton Park, 2 up.

Jane Schiller, Salisbury, defeated Mrs. Gary Black, Green Spring, 6 and 4; Barbara Diggs, Manor, defeated Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Goose Creek, 2 up; Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, defeated Mrs. Charles Emrich, Rolling Road, 1 up, 19 holes; Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, defeated Mrs. J. Schiller Ousts Diggs in State Golf

McKeever, Cush Gain Semifinals

BALTIMORE, June 29—In one of the finest golf matches ever played in the 40 years of the Maryland State Golf Association's women's championship, Jane Schiller defeated Barbara Diggs 1-up in 19 holes at Suburban Club today.

Miss Schiller, 21-year-old University of Maryland student, was 2 over men's par of 70 for 18 holes. Miss Diggs, also 21, from Manor Country Club, had 74.

In other quarterfinal matches, Mrs. Frank Cush, defending champion from Argyle, defeated Mrs. Redmond Stewart, Green Spring, 3 and 2; Mrs. Maurice Glick, 10-time champion from Woodholme, turned back Mrs. Joseph Singhass, Baltimore City champion from All View, 2 and 1, and Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, came from behind to eliminate former Curtis Cupper Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, 2 and 1.

Miss Schiller made the nine-hole turn in one over women's par 37 but was three down to Miss Diggs' magnificent 34. The big red head parred seven holes on the front side and birdied the par-three fifth and he par-five eighth. On the fifth she sank a 15-foot putt and on the eighth a 40-footer.

After scoring another bogey on the 10th, Miss Schiller was four down. They halved the 11th and 12th with pars and Miss Schiller was four down with six to play.

On the 13th Miss Diggs hit her third shot into a pond and lost to a par. On the 14th she drove out of bounds and again lost to a par. After halving the 15th, a short par four, in pars, Jane dropped a 12-foot birdie putt on the 16th and cut her deficit to one down.

They halved the par-three 17th and Miss Schiller won the 18th when her opponent took three from the fringe of the green.

On the extra hole, Miss Schiller won with a five after Miss Diggs went over in two, mised two sand shots and failed to sink a five-foot putt.

FACING TOUGH OPPONENTS TODAY

Argyle Pair May Meet In State Golf Final

BALTIMORE, June 30 (Special)—Georgia Mae McKeever, the working girl from Argyle Country Club, and her close friend and clubmate, Mrs. Frank Cush, today were one match away from another meeting for a championship.

Georgia Mae met Jane Schiller of Salisbury in the semifinals of the Maryland State women's golf championship at Suburban. Mrs. Cush, the defending champion and medalist, met Mrs. Maurice Glick, 10-time state champion, in the other match.

The winners will meet for the title at 10:30 tomorrow morning.

Twice D. C. Finalists

Miss McKeever and Mrs. Cush twice were finalists in the District women's championship, Mrs. Cush winning in four extra holes in 1958, and Miss McKeever winning, 2 and 1, last year. In the 1959 Argyle women's championship finals, Miss McKeever won, 1 up.

But both faced formidable opponents today before they can qualify for another title match.

The last time Mrs. Cush played Mrs. Glick in the semifinals was in 1955, and Mrs. Cush won in what was a staggering upset at the time. Mrs. Cush went on to win the title that year, and added a second State title last year.

Miss McKeever is making a sharp comeback in her third big tournament of the year. Georgia Mae finished seventh in the Middle Atlantic, and lost in the first round in defense of her District title. But she came from behind to beat Mary Ann Downey, the former Curtis Cup player from Baltimore Country Club, 2 and 1, yesterday, and with steady play.

Sensational Round

Miss Schiller, her opponent today, might be in for a letdown after a sensational 19-hole victory over Manor's Barbara Diggs yesterday. Miss Schiller, the 21-year-old University of Maryland junior, shot a 72 for the regulation 18 and won the first extra hole with a bogey 5.

Miss McKeever came from behind to beat Miss Downey, who appears to be in for her least productive season in many years. Mary Ann was runnerup in the Middle Atlantic, lost early in the Baltimore women's tournament and was eliminated in the second round of the State. Miss McKeever's margin was 2 and 1.

Mrs. Glick avenged a final-round defeat in the recent Baltimore women's championship finals at the hands of Mrs. Joseph Singhass of All View with a 2 and 1 victory.

Mrs. Cush won, 3 and 2, over Mrs. Redmond Stewart of Green Spring Valley.

Miss Diggs, a bride-elect, was 4 up with six to play against Miss Schiller. The latter won the 13th when Barbara went in the water, the 14th when Barbara drove out of bounds, the 16th with a birdie two, and 18th with a par to set up the extra hole victory.

This is the third straight year that Miss Schiller, the cute, short - haired brunette from Salisbury, has reached the state semifinals. The Maryland student lost to Mrs. Cush last year and to Mrs. Charles Emrich the previous year.

Mrs. Glick Takes 11th Title In Maryland State Golf

Mrs. Maurice Glick of Woodholme in Baltimore is batting better than .500 against her much younger challengers this year, and at the same time adding to records that may never be broken.

Mrs. Glick won her 11th Maryland State women's golf title with yesterday's 5 and 4 triumph over Jane Schiller of Salisbury at Suburban Country Club in Baltimore. Mrs. E. Boyd Morrow won seven state women's titles between 1924 and 1933 to be second to Mrs. Glick in this department.

Two weeks ago, Mrs. Glick lost in the Baltimore City women's final to Mrs. Joseph Singhass, a young mother from Ellicott City. But in the State championship Mrs. Glick defeated Mary Ann Sawyer, 15-year-old public links player. Mrs. Singhass and Miss Schiller are part of the area's youth brigade.

Mrs. Glick passed up the Middle Atlantic women's championship. The only area event remaining of a championship nature is the 54-hole Payne Cup tournament October 4-6 at Congressional. Mrs. Glick may play in this, while Miss Schiller said her appearance would depend upon her classes at the University of Maryland.

Mrs. Glick qualified with an 80 in the Womens' State Amateur, four strokes higher than Mrs. Frank Cush, the medalist and defending champion from Argyle. Mrs. Glick had to go all the way to beat Miss Sawyer. She defeated Mrs. Singhass, 2 and 1, Mrs. Cush, 5 and 3, and Miss Schiller, 5 and 4.

Gorsuch Wins State Medal, 77

HOT SPRINGS, Va. July 25 (AP) — Connie Gorsuch won the qualifying medal in the Virginia State Golf Association's women's championship by three strokes today.

The 20-year-old Roanoke blonde fashioned a 77, five over women's par on the 5730-yard Cascades course. It was the second straight year she has been medalist.

Sydney Elliott of Charlottesville, winner of the tournament in 1952 and 1953 was one of three players tying for second place with 80. The others were Lanetta Ware of Richmond and Mrs. C. P. Phoebus of Arlington.

Tied with 81s were Mrs. Donald O'Brien of Richmond and Mrs. N. I. Looney of Arlington. The pairings:

Mary Patton Janssen, Charlottesville (exempt) vs. Donna O'Brien, Richmond (82).
Mrs. C. P. Phoebus, Arlington (80) vs. Mrs. William B. Pollard, Charlottesville (84).

4 Area Women Gain Title Flight In Virginia Golf

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 26 (AP).—Four players from the District area are in the title flight as match play begins in the Virginia Women's golf championship today at the Cascades course.

Connie Gorsuch of Roanoke won medal honors with a 77 yesterday. Mary Pat Janssen, defending and three - time champion from Charlottesville, was exempt from qualifying.

Mrs. C. P. Phoebus of Army Navy with an 80, Mrs. N. I. Looney of Army Navy with 81, Mrs. John Connolly of Washington Golf and Country Club with 87 and Mrs. Bruce Bollerman of Court House with 84, were the District-area qualifiers. Mrs. Connolly won her place in a playoff.

Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Washington G&CC won medal honors in the Virginia Women's Seniors' championship with an 81.

Championship flight pairings:

Mary Pat Janssen, Charlottesville (exempt) vs. Donna O'Brien, Richmond (82).

Egenroad, Moore Win

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 25 (AP) — Defending champion Mrs. R. B. Moore of Richmond and tournament medalist Mrs. C. L. Egenroad of Arlington led a field of eight survivors in today's first round matches in the senior division of the state women's amateur golf tournament.

Mrs. Moore played sharp golf to defeat Mrs. Joe Hill of Roanoke, 4 and 3, while Mrs. Egenroad built up a 5-up lead over Miss Harriet Rogers of Lynchburg at the end of the nine holes and then coasted to a 4 and 3 victory. Other results:

Mrs. Walter Hoesel, Staunton, def. Mrs. Trigg Scott, Radford, 4 and 3.
Dr. Carol Rice, Lynchburg, def. Mrs. W. J. McCorkindale, Roanoke, 3 and 1.
Mrs. Charles Baber, Lynchburg, def. Mrs. E. J. Keffer, 6 and 5.
Mrs. A. G. Simmonds, Arlington, def. Mrs. George Calvert, Arlington, 6 and 5.
Mrs. Hazel Teefer, Arlington, def. Mrs. R. C. Atherholt, Lynchburg, 4 and 3.
Mrs. J. G. Schnitzer, Arlington, def. Miss Betty Shields, Charlottesville, 2 and 1.

WEDNESDAY'S PAIRINGS—Mrs. Moore vs. Dr. Rice, Mrs. Baber vs. Mrs. Hoesel, Mrs. Egenroad vs. Mrs. Teeter, Mrs. Simmonds vs. Mrs. Schnitzer.

Janssen, Elliott Win Easily in State Golf

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 26 (AP)—With one exception, the 36th annual women's championship tournament of the Virginia State Golf Association went according to form here today.

The exception was a mild upset. Mrs. Ralph Petrone of Blacksburg eliminated Mrs. Donald O'Brien of Richmond, one of the favorites, 2 up.

Mary Pat Janssen

Mary Patton Janssen of Charlottesville, defending champion, breezed through her first round match over the Cascades course. She was one under women's par of 72 over the 5730-yard terrain for 12 holes in a 7 and 6 victory over 17-year-old Donna O'Brien of Richmond.

The two met in last year's final, Miss Janssen winning to take her third straight title.

Medalist Connie Gorsuch, a 5 up leader after nine holes, was given a scare but advanced with a 2 and 1 victory over Mrs. Lewis B. Rawls Jr. of Suffolk. Miss Gorsuch, who had a splendid 77 Monday, was out in 37, one over par, but parred only two of the eight holes on the back nine.

Two former champions from Charlottesville, Sydney Elliott and Mrs. William B. Pollard, are among the eight quarter-finalists who go into play Wednesday. The others are Lanetta Ware and Mrs. Glenn C. Knox, both of Richmond, and Mrs. N. I. Looney of Arlington.

Miss Elliott ousted Mrs. Bruce Bollerman of Fairfax, 4 and 3; Mrs. Knox used only 79 strokes over 18 holes in a 2 and 1 victory over Mrs. Bob Davis of Virginia Beach; Mrs. Pollard overcame Mrs. C. P. Phoebus of Arlington, 2 and 1; Miss Ware eliminated Mrs. Herbert L. Smith of Virginia Beach, 1 up; and Mrs. Looney beat Mrs. John S. Connelly of Arlington, 3 and 2.

Until Tuesday Mrs. Petrone, a pretty blue-eyed brunette, had not won a match in the state championship.

Mrs. Looney Playing For Semifinals Berth

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 27 (AP).—Reaching the quarter-finals of the Virginia State Golf Association Women's Amateur championship is a new experience for Mrs. Ralph Petrone of Blacksburg.

In fact, until yesterday, Mrs. Petrone never had won a match in the championship flight.

Today Mrs. Petrone came to grips with the 20-year-old tournament medalist, Connie Gorsuch of Roanoke, in the quarter-finals after staging the only surprise of yesterday's opening round.

Mrs. Petrone scored a 2-up victory over Richmond's Country Club of Virginia champion, Mrs. Donald O'Brien.

It was a bad day for the O'Briens, because 17-year-old Donna O'Brien took a 7-and-6 lacing from three-time defending champion Mary Pat Janssen of Charlottesville. The defeat was somewhat reminiscent of last year's championship match, when Miss Janssen walloped Miss O'Brien for the title.

The field of eight survivors included three players from Charlottesville's Farmington Country Club and two from Hermitage. Like Miss Janssen, the other Farmington players are former champions — Miss Sydney Elliott in 1949, 1952 and 1953 and Mrs. William B. Pollard in 1951.

The lower bracket paired today Mrs. Petrone against Miss Gorsuch and Miss Elliott against Mrs. Glenn C. Knox of Hermitage. In the upper bracket it was Miss Janssen against Miss Lanetta Ware of Hermitago and Mrs. Pollard against Mrs. N. I. Looney of Arlington.

Mrs. Knox posted a 79 over the par 72 layout, in a 2-and-1 victory over Mrs. Bob Davis of Virginia Beach yesterday. Miss Elliott won, 4 and 3, over Mrs. Bruce Bollerman of Fairfax.

Miss Ware emerged with a 1-up triumph over Mrs. Herbert L. Smith of Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Pollard scored a 2-and-1 triumph over Mrs. C. P. Phoebus of Arlington, while Mrs. Looney was a 3-and-2 winner over another Arlington entrant, Mrs. John S. Connelly.

Miss Gorsuch pulled out a 2-and-1 verdict over Mrs. Lewis B. Rawls, jr., of Suffolk.

Four Arlington Women Gain Senior Golf Quarter-Finals

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 27 (AP) — The defending champion, Mrs. R. B. Moore of Richmond, and the medalist, Mrs. C. L. Egenroad of Arlington, still seemed the players to beat as the senior division of the State Women's Amateur golf tournament moved into the quarter-final stage today.

Mrs. Moore went against Dr. Carol Rice of Lynchburg and Mrs. Charles Baber of Lynchburg met Mrs. Walter Hoesel of Staunton in today's matches in the upper bracket.

In the lower bracket, Mrs. Egenroad battled Mrs. Hazel Teeter of Arlington and Mrs. A. G. Simmonds of Arlington was paired against Mrs. J. G. Schnitzer, also of Arlington.

Upper bracket opening round matches yesterday saw Mrs. Moore defeat Mrs. Joe Hill of Roanoke, 4 and 3; Dr. Rice eliminate Mrs. W. J. McCorkindale of Roanoke, 3 and 1; Mrs. Baber crush Mrs. E. J. Keffer of Roanoke, 6 and 5; and Mrs. Hoesel whip Mrs. Trigg Scott of Radford, 4 and 3.

The first round in the lower bracket saw Mrs. Egenroad sideline Miss Harriet Rogers of Lynchburg, 4 and 3; Mrs. Teeter top Mrs. R. C. Atherholt of Lynchburg, 4 and 3; Mrs. Simmonds beat Mrs. George Calvert of Arlington, 6 and 5; and Mrs. Schnitzer nip Miss Betty Shields of Charlottesville, 2 and 1.

Janssen, Pollard, Elliott Win

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 27 (AP)—Three former champions and a Cinderella player shot their way into the semifinals of the 36th annual Women's Championship Tournament of the Virginia State Golf Association today.

The Cinderella player is Mrs. Ralph Petrone, pretty blue-eyed brunette from Blacksburg.

Mrs. Petrone rallied to eliminate the medalist, 20-year-old Connie Gorsuch of Roanoke, 2 and 1.

Defending champion Mary Patton Janssen and former winners Sydney Elliott and Mrs. William B. Pollard, all from the Farmington Country Club, Charlottesville, round out the semifinals.

Between them the trio has won seven Virginia titles, Miss Janssen having won the last three consecutively. Miss Elliott won in 1949, 1952, and 1953. Mrs. Pollard won in 1951.

Mrs. Pollard won 1 up over Mrs. N. I. Looney of Arlington, taking the final hole with a par three.

Miss Elliott scored an 8 and 7 verdict over Mrs. Glenn C. Knox of Richmond.

Miss Janssen eliminated Lanetta Ware, also of Richmond, 7 and 5.

Miss Elliott won the first three holes with pars. After halving the next three, she chipped from the rough and holed a short birdie putt to go 4 up at the seventh. Pars won the next four holes.

Egenroad, Rice Reach Semifinals

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 27 (AP)—Dr. Carol Rice of Lynchburg provided the shocker in the women's seniors golf tournament over the Homestead course today by bouncing defending champion Mrs. R. B. Moore of Richmond, 4 and 3.

The medalist, Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Arlington, had a tight squeeze before finally triumphing over Mrs. Hazel Teeter of Arlington, 2 up.

Dr. Rice's opponent Thursday is another Lynchburg, Mrs. Charles Baber, who played near spotless golf in spite of a steady downpour and won over Mrs. Walter Hoesel of Staunton, 5 and 4.

The other semifinalist is Mrs. A. G. Simmonds of Arlington, who defeated fellow Washington Golf and Country Club member Mrs. J. S. Schnitter, 4 and 3.

Thursday she plays Mrs. Egenroad, who also hails from the Washington Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. Moore had Dr. Rice one down at the end of nine, but then ran into a succession of bad shots to lose the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th. She conceded the 15th to end the match.

Miss Janssen Can Tie Mark Winning State Amateur

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 28 (AP).—Seven times in the last 11 years, the Women's amateur champion of the Virginia State Golf Association has come from the Farmington Country Club at Charlottesville.

When the 36-hole title match of this 36th annual tournament comes to a close tomorrow over the Cascades Course, chances are the Farmington record will be even better.

As this year's tourney went into the semifinal round today, three of the survivors were from Farmington — and that trio holds among them the seven titles the Charlottesville club has won.

One of the semifinal matches two of the Charlottesville ladies—Miss Mary Pat Janssen, who has won the last three championships, against Mrs. William B. Pollard, the 1951 victor.

The other semifinal encounter sends Charlottesville's Miss Sydney Elliott — the champion in 1949, 1952 and 1953—against the lone outsider and the tourney's dark-horse, Mrs. Ralph Petrone of Blacksburg.

By winning this year, Miss Janssen could equal the record of four straight victories run up in 1934-37 by Lily Harper Martin of Portsmouth. The sister of 1950 PGA Champion Chandler Harper later won three more titles and holds the record for state titles—seven.

Mrs. Petrone rallied to eliminate the medalist, 20-year-old Connie Gorsuch of Roanoke, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Pollard won, 1 up, over Mrs. N. I. Looney of Arlington.

Miss Elliott was in command all the way in the tournament's most one-sided victory thus far—an 8 and 7 verdict over Mrs. Glenn C. Knox of Richmond.

Miss Elliott, Janssen Gain State Final

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 28 (AP)—Two veteran players, Mary Patton Janssen and Sydney Elliott, both of Charlottesville, reached the final round of the 36th annual Virginia State Golf Association's women's championship today.

They meet in a scheduled 36-hole final Friday over the 5730-yard Cascades Course.

Continuing the terrific pace she set through two earlier rounds, Miss Janssen matched women's par 72 for the 14 holes she played in a 6 and 4 victory over Mrs. William Pollard, also of Charlottesville, on Thursday.

Miss Elliott was out in 39, three over women's par, in a 4 and 3 victory over Mrs. Ralph Petrone, the tournament darkhorse from Blacksburg. Mrs. Petrone had eliminated the tournament medalist, Connie Gorsuch of Roanoke, in the quarterfinals.

Although each has won the state championship three times, Misses Janssen and Elliott never before have met in a final round. They have come to grips on a number of earlier occasions, the last being the semifinals of the 1959 tournament at Richmond. Miss Janssen won then.

Winner of the last three state women's titles, Miss Janssen seeks her fourth. Miss Elliott won the crown in 1949, 1952 and 1953.

Mrs. Egenroad Reaches Finals

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 29 (AP).—The golfing Babers of Lynchburg made a bid here today to bring two major State championships into a single family for the first time in history.

A little over three weeks ago, Ned Baber took the men's amateur title at the Cascades course. This morning his mother, Mrs. Charles Baber, tried for the Senior Women's title at the nearby Homestead course.

The other finalist was Mrs. Madeline Egenroad of Arlington.

Mrs. Baber reached the final yesterday with a 3and 2 victory over a fellow Lynchburg resident, Dr. Carol Rice.

Mrs. Egenroad simultaneously was putting out Mrs. A. G. Simmonds, her good friend from Arlington, 6 and 5.

Four consecutive pars on the third, fourth, fifth and sixth holes gave Mrs. Egenroad an early advantage over Mrs. Simmonds and it wasn't close thereafter. Mrs. Simmonds won only one hole—the eighth.

Mrs. Egenroad May Skip Senior Golf Title Defense

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 30 (AP).—Mrs. Madeline Egenroad of Arlington finally found a crown to fit her in Virginia Women's golf, but she may not wear it long.

After three trips to the finals of the State Women's Amateur without a championship to show for it, Mrs. Egenroad yesterday won the title in the Women's Seniors tournament on her first try.

But almost immediately after her narrow 2 and 1 victory over Mrs. Charles Baber of Lynchburg in the finals over the Homestead course, Mrs. Egenroad indicated she may try again with the younger girls next year.

"If next year's women's championship is played on an easier course than the Cascades, I may participate in it," said the new senior titlist, who doesn't like the Cascades because it's too long and taxing.

Since the women's championships are scheduled next year at Farmington in Charlottesville, Mrs. Egenroad might abdicate her Seniors championship without even one defense.

The Arlington woman had to come from two holes behind to defeat Mrs. Baber, whose son, Ned, won the State men's title over the Cascades earlier this month.

Mrs. Baber won the fourth and fifth holes to go two up, but wins on the sixth and ninth holes squared it for Mrs. Egenroad and after that Mrs. Baber never was ahead again.

Mrs. Egenroad won the 10th with a bogey 5 to go one up, made it two up by capturing the 15th with a bogey six, lost the 16th, but closed out the skirmish when Mrs. Baber hit the trees on the 17th.

"I was lucky to win," Mrs. Egenroad said modestly. "I had the 'senior' jitters . . . I couldn't putt worth a darn."

"It was a pleasure to play Mrs. Egenroad and I think I learned a lot," said Mrs. Baber, who never had reached the finals before.

Mary Janssen Romps, 15 and 13

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 29 (AP)—Mary Patton Janssen of Charlottesville successfully defended her Virginia women's golf championship today, winning by what is believed to be the most one-sided margin ever.

She defeated Sydney Elliott, also of Charlottesville, 15 and 13, in a scheduled 36-hole match over the 5730-yard Cascades course. Women's par is 72.

Miss Janssen thus became the second player ever to win as many as four Virginia state women's championships and also the second to win four straight.

Not until the 21st hole did Miss Elliott win a hole. That, incidentally, was the only hole she won. She took it with a conceded three, with the ball 15 feet from the cup.

Miss Janssen hooked her tee shot onto the side of a bank at the left of the fairway, had a bad lie and barely got off the edge of the rough. She then hit a tree and followed by skulling her pitch, sending the ball over the green from a bad lie.

Although she did not play as sharply and did not score as well as she did in earlier matches, Miss Janssen needed only 75 strokes in this morning's 18 holes in order to gain a 13-up advantage. Her opponent, playing perhaps her poorest competitive round ever in this championship, took 91 strokes.

FOUR STATE GOLF TITLES IN ROW

Mary Pat Janssen Proves She's Master of Cascades

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 30 (AP).—Mary Patton Janssen, queen of Virginia women's golf for a fourth straight year, headed for home in Charlottesville today with only one small regret.

Looking ahead to the rest of the tournaments she will enter before the summer's over, Miss Janssen found herself regretting they won't be played over the Cascades Course of which she's undisputed master.

"I do love this Cascades course. I'd like to play it every day," the Charlottesville swatter said.

Her love affair with the tortuous mountain course isn't hard to explain. Two of her four State titles have been won here, and each has seemed to come with an absolute minimum of effort.

The effort reached almost the vanishing point yesterday as Miss Janssen assured herself the 1960 women's championship with a colossal 15 and 13 rout of her Charlottesville friend, Sydney Elliott, herself a three-time winner.

The 15 and 13 margin was the greatest in the long history of the VSGA Women's Amateur and it happened not only because Miss Janssen, for all her modesty, played well but because Miss Elliott played poorly in the finale.

In the morning, Miss Janssen sped around the women's par 72 course in 75 while Miss Elliott, erratic all the way, skied to a 91. That left Miss Janssen 13 holes in front after only 18 holes of the scheduled 36-hole showdown match, so it was actually all over before lunch.

The next tournament for Miss Janssen probably will be the 54-hole Farmington Invitational August 9-11, a medal play event she has won once.

She also wants to play in the women's national tournament next month at Tulsa but says she doesn't know "about taking that much time away from my work."

She's the secretary to Judge T. Munford Boyd, law professor at the University of Virginia.

Three Tie For Payne Golf Lead

Mrs. Maurice Glick, defending champion in the annual Maryland State Golf Association 54-hole tournament for the Payne Cup, fired an opening round of 79 yesterday at Congressional Country Club but had to share the lead with Mrs. C. E. Richards and Georgia Mae McKeever.

Mrs. Glick, veteran tournament campaigner from Baltimore's Woodholme Country Club, was 41 on the front nine and 38 on the back.

Mrs. Richards, Country Club of Maryland golfer, played the much tougher front nine in 38 but then took 41 on the back, while Miss McKeever of Argyle Country Club was 39-40.

Mrs. C. L. Jewett of the host club pulled up into third place with 40, 41—81. Then at 82 came Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, and Mrs. Bruce Bollerman, Court House, winner of last spring's Keefer Cup tournament.

Mrs. Lloyd Dennis of Washington, competing in the second division, was the surprise package of the day. Mrs. Dennis posted an 83 and was bracketed alone in seventh place in the chase for the title but was leader in her division.

The strangest reversal of form was produced by Barbara Diggs of Manor. Miss Diggs, taking an eight on the first hole, was out in 48 but then returned in 37, the lowest nine hole score of the day.

Other leaders were: Mrs. Helen Konopa, Argyle, 41, 44—85; Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, 43, 42—85; Nina Crampton, Congressional, 43, 43—86; Mrs. Jack Smith, Prince Georges, 42, 44—86; Mrs. William Bibby, Cumberland, 44, 42—86; Mrs. N. I. Looney, Army Navy, 42, 45—87; Mrs. Fred Phillips, Army Navy, 44, 44—88; Mrs. Hartwell MacCarteney, Chevy Chase, 44, 44—88; Mrs. Walter Goodrich, Court House, 40, 48—88; Mrs. Frank Griffith, 42, 46—88.

Mrs. Glick Is Seeking Her Sixth Payne Cup

THE EVENING STAR Washington, D. C. Thursday, October 6, 1960

Mrs. Maurice Glick, seeking to become the first player to win six Payne Cup tournaments, hoped to open up a lead in the second round of the 54-hole medal play tournament today at Congressional Country Club.

Mrs. Glick, Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle and Mrs. Claude Richards of the Country Club of Maryland in Baltimore had 79s in the first round yesterday over the new nine and the old back nine. Congressional's front nine is torn up for a major revamping job.

Mrs. Glick has won the Payne Cup, major medal play tournament for the Maryland State Golf Association's women golfers, in 1947-49-51-52 and last year. She is from Woodholme in Baltimore. Mary Ann Downey, who is not competing, won five straight, starting in 1953.

Mr. C. L. Jewett of Congressional, the only area player to win a match in the National Amateur at Congressional last year, had an 81 over her home course. Mrs. Frank Cush, the Middle Atlantic champion, and Mrs. Bruce Bollerman, the new Court House champion, had 82s.

Mrs. Lloyd Dennis of Washington had an 83 and appears almost certain of winning a daily low net prize as she is in the second division. Barbara Diggs, the Manor champion, came back in 37 after a 48 for 85, a score matched by Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle and Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring.

The tournament concludes tomorrow.

McKeever Leads in Women's Golf

Diggs Next In Play for Payne Cup

By Maury Fitzgerald
Staff Reporter

Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle moved into undisputed possession of the lead in the 54-hole Maryland State Golf Association Payne Cup tournament yesterday at Congressional with a 36-hole score of 160.

Miss McKeever, former District amateur champion, had 81 yesterday and goes into today's final round with a two-stroke lead over Barbara Diggs of Manor and Mrs. C. E. Richards of the Country Club of Maryland.

Miss Diggs fired the tournament's low round yesterday and her 77 put her in a strong challenging position.

Miss McKeever, whose opening round of 79 put her in a tie with Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Maurice Glick, defending champion, took 40 on the first nine and 41 on the second to take over first place.

Mrs. Richards was 40-43-83, and Mrs. Glick, Maryland state amateur champion from Baltimore's Woodholme Club, skidded into a fifth place tie at 166 with a second of 87.

Mrs. Frank Cush, former District and Maryland state champion from Argyle, had a second straight 82 and is only four strokes off the pace. Mrs. Cush overcame a similar lead earlier in the year in winning the Middle Atlantic title.

Ellen Konopa of Argyle had 81 to be bracketed in fifth place with Mrs. Glick. Next at 170 came Mrs. Lloyd Dennis, Washington, who had 87, Mrs. C. L. Jewitt, Congressional, 89, Mrs. Jack Smith, Prince Georges, 84 and Mrs. Bruce Bollerman, Court House, who slipped to 88.

Mrs. William Bibby of Cumberland had a second round 85 and was in 11th place with 171.

Barbara Diggs Stages Rally for Payne Cup

Barbara Diggs, Manor Country Club women's golf champion, is making one of the season's finest comebacks in the Payne Cup tournament at Congressional and is threatening the leader, Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle.

Finals of the 54-hole tourney, will be played today with Miss McKeever, last year's District women's champion, leading the field. Miss McKeever had an 81 yesterday, coupled with an opening round of 79 for a total of 160.

Two strokes back at 162 were Miss Diggs and Mrs. Claude E. Richards of the Country Club of Maryland, the Baltimore Titleholders champion.

Miss Diggs, who started Wednesday with 8-7-4 as against a par of 4-4-3 and at that point trailed Miss McKeever by eight strokes, came back strong. She had a 48 for the first nine, but a 37 coming in gave her an 85. Yesterday she was the only player to break 80, posting a 39-38—77.

Biggest surprise of the tourney, sponsored by the Maryland State Golf Association, was the 87 by Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore's Woodholme Club, a five-time winner of this event and an 11-time State champion. Mrs. Glick, who has been working on a new swing and is having her troubles, had an opening round of 79 and has a 166 total for a tie for fifth place. She is tied with Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle who had an 81 yesterday.

While Mrs. Glick slipped, Mrs. Frank B. Cush of Argyle, former District and Maryland State champion, had her second straight 82 for a 164 total and fourth place.

At 170 were Mrs. Lloyd Dennis of Washington Golf and Country Club, Mrs. C. L. Jewett of Congressional and Mrs. Bruce Bollerman of Court House.

Captures Payne Cup With 240

Mrs. Konopa Second, 241

Georgia Mae McKeever of Argyle shot an 80 yesterday at Congressional and captured the Maryland State Golf Association's Payne Cup with a 54-hole total of 240.

Helen Konopa of Argyle fashioned a 75 yesterday for a 3-day score of 241 for second place.

Mrs. Bruce Ballerman, Court House, 82, 88, 85—255 won the second division title over Mrs. Lloyd Dennis, Washington, 83, 87, 88—258.

In the third division, Mrs. James Davis, Westbriar, 92, 91, 90—273, finished three strokes in front of Mrs. J. H. Blades, Kenwood, 93, 94, 89—276.

Area Women Golfers Told Of Expansion Problems

Members of the Women's District Golf Association were alerted to future expansion possibilities at the annual election meeting yesterday at Chevy Chase Club.

A map of the Greater Metropolitan Washington area showing the location of the 17-member clubs and the eight new non-member clubs now in play, was prominently displayed. The original draft was made by Mrs. W. J. Ely of Army Navy, and the complete draft by Mrs. Richard Goodridge of Bethesda.

The problem confronting the women golfers is that fields for their 23 cup tournaments already are overcrowded. The addition of new clubs only adds to the scheduling difficulties because of the increased number of players.

The WDGA's area, as outlined in its construction, now includes only one of the eight new clubs—White Oak in Falls Church, a nine-hole course. The other clubs are outside the organization's borders.

The association considers applicants for membership only at its executive committee meeting in September. This means the present membership will be intact at least through 1961. It may be several years before a new club is admitted.

Mrs. Arnold O. Babb of Bethesda Country Club was installed as president, succeeding Mrs. Paul H. Streit of Chevy Chase. Mrs. Streit received several gifts from members for her services during her two years in office.

There are two new vice presidents. Mrs. Anthony Litrento of Prince Georges, last year's tournament chairman, is first vice president and Mrs. J. O. Beckner of Army Navy is second vice president.

The secretary, Mrs. Frank K. Smith of Congressional and the treasurer, Mrs. Roy S. Lindgren of Kenwood, were re-elected.
