"Who won?"

WEEKEND NON-GOLFER

No sunny Saturday arrives,
Inducing dreams of putts and drives,
But what friend wife turns up to speak
Of plans devised throughout the week
Involving house and yard and soil,
Myself, and hours and hours of toil.

And so the hands I trained to move
The clubhead through its perfect
groove
Now grimly grip a spade instead,
Or throttle weeds I thought were dead,
Or herd the aphids off a rose,
Or wrestle mowers, rakes and hoes.

The pars I planned go down the drain
As I repair a fractured pane.
Unerring putts are shattered dreams:
The shutters thirst for paint, it seems.
And rounds like Palmer never got
I, too, get not: The roof is shot.

. . . Wife, house and garden, yard and weed
Are all the handicap I need.

GOLF IS A WAY OF LIFE

The other night at dinner
A lady sat next to me,
And the state of her displeasure
Was very plain to see.

She was upset with her husband
But ashamed a little, too,
And before the meal was over
She asked me what to do.

For her hubby is a golfer,
Who plays once a week at eight
And who takes so long to do it
That he always gets home late.

He leaves early, so she told me,
With a broad grin on his face
And he drags home tired and grumpy,
Of good humor—not a trace.

When he wins, and that is seldom,
He will boast the whole week through,
When he's licked, and that is frequent,
Groan and grunt's all he can do.

So she asked me as if puzzled,
What sort of game is this
That takes 12 hours to play it
And leaves things so amiss?

Can't he play it like a bridge game
Or like tennis or croquet,
Must he be so deadly serious
After every golfing day?

I said, Madam, there is something here
You obviously do not know
So I'm going to inform you
And I hope I'm going to show
That when one becomes a golfer
Something happens deep inside
So that forever after
He is hooked, addicted, tied.

For golf is not a game, my dear,
And to be a proper wife
It's important that you understand
That golf's a way of life.

It's a primal sort of contest
Where a man can fight and die,
Where his spirit soars, then falls to ground
Where brave men sometimes cry.

Golf is war with all its horrors
And the enemy lies within
And you fight him every single shot
Though you very seldom win.

And the enemy has weapons,
Known as slices, shanks and hooks,
And you'll never never beat him
with the things you learn from books.

So dear Madam just remember
When he leaves at break of day
That his ego takes a smashing
And for this he has to pay.

And if he has a drink or two
And comes home looking sad
It's not because he's wicked,
Doesn't love you or is bad.

It's because he is a golfer,
And to be a better wife
It's important that you understand
That golf's a way of life!

RULES AND REGULATIONS
OF THE
1965 W.D.G.A. TEAM MATCHES

METHOD OF DIVISION

The Club teams, comprised of six players each, shall be divided into Divisions consisting of seven (7) teams each.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to participate in Team Match Play, a player must be a full member of the W.D.G.A.

At any time after the submission of original line-ups and additional players therefor, any club member who joins the W.D.G.A. may be used as a substitute, PROVIDED she meets the team play requirements as set forth.

DEADLINE FOR TEAMS

Clubs must submit their proposed teams with the names of their regular team members and their District handicaps, with differential, by February 15th to the District Team Chairman. Any subsequent changes may be made only with the approval of the District Team Chairman and the Second Vice President. A Club which submits more than one team must place its regular team members in thos teams according to handicap.

COMPOSITION OF DIVISIONS

The seven (7) teams with the lowest total aggregate handicaps will comprise the First Division; the next lowest seven (7) teams the Second Division; and so on. The last Division shall consist of no less than five (5) teams. Every Club may field as many teams as possible, with no Club being able to field more than three teams before all others have had the opportunity to field their teams.

No Club shall have two (2) teams in the same division. The Club Team Captain is permitted to (a) combine two teams to compose only one team, or (b) replace regular team members with any qualified player, or players, so that the team falls into another division.

WINNERS

At the end of the season's play, the team in each Division winning the most number of points will be the winner of that Division. The team winning the next most number of points in each Division will be the runner-up of that Division. The winner of the First Division will be the District Team Champion. In case of a tie for first place, there will be an 18-hole playoff at a date to be set by the District Team Chairman and the Second Vice President. If still tied after 18 holes, there will be a sudden death playoff of all brackets. A tie for second place will be decided the last day of play by a sudden death playoff of all brackets.

REGULAR TEAM MATCH REPLACEMENTS

When submitting team line-ups each Club shall submit the names of at least twice as many additional players as it has teams, i.e., if a Club has three (3) teams, submit the names of at least six (6) additional players. Of these players, there must be one for each team with a handicap not more than three (3) points higher than that of the original Regular Member of that team with the highest handicap.

Should a replacement be needed for a Regular Team Member before Team Match Play begins, such a qualified player will be accepted, even though the total aggregate handicap of the team might otherwise remove them from their Division. However, another increase in the total aggregate handicap of this team will not be permitted.

Army Navy Women Capture Third Straight Team Crown

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Army Navy Country Club settled for a 4½-4½ tie with the Country Club of Fairfax yesterday at Argyle in the final round of the Women's District Golf association team championship and won its fourth title by a comfortable margin of 7½ points.

The Virginia service club amassed a total of 35½ points in seven matches collecting its third successive championship. Army Navy won its first round-robin title in 1960.

Argyle, four-time winner and champion the year before Army Navy started its streak, was idle yesterday but two surprising upsets gave the host team second place with 28 points.

Chevy Chase, the only team with a chance of overhauling Army Navy in the final, dropped a 6-3 decision to Washington and Brooke Manor won by the same score from favored Indian Spring.

Chevy Chase, a two-time titlist, dropped into third place with 27½ points. The Country Club of Fairfax wound up fourth with 26½ points and Washington followed with 25½.

Indian Spring dropped into sixth place with 23½ points and Brooke Manor was last with 22½.

Army Navy's entry also won the second division title. The service club edged Kenwood in the final, 5-4, and the trophy by eight points.

The Country Club of Fairfax carried off the third division title without swinging a stick. Fairfax clinched the title in last week's sixth round with 40 points and, as the host club, was idle yesterday.

Washington was the fourth team divisional winner. Washington beat Norbeck in yesterday's final and finished the season with 38½ points.

The fifth division title went to Belle Haven with 43 points. Congressional won a three-way playoff from Bethesda and Washington for second place. Results:

Army Navy Women Take Team Lead Despite Tie

With only two matches remaining, Army-Navy Country Club forged into the lead in the sixth round of the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Chevy Chase Club.

The defending champions luckily gained a 4½ to 4½ stalemate with Brooke Manor and only carelessness on the part of their opponents saved Army Navy from suffering an unexpected loss.

Two Brooke Manor players putted on the final green, each leaving a "gimme" putt. Both players picked up without putting out and their carelessness cost them the back nine point.

Army Navy went into yesterday's match on even terms with Chevy Chase but the host club team drew a bye and dropped back into second place.

In the other matches, Argyle turned back Washington, 6-3, and Indian Spring won by the same score from the Country Club of Fairfax. Standings and results.

Army Navy Women Tie for Team Lead

Army Navy Country Club joined Chevy Chase Club at the top of the standings in the Women's District Golf Association team championship at Indian Spring but the defending titlists have played one less match than Chevy Chase.

The Virginia service club team became a shareholder of the lead by toppling Washington in a fifth-round match, 7 to 2. Chevy Chase was upset by the Country Club of Fairfax, 6½ to 2½.

Chevy Chase draws a bye in Thursday's sixth round and Army Navy needs only a score in its match with Washington to regain the lead. Each team now has 21 points.

In the other match played yesterday, Argyle and Brooke Manor battled to a 4½ to 4½ stalemate. Standings and results:

Army Navy Blanks Argyle As Women's Team Golf Starts

Defending champion Army Navy got off to a running start yesterday, shutting out usually strong Argyle in the opening match of the Women's District Golf Association team championships at Country Club of Fairfax.

In other first-division matches, Washington defeated Brooke Manor, 6½-2½, and Chevy Chase tied 1965 runner-up Indian Spring, 4½-4½.

Washington, without a first-division team last year, has replaced Belle Haven because of the lower handicaps at the Arlington club.

Mrs. W. P. Barrow, Mrs. I. W. Elliott, Mrs. F. J. Griffith and Mrs. R. A. Chapman, members of the Army Navy team last year, have been joined by two new competitors, Mrs. W. L. Lewis and Mrs. R. E. Lee. Mrs. Lewis has a handicap of eight, although it has been lower, and Mrs. Lee's handicap is 10.

Mrs. Barrow teamed with Mrs. Lewis yesterday against former Maryland champion Mrs. Frank Cush and Mrs. W. C. Howard. Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Lee blanked Mrs. M. R. Shiff and Mrs. Helen Hanson. Results:

Chevy Chase Women Blank Brooke Manor

Chevy Chase Club took a giant step toward turning the Women's District Golf Association team championship into a horse race yesterday, blanking Brooke Manor at Washington, 9-0.

The clean sweep put Chevy Chase into the lead with a total of 18½ point for three matches.

Army Navy, defending champions, ran into unexpected trouble with Indian Spring and had to settle for a 5-4 victory. The service club team now has a total of 14 points but has played only two matches.

The 1965 champions blanked Argyle in the opening match and appeared destined to turn the event into a runaway. However, Army Navy, idle last week as the host team, was able to gain an advantage in only one of the three foursome matches yesterday.

In the other match, Argyle defeated The County Club of Fairfax, 6-3. Standings and results:

Washington, Indian Spring Tie in Women's Team Golf

Washington Golf and Country Club battled Indian Spring to a 4½-4½ stalemate yesterday in the second round of the Women's District Golf Association team championship.

The Virginia club team now has a total of 11 points for two matches and moved into first place, at least temporarily. Defending champion Army Navy, as the host team, drew a second-round bye.

Army Navy handed Argyle a humiliating 9-0 whitewashing last week and appears destined to win back-to-back titles.

In the other matches, Brooke Manor surprised the Country Club of Fairfax, 5-4, and Chevy Chase edged Argyle by the same score. Results:

Miss Downey Wins Amateur Golf Crown

Special to The Washington Post

BALTIMORE, June 4—Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, defeated Mrs. Thomas Konopa of Argyle, 3 and 2, at the Suburban Club today in the final of the Maryland State Women's Amateur golf championship.

Mrs. Konopa, making her best showing in a major tournament, rallied from five down after ten holes and took three of the next five holes.

She lost on the 16th when she missed the green and couldn't match Miss Downey's par.

It was the fourth title for Miss Downey, a former Curtis Cup player, since 1949. Mrs. Konopa never had gone beyond a semifinal round previously, although she consistently has been listed as a threat in Maryland and District of Columbia tournaments.

Miss Downey won the first, sixth, seventh and eighth holes to go 4-up at the turn. She shot a 40 to Mrs. Konopa's 45.

After Miss Downey won the tenth with a bogey five, Mrs. Konopa won the 12th, 14th and 15th holes. The match ended on the 16th when Mrs. Konopa knocked her second shot over the green, chipped back well but missed a ten-foot putt. Miss Downey was on in two and two-putted from 35 feet for the victory.

Mrs. Bociek Captures Maryland Golf Medal

BALTIMORE, May 31—Mrs. Stanley Bociek of the Sparrows Point Country Club carded 42-41—83 at the Suburban Club Amateur golf championship today.

Both Mrs. Maurice Glick, an 11-time winner from Woodholme, and Mary Ann Downey, former Curtis Cup player from the Baltimore County Club, had 84s.

Five members of the seven-woman Washington-area delegation won berths in the championship flight which begins match play Wednesday. The final is set for Saturday morning.

Lynn Mercer, young Kenwood star, posted an 86 despite a pair of sevens on the back nine of the 6019-yard par-70 course. Mrs. Thomas Knopa of Argyle also had an 86 that included four sixes on the back side.

One of the Washington players is certain to be eliminated in the first round because Mrs. Knopa faces Mrs. Dick Wilson, wife of the Lakewood professional, who had an 88 in the qualifying round.

Other Washingtonians, who qualified were Mrs. Joseph Smythe of Goose Creek (87) and Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor (87)

Mrs. William Maher of Laurel Pines (94) and Mrs. Samuel Becker of Indian Spring (99) did not qualify and were placed in lower, consolation flights.

Loses in State Golf

Late Surge Fails For Lynn Mercer

Special to The Washington Post

BALTIMORE, June 2—Little Lynn Mercer, of Bethesda's Kenwood club, came up with a fine closing effort today but it wasn't quite enough and she bowed to tournament-wise Mary Downey of Baltimore, 1-up, in the quarterfinals of the Maryland State women's amateur golf championship at the Suburban club.

Three down with three holes to play, the 17-year-old Miss Mercer won two straight. A fine sand shot led to a winning birdie on No. 17. But her drive landed in the rough on the final hole, causing her to approach the green short, and she settled for a halve to lose the match.

Defending champion Jane Schiller Mason, of Pocomoke City, Md., displayed no signs of slowing down in posting a 6 and 5 triumph over Mrs. William Bibby, of Cumberland, Md. Although the match was over on the 13th green, Mrs. Mason completed the round for a six-over 37—39—76, the best reported score since the tournament began on Tuesday.

In a match involving Washington-area players, Mrs. Thomas Konopa, of the Argyle club played "steady but completely unspectacular" golf in eliminating Rebecca Doman, of Brooke Manor, 2 and 1. Friday Mrs. Konopa will face 11-time state champion Mrs. Maurice Glick of Baltimore, who edged Mrs. Vernon Kelly, of Baltimore, 1-up.

Although the round seemed uneventful to Mrs. Konopa, she ended it dramatically on the 17th with a 25-foot birdie putt. Mrs. Glick was in danger from the inspired Mrs. Kelly until the last, but she saved halves on the last two holes with 8-foot putts for pars.

Mrs. Mason faces Miss Downey Friday morning. The latter is seeking her fourth Maryland state title.

Mrs. Bryant's 75 Captures Medal In District Golf by Two Strokes

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Roland Bryant, wife of a commercial airlines pilot, did some low flying yesterday at Manor Country Club.

The pretty, 5-foot-4½ Country Club of Fairfax golfer swept around the tree-lined Manor course in 75 strokes and won the qualifying medal in the women's District amateur championsihp.

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, who won the title in 1959, was second in the 18-hole trials with 77. The only other player to break 80 in the field of 102 was Mrs. W. L. Lewis, a newcomer from Army Navy Country Club, who had 79.

Defending champion Mrs. George Ficken of Belle Haven, seeking an unprecedented third straight title, did not compete in the qualifying event. As the automatic qualifier, Mrs. Ficken received the No. 1 pairing position and drew Mrs Ben Frauwirth of Indian Spring, who qualified with 85, as her first round opponent.

Mrs. Bryant, out in 36 and back in 39, used 32 putts on the hard, slippery greens. She used only 13 putts on the front nine.

The 115-pound Mrs. Bryant birdied the second hole from seven feet and chipped in for another birdie from 20 feet on the fifth hole. Her only other birdie came at 15 where she ran down a six-foot putt.

Mrs. Cush, former Maryland state champ had only two birdies. The Argyle Club champion dropped a three-footer on six and one from 12 feet on seven.

Mrs. Lewis had 40-39 in her first local tournament. The service club player was runnerup in both the Central Pennsylvania and Southern California championships before coming to Washington.

It took 87 to make the championship flight. Four players had 87 and played off for the last three qualifying places.

Mrs. Thomas Konopa, winner of the recent Keefer Memorial Tournament at Chevy Chase, and her Argyle clubmate, Georgia Mae McKeever took two of the places on the first hole with pars. Mrs. William Weitzen, seven-time Indian Spring Club titlist, won the other place on the second hole with par from Mrs. Walter Goodrich, Country Club of Fairfax. Pairings and starting times:

Women's District Golf

Mrs. Holman Wins With Late Surge

Mrs. D. K. Holman of Fairfax and Winifred Faunce of Brooke Manor supplied most of the fireworks yesterday in the first round of the Women's District Golf Association championship at Manor Country Club.

Mrs. Holman, club champion at Fairfax, was five down before catching fire with a one-under men's par of 34 on the back nine, winning seven straight holes and eliminating Mrs. Thomas Konopa of Argyle, 2-up.

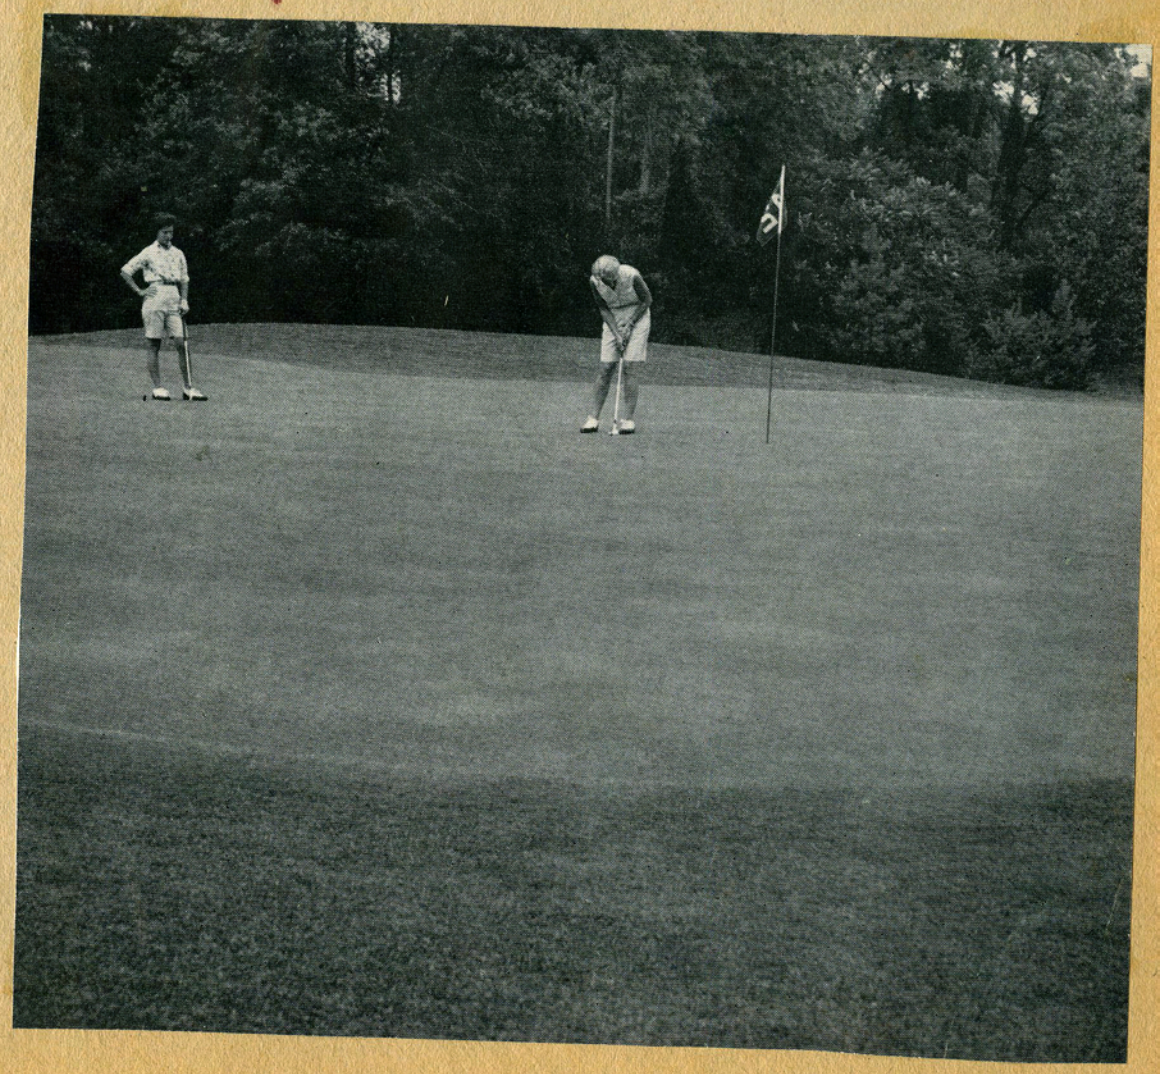

Miss Faunce, who was winning golf trophies long before several in the present field were born, used a straight-down-the-middle, steady-around-the-greens game to beat former champion, Georgia Mae McKeever, 1-up in 20 holes. Miss Faunce made a par four on the second extra hole, Miss McKeever a bogey five.

Defending champion Mrs. George Ficken of Belle Haven, in search of her third straight District title, was at the top of her game and defeated Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring champion, 1-up, with a par on the 18th hole.

Mrs. Harry Webb of Washington, who ranked high in Alabama golf before moving to the area, carried medalist Mrs. Roland Bryant of Fairfax to the final hole before losing, 1-up. Mrs. Webb shot 79, Mrs. Bryant 78. Mrs. Bryant has 75.

First-round results:

Mrs. George Ficken, Belle Haven, d. Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring, 1-up.
Mrs. I. W. Elliott, Army Navy, d. Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda, 4 and 3.
Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, d. Mrs. George Oleson, Fairfax, 3 and 2.
Mrs. D. K. Holman, Fairfax, d. Mrs. Thomas Konopa, Argyle, 2-up.
Mrs. Roland Bryant, Fairfax, d. Mrs. Harry Webb, Washington, 1-up.
Mrs. Rebecca Doman, Brooke Manor, d. Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, 2 and 1.
Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Army Navy, d. Mrs. John Belser, Army Navy, 5 and 4.
Winifred Faunce, Brooke Manor, d. Georgia Mae McKeever, Argyle, 1-up, 20 holes.

Mrs. Cush Breezes Into Semifinals Of District Golf; Mrs. Ficken Advances

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, the 1958 champion, shot the front nine at Manor Country Club in 35 strokes yesterday and crashed into the semifinals of the Women's District Golf Association championship.

With two birdies, a bogey and six pars, Mrs. Cush raced to an 8-up lead over Mrs. D. K. Holman, club champion at the County Club of Fairfax, and posted an 8 and 7 decision. Mrs. Holman won only one hole, the 10th with a par four, and succumbed to Mrs. Cush's par three on the 11th that closed out the match.

Defending champion Mrs. George Ficken continued her steady march and eliminated Mrs. I. W. Elliott of Army Navy, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Cush opposes Mrs. Ficken today at 10 a.m. in a semifinal match. Mrs. Ficken won the title last year and also in 1964. Although both have competed in District team matches for several years, it will be their first head-to-head meeting.

In the other semifinal match today, Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor opposes Mrs. W. L. Lewis, Army Navy.

Miss Doman made putts at the opportune time yesterday and eliminated medalist Mrs. Roland Bryant, Country Club of Fairfax, 1-up, in a match that produced few exciting shots.

Mrs. Lewis ousted Winifred Faunce of Brooke Manor, 4 and 3, although she was not sharp from tee to green. Fi[na]l three-putt greens spelled doom for veteran Miss Faunce.

In championship consolation matches yesterday, Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring, beat Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda, 2 and 1, and Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. Harry Webb, Washington, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Cush, Rebecca Doman Move Into District Golf Final

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle and Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor reached the final of the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Manor Country Club. They meet for the title today at 10:15 a.m.

Mrs. Cush ended the two-year championship reign of Mrs. George Ficken, Belle Haven, 5 and 3, and Miss Doman ousted Mrs. William Lewis, Army Navy, 4 and 2.

Mrs. Ficken, winner of the District title in 1964 and 1965, had trouble with the trees on the front, wooded nine and her putter failed to cooperate in times of greatest need.

On the ninth hole Mrs. Ficken drove into the woods. Her second shot hit another tree. Her third an iron shot, was short, her pitch-shot fourth was over the par five and she lost to Mrs. Cush's par.

The ninth was typical of her troubles and she went five down at that point. On the more open back side she found fewer difficulties but could not cut into Mrs. Cush's sizable lead.

Miss Doman laced a 210-yard drive down the center of the first fairway, placed her iron-shot second near the hole and sank the putt for a birdie three. She was never behind and finished the 18 holes in 75, although she missed a short putt on the final green.

In consolation matches, Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. George Oleson, Fairfax, 4 and 3, and Mrs. John Belser, Army Navy, eliminated Mrs. William Weitzen, 1-up.

Other results:

FIRST FLIGHT—Mrs. Katherine Diggs, Manor, d. Nina Crampton, Congressional, 3 and 2. Mrs. Pat Martino, Argyle, d. Mrs. Wilfred Templeton, Westwood, 1-up.

SECOND FLIGHT—Mrs. Max Mudrick, Norbeck, d. Mrs. Marvin Goff, Manor, 1-up. Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Congressional, d. Mrs. Joseph Waugh, Brooke Manor, 5 and 4.

THIRD FLIGHT—Mrs. S. K. Kauffman, Army Navy, d. Mrs. L. S. Martin, Manor, 5 and 4. Mrs. Herman Newman, Indian Spring, d. Mrs. Roderick Watson, Manor, 1-up.

FOURTH FLIGHT—Mrs. Leonard Kardy, Manor, d. Mrs. J. U. McManus, Bethesda, 3 and 2. Mrs. Leonard Snyder, Indian Spring, d. Mrs. Nat Barber, Manor, 3 and 2.

On First Extra Hole

Miss Doman Wins District Golf Title

Rebecca Doman, long-hitting star from Brooke Manor, defeated Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle with a par on the first extra hole yesterday and won her first District women's golf championship at Manor Country Club.

Miss Doman, who beat Mrs. Cush in a medal-play tournament last week by a stroke, had a one-up advantage going to the 18th hole. But she lost that to a par to send the match into overtime.

On the tree-lined first hole Mrs. Cush put her drive down the right side. Her second shot caught some leaves short of the green.

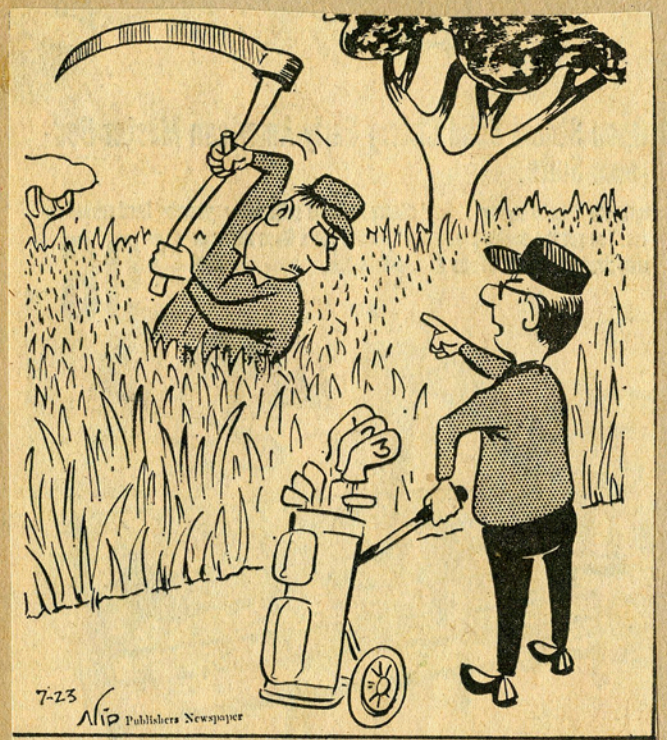

Having to hit from bare dirt, Mrs. Cush pitched—"very poorly" as she called it—to the green and took two more to get down.

Mrs. Cush had won the championship in 1958. Both women shot 77s for the first 18 holes.

Miss Doman took a quick two-up advantage, winning the first hole with a par and the second with a birdie. Mrs. Cush won the eighth and ninth with pars to catch up and the 13th with a par to go up for the first time in the match.

But Miss Doman, who constantly outdrove Mrs. Cush by about 30 yards with her booming tee shots, squared matters at No. 15 with another birdie and took a one-up lead at the 16th with a par.

An Unusual Course

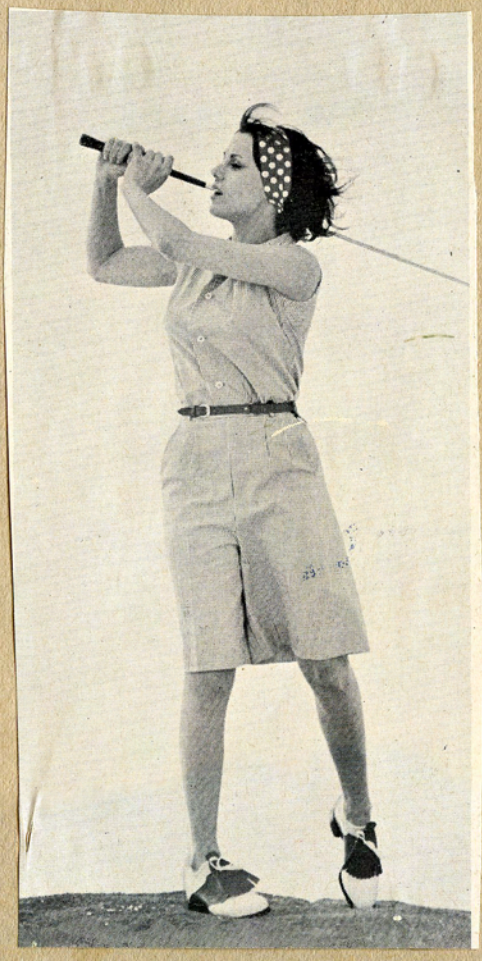

Pitches . . . Putts

WHEN WASHINGTONIAN Country Club's new course at Gaithersburg is completed, it will be one of the most unusual in the world, according to host club pro Clarence Doser. The veteran Washingtonian professional and Thurmond Donovan designed the course, which is now under construction at Route 28 and Muddy Creek Road. The new layout that will give Washingtonians two championship courses will be equipped with the strangest assortment of putting surfaces in all of golfdom. One will be designed like a clover leaf and one will be a double green, patterned after those at St. Andrews, Scotland. The plans also call for a rectangular green and others shaped like a Y and an L. Nine holes of the unique layout will be ready for play next spring. The entire 18 will be in play by late fall of 1967 . . . The Virginia Association of Golf Professionals has decided to wait until fall before taking a final vote on whether or not to become a chapter of the Middle Atlantic PGA. The fight against chapterization is being waged by a group of non-PGA pros, who will be forced to seek PGA affiliation or become tournament outcasts should the VAGP be voted out of existence . . . Bobby Brownell and Ralph Bogart, unprecedented four-time winners, were the first tandem to register for Belle Haven Country Club's (May 12-15) invitation tournament . . . Six Washington-area golfers are entered in the women's Southern this week at New Orleans. Pitches . . . Putts

WHEN JANE Mason steps on the first tee Tuesday at Baltimore's Suburban Club to attempt a successful title defense in the women's Maryland State Amateur, only 49 players will oppose the pretty lass from Pocomoke City, Md. For a time it appeared the Maryland State Golf Association wasn't going to muster enough competition to stage its 46th edition of the championship. Only seven players from the Washington area are entered but, fortunately, they are the cream of our meager crop. There is little doubt, however, that anyone in the small field will be able to thwart Mrs. Mason's bid for a second straight title . . . Robbye King Advances

Dr. Peterson, Mrs. Webb Win Upsets in Va. Women's Golf

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Aug. 2 (AP)—Dr. Ruth A. Peterson of Alexandria waged a see-saw battle with Jane Mack of Richmond, the 1965 runner up; before scoring a one-up upset victory today in the 41st Virginia Women's Amateur golf tournament.

Another shocker came as Mrs. Harry E. Webb of Arlington eliminated two-time champ Mrs. William Pollard of Charlottsville, one-up .

Otherwise the tournament followed the format as 1963 winner Robbye King of Arlington, medalist Mrs. Ralph Petrone of Blacksburg, Roanoke's Connie Gorsuch and Richmond's Mrs. Donald O'Brien advanced easily.

The day's other two winners had a tougher time. Mrs. J. Lewis Rawls of Suffolk scored a one-up victory over Dameron Jr. on the 19th and Mrs. Gerry Spencer of Norfolk edged Mrs. Herbert L. Smith III of Newport News, 2 and 1.

Miss King, with her game in almost perfect shape, disposed of Mrs. Robert A. Henke of Richmond, 5 and 3.

Mrs. Petrone, the Monday medalist with an 80, was but one over par as she scored a 6 and 4 victory over Mrs. W. O. Hamlin of Blacksburg.

Miss Gorsuch made certain of a Wednesday meeting with Miss King by routing Richmond's Mrs. Glenn Knox, 6 and 4.

Mrs. O'Brien posted the day's easiest victory as she breezed past another Richmonder, Jane A. Hawkins, 7 and 6.

In Wednesday's quarter-finals, Mrs. Petrone faces Mrs. Webb, Miss King plays Miss Gorsuch, Dr. Peterson goes against Mrs. O'Brien and Mrs. Spencer battles Mrs. Rawls.

Mrs. Connolly Posts Easy Seniors' Victory

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Aug. 2 (AP) — Medalist Mrs. John Connolly and three-time champion Mrs. Charles Egenroad, both of Arlington, marched to comparatively easy victories today in the opening round of the ninth Virginia senior women's golf tournament at the Homestead course.

Mrs. Connolly's 4 and 2 victory was achieved at the expense of Mrs. Clarence Cox of Lynchburg while Mrs. Egenroad used her short game to post a 3 and 1 triumph over Mrs. A. J. Conat of Virginia Beach.

Other survivors include Mrs. William Walsh, Mrs. George Calvert and Mrs. Howard Lady, all of the Washington Golf and Country Club of Arlington. Mrs. Walsh scored a 4 and 3 victory over Mrs. J. R. Gesley of Fairfax, Mrs. Calvert defeated Mrs. Virginia Meador of Alexandria, 5 and 4, and Mrs. Lady ousted Mrs. Richard Rheutan of Richmond, 2-up.

Mrs. Egenroad's opponent Wednesday will be Mrs. Burke Davis of Williamsburg, who defeated Mrs. Harry Porter of Arlington, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Calvert Wins Virginia Seniors' Title

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Aug. 5 (AP)—Mrs. G. W. Calvert of Arlington won the Virginia Senior Women's golf tournament today, defeating Mrs. Jim Reynolds of Richmond, 3 and 2.

For Mrs. Reynolds, who had been favored, it was the fourth consecutive loss in the title round. Each time she has lost to an Arlington player. Mrs. C. L. Egenroad beat her in the 1963 finals and Maj. Lucille Busch won the championship at her expense the next two years. It was the first time Mrs. Calvert had made it to the finals.

Meets Medalist Today

Robbye King Gains Virginia Semifinal

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Aug. 3 (AP)—Tournament favorite Robbye King of Arlington, the only former champion left in the field today, led four survivors into the semifinals of the Virginia Women's Amateur golf tournament.

The 23-year-old Miss King, winner in 1963, hit into five traps but still had enough precision putting to trim Roanoke's Connie Gorsuch, 4 and 3.

The day's other victories were claimed by medalist Mrs. Ralph Petrone of Blacksburg, Mrs. Donald O'Brien of Richmond and Mrs. J. Lewis Rawls of Suffolk. In Thursday's matches, Miss King meets Mrs. Petrone and Mrs. O'Brien faces Mrs. Rawls. The 36-hole final will be played Friday.

Dr. Peterson Edged

Mrs. O'Brien, sporting a new putter, scored a 2 and 1 victory over Dr. Ruth A. Peterson of Alexandria while Mrs. Rawls, for the third day in a row, went to the 19th hole before scoring a 1-up victory over Mrs. Gerry Spencer of Norfolk.

Mrs. Petrone continued to play the best golf of all as she crushed Mrs. Harry E. Webb of Arlington, 5 and 3.

Mrs. Petrone found few problems in dealing with Mrs. Webb, who upset 1965 finalist Jane Mack of Richmond in Tuesday's opening round.

Grabs Quick Lead

Mrs. Petrone grabbed a 3-up lead before she lost the eighth and ninth holes. Then she turned on her all-purpose golf and played the next six holes in one under par to defeat Mrs. Webb.

Miss King was too much of a putter for Miss Gorsuch. She was in the sand on the first hole but blasted out and won with a bogey.

Both birdied the second before Miss King won the third with a par. Miss King saved a half on the fourth with a 20-foot par putt and went 3-up on the sixth when Miss Gorsuch had trouble off the tee.

Hits 3 Traps in Row

Miss Gorsuch won the eighth with a birdie, but again trailed by three after she missed the ninth green with her approach.

Though in the sand on the next three holes Miss King lost but one, the 11th, and that to Miss Gorsuch's par. Then she one-putted the next three holes for the victory.

Despite all her sand problems, the Arlington miss was only three over par.

Mrs. O'Brien had a superb 36 on the front side and had Dr. Peterson 2 down. She lost the 10th with a bogey but won the 11th and 12th with pars. A double-bogey seven cost Mrs. O'Brien the 16th, but she ended the match with a par on the 17th.

3 Arlington Women Reach Semifinals

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Aug. 3 (AP)—Four-time champion Mrs. Charles Egenroad of Arlington and the 1965 runner up, Mrs. Jim Reynolds of Richmond, led the way into the semifinals of the Virginia Women's Senior golf tournament here today.

Joining them in posting quarterfinals victories were two other Arlington golfers, Mrs. John Connolly and Mrs. G. W. Calvert. Thursday's semifinals pit Mrs. Egenroad against Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Connolly against Mrs. Calvert.

Mrs. Calvert had the tournament's best nine-hole score, a two-over-par 37, at the Homestead course today in eliminating yet another Arlington contestant, Mrs. Howard Lady, 7 and 6.

Mrs. Connolly ousted Mrs. William A. Walsh of Arlington, 3 and 2. Mrs. Egenroad defeated Mrs. Burke Davis of Williamsburg, 4 and 3, and Mrs. Reynolds came from behind to oust Mrs. Harry Wilson of Roanoke, 3 and 2.

The Caddie

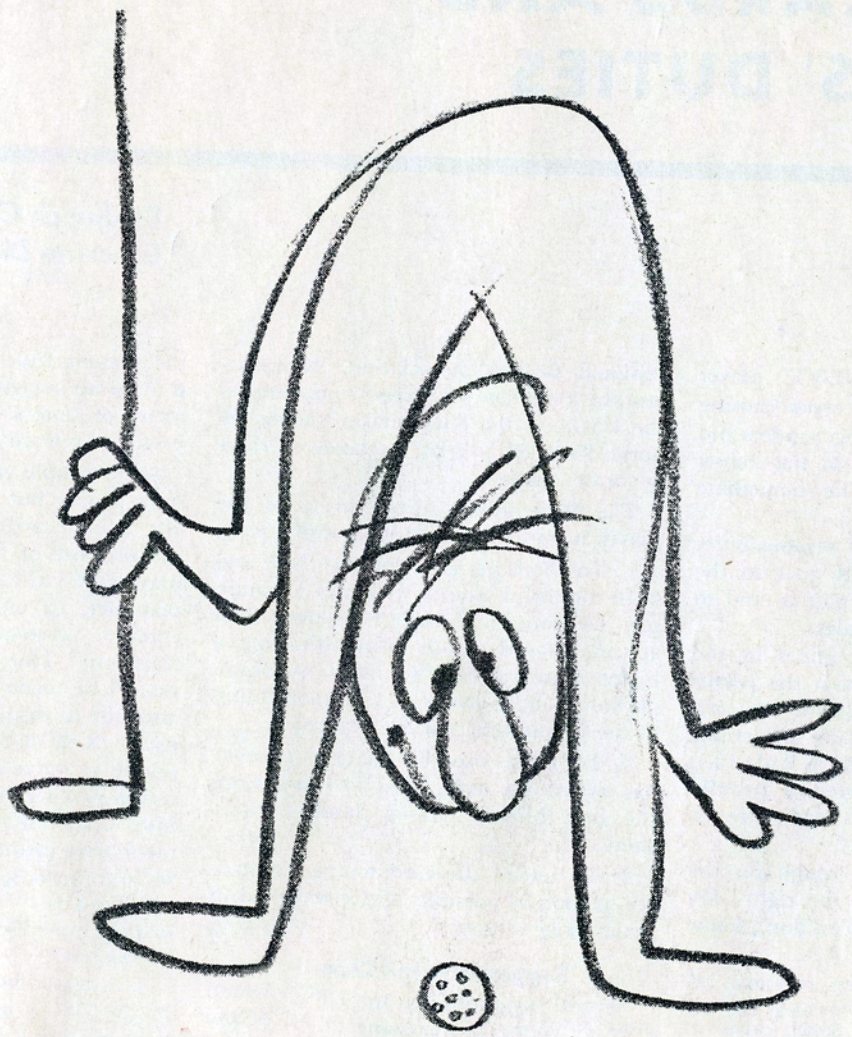

He is with you every minute, in the smooth and in the rough,
And your caddie's quick to sense it if you're made of proper stuff.
If you bear your trials bravely, if you do the best you can,
You will find the little fellow trying hard to be a man.

If you show the proper spirit when you meet misfortune grim,
You'll be making a courageous and a plucky chap of him.
But if you're overbearing and the speech of brutes employ,
You are ruining the morals and the manhood of the boy.

He's a manly little fellow, and he wants to do what's right,
But he's quick to sense injustice and his breast is full of fight.
So remember when he doesn't always do as he should do,
And you find that he is careless, that the fault may lie with you.
