

Medalist Takes Girls Golf Opener

Joanne Dost of Westwood, who was medalist with an 83 in qualifying Tuesday, breezed through her first-round match yesterday, 9 and 8 over Columbia's Linda Meyer, in the Women's District Golf Association Junior championship at Argyle.

Pam Clark of Army Navy ousted Sally Weaver of Columbia 7 and 6, Claire Porter of the host club won by the same margin from Lakewood's Meridith Strawn and Linda Casanova of Brooke Manor defeated Christy Saridakis of Argyle 4 and 3.

Semifinals are scheduled today and the final tomorrow, along with a medal tournament for some 30 nine-hole beginners.

Joann Dost Wins

Joann Dost of Westwood defeated Pam Clark of Argyle, 6 and 4, yesterday at Argyle for the District junior girl's golf championship.

Frances Conroy Wins in Junior Golf

Frances Conroy shot a 106-26-80 to take net honors yesterday in the Margaret Allen Cup at Kenwood, first junior event of the season for the Women's District Golf Association.

Gross honors went to Pam Clark with a 96.

Jackie Evans Wins Army Navy Crown

Jackie Evans, a 19-year-old college sophomore, defeated Mrs. Edward W. King 3 and 2 yesterday to win the women's club golf championship at Army Navy Country Club.

Mrs. Ivan W. Elliott won the consolation match with a 3 and 2 victory over Mrs. Francis D. Peters.

Cissy Conroy Takes Berry Diggs Tourney

Cissy Conroy, sister of former District junior champion Denny Conroy, took home a trophy of her own yesterday.

The 16-year-old Lakewood Country Club member shot a 95-25-70 to win the Berry Diggs golf tournament for girls 10-17 at River Bend.

Claire Porter of Argyle took gross honors with a 90.

Claire Porter Wins Low Net With 71

Claire Porter, 17, of Argyle, shot a 91 with a 17 handicap for an 18-hole total of 74 yesterday to win the low net in the Carbert Cup Golf Tournament for girls from 10-17 at Lakewood.

Cissy Conroy, also 17, of Lakewood, had 104 to win the low gross. Eleven-year-old Susie Gallup of Kenwood, who received a 35 handicap, won the nine-hole low net contest with 29 after shooting a 64.

Claire Porter Wins Crown in Girls Golf

Claire Porter, 17, of Argyle Country Club fired a 91-17-74 to win low net honors in yesterday's Carbert Golf tournament for girls 10-17 at Lakewood.

Cissy Conroy, 17, of Lakewood won low gross with a 104. Susie Gallup, 11, of Kenwood won a special nine-hole event with a 35-29.

Joann Dost Wins In WDGA Junior

Joann Dost, a 17-year-old brunette from Westwood Country Club who was a recent quarter-finalist in the U.S. Junior Girls golf championship, had a three-year advantage and too much experience for Pam Clark of Army Navy yesterday in the Women's District Golf Association Junior final at Argyle.

Miss Dost defeated her 14-year-old opponent 6 and 4, then played in to complete an 83 score.

Homewood Invitation

Homewood Golf Lures 2 Carolinas Champs

Patsy Johnson of Spartanburg is driving up from South Carolina with her crony, Jessie Finucan of Summerville, to make her first appearance in the Homewood Invitation women's golf tournament, scheduled Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at Manor Country Club.

Among the 63 players still entered, Miss Johnson will be one of the principal threats to unseat defending champion Kay Shaw of Laurel Pines in the fourth annual event.

Patsy is a two-time South Carolina champion, the 1967 Carolinas champion, and carries a one-handicap. Miss Finucan, the Carolinas winner this year, also is a one-handicapper.

Another new entry is Sally Carroll of Wheeling, W.Va., perennial challenger in major women's tournaments throughout the country.

Another strong contender for Miss Shaw's title will be Mrs. Richard Canney of Chantilly, who breezed to the Virginia State championship several weeks ago.

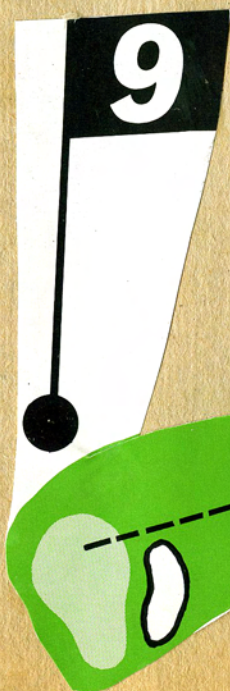

Other top entrants include Mrs. Robert Hughes of Richmond, the former Barbara Diggs of Manor, who won the 1967 Virginia State; Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, current District champion who won the inaugural Homewood in 1965, and Lynn Mercer of Columbia, 1968 District finalist.

Unable to participate are Robbye King Youel, the 1966 Homewood champ, and Marge Burns of Greensboro, the Middle Atlantic champion.

Registration and practice rounds are scheduled tomorrow and 18-hole rounds each of the next three days.

Mrs. Hughes Keeps Trophy in Family

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thurman Diggs, the founders, shared sponsorship of the Homewood Invitation tournament with the women golfers of Manor Country Club this year. The number of officials thus enlarged, someone should have thought to hire a new script writer.

One of the Diggs' daughters, Mrs. Robert Hughes, now of Richmond, won by two strokes yesterday after 54 holes of the fourth annual event, which was a nice touch. But for the third year in succession the winner led from wire to wire.

However, this is not to say it was a dull finish. Mrs. Hughes, twice champion of Virginia, and Mrs. Richard Canney of Chantilly, the current Virginia Women's queen, hooked up in the last two some yesterday and provided an eventful struggle from the first hole.

Shaves Margin to One

Mrs. Canney started the day tied with South Carolina's Jessie Finucan for second place, five shots behind the leader, and at that first hole she took three off her deficit with a birdie 3 to Mrs. Hughes' double bogey.

Three times Mrs. Canney shaved the margin to one stroke, but again she wilted in the heat on the back nine and scored 36-43-79, for a total of 239. Miss Finucan slipped into the runner-up spot with 39-38-77 for 237, then Patsy Johnson, another South Carolinian, beat Mrs. Canney on the third hole of a playoff for low gross.

Patsy had the tournament's low round yesterday, a 37-39-76, for a 239 total. Women's par was 36-38-74 for this tournament.

Fades With Bogeys

Mrs. Hughes finished with 39-41-80 for 235 and was disappointed in failing to break 80 for the third straight day, but she closed with courage. The vivacious redhead was one under par the last four holes, following her announced intention of playing the course instead of her opponent.

Mrs. Canney's birdie 4 on the 452-yard 15th hole brought her back to one stroke in arrears, but it was to be the last time she threatened. On the 419-yard 16th, another par 5, Mrs. Hughes wielded a 4-wood out of a fairway trap and the ball almost clipped the flag stick before rolling over the green.

She chipped back two feet from the cup for birdie, and Mrs. Canney three-putted from the back fringe for par. The blonde pursuer faded farther with bogeys on the last two holes while Mrs. Hughes was finishing with regulation pars.

Kay Shaw, the defending champion, wasn't a factor after a first-day 79, as she was bothered the next two by shin splints. She played yesterday with both legs wrapped in elastic bandage from knee to ankle and scored 41-41-82 for 245, or 10 shots from the front.

Mrs. Murphy Booth defeated Mrs. John Call after two extra holes for low net in the second division.

Mrs. Robert Hughes registers disappointment after a poor chip shot at the 14th green yesterday in the final round of the Homewood Invitation tournament at Manor Country Club. Mrs. Hughes finished with an 80 to wrap up the title.

Mrs. Hughes Vows to Ignore Safe Finish

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Robert Hughes carried a five-shot lead and a pledge not to play safe into today's final round of the Homewood Invitation women's golf tournament at Manor Country Club. She promised to play the golf course as she found it and not be concerned about her pursuers.

It figured to be a wise attitude, because Manor's course has proved to be the most formidable opponent — for everyone.

Holds Lead Briefly

Mrs. Hughes yesterday added a 42-36-78 to her opening 77 to stretch her advantage by three strokes, but not without anxious moments. She was one under par after three holes yesterday, then strayed seven over on the last six holes of the front nine. She played the back nine two under par. Women's par is 36-38-74.

Mrs. Richard Canney of Chantilly held the lead briefly when she made the turn even with par, but she wound up with 36-43-79 for 160, tying Jessie Finucan for second place.

Miss Finucan, from Summerville, S.C., followed her first-round 80 with another — 39-41-80 — and insisted, "I can't hit the ball any better."

Sally Carroll of Wheeling, W. Va., was even par after seven holes, but finished with 39-45-84 to land at 161, in a tie for eighth place.

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, the 1965 champion, had the steadiest round, a 38-40-78, with two birdies and no double bogeys. Another Argyle contestant, Mrs. Thomas Konopa, broke 80 with 39-40-79.

Worries About Swing

Mrs. Hughes was not so concerned at losing her lead at the halfway mark yesterday as with losing her swing.

"I was worried that the way I was hitting the ball I couldn't come back, but I started hitting it well on the back nine," she said.

Even with four birdies on the last nine holes she double bogeyed the 162-yard 17th by hitting a trap and three-putting. The course continued to fight back.

Mrs. Hughes Hopes to End Golfing Slump

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

For Mrs. Robert Hughes of Richmond, this has been a year in which she has done little except relinquish her important golf championships.

She gave up the Virginia State Women's title and her club championship at Hermitage. By her own testimony, she played poorly in the Richmond city championship.

Today Mrs. Hughes had a running start at winning the Homewood Invitation tournament at Manor, and if she can hang on through tomorrow's wind-up it could make up for her earlier disappointments. She is the former Barbara Diggs, once a member at Manor, whose parents founded this tournament three years ago.

Mrs. Hughes opened yesterday with a 36-41-77, two strokes better than anyone else in the field of 64. Defending champion Kay Shaw from Laurel Pines had 43-36-79 and is fortunate to be that close. The leader was working on a 74, even par for women, until the last two holes.

"I didn't miss a shot until the 17th," Mrs. Hughes declared. "I was even par until then, but I lunged at a 4-iron off the tee and hit the ball halfway to the green."

"On the 18th I hit my drive just where I wanted, in the left corner, barely in the rough. Then I took a 4-wood and caught the ball on the toe and it went out of bounds, against the swimming pool fence."

She finished bogey 4, double-bogey 7, but before that she had three birdies to offset three bogeys, and turned the front nine even par. In all her years at Manor she can't recall playing the first nine holes any better.

Miss Shaw had a round almost the opposite, parring only three holes on the front nine but playing the back two under par with four birdies, including three in succession.

Leading scores:

Mrs. Robert Hughes, Richmond 36-41-77
Kay Shaw, Laurel Pines 43-36-79
Sally Carroll, Wheeling, W.Va. 41-39-80

Mrs. Hughes Retains Lead In Homewood

Barbara Hughes fired a second-round 78 yesterday at Manor Country Club and retained the lead in the annual Homewood Invitation golf tournament with a 36-hole score of 155.

The former host club champion, who now lives in Richmond, was out in 43 and back in 35, despite a double-bogey five on the par three 17th. She almost holed her second shot on the par four second, leaving her ball six inches short of the flag with a six-iron shot.

Mrs. Hughes, an American University graduate, rolled in a birdie putt from 50 feet at No. 10 and followed with birdies from two feet at 14, four feet at 16 and four feet at 18.

Mrs. Hughes, who bogeyed four consecutive holes beginning at six, moved into a five-stroke lead with only one round remaining. Mrs. Richard Canney, wife of the professional at Chantilly National Golf Club, and Jessie Finucan, Summerville, S.C., are tied for second at 160.

Defending champion Kay Shaw of Laurel Pines Country Club had an 84 yesterday and wound up in a three-way tie for fifth at 163. Miss Shaw suffered a pulled muscle during the round. Leading scores:

Mrs. Hughes Leads in Homewood

Barbara Hughes took a double-bogey seven on the 18th hole at Manor Country Club yesterday, but still captured the first round lead in the 54-hole Homewood Invitation tournament with 77.

Mrs. Hughes, former Virginia state champion from Richmond's Hermitage Club, had a 74 in the making until the 18th where she shanked her iron second shot out of bounds and wound up with a back nine of 41.

Kay Shaw, defending champion, took second with 79, the only other score under 80.

Sally Carroll of Wheeling, W. Va., and Jessie Finucan of Summerville, S.C., had 80s and tied for third.

Mrs. Hughes Takes Homewood Golf Title by Two Strokes, 235

Mrs. Barbara Hughes, who grew up at the Manor Country Club, captured the annual Homewood Invitation golf tournament on that course yesterday with a 54-hole score of 235.

Mrs. Hughes, pretty redhead mother of two small children, fired a final round 80 and won the event by two strokes over Jessie Finucan of Summerville, S.C. Miss Finucan posted a final round 77 for 237.

Patsy Johnson, Spartansburg, S.C., won third place in a playoff from Mrs. Richard J. Canney of Chantilly after the two had tied with 239. Miss Johnson, who had 76, low round of the tournament, won the playoff on the third hole with a par three.

Mrs. Canney, wife of the golf professional at Chantilly National, started the day five strokes off the pace but was only two behind after a front nine 36. She picked up another stroke at ten but lost four shots to the new champion on the final three holes.

Mrs. Hughes had 77 and 78 in her previous rounds.

Mrs. William Weaver of Argyle won gross in the B division of the three-day event. Mrs. John Call, Bethesda, and Mrs. Murphy Booth of the host club tied for the net at 232 and Mrs. Call took the match on the first extra hole of a playoff.

Pat Blanche of the host club was low gross in the third division with 256. Mrs. Mel Gough, a former Manor member now playing out of Port Marlboro Country Club, Melbourne, Fla., won net with 221. Championship leaders:

Mrs. Barbara Hughes, Richmond, Va., 77 78 80—235

Mrs. Cush, Cone Tie

Mrs. Frank Cush, reigning Middle Atlantic and District amateur champion, and Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda fired 81s yesterday at Congressional Country Club and share the first-round lead in the Maryland State Golf Association's annual 36-hole tournament for the Payne Cup.

Mrs. Cush took three to get out of a trap and then three-putted the green from 15 feet for an horrendous eight on the par-four fourth hole. But then, after taking a triple-bogey seven at seven, the Argyle club star birdied the eighth from five feet and the ninth from eight feet to get out in 42. She had 39 on the back nine.

Mrs. Cone, who captained the Bethesda team to the Women's District Golf Association team championship this past spring, was out in 40 and back in 41. The leaders:

Mrs. Wilson 2-Shot Victor In Payne Cup

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Richard Wilson won the Payne Cup at Congressional because she, alone among the leaders, improved on her opening round of Thursday despite yesterday's gusty, chilly winds.

Tied for fifth place at 85 after the first round, Mrs. Wilson moved to the front with a 39-45-84 for a 36-hole total of 169 to win this annual women's event of the Maryland State Golf Association by two strokes.

Thursday's co-leaders, Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda and Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, followed their opening 81s with scores in the 90s yesterday and had to settle for net prizes. Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor was runner-up over-all with 82-89-171.

Tied for third at 172 were Mrs. Cush, 81-91; Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore CC, 83-89, and Mrs. William Bibby from Cumberland, 85-87. Mrs. Cone was alone at 173 with 81-92.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of the chief pro at Lakewood, started with two straight birdies. They were her only birdies yesterday but she encountered only one double-bogey, a 6 on the 17th hole. No one else could match that steadiness yesterday.

Net winners:

Two-day net: Mrs. J.H. Belser, Army Navy, 177-22-155; Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda, 173-16-155; Mrs. Carl Matthews, Congressional, 179-22-157.
Thursday net: Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, 117-74; Mrs. Acors Thompson, River Bend, 91-16-75; Mrs. John Call, Bethesda, 85-10-75.
Friday net: Mrs. Hale Pangman, River Bend, 94-16-89; Mrs. J.R. Gessley, CC of Fairfax, 93-13-80; Mrs. A.J. Cerny, CC of Maryland, 96-15-81.

2 Share Lead In Windup Of Payne Golf

Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda and Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle had a shaky lead with 81s entering the final 18 holes today in the Payne Cup women's golf tournament, annual fixture on the Maryland State Golf Association schedule.

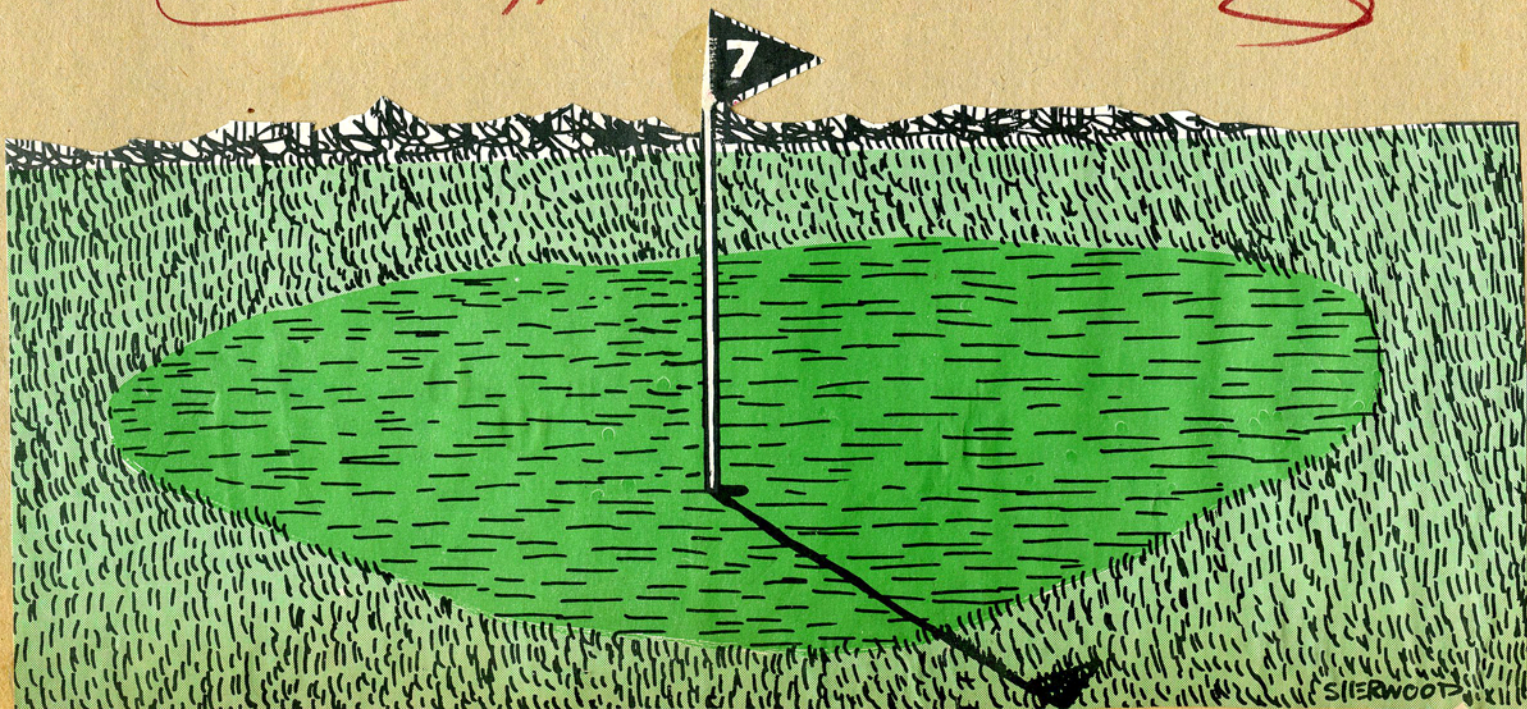

The two ladies, champions of their respective clubs, were one shot in front of Brooke Manor's Rebecca Doman, the 1965 and '66 winner who scored 43-39-82, and two ahead of five-time champion Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore Country Club, who shot 42-41-83 yesterday at Congressional Country Club.

Mrs. Cush, the District and Middle Atlantic champion this year, had an 8 and a 7 on her card but rallied with five birdies for 42-39-81. Mrs. Cone was steadier with no double bogeys for 40-41-81.

Mid-Atlantic Golf Draws 75 Women

Marge Burns of Greensboro, N.C., will make the longest trip of any of the 75 contestants as she defends her Middle Atlantic Women's golf championship tomorrow and Thursday at Turf Valley Country Club in Ellicott City, Md.

Miss Burns, winner the last two years, tees off at 10:40 a.m. tomorrow with Mary Ann Downey, many-time Maryland State champion and three-time winner of this tournament. First tee time will be 8:30 a.m.

The field also includes the current Maryland champion, Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor; 1967 Maryland champion Joan Winchester of Rolling Road, Virginia State champ; Mrs. Richard Canney of Chantilly and District champion Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle.

District Champ Leads by One At Turf Valley

ELLCOTT CITY (Special)—A practice round was permitted here Tuesday. Mrs. Frank Cush accepted the opportunity and Mrs. Richard Canney didn't, and that might have been the difference between the two leaders in yesterday's first half of the Middle Atlantic women's golf championship at Turf Valley Country Club.

Mrs. Cush, who won this event in 1960 and is the current District champion from Argyle, played her typical steady game with four bogeys and a final-hole birdie for 41-36-77 to take the lead.

One stroke back entering today's final 18 holes was Mrs. Canney, the Virginia State champ from Chantilly. The former Mary Alice Sawyer, who grew up in Baltimore but had never seen Turf Valley's North Course as it is now laid out, managed three birdies but also four bogeys and a double-bogey, taking a bogey 4 on the final hole for 39-39-78.

Mrs. Canney couldn't practice here Tuesday because her oldest daughter, Karen, entered kindergarten that day and there was an open house for parents. Yesterday she managed to find a good caddy to help overcome her lack of course knowledge.

The last hole was the difference as Mrs. Cush dropped an 18-foot birdie putt but Mrs. Canney missed the green for bogey. Mrs. Cush visited traps on five holes yesterday and four of them cost her bogeys. Mrs. Canney also missed five greens.

Marge Burns of Greensboro, N.C., champion the last two years, was in very good position with 42-38-80 entering the final round, and Maryland State champion Becky Doman of Brooke Manor was another stroke back with 42-39-81.

Mrs. Cush Takes Title Despite Run of Bogeys

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

ELLCOTT CITY, Md. — Starting 10 years ago, Mrs. Frank Cush began a string of one major golf championship in each of four straight years. The next six seasons were a blank, but 1968 has brought an emphatic end to the drought with two titles for the lady from Argyle Country Club.

Winner of her second Women's District championship three months ago, Mrs. Cush yesterday added her second Middle Atlantic title with a one-shot victory over Mary Ann Downey, on Turf Valley's north course. She also owns three Maryland State titles.

Miss Downey, a three-time champion from Baltimore CC, was six strokes out of the lead with an 83 in Wednesday's first round, but then added the tournament's best score, a 38-36-74 yesterday, for the early lead at 157.

Mrs. Cush needed to break 80 to hold first position but she was still on the course fighting off five bogeys and a double-bogey. Miss Downey had bogied the 150-yard last hole and this proved the difference as Mrs. Cush got her regulation par-3 to finish 38-41-79 for 156.

Mrs. Richard Canney, the Virginia State champ from Chantilly, was only a stroke behind Mrs. Cush entering the last round and was paired with her in the last twosome. Mrs. Canney ruined her chances with a 7 on the ninth hole and an 8 on the 10th, and she wound up with 40-43-83 for 161, tying for fifth place.

Defending champion Marge Burns of Greensboro had a steady 40-38-78 for third position at 158, and Maryland champion Becky Doman of Brooke Manor took fourth spot with 35-43-78 for 159. Becky was four under women's par on the front nine yesterday, then stumbled to two successive double-bogeys.

Seventeen-year-old Jo Ann Dost of Westwood had a remarkable finish with 38-38-76 for a 159 total, winning Division II by seven strokes.

Mrs. Cush Takes Women's Golf Title

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

BALTIMORE, Sept. 5—Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle won her second Middle Atlantic women's amateur golf championship today at Turf Valley Country Club with a 36-hole score of 156.

Mrs. Cush, who won the title in 1960 and failed to compete again until this year, fired a final-round 79 to win by a stroke from Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore Country Club. Miss Downey, former Curtis Cup star, fired a final-round 74, bogeying the last hole.

Defending champion Marge Burns of Greensboro, N.C., finished third with 158. Rebecca Doman, Maryland state champion from Brooke Manor, was fourth with 159. Miss Doman made a run at the title with a front-nine 35 but slumped to 42 on the easier back nine.

Mrs. Cush, Maryland state champion in 1961, was out in 38 and back in 41, getting double bogeys on the fourth and 12th holes. She birdied the seventh hole from eight feet, giving her only two birdies for the two rounds.

Jo Ann Dost of Island View won the second division with a score of 159. The 17-year-old District junior girls' champion would have finished in a tie for fourth if she had qualified for the championship flight.

Miss Dost had 83 in the first round and today posted 76 to win the second flight in a walk away. Championship flight scores:

Four Over Par

Mrs. Canney Beats Mack in State Golf

Special to The Washington Post

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 31—Medallist Mrs. Richard Canney of Centerville fired a four-over-par-75, leading the march into the semifinals of the 43d Virginia Women's golf championship today.

Mrs. Canney, wife of the Chantilly Country Club golf pro, was two down to Jane Mack of Richmond, who shot on the front nine, but took advantage of four three-putt greens by her opponent and registered a 2-up decision.

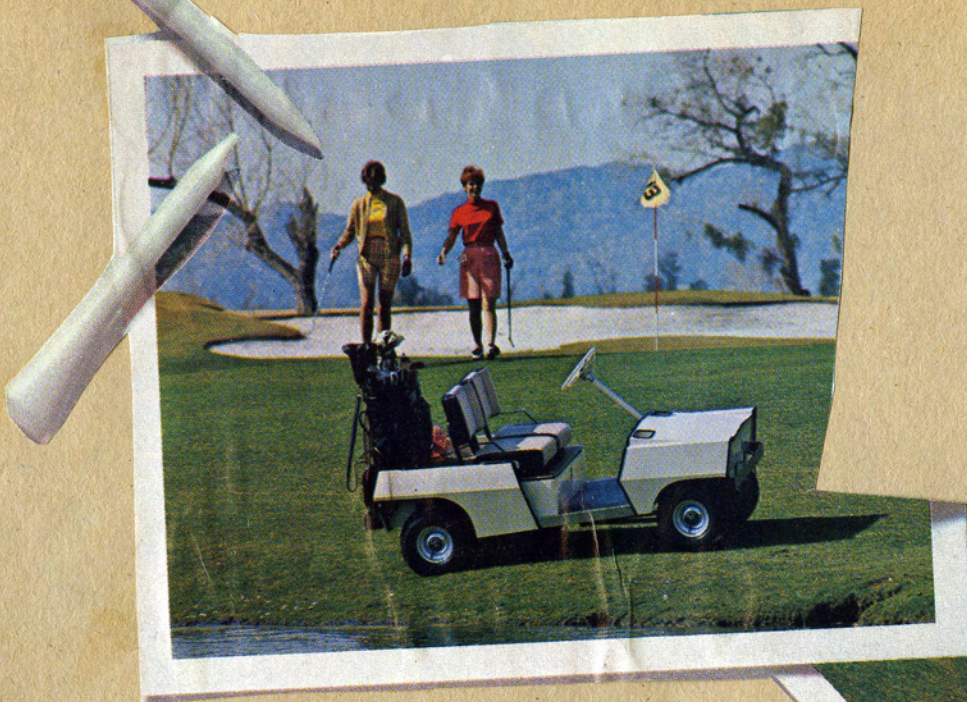

Joining Mrs. Canney in the round of four were Mrs. Ralph Petrone of Blacksburg, Mrs. Armistead Williams of Richmond and Candy Sibbick, a senior at Martinsville high school who won on the 19th hole.

Mrs. Petrone, in the semifinals for the fourth time, was two down to Mrs. J. Lewis Rawls of Suffolk after 12 holes but won the 14th and 16th with pars and birdied the par-five 17th, winning 1-up.

Mrs. Williams, Richmond city champion, scored the biggest margin of victory, 4 and 3 over Mrs. Joseph Najjum of Roanoke.

Miss Sibbick, 16, trailed Mrs. Orville Hamlin of Blacksburg by three holes after 11 but won the next three holes with par, birdie, par. Mrs. Hamlin drove poorly on the first extra hole and scored a double-bogey six, losing to Miss Sibbick's bogey.

Thursday's pairings: Mrs. Petrone vs Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Canney vs Miss Sibbick.

Mrs. Smyth Medalist In Maryland Amateur

Mrs. Joseph P. Smyth of Congressional Country Club fired an 82 yesterday at Manor Country Club to win the qualifying medal in the 48th Annual Maryland State Women's Amateur Championship.

Mrs. Smyth was out in 39 and back in 43, breaking an existing tie at 83 between Mary Ann Downey, four-time champion from Baltimore Country Club, and Brooke Manor clubmates Rebecca Doman and Winifred Faunce.

Mrs. Smyth, playing erratic golf, had four double bogeys on her card. She double-bogeyed at 6, 10, 14 and 17, missing short putts on three of the four holes.

The medalist plays Mrs. Victor Ottenstein of Woodmont in today's opening match play round. Mrs. Ottenstein qualified with 86.

Miss Downey, former Curtis Cupper, was 41 on the front nine, taking a triple bogey eight at four and a double bogey six at the sixth. She returned in 42, taking another double bogey at 14.

Mrs. Doman was 41 on the front nine and 42 on the back with sixes back to back at 15 and 16. Miss Faunce, who won the District Amateur back in the early '30s but refused to divulge her age, was 41-42.

Defending champion Joan Winchester of Rolling Road Club qualified with 84.

Nina Crampton of Congressional and Mrs. George Foster, Bethesda, tied for the 16th qualifying spot with 90's and Miss Crampton won the position with a par on the first hole of a playoff.

Qualifying scores and today's pairings:

- 9:00—Mrs. Joseph P. Smyth, Congressional (82) vs. Mrs. Victor Ottenstein, Woodmont (86).
9:06—Joan Winchester, Rolling Road (84) vs. Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington (88).
9:12—Winifred Faunce, Brooke Manor (83) vs. Mrs. Dick Wilson, Lakewood (87).
9:18—Mrs. Jack Emich, Baltimore CC (86) vs. Mrs. H. N. Hirshberg, Indian Spring (89).
9:24—Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore CC (83) vs. Mrs. F. H. Featherston, Kenwood (87).
9:30—Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring (85) vs. Mrs. Paul Dean, Brooke Manor (88).
9:36—Rebecca Doman, Brooke Manor (83) vs. Mrs. Thomas Konopa, Argyle (87).

Miss Doman Strings 1-Putt Greens To Win Maryland Amateur Title

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Rebecca Doman three-putted the seventh and eighth greens but one-putted six in succession on the back nine yesterday at Manor Country Club in winning her first Maryland women's amateur championship.

The Brooke Manor Country Club star defeated defending champion Joan Winchester of Rolling Road Club, Catonsville, Md., in the final, 3 and 1.

Miss Doman, who smoked incessantly in Friday's semifinal, didn't smoke but one cigarette during her struggle to win her second major championship. She won the District amateur title in 1966.

Lost in Semis

It was revenge of a sort for Miss Doman, who lost to Miss Winchester in the semifinals of last year's tournament, 1 up.

Miss Doman, winner of the 1965 and 1966 Payne Cup and 1965 and 1967 Keefer Cup, played raggedly on the front nine and was fortunate in being only one down at the turn. She was even par for eight holes on the back.

The new champion lost the first hole but then took the second and third holes to forge a 1-up lead. Miss Doman lost the fourth hole to a birdie to lose her advantage.

Missed 30-Incher

The Brooke Manor golfer and Miss Winchester both three-putted six, Miss Doman missing her second putt from only 30 inches. Miss Doman three-putted again at seven to go one down again.

Miss Doman won the tenth hole with a bogey when Miss Winchester put her second shot in a trap and failed to get her ball out of the sand on the first try. At the 13th, Miss Doman sank her most important putt of the match.

The defending champion came out of a trap and ran down a 33-foot putt to get a par four. Miss Doman was just off the edge of the green in two but chipped six feet short, leaving her a side hill putt on a fast, slippery green.

Studied Teaser

Miss Doman took a long time studying the teaser but then knocked it into the back of the hole to get a halve. She rolled in a 15-foot birdie putt at 14 to go ahead again, this time to stay.

Miss Doman's approach rolled over the green at the 15th but she chipped back 18 inches from the cup to salvage her lead. She sank a 15-foot putt for a par at 16 to go up two and then came out of a trap at 17 and sank an 18-inch putt for a par to close out the match.

In the championship consolation, Mrs. William Weitzen, club champion at Indian Spring, defeated Mrs. Dick Wilson, wife of the Lakewood Country Club professional, 5 and 4.

Mrs. Dean Advances in Md. Golf

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Paul Dean perpetrated the nearest thing to an upset in the opening match-play round in the Maryland State Women's Amateur golf championship yesterday at Manor Country Club when the Brooke Manor player eliminated Mrs. William Weitzen, seven-time Indian Spring club titlist, 1-up.

Mrs. Dean, winner of the recent Keefer Cup tournament at Chevy Chase Club, earned the dubious honor of facing four-time champion Mary Ann Downey in today's second round. The Baltimore Country Club star and former Curtis Cupper, even at the turn, defeated Mrs. F. H. Featherston of Kenwood, 4 and 3.

Miss Winchester Breezes

Joan Winchester, defending champion from Rolling Road Club in Catonsville, defeated Mrs. C. L. Egenroad, Washington, on the 12th green, 7 and 6, but played out the 18 holes in 77 strokes. Miss Winchester will play Mrs. Joseph Smyth, tournament medalist from Congressional, today.

Mrs. Smyth, current Congressional champion, had 79 in disposing of Woodmont's Mrs. Victor Ottenstein, 2 and 1.

Rebecca Doman, 1966 District Amateur titlist and Keefer Cup winner in 1965 and 1967, had the toughest assignment of the day. The Brooke Manor player proved up to the task, defeating Mrs. Thomas Konopa of Argyle, 1-up.

Faces Nina Crampton

Miss Doman plays Nina Crampton of Congressional today. Miss Crampton advanced at the expense of Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Harry Hirshberg of Indian Spring had to go 19 holes to defeat Mrs. Jack Emich of Baltimore Country Club. Mrs. Hirshberg hit two fine shots to the green and two putted for a par four in winning the overtime match.

Winifred Faunce, who will be Mrs. Hirshberg's opponent today, won handily from Mrs. Dick Wilson, wife of the Lakewood Country Club professional, 4 and 3.

Winchester, Faunce, Doman, Downey Attain Semifinals

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

It was no day for the married yesterday at Manor Country Club.

All four survivors of quarterfinal matches in the Maryland state women's amateur golf championship are single, a condition unequalled in the 48-year history of the tournament.

Joan Winchester, defending champion from Rolling Road Club, Catonsville, Md., turned out the first of three married victims, defeating Mrs. Joseph P. Smyth, club titlist at Congressional and tourney medalist, 3 and 2.

Miss Winchester, a Baltimore high school physical education teacher, had three birdies and 38 on the front nine for a two-up lead. The 1967 champion won the tenth with a par and halved the remaining six holes.

Miss Winchester's semifinal opposition today will be furnished by Winnifred Faunce, veteran Brooke Manor star. Miss Faunce advanced at the expense of Mrs. Harry Hirshberg, Indian Spring, 2 and 1.

Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore Country Club, played the front nine in 37, amassing a seven-up lead on Mrs. Paul Dean, Brooke Manor. The four-time state titlist lost the 11th hole, finally closing out the match, 6 and 5.

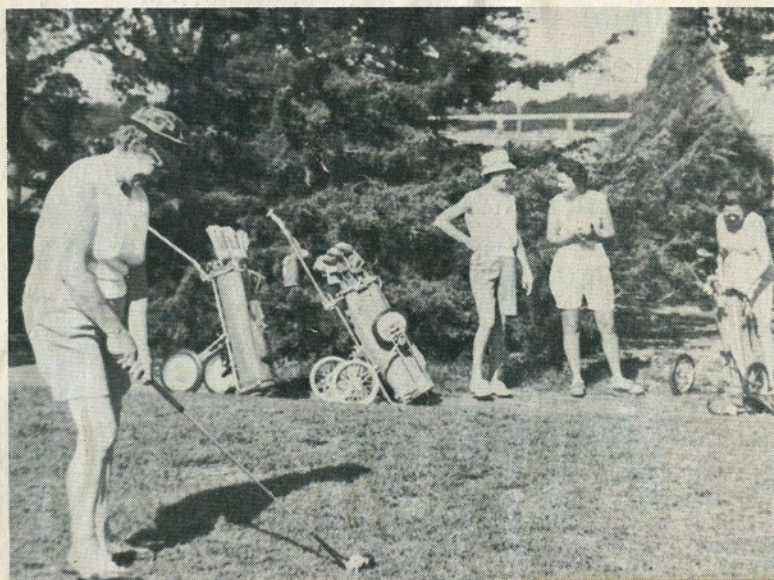

Miss Downey, who took an eight on the par-five fourth in Tuesday's qualifying round, needed only that number of strokes to play both par five holes on the front nine yesterday. Today, the former Curtis Cupper plays Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor.

Miss Doman, former District amateur champion, ran up a six-up advantage at the turn with 39 against Joan Crampton of Congressional. Miss Doman, former Keefer Cup champion, closed out the match on the 12th green, 7 and 6.

Fashion Minded Pros on Tour Adopt Miniskirts

KIAMESHA LAKE, N.Y. June 18 (AP)—The miniskirt has been officially adopted by the Ladies Professional Golf Association. Leonard F. Wirtz, the association's executive director, gave the abbreviated skirt his official sanction today.

"Most women golfers prefer to keep up with the times," Wirtz said. "Our girls in particular are fashion minded. Indeed, Carol Mann, Sandra Palmer and Lesley Holbert are some of those already wearing the short skirts."

Wirtz said he thought an official sanction was necessary to reassure some of his group's players that the association would not frown on the minis.

"I think it'll be helpful to their game," he explained. "After all, it's going to be a hot summer."

Home Pair Grabs District Golf Prize

The District Golf Association's third and last mixed scotch tournament drew an entry of 82 teams to Argyle Country Club yesterday, and the home club pair of Gerald Gordon and Mrs. Dell Carter took down first prize with a net 76-11-65.

William Kenyon and Mrs. Larry Martin of Manor were next with 84-17-67 and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swart, CC of Fairfax, followed with 85-17-68.

Jack Willard of Argyle and Mrs. Ned Looney, Army Navy, easily won low gross with 36-37-73. Tied for second were Tony Varcolik and Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Goose Creek, 36-41-77, and Jack Smith Jr. and his mother, Mrs. Jack Smith Sr., Prince Georges, 41-36-77.

Mrs. Jack Smith, Willard Win in Scotch Golf, 74

Mrs. Jack Smith of Prince Georges and Jack Willard of Argyle captured gross honors in a District of Columbia Golf Association mixed Scotch foursome yesterday at Belle Haven Country Club with 38-36-74.

Second gross went to Mrs. Phillip Evans and Henry Clark of Chevy Chase, 39-39-78. First net went to Mr. and Mrs. George Nesnig, Belle Haven, 91-26-65.

Other net winners were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Teeter, Belle Haven, 80-14-66; Mrs. Dick Wilson and Al Ridgford, Lakewood, 81-13-68; Toni Nell and L. B. Ramsey, Montgomery, 83-13-70; Mrs. Paul Dean and Jack Baum, Brooke Manor, 81-11-70.

GOLFER'S GALLERY

Mrs. Frank Cush, who last week coupled the Middle Atlantic women's championship with her Women's District title of three months earlier, was sure that once before she had won two titles in the same year.

A check of WDGA, MAGA and Maryland State records revealed otherwise, but Mrs. Cush's scrapbook, kept by her husband over the years, solved the puzzle.

To go back, the records list her as Maryland State champion in 1955, '59 and '61; Women's District winner in 1958 and '68 and Middle Atlantic champion in 1960 as well as this year. However, when she won the 1960 MAGA tournament she still held the Maryland State title of the year before. They were won in different calendar years but Mrs. Cush possessed both championships at the same time, briefly.

Stories at the time credited Mrs. Ann Barry and Mrs. Betty Meckley as the only women to hold all three association championships at the same time. Mrs. Cush, who was unable to play in the Maryland State last June, could equal the feat by winning next June, before defending her current titles.

Lady Golfers Have Brunch

D.C. Golfers Rip Baltimore

The first pair of twosomes representing the Women's District Golf Association started modestly enough with 2-1 victories, and those were the only points the WDGA lost as it romped 16-2 yesterday at Congressional in the annual Baltimore-Washington women's team match.

CHIPS—The society pages will announce soon the wedding of Robbye King to Dr. John K. Youel Jr., a Charlottesville surgeon. The ceremony is set July 6 at the First Baptist Church of Clarendon.

The couple will live in Charlottesville, and Robbye will switch her golf from Army Navy to Farmington. She also expects to share her future husband's enthusiasm for skiing.

"If he can take my golf, I can take his skiing," says the red-haired champion.

Robbye played Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Kreuzburg 5th in U.S. Seniors

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg from Columbia Country Club, Chevy Chase, Md., scored 165 for 36 holes and captured fifth place in the U.S. Senior Women's Golf Association championship which wound up yesterday at Westchester CC.

Mrs. Allison Choate of Rye, N.Y., won for the fourth time in five years with 80-79—159.

Trans-Misses Coming

Pitches... Putts

With Maury Fitzgerald

MANOR COUNTRY CLUB may host the 1970 Trans-Mississippi women's golf championship. The tournament, which has never been played in the East, has been offered the Norbeck, Md., club and the board of governors there voted unanimously to accept. The Trans-Miss., second only to the U.S. Amateur in national importance, was played this year in Battle Creek, Mich. Mrs. Lloyd Dennis of Washington Golf and Country Club and Mary Ann Downey, former Curtis Cupper from Baltimore Country Club, are this section's Trans-Miss. representatives . . . Stanley (Set) . . .

What is golf?

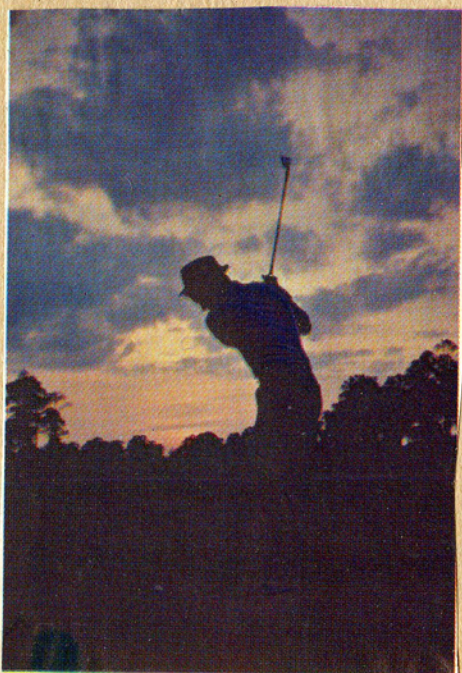

*It is the beauty of nature...
and its awesome challenge.*

Milestones in History

The first golf ball dropped into a cup for the first time more than 500 years ago.

That's a statement that meets with the approval of historians. What doesn't meet with full approval is the location of the cup.

It could have been in Scotland, France, Belgium or The Netherlands, depending on which version of history you care to believe.

But all historians agree the game was fostered in Scotland and subsequently introduced to other sections of the world by British emigrants.

Here are some of the highest highlights in five centuries of growth, all but the last one compiled by Nancy Jupp, tournament co-ordinator of last year's United States Open Championship at Baltusrol:

1457—Golf linked with football in an Act of the Scottish Parliament by James II banning both sports in the interest of national defense.

1470—A similar decree passed by James IV.

1491—A third decree passed by James IV.

1502—King James IV purchases clubs from a Perth bowmaker.

1553—The Archbishop of St. Andrews sanctions the right of the people to play golf over the links.

1567—Mary Queen of Scots criticized for playing golf within a fortnight of the murder of her husband, Lord Darnley.

1608—Prince of Wales plays golf on the grounds of the Royal Manor at Greenwich, near London.

1618—Approximate date of introduction of the feather ball.

1646—Charles I receives news of the Irish Rebellion on the links of Leith.

1650—Charles II plays golf while on a brief visit to Scotland.

1658—Golf known to have been played in Westminster around what is now Vincent Square, near the House of Parliament.

1659—Earliest mention of golf in America—decree issued in Fort Orange (Albany, N.Y.) forbidding the playing of golf along the streets.

1682—The Duke of York and a Scottish shoemaker defeat two English noblemen in the first international golf match.

1743—First golf book ever published, a mock-heroic epic called "The Goff" by Thomas Mathison.

1744—The formation of the Honourable Company of Edinburgh Golfers, the first golf club, and the drawing up of the first set of rules.

1754—St. Andrews follows suit to form the Golf Club of St. Andrews.

1759—First mention of stroke play at St. Andrews.

1764—St. Andrews reduces its course from 22 to 18 holes, which subsequently became the accepted number.

1766—A silver driver is presented for annual competition to the golfers of Blackheath (England).

1779—Golf played by Scottish soldiers in New York during the American War of Independence. Clubs and balls advertised in the Rivington Royal Gazette.

1786—South Carolina Golf Club formed.

1796—Reference made to anniversary of the Savannah Golf Club, Ga.

1806—St. Andrews decides to make the captaincy of the club elective rather than a matter of competitive skill.

1810—Mussleburgh Golf Club holds a competition for the local fisherwomen—the first mention of feminine competition.

1829—First overseas club formed at Calcutta, India.

1833—William IV confers the title "Royal" on the Perth Golfing Society.

1834—St. Andrews becomes the Royal and Ancient Golf Club, by order of William IV.

1848—Introduction of the gutta percha ball.

1856—First club formed on the continent at Pau, France.

1856—First club in Ireland at Kildare.

"The 19th Hole"

'Tis the end of golf in '68
Next year - we have a new slate
Our record in past years - has been fine
But - let's make it even better - in '69!

If you watch a game - that's fun
If you play it - it's recreation -
If you work at it - it's golf!
