Women's Title Shows Strength Of Army Navy

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

The No. 1 women's golf team at Army Navy Country Club didn't score as many points this spring as its 1967 edition did, but the current line-up probably is superior.

The competition was tougher this year in the Women's District Golf Association team matches and, although Army Navy won the championship convincingly, it was not the run-away of two years ago.

Army Navy took the team title for the fifth time in six years yesterday by finishing with a 6-3 victory over Argyle in the final round at Country Club of Fairfax. This left the champions with a total of 42½ points, compared to 48 points in 1967, which probably was a record.

The Arlington club needed only a single point to clinch the title and didn't miss its Nos. 1 and 2 players, Jackie Evans and Mrs. E. W. King, who were playing in the Virginia-Carolinas team match at Hidden Valley CC near Roanoke.

Sweep For Bethesda

An example of Army Navy's relatively stiff competition this spring was Bethesda's 9-0 sweep over Indian Spring. Still, the defending champions were 5½ points off the lead, finishing with a 37 total.

In the other match yesterday in the first division, Congressional escaped the cellar with a 6-3 decision over Prince Georges. Prince Georges, which wound up seventh and last, was lacking two players and Mrs. John Daddio surprised by winning 2½ points without a partner.

Mrs. Ned Looney and Mrs. S. K. Kauffman moved up to the first group for Army Navy in the absence of the top two players and the pair clinched the championship by winning all three points, 2-up on the front nine, 2 and 1 on the back and 4 and 2 for the 18 holes. Mrs. Looney birdied the fourth hole, and the only hole she and Mrs. Kauffman lost was No. 10, to Mrs. Thomas Konopa's birdie.

Columbia Triumphs

The final round was postponed from Tuesday, and the fourth division also finished yesterday, Columbia taking that title three points in front of Prince Georges. The other four divisions will finish next Tuesday.

Army Navy Sets Mark With Crown

Army Navy Country Club won an unprecedented fifth Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at the Country Club of Fairfax.

The Virginia service club team virtually clinched the title last week, needing only one of a possible nine points in yesterday's final to make it official.

Bethesda made a big run at Army Navy with a 9-0 shutout of Indian Spring but didn't get enough cooperation from Argyle to reward its comeback. Army Navy, minus its two top stars, downed Argyle 6-3.

Jackie Evans and Mrs. E. W. King were at Roanoke, Va., playing for the Old Dominion in the annual Virginia-Carolinas team matches. Their substitutes, Mrs. N. I. Looney and Mrs. S. K. Kauffman, were up to the task, taking all three nassau points from Mrs. Thomas Konopa and Susan Haywood.

Mrs. Looney and Mrs. Kauffman clinched the title for Army Navy by winning the front-nine from Argyle.

Army Navy finished the seven-match, round-robin series with 42½ points. Bethesda was runnerup with 37. Following, in order, were Argyle 29½, Farifax 24½, Congressional 19½, Indian Spring 18½, Prince Georges 17½. Results:

2d-Division Golf Taken By Kenwood

Kenwood defeated Tantalum, 5½-3½, yesterday at Lakewood and captured the second division of the Women's District Golf Association team matches by a point over Columbia. That club closed with an 8-1 victory over Army Navy.

In the third division Belle Haven defeated Indian Spring, 7-2, and won by a half point over Army Navy, a 9-0 victor over Brooke Manor. The first and fourth divisions were completed last week. Yesterday's results and final standings:

Seeks Fifth Straight Title

Army Navy Captures Women's Golf Opener

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

The cream came to the top in the opening round of the Women's District Golf Association round-robin championship yesterday at Bethesda Country Club where Army Navy, seeking an unprecedented fifth straight title, routed Congressional, 8½-½.

The Country Club of Fairfax, playing without Mrs. D. K. Holman, five-time club champion, thrust aside Indian Spring, 6-3. Mrs. Holman has been declared ineligible to compete as an amateur for the next two years.

Mrs. Holman and her husband, an airline pilot, won a trip to Portugal in an airline-sponsored golf tournament. The U.S. Golf Association limit on amateur prizes was $100 last year, considerably less than the value of the trip.

In 1969, the limit has been returned to its former base of $200.

Argyle squeaked past Prince Georges, 5-4. Bethesda, defending champion, drew a first-round bye.

Army Navy, winner of the 1962, 1964, 1965, 1966 and 1967 titles, won clean-sweep victories in the first two four-somes and a 2½-½ decision in the third. The Virginia service club team has been strengthened by the addition of Jackie Evans, 1968 Middle Atlantic junior champion.

The May 6 match between Bethesda, defending champion, and Army Navy, seeking an unprecedented fifth title, could decide the winner of the 1969 Women's District Golf Association team championship. This week, Bethesda plays Fairfax and Army Navy takes on Prince Georges.

Bethesda Nears Lead In Women's Team Golf

Bethesda's defending champions in the Women's District Golf Association team matches have put together two lopsided victories to charge into second place and should move to the front tomorrow when Argyle, the current point leader, is the idle host for the first division matches.

Bethesda replaced Army Navy in second spot by defeating Country Club of Fairfax 7-2 yesterday at Indian Spring while Army Navy was squeezing past Prince Georges 5½-3½ and Argyle was being held to a 4½-4½ tie by Congressional.

This left Bethesda only a point behind leader Argyle, and Army Navy is just another half-point back. Tomorrow at Argyle, Bethesda meets last-place Congressional, Army Navy takes on CC of Fairfax and Prince Georges plays Indian Spring.

Mrs. Roland Bryant, who had been away on vacation, made her first appearance for CC of Fairfax yesterday and helped save the only two points Argyle didn't win. Mrs. Jay Cone went out in 38 strokes to give Bethesda a 3-up lead in the No. 1 four-some, but Mrs. Bryant and partner Mrs. Walter Goodrich rallied to win the back nine and the 18.

Bethesda swept the other two foursomes as Mrs. Frank Law's chipping and putting helped close out the second match on the 17th hole and Mrs. James Wueste halved the 18th hole to clinch all three points in the third group.

Down in the fourth division, Army Navy forfeited 1½ points because of an ineligible player the last two weeks. Kenwood profited by a half-point and Nor-beck by a quarter, under the rules.

Second Victory Gives Argyle Lead in WDGA

Army Navy and defending champion Bethesda, likely the strongest teams in the Women's District Golf Association matches this spring, already have passed their open dates and are only 2½ and 3½ points out of the lead, respectively, in the first division.

Bethesda, idle host for the opening matches last week, swung into action yesterday at Army Navy and scored impressively over Prince Georges 7½-1½. Argyle took over first place with 11 points by grabbing its second victory, 6-3 over CC of Fairfax, and Indian Spring moved into second place in the standings by bumping Congressional 6-3.

The matches were played mostly in a steady rain, then in a cold wind. Army Navy's team not only stayed dry on its open date but also lost little ground, slipping to third place with the 8½ points it picked up last week against Congressional.

The brand new sixth division, containing only five teams, got under way yesterday with Prince Georges defeating Indian Spring 6-3 and Congressional slipping by Army Navy 5½-3½. Army Navy is entered in all divisions except the fifth.

Virginia Golfers Capture Lead Over Carolinas

ROANOKE, Va., May 22—Virginia took a 17½-12½ lead over the Carolinas team today in the first round of the 36-hole Virginia-Carolinas Cup matches.

Jackie Evans of Army Navy Country Club, Arlington, and Sally Carroll of Huntington, W.Va., took all three nassau points from Marge Burns and Jane Reinhardt of Greensboro, N.C.

Mrs. R. L. Bryant, the Country Club of Fairfax, and Anne Knox of Richmond routed Agee Mayer, Wilmington, N.C., and Billie Miller, Mt. Airy, N.C., 3-0.

Mrs. Walter Goodrich, Country Club of Fairfax, and Mrs. Doris O'Brien, Richmond, defeated Betty Polivka, Winston-Salem, N.C., and Mary Galloway, Greenville, S.C., 2½-½.

Mrs. H. L. Lady and Marge Dennis of Washington Golf and Country Club were on losing teams in the senior division.

Bethesda Women Win Handily in Golf Opener

Bethesda Country Club began its title defense in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday with a 7½-1½ victory over Prince George's Country Club.

Army Navy, seeking an unprecedented fifth title, won its opening match last week by an 8½-1½ score but, as the host team, did not compete yesterday. Thus Army Navy, chief aspirant to relieve Bethesda of the title, goes into the third round with a one-point margin over the defending champion.

In other matches yesterday, Argyle defeated the Country Club of Fairfax, 6-3, and Indian Spring won by the same score from Congressional.

Army Navy Women Take Lead

Army Navy Country Club took a giant stride toward its fifth Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Argyle Country Club.

The Virginia team moved to a three-point lead over Bethesda, the defending titlist, by routing the Country Club of Fairfax, 9-0.

Bethesda went into yesterday's third round of the round-robin event with a half-point edge over Army Navy, but lost ground when it ran into unexpected trouble from Congressional. Argyle, idle yesterday, dropped from first place to third with 15½ points to 23 for Army Navy and 20 for Bethesda.

Bethesda defeated Congressional, 5½-3½. Most of the damage to Bethesda was done in the first foursome when Mrs. Joseph Smyth and Nina Crampton took all three Nassau points from Bethesda's strong combination of Mrs. Jay Cone and Mrs. John Call.

Army Navy and Bethesda will meet Tuesday at Prince Georges in a match that could decide the championship.

Indian Spring defeated Prince Georges in the other match played yesterday, 6-3.

Bethesda Moves Into 2d Place

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Bethesda Country Club, the defending Women's District Golf Association team champion, took a half-point lead over Army Navy, its chief antagonist, yesterday at Indian Spring with a 7-2 victory over the Country Club of Fairfax.

Army Navy, seeking an unprecedented fifth title, ran into unexpected trouble from Prince Georges and squeaked home a 5½-3½ victor. Jackie Evans, Middle Atlantic junior champion, missed a 12-inch putt on the last green that would have given the Virginia service club a tie for second in the standings with 14½ points.

Miss Evans, who shot a 75, and Mrs. E. W. King posted a 2½-½ victory over Mrs. John Daddio, who had 77, and Mrs. Jack Smith of Prince Georges.

The big surprise of the Army Navy-Prince Georges match came in the last foursome in which Mrs. Fred Chaimson and Mrs. John Standcliff of Prince Georges mustered 2½ points to Mrs. J. H. Belser and Mrs. R. A. Chapman's half point.

Actually, Argyle is the league leader with 15½ points, but has played one more match than either Army Navy or Bethesda. Argyle played Congressional to a 4½-4½ deadlock in yesterday's third round of the round-robin affair.

Bethesda Loses Lead in WDGA To Army Navy

Bethesda's defending champions were all set to take over first place in the Women's District Golf Association team matches yesterday at Argyle when an express from Army Navy roared by.

Army Navy blitzed Country Club of Fairfax 9-0 while Bethesda lost all three points in its first foursome and was held to a 5½-3½ victory by Congressional, which entered the fourth round in last place.

Indian Spring bumped Prince Georges 6-3 in the other first-division match.

Army Navy, which was dethroned by Bethesda last year after four successive championships, thus regained first place in the standings with 23 points, while Bethesda remained second with 20 and idle Argyle dropped to third with its 15½ total.

Army Navy and Bethesda meet Tuesday at Prince Georges in possibly the decisive match of the round-robin schedule. Yesterday's results were not conclusive but were certainly foreboding for the six trailing teams in the top division.

Army Navy Triumphs, Nears Title

Army Navy Country Club virtually clinched the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday defeating Bethesda Country Club, the defending titlist, 6-3.

Each team still has two matches to play in the round-robin competition but only a couple of major upsets could salvage the championship for Bethesda.

In the other matches yesterday at Prince Georges, Fairfax defeated Congressional, 7-2, and Argyle won by the same score from Indian Spring.

Evans Team Wins

Jackie Evans, 19-year-old former Middle Atlantic junior champion, and Mrs. E. W. King fired one-under-par golf to give Army Navy a big 3-0 lead. Miss Evans and Mrs. King were two under par on the front nine and two up on Mrs. Jay Cone and Mrs. John Call.

The Evans-King tandem won the 18-hole points, 4 and 3, but had to go to the last green before capturing the back-nine nassau point, 1-up.

Mrs. N. I. Looney and Mrs. S. K. Kauffman gave the Virginia service club a 2-1 victory in the second foursome. But in the third, Mrs. William Kloefer and Mrs. James Wueste won the 17th and 18th holes from Mrs. J. H. Belser and Mrs. R. A. Chapman to give Bethesda its lone victory.

Face Same Foes

Indian Spring and Argyle will furnish Army Navy and Bethesda with their opposition in the final two matches. Army Navy plays Indian Spring and Bethesda meets Argyle in Tuesday's matches at Congressional. They reverse the order in the season finale on Tuesday, May 20, at the Country Club of Fairfax.

Army Navy goes into next week's matches with a six-point lead over Bethesda. The service club has a total of 29 points in four matches and Bethesda has 23.

Argyle is third with 21½ points, Indian Spring fourth with 17, Congressional fifth with 16½, Fairfax sixth with 15 and Prince Georges last with 12.

Army Navy Off To Good Start In WDGA Play

Army Navy Country Club's top women golfers have sprinted to the front in quest of the first-division team championship which eluded them last year in the Women's District Golf Association. Army Navy had won four successive titles until dethroned by Bethesda in 1968.

Bethesda CC was the host team and therefore idle yesterday as the 1969 round-robin play began with Army Navy winning impressively over Congressional 8½-½, Country Club of Fairfax coming from behind to defeat Indian Spring 6-3 and Argyle nipping Prince Georges 5-4.

CC of Fairfax turned in the surprise score despite the absence of two of its ace players. Mrs. Roland Bryant is on vacation and Mrs. D. K. Holman is not eligible to compete.

Ruth Andrew and Mrs. Myron Britt came in with a 3-0 sweep in the final foursome to provide the margin of victory for CC of Fairfax.

Army Navy Set To Receive Cup In WDGA Play

By DICK SLAY

Star Staff Writer

The ladies can polish up the championship cup and put Army Navy's name on it again, because the club needs only one point Tuesday against Argyle to win the Women's District Golf Association team matches for the fifth time in six years.

Army Navy increased its margin over defending champion Bethesda from 6 to 8 1/2 points yesterday with a 7 1/2-1 1/2 near-sweep over Indian Spring in first-division matches at Congressional. Bethesda had its expected difficulty with Argyle, winning by 5-4, while Country Club of Fairfax beat Prince Georges 6 1/2-2 1/2.

Army Navy's 36 1/2-28 advantage over Bethesda in the top bracket is the widest lead in any of the six divisions, all having one match to go.

The most interesting situation probably is in the third division, in which leader Kenwood will be the idle host next Tuesday and will be watching four other teams take a shot at its No. 1 position.

The major surprise yesterday in the first division was that Army Navy's top twosome lost a point for the first time in six matches this year.

Mrs. Ben Frauwrith and Mrs. William Weitzen won the point for Indian Spring by taking the first nine 1-up on Mrs. Frauwrith's five-foot putt for par on the ninth hole. They remained 1-up through the 12th against Mrs. E. W. King and Jackie Evans, whereupon Jackie won four straight holes with par-birdie-par birdie to sweep the other two points.

The second match was all even until the 18th hole, where Mrs. J. K. Kauffman of Army Navy settled it with a conceded birdie from four feet. Mrs. J. H. Belser and Mrs. R. A. Chapman swept the last match by 3-up on the front nine, 3 and 2 on the back and 6 and 4 for the 18.

Argyle Ready to Shoot At Leaders in WDGA

By DICK SLAY

Star Staff Writer

Argyle Country Club, which led the first-division standings after the second and third rounds, probably won't regain No. 1 position in the Women's District Golf Association team matches, but it will have a lot to say about which team wins the title.

Army Navy doubled its first-place cushion yesterday by turning back defending champion Bethesda 6-3 in the first-division matches at Prince Georges, but Argyle crept a point closer by defeating Indian Spring 7-2. Country Club of Fairfax also won by 7-2, over Congressional.

Army Navy now has 29 points, Bethesda 23 and Argyle 22 1/2 with only two round-robin matches remaining. Argyle meets Bethesda next Tuesday and Army Navy a week later, and Argyle could catch up with at least one of the adversaries, if not both.

Army Navy simply appears too strong, and not only because of the addition of 19-year-old Jackie Evans to the line-up. Mrs. S. K. Kauffman, who was in Puerto Rico last spring, also is playing in this event for the first time, and she and Mrs. Ned Looney have lost only 1 1/2 Nassau points in four matches so far.

Miss Evans and Mrs. E. W. King have dropped only a half-point while winning 11 1/2 in their four matches. Yesterday's 3-0 sweep of Bethesda's Mrs. Jay Cone and Mrs. John Call was typical.

Jackie birdied the first and eighth holes and Mrs. King the ninth and 15th. They were one under par on their best ball for the match, winning the front nine 2 up, the back nine 1 up and the 18 holes by 4 and 3.

Mrs. Looney and Mrs. Kauffman lost a whole point for the first time when Mrs. Frank Law and Mrs. George Foster won the 17th and 18th holes to capture the back nine of the second four-some.

GREAT GOLF

Bethesda Hopes Fade

Army Navy Needs Only Point for Title

Bethesda Country Club's slim hopes of a successful title defense in the Women's District Golf Association team championship went down the drain yesterday at Congressional Country Club.

The Bethesda team went into yesterday's match trailing Army Navy by six points and needing a big victory over Argyle and an assist from Indian Spring.

Bethesda squeaked past Argyle, 5-4, and Army Navy, seeking its fourth title, lambasted Indian Spring, 7½-1½.

Army Navy now needs only one point out of a possible nine in its final match Tuesday at the Country Club of Fairfax to take the title. The service club will play Argyle in the windup of the round-robin competition.

Indian Spring gave Army Navy a scare on the front nine, but the Virginians rallied on the back nine and made a runaway of the match. Indian Spring won one front-nine point and tied for another but, as it turned out, that was the only scoring it was able to accomplish.

Mrs. Ben Frauworth sank a five-foot putt for a par on the ninth hole to give her and Mrs. William Weitzen a 1-up edge on the front nine over Jackie Evans and Mrs. E. W. King of Army Navy.

Miss Evans, recent winner of the Keefer Cup, squared the match with a par at 13 and put her team ahead with a birdie at 14. The 19-year-old put her team ahead by two holes with a par at 15 and closed out the match with a birdie at 16.

WINS WDGA TITLE

Mrs. Looney 'Chills'
Bryant's ChampagneBy STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

Roland Bryant brought champagne again, but after the Women's District Golf Association final was over yesterday, his attractive wife Dorie was sipping ice tea and apologizing.

"I'm sorry all these people came out here today and had to watch me play so badly," she said after losing to Mrs. Ned Looney of Army Navy 3 and 2 at Westwood Country Club.

Mrs. Looney, who had to survive a playoff to gain a berth in the championship flight, played her usual flawless game en route to her first major championship.

"The toughest day for me was qualifying on Monday," Mrs. Looney said, jokingly. "Boy, what a head I had that day. We were at a neighbor's party the night before and I didn't think I'd make 18 holes."

Dramatic Climax

Apparently Betty didn't do much partying the rest of the week as she knocked off Mrs. John Belser 3 and 1, Mrs. E. W. King 3 and 2 and Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda 1 up in methodical fashion. Mrs. Belser and Mrs. King are Army Navy clubmates.

If she had a flair for dramatics, she saved it for the climax. On the final hole yesterday, she curled in a 28-foot birdie putt to close out the match.

"My gosh, wasn't that something?" Mrs. Looney said later. "It never occurred to me that it might go in. I was just trying to get close."

Mrs. Looney had only one double bogey all day and that came on the par-five second hole when she trapped her third shot and chipped weakly. The only other hole she lost was another par five, the 14th, when her drive found a bunker and she was beaten by a par.

Distressing as it may be for her rivals, Mrs. Looney says she's here to stay after globe-hopping with her husband for many years. Colonel Looney has retired and plans to remain in this area.

Long Game Fails

For Bryant, an avid follower of his wife's outstanding golfing career, there may be another day. Two years ago he brought champagne to the finals at Country Club of Fairfax, but Dorie was beaten on the 19th hole.

Yesterday, she was erratic with her tee shots and long irons and only her excellent short game kept her in the match.

"There's always next year," he said, but Dorie, a frustrated loser again, may be wondering if her turn will ever come.

Other final results:

Championship consolation — Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Congressional, def. Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring 3 and 2. 1st flight — Mrs. Frank Featherstone, Kenwood, def. Mrs. Looney Wins District Golf

By Mark Asher

Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Ned Looney, who had to survive a playoff to qualify, methodically put down Mrs. Roland Bryant, 3 and 2, for the Women's District Golf Association Championship yesterday at Westwood Country Club.

Mrs. Looney finished off the match with a 28-foot birdie putt on the 16th hole and forced the Country Club of Fairfax golfer to put the champagne she brought back in storage for the second time in four years.

The heat and five straight days of play took its toll on each finalist. But Mrs. Looney brought the title back to Army Navy Country Club with her usual short, straight and faultless game.

Mrs. Looney parred the first hole of a playoff to make the championship flight after shooting 88 in Monday's qualifying.

It was her only bad round just as yesterday's was the only one for Mrs. Bryant. Mrs. Looney supplied the steady game, six over par for 16 holes, and waited for her weary opponent to err.

Mrs. Bryant failed to hit her shots crisply or straight. But good chips and putts kept her from being routed. She one putted six times in 16 holes, picking up once.

After losing the second hole with her only double bogey in the semifinals or final, Mrs. Looney took a two up lead by chipping in from barely off the green on the eighth hole. With her steady game, it turned out to be a commanding lead.

Miss Evans Wins Qualifying Medal

By Mark Asher
Washington Post Staff Writer

Jackie Evans made her debut in the Women's District Golf Association championship a successful one yesterday.

The 19-year-old slugger from Army Navy Country Club shot a three-over-par 76 at Westwood Country Club and won the qualifying medal by a stroke over Rebecca Doman of Argyle.

They were the only players in the field of 110 to break 80 in the unseasonably raw weather. Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, the defending champion, elected to take her option as an automatic qualifier.

Despite winning the medal, Miss Evans took off after her round for her home course to practice. She had trouble hitting the ball straight yesterday, complaining of a "flying elbow" that caused her to fade or slice.

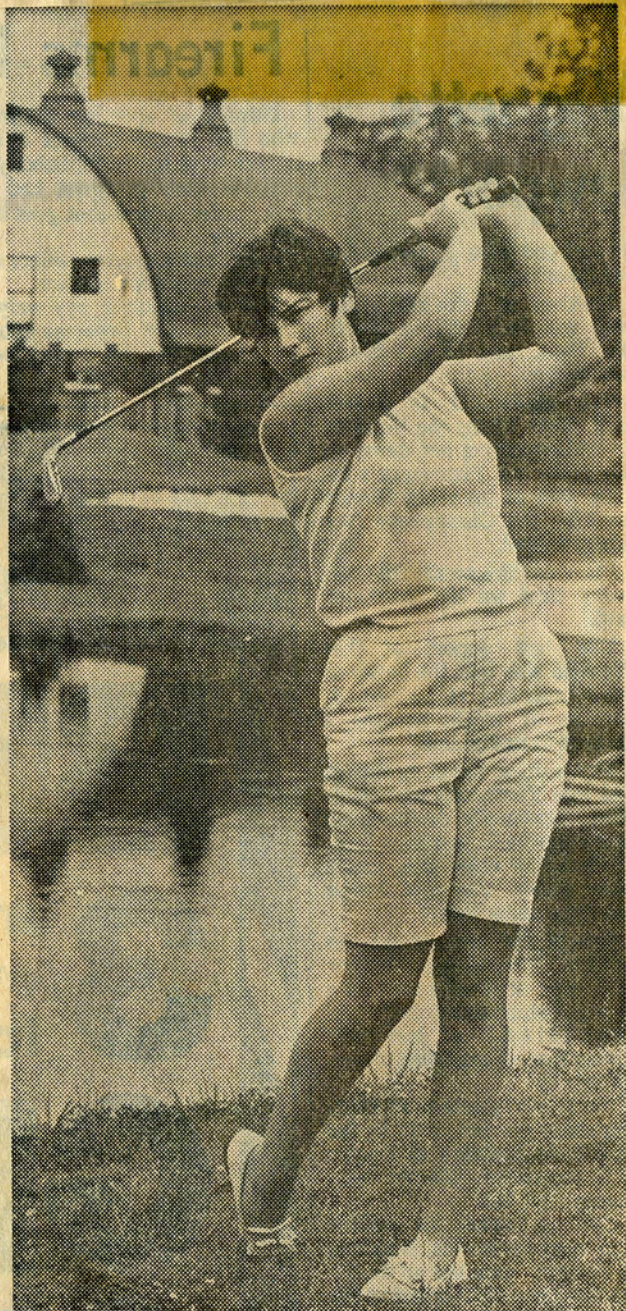

But the powerful teenager still hit 14 greens in regulation and missed holing a seven-iron tee shot on the 153-yard 15th hole by only two inches for the first ace of her career. Both Miss Evans and Miss Doman took double-bogey sevens on the 496-yard second hole.

The draw favors Miss Evans in her first area women's match-play event. She is in the much weaker lower half. Mrs. Cush and Miss Doman are in the top half, as are title threats Lynn Mercer of Columbia and Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda.

Championship-flight pairings:

8:54—Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle (automatic) vs. Lynn Mercer, Columbia (84); 9—Mrs. E. W. King, Army Navy (82) vs. Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Congressional (87); 9:06—Rebecca Doman, Argyle (77) vs. Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda (86); 9:12—Mrs. J. H. Avenge Previous Defeat

Mrs. Cone's Rally Upsets Miss Doman

By Mark Asher

Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Jay Cone rallied from four down and eliminated favored Rebecca Doman, 2 and 1, to reverse a defeat in her last tournament match in the first round of the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Westwood Country Club.

Putting with a marvelous touch, Mrs. Cone won six of the final ten holes with par golf from last week's Maryland State runnerup. The Bethesda Country Club golfer used only 23 putts in 16 holes, picking up on one occasion.

Mrs. Cone held a three-up advantage on Miss Doman after nine holes in the semifinals of the Maryland tournament, only to lose to the Argyle Country Club member's birdie on the 18th.

'It's My Turn'

"We shook hands after that match and she said she wanted to win the tournament more than any other," Mrs. Cone recalled after yesterday's match. "I said, 'It's my turn next week'."

And it was for the eight-handicapper who has never advanced past the semifinals of a major women's championship. Mrs. Cone gained today's quarterfinals along with such luminaries as Mrs. Frank Cush, the defending champion, and Jackie Evans, the medalist.

Mrs. Cone sank a 50-foot birdie putt on the eighth hole to start her comeback after she lost four of the first seven holes and shanked one wedge shot in the process. On the tenth hole, she putted in from off the green for a 35-foot birdie.

Too Much Distance

Miss Evans' distance proved too much for hot-putting Mrs. Ben Frauwirth of Indian Spring. The Army Navy Country Club teenager won, 5 and 4, despite two three-putt greens. She was four over par for 14 holes.

Straight shots and safe putting were the strong points of the 5-and-3 victory Mrs. Cush scored over Lynn Mercer of Columbia. The Argyle golfer was three over par. "I didn't make any spectacular putts," Mrs. Cush said. "But I didn't three-putt either."

First-round results:

Jackie's Round Hikes Determination of Rival

By STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

As many had expected, young Jackie Evans led qualifying for the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday, and although many of the girls already are conceding her the title, one, very definitely, is not.

While the large field of 110 was chatting in the grill at Westwood Country Club, replaying scores that ranged from Miss Evans' 76 to a few in triple figures, Rebecca Doman was out on the putting green.

Miss Doman, from Argyle, won this event in 1966 and she's not about to turn the tournament over to the 19-year-old newcomer from Army Navy without a struggle.

Becky also is trying to make up for her most disappointing defeat, suffered Saturday in the final of the Maryland State tournament when her opponent ran in a 70-foot putt on the third extra hole.

Qualifies at 77

"I was never so disappointed in my life," Miss Doman said yesterday. "It just ran straight in the hole, like it was on a string. I couldn't believe it. Maybe I can make up for it this week."

Miss Doman showed she is ready to challenge Miss Evans and the other 14 in the championship flight by firing a 77 yesterday. She missed catching the leader when she three-putted two of the last three greens.

Miss Evans, who hit 14 greens in her three-over-par round, also wasn't satisfied and promised to go back to Army Navy to try to get rid of a flying elbow that caused several of her shots to stray to the right.

One that didn't was a seven-iron on the 153-yard 15th. It wound up inches from the cup.

15-Foot Birdie

"I knew it was good, but I didn't think it was that good," she said of her near ace. "I've never had a hole-in-one. Actually, I played all the par-threes well."

Jackie's other birdie came on the 125-yard seventh when she rolled in a 15-footer. She left birdie putts inches short on the two preceeding holes.

Today's championship pairings:

Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle (automatic) vs. Lynn Mercer, Columbia (84). Mrs. E. W. King, Army Navy (82) vs. Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Congressional (87). Rebecca Doman, Argyle (77) vs. Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda (86). Mrs. J. H. Belser, Army Navy (83) vs. Mrs. Ned Looney, Army Navy (88).

Jackie Evans, Army Navy (76) vs. Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring (86). Mrs. R. A. Chapman, Army Navy (82) vs. Mrs. Monte Emmerich, Brooke Manor (88). Mrs. Steven Kauffman, Army Navy (80) vs. Mrs. Thomas Konopa, Argyle (86). Mrs. Roland Bryant, CC of Fairfax (83) vs. Mrs. James Carter, Argyle (88).

Chapman Eliminates Evans, 2-1

By Mark Asher
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Roger Chapman upset Jackie Evans, 2 and 1, yesterday and led three lesser known members of Army Navy Country Club into today's semifinals of the Women's District Golf Association championship at Westwood Country Club.

Of the four Army Navy members in the quarterfinals, only Miss Evans, the medalist, was expected to advance. But the 19-year-old's power game was erratic and her weaker short game not accurate enough to rescue her from Mrs. Chapman's steady four-over-par golf.

Mrs. E. W. King ousted Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, the defending champion, 1 up, and Mrs. Ned Looney eliminated Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda, 1 up.

9:20 Match Today

Mrs. Looney will oppose Mrs. King at 9:20 a.m. today, followed by Mrs. Chapman against Mrs. Roland Bryant. The two-time medalist from the Country Club of Fairfax birdied the 18th hole to eliminate Mrs. Thomas Kanopa of Argyle, 1 up.

Normally a nine handicapper, Mrs. Chapman refused to relent against Miss Evans after taking a three-up lead at the turn. Miss Evans, a two handicapper, had a golden opportunity to pull even at the 432-yard, par-five 14th.

Ten yards off the green in two, Miss Evans chipped 35 feet past the cup and sank a tricky two-footer to halve the hole in par. Mrs. Chapman two-putted from 30 feet. She won the next hole, getting down in two from off the green, which Miss Evans could not match.

Mrs. King Top Rated

Of the three Army Navy semifinalists, Mrs. King is rated the best player. She has a seven handicap and plays golf while off from her job in the dispensary at Ft. Myer.

Mrs. Looney and Mrs. Cone, even going to the 17th, waited 20 minutes on that par-three hole for a ruling after Mrs. Looney's tee shot landed on a bare spot in the rough just off the fringe of the green. She was refused relief because the committee ruled it was neither fairway nor ground under repair. But she putted over a mound and sank a ten footer for par, while Mrs. Cone three-putted from 15 feet.

Blazing Putter Earns Revenge For Mrs. Cone

By STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Jay Cone isn't the vengeful type, but it must have been with a great deal of satisfaction that she bit into a hamburger at lunch yesterday.

Jackie was relaxing for the first time since she toppled highly regarded Rebecca Doman in the biggest upset of the first round of the Women's District Golf Association tournament at Westwood Country Club.

"The girls are saying it was my turn," she laughed, "but it sure didn't feel that way on the front nine."

Mrs. Cone, an attractive brunette from Bethesda, was four holes down to the former champion from Argyle after seven holes. Then her putter caught fire.

A curling 45-footer for a birdie on No. 8 ignited a charge that didn't end until Jackie rolled in a 12-footer for a par on 17 which halved the hole and gave her the match 2 and 1.

Meets Mrs. Looney

Last week, after Mrs. Cone qualified for the Maryland State amateur tournament for the first time, she was eliminated in the semifinals by Mrs. Doman, the defending champion.

"I was three up on her and lost and she had me three up after nine today," Jackie grinned, impishly.

It took a little prompting and a last bite of that hamburger before Mrs. Cone, a former cheerleader at American University, would talk about this event last year.

It seems that Mrs. Doman was a strong favorite, as usual, and Jackie knocked her out in the first round with another eye-popping putting display.

While Mrs. Cone has high hopes today of her best finish ever in the WDGA championships when she meets Mrs. Ned Looney of Army Navy in the quarterfinals, it will merely be another day in the office for Miss Doman. Her vacation is over.

"I asked for the whole week off," she said, "and I hoped to use it. But I was off all last week and so it's back to work."

It's unlikely that Becky will rave much to her fellow workers about her vacation. Last week she lost her Maryland State amateur title in the finals and now she's missed her chance to regain the WDGA crown.

Favorites Advance

Everything else ran true to form yesterday, despite an early morning thundershower. Defending champion Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, medalist Jackie Evans of Army Navy and highly regarded Mrs. Roland Bryant of Country Club of Fairfax were among those who advanced to today's quarterfinals.

LONE OUTSIDER FAVORED

3 Army Navy Golfers In WDGA Semifinals

By STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Roland Bryant well might be reminded of an old saying — "you're among friends but none of them is yours."

Mrs. Bryant, from the Country Club of Fairfax, was the new favorite as the semifinals of the Women's District Golf Association tournament got under way at Westwood Country Club today. The other three contestants all represented Army Navy Country Club.

Mrs. Bryant, the only choice to survive yesterday's upset-filled quarterfinals, took on Mrs. R. A. Chapman while Mrs. E. W. King squared off against club rival Mrs. Ned Looney.

Missing was medalist Jackie Evans, the long-hitting 19-year-old from Army Navy, who fell three holes behind to Mrs. Chapman after eight and never caught up, bowing 2 and 1.

Also missing was defending champion Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, a 1-up loser to Mrs. King, and Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda, who was surprised by Mrs. Looney 1 up.

Mrs. Bryant, a two-time medalist of this event, ran in a 15-foot birdie putt on the 18th green to outlast Mrs. Thomas Konopa of Argyle 1 up in a seesaw struggle.

"I've been building up for this for a long time," Dorie said, smiling. "Maybe this will be my year. I'd better win soon before I get too old."

The attractive Mrs. Bryant was beaten on the 19th hole of the 1967 finals and lost to the eventual winner, Mrs. Cush, in last year's semifinals at Brooke Manor.

The Red Cross lost a volunteer worker today when Mrs. King upset Mrs. Cush with her steady, if unspectacular game. Already attired in her light blue uniform — and late — yesterday, Mrs. King grinned and said she was going to take all day off today.

Mrs. King, a real sleeper, is playing in the tournament for the first time since her husband, a colonel, was transferred to Honolulu in 1960. She carries an eight handicap and has won her club championship twice.

Mrs. Chapman won the third, fourth and fifth holes from Miss Evans and then was only two over par the rest of the way in denying the youngster her first major title.

Jackie was spraying her shots on the front side and then couldn't get her chip shots close on the back. She missed birdie putts on 13 and 17 by inches.

Mrs. Looney broke open her tight match with Mrs. Cone when she salvaged a par three and a half on 17 after her tee shot landed in a dirt spot off the green. Then she won the last hole with a par when her rival couldn't get out of the rough.

Championship results:

Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, def. Lynn Mercer, Columbia, 5 and 3. Mrs. E. W. King, Army Navy, def. Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Congressional, 3 and 2. Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda, def. Rebecca Doman, Argyle, 2 and 1. Mrs. Ned Looney, Army Navy, def. Mrs. John Belser, Army Navy, 3 and 1. Jackie Evans, Army Navy, def. Mrs. Ben Frauwrith, Indian Spring, 5 and 4. Mrs. R. A. Chapman, Army Navy, def. Mrs. Monte Emmerich, Brooke Manor. Mrs. Thomas Konopa, Argyle, def. Mrs. Steven Kauffman, Army Navy 1 up. Mrs. Roland Bryant, CC of Fairfax, def. Mrs. James Carter, Argyle 3 and 1.

FACES MRS. BRYANT

Mrs. Looney's Game Gets Big Test in Final

By STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. Ned Looney's golf game has been quietly and steadily improving over the last several years and today she will have her big chance.

Mrs. Looney's handicap at Army Navy is down to eight and yesterday she showed fellow club members that she can beat Mrs. E. W. King. One more victory today at Westwood Country Club and she will own the Women's District Golf Association championship.

However, beating Mrs. Roland Bryant in the finals should prove much tougher than taking clubmate Mrs. King 3 and 2 in the semifinals, although she had never before defeated Mrs. King in competition at the Arlington club.

Mrs. Bryant, a six-handicapper from County Club of Fairfax, breezed to the finals by trouncing Mrs. R. A. Chapman of Army Navy 7 and 6 in what many believe to be the most one-sided WDGA semifinal match ever recorded.

Hits Ball Very Well

Obviously back on her game after missing most of last summer because of a hand injury, Mrs. Bryant has eliminated Mrs. James Carter of Argyle 3 and 1, Mrs. Thomas Konopa 1 up and Mrs. Chapman in her drive for her first WDGA title.

Twice the petite brunette with the easy smile has threatened to win this event losing once in the semifinals to the eventual winner and two years ago bowing on the 19th hole of the finals to Mrs. Raymond Tribilco.

"I hit the ball very well today," Dorie said. "I just hope I can do as well in the finals."

Mrs. Bryant hardly appeared to be a winner when she three-putted the first hole and dumped her drive in the lake on No. 2 to go five over par on the first two holes. However, she relaxed, got back on her game and finished just six over.

"I was ready to go home after those first two holes," Dorie grinned. "But I knew I wasn't hitting the ball that badly, so I kept after it."

Mrs. Bryant started her charge on the third hole and won eight of the next nine holes to go 7 up. Included in the spree was a deuce on the seventh hole when her 7-iron shot wound up two feet from the cup.

Putting Impressive

No one is hitting the ball as straight as Mrs. Bryant in this five-day tournament, but Mrs. Looney's putting has been the envy of the large field, despite her deliberate style.

She closed out her match on the 16th by sinking a 15-footer for a bogey after dubbing her second shot into the water on the 317-yard hole. It was her second one-putt green on the back side. Pars on the last two holes would have given her an 81.

Mrs. Looney, back in the area to stay since her husband retired, spent four years in Honolulu playing in various tournaments with Mrs. King, whose husband also was stationed there.

She's come a long way since she posted a 28 handicap in her first year at Army Navy in 1958. Today she can go all the way to the top.

Gain Final

By Mark Asher

Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Roland Bryant and Mrs. Ned Looney, two relatively recent newcomers among the area's top women golfers, gained the final of the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Westwood Country Club.

Mrs. Bryant, from the Country Club of Fairfax, steadied her game after playing the first three holes in five over par and routed Mrs. Roger Chapman of Army Navy, 7 and 6. Short, straight and faultless near the greens, Mrs. Looney eliminated Mrs. E. W. Cing, an Army Navy clubmate, 3 and 2.

Each finalist started playing about a decade ago with high handicaps, in contrast to such women as Mrs. Chapman, who has been playing 32 years.

Handicaps of 21, 28

Mrs. Bryant started with a 21 handicap eight years ago. The losing finalist when she was medalist in 1966 and 1967 now plays to a seven. Mrs. Looney, who recently returned from Hawaii, played to a 28 in her first season 11 years ago. It dropped to ten in one year and she now plays to an eight.

The rash of upsets in the quarterfinals in which Mrs. Chapman ousted medalist Jackie Evans and Mrs. King eliminated Mrs. Frank Cush, the defending champion, left Mrs. Bryant as the favorite.

Out With Injury

Mrs. Bryant missed four months last year after being hit by a golf ball on her right wrist. After her shaky start yesterday, which found her even going to the fourth tee, Mrs. Bryant won seven of the last nine holes with par golf.

Mrs. Looney, whose son caddied for Mrs. Chapman, has played in only one other District championship and lost to eventual champion Robbye King in the first round.

Maryland Amateur

Area Golfers In Women's Tournament

Rebecca Doman, defending champion, and seven other Washington area golfers will tee off Tuesday at Baltimore's Elkridge Club in qualifying trials for the Maryland women's amateur championship.

Only 38 players are entered in the event held last year at Manor Country Club. Other Washington area players entered are: Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle; Lynn Mercer, Columbia; Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda; Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring; Mrs. Joseph Smythe, Congressional; Mr. Robert Dua, Argyle; and Nina Crampton, Congressional.

Pairings and starting times for Washington area entrants:

9:50—Rebecca Doman, Argyle, and Margot MacKenzie, Green Spring. 10:00—Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, and Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore. 10:05—Lynn Mercer, Columbia, and Joan Winchester, Rolling Road. 10:20—Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda, and Mrs. Ben Frauwirth, Indian Spring. 10:25—Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Congressional, and Mrs. Charles Nes, Green Spring. 10:30—Nina Crampton, Congressional, and Mrs. Robert Dus, Argyle.

Mrs. Cone Upsets '67 Titlist in Maryland Amateur

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

BALTIMORE, June 4—Mrs. Jay Cone pulled off the only first-round upset in the Maryland Women's Amateur golf championship today at the Elkridge Club, but was so excited she didn't realize she had won.

The Bethesda Country Club champion eliminated Joan Winchester, 1967 champion from Rolling Road, 1 up. Mrs. Cone came off the last green thinking the hole had been halved but Miss Winchester assured her opponent the match was over.

Mrs. Cone, captain of Bethesda's 1967 Women's District Golf Association championship team, plays Mrs. Joseph Smyth of Congressional in Thursday's quarterfinal round. Mrs. Smyth had to go 20 holes before eliminating Mrs. Milton Vandenberg of Baltimore Country Club.

Mrs. Cone was out in 38 and 2 up on Miss Winchester. The Baltimore player, a high school physical education teacher and runnerup in last year's tournament, squared the match at 17.

At the par-five 18th, Miss Winchester dubbed her fourth shot into a trap by the green and took a double bogey on the hole. Mrs. Cone, who was shaking like a wind-blown leaf, took six, not realizing that Miss Winchester had ever been in the trap.

Rebecca Doman, the 1968 champion from Argyle, began her defense with a 6-and-5 victory over Mrs. Ben Frauwrith of Indian Spring. Miss Doman was out in 40 and 3 up at the turn. She was one under par on the back nine.

Miss Doman's quarterfinal opponent will be Mrs. Frank Cush, also of Argyle. The state champion in 1958, 1960 and 1961, Mrs. Cush advanced at the expense of Mrs. Sewell Watts, Elkridge, 3 and 2.

Medalist Lynn Mercer of Columbia got off to a shaky start but rallied on the back nine to defeat Nina Crampton of Congressional, 4 and 3. Out in 42 and even at the turn, Miss Mercer, playing with a mixture of her parents' clubs, began her comeback by winning the 10th, 11th and 12th holes with pars.

Miss Mercer, who is using her dad's irons and driver and her mother's four and five woods and putter, faces a tough assignment in the next round. Her opponent will be four-time titlist Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore Country Club.

Miss Downey needed only 12 holes to eliminate Mrs. Willard Zentgrebe of Rolling Road, 8 and 6.

CLUBMATES PLAY IN QUARTERFINALS

BALTIMORE (Special)—Defending champion Rebecca Doman and former champion Mrs. Frank Cush, who are clubmates from Argyle, squared off in one of the featured quarterfinal matches today in the Maryland State Women's Amateur golf championship at Elkridge Club.

Miss Doman opened defense of her title yesterday by ousting Mrs. Ben Frauwrith of Indian Spring 6 and 5. Mrs. Cush eliminated Mrs. Sewell Watts of the host club 3 and 2.

In the first division, Mrs. Robert Dua of Argyle lost by 1-up to Mrs. Bernard Boykin of Green Spring Valley.

Championship results:

Rebecca Doman, Argyle, def. Mrs. Ben Frauwrith, Indian Spring, 6 and 5; Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, def. Mrs. Sewell Watts, Elkridge, 3 and 2; Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda, def. Champ Gains Golf Semifinal

BALTIMORE (Special)—Rebecca Doman is playing better and better each day in defense of her Maryland State women's golf championship, but her score almost certainly bottomed out yesterday. The working girls from Argyle shot a one-under-par 37-34—71 in ousting clubmate Mrs. Frank Cush 3 and 2 at Elkridge Club.

It would have been a competitive course record for women had it not been match play. Miss Doman scored 79 in a practice round Tuesday and 76 Wednesday in winning her first match.

In the semifinals today Rebecca meets Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda, who eliminated Mrs. Joseph Smyth of Congressional 7 and 6. Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore CC sidelined medalist Lynn Mercer of Columbia 1 up by winning the last three holes. Miss Downey plays Margot MacKenzie of Green Spring Valley, who won over Mrs. Andrew Young of Green Spring 3 and 2.

In consolation matches involving Washington-area contestants, Mrs. Ben Frauwrith of Indian Spring edged Mrs. Sewell Watts, Elkridge, 1 up in 21 holes, and Nina Crampton of Congressional won 3 and 1 over Mrs. Willard Zentgrebe, CC of Maryland.

Mrs. Robert Dua of Argyle had a bye in the first flight consolation quarterfinals but got her semifinal out of the way by defeating Mrs. Conrad Inman of Baltimore CC 1 up. Mrs. Dua plays in the final tomorrow.

Miss Doman Birdies 18th to Gain Women's Final

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

BALTIMORE, June 6—Rebecca Doman was three down at the turn today in her semifinal match in the women's Maryland state amateur golf championship, but the defending titlist saved face with a two-under-par 34 on the back nine.

Miss Doman birdied the 540-yard par-five 18th hole of the rugged Elkridge Club course and eliminated Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda Country Club, 1-up.

The Argyle Club star plays four-time titlist Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore Country Club in Saturday's championship final. Miss Downey earned her place in the title round by defeating Margot MacKenzie of Green Spring, 3 and 1.

Mrs. Cone, who upset Miss Doman in the first round of her title defense in the 1966 District amateur, fired a front-nine 38 and was three holes up going onto the back nine. But Miss Doman, an IBM systems analyst who gets to play only on the weekends, won the tenth, 14th and 16th holes with par to get even.

The determined Mrs. Cone rolled in a 35-foot birdie putt at 17 to get a half but Miss Doman sealed her doom on the last hole when she put her approach eight feet from the flag and sank the putt.

It marked the second day in succession that Miss Doman has played the back nine in 34. In Thursday's quarterfinal round, Miss Doman had 71. Today the 1965 District amateur champion had 76.

Miss Doman said her shots to the green on the front nine were weak and she went to the back nine determined to get her ball closer to the hole. She hit every green in regulation on the closing nine, paring the first seven and finishing with two birdies.

Miss Downey, a former Curtis Cup star, didn't play as well as Miss Doman but she got the job done. She was out in 42 and even with her younger and less-experienced opponent.

Miss Downey, who had ten one-putt greens, birdied Nos. 10 and 11 to take a two-up lead. After losing the 14th, Miss Downey won the 16th and 17th holes to close out the match.

Nina Crampton of Congress-sional shot 37 on the front nine and defeated Mrs. Charles Warfield of the host club, 7 and 6, to advance to the final of the championship consolations. Joan Winchester, 1967 champion from Rolling Road, defeated Mrs. Ben Frauwirth of Indian Spring in the other consolation semifinal, 1 up.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Aug. 1

—Robbye King Youel of Charlottesville won the Virginia women's golf championship today for the third time, defeating Barbara Hughes, Richmond, in the scheduled 36-hole match, 6 and 5.

Mrs. Youel, 26, who won previously in 1963 and 1966 played the first 18 in 71, one under par. She was two under par through 29 holes over the Cascade course.

In the seniors' tournament at the Homestead course, Mrs. G. W. Calvert defeated Mrs. A. G. Simmonds, 3 and 2. Both are members of Washington Golf and Country Club, Arlington.

Mrs. Calvert, winner of the senior title in 1966, won the first four holes of the scheduled 18-hole match.

In three matches prior to today, Mrs. Youel played only 38 holes, winning, 7 and 5, 5 and 4, and 9 and 7.

Army Navy Wins State Team Title

RICHMOND (AP) — Army Navy Country Club has won the Virginia women's team golf championship for the second straight year, and as long as young Jackie Evans is playing the Arlington club will be a threat to win again.

Army Navy whipped Country Club of Virginia 6½-2½ yesterday in the finals. Last year the service club beat another Richmond team, Hermitage.

The 19-year-old Miss Evans was two under par for 15 holes as she teamed up with Mrs. E. W. King to beat Mrs. Donald O'Brien and Mrs. Robert Brydon 3-0 in the No. 1 match.

Army Navy Gains State Semifinals

RICHMOND (AP)—Medalist Jackie Evans led Army Navy Country Club into defense of its Virginia State Golf Association women's team championship today as the semifinal round unfolded at CC of Virginia's James River course.

Miss Evans fired a three-over-par 77 yesterday as Army Navy joined three Richmond clubs in qualifying for the semifinals. Hermitage had the low total with 530 strokes by its six players, followed by CC of Virginia with 539, Army Navy with 540 and Richmond CC with 558.

Washington GCC scored 572 for seventh place, followed by CC of Fairfax with 578. Neither qualified for the championship eliminations.

Short Game Gets Tourney Tuneup

Area Amateur Jackie Evans Unlike Most Women Drivers

By Mark Asher

Washington Post Staff Writer

"She's like Jack Nicklaus. The par fives are like par fours to her." That is the way Steve Tobash, golf professional at Army Navy Country Club, describes Jackie Evans' game.

The 19-year-old Springfield resident is the best woman amateur in the area and she did all right in her first crack at the pros last week.

Miss Evans can hit as far, and as accurately, as any of the lady pros, including Carol Mann. Unlike most women, the driver is the most dependable club in her bag. She averages 215 yards off the tee.

The two-handicapper belies the usual image of the touring woman pro:

- A short, straight drive.
- A well-placed approach.
- A precision chip or short pitch.
- A ten-foot putt for par.

Miss Evans finished in a tie for 13th place in the Ladies' Professional Golf Association O'Sullivan Open last week at Winchester, Va., beating her nearest amateur rival by ten strokes. Her 54-hole score of 221 was only six strokes shy of a tie for third place.

"I really haven't thought of turning pro," Miss Evans said. "I know a couple of the pros. I wanted to see how I stacked up against them. I found I could hit out there with the big girls. But they have the good short games."

The O'Sullivan served as a good warmup for the women's District Amateur starting Monday at Westwood Country Club. It gave her a chance to work on her short game under tournament conditions.

Miss Evans hardly has time to practice because she works year-round in Tobash's shop at Army Navy. And it shows in her short game.

"Yes, I have a strong game, except around the greens," she admitted. "My game is usually about the same from tee to green. But when I don't practice, my chips are off line and my putting isn't very good."

The short-haired brunette made a runaway of the Keefer Cup, her only area amateur tournament this season. She was first in both gross and net divisions, winning by 11 shots in the gross portion of the 36-hole event.

Miss Evans admits she is "a better medal

LONG HITTER JACKIE EVANS

... "haven't thought of turning pro" player. In match play, I tend to play to the person more than to the course."

The women's tour is, of course, medal play. Tobash claims Miss Evans "has the ability to go on that tour now and make money. Women acquire the feel for the short game. It is only a matter of getting it down under competition."

That Miss Evans should end up an athlete is not surprising. "I have always been pretty good at sports," she said. "I guess you could say I have some natural ability."

Before she started playing golf, Miss Evans played softball, tennis and bowled. She averaged "150-160," as a 10-year-old.

When she was 11, she started shagging balls for her father, an Air Force lieutenant colonel then stationed on Guam. Pretty soon she was playing and shot 102 in her first competitive round.

She won her first women's tournament at the age of 13, shooting 88-85-173 in a medal-play event on Guam. Shortly thereafter she moved to Kansas, won the state junior championship three years in a row while, at 14, becoming the youngest player ever to win the Kansas Women's Amateur.

As Tobash says, "She can change the image of the professional woman golfer."

Miss Evans Has Lead in Women's Mid-Atlantic Golf

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP)—Jackie Evans of Army Navy Country Club in Arlington took a one-stroke lead into today's final round of the middle Atlantic Women's Amateur golf tournament.

Miss Evans, 20, carded a 39-41-80 on the par-72 Cedar Point course. Rhoda Glenn of Portsmouth was second with 39-42-81, followed by Marge Burns of Greensboro, N.C., at 41-41-82.

Mrs. Frank Cush of Washington, D.C., the defending champion, shot a 47-48-95. Mrs. E. W. King of Army Navy was eight strokes behind the leader with a 42-46-88.

Rebecca Doman of Argyle Country Club in Catonsville, Md., and Joann Dost of Cedar Crest in Vienna, Va., did not start.

Jackie Evans Second in Mid-Atlantic

Special to The Washington Post

CRITTENDEN, Va., Sept. 5—Rhonda Glenn of the host club won the Middle Atlantic Golf Association women's championship today, shooting a five-over-par 77 for 158 for 36 holes over the Cedar Point Country Club course.

First-round leader Jackie Evans of Army Navy, Arlington, Va., finished second with 82 for 162. Miss Evans, Virginia amateur champion, took a double bogey six on the 13th hole after shanking her second shot and finished with bogeys on four of the final five holes.

Third place went to Marge Burns, Greensboro, N.C., 82-82-164. Mrs. A. T. Belcher, Portsmouth, Va., had 82 for 167 and Mrs. Paul Wren, Williamsburg, Va., 84 for 170.

Mrs. E. W. King, also of Army Navy, was sixth with 85 for 173. She and Miss Evans captured the team title for Army Navy.

Defending champion Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle Country Club, Layhill, Md., finished 23 strokes off the pace with 86 for 181.

Miss Evans Leader in Mid-Atlantic

Special to The Washington Post

CRITTENDEN, Va., Sept. 4

—Jackie Evans, 20, of Army-Navy Country Club in Arlington, took the first-round lead in the 36-hole Middle Atlantic Golf Association women's championship today at the Cedar Point Country Club with 39-41-80.

Miss Evans had no birdies on the par-72 course and three-putted the final hole. She had a one-stroke advantage over Rhonda Glenn of the host club, who shot 39-42.

Scores were unusually high on the plush layout and Mrs. Frank Cush, defending champion from Argyle Country Club in Catonsville, Md., found trouble on both nines, posting 47-48-95.

In third place with 41-41-82 was Marge Burns of Greensboro, N.C. Former champion Mary Ann Downey of Baltimore had 41-43-84.

Mrs. E. W. King, also of Army Navy, shot 42-46-88.

Rebecca Doman of Argyle and Joann Dost of Cedar Crest in Vienna, Va., did not start.

Lindstrom 3 Ahead in O'Sullivan

WINCHESTER, Va., May 30 (AP)—Murle Lindstrom humbled the windswept Winchester Golf Club course with a five-under-par 66 today and staked out a three-stroke lead in the opening round of the $15,000 O'Sullivan Open.

The brilliant round by Mrs. Lindstrom, who hasn't won a Ladies PGA event since 1967, wiped out the tournament record 67 shot last year by Marilyn Smith, who went on to win the 54-hole event.

Mickey Wright, Carol Mann and young Kathy Ahern were Mrs. Lindstrom's closest pursuers with opening 69s. Joyce Kazmierski and Debby Austin and perennial contender Sandra Haynie posted 70s.

Four Shoots 71s

Kathy Whitworth, leading money-winner on the LPGA tour this year, shot 71, as did Jan Farraris, Leslie Holbert and Pam Barnett.

Mrs. Lindstrom had nines of 33-33 over the 5577-yard, per 35-36-71 course. She had five birdies, three on the back nine.

Both Miss Wright, who won her first 1969 event last week at Prospect, Ky., and Miss Mann had six birdies and four bogeys.

Miss Evans Low Amateur

Jackie Evans, 19-year-old club champion at Army Navy Country Club of Arlington, Va., posted 36-38—74 and was low amateur. Miss Evans was in a two-way tie for 15th place in the Championship proper.

Mrs. Richard Canney, wife of the golf professional at Chantilly National, Fairfax, Va., was second low among the amateurs with 39-36—75.

The tournament's second round is scheduled Saturday, the final 18 holes Sunday. Top prize is $2250.

Mrs. Lindstrom Wins O'Sullivan

WINCHESTER, Va., June 2 (AP)—Murle Lindstrom withstood a last-round bid by Shirley Englehorn and won the $15,000 O'Sullivan Open golf tournament by three strokes today with a closing par 71 and a 54-hole total of 208.

It was the first victory for Mrs. Lindstrom on the Ladies Professional Golfers' Association tour since 1967. She led the tournament all the way, entering the final 18 holes with a one-stroke advantage after rounds of 66-71.

Miss Englehorn, trailing by four strokes after 36 holes, posted today's only subpar round, a 70, and finished at 211.

Kathy Whitworth, leading money-winner on the 1969 tour and winner of four tournaments this year, closed with a 74 for 215 and third place.

Mickey Wright, who after two 69s had gone into the final round only one stroke behind, blew to a final-day 79 and tied at 217 with Kathy Ahern and Judy Kimball for fourth place.

Jackie Evans, 19, of Army Navy Country Club, was low amateur with a closing 75 for a 221 total. Mrs. Richard Canney, wife of the Chantilly National Golf Club pro, posted an 81 today for 231.

Victory was worth $2250 to Mrs. Lindstrom, the 1962 U.S. Women's Open champion. She last won a tournament when she took the 1967 Carlsbad Jaycee Open.

Mrs. Canney Worries About Virginia Golf Bid

HOT SPRINGS (AP) — Mrs. Mary Alice Canney, a bit worried by her own admission, opened defense of her Virginia Women's Amateur golf championship today against a field headed by a medalist who didn't seem worried at all.

"Frankly, I didn't play nearly as well as I did in practice," said 19-year-old Jackie Evans of Arlington after taking the qualifying medal Monday with a four-over-par 76.

Mrs. Canney, a Centerville mother, didn't have to qualify for the championship flight of 16 that began match play this morning. She did her worrying while walking the Cascades course.

What's worrying her is that her golfing competition has been curtailed because she gave birth to a baby only three months ago.

Today's top first-round matches sent Mrs. Canney against teen-aged Candy Sibbick of Martinsville, who shot a qualifying 82, and Miss Evans against 17-year-old Martha Gray of Richmond, who shot an 84.

With the Canney - Sibbick match in the upper bracket were skirmishes between Connie Gorsuch and Mrs. Luther Hamlett, both of Roanoke; Mrs. Robert Hughes and Mrs. Armistead Williams, both of Richmond; and Joan Dost of Centerville and Mrs. J. Lewis Rawls Jr. of Suffolk.

Other lower-bracket matches included Mrs. R. A. Chapman of Arlington against Mrs. Glenn Knox of Richmond, Mrs. Robbye King Youell of Charlottesville against Elizabeth Wren of Williamsburg, and Mrs. Ralph Petrone of Blacksburg against Mrs. H. L. Smith III of Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Hughes, who twice has won the state championship, was second in the qualifying Monday with a 77. Mrs. Youell, another two-time winner, posted 78. Miss Gorsuch and Mrs. Chapman had 79s. No one else broke 80 in the bright sunshine that bathed the Cascades.

Mrs. Lady Opens Title Defense in State Senior Golf

HOT SPRINGS (AP) — Mrs. J. R. Gessley of Fairfax offered the first competition for defending champion Mrs. Howard Lady of Arlington as match play began today in the 12th Virginia Senior Women's golf tournament.

In the co-featured match on the Homestead course, the tournament medalist, Mrs. Burke Davis of Williamsburg, took on Mrs. E. D. Bell of Vienna.

Mrs. Davis won the medal Monday with a 12-over-par 84. Mrs. Jim Reynolds of Richmond, a three-time runner-up in the tournament, was next-best with an 86 and Mrs. A. G. Simonds of Arlington posted an 89. No one else in the field of 48 broke 90.

TEEN OUSTS MRS. CANNEY

Champ Loses Opener In State Women's Golf

HOT SPRINGS (AP) — The defending champion has been dropped from the list, but two former champions remain among eight quarterfinalists in the second round of match play in the Virginia Women's Amateur golf championship.

Miss Candy Sibbick, 17, of Martinsville, eliminated Mrs. Mary Alice Canney of Centerville, last year's titlist, on the 19th hole Tuesday.

Two other former champions, Mrs. Barbara Hughes of Richmond and Mrs. Robbye King

Youell of Charlottesville, easily advanced into the quarterfinals.

Mrs. Hughes beat Mrs. Armistead Williams 3 and 2. Mrs. Youell defeated Miss Elizabeth Wren of Lynchburg 7 and 5.

Both may have to be sharp to top some of the newcomers, especially Jackie Evans of Arlington who barely had a chance to show all her promise in a short 8-and-6 romp over 17-year-old Martha Gray, youngest of Tuesday's players.

In supporting her end of the younger generation's effort, Miss Sibbick had led by two holes through the 13th of the Cascades course.

Mrs. Canney, who had a baby three months ago and has played only a bit of golf recently, rallied to tie but flubbed her drive and second shots and double-bogeyed the extra hole.

Another of the teen-aged contenders, Miss Joan Dost of Vienna, defeated Mrs. J. Lewis Rawls III 2 and 1. Miss Dost has been playing golf three years.

First-round results:

Candy Sibbick, Martinsville, def. Mary Alice Canney, Centerville, 19 holes. Connie Gorsuch, Roanoke, def. Mrs. Luther Hamlett, Roanoke, 8 and 7. Mrs. Robert Hughes, Richmond, def. Mrs. Armistead Williams, Richmond, 3 and 2. Joan Dost, Centerville, def. Mrs. J. Lewis Rawls Jr., Suffolk, 2 and 1. Jackie Evans, Arlington, def. Martha Gray, Richmond, 8 and 6. Mrs. R. A. Chapman, Arlington, def. Mrs. Glenn Knox, Richmond, 19 holes. Mrs. Robbye King Youell, Charlottesville, def. Elizabeth Wren, Williamsburg, 7 and 5. Mrs. H. L. Smith III, Virginia Beach, def. Mrs. Ralph Petrone, Blacksburg, 21 holes.

Miss Sibbick Gains Semis In State Golf

HOT SPRINGS (AP) — Candy Sibbick, who was rejected by the Martinsville High School golf team because she is a girl, has moved into the semifinals of the Virginia Women's Amateur golf championship.

Miss Sibbick, 17, turned loose a 3-under - par round Wednesday to eliminate Connie Gorsuch of Roanoke 5 and 4.

Then she scouted today's opponent, Mrs. Barbara Hughes of Richmond, who defeated Joan Dost of Vienna 3 and 2. Mrs. Hughes, who won the championship in 1965 and 1967, won three straight holes to bolt away from a tie after 13 holes.

Joining Miss Sibbick and Mrs. Hughes in the semifinals were Mrs. Robbye King Youel of Charlottesville, champion in 1963 and 1966, and Mrs. R. A. Chapman of Arlington.

Mrs. Chapman beat Jackie Evans of Arlington on the 20th hole. It was Mrs. Chapman's second straight overtime victory.

Mrs. Youel played two-over-par golf in topping Mrs. Herbert L. Smith III of Virginia Beach 5 and 4 after matching par 36 on the first nine holes.

Robbye Youell Reaches Final

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — Robbye King Youell, former Arlington golfing standout now playing out of Charlottesville, got her chance today to avenge a galling two-year-old defeat.

Mrs. Youell met Barbara Hughes of Richmond on the Cascades course in a 36-hole final for the Virginia Women's Amateur championship.

Two years ago, Mrs. Hughes eliminated Mrs. Youell in a 19-hole semifinal thriller here and went on to win the championship. Mrs. Hughes also won in 1965.

Mrs. Youell, attempting to win her third championship after victories in 1963 and 1966, breezed through yesterday's semifinals while her old rival had a close call.

Robbye overwhelmed Mrs. R. A. Chapman of Arlington 9 and 7, going 7 up after nine holes and ending the mismatch with pars on the 10th and 11th.

Mrs. Hughes, however, didn't eliminate 17-year-old Candy Sibbick of Martinsville until the 18th hole, winning with a par 3.

Mrs. Chapman Ousts Jackie Evans on 20th

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 30 (AP)—Mrs. R. A. Chapman of Army Navy Country Club, Arlington, scored a come-from-behind victory over clubmate and medalist Jackie Evans, 19, on the 20th hole today in the quarterfinals of the 44th Virginia Women's Amateur golf championship.

Mrs. Chapman, two down after 14 holes, won the 15th after Miss Evans trapped her tee shot and the 17th because Miss Evans hit her tee shot into the water in front of the green.

Miss Evans won the 17th with a birdie but lost the 18th to a par. On the second extra hole, Miss Evans drove to the right of the fairway and the ball wound up in a stump. She missed her second shot and took five to reach the green.

Joan Dost, 18, of Vienna went ahead by two holes early in the match but lost to former champion Barbara Hughes of Richmond, 3 and 2.

Another former champion, Robbye King Youel of Charlottesville, also a former member at Army Navy Club and District of Columbia champion, was only two over par, eliminating Mrs. Herbert L. Smith III of Virginia Beach, 5 and 4.

In the other match, Candy Sibbick, Martinsville, was three under in defeating Connie Corsuch, Roanoke, 5 and 4.

In Thursday matches Mrs. Youel opposes Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Hughes plays Miss Sibbick.

Mrs. Calvert Beats Mrs. Lady In Seniors Golf

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 30—Mrs. George W. Calvert eliminated fellow clubmate and defending champion Mrs. Howard Lady of Washington Golf and Country Club, Arlington, 2 up, in the eighth annual Virginia Senior Women's golf championship today at Homestead course.

Mrs. Charles Egenroad and Mrs. A. G. Simmonds, also of Washington, moved into the semifinals. Mrs. Egenroad, a three-time champion, beat Mrs. A. P. Belcher, Portsmouth, 4 and 3, and Mrs. Simmonds eliminated Mrs. Carl Fleming, Richmond, 1 up.

Mrs. Burke Davis, Williamsburg, won over Mrs. H. L. McCarthy, Richmond, 4 and 3. In Thursday matches Mrs. Calvert plays Mrs. Egenroad and Mrs. Simmonds opposes Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Egenroad, Calvert, Lady Gain in Seniors

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 28 (AP) — Three former champions, all members of Washington Golf and Country Club, Arlington, scored first-round victories in the Virginia State Women's senior golf championship today.

Defending champion Mrs. Howard Lady defeated Mrs. J. R. Gressley, Fairfax, 2-up; Mrs. G. W. Calvert eliminated Mrs. W. S. Stewart, Arlington, 5 and 4, and Mrs. C. L. Egenroad won over Mrs. Robert Rose, Culpeper, 6 and 4.

Other results:

Mrs. A. G. Simmonds, Arlington, def. Evelyn Toby, Vienna, 2-up.
Mrs. Carl Fleming, Richmond, def. Mrs. Walter Teeter, Alexandria, 1-up, 19 holes.
Mrs. Burke Davis, Williamsburg, def. Mrs. E. D. Bell, Vienna, 8 and 7.
Mrs. A. T. Belcher, Portsmouth, def. Mrs. Jim Reynolds, Richmond, 3 and 1.
Mrs. H. L. McCarthy, Richmond, def. Mrs. Virginia Meador, Alexandria, 2-up.

Canney Ousted in State Golf

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 29 (AP) — Defending champion Mary Alice Canney of Chantilly Country Club, Centerville, was beaten by Candy Sibbick, Martinsville, on the 19th hole today in the opening round of the Virginia Women's Amateur golf championship.

Medalist Jackie Evans, 19, of Army Navy Country Club, Arlington, was two under par for 12 holes, eliminating Martha Gray, Richmond, 6 and 5.

Joan Dost, Centerville, who has been playing golf for only three years, defeated Mrs. J. Lewis Rawls, Suffolk, 2 and 1.

Mrs. R. A. Chapman, also of Army Navy, Arlington, won over Mrs. Glen Knox, Richmond, 1 up in 19 holes.

Former champion Robbye King Youell, Charlottesville, breezed to a 7 and 5 victory over Elizabeth Wren, Williamsburg, 7 and 5. Other results:

Connie Gorsuch, Roanoke, def. Mrs. Luther Hamlett, Roanoke, 8 and 7.
Mrs. Robert Hughes, Richmond, def. Mrs. Armistead Williams, Richmond, 3 and 2.
Mrs. H. L. Smith III, Virginia Beach, def. Mrs. Ralph Petrone, Blacksburg, 1-up, 21 holes.

Miss Evans Captures Keefer Cup With 140

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Jackie Evans became the youngest winner in Keefer Cup history yesterday when she fired a second round 74 at Chevy Chase Club and won the 36-hole event with a net 140.

The 19-year-old Army Navy Country Club champion was both the net and gross winner but a player is allowed only one prize and Miss Evans elected the more important net.

The 1967 Middle Atlantic junior champion's rounds of 72 and 74 are the lowest ever scored in the prestigious Women's District Golf Association event. Miss Evans used a six-stroke handicap, three for each round, to capture her first adult tournament with three shots to spare.

Miss Evans, who works in the ladies sportswear department of pro Steve Tobash's golf shop at Army Navy's Arlington course, was out in 38 and back in 36 yesterday. She hit 12 greens and needed 34 putts on the spacious Chevy Chase greens.

Mrs. Helen Konopa of Argyle finished second with a net 143. The 1958 and 1966 tilist fired a second round 79, giving her a 159 gross.

Gross honors went to Mrs. Roland L. Bryant of the Country Club of Fairfax with 157. The pretty Virginia club player fired a brilliant three-under-par 34 on the front nine yesterday. The rain caught up with Mrs. Bryant on the back-nine and she bogeyed five of the last six holes for a 74.

Six players broke 80 yesterday, compared to two in Wednesday's first round. Mrs. William Bennett, Chevy Chase, who had 78, and Mrs. J. H. Belser of Army Navy, who had 79, finished in a tie for third net at 147.

70 to Tee Off In Keefer Cup

Jackie Evans, the hotshot youngster from Army Navy, is paired with Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor tomorrow as a solid crowd of 70 entries tees off in the annual Keefer Cup women's golf tournament at Chevy Chase Club.

Miss Doman won the event in 1967 and was low gross winner last year in the handicap tournament, first individual event on the Women's District Golf Association calendar.

Also entered are Mrs. Paul Dean of Brooke Manor, last year's champion, and Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle, the 1968 Middle Atlantic and WDGA champion.

Young Winner Of Keefer Cup Raises Sights

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Jackie Evans has taken her first step in domination of area women's golf which has been predicted for her, but she doesn't plan to limit her efforts to competition in the Washington suburbs.

At the moment, this prodigy from Army Navy Country Club is merely the Keefer Cup winner, accomplished yesterday with a closing three-over-par, 38-36-74 at Chevy Chase Club. But Jackie hopes to go for every title for which she's eligible this year.

These include, besides the Women's District championship, the Maryland and Virginia State titles, the Middle Atlantic and maybe even the U.S. Women's Amateur in Irving, Texas, and the Women's Open in Pensacola.

Miss Evans, who will be 20 at the end of August, so dominated Keefer Cup play that she is being compared favorably with Robbye King Youel, who swept the major titles in this section while representing Army Navy, before marrying and moving to Charlottesville last year.

Jackie shot 72-74-146 for the 36 holes at Chevy Chase and rang up the lowest gross score by 11 strokes. Subtracting her three handicap each day, her net of 140 won the big silver cup by three shots.

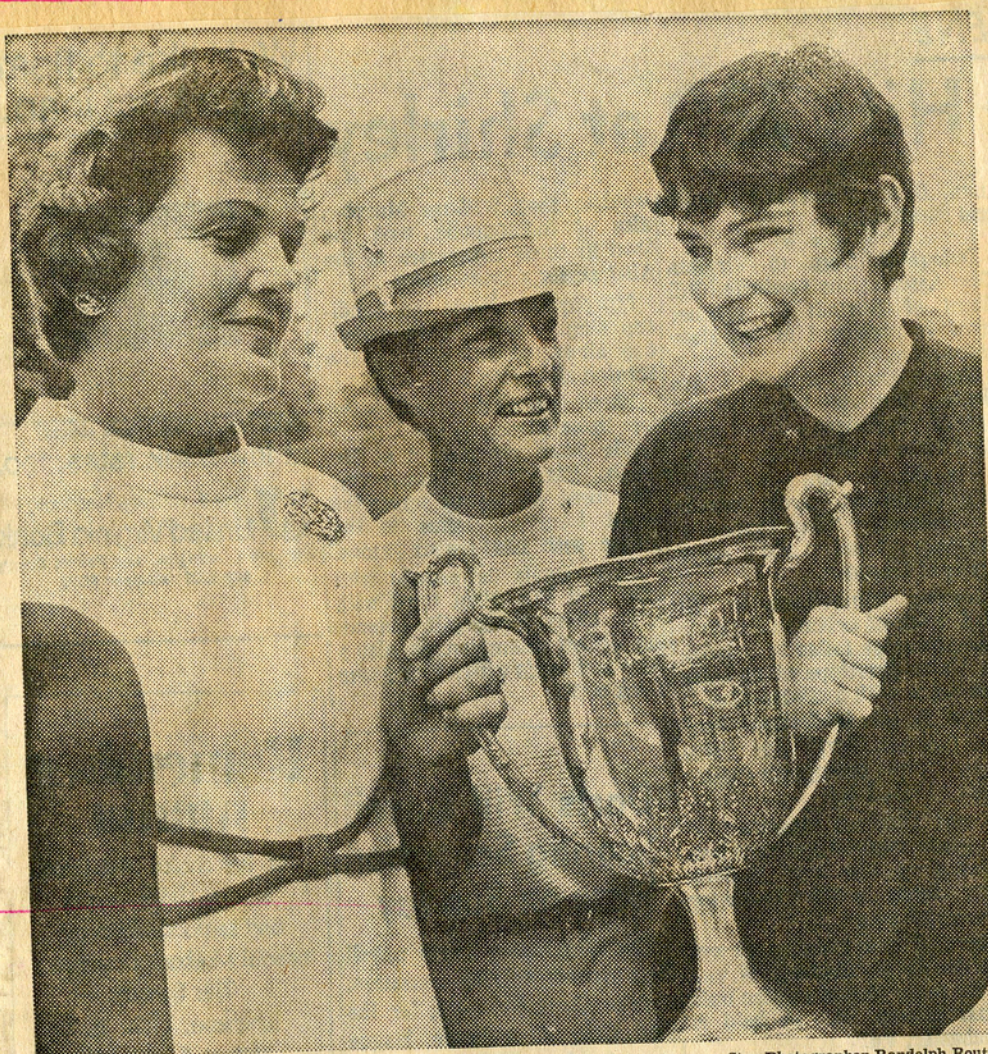

Second was former champion Mrs. Thomas Konopa of Argyle, who registered 80-79-159, minus 16 for net 143. Low gross prize went to Mrs. Roland Bryant from Country Club of Fairfax, who shot 83-74-157.

Mrs. Bryant matched Jackie's closing round yesterday with 34-40-74 and would have tied for the big cup if she hadn't bogeyed five of the last six holes when she was caught in the rain.

Miss Evans' round was steadier, with four bogeys and a birdie, but her approach shots were not leaving her with as many birdie chances as on Wednesday, when her opening 72 tied the women's course record.

Keefers Leader Doesn't Plan To Play Safe

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Now that she finally has seen the golf course at Chevy Chase Club, Jackie Evans found little reason to play conservatively today in the second and last round of the Keefer Cup women's tournament. Besides, at age 19 she hasn't yet learned how.

Miss Evans of Army Navy Country club took a three-shot lead into the second round as a result of her 37-35-72 yesterday in her first look at Chevy Chase's 5,735 yards.

It was a remarkable, one-over-par performance which tied the women's course record established in 1954 by the late Mrs. E. C. Ferriday, who was a Chevy Chase member.

Lacking the knowledge of where to place her drives on the unfamiliar course, Jackie still missed only one fairway as her long tee shots consistently out-distanced those of her fellow competitor, Rebecca Doman of Argyle.

Miss Doman, herself a long hitter and also a former Keefer champion, was out-driven on every hole, she said, and it was a new experience. Rebecca had never played with a woman amateur who was so close to par.

Miss Doman scored 38-39-77 and was the only other contestant among 67 starters who broke 80. Her 5-handicap tied her for second position at net 72 with Argyle's Mrs. Thomas Konopa, another former Keefer champion who shot 80-8-72. Miss Evans' leading net score was 72-3-69.

Three shots are not a prohibitive margin in this net tournament, and Jackie reckoned that she couldn't rest on it by playing safe today.

"I don't play what you would call conservatively—I never have," the youngster said. "I might even charge a little more in the second round, now that I know where to put the ball off the tee."

The one fairway she missed yesterday resulted in a double-bogey-6 on the 16th hole.

First Repeater in 35-Year History

Mrs. Kreuzberg Captures Second Post Cup Tourney

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Richard Kreuzberg became the first two-time winner in the 35-year history of the Washington Post Cup tournament yesterday at Congressional Country Club.

The Columbia Country Club golfer, who won the women's District Golf Association-sponsored tourney in 1950, fired a gross round of 78 and used a 12-stroke handicap to win with a net of 66.

The 1951 District amateur champion was out in 40 and back in 38 with back-to-back birdies on the 13th and 14th holes. Mrs. Kreuzberg won by five strokes, widest margin ever in the Class A event.

Mrs. John Call of Bethesda was runnerup with 81-10-71. She was out in 40 and returned in 41.

Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges had 37 on the tougher front nine and finished with 77 to win gross. Jackie Evans of Army Navy was second low gross with 78. Miss Evans was out in 41 with a double-bogey seven at nine.

Mrs. William Weitzen, seven-time club titlist at Indian Spring, posted 82-9-73 and finished in a tie with Mrs. J. R. Gossley of the Country Club of Fairfax for third net. The latter was 85-12-73.

Rebecca Doman, 1968 Maryland state amateur champion from Argyle, had a net 74 and finished in a three-way tie for fifth. Miss Doman posted a gross round of 80.

Mrs. Morris Zuckerman, Indian Spring, 86-12-74, and Mrs. P. W. Evans, Chevy Chase, 86-12-74, were other fifth-place finishers.

Other net winners in the one-day, 18-hole event were: Mrs. Murphy Booth, Manor, 86-11-75; Mrs. John Keram, Columbia, 88-13-75; Susan Hayward, Argyle, 85-10-75; Mrs. Byron Mercer, Manor, 87-12-75, and Frances Abrino, Army Navy, 88-13-75.

Mrs. James Carter of Argyle (right) is congratulated by Mrs. Joseph Smyth of Congressional after winning a playoff for the Class A Star Cup yesterday at Springfield Country Club.

MRS. CARTER TRIUMPHS

Bogeys Decisive in Star Cup

Mrs. James Carter was women's golf champion at three clubs in California before moving here with a 9-handicap 14 months ago. She's now an 11 at Argyle but is sure she'll be a 9 again next month, especially after winning the Class A Evening Star Cup.

The Women's District Golf Association held its first tournament at Springfield Country Club yesterday and four players in the field of 47 broke 80, but Mrs. Carter's net 81-11-70 tied for first place and she won the playoff.

Mrs. Joseph Smyth of Congressional was the early leader with 36-42-78, minus eight handicap strokes for a net 70. She started with a bogey and eight straight pars, but in the playoff she couldn't repeat it.

Golf Prize Taken By Mrs. Daddio

Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges Country Club got a late start this golf season, but she's making up for it in a hurry.

She ran away from the field of 68 yesterday at Columbia to top both the gross and net lists. Naturally, she took the net prize, the Corby Cup, with her 75-4-71.

Nina Crampton of Congressional was second with 84-10-74, a stroke ahead of Mrs. James Wueste of Bethesda, 88-13-75, and Mrs. Robert Anderlik of Springfield, also 88-13-75.

Jackie Evans, the 19-year-old standout from Army Navy, took the gross prize with her 79. Lynn Mercer of Columbia was second with 83.

Mrs. O'Rourke Wins WRC Cup

Mrs. Edward O'Rourke, who won the first Women's District Golf Association tournament she played in, won again yesterday, six years later.

On leave of absence from her secretary's job since February, Mrs. O'Rourke got her handicap down to 10 and her game in shape to score 43-41-84 yesterday on her home course. Her net 74 won the Class A WRC Cup by one shot from River Bend's Mrs. Donald Coates.

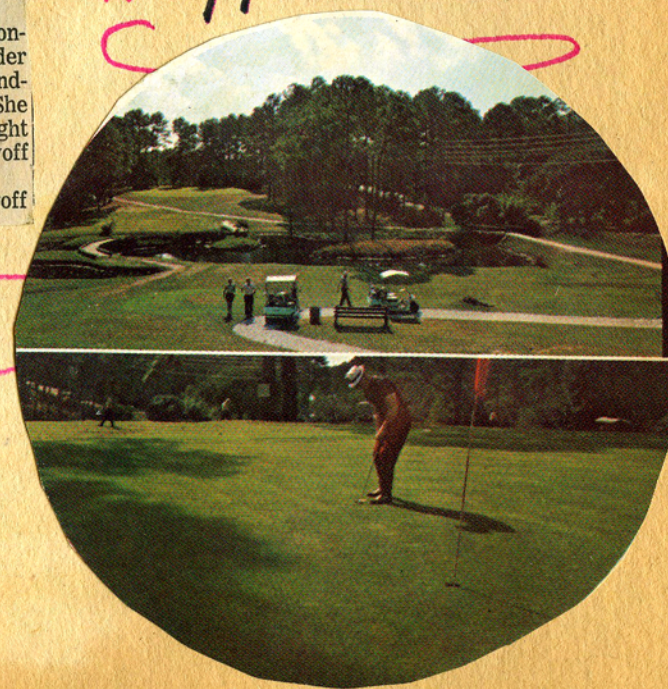

Jackie Evans of Army Navy scored 39-39-78 for the low gross prize and clubmate Mrs. Ned Looney had 43-40-83 for second gross, but their handicaps were too low for the big one.

THE WASHINGTON POST

Mrs. Brocken Shoots 86-15-71, Wins Post Cup

Mrs. George Brocken used her course knowledge to advantage yesterday in winning the Women's District Golf Association Class B Washington Post Cup tournament at Bethesda Country Club.

The host-club player won both net and gross with 86-15-71 but elected to accept the more important net trophy. Mrs. John Allyn of Kenwood fell heir to gross with a 91.

Mrs. Walter Teeter of Belle Haven captured second net with 92-16-76. Other leaders were: Mrs. Shelley Blitz, Woodmont, 95-17-78; Mrs. John Beckner, Army Navy, 96-17-78; Mrs. Ray Sparks, Argyle, 95-17-78; Mrs. Walter J. Foley, Manor, 94-16-78; Mrs. Robert Thurner, Tantallon, 94-16-78; Mrs. Donald Coates, River Bend, 94-15-79; Mrs. Herb Rudd, Bethesda, 93-14-79.

Mrs. Porter Easy Victor In Star Cup

Mrs. Harry Porter shot her career round at Washington Golf and Country Club Sunday with an 83, which should have been warning enough to the other entries yesterday in the Women's District Golf Association's Class B Evening Star Cup on the same course.

After 33 cancellations because of the rain, a field of 43 tenacious souls teed off in the annual event, and none came close to Mrs. Porter. She triple-bogeyed the final hole and still won easily with a net 91-17-74.

WMAL Cup Taken By Mrs. Teeter For Second Time

Mrs. Walter Teeter of Belle Haven pulled out her trusty 6-wood on every tee but a couple of the par-3 holes yesterday at Tantallon and won her ninth cup in Women's District Golf Association competition over the years.

Mrs. Teeter shot a net 84-17-67 to capture the Class B WMAL Cup, regaining a title she won two years ago at Brooke Manor. Mrs. R. B. Coates of Indian Spring took second prize with a low gross score of 82 on the soggy course.

Mrs. Beckner Heads Red Cross Service

By RUTH DEAN
Star Staff Writer

A woman who believes the blessings of personal good health should be shared with those not so blessed is the new chairman of the District Red Cross Chapter's hospital and recreation service.

Mrs. John O. Beckner is responsible for the volunteer needs of 20 area hospitals but the most pressing request now demanding her attention is one from Walter Reed Army General Hospital—a call for 178 new volunteers, the largest single call since the Korean war.

Exhausting Schedule

"I believe people who are blessed with health and energy—and I have plenty of that—should share it with people who don't have it," she said to explain how she manages a schedule that would exhaust a younger woman.

Mrs. Beckner is not only a longtime regular Red Cross volunteer, but holds down a parttime department store job, wins golf tournament cups and makes all her own clothes in the best couturier fashion.

The wife of a retired Army colonel, Mrs. Beckner began her Red Cross volunteer work in World War II as a staff aide in Little Rock, Ark.

Worked With Amputees

No stranger to Walter Reed, she spent the last year and a half as a crafts volunteer helping with young Vietnam war wounded veterans.

She especially worked with amputees, showing them how to make hooked rugs. Of her first reactions, she said "you really feel ashamed of any feelings you have of being scared when you see a cheerful boy with missing legs and one arm."

Mrs. Beckner said she worked only with men who were bed patients and confined to the ward. In addition to showing them how to hook rugs, she also showed them how to stuff animals and do leather tooling.

"One boy made seven rugs before he left," she said proudly. Then added: "I used to think if I had both legs in traction like he did for five months, how would I react."

Avid Golfer

Of the rewards of being a volunteer, Mrs. Beckner said "You can have a million things on your mind but when you see these wounded servicemen you forget all those things."

A petite size 8, Mrs. Beckner says she owes her energy to "my Scottish ancestry," a civic-minded family, no smoking and regular participation in sports.

She took up golf "when I was pregnant and couldn't play tennis." She's now a grandmother of six. President for the last eight years of the D.C. Women's Golf Association, Mrs. Beckner has helped win trophies for the Army and Navy Country Club's women's team.

Her husband, a former college athlete himself, shares her golfing interest. He's president this year of the Men's D.C. Golf Association.

The additional 178 volunteers needed at Walter Reed will supplement the 188 Red Cross aides already working there, Mrs. Beckner pointed out. Consulting a chart of volunteer needs submitted by Brig. Gen. Frederic J. Hughes Jr., commanding general of the hospital, she said volunteers are needed in practically every department of the hospital, and in particular for receptionist duty, feeding and escorting on wards. Men and women are both needed.

A Red Cross basic course for new volunteers will be held on Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Red Cross District Chapter headquarters at 2025 E St. NW, after which the volunteers will be interviewed by both Red Cross and Walter Reed staff members and enrolled in the Walter Reed orientation course. After that they are full-fledged Red Cross volunteers.

Mrs. Beckner Wins Cup in Seniors' Golf

Mrs. J. O. Beckner of Army Navy Country club shot a net 85-16-69 to win the Meckley Cup in a Women's District Golf Association seniors' tournament yesterday at Indian Spring Country Club.

Mrs. J. R. Gessley of Fairfax won the gross division with 82.

Tied for net runnerup were Mrs. R. G. Luckie of Army Navy, 90-20-70, and Mrs. R. H. Evert of Fairfax, 92-22-70.

Jackie Evans' chance for a record total in the Homewood Invitation golf tournament was ruined by a second-round 83, but that score Wednesday served a purpose in the 54-hole event which concluded yesterday at Manor Country Club. It got Jackie back on the practice tee.

With the help of Mrs. E. W. King, a clubmate from Army Navy, Miss Evans discovered a flaw in her backswing late Wednesday afternoon. Yesterday, her swing smoother and her putter also working, Jackie spun a 37-36-73 to win the championship by five shots.

The score, one under women's par at Manor, equaled the tournament record of Mrs. John Youel, the former Robbye King who opened with a 73 in 1966. Miss Evans' 54-hole total of 235 was one stroke above that record in the event's five years.

Runner-up for the third time in four years was Jessie Finucan from Summerville, S.C., who carried a two-shot lead into the final day and scored 39-41-80 for 240. Rebecca Doman of Argyle took third place at 248 after winning a playoff from Richmond's Jane Mack on the first hole with a conceded par.

Playing in different twosomes, Miss Evans caught up with Miss Finucan on the third hole when the latter took a double-bogey 5. Birdies on the fourth, ninth and 11th holes helped give Jackie a one-stroke lead coming to the 419-yard 16th, a par-5 for women, where the 19-year-old slugger went out of sight.

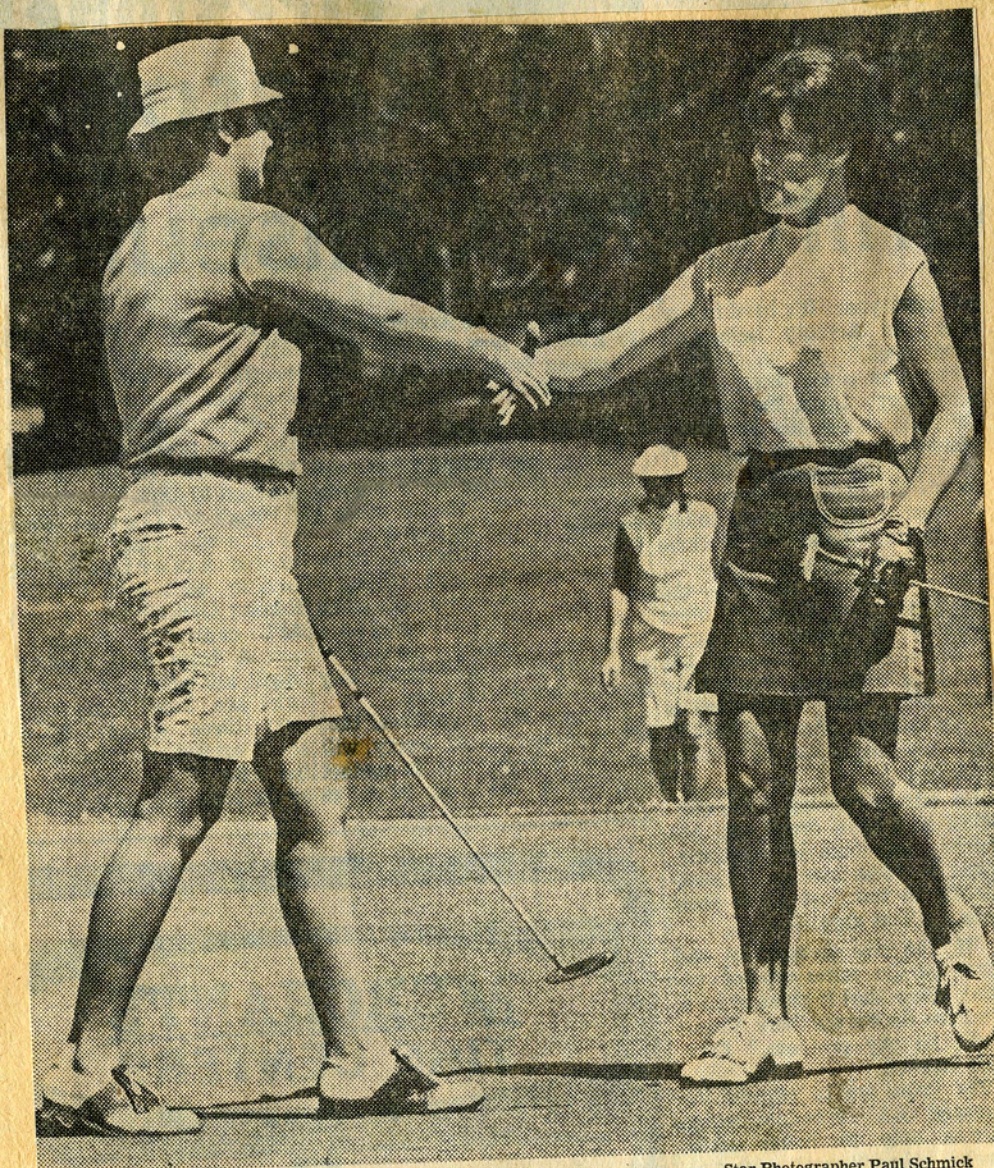

Jackie reached the green with a drive and a 3½-wood, then sank an eight-foot putt for eagle 3. Jessie followed in the last twosome and four-putted for 7.

"I saw her make the putt ahead of me," Miss Finucan explained, "and I thought it was for a birdie. So I had to charge my putt for birdie to stay one shot back, and I hit it 10 feet past the cup and needed three more putts from there. It was kind of slick out there."

Net winners were Mrs. R. L. Bryant, Country Club of Fairfax, 252-21-231 in the first division; Mrs. William Weaver, Argyle, 267-33-234 in the second, and

Mrs. James Wueste, Bethesda, 271-39-232 in the third.

Jackie Evans Bids for Final Teen-Age Win

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Jackie Evans will be 20 years old next week and nothing would top off her teen-age career as a golfer like one more championship. She hasn't won anything since the Keefer Cup in early May and it has been a frustrating season.

The young belter from Army Navy put herself in excellent position for another major title yesterday by tying for the first-round lead in the fifth annual Homewood Invitation tournament at Manor Country Club. The tournament continues today and tomorrow.

Jackie shot 38-41-79, five over women's par on the damp course, to share the lead with defending champion Mrs. Robert Hughes of Hermitage CC in Richmond and 1968 runner-up Jessie Finucan, Summerville, S.C.

Mrs. Hughes triple-bogeyed the 10th hole and double-bogeyed the 13th to go seven over par but she rallied with birdies on the 14th and 18th for 38-41-79. Miss Finucan shot 39-40-79 with one double bogey and two birdies.

Miss Evans has been experiencing difficulty around the greens and also with her best club, the driver, this summer. She's had a tendency to hook, but yesterday she seemed to smooth the swing and was encouraged. Jackie sufered only one three-putt green, the ninth, where she took a double-bogey 7.

Mrs. Hughes Fires 79, Ties in Homewood Golf

Defending champion Mrs. Robert Hughes of Hermitage Country Club, Richmond, fashioned a first-round 79 in the fifth annual Homewood Invitation golf tournament yesterday and finished in a three-way tie for the lead in the 54-hole event.

Mrs. Hughes, three-time champion at the host Manor Country Club, was out in 38 and back in 41, tying 19-year-old Jackie Evans of Army Navy and Jessie Finucan of Summerville, S.C.

Miss Finucan, who birdied the third and eighth holes of the rain-soaked course, was 39 on the tree-lined front nine and 40 on the back. Miss Evans double-bogeyed the ninth to get out in 38 and double-bogeyed the 16th to be 41 on the journey home.

The course played long and the wet fairways and intermittent showers took their toll. Nearest in pursuit of the three leaders was Lynn Mercer of Columbia with 42-38-80.

Two former Maryland state amateur champions, Mrs. Frank Cush and Rebecca Doman, both of Argyle, tied for fifth with 82s. The leaders:

Jessie Finucan Pacing Homewood Golf Event

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Jessie Finucan has come up from Summerville, S.C., four straight years to play in the Homewood Invitation women's golf tournament and was in her best position to take the championship today in the final 18 holes at Manor Country Club.

Runner-up in 1966 and last year, Miss Finucan took a two-shot lead into the final round despite a 40-41-81 score yesterday which placed her at 160 for 36 holes. Jackie Evans of Army Navy and defending champion Mrs. Robert Hughes, who tied Jessie in the opening round, slipped even more yesterday.

Miss Evans posted 42-41-83 to land in second position at 162 and Jane Mack of Richmond stole into third place at 164 following a 40-41-81. Mrs. Hughes, also from Richmond, scored 45-43-88 with six double bogeys.

The seven-over-par scores of Misses Finucan and Mack were matched by Mrs. R. L. Bryant from Country Club of Fairfax with 40-41-81 as the day's lowest rounds as the Manor course continued to play very long for the field. Yesterday's play was delayed an hour because of the overnight rain.

Miss Finucan started with a birdie 3 on the first hole, sinking a 25-foot putt, then suffered eight bogeys before paring the last six holes for a strong finish. Miss Mack birdied the final hole for her 81.

Miss Evans Takes Title at Homewood

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Jackie Evans fired a record-equaling 73 yesterday at Manor Country Club to capture the fifth annual Homewood Invitation Tournament title with a 54-hole score of 235.

The 19-year-old Army Navy Country Club golfer started the day two strokes off the pace but caught leader

Jessie Finucan with 37 on the front nine and went on to win by five strokes with a back-nine 36.

Miss Finucan, Carolinas champion from Summerville, S.C., was second for the third straight year. She lost undisputed lead with a front nine of 39 and then four-putted the 16th green to lose her chance at the title winding up at 240.

Rebecca Doman of Argyle and Jane Mack of Hermitage Country Club, Richmond, tied for third with 248 scores. Defending champion Mrs. Robert Hughes of Richmond, tied Meezie Pritchett of Raleigh, N.C., for sixth place at 251.

Miss Evans, winner of the Keefer Cup this spring at Chevy Chase, started her fine round with a bogey. And, after birdieing the fourth from 24 inches, she bogeyed the sixth and seventh holes.

Knowing she needed a birdie four on the 18th to tie the course record 73 established by Mrs. Robbye King Youel in the first round of the 1966 Homewood event, Miss Evans put her second in a trap. But she blasted out and sank a three-foot putt for her four.

Mrs. Roland L. Bryant of the Country Club of Fairfax won net in the championship division with 231. Mrs. John P.

Call, Bethesda, won gross with 256 and Mrs. William Weaver, Argyle, net with 234 in the second division.

Pat Blanche of the host club was gross winner with 266 and Mrs. James Wueste, Bethesda, net with 232 in the third flight. Leading scores:

Two-Stroke Advantage

Jessie Finucan Leads at Manor

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Jessie Finucan, Carolinas champion and only scratch player in the fifth annual Homewood Invitation golf tournament, posted a second-round 81 yesterday at Manor Country Club and took a two-stroke lead in the 54-hole event with a 36-hole score of 160.

Runnerup in 1966 and 1968, the South Carolina state

titlist was out in 40 and back in 41, playing some of her round in a drizzling rain.

The starting times were set back an hour because of the wet condition of the course. Miss Finucan, who was fortunate to be one of the late starters, began her round with a birdie on the first hole.

Miss Evans Has 83

Jackie Evans, 19-year-old Army Navy Country Club star, was 42-41-83 for yesterday's round for a two-day total of 162. Miss Evans is playing in the event for the first time.

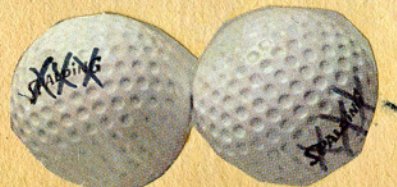

Defending champion Mrs. Robert Hughes of Hermitage Country Club, Richmond, soared to 88 yesterday and wound up in a tie for fifth place at 167. Mrs. Hughes, who has won the Manor club women's championship three times, collected double-bogey sevens at the fourth and ninth holes

Second-Round 83

Jane Mack of Richmond, Va., pulled into third place with a second-round 83 and a 164 total. Next at 166 came Mrs. Roland Bryant of the Country Club of Fairfax, who shot a second-round 40-41-81 for a 166 score.

Tying with Mrs. Hughes was Lynn Mercer, Columbia, who posted a second-round 87 that included a seven on the par-four first hole and a seven on the par-three third. Leaders:

Payne Cup

Miss Evans Caps Year By Payne Cup Victory

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Miss Jackie Evans of Army Navy Country Club won the Payne Cup golf tournament yesterday, capping a year which had been predicted for her but which was a long time reaching the expected level.

Two strokes behind Mrs. William Weitzen after the first round Thursday, Jackie yesterday shot the tournament's low round of 40-38-78 at Congressional and won with a two-day, 36-hole total of 160.

Mrs. Weitzen, the first-day leader with 80, scored 42-39-81 yesterday and settled for second place with 161.

Miss Evans, who turned 20 in late August, won the Keefer Cup last spring at Chevy Chase but was denied a major victory until mid-August when she captured the Homewood Invitation at Manor CC.

Not long afterward, Jackie helped the Virginias team to a rare victory over the Carolinas in their yearly team match, then led Army Navy CC to a repeat title in the Virginia State women's club championship.

Jackie, playing in the company of Mrs. Weitzen yesterday, went in front to stay with a par-4 on the 10th hole and padded her lead to three strokes on the 11th when she scored par-4 and Mrs. Weitzen took a double bogey.

Mrs. Albert Slaman of Lakewood won the low-net prize for the two days with 88-91-179, minus 32 handicap strokes for 147. Daily net prizes went to Mrs. James Carter, Argyle, 84-9-75 Thursday, and Mrs. C. T. Cabrera, Prince Georges, 90-16-74 yesterday.

Mrs. Weitzen Leads Cup Golf

Mrs. William Weitzen, the many-time women's club champion at Indian Spring, carried a two-shot lead into today's final 18 holes of the Payne Cup golf tournament at Congressional, and the margin couldn't have been more vulnerable.

Mrs. Weitzen opened with a modest 40-40-80 yesterday and was surprised to find herself two strokes better than Army Navy's Jackie Evans, the Keefer Cup and Homewood Invitation champion this year, and Mrs. Joseph Smyth, who is a many-time club titlist at both Congressional and Goose Creek.

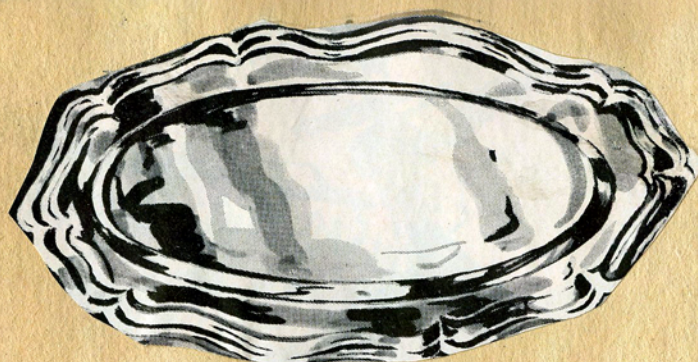

Playing the back and middle nines in that order—because the front nine holes are undergoing repairs—Miss Evans had 43-39-82. She started 7-6-4, or five over par on the first three holes.

Maryland State champion Mary Ann Downey shot herself out of contention with 45-45-90 and defending champion Mrs. Richard Wilson of Lakewood probably did the same with an 87.

Presidents Plate

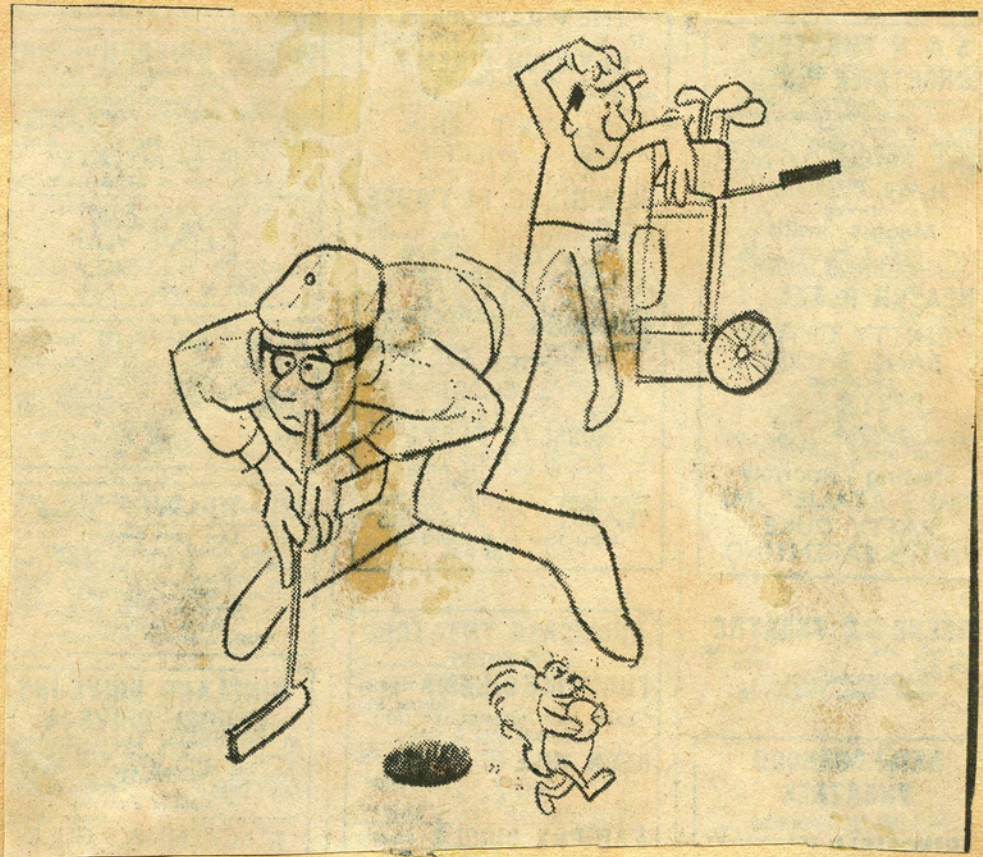

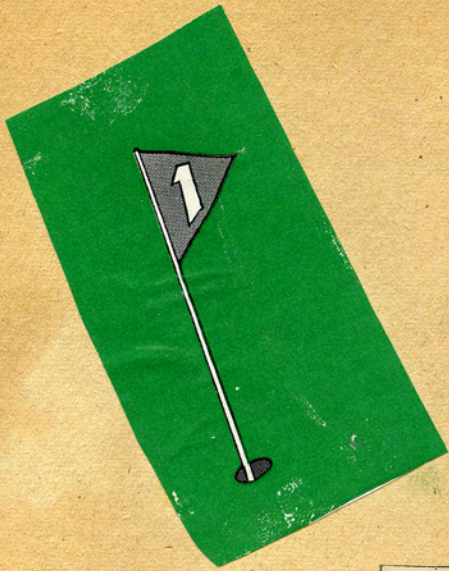

Mrs. Hoddinott Wins President's Plate Golf

Mrs. Richard Hoddinott of Bethesda won the Women's District Golf Association's abbreviated President's Plate tournament yesterday at Brooke Manor. She scored a net 44-10-34 for the nine holes, after rain required cutting the scheduled 18-hole event in half.

Mrs. Ben Frauworth of Indian Spring scored 39 and Mrs. Robert Dua, Argyle, 42 to take the two gross prizes. Trailing Mrs. Hoddinott in net, among 54 contestants, were Mrs. R. G. Luckie, Army Navy, 45-10-35, and Mrs. W.W. Teeter of Belle Haven with 43-8-35.

Goodrich, Mrs. Bryant Win at 74

Mrs. Roland L. Bryant and Walter Goodrich fired 74 and captured gross honors in a District Golf Association mixed Scotch foursome yesterday at Tantallon Country Club.

The Country Club of Fairfax team was out in 38 and back in 36. Tying for second were Jackie Evans and Walter Tobash of Army Navy with Pat Blanche, Manor, and Jack Willard, Argyle, each with 75s.

Net honors in the one-day, 18-hole event went to Mrs. Harry Lawson, Bethesda, and Dick Slay, Manor, with 79-17-62. Polly Bell, Westwood, and Paul Astalos, Tantallon, were second with 81-18-63.

Third place in the net went to Mrs. Morton Shiff and Dick Ayers, Argyle, with 76-11-65. Buddy Sharket of Manor, who teamed with his wife and finished tied with five other teams at 66, aced the 165-yard 18th hole, sinking a four-iron shot.

Mrs. Mc Altin Wins Wiffy Cox Tourney

Mrs. J. R. McAltin captured the first Wiffy Cox Memorial tournament yesterday at Congressional Country Club with a 36-hole net 152.

Mrs. McAltin posted gross rounds of 98 and 94. Gross went to Nina Crampton with 172.

Army Navy Women Win

Two members of Army Navy Country Club's championship team—Mrs. R. A. Chapman and Mrs. A. A. Kopcsak—made a shambles of the District Golf Association's Marlowe Rup tournament yesterday at Woodmont Country Club.

The service club players were both low net and gross in the two-women team event, winning with a 10-under par net best-ball of 32-32-64. Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Kopcsak fashioned a gross of 74.

Mrs. Foster Shannon and Mrs. R. Beatey of Columbia carried off second net with a 68. Because Mrs. Chapman and Mrs. Kopcsak elected to take the more important net trophy, Mrs. N. I. Looney and Mrs. Steven Kauffman, also of Army Navy, fell heir to the gross with an 81.

Mrs. Weitzen Wins Indian Spring Title

Mrs. William Weitzen won her 13th Indian Spring Country Club women's championship yesterday, defeating Mrs. Ben Frauwrith, 1 up in 19 holes.

Mrs. Weitzen sank a 50-yard pitch shot for a birdie on the first extra hole.

Mrs. Bryant Also Champion

In the women's championship final, Mrs. Roland Bryant became a first-time winner, defeating Mrs. D. K. Holman in an 18-hole final, 1 up.

Mrs. McGrath Wins

Mrs. James McGrath won the three-day President's Cup tournament for women at the Country Club of Fairfax with 298-75—223 yesterday. Mrs. William F. Mason won low gross with 266.

Mixed Golf Captured by Smyths, 67

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smyth of Congressional captured net honors in a District of Columbia Golf Association mixed Scotch foursome yesterday at Greencastle Country Club with 78-11-67.

Gross honors went to Mrs. John Daddio and Frank Sherman of Prince Georges, 36-38-74. Mrs. Monte Emmerick, Brooke Manor, and Dock Jew, Greencastle, were second net with 78-9-69.

Mrs. Paul Dean and Ray Willett, Brooke Manor, carried off second gross with 40-37-77.

Mrs. Gar Chamberlin of Kenwood sank a five-iron shot on the 139-yard 12th hole for a hole in one.

Miss Eaton Scores

Sally Eaton upset Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg, 3 up, yesterday for the women's golf championship of Columbia Country Club. It was only the second time in the past 13 years that Mrs. Richard Kreuzburg did not win the title.

Mrs. Smyth Takes Title

Mrs. Joseph Smyth won her fourth Congressional Country Club championship yesterday, defeating Nina Crampton in the final, 3 and 1. Mrs. Smyth won her 14th Goose Creek Country Club title on Sunday.

Mrs. Hosp Wins Net

Mrs. Joseph A. Hosp, of Goose Creek, shooting a net 100-28—72, won the President's Cup in an Arlington-Fairfax Women's Golf Association tournament yesterday at Westwood. Mrs. Arch S. Ramsey of Chantilly won the gross division with 96.

JUNIOR GOLF ACTIVITY

THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF JUNIOR GOLF

Junior Golf Champs Set for Busy Week

The junior golf schedule in the metropolitan area turns down the homestretch today with the annual Tournament of Junior Champions set at Manor Country Club, followed by the huge, 19th annual Bubby Worsham Junior beginning Tuesday.

About 60 boys and girls are entered at Manor, teeing off between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. today. Among the 21 youngsters in the open division are 15 from outside the area, including Massachusetts Junior champion Arthur Burke III and New Jersey champ Pat Dunleavy.

The Worsham, unique in that it allows entrants 18, 19 and 20 years old, again has attracted more than 200 for qualifying Tuesday. The championship flight qualifying will be held at Bethesda and Lakewood for 32 places in match play.

The 14-15 and 13-and-under flights will qualify at Washingtonian National, for 16 spots in the 14-15 group and eight in the 13-and-under.

All match play will be at Bethesda. The championship flight is scheduled for two rounds Wednesday, quarterfinals and semifinals Thursday and the 18-hole final next Sunday, starting at 1 p.m.

Bethesda Wins Junior Golf

Joe Difato shot a one-under-par 71 at Lakewood yesterday and led Bethesda to the Maryland interclub junior golf league championship.

Bethesda scored 7½ points while Kenwood had 4½, Andrews AFB 3¾, and Indian Spring 2¼. Bethesda plays Springfield, the Virginia champion, at Burning Tree Friday for the area title.

The 14-15 bracket plays two rounds Wednesday and semifinals and finals Thursday, and the 13-and-under boys play two rounds Wednesday and their final Thursday morning.

The Williamson Cup inter-city junior team matches are scheduled Tuesday and Wednesday in Montreal, pitting Washington against New York, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Central Pennsylvania, Ontario and Quebec.

Representing Washington will be Bill McCloskey of Tantallon, Joe Difato of Bethesda, Herb Ladley of Belle Haven and Bill Bassler Jr. of Rolling Road. They will not be able to compete in the Worsham because of the conflict.

Finals Set Today In Junior Golf

Medalist Bill McCloskey of Tantallon met Dick Leggin of Congressional and Gregg Sweetland of Springfield faced the host club's John Finneran today in semifinals of the District Junior golf championships at Crofton. Finals were scheduled later today.

In the 14-15 age semifinals, Pete Labukas of Laurel Pines faced Tim Vigotsky of Woodlawn while Steve Lejko, Bethesda, squared off against Paul Rankin of Lakewood. The 13-and-under final matched Steve Yount of Prince Georges against Ricky Roudabush of Congressional.

Championship flight results yesterday:

FIRST ROUND

Bill McCloskey, Tantallon, def. John Long, Woodlawn, 6 and 5; Dave Gardner, Belle Haven, def. John Beddow, Kenwood, 5 and 4; Jim Urie, Manor, def. Kenwood Nips Congressional In Junior Golf

Kenwood beat out Congressional, last year's Interclub Junior golf league champion, for the Central Division title yesterday in the round-robin match in this division at Kenwood.

Kenwood scored 7¾ points and Congressional 5¼, breaking their tie at the top of the standings.

Bethesda won the Western Division as expected, copping the round robin at Fountain Head, and Westwood clinched the Northern Division title in the Virginia section. Westwood was runnerup to Congressional for the league championship last year.

The Maryland Eastern and Southern Division and the Virginia Southern will decide a champion in the final matches Monday for the playoff to follow Friday.

Gary Mankulish, runnerup for the schoolboy title last Sunday, won all 1½ points for Gunpowder yesterday against Indian Spring at Brooke Manor. Playing by himself in the 16-17 group, Gary won the No. 1 singles and split the best-ball point by shooting a 3-under-par 69. Results:

VIRGINIA SECTION

Northern Division at Fairfax—River Bend 8, International 1; Westwood 7, Chantilly 2.

Southern Division at Belle Haven—Army Navy 5, Woodlawn 4; Springfield 6½, Washington GCC 2½.

MARYLAND SECTION

Emmet Shudders Over Entry Error

By DICK SLAY

In all the 42 years he's been shepherding the junior golfers of this metropolitan area, Frank Emmet couldn't recall it ever happening before. Worse, he couldn't think of an equitable method to correct the mistake.

Last Tuesday, in qualifying for the 14-15 age division of the Worsham Junior, Tim Vigotsky of Woodlawn shot a creditable 79 at Washingtonian National and easily made the low 16 for match play. Somehow Tim's name was omitted from the pairings for the opening matches the following morning at Bethesda.

Informed of the error Tuesday night, Emmet reviewed the scores and discovered the mistake, but his only advice for young Vigotsky was to show up the next morning and pray for a default by one of the players. There wasn't one, naturally.

Vigotsky twiddled his thumbs while 16 boys played the first round and eight met in the quarterfinals Wednesday afternoon, then as the four semifinalists collided Thursday morning. Finally, Emmet shoved Tim into action Thursday afternoon against Bobby Fields, the semifinal winner in the upper bracket, where Vigotsky would have landed with his qualifying score.

Fields, the 5-foot-2 prodigy from Tulsa, took care of Vigotsky by a 6-and-4 count as the final match was postponed to Friday. But what if Tim had sprung an upset and made the finals by playing only one match?

Emmet shudders at the thought.

Urban Trails by 4 In Virginia Junior

ROANOKE, Va., July 16 (AP)—Jeff Urban of Fairfax shot 72 today for 147 after 36 holes of the Virginia State Golf Association junior championship and trails the leader, Mark Walach, by four shots. Walach also had 72 today.

The final 18 holes are scheduled Friday.

Miss Clark Wins At Brooke Manor

Pam Clark of Army Navy shot an 83 and won the gross division in a junior girls' golf tournament yesterday at Brooke Manor Country Club.

Linda Meyer of Columbia, using her 30 handicap, shot a 60 to capture the Margaret Allen Cup. Second net was Linda Casanova of the host club with 93-22-71.

A Hitting Swinger, That's Lilo Daddio

Strength From Gymnastics

Mrs. Daddio is a trim, attractive blonde, 5 feet 4 and 125 pounds, who grew up in Germany as a champion gymnast. She tries to keep her muscle tone by exercising with her three children, swimming, riding horseback, playing tennis and maybe a little handball. She hasn't the time to practice and play as much golf as she would like.

She was born Lilo Wallisch, in Udritsch, Sudetenland, which is now part of Czechoslovakia. Her father's ancestors had lived in the same house and farmed the land since 1446, but when the Communists occupied the country the family moved to near Frankfurt, West Germany.

Konrad Frei, who had won a gymnastic medal in the 1936 Olympics, polished Lilo's techniques in the gym. She had a chance to compete in the 1952 Olympics for West Germany but declined. Seven years later in Munich she met John Daddio, a civilian auditor with the U.S. Army, who introduced her to golf. They were married in October, 1960.

Orville Started It All

The couple moved to Tokyo, Formosa, Prince Georges County, Paris, Newport News and back to the Washington area 13 months ago, following John's job assignments. Lilo took up golf in Tokyo in 1961, where an Army sergeant named Orville Moody became her first teacher.

"Orville always told me to swing as hard as I possibly can," Mrs. Daddio remembers of the current U.S. Open champion. "Dick Whetzle has tried to smooth me out. You know what a beautiful swing he has. That's the way I'd like to look."

Whetzle, the pro at Prince Georges, agrees with Moody's method with their pupil, considering her natural strength. Dick's chief contribution has been to alter her grip and teach management on the course.

"It's difficult to learn. It takes experience in competition," Whetzle says. "She learned to hit the ball before she learned to play. But, generally speaking, you can usually teach a hitter to swing and seldom teach a swinger to hit."

The other women golfers hereabouts should note that Whetzle is an accomplished teacher, with a talented pupil.

Earlier in the summer, before David Boies ran afoul of a technicality and was no longer eligible for amateur tournaments, a person who shall remain nameless was willing to wager that Boies and Mrs. John Daddio would win the next District mixed scotch.

No odds, merely an even bet that Boies and Daddio would beat the entire field for low gross at Tantallon, although neither was familiar with the tight course. The field against anything is usually an excellent bet. Very interesting.

"I'll give you the field; I'll give you everybody else," Boies agreed when told of the outsider's proposition.

"But, David," sputtered the inquirer, "how much advantage will she have from the ladies' tees? She's got to help you with the driver. You can't play your own ball every shot in a scotch."

"It makes no difference," Boies shrugged, "because Lilo hits it as far as I do."

Which is an exaggeration, but not much.

A 32-Hole Disaster

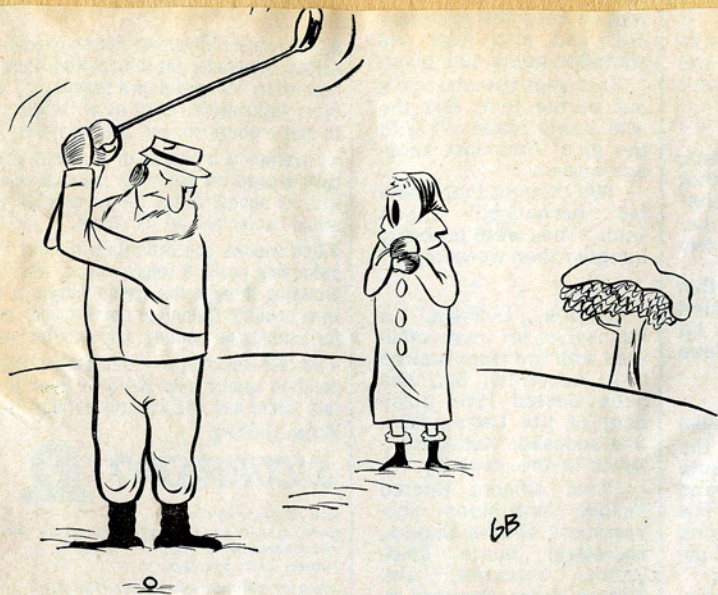

Boies and Mrs. Daddio never got to play that District mixed scotch tournament, and more's the pity. Several weeks before the offered wager, they had hooked up in a private match on their own course at Prince Georges and beaten the brains out of two low-handicap men.

One of the victims quit after 32 holes, poorer but wiser. He was the one who later tried to bet on the twosome at Tantallon. He had watched painfully while David and Lilo threw six or seven natural birdies at him and his partner that day.

As it turned out, Mrs. Daddio had another partner at Tantallon and she didn't win. But two weeks ago she captured the Corby Cup women's event at Columbia with a sparkling 75, including a penalty stroke, and later that week she and George Ashton won the Maryland State mixed scotch at Rolling Road.

Last Thursday she finished a strong fifth in the Homewood Invitation at Manor. By now, the word should be well circulated about the lady power hitter from Prince Georges.

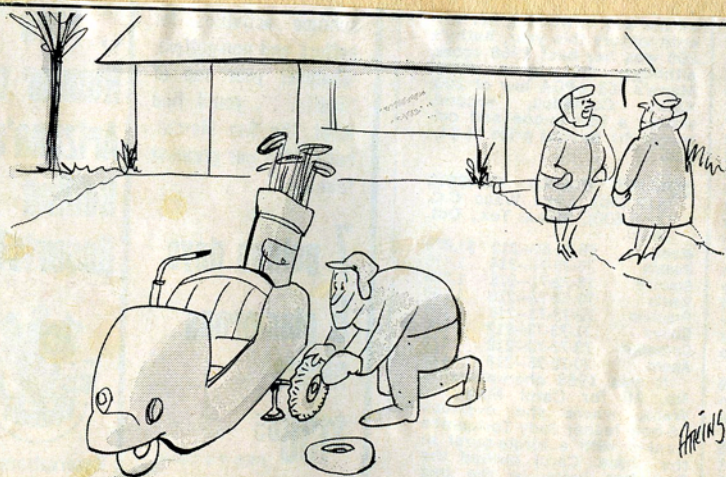

"Come home, John. There'll be plenty of time to break 100 next year."

STILL, IT'S ME

I grip the club like Palmer,
Address the ball like Snead,
Relax like Julie Boros,
To gain full clubhead speed;
I follow through like Player,
Get set in traps like Wall,
I concentrate like Nicklaus,
About to putt the ball;
I imitate the top-flight pros
On fairway, green and tee;
In spite of all my efforts,
I hit the ball like me.

Not much doing in "69"
But I did get this book in on time.
