Smaller Fields Slated For 22 WDGA Events

The same 22 clubs which made up the Women's District Golf Association last year will compete in the 1970 schedule, but the fields for each tournament should be slimmed down slightly with a cutback in individual memberships.

All the 22-handicappers were lopped off the new rolls. The latest number of women registering for 1970 with handicaps of 21 or less was 415. This number should increase when more qualify under the new limit this spring, but the total membership probably won't reach the 452 figure which prevailed at the end of last season.

Broken down by classes, there are 93 members in Class A with handicaps up through 13, 125 in Class B from 14 through 17, 93 in Class C with handicaps of 18 or 19 and 104 in Class D with handicaps of 20 and 21.

Only notable change in the WDGA schedule for 1970 will be an increased field for the third annual two-lady best ball tournament at Woodmont. A maximum of 128 twosomes will be allowed to play Woodmont June 19, or almost twice the field which competed last year in the increasingly popular event.

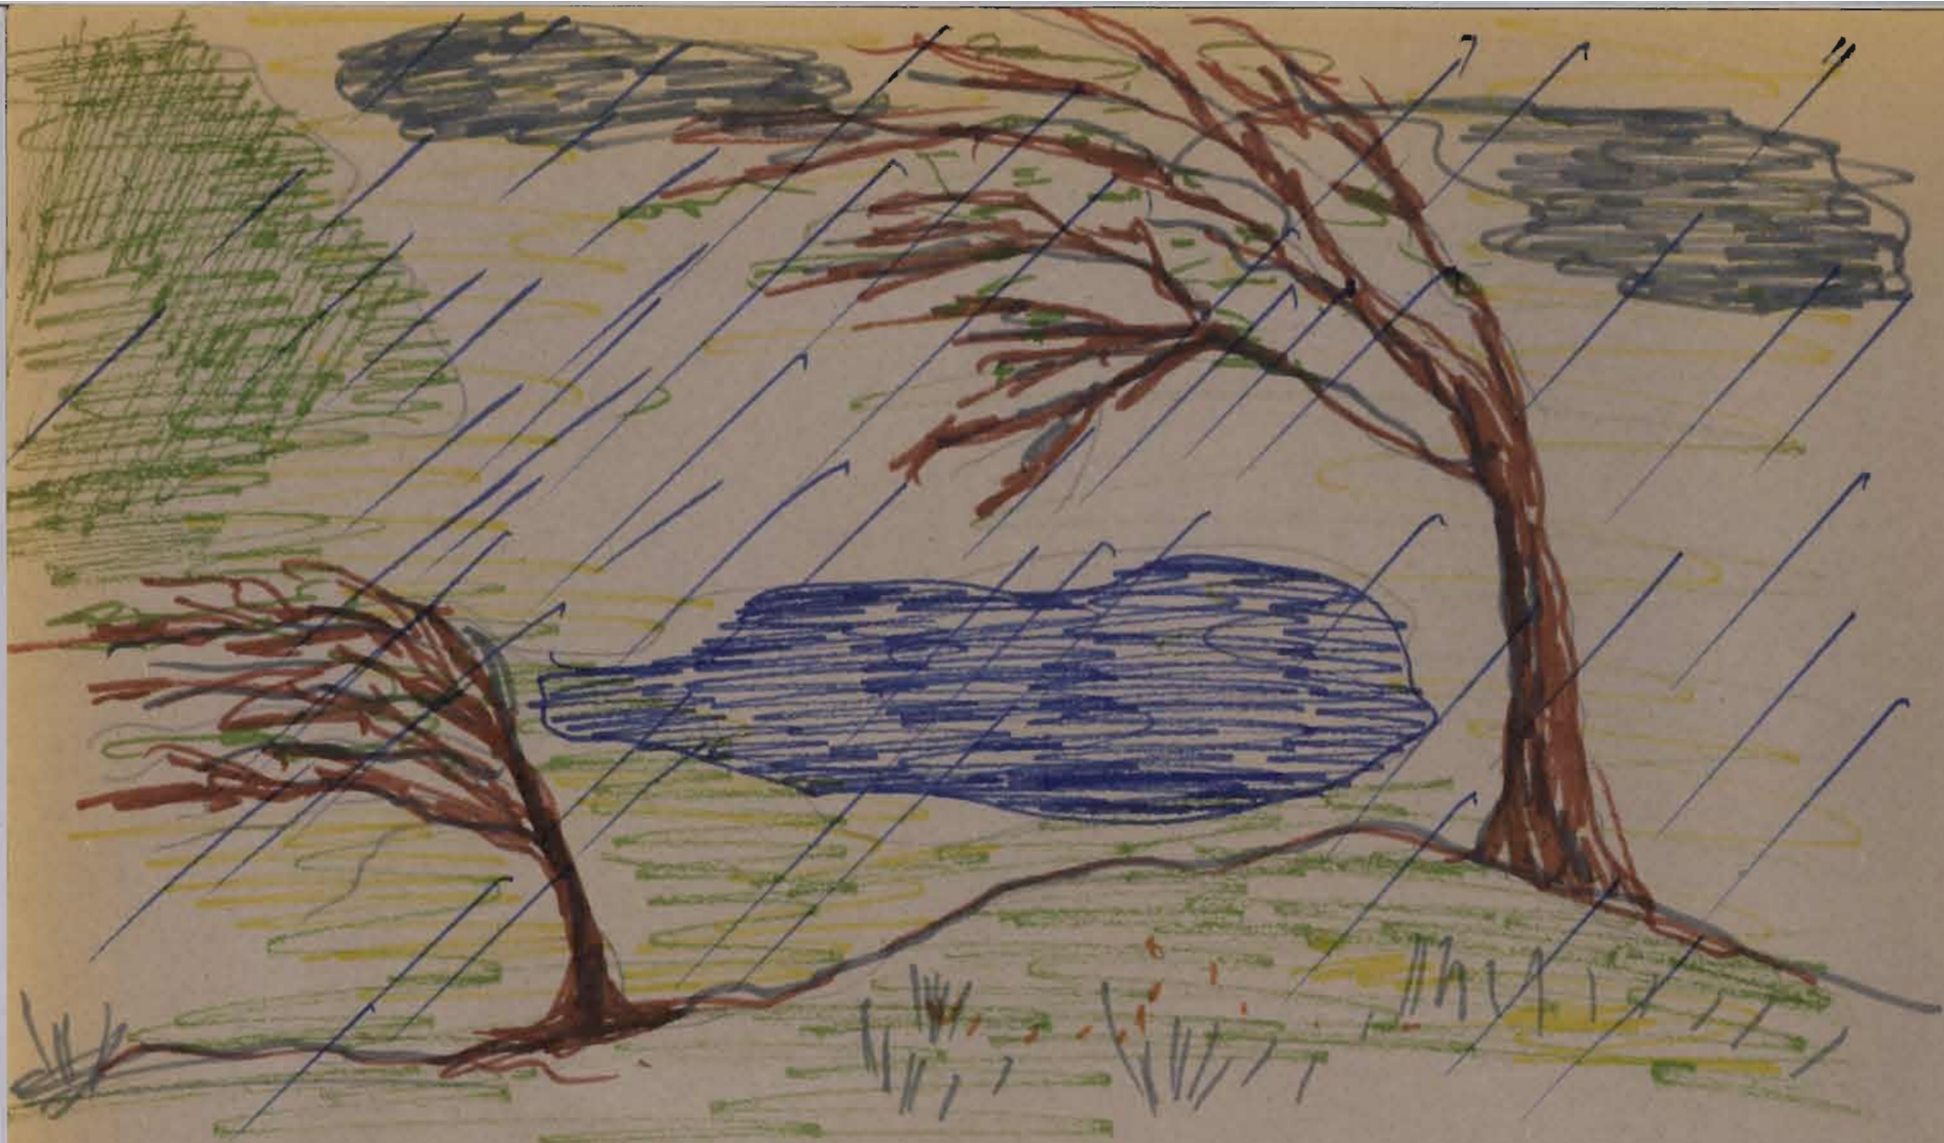

The schedule:

April 14-19—WDGA team matches at all clubs.
 May 6-7—Class A Keefer Cup at Chevy Chase.
 May 15—Class D Goldsmith Cup at Woodmont.
 May 20—Class B Star Cup at Argyle.

WDGA Considers Canceling Series

After three postponements because of bad weather, the Women's District Golf Association is considering dropping its entire spring team-match elimination series. A decision should be made during the weekend.

The fourth division matches were played yesterday at Bethesda Country Club despite the rain, but the other three divisions were postponed. The featured first division matches at Army Navy were rescheduled for May 26. No new dates have been set for the second and third divisions.

In the fourth division matches at Bethesda, CC of Fairfax defeated Argyle 6-3, Washington GCC beat Manor 7½-1½ and Congressional got by Prince Georges 6½-2½.

Please note enclosed report of Teams Meeting held in May 1970;
this contains suggestions to 1971 Team Play.

The Women's District of Columbia Golf Association

WASHINGTON, D. C.

cf

On Wednesday, May 27, 1970, at 10:00 a.m., a meeting of WDGA Team Representatives was held at Bethesda Country Club. The following Clubs were represented: Argyle, Army-Navy, Bethesda, Brooke Manor, Columbia, Congressional, Montgomery Village, Norbeck, Washington and Woodmont.

An open discussion was held as to suggestions for improvement or change in team play for the future. The following items were proposed for consideration:

- I. Begin matches later in the spring, planning to play two times a week for 3 weeks, and once a week for 1 week (Keefer Cup week)
- II. Have divisions of five teams each, instead of seven, so that each team would play only 4 matches instead of 6.
- III. Begin matches at 9:00 a.m. instead of 9:30, to clear the courses earlier for the men.
- IV. Play team matches in the fall, after school reconvenes.
 - A. Points in favor of fall play --
 1. Weather more stable
 2. Players' handicaps more true
 3. Courses more readily available for original and re-scheduling dates
 4. Better teams could be fielded after summer play
 - B. Problems to fall play --
 1. Teams would have to be submitted with summer handicaps (August at the latest)
 2. Matches could not be listed in the WDGA Budget Book
 3. Conflicts with club championships and Virginia-Carolina team play
 4. Golf courses are being worked on
- V. Have separate Virginia and Maryland matches and have winners play off.
 - A. It was mentioned that this could be inadequate as there are more Maryland than Virginia clubs.
- VI. Change the matches to the elimination type (as the men conduct theirs)
 - A. Procedures could be as follows:
 1. Eight (8) teams in a division - could also be 6 in the last division
 2. Four (4) teams qualify on 2 separate courses same day - combined gross scores of teams determines placement for position. No teams would qualify at their own club. For example: Division I teams could qualify at Division II courses.

3. Once a team is defeated, it would be eliminated from further play. This would make for a 4 day team play in an 8-team division.

Aside from the discussion for changing the matches, it was strongly recommended that all Clubs -

- A. Insure that proper directions are posted (or have monitors on the course) to direct players.
- B. Make sure that the men club-members understand that a WDGA event is in progress so that they will be courteous and forbearing to the girls playing in their way, especially with respect to the last brackets in the last matches being played, and do not expect to "play through" or hurry the girls in any way.

One thing was unanimously resolved -- that the Team Captains meeting, usually scheduled for February, be held in late November so that these suggestions might be duly considered and acted upon before any major club and WDGA schedules are in the works for 1971.

Please consider these suggestions carefully, as major team changes are being proposed. READ - TALK - DISCUSS - with your members between now and November so that the opinions expressed by your team captains will reflect those of your Club.

Respectfully submitted,

Showdown With Indian Spring

Army Navy Nails WDGA Title, 6-3

Army Navy Country Club successfully defended its Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at the Country Club of Fairfax by defeating Indian Spring in its final match, 6-3.

The annual round-robin event doesn't officially end until Thursday but the Virginia service club team's 43-point finish reduces the event to a battle for second place. As the host team, Army Navy will be idle in the closing matches.

Indian Spring went into yesterday's match with an outside chance of winning its first title. Needing a decisive victory over Army Navy, Indian Spring won the three Nassau points in the first foursome but was shut out in the other two.

Indian Spring goes into its final match against Fairfax with 31 points and a lead of five over third-place Kenwood. Fairfax is fourth in the standings with 24 points.

Mrs. William Weitzen and Mrs. Harry Hirschberg of Indian Spring won the first nine from Mrs. E. W. King and Mrs. W. B. Barrow, 2 up, and then won the 18-hole point, 6-4. However, Army Navy's victories in the second and third foursomes were equally one-sided.

In the other matches, Kenwood pulled a big surprise by shutting out Manor, 9-0, and Argyle polished off Bethesda, 6-3.

Indian Spring Captures 2nd in Women's Golf

Country Club of Fairfax rallied to defeat Indian Spring 5-4 yesterday at Army Navy, but Indian Spring still took second place in the first division of the Women's District Golf Association team matches.

Army Navy, which was idle yesterday, clinched first place a week earlier by totaling 43 points. Indian Spring carried 31 points into the final day and clinched second when Mrs. William Weitzen and Mrs. Ben Frauwrith won 2 1/2 points in the No. 1 foursome.

Kenwood started five points behind Indian Spring and lost any chance for second when it was trounced 7 1/2-1 1/2 by Argyle. Bethesda defeated Manor 6-3 in the other match at Army Navy.

Army Navy also won the second division, an honor it had clinched at least a tie for last week. The third and fourth divisions finished last week.

Fairfax Wins by Not Enough

Indian Spring's Women Clinch 2d

Indian Spring Country Club won the battle for second place in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Army Navy Country Club despite a 5-4 loss to the Country Club of Fairfax.

Army Navy won a second straight title in last week's matches at Fairfax. The Virginia service-club team was idle in yesterday's final.

Indian Spring went into yesterday's final with only a five-point lead over Kenwood and seven in front of Fairfax. But Kenwood was soundly beaten by Argyle, 7 1/2-1 1/2, and Fairfax didn't quite have the power to overcome its disadvantage.

In the other match, Bethesda won the battle of the cellar, defeating Manor, 6-3.

Army Navy Country Club also won the second division of the championship. The service club's second-stringers rolled up a total of 40 1/2 points to carry off the title.

Army Navy defeated Columbia, 8-1, in yesterday's final at Washington Golf and Country Club.

Indian Spring Takes Early Lead in WDGA

The fourth division teams showed it could be done last Thursday, so yesterday the other divisions of the Women's District Golf Association — after three postponements because of weather — finally got on the golf courses. They found not much has changed, at least in the first division.

Army Navy, which has won the first division five of the last six years, picked on new division member Kenwood 6-3, Country Club of Fairfax won by the same score over Bethesda, and Indian Spring took the first lead with a 7-2 victory over Manor, another new entry in the top bracket, in the matches at Argyle.

Bethesda was runner-up to Army Navy last year but clearly is suffering from the absence of Mrs. John Call and Mrs. Frank Law. Mrs. James Wueste and Mrs. William Kloefer, an established twosome, won Bethesda's only three points against the usually strong CC of Fairfax.

Fairfax has the early jump in the fourth division, only group to slosh through last Thursday's rain, with 15 points after a 9-0 blanking of Manor yesterday at Congressional. Washington GCC is next with 12½ points.

Army Navy Women Near Golf Title

Army Navy Country Club took a giant stride toward a successful title defense in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Kenwood Country Club, shutting out Argyle, 9-0.

The Virginia service club now has a total of 37 points and needs only a tie with Indian Spring Tuesday at Fairfax to clinch the title.

Indian Spring kept pace with an 8-to-1 victory over Bethesda. Indian Spring could win its first title by upsetting Army Navy in the service club's final match and winning its other remaining match.

In yesterday's other match, Fairfax edged Manor, 5-4. Results:

Army Navy Moves Up

Indian Spring Women Maintain Slim Lead

Indian Spring Country Club clung to its slim lead in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Manor Club, defeating Argyle, 5-4.

Indian Spring went into yesterday's fourth round with a two-point bulge over Army Navy, defending champion, but the service club reduced the count to one by polishing off Bethesda, 6-3.

In the other match, Kenwood surprised the Country Club of Fairfax, 5-4. Manor drew a bye.

Indian Spring now has 20 points and Army Navy 19. The Country Club of Fairfax had a chance to get back in the thick of the battle but its unexpected defeat yesterday put the Virginia club eight points off the pace. Results:

A surprising Indian Spring Country Club team increased its lead to two points after two rounds in the Women's District Golf Association team championship yesterday at Bethesda Country Club.

Indian Spring defeated Kenwood, 8-1, for a total of 15 points for the two rounds. Defending champion Army Navy moved into second place by trouncing the Country Club of Fairfax, 7-2.

Eight-Stroke Margin

Mrs. Chapman, 67, Leads Keefer Cup

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Roger A. Chapman of Army Navy Country Club took a whopping eight-stroke lead after the first round of the 36-hole Keefer Cup tournament yesterday at Chevy Chase Club with a net round of 67.

The Virginia service club golfer was the only one in the field of 58 who broke 80 over the long, windswept course. The 1963, 1964 and 1965 Army Navy club champion was out in 37 and back in 42 for a gross 79.

Mrs. Chapman started her round with a double-bogey six at one and a bogey five at two but then birdied the third and eighth holes from four feet to be only one over women's par at the turn.

Mrs. Chapman, who has a 12-stroke handicap, ran afoul a triple-bogey seven at 15 and finished the easier back nine in a seven-over par score. She goes into today's final round with the edge over Mrs. T. J. Verell of Belle Haven.

Mrs. Verell was 45-42-87 and used a 12-stroke handicap for a net 75. Five players finished tied for third with nets of 78. They were Mrs. Frank Featherston, Kenwood; Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda; Mrs. Hartwell MacCarteney, Chevy Chase; Mrs. John Daddio, Prince Georges; and Mrs. Victor Ottenstein, Woodmont.

Mrs. Robert Anderlik of Springfield was the only other player to finish with a net under 80. The Virginia club player had a gross 92 and used a 13 stroke handicap to wind up with a net 79. Scores and pairings for today's final round:

ROMP IN KEEFER CUP

Mrs. Chapman Opens Season With Flourish

By DICK SLAY
Star Staff Writer

Like the Women's District Golf Association's other monthly events, the Keefer Cup is a handicap tournament, and the other contestants really didn't have much chance after Mrs. Roger Chapman shot that startling 79-12-67 in Wednesday's wind-blown opening round.

When she shot 43 on the front nine yesterday it closed all the doors. Mrs. Chapman gummed up the 16th hole with a triple-bogey-7 but came in with a 47 for 90, a net 78 and a two-day total of 145 which won by six strokes.

It was the second successive year that an Army Navy Country Club player won the annual season opener on the WDGA calendar. Mrs. Chapman succeeded Jackie Evans, who won a year ago with 146-6-140 and turned professional at the end of 1969.

Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges CC knew she was playing for second place with her 3-handicap, but she took great satisfaction yesterday in prancing around the course in 40-36-76 to take the low gross prize with 157 for 36 holes. This won low gross by 17 shots, despite four straight bogeys out of the bunkers on the front nine.

Mrs. Daddio's round was the lowest of the two-day tournament and only the second under 80. Closest to her yesterday were the 86s by Mrs. Victor Ottenstein of Woodmont and Mrs. Joseph Smyth of Congressional. Mrs. Ottenstein matched out

Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda for second low net after they tied at net 155.

Army Navy Golfer Wins Keefer Cup

By Mary Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Roger A. Chapman's second round was 11 strokes higher than her first but the Army Navy Country Club golfer still won the annual Keefer Cup tournament yesterday at Chevy Chase Club with strokes to spare.

She took an eight-stroke first round lead Wednesday with a net 67. Yesterday, Mrs. Chapman scored 90-12-78 to win with a 36-hole net score of 145.

Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges finished second with 151 but elected to take first low gross with 157. She posted 76, low round of the tournament yesterday.

WIND TROUBLESOME

Keefer Lead Held By Mrs. Chapman

By DICK SLAY

The forecast was for calmer weather today, but what the other contestants in the Keefer Cup need is something to erase Mrs. Roger Chapman's first-round score.

Mrs. Chapman, one of the long-hitting ladies from Army Navy Country Club, broke 80 at Chevy Chase Club yesterday for the first time in more than a dozen trips as she posted a net 79-12-67.

None of the other 54 starters could cope as well with the high winds and the result was an eight-stroke lead for Mrs. Chapman entering today's second and final round. She can almost play bogey golf around the par 36-35-71 course and coast in.

Mrs. T. J. Verell of Belle Haven was second with 87-12-75, three shots better than a group of five at net 78. Included in the latter was Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges, whose 37-44-81 was the second best gross score of the day. It was her first look at the course.

Several prominent entries failed to survive the cut, which was made at the low 32 scores and ties.

Missing were Rebecca Doman, the 1967 champion from Argyle, who shot 93-6-87; Mrs. Roland Bryant from CC of Fairfax, 96-8-88, and Argyle's Mrs. Frank Cush, the former Middle Atlantic and Women's District champion, who had 98-7-91.

Mrs. Chapman's gross round was 37-42-79 and included a double-bogey-6 starting out and a triple-bogey-7 on the 15th hole. But she saved the round with excellent iron play. She needed only 32 putts, collecting two birdies and rescuing pars with one-putts on four other holes.

Mrs. Cone Cards 76, Wins Medal in District Qualifying

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Jay Cone took up yesterday at Indian Spring where she left off Saturday at Tantallon.

Mrs. Cone won the women's Maryland state amateur championship last week. Yesterday, the Bethesda Club star carried off the qualifying medal, with 76, in the Women's District Golf Association Championship.

Posting twin nines of 38 on the Big Chief course at Indian Spring, Mrs. Cone finished two strokes ahead of Mrs. John Daddio, of Prince Georges, who lost to Mrs. Cone in the Maryland final.

Mrs. Daddio came to the final hole needing a par to tie for the medal but dumped her second shot, with a nine-iron, in a trap and took a double-bogey six.

Three Break 80

The only other player in the field to break 80 over the par 35-36-71 course was Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle. The two-time titlist was 79.

Mrs. N. I. Looney of Army Navy, defending champion, accepted automatic qualifying status and did not compete for the medal. The service club golfer will play Mrs. Dick Wilson, wife of the Lakewood Country Club professional, in today's opening match-play round. Mrs. Wilson qualified with 83.

Mrs. Cone's first-round opponent will be Rebecca Doman of Argyle. Miss Doman, 1967 Maryland state titlist, earned her position in the championship flight with an 83.

Four Players Tie

Four players tied, at 85, for the 15th and 16th qualifying positions, creating a playoff. Mrs. Paul Dean of Brooke Manor won the 15th place with a par on the first hole and Mrs. Lloyd Dennis of Washington took the other place with a bogey five.

Cheryl Emmerich of Brooke Manor and Mrs. Robert Dua of Argyle took double-bogey sixes. Miss Emmerich three-putted from 15 feet. Starting times, pairings and scores for the championship flight:

8:45 a.m.—Mrs. N. I. Looney, Army Navy (automatic) vs. Mrs. Dick Wilson, Lakewood (83).

Mrs. Cone, Mrs. Wilson Win in Golf

Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda Country Club, the reigning Maryland State Women's Amateur champion, scrambled to an 18 hole, 1-up victory over Rebecca Doman of Argyle and gained the quarterfinals in the Women's District Amateur golf championship yesterday at Indian Spring.

Mrs. N. I. Looney, of Army Navy, the defending titleist and automatic qualifier, was upset by Lakewood's Mrs. Dick Wilson, 1 up in 19 holes.

Mrs. Cone sank a 20-foot putt on the 17th green to salvage a bogey half and retain a one-hole lead. She hit the par-four 18th green in regulation and two-putted to close out the match, despite a one-putt par by Miss Doman.

In the Mrs. Looney-Mrs. Wilson match, Mrs. Looney was two down with two holes remaining but won the 17th and 18th holes to square the match only to lose it on the first extra hole with a bogey to Mrs. Wilson's par.

Yesterday's results:

Mrs. Dick Wilson, Lakewood, def. Mrs. Looney, Army Navy, 1 up in 19 holes; Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, def. Mrs. Morris Zuckerman, Indian Spring, 4 and 3; Mrs. John Daddio, Prince Georges def. Mrs. D. H. Holman, Fairfax, 2 and 1; Mrs. J. P. Smyth, Congressional, def. Ex-Champion Upset Victim In State Golf

Rebecca Doman of Argyle probably was expecting to meet her final opponent of two years ago in today's quarterfinal round of the Maryland State Golf Association women's championship at Tantallon.

However, Joan Winchester, the 1967 champion who lost to Miss Doman in the '68 finals, was ousted by Congressional's Nina Crampton 1-up in a startling upset yesterday in the opening round. It marked the elimination of all three qualifiers from the Baltimore area.

Miss Doman began the first round by breezing by Mrs. Vernon Kelly of Baltimore CC 9 and 7, scoring two over par for the 11 holes. Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring added a mild upset with her 2-and-1 triumph over Margo Mac Kenzie from Green Spring Valley, who was a 1969 semifinalist.

Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges was seven over par, but got by Manor's Mrs. Murphy Booth 5 and 3. Mrs. J. C. Zirkle of Army Navy defeated Mrs. M. C. Stafford of Tantallon 3 and 2. Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda ousted Faith Clark of Argyle 7 and 6 and Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, sidelined Mrs. Robert Thurner of the host club 8 and 7.

Today's pairings send Miss Doman against Miss Crampton, Mrs. Daddio against Mrs. Zirkle, Mrs. Weitzen against Mrs. Cone and Mrs. Cush against Mrs. Joseph Smyth of Congressional, who received a first-round bye.

Miss Winchester, who won her Maryland title three years ago on her home course at Rolling Road club, was 3-down after 11. She closed the gap, but then lost to Miss Crampton's bogey-4 on the final hole.

'67 Champ Ousted at Tantallon

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Nina Crampton of Congressional Country Club pulled off the only major upset in the opening match play rounds of the women's Maryland state amateur championship yesterday at Tantallon Country Club.

The former Congressional club champion won the 18th hole with a bogey to eliminate Joan Winchester, 1967 champion from Rolling Road Club, 1 up.

Miss Crampton, who plays medalist Rebecca Doman of Brooke Manor in today's second round, was out in 41 and 2-up. After increasing her advantage to three holes through 11, Miss Crampton frittered away her lead and was even going to the last hole.

Miss Doman, champion in 1968 and runnerup last year, made quick work of Mrs. Vernon Kelly of Baltimore Country Club, 9 and 7. The Brooke Manor club star was three over par for the 11 holes.

Mrs. William Weitzen, club titlist at Indian Spring, won a 2-and-1 victory over Margo McKenzie of Baltimore's Elkridge Club. Mrs. Weitzen, who plays Mrs. Jay Cone of Bethesda in the second round, said she didn't play particularly well but was satisfied with the improvement over Tuesday's qualifying round of 88.

Mrs. Cone advanced at the expense of Faith Clark of Argyle, 7 and 6. She was five over par for the route.

Mrs. Frank Cush, seeking a fourth title, was four over par in eliminating Mrs. Robert Thurner of the host club, 8 and 7.

Results:

First Round—Rebecca Doman, Brooke Manor, def. Mrs. Vernon Kelly, Baltimore C.C., 9 and 7. Nina Crampton, Congressional, def. Joan Winchester, Rolling Road, 1 up. Mrs. John Daddio, Prince Georges, def. Mrs. Murphy Booth, Manor, 5 and 3. Mrs. J. Zirkle, Army Navy, def. Mrs. Douglas Stafford, Tantallon, 3 and 2. Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, def. Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Congressional, drew a bye.

Today's Pairings—10:00, Miss Doman vs. Miss Crampton; 10:10, Mrs. Daddio vs. Mrs. Zirkle; 10:20, Mrs. Weitzen vs. Mrs. Cone; 10:30, Mrs. Cush vs. Mrs. Smyth.

Mrs. Cone Wins Golf At Tantallon

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

The axiom "They don't pay off on the drive" was proved again yesterday at Tantallon Country Club where Mrs. Jay Cone won the 50th women's Maryland state amateur golf championship.

Mrs. Cone was outdriven by anywhere from 30 to 40 yards on holes where Mrs. John Daddio was able to keep out of trouble but the Bethesda club player still won by a 2 and 1 score.

On the 10th hole Mrs. Daddio hit her tee shot at least 60 yards further than Mrs. Cone but the new champion nonchalantly hit a wood second onto the green and halved the hole in par.

Mrs. Cone, winner of the 1967 Cumberland Invitation title, shot a 36 to Mrs. Daddio's 38 on the front nine and was one-up at the turn. Both golfers barely missed getting holes in one on the third and sixth holes.

The Prince Georges golfer won the first hole with a par, taking a short-lived lead. Mrs. Cone, mother of three youngsters, squared matters at two with a par and then went ahead on the 149-yard par-three third where her tee shot hung on the lip of the cup for a "gimme" birdie. She never trailed again.

Mrs. Daddio, former German Olympic gymnast, hit a wedge shot from the tee on the 108-yard sixth hole and her ball stopped two inches short of falling in the cup. Mrs. Cone took the lead a second time at seven where she holed a 10-foot putt for a birdie. Mrs. Daddio put the match even for a third time at eight where her par was good enough to take the hole. However, Mrs. Cone parred the tough ninth hole to go ahead again, this time to stay.

The new titlist hit two fine wood shots at 12 and won with a par to go two-up when Mrs. Daddio three-putted from 20-feet. Mrs. Cone three-putted 13 but still won the hole with a bogey when Mrs. Daddio put her tee shot out of bounds.

Mrs. Daddio sank an eight-footer at 14 to win with a par and then reduced her deficit to only one hole by taking the 15th. Mrs. Cone missed a five-footer for her par at 14 and three-putted 15, missing a par putt from only 30 inches.

Mrs. Cone won the par-five 16th with a par to go back to two-up when Mrs. Daddio sent an errant tee shot deep in the trees. The new champion closed out the match with a par at 17 playing a 12-foot birdie putt cozy for a sure half.

Mrs. Cone was four-over par for the 17 holes, needing par on the par-three 18th for a round of 76. Her round could have been even better but for some slipshod work around the greens.

Mrs. Murphy Booth of Manor, a former District amateur champion, won the championship consolation, defeating Faith Clark of Argyle in the final, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Weitzen, Cush Gain Final of District Golf on Upsets

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. William Weitzen and Mrs. Frank Cush scored mild upsets yesterday at Indian Spring Country Club and advanced to the final of the Women's District Golf Association championship.

Mrs. Weitzen, 10-time host club champion, and Mrs. Cush, seeking a third District title, tee off today at 9:45 a.m. in the 18-hole finale.

More notable of the upsets was Mrs. Weitzen's 1-up victory over Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges. Mrs. Cush of Argyle eliminated Mrs. Roland L. Bryant of the Country Club of Fairfax, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Weitzen was out in 41 and one down to Mrs. Daddio, runnerup in last week's Maryland state championship, as she lost the eighth and ninth holes.

At the ninth, Mrs. Weitzen was on the green with her second shot and her opponent put her second in a trap. Mrs. Daddio hit a fine sand shot to within three feet of the flag for a par and won the hole when Mrs. Weitzen three-putted.

But Mrs. Weitzen played the back nine in level par. She squared the match with a par at 11 but fell behind again when Mrs. Daddio birdied the 12th.

The eventual winner drew even again at 14 with a par and then birdied 15 from 30 inches to go ahead, this time to stay.

At 17, Mrs. Weitzen had a chance to close out the match but took three to get down from just in front of the green. Mrs. Daddio put her tee ball in a trap and played a poor recovery.

On the 18th, Mrs. Daddio outdrove Mrs. Weitzen by 70 yards. The Prince Georges' star hit a magnificent second shot to the green on the 400-yard hole.

Mrs. Weitzen's drive was just fair and her second fell some 30 yards short of the green. But the determined Indian Spring golfer hit a tremendous third shot 24 inches from the flag and canned the putt for her par.

Mrs. Cush was out in 39 and three-up at the turn. The two-time titlist won the first three holes of the match but then lost six when she three-putted.

Mrs. Cush regained her three-up lead with a par at seven. After winning the 10th

Mrs. Cush three-putted again to lose the 11.

The Argyle player, who won the Maryland senior championship last week, won the 14th to increase her lead to four holes and halved the 15th to close out the match.

Dick Addison and Gerry McFerren, Robbinsville, N.J., won the qualifying medal in Manor Country Club's annual member-guest golf tournament yesterday on a match of cards.

Mrs. Weitzen To Be Tested By Mrs. Cush

By STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

A veteran who can't even remember how many times she's been in the finals will try to stop the spirited charge of Mrs. William Weitzen in today's showdown for the Women's District Amateur golf championship at Indian Spring.

Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle has to use the fingers of both hands to count the major titles she's won and yesterday she was more concerned with a lump on her head than the details of her 4-and-3 semifinal victory over Mrs. Roland Bryant of Country Club of Fairfax.

"Oh, it was just an average round," the redhead grinned after cruising around Indian Spring's Big Chief course in five-over-par. "No good holes and no bad ones."

Hits Head on Shelf

Mrs. Cush, who has been competing in the women's major golf tournaments for many years, wore a floppy hat yesterday to conceal a bruised forehead she received by banging it into a shelf at home Wednesday.

"I'm going home and relax today," she said. "One day I went home and worked in the yard and yesterday I banged up my head putting around. I guess since I've gotten this far, I might as well prepare for it."

While reaching the finals may be old hat to Mrs. Cush, a two-time winner of this event, it's all quite exciting to Mrs. Weitzen.

Rita had won 13 club championships at Indian Spring and obviously is no rookie to tournament pressure, but she admitted yesterday that nothing quite like this has ever happened to her before.

"Championships? Are you kidding? I've never even been in the semifinals before," she bubbled after upsetting Mrs. John Daddio 1 up in a tense 18-hole struggle.

Holds Off Challenge

The eight-handicapper fired a steady, even-par 36 on the suspenseful back nine to hold off the challenge of the long-hitting Mrs. Daddio.

It looked like a sudden-death playoff after Mrs. Daddio smashed a 4-iron pin high on the 400-yard closing hole after Mrs. Weitzen, 1 up at the time, left her second shot 90 yards short. However, Rita wedged it two feet from the pin and tapped in her par after the loser's birdie attempt rolled past.

Mrs. Weitzen took the lead in the see-saw match with a birdie at 15, hitting a four-iron on her third shot to the 500-yard par-five hole just three feet from the cup. The two rivals halved the next three holes.

Mrs. Ned Looney of Army Navy, last year's champion, will meet clubmate Mrs. R. A. Chapman for the consolation title.

Mrs. Weitzen Wins District Golf Title

Mrs. William Weitzen never sank a long putt but still had nine one-putt greens in defeating Mrs. Frank Cush, 4 and 2, in the final of the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Indian Spring.

The host-club champion proved a master of the wedge and recovery shots in winning her first major golf title.

Mrs. Weitzen, 10-time champion at the present Indian Spring plant and a three-time winner at the old course at Four Corners, wasn't as sharp as usual with her long game but was amazing around the greens.

The new champion, going three-over par on the eighth and ninth holes, was out in 39 and two-up on the two-time District titlist. Mrs. Weitzen was even par for the seven holes played on the back nine.

Pars Win Holes

Mrs. Weitzen one-putted three of the first four holes for pars to take a commanding 3-up lead. Mrs. Cush, Argyle club champion, won her first hole at eight with a par and they halved the ninth.

Mrs. Cush, who took three to get down from the fringes of at least a half dozen greens, chipped dismally from the edge of 10 and was again three down. The Argyle player appeared a certain winner of the 11th when she put her tee shot 12 feet to the left of the flag and Mrs. Weitzen pushed her tee shot off to the left in tall grass on a steep hillside.

However, the amazing Mrs. Weitzen wedged her ball 30 inches from the cup and Mrs.

Cush, unnerved over the sudden change of events, missed her try for a birdie. Mrs. Weitzen's wedge worked wonders again at the par-five 12th where she hit her third from heavy rough to within 24 inches of the flag and canned the putt for her only birdie of the round.

One Final Theat

Mrs. Cush won the 13th with a par but that was the last threatening gesture the former champion was able to muster. They halved the 14th and 15th.

The end came at 16 where Mrs. Weitzen pulled her second shot to the left of the green but then almost chipped in. Mrs. Cush, who put her second in a trap, took a bogey five and conceded Mrs. Weitzen her dinky putt for a par.

Mrs. N. I. Looney of Army Navy, 1969 champion, won the championship consolation, defeating clubmate Mrs. R. A. Chapman, 1 up. Other results:

First flight—Mrs. W. B. Barrow, Army Navy, def. Mrs. Murphy Booth, Manor, 6 and 5; Second flight—Mrs. George Foster, Bethesda, def. Mrs. James West, Bethesda, 4 and 3; Third flight—Mrs. J. O. Mrs. Weitzen Rewards Rooters by Taking Title

Although they had no right to expect it, a lot of people were counting on Mrs. William Weitzen in the finals of the Women's District Amateur golf tournament yesterday at Indian Spring Country Club. She didn't let them down.

Bill Weitzen, an electrical engineer, was hiding behind trees, taking pictures. His long-haired son made his first appearance at the week-long tournament and he, too, was snapping pictures.

The girls dislodged themselves from the grill and jumped in every available electric cart to follow the 18-hole final between Rita and Mrs. Frank Cush of Argyle.

"What's all the fuss?" a caddy asked. "Miss Rita's just winning another tournament."

The veteran bag-toter can be excused for not jumping on the band wagon. Mrs. Weitzen, indeed, has won perhaps 100 golf matches at Indian Spring over the years, but yesterday was different. It was the District Amateur and she had never been close to that coveted crown.

Poise of Champion

The 13-time winner of the club championship at Indian Spring can't ever remember winning a match in the District Amateur tournament, but yesterday she showed the poise of a champion in breezing to a 4-and-2 triumph.

Mrs. Weitzen turned the men in the gallery green with envy with her short game. Although she didn't drive well and failed to sink any long putts, Rita cruised around the 5,925-yard Big Chief course in five-over-par and had an eye-popping nine one-putt greens.

Her chipping was extraordinary.

Mrs. Weitzen, who had upset tournament favorite Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges 1 up in Thursday's semifinals jumped off to a quick lead by winning the second, third and fourth holes, one-putting the last two for pars.

Rita held her advantage until she got in trouble on the 400-yard eighth and took a six. She regained her three-up lead with a par at No. 10 and hit a wedge out of the high grass within three feet for a birdie at 12 to go four up.

Chip Shots Pay Off

Mrs. Cush, a two-time champion and perennial contender, won 13 with a par and appeared to have 14 won until Mrs. Weitzen chipped within 30 inches and got her par. The 15th was halved and Mrs. Weitzen clinched her first major title with another chip and one putt for a par at 16.

A lot of parties have been held at the Weitzen's home in Kenwood Estates, but last night's promised to be something extra.

Mrs. Ned Looney, last year's champion, didn't go away empty handed as she led a host of Army Navy women to the awards table by winning the consolation flight with a 1-up victory over clubmate Mrs. R. A. Chapman. Altogether, nine Army Navy players won either a flight championship or the consolation.

Mrs. W. B. Barrow, Army Navy, defeated Mrs. Murphy Booth of Manor 6 and 5 in the first flight final. Mrs. George Foster of Bethesda beat Mrs. James Wueste, Bethesda, 4 and 3 in the second flight. Mrs. J. O. Beckner, Army Navy, edged clubmate Mrs. F. E. Abrino 2 and 1 in the third flight and Mrs. Al Brodsky, Norbeck, shaded Mrs. Thomas Hobson, Army Navy, 2 and 1 in the fourth flight.

Two-Time Runnerup Ousts Mrs. Cone

Mrs. Bryant Gains in Golf

Mrs. Roland L. Bryant, twice a runnerup but never the victor, advanced to the semifinals of the Women's District Golf Association championship yesterday at Indian Spring, defeating Maryland state champion Mrs. Jay Cone, 5 and 4.

The pretty little Country Club of Fairfax champion, who was second in the 1968 and 1969 championships, was out in 38 and two-up on the medalist at the turn. Mrs. Bryant birdied the 10th and 11th holes and parred the 12th, 13th and 14th to close out the match on the 14th green.

Mrs. Bryant, who plays Mrs. William Weitzen, 10-time host-club champion, in today's round of four, won four of the first six holes from the Bethesda club titlist but lost the eighth and ninth holes to bogeys.

Mrs. Weitzen won by a whopping 8-and-7 score from Mrs. Dick Wilson, wife of the professional at Lakewood Country Club. The host-club star amassed a huge six-hole lead with 37 on the front nine holes to close out the match.

In the other semifinal, Mrs. Frank Cush, two-time titlist, plays Mrs. John Daddio of Prince Georges. Mrs. Cush advanced at the expense of Mrs. T. J. Verell of Belle Haven, 5 and 4, and Mrs. Dadio polished off Mrs. Joseph Smyth, Congressional, 6 and 5.

Mrs. Cush was out in 38 and 1 up on the Virginia club player at the turn. The Argyle club veteran, recent winner of the Maryland state senior title, bogeyed the 11th but parred the other four holes on the back nine.

Mrs. Daddio, runnerup to Mrs. Cone in last week's Maryland state, had four bogeys on the front nine but still had 36. The former German Olympic gymnast birdied the third, fourth and seventh holes and was 5 up at the turn.

The long-hitting Prince Georges player won one hole and halved all the others with successive pars on the back nine, ending the match on the 13th green.

The Weitzen-Bryant match is scheduled to get under way at 9:20 a.m. The other match leaves the first tee five minutes later.

Mrs. McKelway, Mrs. Young Win

Mrs. E. H. Young and Mrs. W. P. McKelway captured the annual Brand Memorial golf tournament yesterday at Chevy Chase Club with a net of 128. Mrs. W. C. Bennett and Mrs. S. B. Crocker were second, 130.

Mrs. Weitzen Bidding To Widen Golf Domain

By STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

Mrs. William Weitzen has been winning club championships at Indian Spring Country Club since the Eisenhower administration, but rarely does her chance for fame exceed the boundaries of the Silver Spring club.

Now her opportunity has arrived and the question today is whether a perennial club champion can find happiness in a major golf tournament at her own course or must step aside when the pressure tightens.

It's not the final of the Women's District Amateur yet. That comes tomorrow. But if Rita Weitzen can upset Mrs. John Daddio in today's semifinals, she'll be the odds-on favorite to knock down the winner of the other semifinal.

Blitzes Mrs. Wilson

Mrs. Roland Bryant, runner-up the last two years, meets two-time champion Mrs. Frank Cush in today's other feature and whoever survives will have a distinct edge in experience in the title match.

However, Mrs. Weitzen is no stranger to tournament competition, as her 13th club titles suggest, and her local knowledge of the 5,925-yard Big Chief course, plus an expected sizable rooting gallery, could make the difference.

Mrs. Weitzen, medalist in the District Amateur two years ago at Brooke Manor, was on her game yesterday, blitzing Mrs. Dick Wilson 8 and 7 with a sizzling one-over par front side.

Mrs. Daddio, who usually discourages her opponents by smashing the ball 40 yards past them off the tee, coasted by Mrs. J. P. Smyth 6 and 4 after a flurry of three birdies on the front nine.

The 3-handicapper from Prince Georges put a 6-iron eight feet from the pin on the 370-yard third hole and used the same club to nestle within five feet on the 150-yard fourth. The 425-yard, par-five eighth hole was duck soup for her.

"I know I can't keep up with her off the tee, but maybe I can catch her around the greens," Mrs. Weitzen said after returning to the course to play out the back side she missed in her short match.

Tired of Finishing Second

Mrs. Cush, who won this event two years ago at Brooke Manor, beat Mrs. Bryant en route, but this time her opponent is anxious for revenge.

"I'm tired of finishing second," said Mrs. Bryant, who lost to Mrs. Ned Looney in the final last year. "I'm getting old, and if I'm ever going to win this thing I'd better get going."

Dorie carries an eight handicap at Country Club of Fairfax and has been a consistent contender in this event in recent years, finishing second two times and twice winning the qualifying medal.

She really got going on the back side, making birdies on the first two holes to rout Mrs. Jay Cone 5 and 4. Mrs. Cone, the Maryland State Amateur champion who won medalist honors, was four down after seven holes and never recovered.

Mrs. Cush, a veteran standout from Argyle, was steady as ever, going out in two-over-par and winning the last three holes to eliminate Mrs. T. J. Verell of Belle Haven 5 and 4.

Mrs. McKelway, Mrs. Young Win

Mrs. E. H. Young and Mrs. W. P. McKelway captured the annual Brand Memorial golf tournament yesterday at Chevy Chase Club with a net of 128. Mrs. W. C. Bennett and Mrs. S. B. Crocker were second, 130.

Mrs. Daddio, runnerup to Mrs. Cone in last week's Maryland state, had four bogeys on the front nine but still had 36.

The former German Olympic gymnast birdied the third, fourth and seventh holes and was 5 up at the turn.

Record Round By Mrs. Daddio Wins Star Cup

Mrs. John Daddio has left little doubt she is nearly fully recovered from a recent operation.

Mrs. Daddio, who underwent thyroid gland surgery a couple of weeks ago, marked her return to competitive activity by fashioning a 72-4-68 to win The Star Cup in yesterday's Women's District Golf Association tournament at Bethesda Country Club.

The sizzling round enabled Mrs. Daddio, the Prince Georges club champion, to smash the Bethesda course mark by five strokes. The old record was established by Mrs. Jay Cone during a Women's District Golf Association championship three years ago.

Mrs. Daddio toured the front nine in 35 and the back nine in 37. She used 11 putts, including birdies on the third and fourth holes, on the front nine and 16 on the back.

Mrs. Murphy Booth of Manor was runner-up to Mrs. Daddio for net honors with an 80-11-69.

Since Mrs. Daddio took the net trophy, Rebecca Doman of Argyle, the former Maryland state champion, took gross honors with a 36-41-77. Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring, the current District amateur champion, was second at 37-41-78.

Mrs. Daddio Shoots 72 To Win Cup

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. John Daddio broke Bethesda Country Club's course record by five strokes yesterday with a 72 that gave the Prince Georges club champion a net 68 and the Women's District Golf Association-sponsored Star Cup.

The former West German gymnastic champion was out in 35 and back in 37 in erasing the old course mark of 77. Host club pro Harry Griesmer said the former women's mark was recorded in a Women's District Golf Association championship but couldn't recall the holder's name.

Mrs. Daddio was operated on for removal of a growth on her thyroid gland and was wearing a bandage on her throat yesterday when she smashed women's par by a shot. The operation kept Mrs. Daddio from playing in the recent Trans-Mississippi at Manor.

Miss Doman Wins Gross

Because Mrs. Daddio took the more prestigious net trophy by the use of a four-stroke handicap, Rebecca Doman, former Maryland state champion from Argyle, fell heir to the first gross award with 77. Miss Doman was 36 on the front and 41 on the back.

Mrs. Murphy Booth of Manor carried off second net with 80-11-69. Second gross went to Mrs. William Weitzen, reigning District amateur titlist from Indian Spring, with 37-41-78.

Mrs. Daddio sank 10-foot birdie putts on the third and fourth holes to go two-under par at the turn. Her only birdie on the back nine came at the par-three 12th where she ran down a 12-foot putt.

Uses 26 Putts

She used only 11 putts on the front nine, but three-putted the 15th and used 16 putts on the back for a total 26 for the round.

Six players broke 80 over the sun hardened course. Nina Crampton, Congressional, and Mrs. Roland L. Bryant of the Country Club of Fairfax had 79s and Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, was 78. Results.

Mrs. John Daddio, Prince Georges, 72-4-68

9 Handicap Aids Winner Of Corby Cup

It was a long, frustrating wait, but Mrs. Harry Hirshberg finally won the Women's District Golf Association Corby Cup.

The nine-handicapper from Indian Spring is not a frequent winner on the women's circuit and therefore it was very disappointing two years ago when she lost her lead to the last golfer on the course.

Three others tied Mrs. Hirshberg yesterday at Columbia Country Club, but her handicap gave her the edge to win the tournament with an 80-9-72.

Rebecca Doman of Argyle, a former Maryland State and Women's District champion, apparently had the cup locked up after an even-par 36 on the front nine. However, she faltered badly on the back, soaring to a 45 for 81. She did win the gross prize on a match of cards.

Others with 81 were District champion Mrs. William Weitzen of Indian Spring and Mrs. William Bennett of Chevy Chase.

The prize winners:

Her 81-9-72 Holds Up

Mrs. Hirshberg Wins Corby Golf

By Maury Fitzgerald
Washington Post Staff Writer

Mrs. Harry Hirshberg of Indian Spring captured the annual Corby Cup Tournament yesterday at Columbia Country Club with a net score of 72.

Two years ago Mrs. Hirshberg shot a gross 81 and waited around all day only to be beaten by the last player off the course. When Mrs. Hirshberg turned in her 81 yesterday the Indian Spring player said, "I should go home, somebody's sure to beat me."

But as things turned out nobody did and Mrs. Hirshberg with 81-9-72 was the winner. Her gross score included nines of 40 and 41.

Three other players also posted 81s. Rebecca Doman, former Maryland state amateur champion from Argyle, won first gross with her 81 on a match of the cards. Miss Doman was out in 36 but soared to 45 on the back.

Mrs. William Weitzen, District amateur champion from Indian Spring, took second gross with an 81. The fourth 81 shooter, Mrs. William Bennett of Chevy Chase Club, took fourth net with 81-7-74.

Mrs. Robert Anderlik of Springfield carried off second net with 84-11-73, beating Mrs. Richard Wilson, wife of the Lakewood Country Club professional, on a card match. Mrs. Wilson took third net with 84-11-73.

Mrs. W. F. Gallogly of Army Navy took fifth net with 85-11-74. Other prize winners were, Pat Blanche, Manor, 86-11-75; Mrs. Howard Lady, Washington, 88-13-75; Mrs. Philip Evans, Chevy Chase, 88-13-75; Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda, 82-6-76; Mrs. A. S. String of 83s Pays Off for Mrs. Verell

Mrs. T. J. Verell has served notice that she's once again a contender for the important women's golf championships in the area, but she didn't expect a flock of 83 scores to scare anyone.

Mrs. Verell from Belle Haven, the former Ruth Ann Peterson, shot 83 last week in the Class A Star Cup at Bethesda but her net 71 was good for sixth prize. Tuesday and yesterday she did it twice more at Congressional and walked off with the Payne Cup against 65 other contestants in the annual tournament.

Mrs. Jay Cone, the Maryland State champion from Bethesda, came in with the event's best round by four strokes, a 40-38-78, for a two-day total of 167. Minutes later Mrs. Verell reported in with her second successive 42-83 for 166 to win.

One-Hole Playoff Provides Victory For Mrs. Madden

The annual President's Plate tournament is held for the benefit of workers and officials in the Women's District Golf Association, but the leading scorers yesterday at Brooke Manor would have done credit to any regular event on the WDGA schedule.

Defending Champion Bows to Mrs. Wilson

By STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

She probably wouldn't advise it as a cure-all remedy, but Mrs. Dick Wilson is playing better golf since she got hit by a truck.

As the wife of the head pro at Lakewood Country Club, Mrs. Wilson gets all the lessons she wants, but recently a bad back has limited her activity.

Being backed into by a panel truck while walking near a ski lodge last winter didn't really help her back, but it didn't hurt it much and that's when she knew she could play golf this summer. Fortunately, her husband was holding her hand and pulled her away from the full impact.

She skipped a few one-day tournaments, but came on strong yesterday in the Women's District Amateur by knocking off defending champion Mrs. Ned Looney of Army Navy with a par on the 19th hole.

Today she faces another formidable rival in Mrs. William Weitzen, a good darkhorse bet in this week-long event.

Mrs. Weitzen, medalist two years ago, is playing on her home course where she has won the club championship 10 times. She is hitting the ball well this week, according to pro Charley Bassler, and no one in the field knows the course better.

Mrs. Wilson pulled the only surprise of the first round. Medalist Mrs. Jay Cone was extended to the final hole before edging former champion Mrs. Rebecca Doman and Mrs. John Daddio eased by Mrs. D. K. Holman, 2 and 1.

In the top match today, Mrs. Roland Bryant, a two-time finalist, faced Mrs. Cone, to whom she has never lost.

Championship results:

Mrs. Dick Wilson, Lakewood, def. Mrs. Ned Looney, Army Navy 1 up, 19 holes.
Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring, def. Mrs. Morris Zuckerman, Indian Spring 4 and 3.
Mrs. John Daddio, Prince Georges, def. Mrs. D. K. Holman, CC of Fairfax 2 and 1.
Mrs. J. P. Smyth, Congressional, def. Mrs. Lloyd Dennis, Washington GCC 1 up.
Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda, def. Rebecca Doman, Argyle, 1 up.
Mrs. Roland Bryant, CC of Fairfax, def. Mrs. R. A. Chapman, Army Navy 3 and 2.
Mrs. Frank Cush, Argyle, def. Mrs. K. S. Whittemore, Army Navy, 4 and 2.
Mrs. Jackson Verell, Belle Haven, def. Mrs. Paul Dean, Brooke Manor, 1 up 19 holes.

TRANS CHAMPIONSHIP

STORY AND PHOTOGRAPHS BY DOROTHY PEASE

Following victory came the champagne (left) as 1969 Trans Champion Jane Bastanchury pours for 1970 Trans Champion Martha Wilkinson. Later, Martha received additional liquid refreshment when fully clothed, she was tossed in the Manor Country Club pool. Right, She makes a triumphant climb out. Center, Mrs. Robert Brandt, Trans Director, and her outstanding work of art — the Trans purple and white scoreboard.

Miss Martha Wilkinson, Anaheim, California, won the 1970 TRANS national championship at Manor Country Club in Rockville, Maryland.

In 1968 Martha was Finalist to Carole Jo Skala in Battle Creek, Michigan. At Midland, Texas, in 1969, Martha was again Finalist, losing on the 37th hole to her friend, Jane Bastanchury.

This year, Martha made it! She qualified with a 77 and won all her matches with large margins. The 36-hole finals found two 1970 Curtis Cup Team members as opponents — Martha and 17 year old Nancy Hager of Dallas, Texas. Nancy qualified with an 80 and also easily won her way into the finals. Exhausted defending champion Miss Jane Bastanchury was defeated in the first round by Mrs. Richard Canney of Centreville, Virginia, on the 19th hole. Mrs. Canney was a Junior star golfer (Sawyer) in Michigan. Both players scored one over par in this match.

Jane Bastanchury won for the second straight year the Women's Western in Rockford, Illinois on Saturday, July 25. She flew to TRANS on Sunday and qualified one over par with a 74 on Monday without a practice round. Jane had won for the third consecutive year the Broadmoor, the week prior to the Western; had played well in the U. S. Women's Open the week prior to Broadmoor, and the week before that had been Finalist in the Intercollegiate. She WAS a fatigued young lady.

A most surprised and thrilled young lady was Jane Bastanchury when she received a letter from President Richard Nixon. President Nixon worded his letter to Jane, as one Whittier, California golfer to another. He extended congratulations to Jane on winning again the Women's Western and good luck in the TRANS and other upcoming championships.

Semi-finalist Miss Carol Semple, Sewickley, Pennsylvania, was forced to the 19th hole in her third match with Miss Paula Brophy of Brighton, Massachusetts, and again in her fourth match with Miss Lancy Smith of Snyder, New York. Carol lost to Nancy Hager 2 and 1 in the Semis.

Another semi-finalist, Miss Debbie Rhodes of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina, defeated Miss Jane Fassinger, one up, in the first round — then sidelined Mrs. Canney in her second match, who had ousted Jane Bastanchury the day before. Debbie gained the semis with a one up victory over Miss Noni Schneider of Sacramento, California, in the fourth round.

Nancy Hager was 7 over par in Qualifying. She was 5 over in her five matches to the finals and 8 over in the 36-hole Finals.

Martha Wilkinson was 4 over par in Qualifying and 3 under for her five matches to gain the finals. She was 3 over in the 36-hole Finals.

Co-medalist Mrs. William Mahan of Corpus Christi, Texas, was Jr. medalist in 1959, when she was Miss Martha Painter. She is Trans Texas state representative.

TRANS has initiated a Players Council. Mrs. Williams Syms of Black Forest, Colorado, was appointed chairman by the Executive Board, and the players elected their six council members at the Players meeting the day prior to Qualifying.

The players will act as good will ambassadors for the TRANS and will convey the player's viewpoint to the Executive Board through Mrs. Syms, who will act as liaison officer. Player Council members are: Jane Bastanchury, Martha Wilkinson, Cynthia Hill, Carol Semple, Lancy Smith and Mrs. Mark Porter.

Manor Country Club ladies under the direction of their general chairman, Mrs. A. Wayne Braden, performed an outstanding job in entertaining the Trans. All of their preparations made the work of the Trans Executive Board much easier to accomplish during Trans Week.

Manor Country Club has extra copies of the 1970 Trans-Mississippi Golf Annual for sale. The Annual contains over 100 pages of pictures and information of lady golf champions and of the state of Maryland. Maryland is publicized as the United States in miniature. IT'S JANE AGAIN!

in 70th Consecutive Women's Western Championship

JANE BASTANCHURY

In a lop-sided 36 hole finals, Jane Bastanchury defeated Shirley Dommers (Mrs. Paul) of Belvidere, Illinois, 10 & 8, to win her second straight Women's Western Golf Association title.

Twenty-two year old Jane carded two birdies on the first 18 to lead 6 up and shot three more birdies before closing out the match on the 28th hole.

This was Shirley's first appearance in the finals of a major championship. Wife of an M.D. and a mother, Shirley does not follow the tournament trail. She has won the Illinois state title four times including the 1970 one.

Shooting one over par 75's, Jane and Cynthia Hill — both Curtis Cup players — led the Qualifying field over the 6,346 yard Rockford Country Club course in Rockford, Illinois. Former Western Champion — also British and TRANS champion — Mrs. William Flenniken (Carol Sorenson) of Golden, Colorado, was next with a 76. Bonnie Lauer, Union Lake, Michigan and Fee Fee Mathews, Portsmouth, Ohio, followed with 77's. Shirley Dommers shot a 78.

Tied for the 32nd spot in championship flight were 5 players posting 84's for three spots. The playoff was won by Lucille Smith, JoAnne Weinheimer, and Julie Savoy. Susan Harmon and Marcella Rose were the unlucky ones.

Only three of the five Curtis Cup team members entered made championship flight: Jane Bastanchury, Cindy Hills, and Martha Wilkinson. Janey Fassinger and Mrs. Paul Dye, Jr. did not. Hollis Stacy, who qualified with an 83, had to default her first match after injuring her hand while blasting out of a heavy bunker.

An upset in the second round was Cindy Hill defeated by Lynn Zmistski, one up. Later Cindy said, "I lost the second round in the Broadmoor, too, and have a mental thing now about second round matches!" Lynn was ousted the next day in a hard-fought match with Shirley Dommers on the 19th hole.

Jane Bastanchury and Martha Wilkinson met in the semi-finals. Jane posted an even par 74 to Martha's 75 and they were all even. It took a birdie 4 on the 19th for Jane to win over Martha's par 5.

Shirley Dommers had an easier semis match, winning 3 & 2 over Melanie Schiller of Waterloo, Iowa.

SOMEBODY STOLE MY BALL

Somebody stole my ball!
Somebody's got some gall!
Somebody came and took it away,
There's no use lookin'
But trouble's cookin'.....

I miss that golf ball so.
Why did it have to go?
Oh, gee! If you should see
That little ball behind a tree,
Won't you send it right back to me?

Somebody stole my golf ball from me.....
Somebody stole my ball!

HAS ANYBODY SEEN MY BALL? (Tune: Five Foot Two)

My Spaulding Dot....meant a lot,
I lost it when I shanked a shot,
Has anybody seen my ball?

A smile or two....a dot of blue,
It's not that mushroom in the dew,
Has anybody seen my ball?

It hit a tree and bounced toward me
Out on number four.
I took a look in the brook
But can't find what I'm searching for.

My Spaulding Dot....meant a lot,
'Cause it's the best ball that I've got.
Has anybody seen my ball?

WOULDN'T IT BE LOVERLY?

Lots of trophies for us to win,
Pots of silver instead of tin,
Pie plates, punch bowls, ash trays, too,
Wouldn't it be lovely?

Winning golf balls each Tuesday morn,
Looks of envy that once were scorn,
Matches played with gallery,
Wouldn't it be lovely?

Golf games played in another city
with admiring crowds
Watching, wond'ring how I got this beautiful swing of mine.

Just one putt on each 18 holes
Stroking gently with breaks and rolls;
Left arm straight, shifting weight,
Wouldn't it be lovely?....lovely?....
lovely?

WE COULD HAVE PLAYED ALL DAY

We could have played all day,
We could have played all day,
And then have played some more.
We could have changed our swings,
And done a thousand things
We've never done before.
We'll never know what made it so exciting,
Why all at once the ball took flight.
We only know our game will never be the same,
We could have played, played, played all day.

Scene: The First Tee

HEY, LOOK 'EM OVER!

Hey, look 'em over, the golfin' dames are here
Prancin' in the paddock for the Trans-Miss Cup this year!

Fillies of the fairways, never in the rough,
Racin' down the stretch when the competition's tough.

They'll be far off the tee and swingin' for show,
Chippin' up for birdies, puttin' for the dough.
There's a big field for the Trans, like the National, this year,
And we're darned glad you're all here.

WE'VE GROWN ACCUSTOMED TO HER SLICE

We've grown accustomed to her slice,
That's the way her game begins.
We've grown accustomed to her sin
Of hitting outside in.
She looks, she hooks....she'll never win.

It's second nature to her now
This swaying back and lunging in,
Chasing squirrels from tree-tops,
Dabbling in the brook,
Wiggle-wagglin' with her hips
To get that golfer's look!

We've grown accustomed to her slice,
Accustomed to her hook,
Accustomed to her game!

SHE'S JUST A DUFFER

(Tune: Me and My Shadow)

She's just a duffer every time she hits a shot.
She's just a shanker. Lordy knows, she surely shanks a lot.
And when she's in the rough, we find it tough.
One thing is sure, each shot she'll muff, 'cause
She's just a duffer,
A duffin', shankin' kind of dame.

TIPTOE DOWN THE FAIRWAY

Tiptoe down the fairway
Through the sand trap
And upon the green,
Come tiptoe 'round the golf course with me.

Tiptoe through the bunkers,
Into hazards
Where her ball will be.
Come tiptoe 'round the golf course with me.

Knee deep in rough we will stray,
And try to keep gnats away.
So please come

Tiptoe down the fairway,
'Round the tree trunks
Where the squirrels all play,
Come tiptoe on a fine golfing day.

A SAND WEDGE IS THE DUFFER'S FRIEND

When trapped in the sand,
It is quite fundamental--

A sand wedge is the duffer's friend.
A wood may be grand,
But it's inconsequential
In a bunker high,
Or blasting from a lousy lie.

When grass is tough, out in the rough,
There is one club on which you depend:

A short-shafted, flat-chested club with the right face,
A sand wedge is the duffer's friend.

When trapped in the sand,
It is quite fundamental--

A sand wedge is the duffer's friend.
A wood may be grand,
But it's inconsequential
In a bunker high,
Or blasting from a lousy lie.

And when you pitch out of a ditch,
There is one club on which you depend:

A foot wedge, a hand wedge, a club with the right edge,
A sand wedge is the duffer's friend.

THE SWING'S THE THING

(Tune: The Rains in Spain)

The swing's the thing and don't forget the derriere.

Back on the heels, but do not leave the area.
Keep down that lousy head,
Check your grip, pivot hip,
Hit down and through the ball,
Hit fair and square.
A waggle-squat will help a lot to win
the game.

So wiggle-waggle and you'll be a golfing dame!

GIVE HER A LITTLE PUTT

(Tune: Gimme a Little Kiss)

Give her a little putt, will ya, huh?
Just a little putt, will ya, huh?
Gosh, oh, gee! How's she gonna score?
With four-putt greens, her handicap'll soar!
Give her a little putt, will ya, huh?
Why do you wanna make her blue?

She lets you call it practice when you whiff
upon the tee.
She even looks away when you are stymied by a tree.

So, give her a little putt, will ya, huh?
And she'll give a six-footer to you,
I promise,
She'll give that six-footer to you.

ODE TO A GOLF COURSE (Recitation)

How do I play thee?
Let me count the ways.....

I play thee from the sand traps
That bar me from the greens.
I play thee from the mud holes
That border all the streams.
I play thee from the fairways
And hit them straight and true,
But often times I hit a shot
That makes me feel so blue.
I play thee with a passion
That fills my heart with fire.

No matter how I play thee,
Thy PAR is my desire.

GOLFER

(Tune: Mother Means the World To Me)

G is for the good shots, how she loves them.
O is for the ones that aren't so hot.
L is for the lies that give her tantrums.
F is for the fun and there's a lot.
E is for the easy putts, so many.
R is for the rough that makes her cross.

Put them all together, they spell GOLFER,
The dame who plays the game with us!

THERE IS NOTHING LIKE A DAME

We got golfers who ain't duffers.
We got gals who really score.
We got misses in the Trans-Miss
Who can make the galleries roar.
We got harmony for singers.
We got lots of fun and games.
What have we got?
Lots of dames!

We got dames who know how to use wedges and putters!
We got dames with swings like which there ain't any others!

There is nothing like their games,
Nothing in this world.
There is nothing you can name
That is anything like these dames!

We got winners of the Eastern.
We got champions from the West.
We got gals who won the Open,
Of the amateurs the best!
We got sluggers from the Southern,
And of Mid-Atlantic fame.
What have we got?
Golfing dames.

We got dames with trophies women golfers long for!
We got dames with shapes the men are strong for!

There is nothing like a dame,
Nothing in this world.
There is nothing you can name
Like a par-shootin', golfin' dame!

GET ME TO THE TEE ON TIME

We're gettin' slaughtered in the morning,
Ding, dong, the alarm clock's gonna chime...
Roll out the body, drink down a toddy,
But get us to the tee on time.

We've got to be there in the morning,
Drink up and have a gin and lime,
Join in the chorus, it's dandy for us,
But get us to the tee on time.

If we could play now, we'd really go,
Score under par now and we'll win the dough.

We're gettin' slaughtered in the morning,
Our shankin' and slicin' is a crime,
So bring on the whiskey! We're feelin' frisky.
But get us to the tee, get us to the tee,
Be sure to get us to the tee on time!

HERE'S THE PRO

(Tune: Bless 'Em All)

Here's the Pro, Here's the Pro!
He's sure makin' all kinds of dough.

I've just upped the prices
On all kinds of balls,
My gloves are too tight,
And the shorts are too small.

Here's the Pro, Here's the Pro!
We wish that his carts would all go;
But they keep on stoppin'
And leave us all hoppin'
And that's how our Pro makes his dough.

BY THE TREE (Tune: By the Sea)

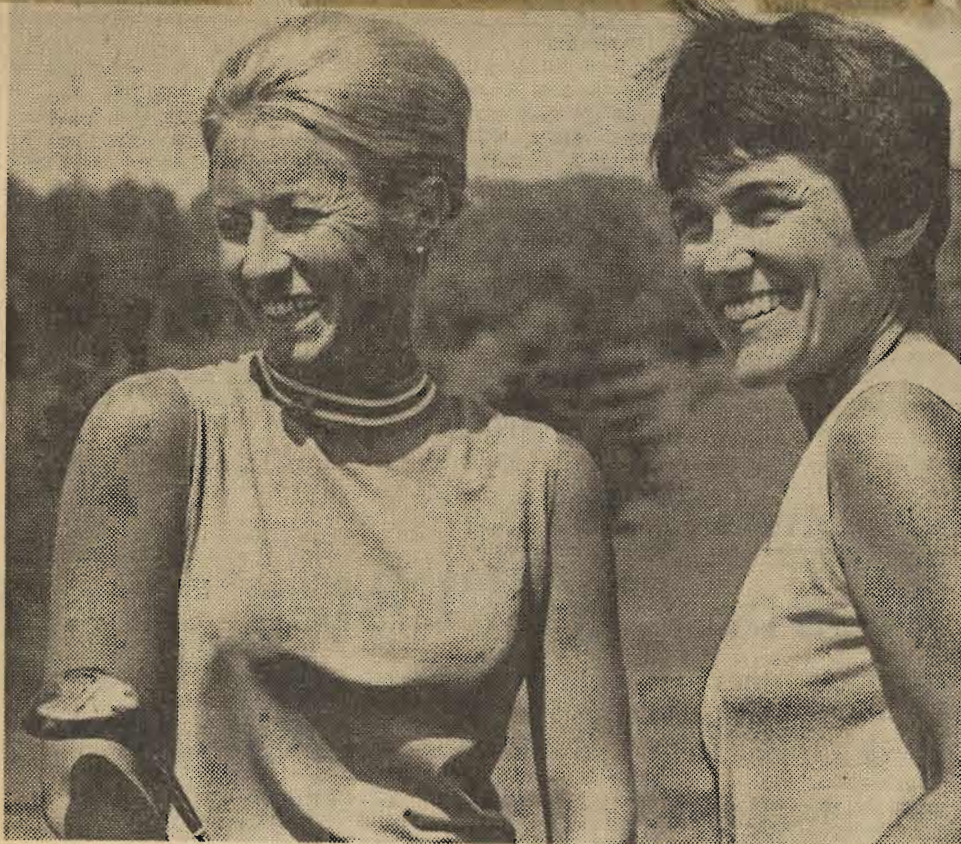

By the tree, by the tree,
By the beautiful tree,
Can't you see, can't you see
How unhappy are we.
What made me slice I will never know;
I swung just right, but then it curled
And away I go.....

By the tree, by the tree,
By the beautiful tree,
Out of bounds in our rounds
And the penalty's three.
I hit that shot with a three iron club.
It hit the tree with an awful thud,
By the tree trunk,
By the beautiful tree.

YOU TELL ME YOUR SCORE

You tell me your score,
I'll tell you mine.
Mine was the best score
Because I played divine.....ly.

Come, duffer, tell me,
Now is the time,
You tell me your score
And I....will tell you mine.

Mrs. John Daddio (left) and Mrs. Jay Cone get together after finishing one-two in the qualifying for the District golf championship yesterday at Indian Spring. Mrs. Cone led with 76.

DISTRICT AMATEUR

Steady Mrs. Cone Leads Qualifiers

By STEVE HERSHEY
Star Staff Writer

Apparently Mrs. Jay Cone is ready for another monotonous week on the fairways.

The attractive Bethesda Country Clubber, who used her steady short game to win the Maryland State Amateur title last week showed she's still in the groove by patting it around in 76 yesterday to win medalist honors in the Women's District championship at Indian Spring.

"Trouble? No. I guess I wasn't in any," she smiled, then added, "Oh, I did get in a trap on 16, but I made my par."

There wasn't even the threat of a double bogey as she breezed around the par 71 Big Chief course with two 38s, including a birdie on each side.

One of the four threes on her card came at the 350-yard 14th when she ran in a 35-footer.

A frustrated second was Mrs. John Daddio, the long-hitting blonde from Prince Georges who was disappointed by Mrs. Cone in last Saturday's finals of the Maryland State.

As usual, Mrs. Daddio far outdistanced her rivals off the tee, but as many long-hitters painfully discover, the short game usually is the deciding factor.

Mrs. Daddio blew her chance for a tie for the medal less than 50 feet from the pin. Her short iron to her last green found a trap and it took her four to get down for a double bogey and 78.

If Mrs. Cone and Mrs. Daddio are to meet again this week, it will have to be in the finals. They are in separate brackets in today's first round.

Despite their low scores, both drew rugged opponents. Mrs. Cone faced Rebecca Doman, a former champion, while Mrs. Daddio played Mrs. D. K. Holman, a 7-handicapper from Country Club of Fairfax who reached the finals five years ago and always is a threat.

Defending champion Mrs. Ned Looney of Army Navy was exempt from qualifying and didn't even show up for a practice round. She played Mrs. Dick Wilson, wife of the pro at Lakewood Country Club, who qualified with 83.

Mrs. Paul Dean of Brooke Manor ran in a 20-foot downhill putt for a par to join Mrs. Lloyd Dennis of Washington GCC in the last two berths.

Mrs. Ned Looney, Army Navy (automatic) vs. Mrs. Dick Wilson, Lakewood (83). Mrs. William Weitzen, Indian Spring (81) vs. Mrs. Morris Zuckerman, Indian Spring (84). Mrs. John Daddio, Prince Georges (78) vs. Mrs. D. K. Holman, CC of Fairfax (83). Mrs. J. P. Smyth, Congressional (82) vs. Mrs. Lloyd Dennis, Washington GCC (85).

Mrs. Jay Cone, Bethesda (76) vs. Rebecca Doman, Brooke Manor (83). Mrs. Roland Bryant, CC of Fairfax (81) vs. Mrs. R. A. Chapman, Army Navy (84). Mrs. Frank Cuth, Argyle (79) vs. Mrs. K. S. Whittemore, Army Navy (84). Mrs. T. Jackson Vereb, Belle Haven (82) vs. Mrs. Paul Dean, Brooke Manor (85).

Before Nelson's triumph at Trafalgar, we were a Tradition.

Wherever you travel, look for this label. It's your assurance of world-renowned quality.

We made it great. You made it famous.

White Horse Scotch

To all my golfing friends.

And now I hope that in this fall,
There'll be sweet memories for all.
It's win or lose, it doesn't matter
Next year one always can do better!

It was a joy to keep this book
So all can have a second look -
And then with happiness recall
The joy which GOLF brought to us all!!

See you next spring! (dingeling!)

Ankie

Until the dogwoods
bloom again
I'm pushing the old broom again and dream of Golf!
