Thank You to Maggie

Maggie, We would all like to thank you for your service to The Women's District of Columbia Golf Association.

Your years as a volunteer are well noted. From serving as the Representative for Congressional Country Club through your terms as Treasurer, Secretary, Vice President and finally as President, we have been impressed by your willingness to put forth the effort it takes to manage this organization. It is truly like running a small business. Your work ethic is scary! When you started this trek, I'll bet you had no idea the number of hours that would be involved.

As association members we have admired your organizational skills, your leadership abilities and your forward thinking. You established a system to archive our records. You are the queen of excel spread sheets. You reorganized our financial models so those of us without a financial background could better understand the data.

Your understanding of the importance of the WDCGA's history has lead to preserving that history in an Interactive Tournament Database. Thanks to your foresight, our many scrapbooks have been saved in a digital format. The formatting will permanently preserved them and will allow our membership to view them on our website.

You are an accomplished golfer. I checked and your handicap has come down since you came on the board. Who says you can't volunteer and play good golf?

You have represented us well on and off the golf course. Not only by representing the WDCGA at Regional and National conferences but also by playing in various Maryland State and USGA Championships.

You are one of the most gracious people I know. Whether you are listening to a member offer suggestions on how we could improve an event or you are acknowledging a tournament winner your Carolina charm shines through.

You are a role model for many. I hope you know how much this membership admires you. Not just your golfing ability but also the easy manner in which you have carried out the office of President.

But, most of all, you have been a good friend to us all.

Please enjoy this gift from the WDCGA membership and remember us fondly.
